BOWL EXPO -The Trade Show

by Frank Weiler

Part 2

LAS VEGAS — Today I would like to write about some of the interesting people and innovative products I saw at this summers trade show.

For starters, I had the pleasure of meeting TONY MARTIN, Vice President of Sales for Lord Field, a company that represents Lane Masters bowling balls. Tony Martin knows bowling balls and the dynamics of ball motion. He gave me a guided tour of Lane Masters balls and weight blocks. Without leaving the booth, Tony walked me by a series of half balls, explaining the properties and characteristics of each weight block and what they will cause a bowling ball to do.

Tony discussed the benefits of each weight block with the ease of a preacher describing the gifts of the spirit or espousing the blessings of prayer. My favorite weight block was the elongated rectangular "evolution" core in the Advantage ball. The core translates to a 2.496 RG and differential of 0.053. I wish Tony were here with me to explain the advantage of the ADVANTAGE bowling ball.

Next, it was a thrill meeting Mr. JEFFREY LIND, President of LINDS Bowling Products. How often does one meet a CEO? For me it was a first. Best of all, Mr. Lind is a great guy. Success has not gone to his head. If I hadn't noticed his name tag, I wouldn't have known that he was Mr. "Numero Uno" at

by Frank Weiler

YORBA LINDA — The end is here. The end of an era. DOOMSDAY. It is THE END OF BOWLING, as we know it, in Yorba Linda. It is a sign of the times. Another bowling center is closing and the bowling industry continues to shrink.

When I was driving to Yorba Linda, to meet Jim Hornung, a sad but appropriate song came to mind. I believe it was Simon and Garfunkel who sang "they knocked down another building to make room for a parking lot." Well, those lyrics ring true today in Yorba Linda. Yorba Linda Bowl is being torn down to make room for a grocery store.

Yorba Linda Bowl opened in May 1979 when JACK MANN decided to expand his horizon's. Seventeen years later, on April Fools' Day 1996, Jim Hornung took the reins and never looked back. Since taking over Jim has made Yorba Linda Bowl "A CENTER TO REMEMBER." His personal touch not only increased business but made his center a place where bowlers wanted to bowl and staff wanted to work.

My meeting Jim confirmed what I had heard. Jim Hornung is a good man, Jim Hornung is a great man. Great because he believes in the integrity, strength and greatness of his fellow men and women. The bowling industry is better because of Jim and other bowling people like him.

Yorba Linda is a long way from Kentucky and it took Hornung two decades to find his way from bluegrass country to President Nixon's backyard.

Along the way he climbed the ladder from part timer to proprietor.

Jim left Louisville, Kentucky to join the Navy in the early 1970s.

You've heard the expression "Join the Navy and see the World," well Jim joined the Navy to see the world and ended up seeing California!

In 1976 Jim landed at Town and Country Lanes in San Diego, as night manager. He worked part time while

Pete Weber Wins Third Best Bowler ESPY Award

LOS ANGELES — PBA Hall of Famer and 2013 PBA Tournament of Champions winner Pete Weber of St. Ann, Mo., received his third Best Bowler ESPY Award Wednesday evening during the 2013 ESPY Awards ceremony at the Nokia Theater in downtown Los Angeles.

Weber was among winners in a variety of sports categories and special moments that were determined by fan voting on espn.com with the winners announced during the ESPY Awards telecast on ESPN.

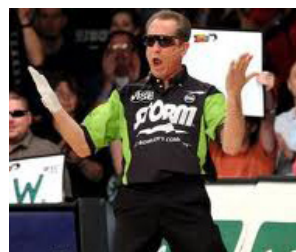

Weber, who previously won the Best Bowler ESPY in 2002 and 2004, won his second Tournament of Champions title at age 50 in April to complete the PBA's Triple Crown a second time, a feat no other bowler has accomplished. In winning his 37th career PBA Tour title, he tied Norm Duke for third on the all-time career list and tied Earl Anthony for most major titles with 10. He also has six other top-10 Tour finishes this season.

Competing as a rookie on the PBA50 Tour this season, Weber also notched his first win by capturing the USBC Senior Masters title—a PBA50 Tour major.

Weber's historic win in the Tournament of Champions marked the second consecutive season that his performance in a major made for memorable sports television. In February 2012, he won the U.S. Open and gained widespread media attention for coining the phrase — "Who do you think you are? I am," after defeating Mike Fagan 215-214 in the

The 22nd Deaflympics was originally scheduled to be in Athens, Greece but the Greece government could not guarantee anything. That caused the International Committee of Sport of the Deaf (ICSD), which is responsible for the Deaflympics to drop Greece and search for a replacement. Bulgaria Deaf Sports Organization, which held the Deaflympics at Sofia in 1993 came with its government guarantee to have the Deaflympics in Sofia with only one year of preparation.

The 1993 Deaflympics was supposed to have the sport of bowling for the first time but the ICSD officials cancelled bowling out after one look at the facilities. The new ICSD officers finds nothing wrong with the bowling venue.

the week-long tournament. After 36 total games of bowling, individual all events and national all-events champions are recognized.

BELLFLOWER — Burt started Bach's Bowling Supply in 1959. At one time he had 3 shops but finally closed one and sold one and left the one in Bellflower as his only store.

He employed between 4 to 7 people over the years. He invented the Bach Thumb Hole which is Oval in shape but also has 5 different degrees of Oval shapes. He also invented his own inserts called Mastergrips (with the patented Lockridge). The inserts are made out of real rubber.

There are also many other things this Great Man invented. He has been a great promoter of the sport and has helped more bowlers with their game then can be counted. I went to work for Burt in 1973. He moved the Business to its current location in 1975. At that time he started a Trophy Business which has also been very successful.

I bought the Business in 1983 and it continues to this day. This is a Big Loss to any one who knew Burt. For the ones who didn't, I wish you would have. He was an inspiration to all. My Heart goes out to his wife Barbara at this very difficult time. Burt was like a Dad to me and I will Love and Miss him for the rest of my life...

serving in the Navy. After his honorable discharge in 1981, Jim became Assistant Manager of Palomar Lanes in Escondido. Next came San Marco's North County Lanes, then Pinky's Cadillac Bowl in Moreno Valley. His other stops before Yorba Linda included Bowling Square in Arcadia and Carriage Lanes in Poway. Jim was now ready for bigger things.

It was time to assume the roll of proprietor. It was no joke when Jim took over Yorba Linda Bowl (Yorba) on April 1, just over seventeen years ago. Since then he has run Yorba the way bowlers would want it run. Jim's philosophy: "know your bowlers and give them what they want". To ensure that his philosophy was successfully implemented Jim got involved personally in Yorba's day to day operations. He continues to be ever present at Yorba, mingling with, listening to and bowling with his bowlers. Yes, Jim is a league bowler.

For those who want specifics, Jim's philosophy boils down to the following:

1. Maintain fair and consistent lane conditions.
2. Keep the center bright and presentable.
3. Keep the rest rooms clean.
4. Provide good service.

While I was with Jim I had a chance to meet some of his dedicated employees and loyal bowlers. "A" Mechanic TIM DAVIS has been with Jim from day one. Tim's big smile said it all. He loves working for Jim at Yorba. Desk clerk TAYLOR CLOUD echoed the same.

As I mingled I met league coordinator B. J. SCHONER, another seventeen year Yorba vet. When speaking to her I saw a smiling MARY JO ANDERSON come by to wish Jim the best. ROSE RIDDLE was next and she asked Jim for a bowling pin with his autograph. I could see the admiration these Yorba bowlers had for Mr. Hornung. All of these wonderful folks said they will miss Jim and Yorba.

My morning at Yorba will always be one of my most memorable bowling experiences. I could feel love in the air. As I and sidekick THERESE LLOYD departed I felt a tear roll slowly down my cheek. I looked to my side and could see two more tears.

A big party is planned for Yorba's closing and ELVIS (impersonator) will be in the building. The doors will close on July 31. Jim is happy to report that all his employee's have found jobs and all of his leagues have new homes. Jim has no specific future plans but is considering consulting.

Jim, I wish you the best and may GOD be with you. It was a privilege to meet you because you are a true gentleman in every sense of the word.

Also, the best to your wife and right hand woman - Betty. She should know that she is the love of your life and that you know you couldn't have succeeded without her.

Linds.

It was refreshing to meet such a genuine personality. Now I know why the Linds catalog provides Jeff's phone number and email so that any dissatisfied customer can contact him. It proves that Linds is committed to top quality products at competitive prices. Jeff told me that he is proud that Linds provides outstanding personal service, innovation and stands behind it's products.

I thought Linds just made good shoes. It surprised me to learn the company also makes bowling bags, pins, house balls, and stylish lockers.

From the Linds booth I headed to the next intersection took a left and proceeded one hundred feet and came to the FUNK INTERNATIONAL booth.

There I visited with Karl-Heintz Funk. Karl-Heintz is the son of one of Germany's premier businessmen, Karl Funk. Karl-Heintz introduced me to his STRING PINSETTER. Until Bowl Expo I had never seen a full sized string pinsetter. I had seen shuffle board sized string pinsetters before but none for a full sized bowling lane.

The principle behind the string pinsetter is the use of pins with a cord attached to the top. Pins are reset by the cord attached to the top. The cord simply pulls a toppled pin upright.

The advantages of the string pinsetter are many: simple technology, lower wear and tear, lower electrical costs, less down time and happier bowlers.

While some bowling centers are using the string pinsetter, usually the centers using them only do so on part of their lanes. Until USBC approves this innovation for certified play most proprietors will not convert to the "stringer." I spoke to USBC manager for equipment specifications, NEIL STREMMEL, about the stringer. He told me that the current configuration cannot be approved for certified play because the string attached to each pin constrain pin movement. TOO BAD, because the string pinsetter is good for business. Later on in the day I discovered that Qubica AMF has it's own version of the string pinsetter.

When I came to booth 467 I met AGNES PIVNIK of DR. WIPE. Dr. Wipe makes scientific wet wipes. The bowling ball cleaner wipes perform one-step cleaning and polishing. The wipes remove lane oil, dirt and belt marks from all types of balls. These wipes restore natural tack for optimum lane gripping reaction. They are fast drying and non-abrasive. Also, there are wipes for approaches, pins, spots, and more. THESE WIPES MAY WIPE OUT THE BALL SPINNER!

It was a blast meeting all of these bowling innovators and writing about what I saw. I look forward to sharing more of my BOWL EXPO experiences in the future.

John Licauco 2nd ABTA Win!

All Pots Carry Over - 3-6-9 will be $2,300
Match Series is $5,000 Match Game is $5,000
ABTA at Keystone Lanes Semi-Frozen HDCP Special

WHITTIER — We returned to Friendly Hills Lanes where we saw a tough but fair to all shot throughout the day. 169 entrants joined us for a fun day of bowling. The cut scores were +39 for the men and +8 for the women. The Super seniors added to the board (two men and one Woman) Leo Tartamella (who turned a big 82 on this day) +33, Sun Sundara +31, and for the women it was Estella Ventanilla +4. Super seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 42 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

The High qualifiers for the tournament, Chris Marquez for the men with a + 140 and for the women it was Gina Velarde with a + 45. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $5,000. Chris would draw the score of 675. No Bowler Matched that score. The pot will carry over to Keystone where it is maxed out at $5,000 and a backup is started.

This week in the 3-6-9 we saw Keith Nahan miss in the final round on his second shot, so he got $50 and next week we will go for $2,300 at Keystone Lanes.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Louis Evans and Darrow Tiongco with a 1361 for $110, second place were the “Bowling Licaucos” John and Thomas, with a 1335 for $90. There was a total of $930 paid out in doubles and 18 paid spots with low to cash of 1274.

The semi-finals were on, finishing in first was John Licauco with a +153, in second was Tres Catalasan at a +125. The cut scores for the top 16 were a +30 for the men and for the women it was +9. John had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $4,050. He drew a 265! After a review of all scores bowled, no one shot that score so the pot carries over and it should max out at $5,000 Saturday for sure.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Stan Por, Rithy Ath, Chris Kelly, Ada Wong, Sun Sundara, Ben Bagaioisan, and Kenny Kwan. Each will get $100. In the second round, the four losers were Freddie Catamisan, Alan Libao, Yen Lach, and Gina Velarde, with each of them getting checks of $105.

We were down to the final five bowlers. The horses are paying a low of $34, Tres Catalasan to a high of $131 for Tomas Chavez. In this round Henry Hoang and Manny Natividad were eliminated and received Checks of $110. They bowled very well this week.

Our semi-final match was set. The winner of the match would be the Horse Winner also. We would see Tres paying $34 and Tomas paying $131 if they win the match. Tomas was getting tired as he opened in his first two frames while Tres was able to mark. Tomas said “don’t give up yet” as he was able to come up with a double in the 3rd and fourth frames to give him a lead of 8 pins. Tres then got a four bagger in the fourth thru seventh frames to break this match open. He cruised from that point to a 214/246 to 179/220 to advance to the title match. Tomas Chavez would finish in 3rd place for $200 and Tres was your horse winner for $34.

The title game was set and it would be our top qualifier John Licauco vs Tres Catalasan. The match saw Tres start with a spare. John opened in the first and spared in the second frame. Tres was able to come up with a spare and strike and trailed by two pins. The match was tight and going into the eighth frame John held a nine pin lead.

Tres pulled back within one pin, two spares in the 8th and 9th frames! John finishing strong came up in the ninth frame and got a strike, and would follow that with three more in the 10th frame to lock Tres out and take his second ABTA championship with a 201/244 to Tres 186/218. He

PBA League to Kick Off New Season in Return to Calendar Year Schedule Season includes expanded PBA League, Summer Swing, World Series VI and WBT International events

SEATTLE — The Professional Bowlers Association will return to a traditional calendar year schedule in 2014, beginning with a new season of PBA League competition in Allen Park, Mich., and concluding with the PBA World Series of Bowling VI in Las Vegas and then the Japan Cup presented by Round 1.

The new season - the PBA's 55th consecutive year - will include an expanded PBA League season involving the 40 players on the eight teams in the League, three major championships, a renewal of the PBA Summer Swing and 46 hours of nationally–televised PBA Tour competition, not including a preliminary schedule of nine PBA International Tour events conducted in cooperation with the World Tenpin Bowling Association's World Bowling Tour.

The PBA Tour's current 2012-13 season is concluding with the PBA World Series of Bowling V, hosted by South Point Casino, Hotel and Bowling Center, Oct. 25-Nov. 3, where five ESPN shows will emanate and air this December. The current season will then conclude with four international events.

In 2014, ESPN is slated to carry the finals of three PBA majors (PBA World Championship in Las Vegas, USBC Masters in New Jersey and PBA Tournament of Champions in Indianapolis), plus all WSOB VI events and the entire PBA League schedule. ESPN will air 36 hours of PBA action – up from 25.5 hours in 2013 – as part of the new five-year agreement announced earlier this summer. The CBS Sports Network will once again carry the PBA Summer Swing at a site to be announced and its five shows and 10 hours of action.

Each of the currently scheduled nine WBT/PBA international events in Europe, Asia and the Middle East will award a PBA International Tour title if a PBA member wins, and each will award points toward the annual World Bowling Tour Finals, which has been held as part of the PBA World Series of Bowling since the WBT's inception.

The PBA World Series of Bowling VI will return to South Point Bowling Center next Oct.-Nov. in Las Vegas for the fifth straight year of worldwide professional bowling's greatest festival.

The season will conclude with the 2014 Japan Cup presented by Round 1, featuring the best bowlers from Japan, along with the top 16 PBA players in points determined from the time period starting with the 2013 WSOB V and concluding following the 2014 PBA Summer Swing.

Additional details regarding pba.com's 2014 Xtra Frame live online streaming coverage, full national TV schedule, entry information, formats including revamped PBA League structure, tickets and pro-am entry information will be available soon and on pba.com.

A Far From Sinful Experience at My First Bowl Expo in Las Vegas

by Nick Mundy

LAS VEGAS — A seven hour drive to Las Vegas; 75 dollars, a beverage from the bar; 13 dollars, a couple nights with too much time spent at casinos; 415 dollars, the learning experience after attending Bowl Expo 2013; priceless.

As a public relations major at San Jose State University, a member of the university's bowling team and a new member of the International Bowling Media Association, my mentor Jackie Wyckoff cordially invited me to work in the IBMA fundraiser booth at Bowl Expo.

While I was in Las Vegas, outside and inside the trade show, there was so much to see, understand and appreciate.

Before working at Bowl Expo, I attended a welcome reception, a Storm sponsored breakfast and a Brunswick sponsored luncheon.

During these functions, I sat in and listened to the latest happenings in the companies and the industry, received my first press kit, watched award presentations, danced salsa with an entertainer and chatted with some notables from the industry.

The Storm breakfast particularly resonated with me. I was fortunate enough to receive valuable insight and see a touching moment.

After breakfast, I talked with Bob Hart, VP of Public Relations, and he made suggestions for what I should be doing while I'm trying to start a career. I will definitely use his advice.

Also I saw my late coaches' wife Nicole Reyes being presented a check for $55,000 from the funds raised by Tony's extended bowling family to support her and their daughter Gianna. The amount of support they received from the bowling community was generous and moving.

These experiences leading up to the tradeshow were very memorable.

At Bowl Expo, Adrian Ocegueda, a Fresno State Bowler, Brian Hirsch, a MOTIV staff member and myself, sold T-Shirts to fundraise money for students in communication related majors.

This was my first trade show and together we represented an organization that desires to inspire more students to become passionate about the bowling business and to foster more bowling writers.

By working at the booth with other bowlers, I felt fulfilled and I took pleasure from contributing to the organization by supporting the sport of bowling and encouraging others to do the same.

Aside from working at the booth, I snuck away during my break to walk through the tradeshow, view some of the exhibitors and sample many foods.

As I strolled through the trade show, there was a lot to see, learn, eat and buy.

I saw bowling companies present and pitch their products and services to the trade show's attendees, PBA pros like Norm Duke and Mike Fagan signing autographs and a pair of Linds I should have bought instead playing the unforgiving blackjack table at the Flamingo.

Nevertheless I made it back to the booth with a hot dog and bag of chips, a signed autograph from Duke and a helpful tip from Fagan to incorporate into my release.

Prior to attending Bowl Expo, I was not exactly sure what to expect. From my textbooks I read about the purpose and operations of trade shows and exhibitor pitches but I never saw the event happen in person. However, after watching and experiencing what its like to work at a trade show, it concretized my education and made what I have been learning less mystique.

After going to Bowl Expo and the events that led up to it, I can truly say I'm glad I received an invitation to be at Bowl Expo and I thoroughly enjoyed the valuable experience. I learned a lot, talked with great people and saw great moments.

Everyone was very friendly, and I finally understood why some of the shirts I was selling for the fundraiser said "Bowling, the original social network."

On the drive home, I thought to myself "You know what? I think could see myself pursuing a future somewhere in the bowling industry. I would like to contribute more and see it where it takes me."

The Bowling News welcomes a new bowling writer. We hope to hear more from you in the future.

PBA Signs Deal with High 5 Gear as New Official Jersey Manufacturer

SEATTLE – The Professional Bowlers Association has announced a new three-year agreement with High 5 Gear to become the official PBA Tour jersey manufacturer, replacing Gemini Custom Apparel.

High 5 Gear, a sports apparel company based in Hartland, Wis., will be the exclusive dye-sublimated jersey in PBA competition, provide custom-designed jerseys for 60 of the PBA Tour's top players, become the official jersey of the PBA League outfitting all eight teams, and official jersey of the Chris Paul PBA League All-Stars event.

"High 5 Gear is thrilled to be the official jersey of the PBA," said High 5 Gear President Todd Molbeck. "Bowling has always been the cornerstone of High 5 Gear's success and we view our partnership with the PBA as the pinnacle of that success. We look forward to working with the PBA and continuing to fill a void in bowling that has long been ignored - cool bowling clothes."

Bowling fans will also be able to purchase replica jerseys like those worn by their favorite PBA players through High 5, which will also have the rights to display the logos of PBA product registered partners.

"High 5 is passionate about bowling and we look forward to continue to make the sport better through our partnership," said PBA Commissioner Tom Clark. "We thank Gemini for the last five years being the official PBA jersey. Together, the PBA and Gemini changed the way professional bowling looks for the better with dye-sublimated jerseys, enhanced sponsor recognition and allowing players to express themselves through designs. With High 5 Gear, we will build on that foundation and get more bowlers of all skill levels around the world looking sharp."

While the High 5 Gear agreement becomes effective immediately, making High 5 the only dye-sublimated jersey permitted in PBA competition, High 5 has agreed to allow PBA players to wear Gemini jerseys in non-TV PBA competition through August 30, 2014. Both High 5 and Gemini will be permitted on this Saturday's Lipton Bowling's U.S. Open telecast on ESPN.

The High 5 Gear PBA jerseys will be available in assorted sizes and styles for $89 each. Bowlers also can order their own custom or semi-custom jersey designs for their teams, or as individuals, for prices as low as $84.95 For information on High 5's complete line of products, including PBA replica jerseys, go to www.high5gear.com <<http://mail2.pba.com/owa/UrlBlockedError.aspx>>.

Molbeck says his company looks forward to working with the PBA and more bowlers worldwide.

"We are small enough to give you personal service, but big enough to offer you top quality shirts and other unique products delivered on a timely basis at a competitive price," Molbeck said.

HALL OF FAMER PARKER BOHN III TURNS 50 BUT UNSURE OF WHAT PBA50 TOUR FUTURE HOLDS

NORWALK — PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III recently turned 50 but the 33-time PBA Tour and World Championship titlist isn't quite sure yet where the PBA50 Tour is going to fit in his schedule.

He planned to bowl one of the three remaining 2013 PBA 50 Tour stops this season but a recent commitment connected with his position as a Brunswick product specialist has put that possible debut on hold.

"Eventually, I'm going to be out there but it looks like it will be next season and most likely on a part-time basis," Bohn said. Between the regular tour, my position with Brunswick, and my family I have a pretty full schedule."

As for turning 50 to become eligible for the PBA50 Tour, it's a milestone he never thought he'd reach.

"Obviously when you're younger, 50 seems a long way away and I really never gave much thought about it. But now it's here so I'll look forward at some point to competing with the guys next season."

They said it well—with comments.

"The way I see it, if you want the rainbow, you gotta put up with the rain." — DOLLY PARTON (Splits and misses are as much a part of the game as strikes and spares.)

"Anyone who doesn't believe in miracles is not a realist." —DAVID BEN GURION (And that's why every bowler of every average thinks about rolling a 300 game, and aims at the 7-10 split.)

"Instead of loving your enemies, treat your friends a little better." — EDGAR WATSON HOWE (Like your teammates, league and association officials and bowling proprietors.)

"In all things, success depends upon previous preparations and without such preparation there is sure to be a failure." —CONFUCIOUS (Practice, practice, practice.)

"I base most of my fashion taste on what doesn't itch." — GILDA RADNER (Perfect advice when selecting bowling uniforms.)

"If I were given the opportunity to present a gift to the next generation it would be the ability for each individual to learn to laugh at himself." —CHARLES SCHULTZ (And let's face it, bowling is a funny game, even if it wasn't meant to be.)

"During the middle ages, people who couldn't write would sign a contract with an X and kiss it to show sincerity. That's how X's at the bottom of the letters came to symbolize kisses." —LISA LAYNE & PAUL SINN (Any bowling scoresheet with plenty of X's on it also rates a kiss or two.)

"Before all is said and done—I'm tired." —GRIT (Happens at every bowling meeting.)

"Advice is like snow: the softer it falls, the longer it dwells upon and the deeper it sinks into the mind." — SAMUEL T. COLERIDGE (Are you listening, bowling instructors.)

"Don't ever prophesy; for if you prophesy wrong, nobody will forget it; and if you prophesy right, nobody will remember it." — JOSH BILLINGS (Are you listening, all you color men on TV and that includes bowling experts too.)

"No great man is ever born too soon or too late." —NORMAN DOUGLAS (Even though some great bowlers of the past would have loved the long shot opportunity to shoot at some of the big money up for grabs today.)

"Genealogy is tracing yourself back to people better than you are." — JOHN POLLAND (In bowling all you have to do is look at the names above you on the standings sheet and you know who is better than you are.)

"I never lose sight of the fact that just being is fun." — KATHERINE HEPBURN (If just being is fun then just bowling is a lot more fun.)

"Dear God, grant me patience—and I want it right now." — MICHAEL MCKINNEY (The common prayer of almost every bowler after a bad shot or a bad break.)

"The average time between throwing something out and needing it again is about two weeks." — CARL CARSON (So some pros tell me when they decide to get rid of a bowling ball, any bowling ball.)

"Did you really read this far?" — PEZZANO (Thanks.)

IDLE BOWLING THOUGHTS

At last count there were 22 bowlers who had recorded 900 three game sets. It took 102 years to have the first one approved. An interesting invitational event might be to gather the tri-perfecto shooters together for a competition made up of one ball rounds, only strike shooters and ties move on to another round if they come to a round in which none registers a tenfall.

... Before it was Times Square, the busy, busy area in New York City was known as Longacre Square. In 1895, the same year the American Bowling Congress was founded, Oscar Hammerstein of show biz fame erected an immense complex of four theaters, a roof garden, a turkish bath, restaurants—and you guessed it—a bowling alley.

...Yes, the All Trautwig who does a fine job on so many major sporting events is the man who was the lead announcer for the pro tour when it was featured on USA TV.

...Most sports and other organized activities are having difficult times for a number of reasons. But the main aim should be for bowling leaders to hang together as much as possible, or they'll all hang separately.

... Most bowlers aren't slow learners. Sometimes teaching comes hard to their instructors.

... It's always a temptation to kick the rack after a bad shot or bad break until your realize there are more than 50 bones in the human foot.
