All-California Collegiate Japan Tour 25th Reunion A Big Hit In Vegas

by B.A. Campbell

LAS VEGAS—When former collegiate bowler Susan Steele-Heffern met with Don and Charlene Hillman over dinner in August 2008, she reminisced about her part in the 1989 All-California Collegiate tour of Japan with the Hillman pair as chaperones. “You know,” Susan told Don, “the 25th anniversary year is coming up” for the first Tour from 1985. One thing led to another, and through the magic of Facebook and the Internet, Susan found 95 of the 96 bowlers from the 1985-1996 All-California Collegiate Japan Tour teams and invited them to a “25th Reunion” for the entire group at the 2010 International Bowl Expo in Las Vegas.

Team USA Experience Leagues to Provide A New Challenge For Sport Bowlers

ARLINGTON—The United States Bowling Congress will bring an international touch to the sport this fall with the launch of Team USA Experience leagues, a new Sport Bowling option that will allow bowlers to test their skills on the lanes.

Team USA Experience leagues were developed to give bowlers the opportunity to compete on the same challenging lane conditions that members of Team USA face when competing against the top players in the world at international competitions.

These patterns are used by the World Tenpin Bowling Association in major contests such as the World Championships, Pan American Games and QubicaAMF World Cup.

“Taking on these types of conditions can really help a bowler learn more about their game,” said Team USA head coach Rod Ross. “Our teams have put in a lot of work to learn the nuances of the patterns and that has helped us achieve the success we have had at the international level.”

Team USA Experience leagues will be Sport Bowling leagues. Advancements in technology and the prevalence of forgiving lane conditions tend to conceal weaknesses in the games of even the top bowlers, which led to the development of Sport Bowling.

Sport Bowling provides lane oil patterns that are more challenging than typical league conditions. Bowlers who compete in Sport leagues are eligible for exclusive awards, special discounts on equipment through USBC partnerships with pro shops, a monthly e-newsletter that highlights honor scores and access to a members-only page on BOWL.com. The new Team USA Experience leagues will offer a great variety of challenges since there are 12 patterns available – four short, four medium and four long

With the help of other bowlers from those years, like Joe Mayer (1991), the Las Vegas Hilton hosted the dinner reuniting 48 of those original bowlers along with some of the Japanese hosts, as well as some of the American chaperones and executives which made the Tour happen.

Following the flavorful dinner, all of the Collegiate bowlers in attendance were treated to a nostalgic slideshow of each year’s Japan Tour. Presentations were made to the Japanese hosts who were in Las Vegas-- Mr. Nakano, Mr. Noda, and Mr Iguchi. Former AMF Executive Ron Wood was recognized for his assistance with AMF’s sponsorship of the Tour over the years. Don and Charlene Hillman were also honored for their efforts and dedication to the Tour. Finally, Susan Steele-Heffern was honored for her bringing the reunion together, and a great evening was had by all.

During the 12 years of its existence (1985-1996), The All-California Collegiate Japan Tour took students from CSU Fresno, CSU Fullerton, CSU Long Beach, CSU Northridge, CSU Sacramento, San Diego State, San Jose State, Santa Clara, UC Davis, UC Santa Barbara, Cal Poly SLO, UC Berkeley and each year sent them on a three-week bowling-diplomacy tour, where bowling was just one of many ways the American students interacted with the Japanese people and culture.

2010 PBA World Series of Bowling Q & A

by Jerry Schneider

LAS VEGAS—The 2010 PBA World Series of Bowling provides a unique opportunity for PBA members to compete at the highest level. With a new format this season, PBA is providing answers to some commonly asked player entry questions. Check back with pba.com for additional developments and information about WSOB in the days and weeks to come.

Q. What are the dates for WSOB events and where are they conducted?

A. The 2010 WSOB will be conducted Oct. 24-Nov. 6 at the South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas.

Q. What is the breakdown of events during the run of WSOB and how do they relate to the PBA World Championship?

A. Beginning Monday, Oct. 25, and over a span of five consecutive days, WSOB players will bowl 12 games on the Cheetah, Viper, Chameleon, Scorpion and Shark patterns, respectively, with the top 16 from each daily event advancing to match play during the second week. The finals for each animal pattern event will be taped by ESPN over two days (Nov. 5-6) for airing beginning Nov. 28.

The combined pinfall for 60 games across all animal pattern events will determine the standings for the PBA World Championship. The PBA World Championship will also incorporate a unique television format where the top eight qualifiers will advance to a live three-day television finale to be aired Jan. 14, 15

Ralph Morton 19th FunTime Bowling No Tap Doubles Tournament

Riverside Lanes, Laughlin, NV

by Brad Domes • FuntimeBowling@cox.net

LAUGHLIN—A FunTime tournament record summer attendance turned out to say so long to Riverside Lanes as our host bowling center. Nearly 10 years ago a few (30) Ralph Morton invitees initiated this tournament at Riverside Lanes, Laughlin. Today the tournament has outgrown itself and is moving to a more spacious 72 lane Sunset Station Casino in Henderson, NV, beginning January 2011. It goes without saying how much this tournament has appreciated the Riverside staff’s support. It is hoped many of the locals will join us up the road in January.

As mentioned, a summer record! 904 bowlers took part in this three day tournament, as well as, blind draw and singles tournaments. The daily format consisted of three squads, two divisions handicapped at 100% of 220. Bowlers (50+) competed in any or all of the daily squads outside their respective entry squad with any partner. Many bowlers like to match their skills with other partners, as well as, enjoying new friendships.

The not so serious blind draw tournament held on Sunday for the early birds got things underway. Prior to the bowling itself a “best dressed fifty/sixties outfit” contest took place. Luther Goad & Kat Van Der Vegt apparently stunned the judges. The top team finishers in the bowling itself were: Bridgette Greb/Juan Pena in first place followed by George Kleinstuber/Ludivinia Generillo, Dan Comerford/Van Der Vegt with Dennis Suntum/Lindy Walker in fourth place from a field of 49 teams. Congrats to all.

Things got serious on Monday as three squads (298 bowlers) took to the lanes starting at 1pm. Monday Div 1: Bill(278)/Lois Taylor bowling in squads B & C finished first (1716) & fourth (1638) with Bill(264)/Ruth(262) Lang (1699) second, Candy Abbott(256)/Maria Cozby(221) (1683) third. Div 2: Mary Lou(256)/Jerry(300) Worrell (1791) taking top honors followed by Kevin/Rene(287) Howe (1724), Joseph Barnes(256)/Jack Miller(276)(2) (1711) and Alex(257)/Joan(243) Hand (1708).

Tuesday Div. 1: Bowling in squads B & C Sue Evans(277)/Laura Heisel(278) shot 1761 & 1791 respectfully to finish one-two. The teams of Van Der Vegt/Lindy Walker(238) (1736) and Betty Crothers/Claude Dennis(264) (1686) managed third & fourth. Div. 2: In one of the closer competitions Andy(300)/Frank(276) Gagliano (1766) took first by 6 pins over Bill(270)/Hazel(278) Tigges (1760) with 1 pin being the difference over Randi Portwood(277)/Bodie Beaudikofer(242) (1759) for second. Richard(243)/Cecile Belden(266) (1732) wrapped up fourth place. Tuesday’s participation (308) was the largest of the three days.

Squeezed in on Tuesday was a singles no-tap event. 22 hardy souls, who took part, saw a familiar couple, the Taylors, Lois (853) and Bill (797), take first and third with Richard Elgar (830) wedged between for second place in Division 1. Charles Kist (888), Joe Borges (798) and Bill Moore (796) finished 1-3 in Division 2.

Wednesday: Practice makes perfect. Highest team scores were recorded on getaway day with 298 bowlers entered. Div. 1: Ron/Arleen(288) Hess (1798), Connie Byrne(229)/Virginia Schuetzie(255) (1741), Carol Liaboe(263)/Van Der Vegt(242) (1669) and Karen Blodgett(241)/Jeanie Stone(300) (1663) took top honors. Stone’s 300 was the only one on the distaff side. Div. 2: Record setting team scores led this group. Suntum(297)/Laurin Peterson(278) (1871) got together for a resounding first place finish. Linda Dennis(286)/Joyce Dakin(278) (1801) must have thought that score was for first place but settled for second, with Joyce Dalton-Jensen(275)/Mike Schoonover (284), (1773) and Portwood(268)/Beaudikofer(274) (1770) taking third & fourth respectfully.

“Perfect pocket” 300’s, not noted above, were led by Charles Coe (3), Francis Coley (2), Bob Wester (2), Bill Moore (2) and Juan Pena, Pat Taranto, Jeff Sanders, Russ Valentine, Dan Comerford, Portwood and Barnes all with one.

Notable scores by other than those listed above: Roy Mc Neely 297 & 298, Ed Mendoza 280 & 290 , Ted Cozby 290, Bob Bracken 296, Monty Mc Nally 280, Daniel Stanley 288, Robert Mc Lean 297, Ron Olson 297, Tie Dye Smith 287, Ruth Ramsey 286, Diane Burton 277, Kleinstuber 298,280,286, Queen Pugh 262, Nancy Kenna 256, Mary Cranston & Nancy Scott 255 & Ralph Morton 297 (who?).

Special thanks: Riverside Lanes staff. One big final thank you!! Brian Markowitz, Charlie Emmons, Dustin Markowitz, Delora Morris, Shelly Gomes, Jeff Larson, Jackie Kinsler, George Maxim, Crystal Grzeda, Harry Van Houten and the entire staff. This writer would like to personally thank Mollie Bradley for without her dedication to our constant changes & hiccups the tournament would never have been so successful. They all will be missed.

The crew: Ralph/Nancy Morton, with directors Judee/Jerry Wood, Brad/Lucy Domes, Billy/Ruth Lang, Dick/Donna Hounsley & Frieda Pyles, is to be congratulated for another successful event. All are anticipating working with the fine staff at Sunset Station in January.

JANUARY 17-19, 2011 is the next scheduled tournament. There will be two (2) daily squads with a divisional format. Get your entry in early for a preferred squad. Singles welcome!

HOTEL: Sunset Station Hotel & Casino, Henderson, NV

EARLY BIRDS! Optional blind draw no tap doubles on Sunday evening for early arrivals. Country theme! “Best outfit” awards for those bowling in the blind draw. Meet new people and enjoy the fun. Low hotel rates apply for Sunday as well.

INFO: 50+ bowlers join us at our new location. Win a free Brunswick ball, bag, or a cash door prize. Compete for generous daily prize funds with brackets, side pots and special “spread the wealth” drawings. Call Ralph Morton 619 647-0541 for more info. World Series on Bowling

Q. How do I become a PBA member?
A. To obtain PBA membership information contact PBA at (206) 332-9688 or visit <http://www.pba.com/Join/>

Q. What is the entry fee?
A. For a $750 entry fee, bowlers are entered in six events including the PBA World Championship. In previous seasons, the entry fee alone for the PBA World Championship had been $500 for PBA members and $600 for non-members.

Q. I’m a member and I’m ready to enter. What is the entry process?
A. Members can enter on-line by clicking on the members’ login link on pba.com and then Tournaments/Enter New Tournament and select World Series as the region. An entry form may be downloaded by logging onto the membership site where the entry form is the very first link on the opening page. Entrants also can request an entry form by calling (206) 332-9688. Entries may be scanned and e-mailed back to PBA, faxed to (206) 332-9722, or mailed to the PBA office.

Q. Is there a qualifying process to enter WSOB events?
A. No. There are no TQRs, just one even playing field with wall-to-wall competitive bowling at the highest level. If you aren’t a member but believe in your game, the WSOB is your reason to join the PBA.

Q. What is the philosophy behind this year’s WSOB concept and schedule?
A. The WSOB was designed to be the ultimate destination event for all PBA members. Multiple titles are up for grabs, a huge overall prize fund, nine nationally-televised shows. Also an affordable entry fee and accommodations all in one city for a short amount of time make it an affordable experience for entrants.

Q. Are there any special hotel rates for WSOB players?
A. Yes. WSOB host hotel South Point is offering a special $49 plus tax ($78 plus tax weekend) member room rate for the World Series. For room reservations and more information about South Point Hotel, Casino and Bowling Center, visit www.southpointcasino.com or call 1-866-796-7111. The promotional code is “World Series of Bowling.”

Q. When will the tapings of the finals take place and when will they air?
A. Bowling fans will be able to attend the tapings of the finals for all the animal pattern events plus the U.S. vs. The World match Nov. 5-6. The final rounds of the PBA World Championship will be televised live by ESPN Jan. 14, 15 & 16 from the South Point Bowling Center marking the first time that a Tour event has been televised over multiple days similar to PGA and USTA events. The taped shows will air on ESPN as follows: Cheetah Championship, Nov. 28; Viper Championship, Dec. 5; Chameleon Championship, Dec. 12; Scorpion Championship, Dec. 19; Shark Championship, Dec. 26; U.S. vs. The World match, Jan. 9. The telecasts of the PBA World Championship final rounds will be the first live shows of the 2010-11 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour season.

Q. What equipment will I be allowed to use?
A. For a complete list of eligible equipment visit <http://www.pba.com/resources/equipmentSponsors.asp?Type=1>

Q. What’s the best way to follow WSOB action?
A. PBA.com and PBA.com’s Xtra Frame video service will provide comprehensive coverage of WSOB throughout its 14-day run. Xtra Frame schedule and subscription information may be found by visiting <http://xtraframe.pba.com/>.

Q. Will there be WSOB pro-ams?
A. There are no pro-ams planned for WSOB.

LAKEWOOD — In our return to Cal Bowl we had a nice turnout of 246 bowlers. We saw 57 bowlers, with cut scores of men + 47. The Ladies chipped in at +28. The three Super Seniors added to the board this week were Art Lindsey (+48), John Martinez (+40) and for the women it was Carla Sanchez (+17).

During our 4 squads of Qualifying, the top qualifier for the Men was Tim Austin with a +130, and for the women it was Sonia Johnson with a +104. Each will get paid entries into a future regular ABTA event. Tim being the top seed would draw the Match Series this week. He drew a 569 that was bowled by Fidel Usi. He would win $428 for that 3 game series. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, the few that made it saw Steve Bryant be the last one left in the roll off to go for the $2,000. He missed on his 2nd shot, so he will get a consolation of $50 and we will go for $2,100 this week at Bowling Square.

We had 152 groups get into the doubles, with 22 spots paid out. The top prize this week went to Tim Tran and Victor Paloucci with a 1420 for $140.

In 2nd place was Andrew Lung and Tim Tran at 1375. The low to cash was 1305.

In the semis we saw Jonathan Barraca lead the field with a +137 to sit out and bowl for the title. Behind Jonathan was Victor Paloucci at a +134. He would sit out the first round of match play. It took a +57 for the men and a +28 for the women to make the Top 16 single elimination match play finals.

Our top seed Jonathan Barraca would draw our match game this week. The Match Game was Unmatched at 211 so we have another $3,500 backup pot. We will have, at least the next 4 weeks of bowling with a Match Game of $3,500.

In the first round, losers were Wilson Cheung, Gabriel Martinez, Marvin Galsim Sr, Sun Sundara, Francis Kiko Colian, Eric Morris, Mary Robles. They received checks of $105 each. In the second round, the losers were Ada Wong-Hum, Julie Nguyen, Danny Alcayde and Mary Robles. Each would get checks of $112.50. In round 3 we saw Louis Evans bowling Mikey Villarreal on lanes 3 and 4. In this match, Louis would get the better of Mikey and take the match 226 to 180. In the other match, we saw Ben Hurtado bowling Victor Paolucci (our 2nd seed) on lanes 11 and 12. This was a close match and went down to the 10th frame, but Ben pulled it out 258-243. So Mikey and Victor were 4th and 5th getting checks for $125 each. So our semi-final match was set to be bowled on 7 and 8. We had our 9th and 14th seeds into the top 16 bowling each other, both long shots in the weekly horse bets. This match was close at the beginning but Louis would prevail with a score of 227 to 202 and send him to his 1st title match in the ABTA. Ben would finish in 3rd place for $225 this week. This week the horses paid $132 for all of you that bet on Louis making all the way to the title match.

The title game is set and would be bowled on lanes 5 and 6 this week. Jonathan being the top seed elected to have Louis start the match first. We saw both bowlers start off with doubles, but Jonathan got the big 4 split in the 3rd frame, so at this point Louis had a 20+ pin lead. We would see both bowlers open up in the 5th frame. Louis would continue to lead this match, but opens in the 7th, 8th and 9th frames gave Jonathan the chance he needed and would stay clean in the last 5 frames to pull off the win with a 183/214 game to Louis 156/196 score. This was a good close match all the way to the end. Great bowling by 2 good guys and a well-deserved title for Jonathan. Nice bowling to Louis, as this was his 2nd time making semis, both at Cal, and his first time to the Match Play finals. Jonathan would take home $1,100 for his win and Louis takes home $550 in 2nd place.

Champion Jonathan Barraca is from Westminster and is married to Rosemarie. He used a Backlash Hammer drilled by Ben Mach. He thanks the ABTA Staff, Cal Bowl for hosting and all his friends that supported and encouraged him all the time.

Louis Evans is from Chino and used a Radical Inferno drilled at Forest Lanes. He would like to say thank you to his wife Angela for giving him the inspiration and support. Louis has 4 kids, Tasha, Myisha, Embry and Emerson.

Ben Hurtado is from Monterey Park and used a Radical drilled by Enlow Bowling Supply. He is married to Alicia and has 5 kids, Kimberly, Alondra, Mirellai, Jose and David along with 2 grand kids. He would like to say thanks to the ABTA and staff, saying you're the best, also to Cal Bowl and to everyone that cheered during the matches. A special thank you to Carlos Vejar and Nghiem Tran.

This week the weekly ball sponsor winner of a 900 Global Ball was Carl Brooks and he got the Profit. Each time you bowl you get a free ticket for this prize given away by our Sponsor 900 Global. This week we were again selling the raffle tickets for a chance at a Vegas Room in January and other prizes. This week we saw a regular entry won by Ken Seiple Sr, a 3 Ball Storm Bag won by Ed Palma. This week we had a high end bowling ball and the winner was Tim Crowder. The 2 nights in Las Vegas would be won by Victor Lee. The rest of the results can be seen in the payoff sheet in this paper.

Remember to check in early at Bowling Square, as it gets busy there. See ad for address and directions, or check our website (www.abta1.com) to link to address via mapquest.

Bowling ‘Em Over

Kelly Kulick knocks down pins and gender barriers

As a youngster, Kelly Kulick dreamed of being a championship bowler. Now she is one.

Kulick, 33, who wrote a prediction in her fifth-grade class yearbook that she would be a professional bowler, in January became the first woman to win a Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) Tour title when she defeated a field of 62 men in the 45th Tournament of Champions in Las Vegas, Nev. The history-making victory catapulted her into the national spotlight, and marked a coup for women’s sports and for bowling in general.

“It wasn’t just being the lone female in the event; I was competing against all champions,” says Kulick, of Union, N.J. (pop. 54,252). “I’m hoping my success will bring more women into the sport.”

Kulick first faced a set of bowling pins at age 6, when her paternal grandfather took her to the Four Seasons, a bowling alley in Union. “Don’t remember much from that day,” says Kulick, whose father, Phil Jr., once worked as a bowling alley pinsetter, “but I do recall my first bowling ball was a blue-and-white Kmart Special.”

Her passion for the sport intensified when she began bowling in a junior league at age 10. Her coach encouraged her, and not long after, Kulick found herself in the expert hands of Dick Ritger, who is renowned in bowling circles for his instructional camps. The former PBA bowler-turned-coach immediately recognized the young girl’s natural talent.

“At the camps, most kids were 16, 17, 18,” says Ritger, 71, of River Falls, Wis. (pop. 14,352). “As a 12-year-old with all the skills, Kelly matched them.”

Kulick earned a bowling scholarship to Morehead (Ky.) State University, where she became a four-time All-American, graduating in 2000. The following year, she turned pro and was named Rookie of the Year on the now-defunct women’s tour. Then, at a 2003 awards luncheon, PBA men’s tour veteran and Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III offered advice that radically changed her bowling strategy for the better.

Bowl the pins, Bohn counseled, not your opponent. “Hearing that just clicked for me,” Kulick says. “Mentally it gave me a different outlook.”

Two months later, Kulick registered her first-ever professional victory in the Women’s U.S. Open, as she continually reminded herself to “bowl the pins!”

Following a disappointing season two years ago, Kulick once again elevated her game by stepping up workouts at the gym and embracing the practice of yoga. The extra effort paved the way for her barrier-breaking win at this year’s Tournament of Champions.

“Focusing on breathing and meditation have helped me most,” says Kulick, who bowled a 226 average in the tournament.

While Kulick has won five major tournament titles since 2003 and earned $141,000 on the PBA circuit, it’s her passion for the game—not the motivation of money—that makes her a fierce and focused competitor against the best male and female bowlers in the world.

So what are the bowling champ’s plans when she retires from the sport? “I’m really looking at culinary school,” says Kulick, who is captivated by the shows on the Food Network. “Now I’m into Bobby Flay and the Throwdown.”

Results Of Pacific Coast Deaf Women’s Tournament At AMF Carter Lanes

FULLERTON — In the last issue we had the results of the men’s tournament which was held last Memorial Day weekend in conjunction with the 63rd annual Pacific Coast Deaf Women’s Tournament at AMF Carter Lanes. The women, thanks to 5 teams entered by the tournament host, Angel West Bowlers, improved to 12 foursomes, 22 doubles, 44 singles and 15 in their prestigious Deaf Queens and 9 in their Senior Queens. All increased from last year’s 10 and 9 teams, respectively.

So, here we go with the team events.

Angel West #1 Wins Women’s Team With Handicap 2403 Total

One of the host’s 5 team entry, Anel West #1 with Faith Ranck’s big more than 40 pins over her average each game 181-172-179 for 532 along with Juliane Fuentez’s 451, Patti McCoy’s 428 and Stella Lopez’s 458 scored 2403 with handicap to take 1st place prize of $840. It is also the first Angel West team ever to win this event.

Second place $420 prize went to Coreen Harting’s Just Strike II! with top scratch 723 team game, high scratch team series 1953 for handicap total of 2337. Harting starred this Nor-Cal team with her 191-202-152/545, third and last in money $220 was taken by Sparkling Diego from San Diego with 2335.

Las Vegas’ Melchora Lee was this event’s high individual with 204-295-172/571 but her team finished 4th with 2229.

Jennifer Kutcka Returns Home With Singles Title

Last year Jennifer Kutcka flew from Indiana to participate in the Dublin tournament and returned home with the 2009 All-Evnts title. Kutcka came again and rolled 222-214-149 for high scratch 585 plus 93 handicap for 678 total to take the Handicap Singles title and $210. Her 222 was the event’s high game

In 2nd place for $105 was Riverside’s Mary Sickinger with 657 handicap total and Denise Neel, San Diego took 3rd place $80 with her 632 total. The last place in the money was Patti McCoy’s 606 in 14th.

Peoples/Neel Duo Wins Close Scoring Doubles Title

San Diego’s duo of Sharon Peoples and Denise Neel scored 1207 with handicap to win by 2 pins the Doubles title and $420 prize. Neel closed with a 202 fo0r 512 to help nip 2nd place Nor-Cal pair of April Brown and Valarie Henderson’s 1205 and 3rd place Angel’s West tandem of Pamela Essen and Kathy Seymour’s 1201.

Henderson also closed with tournament high 233 game for 505 along with Brown’s 496 for the event’s high team scratch game 401 and scratch 1001 series and their 1205 got $210. Essen/Seymour’s 1201 got them $140. Sharon Caldwell had a 214 in her event’s high 545 series but Augree Taylor shot 1185 for 5th palce while 1179 was low in the money 6th place.

Faith Ranck Racks Another Title, Handicap All-Events With 1842

Ontario’s Faith Ranck after winning the team event title with her 532, added 446 in singles and 414 in doubles for 1392 plus 450 handicap for top 1842 total to win the All-Events title and $60. Nancy Walsh, San Diego who won this event in 2003, had 480 on team, 512 in singles and 490 in doubles for 1815 with handicap to place 2nd for $30. Sharon Caldwell, No. Hollywood placed 3rd with her 1812 for $25. The last in the money 10th was tied with a pair of 1746.

Las Vegas’ Melchora Lee had the high scratch all-events of 1557 for $40 but her 54 handicap gave her 1611 for 30th place.

Jennifer Kutcka Kops Pacific Coast Deaf Queens

Jennifer Kutcka made her return trip worthwhile by adding the PCDWBA’s Jean Stokesbary Queens title to her previously won Singles title and last year’s All-Events title. Kutcka, whose mother, Sue King of Placerville was a two-time (2003-2004) PCDWBA Senior Queen’s champoion, qualified in 2nd place and swept all her 4 two games matches to win the title without a loss.

In the championship finals, Kutcka defeated her friend Coreen Harting 376-313 for the $275 prize. Harting, who qualified third, had lost to Kutcka in the 2nd round, won three more matches before losing again to Kutcka, placed runner-up for 2nd time for $145 prize. Becca Gleicher, Moreno Valley who lost in the semi-finals to Harting placed 3rd for $85. Araceli Martinez, AZ placed 4th for $31.

Kathy Seymour Scoops Pacific Coast Deaf Senior Queens

Like Kutcka above, Kathy Seymour, Whittier swept all her 4 two games matches without a loss to capture PCDWBA’s Lucy Beare’s Senior Queens. Qualified in 7th, Seymour a member of Angel West host committee took time out from her duties to concentrate on bowling, beat 8th qualifier Theresa Gutierrez, Bellflower, in the championship finals 299-287 for the $220 prize.

Gutierrez, who also was runner-up last year, got $110 for her second consecutive runner-up. Former champion (2002) Judie Crondund, Mesa, AZ who lost to Seymour in 3rd round and to Gutierrez in the semi-finals placed 3rd for $56.

The 70th annual PCDBA and 64th annual PCDWBA tournaments will be at Sunset Station Hotel, Casino and Bowling Center on May 26-29, 2011. More information later.

patterns. Each pattern is named after an Olympic host city. The short patterns start with Sydney at 33 feet, followed by Stockholm (34 feet), Beijing (35 feet) and Los Angeles (36 feet). Atlanta, at 38 feet, is the first of the medium patterns along with Seoul (39 feet), Athens (40 feet) and Montreal (41 feet). The long patterns include Tokyo (43 feet), London (44 feet), Mexico City (45 feet), and Paris (47 feet).

You can learn more about the Team USA Experience leagues, including a look at the lane patterns, on the Sport Bowling page of BOWL.com. You also can go to BOWL.com to learn about the Team USA program.

For Sport Bowlers who wish to compete in PBA Experience leagues, in which bowlers take on the same lane conditions used in PBA competitions, those leagues also will be available this fall.

USBC Coaching to Implement Re-Certification, Continuing Education Programs For Coaches

ARLINGTON—USBC Coaching will launch a new program early next year to re-certify coaches and also will begin a requisite continuing education program to keep bowling coaches up to date on the latest technology and coaching techniques.

The program will require USBC Gold, Silver and Bronze coaches who were certified prior to Jan. 1, 2006 to take an online certification test by Aug. 1, 2011 to maintain their status. Level I coaches do not have to be re-certified.

Coaches also will be required to continue their education through a variety of ways such as seminars, online courses and other programs to maintain their certification.

With more than 42,000 USBC certified coaches, it is important for USBC to identify the coaches who are active in teaching the sport and also continuing to learn about lane play, ball motion, the physical game and other dynamics.

“We have many great coaches out there and through this process we can make certain that bowlers will receive the best coaching available and proprietors will know what coaches they can call on to teach in their centers,” said USBC Director of Coaching David Garber.

There is no cost for the USBC Gold, Silver and Bronze coaches to take the certification tests, which are expected to be available online by early 2011. The tests will consist of multiple choice, true/false, essay and some video aspects.

Coaches will have until Aug. 1, 2011, to take the test. After they have passed the test, coaches will be required to take continuing education classes during the next three years. The continuing education requirements, endorsed by the United States Olympic Committee, will be modeled after such organizations as the National Athletic Trainers’ Association. Through an assortment of classes, seminars, etc., coaches will earn credits toward their continuing education requirements. At the end of the three-year period, coaches will be randomly audited to ensure they are staying current with the latest trends and coaching methods.

Go to the Coaching page of BOWL.com for further information about the new programs. You also can click here to see Frequently Asked Questions about the programs.

Citrus Belt’s JAY DE LA TORRE Rolls 300 In State Youth Tourney

by Frank Weiler

OCEANSIDE — Citrus Belt’s Jay De La Torre bowled his first 300 game recently at Surf City Lanes in the California State Youth Tournament team event. Jay used his new Motiv SR2 bowling ball to roll games of 300 - 225 - 233 for 758.

Jay’s high series to date is 792 bowled at EMPIRE BOWL in Redlands, California.

De La Torre is nineteen years old and is averaging 230 in Empire Bowl’s Saturday youth league. He recently graduated from San Geronio High School in San Bernardino and received his SR2 ball as a graduation present. The ball was recommended by his uncle JOSEPH DE LA TORRE, a PBA member and bowling coach.

Jay wishes to thank his parents Tony and Cecilia for their support, his uncle Joseph and ART GUZMAN for their coaching. He wants to thank WILL MOSSONTTE, SHERRY WILLIAMS, JASON LOA, and RAYMOND HAMILTON for running a great youth program at Empire Bowl, and ROBERT RONQUILLO owner operator of GET A GRIP PRO SHOP in Riverside’s Arlington Lanes for drilling up his new SR2 ball. He is also very grateful to GOD for answering his prayers and allowing him to maintain his calm and bowl a perfect game.

Also Jay says he and all the youth bowlers at Empire Bowl read the BOWLING NEWS and wish to thank the staff at our bowling newspaper for keeping them informed of what is happening in the bowling world.

Caballero Courts The Pins and The Count is 941 in Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—On this HOT Friday morning, Linbrook Bowl's lane dressing was Mike Caballero's canvas and he played his Carte Blanche "Strike" card. Mike took charge and played Casanova to the pins and they responded favorably as evidenced by his games of 214-255-239 and a 233 finale to cash in a 941 set. Nicely played Mike!

Miguel Rosales, a very sought after sub, reinforced his "Star" status rendering games of 192-234-286 and 199 to register a fine 911. Reservations required?

Dapper Terry Brent rounds out the exclusive 900 Club with his always steady, performance. Terry burned some wood as he stroked games of 258-216-215 and 211 to post an even 900.

More HOT scores: Larry Green 255-898, Shig Shoji 257-880, Aaron Wilson 227-874, Rod Cantrell 234-867, Janine Ditch 265-860, John Conway 235-860, Tony Chaco 259-859, Don Gardner 243-854, Hong Kha 223-844, Gloria Ferrulli 256-841, Janet Anderson 246-840, Shawn St. Andre 232-838, Alan Bloom 233-838, Ron Marcus 225-837, Rose Williams 218-825, Dahana Klerer 244-816, Jerry Knight 234-807, Juan Sandoval 220-805, Carl Adinolfi 223-803, Anderson Alcaraz (11 in-a-row) 290, John Phillips 251, Melissa Fan 236, Dora Miller 226, Rey Ortiz 220, Ed Hermance 216, E.J. Rogers 214, Dick McKenzie 211, Gavin Huff 206, Ron Douglass 203, Fred Voysey 203, Frank Bellinder 203, Al Lara 201 and Gino Vassallo 201. Until next week...
