Jason Belmonte Wins Best Bowler ESPY For Second Time

LOS ANGELES (July 15, 2015) -- Two-time defending PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte of Australia won the Best Bowler ESPY Award for the second time during the 2015 ESPY Awards ceremony Wednesday evening at the Microsoft Theater in Los Angeles.

Belmonte, who won his first ESPY Award in 2011, was among winners in a variety of sports and special moment categories that were determined by fan voting on espn.com with the winners announced during the ESPY Awards ceremony telecast on ABC.

In 2015, Belmonte won the United States Bowling Congress Masters for an unprecedented third consecutive year and successfully defended his Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions title for his fifth career major and boosting his career win total to 12.

He also has five other top-five finishes this year including runnerup finishes in the Oklahoma Open and Maine Xtra Frame Shootout.

Also nominated for the ESPY were PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J. and Mike Fagan of Fort Worth, Texas. Bohn won the PBA Players Championship for his 34th career PBA Tour title. He had two other top-10 finishes including an eighth-place finish in the Barbasol PBA Tournament of Champions and 10th in the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman Doubles Championship with partner Ryan Ciminelli.

Fagan won the PBA World Championship for his fifth career title and second major. He also had three other top-10 finishes including second in the Japan Invitational and sixth in the Bahrain International and Badger Opens.

"I'm absolutely delighted to have won my second ESPY," said Belmonte. "The ESPY is all up to the fans. I am so thankful to all my fans who voted for me. I truly believe I have such an amazing fan base and they make what I do so much more fun.

"Congratulations to Mike and Parker on their nominations and thank you to the PBA for giving us a stage which we love to perform on. Once again, I have to thank all the fans for voting me this year's 'Best Bowler'."

Citrus Belt Inducts Five Into Hall of Fame

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — The Citrus Belt hosted it's annual Hall of Fame dinner and induction ceremony last Saturday. The affair was ably organized by Phosie Lotze and Nita Schmidt and held at the Elk's Lodge. A crowd of over 100 friends, family, association officers, Hall of Famers and inductees were present as President Mike Raddeman addressed the gathering and then turned the floor over to Curt Snyder, the nights Master of Ceremonies.

Snyder, a long time Hall of Fame member, was eloquent as usual and presided over the introduction of all present of 2015: Butch Hesketh, Lonnie Ritchey, Vance Sisk, John Valentine Jr., and Sharon Vollan.

Butch Hesketh was the consummate bowling coach and pro shop operator. Over the years he mentored dozens of young bowlers and was always available when they needed him. Butch's most notable student and protégé was Vince Wood of 900 fame. Butch began working with Vince when Wood was just fourteen.

Lonnie Ritchey is one of the best bowlers ever to compete in Moreno Valley. Lonnie has a composite average of 218 for the past 23 years. During that period Lonnie rolled 22 perfect games and five 800s with a high of 827.

Vance Sisk has a remarkable 93 ABC/USBC achievement awards including 29 perfect games, 22 eight hundreds with a high of 868. Vance has numerous tournament wins including a PBA Regional title, a California State team title, and Citrus Belt Masters and All Events titles. In 2005 Vance led the association in average with a 242 book.

John Valentine Jr. may have been the Citrus Belt's first bowler to roll a ball without using a thumb hole. At the urging of teammate Vance Sisk (the same Vance Sisk above) John started bowling "thumb-less" about 25 years ago. Do you know of anyone else in the Citrus Belt bowling thumbless as early as 1990? Anyway, John has 45 perfect games and twenty eight 800s. He has five Citrus Belt tournament titles and holds the Citrus Belt All Events record of 2,289 (254 nine game average).

Sharon Vollan is a woman who ran with the wolves and won. She competed against the guys and won. She beat the guys. For over twenty years Sharon has averaged over 200. She has rolled five perfect games and several 800s. Better yet Sharon is one of the toughest competitors I know. She bowls to win, never gives up and enjoys beating the guys. It was a night to remember. Why don't you attend next year and be a part of Citrus Belt history.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

A STRANGE PHENOMENON

Can injury make you a better bowler? While the premise sounds far-fetched, there is evidence indicating some truth to this. My theory has always been that soreness of any kind slows a bowler’s approach and breaks the habit of throwing too hard. Pain makes bowlers more thoughtful. Thoughtful bowlers are more deliberate and accurate.

Unfortunately, gimpy knees and sore backs are temporary complaints which result in short-term fixes to certain technical issues. When the ache is gone, reliance on skill usually goes with it. I’ve seen this play out many times and that’s a shame. But what if the problem is more than a mere crick in the neck?

The year is 1999. Jeff McKinley, self-employed plumber, avid bowler and all around nice guy, falls through a ceiling and lands in a toilet. That would be hilarious on a TV sitcom, but not so much in real life. Averaging 205 at the time, he is forced to stop bowling. He’d suffered a critical back injury which required surgery to repair.

Guys like Jeff aren’t prone to knitting doilies, so of course he worked hard to get back to the sport he loved - probably against the advice of his doctors. After considerable rehab, he returned to bowling and averaged 215. What do doctors know?

Life was good.....until 2004. This time he fell off a roof! Landing on his right side, his shoulder was severely dislocated and ankle.....S-H-A-T-T-E-R-E-D! Lying on the ground in agony, his only thought was, “At least it’s not my sliding foot!”

Plates and screws were installed to hold his ankle together. His shoulder was put back in place and immobilized for two weeks. No problem, right? WRONG!!! Inactivity allowed adhesions to form in the shoulder. This required a medical procedure called, “Manipulation.”

While that sounds benign.....it’s not! Manipulation involves lying on a table while a physician pulls and twists your arm so severely that the scar tissue adhesions are literally torn apart. Sedation would be nice; physical rehab, required. You really have to love bowling to go through that, and Jeff does. After successful therapy, his average climbed to 225.

Today, Jeff averages 230. Did another catastrophe contribute to that? No. This time, his soaring average may be aided by the universal scourge called “The Aging Process.” It brings all sorts of long term aches and pains. Can that make anyone a better bowler? Perhaps.

Here’s my thought about that: LIFE’S JUST NOT FAIR!!! For years I studied techniques, principles and the truths about bowling in an attempt to become a respectable bowler. It seems all I really needed to do was step in front of a moving bus!

All joking aside, it’s Jeff’s work ethic and passion for this game that are responsible for his success. Because of that, there’s no doubt in my mind that he will someday be a local bowling legend* (if he isn’t already). Whether he’ll be remembered as “Gentleman Jeff,” “The Comeback Kid,” or some other nickname only time will tell.

I can only say that either of the above would be appropriate. I’ve never seen him angry. He’s a mild-mannered but intense competitor. The only time the smile leaves his face is when he’s up on the approach.

There is nothing fancy about either his delivery or the action of his ball, but then, there never was. His technique is solid, consistent and produces a straight down-and-in shot with modest hook at the tail end. It always has. Typically, when his ball enters the pit, ten pins accompany it. For him, there is nothing unusual about that either.

In fact, watching him today is the same as twenty years ago. His technique shows no indication of what he’s been through. I just hope Mr. McKinley never takes up skydiving. Accident prone as he is, if his chute ever failed to open, I’m afraid he’d end up averaging 259, and that just wouldn’t be fair to the rest of us!

*In 2009, Jeff was nominated for induction into Erie’s local bowlers Hall-of-Fame. He gained admission in the first round of voting. Considering the number of PBA champions enshrined there, that’s impressive!

Kimberly Power Relishes Winning Experience in Sacramento Open

by Fred Eisenhammer

CITRUS HEIGHTS – Kimberly Power of San Leandro, Calif., didn’t win the Sacramento Open earlier this month. Nor did she reach the stepladder finals.

But everything else went pretty much according to plan for the 47-year-old right-hander. Power posted the highest qualifying score of all the California bowlers and was one of only two from the Golden State to advance to match play at Steve Cook’s Fireside Lanes.

She finished the qualifying session in eighth place overall among the 80 total entrants with the top 16 bowlers advancing. Twenty-seven California bowlers – many of them Hall of Famers – took part in the competition and only Power and Missy Parkin of Laguna Hills (11th in qualifying) advanced to match play.

Power wound up finishing 15th, winning $1,550. “I enjoyed the tournament immensely,” Power said.

It was somewhat of a surprise that Power finished atop the list of more well-known and star-studded California bowlers, but Power was confident entering the tournament.

“I thought I was likely to cash going in,” said Power, who has rolled four sanctioned perfect games and a 794 series. “I had cashed in [the 2014] Queens, so I knew I could do that. Making match play was a pleasant surprise, especially being all the way up in eighth.”

Power advanced to match play with a 213.58 average for the 12 qualifying games. Kristina Wendell of Kingston, N.Y., who was part of Power’s five-player qualifying group, was the top qualifier with a 229.22 average.

“I absolutely loved the group I got to bowl qualifying with – Kristina Wendell, Danielle Daugherty, Lindsay Boomershine, Allie Ijams,” Power posted on her Facebook page. “Would love to be paired with all of you again. Maybe at Queens next year.

“I am also fairly certain we had the tallest group in the tournament. It was almost like they decided to put all the tall ones together.”

The Sacramento Open was the first regular-season event on the PWBA Tour in more than a dozen years. There is a full schedule of PWBA events to come for the rest of the year, but Power said she was going to sit them all out.

“This is my one and only [PWBA event] for the year,” Power said. “No time to make any of the other stops. Didn’t bowl Queens [in May] and can’t make time for the [U.S.] Open [in late August].”

Power, by no means, plans to curtail her bowling activities. “I have put a lot of work into my game in the last 5-10 years. Me five years ago would never have cashed in the [Sacramento Open],” said Power, who has not joined the PWBA so is officially an amateur.

“I have bowled a lot of stuff in recent years. Gradually getting better by practice, coaching and experience. I still have a long way to go, though. Doubt I can ever really catch up to the skill of the top pros.

“I am good enough to make a good showing and possibly pop off a surprise finish but still not good enough to win multiple titles yet.”

Her biggest highlight? Power cited being part of the winning United States Bowling Congress 2012 national championship women’s team in Reno.

But she said advancing to match play in the Sacramento Open ranked high on her highlight list. Having her parents watch her performance made it special, she said.

“I think I may have enjoyed the [Sacramento Open] the most as I now know so many more people and with it being local, I had a large number of fan support as well as both of my parents were there.

“I know that seems funny, me almost a senior, and my parents coming to watch, but I never got into the top levels of bowling until the last few years – even though I’ve bowled my entire life.

“It was fun having [my parents] there,” Power said. “I always had a fan even when I was bowling bad.”

Nor was Power ruffled when she noticed that she was incorrectly cited as a senior (50 and older) on the PWBA official score sheets. A letter “s” appeared on the scores next to her name.

“I honestly did not know how it happened,” she said. “I first thought it was an odd letter to use to denote a non-member since all the PBA sheets always denote the non-members.”

Even though Power has no plans to bowl any more PWBA events this year, Daugherty – who was part of her qualifying team – came away impressed. “Kimberly is a really good bowler,” said Daugherty, who made her pro debut. “She’s very methodical about her shots.”

Power works as a senior engineer at Mercenary Technology in San Mateo – a job that she says “pays way too well to give up for bowling.”

But don’t count her out in forthcoming big events, she said. Said Power: “Maybe in a future year, I will be able to arrange to take time off that I would need to make a go of it – hopefully before I really am a senior!”

TYLER BAKER TO TAKE HIS BEST SHOT AT WINNING NEW CAR

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA — Tyler Baker of Calabasas believes he’s in the driver’s seat to win a new Honda Civic.

Baker, a 27-year-old resident, is one of five bowlers to reach the finals in a Los Angeles-area “Win A Honda” tournament.

The fivesome will be competing against one another for the chance to drive off in a shiny red 2015 Honda Civic. The finals will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday at Winnetka Bowl.

The finals will use a “stepladder” format in which the lowest-ranked bowler faces off against the second-lowest bowler. The winner of that match meets the third-lowest ranked bowler and so on. So the No. 1-seeded player needs to win only one match to win the title, whereas the Nos. 4 and 5 players (who will meet in the opening game) need to win four matches.

Baker is seeded fourth (based on his performance in the tournament’s semifinals), so he has to win four games to win the car. Even though it appears he may be at a distinct disadvantage to, say, No. 1-seeded Kelly Manuel, Baker doesn’t see it that way.

“I’d rather climb the ladder,” said Baker, whose home bowling center is Corbin Bowl in Tarzana. “I’d rather bowl four games than one game so I know [the oil conditions of] the lanes.”

Baker had the highest scratch score of all five finalists with his three-game series during the semifinals June 28 at Winnetka Bowl. But because it’s a handicap tournament – in which all players receive extra pins based on their averages and Baker carried a higher average than the others – Baker finished in fourth place.

Still, his 801 total score (696 scratch plus 105 handicap) was enough for him to advance to the finals.

“I’m going to take it one game at a time [in the finals],” Baker said. “I just have to outscore my opponents. I’m real excited. I’m ready to bowl and I think I have a great chance.”

Baker put on a show in his first game of the semifinals, racking up strikes on his first 10 shots en route to a sizzling 289. “That got me rolling,” he said.

He needed 12 strikes for the magical perfect game score of 300. But the right-hander’s 11th shot left the 10 pin. “It wasn’t my best shot, but it should have carried [for a strike],” he said.

Tyler Baker beams after qualifying for the “Win A Honda” tournament finals at Winnetka Bowl last month. He is seeded fourth in the stepladder finals, which will take place Sunday. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer

Baker has rolled three perfect games in his career, two in 2008 and one last year. His perfect games have come at three bowling centers – AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills, Winnetka Bowl and Corbin Bowl.

“I’ve been bowling since I’ve been 11 or 12 so I’ve been doing it a long time,” Baker said. “And I’ve been coached by [elite coach] Mark Baker, who is an amazing guy.”

Baker, who averages 201, finished his semi-final series with scores of 186 and 221.

Manuel, 25, of Azusa, topped all players in the semifinals with scores of 228, 200 and 235. She averages 171 and with handicap, her total rose to 849. Mark Alvarino, 32, placed third; Patrick Manalo, 58, took fourth; and Shoji Takeshima, 48, was fifth.

Asked what he would do if he won the car, Baker said, “I’ll probably keep it. I already have a Honda Civic – a 2007. So I’d sell my old car. You can’t go wrong with a Civic. It’s really a nice car.”

LUNGSANITY Strikes as Andrew Lung Wins at Westminster Lanes

Match Game est. $3,500 • Match Series est. $1,700
Mystery Match Doubles est. at $3,100 • 3-6-9 is $2,200
ALL POTS CARRY OVER • ABTA Returns to Action Lanes, El Monte Saturday

WESTMINSTER — The ABTA enjoyed its return to Westminster Lanes and had 5 new members join us there in the ABTA event which featured a Beat the Board finals format.

On a decent condition the scores were Good taking Men +97 and Ladies +70.

In the qualifying, Anthony Jilek had a +183 to lead the men and Christina Cheung had a great +140 to lead the ladies. They will receive paid entries to their next regular event.

The Super Seniors added to the board were Gerrit Fisser +98 and Barbara Burgess, +57 to advance to the Beat the Board Finals. Where you finish in this one is where you cash.

Mr. Jilek drew the Match Series and a 673 produced no winners, so the pot carries over to Saturday estimated at $1,700. Christina drew the Mystery Match Doubles worth $2,215 and again no match so estimate the Doubles at $3,100.

The 3-6-9 Pot was worth $2,100. Steve Brode the finalist missed the pot and carries over to Action Lanes at $2,200 Saturday. He got a consolation of $100 for beer money.

The Beat The Board finals took the floor with 42 bowlers. After the first game, Andrew Lung had the lead +87, in 2nd was Louis Evans+72, one pin behind was Ramon Alliman +71, winning the side pot was Mr. Lung! Low for top 16 was +37 men and +35

Women.

Game Two, Lung still in the lead +164. Then came Louis Evans +126, Gil Gissendaner +101, and Jesse Lane +87 in 3rd. Low for top 16 was +69 Men and +67 for Women.

Game 3 saw Lung hold tight and add to his lead +196, wins the event and $1,900! Close in second til the end was Louis Evans +164 and $500 and a pretty lady Kelly Manuel finished 3rd +141, Gil Gissendaner 4th +136, Jason Ness 5th +133, John Armenia +127, Ramon Alliman +122, Jesse Lane +118, Greg Kokanour +117, Gina Velarde +117, Bill Warren +114, William Zarek 108, Jerriell Ting +106, Johnny Tran+104, Darrow Tiongco +100, Christina Cheung, finished out the top 16

We paid out 42 places and a $4,500 prize fund plus pots and optionals at Westminster and only 126 Entries due to many members out of town, Vegas and more. It was great to return to Westminster.

Our Champion Andrew Lung (a newlywed) married to ABTA member Linda Seto Lung had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $2,475. He drew 208 and NO Winners! The Pot will carry over to Action Lanes and estimated at $3,500 Saturday.

Champion Andrew Lung hails from Monterey Park, married to Linda and used a Marvel S Drilled by Arrik Torres at Covina Bowl. This is his 7th title. He is surely One of the Good Guys. Congrats Mr. Lung!

Louis Evans, Runner-up is from Corona and used a Fusuoin Drilled by Joe Staton at Upland Bowl. He's married to Angela, an ABTA Member. Kelly Manuel is from Azusa and single. She used a Roto Grip drilled by ABTA Member Chris Escueta at Oak Tree Lanes. She is a faithful ABTA member. Great to see her bowl so well at Westminster.

This Saturday we return to Action Lanes. A "One Day" with Top 16 to advance to Single Elim Finals. Squads will be at 1 PM, 2:30 PM, 4 PM, and final squad at 6 PM. Semi-finals at 8:00 PM. Top 16 to follow.

This is another nice center that hosts the ABTA. Aug. 1 we return to CAL Bowl in Lakewood. Aug. 8th to Oak Tree Lanes in Diamond Bar. Aug. 15 Covina Bowl. Aug. 22 FROZEN Handicap Event at West Covina Lanes. Aug. 29 a BYE and The Big One Sept. 3-4-5-6 at CAL Bowl for our BIG LABOR DAY EVENT. $12,000 1st with Bonuses and $ 5,000 1st Guaranteed.

It was so nice to return to Westminster ! Thanks to Mike and Staff for hosting us.

We hope to return there soon.

Join us at Action Lanes Saturday. The center is located at 10534 Lower Azusa Rd in El Monte. The phone there is 626-350-8831..Check in Early Please. For more information call 562-868-7164 . WINNETKA – How did you like the change in weather over the weekend? I think the Rain Dance did the trick. It poured buckets and buckets of rain and even loud sounds of thunder and lightning in my area. It was great to hear the sound of rain falling into the gutters and filling the planters with all that rain, I don't think the plants knew what to do. The rain was coming down so fast even my brown lawn was forming pools of its own. Now everything will look clean and green.

It's time to report the high scores from the bowlers here at Winnetka Bowl.

Phil-Am: Raul Ventenilla 253/655, Louella Tumalian 199/518, James Osborne 279/638, Kenneth Loja 242/637 Gilbert Molina 232/599, Tim Santos 562, Rey Caballero 215.

SO CAL 590 CLASSIC MEETING

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM — The fall meeting for this most prestigious league is scheduled for JULY 31 AT LINBROOK BOWL at approx. 11:45AM, after conclusion of the Rocky Marsh Trios league session.

This popular league fills quickly so if you are planning to bowl, please plan to attend or have a rep of your team to secure your spot. We only have room for 20 teams!

All rules will be read so NOW is the time to voice opinions -- yea or nay for existing rules or make a motion to introduce new ones...YOUR league!!

All returning 590 Classic league bowlers will use their league ending averages, all others will use their 2015/16 books.

Application forms for the 590 Classic may be obtained from the secretary, at the desk at Linbrook or call for info 714 774-2253.

See y'all at the meeting JULY 31!!!

Pickwick Bowl

921 Riverside Dr.
Burbank, CA 91506
(818) 842-7188

by Tish

BURBANK — Saturday, August 15th, Pickwick will be the site of the Annual Secretaries Appreciation Day. I urge all league secretaries to attend and if you can't be there, send your league President or VP. In fact, send anyone you would like to represent your league bowlers and their questions. Last word was David Prange, USBC Western Region Director, will join us for the pow wow. Surely you have questions for him, I know I do!

Another important date for Pickwick is Sunday, August 16th. Pickwick will be hosting the Adult/Youth No Tap Doubles Tournament. If you have a sanctioned youth bowler that may not have an adult partner, fear not. There are many at the ready to help you out. For more information there are flyers at the desk.

Now there will be no excuses for you to miss these great events! I have given you lots of time to clear your calendars and start formulating the questions you have regarding USBC, sanctioning and your local association, NLAC. See you there! Oh yeah, did I mention lunch will be served?

Sunday Night Hdcp: (scr) Nick Gren 243, Vickie Maas 179, Sylvester Foster 708, Julieta Ward 548. (hdcp) Ryan Hinchliffe 277, Loma Afifi 241, Ron Alvarez 794, Sharon Brown 711.
