MISSY PARKIN WINS WBA QUEENS TITLE

by Paula Vidad

HENDERSON, NV — Women's Bowling Alliance Champion Missy Parkin of Lake Forest, CA led wire to wire as she out distanced USBC Hall of Famer and recent U.S. Open Senior Champion Robin Romeo, Newhall, CA by 149 pins and the rest of the field by 335 or more.

The recent U.S. Open TV show finalist averaged 226 during qualifying on the Kegel Winding Road pattern, then 220 with a 7-1 match play record on Sunday.

Defending champion Tina Stickney of Phoenix, AZ finished 4th. Missy received a $2,000 check, 2013 USBC Queens entry, tiara, WBA Meritage wine, charm bracelet and a bouquet of flowers for claiming the 2nd Annual Queens title.

Saturday's qualifying was led by Parkin and Christina Kinney of Las Vegas notched the final spot averaging 204.6. Many followers watched the live-streaming action on the InsideBowling.com Channel all weekend long and a recorded version of the final match play game can be seen online at <http://livestre.am/44WKc>

Missy would like to thank 900 Global, Vise, Etonic, Parkins' O.C. Bowling Supply and the Women's Bowling Alliance for all their hard work and hosting national women's tournaments.

In the handicap Princess division, Angela Morgan of San Francisco, CA defeated new owner of 8 lane Boulder Bowl, Diana Cavins by 22 pins to capture the championship. The new champion was elated receiving her tiara and said, "I could get used to this."

A Summer Not Soon Forgotten

by Larry Dunn (Part 1 of 3)

NEW YORK — Ashley N. Dunn of Palmdale, CA had a summer she will never forget.

As most of you current and past youth bowlers will recall, summer is the time for the major youth tournaments. This summer Ashley competed in three major events, and found success in all three; North Pointe U15 Junior Gold National Championships, the Tournament of the Americas International Competition, and Teen Masters U18 Girls National Championships.

The summer began (and ended) with the Teen Masters National Championships. It started and ended with the Teen Masters because the tournament was split into two different time segments. The National Finals that narrowed the field down to the top four girls and top four boys were held from July 8 through July 12 at Freeway Lanes in Wickliffe, OH, then the Grand Championships would be held August 8th & 9th at Manhattan, NY in Grand Central Terminal's Vanderbilt Hall. In between, Ashley would compete in the North Pointe Junior Gold U15 National Championships, and then as part of an expanded Junior Team USA International competition in the U16 Division of the annual Tournament of the Americas.

First, top U18 boys and girls from across the country competed at Freeway Lanes in an attempt to earn a position in the top four that would advance to Vanderbilt Hall inside Grand Central Terminal in Midtown Manhattan. The road to the final four would not be easy. Ashley is the 2 time defending Champion in the Teen Masters U14 Division, but now she was 15 and would be competing in the U18 Division. Competitors among the talented field included last years Girls U18 Champion Rachel Vaughn from Port St. Lucie, FL, and Semi-finalist Melanie Hannon from Cheektowage, NY.

As in 2010 & 2011 bowling in the U14 Division, Ashley summoned the skills needed to work her way into the #1 seed for the Championship Match.

First she topped the field in Wickliffe, OH by leading the grueling 34 games of qualification that included 6 games on a 42' sport pattern, 6 games on a 35' sport pattern, then 6 games on mixed pairs where the left lane of each pair had the 42' pattern and the right lane had the 35' pattern, culminating in 16 games of match play on the mixed pairs where 30 bonus pins were awarded for a win. Then there was that break in the tournament with the Grand Championships picking back up in New York on August 7th & 8th.

The format in Grand Central Terminal changed to each girl bowling the other once in a best of two match where one game to one game ties were broken by a sudden death single ball roll-off, then the two girls with the best match play record would move on to the best 2 of 3 Championship match.

The matches in Grand Central Terminal were held on a specially constructed single lane flanked by grandstands on either side, and live streaming coverage by the PBA's Xtra

Ashley went 3-0 in the match play portion with only the first match against the #4 seed Melanie Hannon going to sudden death, where Ashley escaped the loss with a 9-8 win in the roll-off, Ashley won the other matches with straight 2 game wins. Ashley would eventually face the #2 seed from the qualifying round held at Freeway Lanes, Haley Rubin from Brandon, SD, in the Girls U18 Championship. Ashley once again claimed the title of Teen Masters Girls National Champion with back to back decisive wins of 206-165, 243-189 over 18 year old

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

DARRELL STOGRYN RECOVERS FROM TRIPLE BYPASS SURGERY

TUCSON—This writer got an email last June from Ed Abakumoff saying that our friend in Tucson, Darrell Stogryn was surprised about his heart. Darrell’s doctor told him he must go through a double by-pass heart surgery right way and scheduled the surgery on July 3rd. Seriously we were shocked to know that Darrell’s heart was that bad. We sent him a get-well card with our prayers for a speedy recovery.

As we prayed for his recovery and wondering how soon Darrell could get back to bowling, we got a nice thank you card from Darrell. Amazingly with the card was a photo of Darrell snapped on the day after the surgery showing him looking good, propped up in bed eating his good breakfast and giving the “ILY” sign with his other hand.

The doctors had to do a triple bypass, Darrell wrote, and he is doing better than the doctors thought. So far he is trying to get used to the blood pressure medication. Already missed bowling but have to wait to start bowling in late September.

Darrell added, before this surgery he was bowling in summer league at Tucson Bowl, averaging 234 for 12 games. He booked 219 at Cactus Bowl last season. After 3 years out of California, he really missed the Deaf Travel league and hoped the Travel League will turn out good for the 53rd year.

Before moving to Tucson to be closer to his relatives, Darrell Stogryn was a long time member of So. California Deaf Traveling League. Also he was one of few long time deaf and hearing-impaired members of PBA and is famously known as the first bowler to hit 800 series in a deaf regional tournament. In 1992 at Sacramento he rolled 247-288-278 for 813 to win the doubles event with Bill Cozad in Pacific Coast Deaf Bowling Association Tournament.

We wish Darrell a longer life with his repaired heart.

DEAF TRAVEL LEAGUE MEETING AUGUST 26 AT KEYSTONE

NORWALK...If you missed this last week, read it again. The meeting is at 12 NOON, not at 1 PM like in the past. You must show up to be counted in on a team. If you cannot make the meeting and want to be counted on a team, please contact Pres. Ed Abakumoff, Vice-Pres. Sharon Caldwell or Secretary-Treasurer Bob Taylor to let them know. Or tell your friend who will bowl, to let them know.

LANE PATTERNS

by Robert Ellison

SAN DIEGO — This week we will look at the variety of patterns on the lanes. For an everyday ‘casual’ bowler - these people won’t notice the difference regarding oil patterns from one bowling alley to the next. Amatuers to pro bowlers will notice differences between “typical house” patterns and the PBA patterns.

The “typical house” shot is generally used among all of the bowling alley’s and tend to be higher scoring lanes than the PBA patterns. The lanes basically have the heaviest oil in the middle and dry on the outside which create what is called a “walled” or “blocked” shot. Most bowlers would throw the ball on the outside “wall” to hit the dry spot. This allows the bowling ball to come back to the pocket.

In addition, the length of oil pattern makes a difference. The house patterns tend to be 39 feet down the lane. The PBA patterns do not have a “wall” style effect when the lane is oiled; thus oil tends to be flatter (oil spreads evenly across the lane). The length of the oil pattern varies on PBA patterns such as short, medium, and long.

There are 5 different patterns used on the PBA tour: cheetah, viper, chameleon, scorpion, and shark. The cheetah is the shortest oil pattern - 35 feet. This pattern tends to be one of the highest scoring patterns on tour. The next two are medium patterns - viper and chameleon. These patterns are 37 and 39 feet in length. These patterns are similar to house patterns in length measurements (but this does not mean they can score high on these patterns due to the flatness of the oil). Scores on these patterns can be medium to high. The last two are long oil patterns. Scorpion at 41 feet, and shark at 43 feet. These two patterns are the toughest patterns on tour and tend to be the lowest scoring.

Next time you watch pro bowlers on tv, you will hear the announcer or commentator discussing various PBA patterns such as the ones reviewed above. Now you are more aware of a few basic patterns used in competition.

Good luck and good scoring!

JACOB CAMACHO

Turns 16 With 798

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — One of Cal Oaks brightest bowling prospects is sixteen year old Jacob Camacho. He is a young man mature beyond his years and very likable. A gentleman in every sense of the word, it is a joy conversing with him about any subject, especially bowling. Jacob and many other of the young bowlers today know bowling.

Silver coach ALAN MO-JADO and STEPHEN LINDSEY are working with Jacob and other juniors at Cal Oaks. Alan has made some recent changes to Camacho’s game and bang the young man bowls 798 (279 - 240 - 279). What a way to celebrate your sixteenth birthday. Thank you Mr. Mojado and Mr. Lindsey. By the way, Jacob’s high series is 826 (289 - 279 - 258).

Jacob participates in many junior tournaments and at the latest Firecracker Shootout he averaged 201 for eighteen games on three sporty conditions. Great bowling Jacob. Thank You BOWLING NEWS for covering our youth bowlers.

ABS CBN FIRST KAPAMILYA BOWLING TOURNAMENT MADE ITS FIRST YEAR A SUCCESS

Summited by Lydia

CERRITOS — Congratulations to all the winners! We are pleased to announced the success of the First Kapamilya Bowling Tournament. How the friendship can make a difference in the success of an event. This was proven once more by the Fil-Am Bowlers, including but not limited to other cultures in helping us make this first event a success. It really went so well from opening thru completion of the two days event with no problem, but it's all fun and friendly competition for a good cause, to help the Bantay Bata (children watch) in the Philippines.

My sincerest thank you to all who unselfishly supported us for two days with no hesitation! Players has shown all their different talents and style in throwing their best in bowling sports. May we congratulate the first team who raked and won the first $4,000.00 first place. The team composed of Ashley Brown, Matt Garcia, Ronald Sanchez and Kmel Cunanan. We have two groups who grabbed the second place, first group composed of Don Quitangon, Veronica Boone, George Marquez and Pete Dumpit. The other second place group goes to, Anabel Banana, Paolo Cahola, Freddie Tomas and JB Banana from Temecula and the third place goes to Adrian Pelayo, Rey Josafat Jr, Tres Catalasan and Faye Josafat.

The overall individual winners with handicapped goes to Matt Garcia and Veronica Boone, both winning a bowling Ball, a plaques and cash money. The ABS CBN gave an individual prizes, with and no handicapped every squads for two days to show gratitude and thank them for their support to make the event a success. These prizes were sponsored by different individual and company, who unselfishly donated money and in kind to our Bowling event; Dr. and Mrs. Baculi, Dr. Lito Babaran, Jeepney Asian Grill, Cyberlink Diamond Inc., Dr. Jun Valerio and most of all, the famous Goldilocks who provided the bowlers 2-day breakfast with their tasty Ensaymada.

A big thank you goes to the Manager, John Koeck, who unselfishly guided, helped and provided certificates for two individual bowlers, coffee for free and their tasty spicy chicken with beyond normal prices and of course for giving us the lanes exclusively for use by ABS CBN Foundation International for two days.

We also created a legacy in one 18 bowler individual new bowler who made a complete and 300 perfect score. The ABS CBN will provide Chris Eguilos an ABS CBN Foundation International first perfect ring. Chris has won a trophy, a cash and a ring.

The ABS CBN Foundation International also created a Bowling Club with an offices located at Cerritos Lanes. The main objective of the Club is to fundraise funds to help the Bantay Bata, but at the same time will create so many projects that will benefit not only the unfortunate children in the Philippines but will also offer and provide games that will benefit the so many bowlers in the US.

The event went well in the opening, by the officers from Cerritos and Carson giving grace to the event, and joined by the Miss USA Philippines, Tourism and a guest entertainer. National Anthem was gracefully rendered by one of the greatest saxophonist Ner De Leon.

Again, with this success, may I say, "THANK YOU" most sincerely, from the bottom of my heart and on behalf of ABS CBN Foundation International officers, Mr. Robbie Fabian, the President, Ms. Letty Quizon, the Marketing Director, yours truly, Lydia Soriano and all the committee members of the Bowling Club in the year 2012 as follows, Gigi Besa, Norma Mortola, Mikko Miller, Kmel Cunanan, Alex Young, Anthony Paris and San Diego, Jhohnny Lopez and Sam Reyes. First Team Winners, Ronald Sanchez, Matt Garcia, Ashley Brown and Kmel Cunanan with President of ABS CBN Robbie Fabian.

PBA SENIOR TOUR TO BECOME 'PBA50 TOUR' IN 2013 NEW NAME WILL CELEBRATE AGE MILESTONE AS NEW STARS ENTER TOUR

DECATUR, Ill. (Aug. 13, 2012) – The Professional Bowlers Association Senior Tour will be re-named as the PBA50 Tour beginning with the 2013 season, PBA Commissioner Tom Clark announced today from the PBA Senior Decatur Open presented by Brunswick, the concluding tournament of the 2012 Senior Tour season.

"The word 'senior' is outdated and the title PBA50 more accurately reflects the vibrancy of the players and our competition in this age group," Clark said.

The change in name is underscored by the continuing stream of stars to the over-50 circuit.

During the 2012 season alone, players including Lennie Boesch Jr., Mike Edwards, Bob Learn Jr. and Amleto Monacelli immediately won titles in their first year of Senior Tour eligibility. Monacelli, the 2012 Senior U.S. Open winner, and Edwards, the 2012 USBC Senior Masters winner, also remain active – and competitive – on the PBA Tour, along with other 50-plus members.

On the PBA50 Tour eligibility horizon are PBA Hall of Famers Pete Weber (Aug. 21), Parker Bohn III (July 13, 2013) and ESPN analyst Randy Pedersen (turned 50 on May 28). Also on the list of future PBA50 competitors are PBA Tour champions Jack Jurek (April 23), Chris Warren (Aug. 27, 2013), David Traber (Jan. 18) and Robert Lawrence (Sept. 29).

The ultimate example of a player having concurrent success on both Tours came two seasons ago when PBA Hall of Famer and all-time Tour career titles leader Walter Ray Williams Jr. made an immediate impact in the senior ranks, winning in his first tournament and going on to earn Senior Rookie of the Year honors. And during the 2009-10 PBA Tour season, at age 50, Williams became the oldest player in any major sport to earn Player of the Year honors.

This season, at the age of 52, he is the favorite to win his first PBA Senior Player of the Year title to go along with his record seven Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year awards.

The 50-plus program also produced previously-undiscovered talent in years past, when highly-talented bowlers who never had a chance to bowl as PBA Tour players reached the age where they could retire and give PBA-level competition a try. Most prominent among that group are Gene Stus, who earned his place in the PBA Hall of Fame as a senior champion, Bob Glass, a three-time PBA Senior Tour Player of the Year, and two-time Senior Player of the Year Ron Mohr.

"There are plenty of good bowlers who are becoming eligible and successful on the Senior Tour each year," Williams said.

Each tournament on the 2013 PBA50 Tour schedule will include the PBA50 moniker along with sponsor affiliation where applicable.

PBA50 also will apply to PBA Regional events that were previously called senior tournaments. The exceptions will be the PBA Senior U.S. Open and United States Bowling Congress Senior Masters which will retain their present names.

In the effort to reach out to younger bowlers, earlier this year PBA introduced the new PBA24 membership program which invites new players 24 years of age and younger to experience PBA competition for a $49 membership fee.

The 2013 PBA50 Tour schedule will be released later this fall.

Marvin Crowder First ABTA Championship

Match Game $3,500 • 3-6-9 will be $1,400 at Keystone Lanes • Match Series estimated at $450

ABTA at Keystone Lanes for Frozen Handicap Special

WEST COVINA — We returned to West Covina Lanes where despite the heat wave we saw 200 entries come out on Saturday and bowl on a fairly tough dry shot. The cut scores on Saturday night were + 55 for the men and + 18 for the women. The Super Seniors added to the board (2 men and 1 female) were Manny Loria +47 and Bud Zagorski +46. For the women it was Carla Sanchez -4. Super Seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 49 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

Our top qualifier for the Men was Tom Mazzulla with a +167 and for the women it was Cecilia Lung with +89. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Our top seed Mazzulla drew the Match Series score, and this time it was worth $676. Tom would draw the score and he drew a 450. We had two bowlers that bowled matching this score, they were Emilio Flores and Teddy Villaroman. They will each get $676 for that fine 450 series. We will estimate the Match Series at $450 at Keystone Lanes. The last bowler left in the 3-6-9 roll off was Emilio Flores, Emilio would miss on his first shot, so he takes home a consolation of $50. We will estimate the pot at $1,400 at Keystone Lanes.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Wilson Cheung and John Phan with a 1392 for $140. Finishing in second was Samson Kong and John Phan with a 1391, a mere one-pin difference, for $120. There was a total of $1,390 paid out in doubles and 24 paid spots with low to cash of 1332.

Now to the semi-finals, tops was Jeff Taino with a +105 and finishing in 2nd was Tres Catalasan at a +100. So he will sit out the first round. Our top seed in semi-finals had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $3,500. Jeff drew a 223. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had no bowlers who shot that score, and so it will continue to carry over. There were three full pots, with a 4th pot that is currently over $2,155.

This would bring us to our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Andrew Lung, Tom Mazzulla, Richard Samson, Aileen Cheung, Du Quach, Edmund Del Mundo, and Joey Nepomuceno, they received checks of $100 each. In the second round, losers were Carla Sanchez, Ricardo Baca, Freddie Zamora, and Tres Catalasan. They received checks of $107.50 each. This would get us down to the final four bowlers. The weekly horses pay a low of $48, Wilson Cheung, to a high of $103 (Beth Borci). In this round we saw Marvin Crowder (9th seed) bowling John Phan (8th seed). We would see Marvin continue his good bowling and send John home with a 226 to 184 and he advanced to the semi-final match. In the other match we saw Beth Borci (14th seed) bowling Wilson Cheung (12th seed). In this match, it was last week's runner-up Beth who would continue her march to try and return to the title match and a 2nd chance in two weeks for a championship. She would advance with a 211 to 193. Wilson and John finished in 4th and 5th getting checks for $115 each.

Our semi-final match was set, and would pit the 14th and 9th seeds from the semis against each other. In the weekly "horses" we would see Beth paying $101 and Marvin paying $62 if they would win their match. It was close throughout the match, with an early open by Beth that would give Marvin a mere 1 pin lead. In the 6th Beth would miss a 3 pin, and Marvin stayed clean to take an 11 pin lead after his half of the 7th frame. Beth came up in the 7th and would leave the 1-2-9 and get only the 9 pin. Marvin would jump out to a 22 pin lead and never look back. He would advance with a 194/225 to 166/201..

Finishing in 3rd place was Beth Borci this week for $200. For those lucky "investors" that had Marvin Crowder as a horse, he paid $62.

The title game was set. It would be Marvin Crowder going for his first championship against the top qualifier Jeff Taino, who elected to go first. He would start with a spare. Marvin would leave a four count and miss all the pins, as the nerves were there. In the 2nd Marv would spare, and Jeff in the 2nd got a spare of his own, but in the 3rd he left the 8-10 split and got only one. Marvin would get a strike in his 3rd and 4th frames to lead by a few pins. After an open, Jeff would get a strike in the 5th frame. Marvin came up in the 5th and 6th frames with a couple of marks and he was now up by 15 pins. Jeff would open again in the 6th frame and follow that with a spare. He was down 30+ pins, but it was not over as Marvin would open in the 7th and 8th frames, and his lead would shrink to 12 pins. In the 8th and 9th frames Jeff would get marks and take a slim 1 pin lead.

Marvin came up in the 9th and got a strike, so the match was not over. He got the first strike in the 10th frame and needed the 2nd to lock Jeff out. But he would get a 9 and spare and thus it would be up to Jeff, as he came up needing a double to take home the win. Jeff slammed a solid 10 pin and Marvin would finally get the monkey off his back and take home his first ABTA Championship with a 176/207 to 157/196. He would take home $1,000 for 1st place, $850 in Cash and Carry, $100 for wearing an ABTA shirt, and $100 for using the 900 Global ball during the title match, for a total of $2,050. Finishing in 2nd place for $500 was the steady Jeff Taino.

Champion Marvin Crowder is from Whittier and used a Missing Link drilled by Ben Mach. He is single and has two sons Marvin Jr, and Tim, all are ABTA Members, and Yes!!

The shot will be semi tough and fair to all. See our website (www.abta1.com). New schedules will be mailed soon, please check the website for current schedule. If you have changes in address please send your new address via the comments tab on our website.

In the ABTA we always try to give back to our members. We had a free drawing for those who bowled in any of the last four events. The winners are listed in the payoff section. Winning the Grand Prize was none other than Sierrrie Herradura, along with Husband Alfie took home a nice Philips 32" LCD TV. Du Quach won the Sony DVD, and Jimmy Wong won the Las Vegas Entry for January. All winners are listed in the payoff column.

Its history folks as Marvin Crowder enters the archives as our latest champion. Hope to see you at Keystone Lanes! Thank you for being an ABTA member until then!

22ND RALPH MORTON SENIOR FUN-TIME JULY 2012 NO-TAP DOUBLES TOURNAMENT GOLDEN MOMENTS

by Brad Domes • funtimebowling@cox.net

LAS VEGAS — Yes! There is (was) gold being sought in London but the 22nd senior Fun-Time no-tap doubles tournament had its share of gold. The Las Vegas’ Orleans Hotel & Casino 70 lane bowling center July 22-25 provided not only gold for the top “golden years” bowlers but some golden moments as well. The tournament was honored to have quadriplegic Jeff Lewis sing a moving rendition of our National Anthem to open the festivities. Jeff has fought back from a debilitating disease fabricating his arms & legs to be able not only to walk again but bowl as well.

Those familiar to the “Joe the Bowler” honor, at some large tournaments, were not disappointed by the second tourney honoree Tom Rubio, a long time participant. He followed the first selection, Ruth Ramsey, who was honored at the January 2012 event as our first “Joe” or is that “Jane”.

Plenty of gold was available for a record July crowd. 386 bowlers took their skills to the lanes on Monday followed by Tuesday’s 376 and Wednesday’s 370 for a grand total of 1032. A Sunday evening blind draw drew 138 hardy souls with 56 taking part in a Tuesday singles event. A new all events category was setup to entice the bowlers to see how well they stood up to others using their handicap totals for the three standard daily tournaments. 163 took that challenge.

Each day was a separate tournament combining two squads splitting them into two (2) divisions based on team average. A pot of gold awaited the top 25 teams in each division each day. Let’s see who took home the gold. Reminder: it would be nice to have everyone’s name listed but that is not possible. You can find complete results online at our website listed at end of this article. Unless otherwise noted scratch scores listed only.

Top five finishers in Sunday’s blind draw: Dan Miller (288)/Bonnie Toms (273), Connie Blumenthal (287)/ Joyce Dakin (296), Russ Valentine (280)/Connie Byrne (240), Charlee Kist (300)/ Betty Dennis (258) and Dick Hounsley (255)/David Woodle (255). Some notable scores: Gene McDonald & Doug White (300), Jerry Wood (298), Roger Sears (296), Peter Cracchiolo & Gene Autry (287).

Monday Div 1: Ten pins separated number 1 team JoAnn Scoville (278)/Charlotte Ontiveros from second place finishers Petra/ Ray Rosales with Jeff/ Carol Lewis (he can bowl), Annette Gudson (256)/Linda Mitchell (247) and Claude (264)/Betty Dennis (233) rounding out the top five. Div 2: Regina Edge-Pugh (298-847) carried hubby Willie (265) to victory by only 8 pins over the McNeely’s, Roy (298)/Ruby (261). Third place went to Charity (267)/Tim (290) Musial with Sandra McGee (264)/Essie Jackson (264) and Jim Ziebarth (263)/Russ Valentine (300) following.

Tuesday Div 1: Shirley (254)/Bill Mc Donald (268) took top honors over 2nd place Montry/Jim Mc Nally with teams Ted/Maria (253) Cozby, Mary Cranston/Shirley Ryckmen (258), Virginia Schuetzle/Connie Byrne (248) chasing. Div 2: Tim Teller’s 300 helped propel him and partner Julie Rhoads (260) to victory over Art (297)/John (268) Palmer whose margin was only 4 pins ahead of Tom (300)/Amelia Kutz with Bridgette (270)/Bob (300) Greb barely 2 pins over fifth place Paul/ Sherrie (275) Leonard.

Singles: Stanley DeWaal matched 300 games with Gary Anderson & Doug White to win the singles tournament Tuesday evening. Jack Grace finished second with Connie Blumenthal and Anderson tied for third. White was next with Bridgette Greb close behind.

Wednesday Div 1: Sandy & Al Pardoe took advantage of their low averages and set the tournament high handicap series of 1803. As it turns out the next four teams had all finished in the top five either on Monday or Tuesday. C (276)/J Lewis, Schuetzle/Byrne, Claude (300)/Betty (300) Dennis (may have been the first husband & wife to each bowl a 300 in the same series), Cranston/Ryckmen. Talk about taking home the gold. Div 2: One repeating team McGee/Jackson came in third behind leaders Kat Van Der Vegt/Oscar Favela (288) & 2nd place Candy/Terry (298) Mar. 4th & 5th went to George Morrison/Bruce Hilton (290) & Willie Moon/Artie Jones respectfully.

Gold seekers: Distaff side: 300’s other than listed above: Linda Mitchell, Javon Larreta & Pam Foster. Jo Burke 287. Stephanie Daley, Linda Dennis, Joyce Dakin, Georgette Palmer & Shirley Giles in the 270’s. Shooters in the 260’s were: Bertie Ferrero, Linda Taylor, Lucy Domes, Essie Jackson, Gloria King, Rita Carlton, Bev Badarraco,

B J Davalos, Cathy Recio, Josie Longoria. Men: 300 group, led by Gene Autry’s 4, included Roger Sears, Jerry Wood, Bill Moore & Jim Le Doux with 2 each. Single 300 shooters: Rich Olpin, Ron Thorson, Gary Anderson, Brad Domes, Joe Hoss, Nick Camba, Doug White, Joe Greenfield, Chuck Garber, Peter Cracchiolo, John Fitzgerald, Gilbert Shelton. Close but no cigar: Jack Grace, Art Palmer, Craig Squires, Tim Musial & Roy Mc Neely shooting in the 290’s.

Ralph Morton’s staff is to be commended again for “getting the job done”. All the work that goes on before the show goes on is without saying. Thanks to Nancy Morton, Jerry & Judee Wood, Tom & Valerie Muir, Bob & Karen Scales, Les & Fran Williams, Brad & Lucy Domes, Freida Pyles, Bill & Ruth Lang, John & Kathy McCabe, Donna & Dick Hounsley.

All of the above could never get off the ground if not for the support of the Orleans staff led by Mike Kaufmann. Kudos to Bob McVey & Fawn Worthen for their tireless effort. Thanks to the desk crew: Mark Watkins, Darren Stock, BreAnn Larkin, Joel Corral & Sonny Phui for keeping things humming.

Apologies to those I missed and lack of space to get everyone in. Thanks to all of you who have supported this tournament for so many years. Welcome to all you newbies and hope you will be back in January at the same great Orleans Hotel & Casino, Las Vegas. Bring your bowling buddies. That’s right January 14,15,16, 2013 is just around the corner. Expecting a big turnout with lots of prize value to spread around. If you don’t believe how much is available please go to our website: <http://funtimebowling.yolasite.com> for July results and January’s entry form. Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

This guy swaggers up to me and says, “Bowling is a stupid game.”

“Oh yeah.” said I.

“Oh yeah.” said he.

“Why?” said I.

“I’ll tell you why.” said he.

And with all the nice stuff out of the way his mouth was off and running.

“Two bowlers are working on a strike. The first rolls a gutter ball or gets two or three off on his next ball. The other bowler throws what looks like a perfect ball, but the 10 pin doesn’t go down. If they both make their spares, the score is exactly the same even though the first bowler’s performance can hardly compare with the effort of the second.”

I told him, “You’re all wrong. Things aren’t what they seem to be. It all evens out in the end. If a bowler keeps rolling bad balls on strikes he’ll leave tough spares and will miss many of them. And if you keep the ball in the pocket you’ll get more than your share of strikes. It’s like the baseball player who hits line drives right at an opposing player. Sooner or later, they’re going to fall for hits.”

I thought I slowed him down a bit but he came right back, saying, “And you bowling writers, always talking about how many pins a bowler knocks down. You never get it right.”

This attack raised my ire and in defense of all the over-worked and underpaid bowling writers in this world (all three of them) I meanly asked, “And what do you mean by that?”

He quickly countered my question with his own. “How many pins does a bowler actually knock down when he rolls a 300 game?” I quickly figured 12 strikes times 10 pins equals 120 and told him so.

He smiled. “So the most pins you can actually knock down in a game is 120. Yet, one bowler can knock down 120 pins and scores a 300 game while another can knock down 120 pins by recording nine spares and a triple in the last frame, and all he can shoot is 202 at best.”

He was wound up now and kept going. “When a bowler finishes with a 650 series you writers often say he knocked down 650 sticks, had a total pinfall of 650 or some other phrase that adds up to the same thing, that a bowler knocked down 650 pins. He never did. He may have knocked down only 270 pins and scored a 650 series. So why don’t you bowling people wise up and say a bowler scored 300 points or 650 points instead of saying he knocked down 300 or 650.”

He pushed on, “Who devised this system of bowling scoring? Has anyone in bowling ever analyzed what I’m saying and thought about changes?”

My adversary was getting to me and whether he had a point or not, he was stabbing pretty good. I weakly defended our position on scoring, telling him that it was such a basic standard that changes in scoring would create havoc and added that it had stood the test of time just fine until he opened up. I had little defense in regard to pinfall and reluctantly agreed that maybe we should say points instead of pins.

I finally had to resort to my “get you off the hook” phrase. Whenever a sportswriter friend of mine receives a nasty or critical letter he jots off a note to the sender, saying, “Maybe you’re right.” That’s what I told this critic.

He went away happy and left me in a quandry. The thing that really got me was the simple fact I hadn’t thought of some of his criticism long before he brought it up.

It would have made a heck of a column.

LAS VEGAS TRAVEL LEAGUE

by Vi Wilson

LAKEWOOD—The Las Vegas Travel League held its kick off meeting on July 23 at Cal Bowl. Officers for the 2012/2013 season were elected and the season rules were approved. Weekly bowling schedule and rules will be distributed on our first day of league bowling.

We were very saddened to learn that Carolyn Anderson passed just prior to the start of our meeting. We also lost “Dutch” Sullivan a couple weeks earlier. It is with heavy heart that we are saying farewell to so many of our dear bowling friends. They will be missed.

Our bowling season will open on August 20 at Cal Bowl, 10:00 AM. Team captains should remind their team members of our start date.

NESU MARTIN-GALVEZ Is Woman's State "B" Singles Champion

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA — Nesu Martin-Galvez is one of the most consistent bowlers I know. For years she has averaged between 160 to 165, rarely varying from her norm. Her current average is 165 and she does it effortlessly with style and grace.

Applying the lessons learned from coach FRANK MAZEIKAS, Nesu rolled a 587 scratch series at this years California State Women’s Tournament, for a first place finish in the category “B” singles scratch event. After appeals were settled in other events, Nesu’s win was confirmed this week and she received a four hundred dollar plus check. I hope husband PHIL GALVEZ is taking Nesu to Disneyland soon.

Nesu used her Columbia Freeze, drilled by coach Maziakas, to roll her championship score. She is grateful to him for the many hours he worked with her on improving her game. She also wants husband Phil to know that she loves him and the BOWLING NEWS to know she appreciates the paper covering the exploits of lady bowlers.

Foy Belcher Remembered

NORWALK — Barbara Belcher notified the Bowling News of the passing of her ex-husband Foy Belcher.

Foy, the youngest of 9 children, loved his bowling! He was a Southern California “Hall of Famer”, voted on by the Bowling Writers. He bowled for years in the “L.A. ALL STAR” League with his brother and was a regular tournament shooter on the weekends.

Foy is survived by two of his brothers, Frank and Carl.

Mr. Belcher was 87.

Dave Soutar Concludes Career in PBA Senior Decatur Open After More than Half-Century of PBA Competition

DECATUR, Ill. (Aug. 13, 2012) -- Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Dave Soutar ended his career in PBA competition in appropriate fashion during the final day of qualifying of the PBA Senior Decatur Open presented by Brunswick Monday — before a big crowd and throwing three strikes in the 10th frame of his last game.

It brought an end to more than a half-century of PBA competition for the 72-year-old who won 18 titles on the PBA Tour and seven on the Senior Tour.

“He was my roommate on Tour and has been a close friend for 50 years,” fellow Hall of Famer and competitor Johnny Petraglia said of Soutar. “It marks the end of an era and it’s going to be tough bowling out here without him.”

Soutar, who was the only player to win both the United States Bowling Congress Masters (1973) and Senior Masters (2000), finished the Senior Decatur Open in 52nd with a 3,183 pinfall and a 214 in his final game in qualifying.

“It wasn’t until the last game that I thought about it being my last tournament,” said Soutar. “Then I saw people gathering around and it started to hit me. I don’t show much emotion but I started to get tears in my mind in the 10th frame—so much so that I couldn’t see my target. With everyone gathering around I thought to myself, please let me strike in the 10th frame. It was probably as nervous as I’ve ever been bowling in a tournament.”

Soutar began his care in 1961 and in only his fifth tournament as a professional, he won a major – the PBA National Championship – for his first PBA title. From that launching pad to stardom, he would go on to win 11 titles over the next seven years, finishing in the top 10 in earnings six times over that same period.

His best season came in 1970 when he won five titles, the most of any player on Tour that year. In what he admitted was his biggest disappointment, he did not earn Player of the Year honors that season. That distinction went to another Hall of Famer Nelson Burton Jr., who won four titles. Soutar’s consolation prize was the PBA’s prestigious Steve Nagy Sportsmanship Award, awarded by his fellow competitors.

A member of both the PBA and USBC Halls of Fame, Soutar was voted 20th greatest PBA player of all-time in 2009.

“I have to admit that realizing I’m not going to be doing this anymore, is a little depressing, but time goes on,” added Soutar, who now makes his home in Bradenton, Fla., but got his start in the sport in his native Detroit.

As the crowd gathered for his last game, Soutar’s wife, Hall of Fame bowler Judy Soutar, was also hanging on every shot in the last game of his career.

“I so much wanted him to bowl a good game that last game,” Judy said. “As it turned out it was the ultimate ending for a great career. When he got the first strike I was satisfied but the next two were just a bonus.”
