Reigning U.S. Open Champion Rhino Page Wins Best Bowler ESPY

LOS ANGELES – Rhino Page of Orlando, Fla., who ended a six-year singles title draught with two victories including the 2017 U.S. Open, has been selected winner of the 2018 Best Bowler ESPY award in fan voting conducted by ESPN.

“I think it’s pretty simple to sum up what it means just to be nominated for an ESPY,” Page said. “Five years ago I went through wrist surgery not knowing if I was ever going to be able to throw a ball again, let alone get back to playing at the highest level. To be here at the ESPYs after the long journey back is something I am incredibly honored and humbled by.

“I’m so thankful for God’s grace through it all,” he continued. “I can’t thank my friends, my family, my sponsors and my fans enough. They have been there for me every step of the way. They supported me in the times I needed them the most. To represent the sport I love and have dedicated my life to is truly an honor and a blessing.”

Michael Haugen Jr. Wins PBA50 River City Extreme Open For Second Title of the Season

Haugen defeats Bob Learn Jr., 247-246, in title match to tighten grip on PBA50 Player of the Year points lead

MONTICELLO, Minn. – Michael Haugen Jr. defeated Bob Learn Jr., 247-246, in the title match to win the PBA50 River City Extreme Open presented by Ebonite Friday for his second title of the season and third of his career.

Haugen, the 2017 PBA50 Rookie of the Year, became the first two-time winner this season and further tightened his grip on the PBA50 Player of the Year points lead with four tournaments remaining in the season.

In the title match, Haugen, who finished first, was able to shut Learn out when he struck on the first ball in the 10th frame and then made the 6-10 spare.

“It was a good thing I got eight and not six or seven on the second ball otherwise I might not be standing here,” said Haugen of his second shot in the 10th frame. “I lost focus for a moment and the result of that shot could have been a lot worse.”

It was a long road for the 51-year-old Haugen to reach the No. 1 qualifying position for the stepladder finals coming all the way from 20th after the first round of qualifying on Wednesday. Haugen made his dramatic climb with the help of a 5-0-1 match play

SHANE STRICKLAND Outstanding Youth Bowler to Outstanding Youth Coach

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS – Shane Strickland was a great youth bowler and now is a great youth coach. Over the past two decades he has performed superbly on the lanes and led admirably off the lanes.

From day one, Shane was a “natural” as a bowler. He rolled sanctioned perfect 300 games when he was seventeen and eighteen years of age. His second perfecto led to his first eight hundred series. To date Shane’s high is an 835.

As a junior Shane won the Golden State Junior Amateur Championship in 2001, the California State Youth Singles Championship in 2003 and the Earl Anthony Memorial Youth Doubles Title in 2003. He was a regular on the Northern California Junior Bowlers Tour and the Golden State Junior Amateur Tour.

Shane bowled collegiately at Fresno State, graduating in 2009. Since graduating he has continued to compete and bowl at a high level. Periodically he competes on the PBA Regional Tour and continues to average 220 or higher in certified leagues.

From Fresno State, Shane headed to Yucaipa, California. He now teaches French at Yucaipa High School and is the school’s Chairman of the Languages Department. He loves working with youth and is involved in coaching young bowlers. Shane believes in “GIVING BACK” and is giving back to the sport of bowling.

Shane is giving back by getting involved as a youth bowling coach. He coaches youngsters in the Empire Bowl Youth Program and in 2014 started the Yucaipa High School Bowling Team. He also coaches bowlers competing in the JBT.

Bowling needs more Shane Strickland’s. Thank you Shane for your service to our great sport and to the youth of CALIFORNIA. You and the other dedicated coaches are the reason why CALIFORNIA develops the best bowlers in the world.

The annual honor in 2018 will be based upon standard PBA competition points that are being applied to all levels of PBA competition this year. Haugen, the 2017 PBA50 Rookie of the Year, won the BVL Johnny Petraglia Open earlier in the season and has four other top 10 finishes for a 2,400-point lead over PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr., who has yet to add to his PBA50 Tour title total this year, but has three runner-up finishes.

JOE GOLDSTEIN, SR. – A BOWLER WHO CONTRIBUTES BOTH ON AND OFF THE LANES

by Bette Addington, California Bowling Writers

Last summer at the EBI Demo Day that was held at AMF Southwest Lanes in Bakersfield, we were honored to have EBI Staffer Joe Goldstein, Sr. there sharing his knowledge of the EBI line helping bowlers select a new bowling ball best for them. He lives in the Bay area, so having him drive five-plus hours to Bakersfield to help run the Demo Day is special. Not only special to us but special to him!

Jake Peters, Carlie Medina and Joe Goldstein, Sr. at EBI Demo Day (Aug., 2017)

In a couple weeks, Goldstein will be traveling to Bakersfield once again to help with the upcoming EBI Demo Day which will take place on Thurs., Aug. 2, from 3pm-6pm, at AMF Southwest Lanes in Bakersfield, CA. It is probably even more special this year as he is still recovering from a very damaging staph infection he got late last fall in his right foot/ankle. He kept having a lot of pain and when he went to bowl the Storm Mixed in Reno, on his first shot in practice, he said it felt like “my right heel exploded.” But he made it through the set-in pain on a three “step” delivery for a 567 series. Three surgeries over the next eight months to rid him of the infection and then to correct his loss of flexibility in his ankle, he is now ready to finally return to bowling and with the help of physical rehab and his dedication, he can return to the PBA life once again.

Goldstein's love of bowling radiates when you meet him. 2018 marks his 15th year on the EBI Staff. His bowling career started 45 years ago when he began bowling at the Sports Center Bowl in San Francisco. His current average has dropped to a 209 but considering his past season and what he has been through, that's phenomenal. He usually averages above 225. His career highest book was 235 in 2013. Although he has never done the PBA tour, he has “always wanted to take a year or two and try my hand at it.” Nevertheless, he has some PBA Regional titles, three of them in fact, that he can boast about. The first one came in Visalia in May 2009, “where I had to go up against my good friend, Tony Reyes, for the title.” His other two wins are a PBA50 in Daly City (2012) and another in Reno at the National Bowling Stadium (2013).

When asked if he's every been televised at a PBA event, he said he's come really close and been on Xtra Frame highlights during the PBA50 stops that he competed in. He bowled a 300 on Xtra Frame at the Northern CA Classic in Brentwood where he “nearly” made the show and also “nearly” made the USBC Senior Masters televised finals in 2016. Both tournaments he finished 6th.

If he's not competing in Regionals or Master events, he is involved with bowling through the Bowlers Experience Pro Shop inside Cloverleaf Family Bowl. Not one to say he coaches anyone, he will admit that he's “helped many get better and enjoy the game more with my help.” His home center is currently Sea Bowl in Pacifica where he plans to bowl a fun league with his family at the start of this winter season.

His life as an EBI Staffer involves working five or more Demos per year “whenever they are reasonably close to me. I don't mind a road trip to help as well. As a staffer, we have requirements to keep our brand names alive and to engage bowlers in any possible way. I choose to attend more than our required amount for a couple of reasons. Hammer Bowling and EBI have kept me as a Rep for so many years, through good and bad times and I've stuck by them as well. I believe that we have the strongest family in bowling and growing stronger every day. My District Sales Managers have been very good to me from the great Pam Buckner to Mike Snellbaker to my manager now, Adam Ishman. I will do anything I can for Adam and EBI always.”

The EBI Demo Day will bring us brand new balls on the market from Ebonite, Hammer, Columbia and Track. Goldstein said, “as a Staffer, I do get my new releases before the public does and have time to sample and showcase them before the Demos, so I have more personal info on them to share with the Demo bowlers.” When asked if he, himself, ever been involved with the creation of a ball, Goldstein replied, “I personally have not been part of the creation of any of our balls, but you never know in the future... Every development began as an idea, and ours are welcome and taken seriously. Maybe I'll come up with a ball idea or name that makes the development process!”

When asked what he enjoys the most when putting on a Demo Day, he said, “What I enjoy most about running a Demo Day is the chance to talk and mingle with bowlers of all skill levels. To be able to help build their games with new equipment and to build their confidence through encouragement.... priceless! During the Demo, I can spend some one-on-one time with a bowler who's looking to find that new piece of equipment that helps with something that's missing in their lineup or that creates a certain shape on the lane that they've been looking for.” This is what a Demo Day is all about and it is totally FREE to bowlers to experience. The Demo balls are either 14lb. or 15lb. balls with a broad selection of spans with interchangeable grips and thumb slugs so it is very important that you bring your best fitting ball to help them get the best demo ball fit for you when you arrive to test these new balls out.

Goldstein will be joined by several other Staffers to put on this Demo Day and all local staffers usually join in and offer to help put on this event as well to help service all the bowlers that show up. Local legend, Carlie Medina III, is partly responsible for bringing Goldstein to Bakersfield and when Goldstein talked about Carlie, he said, “Where do I start about Carlie Medina? Well I've known this man for quite a few years by competing against him and watching his scoring clinics to getting to know him as a close, personal friend and teammate and travel companion to a fellow EBI Staffer. This is one individual who exemplifies what a bowler should strive to be. Friendly, generous and what a force to be reckoned with!! I am proud to call this man my friend.” EBI is proud to say they have an abundance of big names on the national PBA and PBA50 tours such as Josh Blanchard, Jakob Butturff, Ronnie Russell, Shannon O'Keefe, Andrew Anderson and many more. Their most notable player on the PBA50 tour is the great Amleto Monacelli, who, Goldstein said, “is still in great shape and still throws it great as well.” These great balls have 20 National PBA titles and quite a few PBA 50 National titles as well and “there's no end in sight.”

So, drop on by AMF Southwest Lanes (3610 Wible Road, Bakersfield) for the upcoming Demo Day on Aug. 2, and meet Goldstein and get to witness what he brings to town—“To say in a nutshell what I can bring to the Demo Day is my love for the game, my willingness to help all bowlers, and to help our labels grow in all areas. I am not the most technical bowler, but I do understand the game and will use what I know to help our Demo Day attendees.” This just in.... joining him at this event will be Adam Ishman/EBI District Sales Manager along with Carlie Medina.

by Carol Mancini

Tom Cristi – Santa Clarita Lanes – “I think I know two things: 1. Unlike other sports, especially kids’ sports, we play the entire game, there are no bench warmers. 2. Bowling centers are a poor man’s country club”

Charlie Kinster – Del Rio Lanes – “A 200 average used to be great. Now you can buy one. No need to practice or study your game”

Herbert Jones – Keystone Lanes – “I was taught by Billy Myers Sr., his advise was: pretend you have a cup of water on your head all the way to delivery”

Aaron Hartnett – “One item about bowling I assume not many people know about is: The distance from the foul line to the head pin (60'-0") is shorter than the distance from the pitchers mound to home plate (60'-6")”

Aaron, your book is on the way...

FUTCH, HATMAKER & WILK Enter HALL of FAME

by Frank Weiler, California Bowling Writers

SAN BERNARDINO – Toni Futch, Scott Hatmaker and David Wilk were inducted into the Citrus Belt Hall of Fame on Saturday. Association President MIKE RADD-EMAN presided over the affair and CURT SNYDER was superb as Master of Ceremonies.

What does it take to be inducted into the Hall of Fame? The ultimate honor comes after years of SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE or MERITORIOUS SERVICE. This year's Hall of Fame class has performed on the lanes and served our bowlers off the lanes as admirably as any of our honorees in the past.

Toni Futch (Meritorious Service) could easily be named the best league secretary in Citrus Belt history. She was selected Secretary of the Year in 2014 and could easily be so honored every year. Toni is a people person, always providing her bowlers with outstanding service. She is a outstanding league promoter, organizer and grower. She has served thousands of bowlers over decades at bowling centers throughout the Inland Empire.

Scott Hatmaker (Superior Performance) has bowled at a outstanding level for decades. He has averaged over 200 throughout those decades and has performed so consistently that his league teams have probably won more league championships than anyone in the southern tier. Of late he is dominating in senior league play. Over the years he has rolled 11 perfect games and three 800s, with a high of 846. He has a Citrus Belt Senior Doubles Title to his credit.

David Wilk (Superior Performance) is one of the most talented bowlers to ever bowl in the Citrus Belt. He has bowled in the Association for over 35 years after impressing bowling aficionados in the Chicago, Illinois area as a young bowling prodigy. He rolled his first 300 at the age of sixteen in the late 1960's in the era of rubber bowling balls! That was an Illinois State record for years. At seventeen he won a state junior team title and was averaging over 200 by the age of 18. During those early years David won 38 tournament titles in seven different Midwestern states!

For the past 48 years David has averaged over 200, with a high of 224 in 1971. He has 28 perfect games and seven 800s. He won a CALIFORNIA State Doubles Title in 1982 and a HOINKER Classic Title in Cincinnati, Ohio that same year.

David is proudest of his accomplishments at the USBC National Open Tournament where he has averaged 202 for 32 years and placed second in 2007 in Singles. His 804 in that event makes him the second oldest bowler ever to roll an 800 at the National Tournament. Congratulations to our inductees and thanks to the Hall of Fame Committee: CURTIS COVEY, PHOSIE LOTZE, DANIEL LORENZ, NITA SCHMIDT, CURT SNYDER and NORRIS TURNER. Special thanks to the Nita Schmidt for again making the Hall of Fame posters for our inductees.

round earlier in the day Friday.

“The lanes were tough for me at the start of the tournament but that just meant I had to do what I do best and that is adjust,” said Haugen, who won the Johnny Petraglia BVL Open in May for his first win of the season. “As the tournament went on I started getting more comfortable to the point where I was able to use my ball speed to make the adjustments I needed.

“I’m just keeping it simple and continuing to do what I have been doing all season,” Haugen continued. “If I keep executing and making good decisions I’ll keep getting good results.”

In the opening stepladder match No. 4 qualifier Brian Kretzer beat No. 5 qualifier PBA Hall of Famer and four-time PBA50 Tour winner Norm Duke, 290-228, to advance to the second match. Kretzer left a 10 pin in the first frame, made the spare, and then strung the next 11 strikes.

In the second match Kretzer, who was trying for his first PBA50 Tour title, beat No. 3 qualifier four-time PBA50 Tour winner Lennie Boresch Jr., 202-199, to advance to the semifinal match against Learn. Kretzer, the 2018 Sun-coast PBA Senior U.S. Open runner-up, threw three strikes in the 10th to beat Boresch after Boresch chopped the 6-10 spare.

Learn, who qualified second for the finals, then beat Kretzer, 238-225, in the semifinal to advance to the title match against Haugen. Learn was trying for his fourth PBA50 Tour title and first since 2015.

Then on Sunday in their Doubles/Singles event they really bowled great. Starting out of the gate we had Lamaki Welch 299/810, Aaliyah Christian 194/489, Dominic Fisher 263/693, Kirin Ihara 201/511, Xander Velasco 487. After all 9 games Lamaki Welch with a nice 1961, Dominic Fisher 1922, Dante Montoya 1579 & Martin Velasco 1517. We hope that they will be cashing for some scholarship bucks with these scores. Great bowling.

BURBANK – One of my great joys being the Youth Bowling Director for Pickwick is going with the kids to the Youth State Championships.

This past weekend was spent at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk with the first of two teams participating this year. (Sadly, gone are the days when I took 8 teams!) Our boys did a great job but were a bit humbled when another young man rolled a 299 and finished with an awesome 810 series. Heck, I was humbled!

Our bowling youth is a dynamic group of high scoring phenoms! The future is bright for these kids. Most are competing with Scholarship Vouchers in their sights, and getting them! Just this past weekend, I was delighted to learn that one of my current youth bowlers is trying out for the bowling team at Cal State Poly/San Luis Obispo! I have no doubt he will be taken onto the team.

Bowling your way through college is real! And possible! It starts on the lanes with regular league play and builds through participating in tournaments. Yes, you have to bowl well, but with good coaching, practice & determination, it can happen for you.

I urge you to encourage our youth to be bowlers. Whether it starts with our program at Pickwick or elsewhere, a future is burning brightly.
