Wichita State's Wesley Low Jr. Wins 2018 PBA Billy Welu Scholarship Award

CHICAGO – Combining scholastic excellence with outstanding achievements in bowling, the Professional Bowlers Association has announced Wichita State University Shocker bowler and five-time Junior Team USA member Wesley Low Jr. as the winner of the 2018 PBA Billy Welu Scholarship Award.

Entering his senior year at Wichita State with a 3.66 grade point average, Low, a native of Palmdale, Calif., is majoring in business management and has been a member of the Dean's list for the past two years.

"As a collegiate bowler I've met a lot of great bowlers who are also good people, so to be able to win this award is a real honor,"

2018 PBA Billy Welu Scholarship Award Winner Wesley Low Jr.

said the 21-year-old Low. "I feel very fortunate to be a Wichita State student where I can enjoy a great education with my passion for bowling at a high level.

"I chose business management as a major because

I want to eventually pursue a career in the bowling industry," Low added. "For continued on page 5

EJ Tackett, Liz Johnson Win PBA-PWBA Storm Striking Against Breast Cancer

Mixed Doubles Title with Dramatic Come-From-Behind Finish

EJ Tackett & Liz Johnson

HOUSTON, Texas – EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., and Liz Johnson of Palatine, Ill., survived a dramatic final game to win the 19th PBA-PWBA Storm Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles title at Copperfield Bowl Sunday, sending Australia's Jason Belmonte and Chicago's Diandra Asbaty to their third straight runner-up finish.

Tackett, PBA's 2016 Player of the Year, and Johnson, one of two women ever to win a PBA Tour title, led the tournament through 17 games before being overtaken by Belmonte and Asbaty. Trailing Belmonte and Asbaty by 10 pins going into the final match, victory in the tournament was going to be decided by whichever team won the game.

Thanks in great part to a bold move by Johnson to move to an extreme outside angle on the left lane while continuing to play an inside angle along with the rest of the field on the right lane, she gave her team the edge with a 212-192 margin over continued on page 5

Name One Thing About Bowling You Assume No One Else Knows

by Carol Mancini

Leonard Ruiz Jr. – Cal Bowl General Manager – “New balls carry a higher percentage of strikes. The older the ball, the less the carry.”

Eric Snow – Cal Bowl Assistant Manager – “The average person doesn’t think they are good enough to bowl in a league.”

Juan Ellison – Cal Bowl Junior Coach and Deskpersion – “If you go over the foul line during a delivery, but don’t release the ball, there is no foul.”

Carl Labayan – Cal Bowl League Bowler – “Pins used to be solid wood and weighed up to 3 pounds 11 ounces.” Carl has rolled over 55 300 games (not sure of the exact numbers).

Jean Smith – Las Vegas – “My true average??”
Jean, your book is on the way...

They went home to Nebraska and Brunswick Corp. sent The Schnakenberg's to Southern California to open Baldwin Park Bowl.

After a few years there, he was recruited to Five Points Bowl by Carl DiCiola. He was the San Gabriel Valley Bowler of the Year in 1965-66 and turned down numerous offers from Brunswick and AMF to be sponsored on the PBA Tour, but Al didn't want to be away from his family and said no to their generous offers.

He left the bowling business in the early 70's to enter Transportation Management positions. He retired and enjoyed retirement living in Walnut, CA. where he spent his time working for the Walnut Sheriff Dept. as a volunteer patrolling the streets of Walnut. He was awarded Volunteer of the Year by the Los Angeles County Sheriff Dept.

Al is survived by his wife Peggy Schnakenberg, son Steve Schnakenberg, Daughter-in-Law Dorcas Schnakenberg and Grandchildren Jasmine Hyland and Sabrina Schnakenberg. Al was laid to rest on July 24, 2018 at Riverside National Cemetery.

FUTCH, HATMAKER & WILK Enter HALL of FAME

by Frank Weiler, California Bowling Writers

SAN BERNARDINO – Toni Futch, Scott Hatmaker and David Wilk were inducted into the Citrus Belt Hall of Fame on Saturday. Association President MIKE RADDEMAN presided over the affair and CURT SNYDER was superb as Master of Ceremonies.

What does it take to be inducted into the Hall of Fame? The ultimate honor comes after years of SUPERIOR PERFORMANCE or MERITORIOUS SERVICE. This year's Hall of Fame class has performed on the lanes and served our bowlers off the lanes as admirably as any of our honorees in the past.

Toni Futch (Meritorious Service) could easily be named the best league secretary in Citrus Belt history. She was selected Secretary of the Year in 2014 and could easily be so honored every year. Toni is a people person, always providing her bowlers with outstanding service. She is a outstanding league promoter, organizer and grower. She has served thousands of bowlers over decades at bowling centers throughout the Inland Empire.

Scott Hatmaker (Superior Performance) has bowled at a outstanding level for decades. He has averaged over 200 throughout those decades and has performed so consistently that his league teams have probably won more league championships then anyone in the southern tier. Of late he is dominating in senior league play. Over the years he has rolled 11 perfect games and three 800s, with a high of 846. He has a Citrus Belt Senior Doubles Title to his credit.

David Wilk (Superior Performance) is one of the most talented bowlers to ever bowl in the Citrus Belt. He has bowled in the Association for over 35 years after impressing bowling aficionados in the Chicago, Illinois area as a young bowling prodigy. He rolled his first 300 at the age of sixteen in the late 1960's in the era of rubber bowling balls! That was an Illinois State record for years. At seventeen he won a state junior team title and was averaging over 200 by the age of 18. During those early years David won 38 tournament titles in seven different Midwestern states!

For the past 48 years David has averaged over 200, with a high of 224 in 1971. He has 28 perfect games and seven 800s. He won a CALIFORNIA State Doubles Title in 1982 and a HOINKE Classic Title in Cincinnati, Ohio that same year.

David is proudest of his accomplishments at the USBC National Open Tournament where he has averaged 202 for 32 years and placed second in 2007 in Singles. His 804 in that event makes him the second oldest bowler ever to roll an 800 at the National Tournament. Congratulations to our inductees and thanks to the Hall of Fame Committee: CURTIS COVEY, PHOSIE LOTZE, DANIEL LORENZ, NITA SCHMIDT, CURT SNYDER and NORRIS TURNER. Special thanks to the Nita Schmidt for again making the Hall of Fame posters for our inductees.

1985 – PART 1

by Carol Mancini

Each weekly edition of the Bowling News had a minimum 20 pages. There were 6 local writers, 2 photographers, 6 typesetters, etc. working 12 hours a day 5 days a week. No computers, no cell phones, no face book. It was real journalism — not for the money, but the love of bowling and bowlers.

- BARRY ASHER opened his Bowlers Supermarket in January. Friends stopping by included MARK ROTH, MARSHALL HOLMAN and PETE WEBER.
 - Visitors to the Hall of Fame in St. Louis saw oil paintings of So. Calif. stars DONNA ZIMMERMAN, D.D. JACOBSON and JANET HARMON — all from So. Cal.
 - Another Brunswick center was scheduled for the Summer of '85. VALLEY BOWL in Simi Valley.
 - PAULA VIDAD was named Ladies Pro Bowlers “Rookie of the Year.”
 - Stan Lawon tried to start a new weekly tournament, THE BOWLERS HANDICAP CHALLENGE. What a dreamer. His ad read “limited to 128 entries.” He was competing with HARRY GRANT, LILA BORNHAUSEN, BIG ANK, BERT STRAIN, BOB SMITH and every weekly “house event.”
 - DOWNEY was action city every week-end. WONDERBOWL had their “Shoot-out” and DEL RIO had their “POT SHOT”.
 - KABC TALKRADIO was the official bowling station for So. California. It never replaced Dr. Toni Grant’s “sex” interviews. How interesting can “talk” bowling be?
 - ROB CALVERT rolled AZUSA BOWL’s first 800 series. 300, 255, 279/834 after he switched from right to left hand. (And 50 practice games a week.)
 - FRANK BABORE predicted he would win “Big Ank’s” No-Tap . . . and did!
 - Junior house columns were being written by LINDA QUIROZ (Keystone), ROSANNE HEINZ (Village), BARBARA VEGA (SED Travel), JIM BENAFEL (Canoga Park). They were the Saturday scribes.
 - PIONEER BOWL in Norwalk advertised for waitresses, bartenders, desk persons, mechanics. Sounded like a clean sweep or a new owner!
 - BRUNSWICK POM LANES was renamed CELEBRITY LANES, owners GREG BADERDEEN and STEVE CAMERON.
 - HO-HUM — TISH JOHNSON won ROBBY’S WINTER CLASSIC, beating out DONNA ADAMEK, ROBIN ROMEO and VIRGINIA NORTON, all top five performers.
 - RON GAUDERN, owner of COLUMBIA BOWL, Big Chief at Western Columbia, owner of two centers in Texas and great bowler was inducted into Texas Hall of Fame.
 - ROGER CURNS took over the helm at INGLEWOOD LANES, an Active West center. He transferred from MIDTOWN BOWL. He was co-founder of a juvenile delinquency prevention program.
 - BRIAN - BRIAN PRODUCTIONS presented a “TV Championship Bowl Off” every Saturday 11 a.m. on Channel 56. (Don’t know what it was all about, do you?)
 - GARY KOWARACH was SEDBA secretary. His main job was certifying lanes—plus averages, plus league sanctioning, awards, etc., etc., etc. Seven days a week job for all association secretaries. Add in average books, tournaments, personnel league play, convention, award ceremonies, uniforms, elections - - - -WAIT - - - -I’M TIRED!
 - SPORTS CENTER ran an ad for a Valentine’s Day No-Tap - - - named “T-BONE” . What the ————? TOM CRISTI - - - was that you? ?
 - A home video cassette (VHS) was being marketed, introducing the La Magna Formula. The living room instructions we called “The Playing of the Game”. Anybody have a copy? Anybody got VHS player?
 - The number of Pro Shop ads was back up to 23. New equipment was tempting and offered to “up your average”.
 - INDIO, CALIF. had a center called MAGNUM LANES. The proprietor was STEVE PINKOCZI.
 - 16 pages of the March 1, 1985 issue was dedicated in pictures and stories to the Grand Opening of Brunswick UPLAND LANES!!!! The Mayor, movie stars, Brunswick Execs, Poster Boys, Top P.B.A. stars, 600 guests, So. Calif. Hall of Famers, the press, etc. were all featured. Biggest grand opening ever held —before or after! JIM WOODWARD was the proud Manager.
 - BARBARA VEGA was the wheel that the SED Travel League depended on. A couple of the Junior stars were MICHELLE SILVER and KENNY SEIPLE. (Both are still bowling in 2018!)
 - CIPPY CAKE (new starlett making weekly headlines) won the DonKee Tour at DUTCH VILLAGE in Lakewood.
 - PETER SETTHABOUPHA was first at the ABT paywindow, banked $1,000.00. Took an hour to verify the correct spelling of his name.
 - SUSAN CHERNAN (28 years old, 81 average law student) and ALAN BISHOP (39 years) won the Miller National Doubles in Reno. How much? $50,000.00! ‘Twas her first tournament and first trophy. They were from FOUNTAIN VALLEY.
 - BOB PERMANN was the first to roll a 300 at HEMET BOWL.
 - It looked like “Ladies Only” Donkee Event in March. BARBARA BURGESS won the event and EDNA HOLLAND broke the Double Strike Pot for $1,000.00. Never saw 2 bigger smiles!
 - The latest 2 inducted into PBA Hall of Fame were JOE JOSEPH and TED HOFFMAN Jr. Ted was from San Jose and very well known in California.
 - Team U.S.A. was established to pick the best amateurs to compete in international events. Win at the local level, then win at the state level – - then, on to the nationals. That winner would represent U.S.A. To make it that far men would have had to bowl 101 games, women 81 games. What an honor! All expenses were paid from State level on.
 - You could earn a career in bowling management thru a home study course. Everything from instructing, management, marketing and mechanics were offered. 36 easy lessons and 36 exams. (Was it a success?)
 - Banning had a new center — EDGEHILL LANES, owned by Mike Johnson. The first guy to roll a 300 was RICHARD ZIBELL and he got the $100.00 check.
 - The very popular JACK COOK was named manager of the SHOWBOAT in Las Vegas. We will hear more about him as the years roll on.
 - Chief Halftown, a full blooded Seneca Indian was a champion bowler and expert instructor. Dressed in Chief Halftown garb, he gave lessons to Junior bowlers. First reported seen at GRANADA LANES.
 - Rock and Bowl! hit the lanes with a blast. It started with just music to bowl by. Soon came flashing lights, fog, colored pins and anything anyone could think of. Many centers in 2018 are still “bowlin’ to the music!” Kids love it.
 - The 960 Scratch League had 60 teams. Every Monday night at 9, 30 teams took to the lanes at KEYSTONE and 30 teams rolled at DEL RIO. The prize fund totaled $156,000! The winning 5 guys received $20,000.00. If you didn’t pay your $100.00 franchise fee early, you didn’t get in. 300 of the greatest bowlers in So. California tackled the lanes weekly.
- Looks like 1985 had so much action, characters, awards and star performances that we will have 3 parts. Read on friends.

BURBANK – Unfortunately, it is still HOT and most of the heat is NOT on the lanes although it proved too much for the AC and the bowlers were certainly affected. I felt like I was melting! Here's hoping the problem is fixed by next Friday...

The closest bowler to joining the 900 Club was Alan Bloom. Obviously, he is not affected by the heat as evidenced by his games of 205-247 in the first set in the Rocky Marsh Doubles and 246-192 in the 2nd set for a nice 890 set.

The next highest bowler this morning was Too-Tuff Tony Hale with a slow start at 188, he quickly warmed up with a 230 to complete his first set and shot 245-220 in the second set to tally a fine 883.

More Hot Scores in Set 1: Chris Hefner 216/244, Terry Brent 246, Hong Kha 213/208, Norm Walker 225, Larry Green 223, David Yeoman 220, Dick McKenzie 212, Rose Williams 209, Maiya Tallakson 203, Don Gardner 203, Carl Adinolfi 202, Dan Milstead 201 and Willy Bordenave 200.

More Hot Scores in Set 2: Norm Walker 215/223, Terry Brent 244, Maiya Tallakson 218/214, Willy Bordenave 201/225, Dan Milstead 203/222, Don Gardner 236, Al Lara 231, Janet Anderson 222, Rose Williams 217, Makcha Nelson 213, Dahana Klerer 212, Dick McKenzie 211, Chris Hefner 210, Rich Heid 209, Steve Sparks 206 and Hong Kha 200.

three days in a row,” McCune said. “I was really surprised after the way Mike spanked me twice earlier in the day. He’s the best there is on the senior tour right now.”

McCune, who won three PBA Tour titles in 600 events and another 23 titles in 365 PBA Regional events, made a decision to not renew his PBA membership because of his work load and lack of time. While he won in his first PBA50 Tour event, he won’t get credit for a title because he’s not a PBA member.

“I work all of the time and the odds of making a show aren’t easy out here,” said McCune, who turned 50 in June. “These guys are still good; if they can get the ball to the pocket, they’ll strike all day long.

“It’s not a lack of desire to compete; it’s a financial decision now,” he added. “It’s always good to win, but right now it’s all about the money. I looked at the finals like bowling pot games – the first game was for $4,500, the next one for $7,500.”

Despite losing in his bid for a third PBA50 title this year, Haugen extended his PBA50 Player of the Year points lead. “Eugene isn’t a member, so that means no one gained points on me,” Haugen said. “He out-bowled me, and if I couldn’t win, no one was a better story than Eugene. I always say, if a guy out-bowls me, I’m happy to shake his hand and tell him I’ll get him the next time.”

In the opening match, PBA50 Tour rookie Greg Thomas of Irmo, S.C., threw an early turkey that proved to be the difference in a 225-197 win over PBA Hall of Famer Bryan Goebel of Shawnee, Kan., who didn’t throw back-to-back strikes until the 10th frame.

In the second match, Bob Learn Jr. of Erie, Pa., the 2017 South Shore Open runner-up, gave Thomas an opening when he left the 4-6-7-10 split in the fifth frame, but Thomas missed a 9 pin in his seventh frame and failed to strike on his next three shots, handing Learn a 209-203 win. McCune advanced to the championship match with a 248-215 victory over Learn in the semifinal match after Learn left a 7-10 split on his first shot and a 3-4-6-7-10 split on his second, failing to convert both. McCune struck on seven of his first eight shots and never trailed.

The tour’s next stop is the PBA50 Security Federal Savings Bank Championship presented by Track at Dave Small’s Heritage Lanes in Kokomo, Ind., beginning Saturday and concluding on Tuesday, July 31. After a brief respite, Xtra Frame on FloBowling resumes live coverage with the PBA50 Dave Small’s Championship Lanes Classic, presented by Roto Grip, in Anderson, Ind., Aug. 4-7, and the PBA50 Cup, presented by DV8, from Wyoming, Mich., Aug. 9-12, the concluding event of the PBA50 season. PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling wraps up the “senior tour” regular season with the PBA60 Dick Weber Championship for players 60 and older, presented by 900 Global, at Pro Bowl West in Fort Wayne, Ind., Aug. 14-16.

All of the PBA50 Tour’s events will be covered from start to finish live, exclusively on PBA’s online bowling channel, PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling. For subscription information, visit FloBowling.com

LAKEWOOD — All of our "Mega Vegas" Leagues are sweeping at Sam's Town along with the "Mega Vegas Leagues" from Del Rio, Keystone, Forest, Saddleback and Bowlum. The granddaddy of all sweepers!

Vegas Crackpots: LaDrena Boyd was Queen of the Lanes reigning havoc on the pins. Her 235-234-183/652 was welcomed royally. Ernie Perryman's 670 topped the sheet. Serena Jackson rolled a heart pounding 279.
