Corey Dykstra To Succeed Brent Perrier As Brunswick Bowling CEO

Corey Dykstra

MUSKEGON – Brunswick Bowling Products announced today, after almost 37 years of service to Brunswick and the bowling industry, Chief Executive Officer Brent Perrier is retiring, “It has been a great run at Brunswick,” Perrier commented, “and I’m really proud to be leaving the company in the best financial position, and with the highest quality product line we’ve enjoyed in a long time. Furthermore, I’m happy the current management team will remain in place and will continue to drive Brunswick Bowling Products forward in developing innovative products and services for our customers.”

Perrier will transition into the position of executive advisor to the Board and CEO over the next two months. Corey Dykstra, the current CFO and VP of Consumer and Aftermarket Products will succeed him as CEO. Dykstra has been with Brunswick since 2004 and has served in his current role as CFO for the last seven years. Dykstra has been instrumental in growing the Consumer Product business, most recently with the introduction of the shoe and bag product lines. Dykstra also served as Billiard and Bowling International Association president in 2016.

“On behalf of the entire Brunswick Bowling Products organization, the board of directors would like to thank Brent for his many contributions to the company over the years and welcome Corey into his new role,” said Joe Licata, chairman of the board of directors for Brunswick Bowling Products. “We see great potential in the strategic direction of the Company, and are excited to have access to Corey’s talent and experience to bring Brunswick Bowling Products to the next level of performance.”

Corey Dykstra Dykstra commented, “I’m proud and excited to be given the trust and responsibility to guide Brunswick Bowling Products in the coming years. We at Brunswick are grateful for Brent’s leadership and thank him for his many years of service.”

“I would like to sincerely thank all the friends, cus-

Pete Weber Wins PBA50 DeHayes Insurance Group Championship for 100th Career PBA Title

Brian LeClair Wins PBA50 Player of the Year Crown

Weber defeats Norm Duke 279-255 in championship match to dash Duke’s PBA50 Player of the Year hopes

FORT WAYNE, Ind. – PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber won the PBA50 DeHayes Insurance Group Championship presented by Pro Bowl West and Ebonite for his 100th overall title in PBA competition, and Brian LeClair of Delmar, N.Y., survived challenges from Norm Duke and Parker Bohn III to win his first PBA50 Player of the Year crown.

Weber, who was the top seed for the finals, won his first PBA50 Tour title of the season by defeating Duke in the title match, 279-255, for his 11th career title on the tour for players 50 years and older.

“I thought it could come at any time but I might have taken it for granted a little bit,” said Weber of his

Flamboyant and Fabulous – That’s Carl Comrie

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – A couple of years ago, Carl Comrie was bee-bopping around the lanes during league play. He spotted a friend who was gearing up to bowl but had encountered some momentary issues – either with his equipment or perhaps an injury.

Carl asked his friend if he should bowl for him.

Carl got the go-ahead, scampered to the line and without hesitating, shot a bullet down the lane that toppled all 10 pins.

Carl then briskly walked away – triumphantly.

That’s Carl Comrie, one of the biggest characters in a sport filled with characters.

That’s not to say Carl isn’t also a terrific bowler – because he is. He throws strikes with the greatest of ease and averages about 210.

He just has a flamboyant personality that sometimes dwarfs his skill as a bowling marksman.

Carl recently won the strike roll-off at Winnetka Bowl’s doubles no-tap tournament this month. He crushed four strikes in four tries in the event to outlast some rugged competition and claim the $210 prize. And he did it after being one of the event’s co-organizers and bowling a head-turning 812 series (245, 288, 279) in the tournament.

All the while, Carl was wearing his signature flowery Hawaiian shirt.

“He likes to wear flashy shirts because that’s the person he is,” league colleague Greg Kolski said. “He likes it nice and bright.”

Carl says that’s true – no one can mistake who he is when he wears his resplendent attire.

Everything about the transplanted Jamaican suggests he’s a fun-loving guy who enjoys doing things in his inimitable style.

Carl’s love affair with bowling goes back about 20 years. That’s when he got excited the day he was asked to bowl.

Then Carl got a huge surprise.

“My ex-wife is a Californian,” recalled Carl, “and she used to bowl. She knew I loved cricket and loved sport and activity and said, ‘You should go bowling.’ I was excited because I thought it was cricket.”

Cricket, which is popular in such countries as India, Pakistan, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, is a bat-and-ball game involving two teams on a cricket field. Cricket uses terms such as “bowling” and “bowler” to describe action and players – hence the confusion.

Cricket, though, is a far cry from 10-pin bowling that Carl was introduced to a couple of decades ago. Carl has found that the American-style game suits him quite well. He’s distinguished himself with five 299 games, two 300s and an 809 series that he rolled last year at Harley’s Simi Bowl.

The 800 series was a longtime goal of Carl’s. “That’s my bowling highlight,” says Carl, an Oxnard resident. “Some people bowl forever and never get an 800. And I bowled one.”

Carl, 62, bowls with a distinctive style in which he heaves the ball down the lane, showing remarkable accuracy.

“It’s different and unusual,” said bowler Adrienne Roseberry about Carl’s bowling style, “but it works for him.”

Carl, a right-hander, acknowledges that he bowls the way he does because of injuries that he sustained in cricket.

“I don’t bend my knee,” Carl said, “and I just aim for my mark and hit it most of the time.”

He bowls in six leagues – at four bowling centers. On Saturdays, he runs tournaments. On the other days, he bowls in leagues. Years back, he bowled in only three leagues. “I think I improved my strength,” he says with a twinkle in his voice.

Asked whether he now prefers bowling over cricket, Carl says he likes bowling best.

“I’m too old to play cricket,” he says. “But I’m not too old to bowl.”

Carl Comrie is a colorful character on the bowling scene. He also has distinguished himself on the lanes with two perfect games and an 800 series. Photo by Amy Lew

PBA REGIONAL POINTS LEADERS FOCUS ON OCTOBER 15 DEADLINE FOR WSOB IX BERTHS

Regional points leaders as of August 6 have an eye on the October 15 deadline when the PBA’s regional points competitions for 2017 will be finalized, and the leaders in each region will be announced for the PBA Regional Challenge to be held on November 7 to kick off the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling IX, presented by Eldorado Reno Properties Inc., at the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev.

The regional points leaders will meet in a head-to-head match play competition in Reno, at the same time the eight points leaders from the 2017 PBA50 Tour season bowl the PBA50 Challenge. All regional and PBA50 Tour qualifiers also will receive paid entries into the World Series, and both Challenge events will air live on PBA’s Xtra Frame online bowling channel.

The current leaders in the PBA Regional points races are:

- East Region – Matt O’Grady, 105,277 points (second place, Greg Ostrander, 66,763).
- South Region – Dick Allen, 90,674 (Cristian Azcona, 81,781).
- Central Region – Graham Fach, 92,839 (Kyle Mayberry, 87,6715).
- Midwest Region – AJ Johnson, 83,392 (Tom Hess, 66,202).
- Southwest Region – Francois Lavoie, 137,678 (Mike Bailey, 89,040).
- West Region – David Haynes, 116,934 (Darren Tang, 109,137).
- Northwest Region – Darren Tang, 117,603 (Cameron Weier, 112,156).

Finishing in the top eight in PBA50 points were Brian LeClair, Norm Duke, Parker Bohn III, Bob Learn Jr., Michael Haugen Jr., Walter Ray Williams Jr., Amleto Monacelli and Ron Mohr. Williams is the defending PBA50 Challenge winner; O’Grady is the defending PBA Regional Challenge winner.

Xframe Bowling Tournament Club

Narciso Wins First Xframe Title at Keystone in Thrilling Finals $2,000

Amado is Runner-up $750 • Basurto is 3rd $375
We Bowl at Bowlm Saturday 8/19 • Match Game Est. $2,750
BIG LABOR DAY EVENT Sept.1-2-3 at West Covina Lanes $6,000 1st with Bonuses

NORWALK – One of the Good Guys Henry Narciso won his first Xframe title in a very tight finish, in fact by one scant pin edging upstart Conrado Amado +117 - +116 to take home a nice top prize of $2,000 to Baldwin Park with his fine showing at Keystone Lanes.

The turnout was fair, 125 bowlers in the two-squad event. We did have several new members join us at Keystone. It is a great place for us to bowl.

25 bowlers took to the lanes for the Beat the Board FINALS. Cut scores were Men +73, Women +79, Men Seniors +69 and Women Seniors +27.

We will now bowl the 3 game Beat the Board Finals and where you will finish after 3 games is where you will cash. Right out of the gate came south paw John Armenia +78 after Game

#1. After Game two Armenia had a bad-look and Ramsey Basurto was the leader at +97, Henry Narciso in 2nd +84 and Game 3 to decide the winner was very close. Many had the chance to win it as they were right behind him!

Game 3 had Amado take a lead periodically with a huge 266 to finish second +116 $750 but never say die, Narciso rose up a nice 233 or +33 to finish tops +117 $2,000 including the 4:00 PM Bonus. Basurto 201 final game was 3rd $375!! Sierrrie Herradura bowled very well and came up to 4th place +94 $150 and Romeo Borillo 5th +91 $125. It was a great tournament lots of fun at Keystone.

Thanks to all who participated and we hope to see you Saturday at Bowlm Lanes in Montclair.

The Match Game was drawn by Mr. Narciso 223 was the 3 number. ZERO winners so we estimate the Match Game at $2,750 at Bowlm.

Henry Narciso hails from Baldwin Park, this is his first Xframe Championship

Henry used a Menace-Roto Grip drilled by Memo at Chaparral Lanes. Henry is single with one son Henri who will be proud of dad for sure.

Conrad Amado, another old pal used a Brunswick, drilled by Rick Laners at Santa Clarita Lanes, he’s married to Rufina with 3 grown children.

Ramsey Basurto is from Lancaster, he used a Storm LQ drilled by my old pal Jim Brewer. Hi Jim, :-) Ramsey is engaged to be married soon to the very pretty Elysia Johnson also an Xframe Member. He, Elysia and Troy Brooks own and run the CBT a fine Singles and Doubles Tournament. See on FB and The California Bowling News.

Narciso Hits First Xframe Title at Keystone $2,000
(L to R) are Jeff Taino Xframe Director; Ramsey Batsuro 3rd $375, Conrado Amado Runnerup $750, Champion Henry Narciso $2,000, Sierrrie Herradura 4th $150 Romeo Borillo 5th $125 and Xframe Director Renan Cruz. Bowlm is next Saturday Aug.19 Handicap Frozen for Labor Day Special $6,000 1st- Aug 26 is a Bye. Henry Narciso won it at Keystone and qualified at 4:00 PM for the $500 Bonus and a $2,000 pay day.

The Bowlm is our host Saturday Aug. 19 and handicap is frozen for the Big Labor Day Event at West Covina Lanes Sept. 1-2-3. There will be a bye Aug. 26 letting everyone get set for the school year coming soon.

Bowlm Lanes is located at 4666 E Holt in Montclair near the corner of Holt and Ramona. Take 60 Freeway to Ramona go north 2 1/2 miles to Holt then left or take 10 Freeway to Monte Vista go South to Holt then right. Phone there is 909-626-3528.

The following week September 1-2-3 we will have our First ANNUAL LABOR DAY WEEKEND SPECIAL at popular WEST COVINA LANES. $6,000 1st possible with Bonuses, $3,000 min 1st. Win an extra $1000 if qualifying Friday Night and winning event. 2nd $2,500 with Bonus $1,500 min., 3rd $1,250 with Bonus $750 min. and 4th $625 with Bonus $375 min. More to come on this EVENT.

Thank you to all, and special thanks to Keystone and Staff for the great help there as usual.

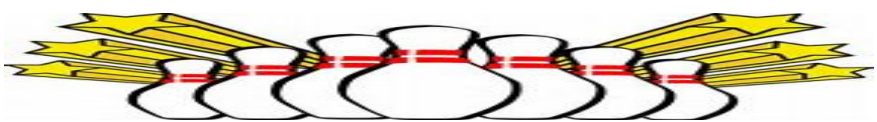

CHECK IN EARLY AT BOWLMIUM PLEASE!!! YOU WILL NOT LOSE HANDICAP at Bowlm and again make plans for the BIG ONE. The Labor Day weekend event at West Covina Lanes. Thanks for being an Xframe member. Until then!!

Chip Pettiford High Competition League

GARDENA/TORRANCE – Here we go again but now you have two choices as the winter season is approaching. This year there will be two divisions of the Chip Pettiford High Competition League! Thursday, 7 pm at Bowlero Torrance (formally known as AMF Bowl O Drome) and Tuesday, 9 pm at Gardena Bowl! Both leagues will be running independent of each other and have a projected first place of $8,000 based on 32 sets of doubles teams.

Then there will be a special winner takes all roll off between the two league winners for an additional $4,000 (again all based on 32 teams at each center) for a total of $12,000 to the winner of the house champions roll-off! The Chip Pettiford High Competition League has been in the “lime light” and has gained notoriety all around Southern California as “The League to Watch and Join” for the past five years. It has quickly become the most talked about league that allows the average bowler the opportunity to bowl for nearly professional type winnings. Many people inquiring about it and adjusting their schedules to join.

Now you will have two choices OR you could bowl in BOTH! Theocratically, a doubles team can bowl in both leagues and if they win they would net a total of $20,000! ($8,000 for winning each league plus they would automatically win the roll off bonus of $4,000 based on the 32 teams at each center). These leagues will offer the most exciting and highest pay off ratio league in all of Southern California! The league has been named after one of its prominent charter members, Mr. Chip Pettiford who was lost to prostate cancer last year. 310-215-3500 Although this is a doubles league each team will be doubled up on the lanes as though it is a foursome.

The last place team will receive a minimum of $600 or more ($300 each)! Not bad for a mere $31 per week league fee and last place is as much as many first place pays off for some leagues. For more information please see the ad in this week's paper or either contact Dewann Clark @ 310-846-4590 or Necole Johnson @ 562-728-7210 ASAP ~ Team spots will be held on a first come first served basis with a maximum of 32 teams for the Gardena Bowl league and 40 teams for the Bowlero Torrance league!

The $20 deposit is highly recommended for either league to ensure your team's spot (the deposit will be applied to the franchise fees for the team) The meeting for Bowlero Torrance will be at 6 pm on 9/7/17 and the league will start at 7 pm. The meeting for the Gardena Bowl league will be at 8 pm on 9/12/17 and the league will start at 9 pm. So don't be left out and sign up now!

Darryl Bower Throws Last Six Strikes in Title Match to Win PBA60 Dick Weber Championship

Bower defeats Dave Axon 255-208 in title match for first senior national title

FORT WAYNE, Ind. – Darryl Bower of Middletown, Pa., threw the last six strikes in the championship match to win the PBA60 Dick Weber Championship presented by Hammer Saturday at Pro Bowl West for his first PBA60 national title.

Bower defeated the stepladder finals’ top qualifier Dave Axon of Bellevue, Neb., 255-208, to win the last of three PBA60 events for players 60 and older during the season.

Bower, a 61-year-old bowling proprietor, held a commanding lead until the sixth frame when he left the 4-6-7 split opening the door for Axon who was trying for his first national title. But then Bower made a small adjustment which enabled him to put the string of strikes together to seal the match.

“Being able to throw the ball straight and fairly slow allowed me to repeat shots,” Bower said. “I had that one bad shot in the sixth frame but I made a small adjustment by moving my feet to the left on the approach and that’s all I needed to get the ball back to the pocket.”

The win was Bower’s second national PBA title. He won the PBA Tour’s 1985 PBA True Value Open which was held in Indianapolis.

“Indiana has been good to me,” said Bower. “My PBA Tour win came in Indianapolis and now I’ve got a senior win here in Fort Wayne. I’m looking forward to coming back.”

Bower’s best finish on the PBA50 Tour was fifth in the 2012 PBA50 Senior Dayton Classic.

Bower, who qualified third for the finals, defeated No. 5 qualifier Hugh Miller of Mercer Island, Wash., 280-192, in the second stepladder match before advancing to the semi-final where he beat 2008 USBC Senior Masters winner Kenny Parks of Hammond, Ind., 234-206.

Miller, a seven-time PBA Tour and three-time PBA50 Tour winner, posted an 11-1 match play record to make it to the finals.

In the opening match, Miller beat three-time PBA Tour and two-time PBA50 Tour winner Charlie Tapp of Kalamazoo, Mich., 222-193.

The winner of the two previous PBA60 events this season were PBA Hall of Famer and four-time PBA50 Tour Player of the Year Tom Baker who won the season-opening PBA60 Killer ‘B’ Open and two-time PBA50 Player of the Year and reigning PBA60 Player of the Year Ron Mohr, who won the Super Senior Classic.

Dick Allen Wins PBA Xtra Frame Chesapeake Open for Fourth PBA Tour Title

South Carolina veteran ends six-year title drought with win over Ryan Ciminelli

CHESAPEAKE, Va. - Dick Allen of Columbia, S.C., defeated top qualifier Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, N.Y., 205-176, to win his fourth Professional Bowlers Association Tour title Sunday in the PBA Xtra Frame Chesapeake Open at AMF Western Branch Lanes.

Allen, who won his most recent PBA Tour title in Indianapolis in 2011, was in or near the lead throughout the final stages of qualifying before surrendering the lead to Ciminelli in the final qualifying game. But making the finals as the no. 2 qualifier was fine with Allen, who knew he would at least get a shot at ending his six-year title drought.

“I’ve been close a couple of times,” Allen said, “but after coming so close (a third-place finish in the Mark Roth-Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship) with Zeke (Bayt) made me want to really focus on my game, so I’ve been working at it.

“These young kids out here now are so good, you really have to work at it if you want to win again. And I love to bowl, and I wanted to win again.”

Allen and Bayt finished third in the Roth-Holman Doubles event in Portland, Maine, in April for Allen’s best finish since a runner-up finish in the 2014 Cheetah Championship in Las Vegas.

In the championship match, Ciminelli never got comfortable. He failed to convert the 3-5-6-10 in the second frame, and didn’t throw his first strike until the sixth frame. He got his second strike in the seventh frame, but then left a 7 pin – his fifth single pin leave. In the meantime, Allen’s early double was followed by a 2-8-10 split. And then a turkey was followed by a 4-7-10 split, giving Ciminelli a fighting chance. But the Cheektowaga left-hander left a 4-10 split in the ninth frame and his comeback hopes evaporated.

“The guy’s a great bowler, but I definitely left it open for him,” Allen said of his match with Ciminelli. “I was fortunate to escape this time. You don’t escape those moments very often out there.”

In the first stepladder match between a pair of 23-year-old PBA newcomers, Anthony Caso of Spring Hill, Fla., eliminated five-time Puerto Rico national team member Cristian Azcona, 244-219. Caso struck on five of his first six shots, held a 37-pin lead after Azcona failed to convert the 3-6-10 in the seventh frame, and doubled in the ninth and 10th frames to clinch the win.

Allen, a 38-year-old, 18-year PBA Tour veteran, eliminated Caso in almost identical fashion in the semifinal match, 228-201. Allen started the contest with five strikes on his first six attempts while Caso, a third-year PBA member who was bowling in only his second PBA Tour event, struggled to find the pocket until the final two frames.

The Xtra Frame Chesapeake Open was the fifth tournament in the seven-event PBA Xtra Frame Storm Cup series that will award $50,000 in bonus prizes to the five points leaders. With his win, Allen will be in the thick of the race heading into the Xtra Frame Gene Carter’s Pro Shop Classic from Mid-County Bowling and Entertainment in Middletown, Del., Aug. 19-20, and the series finale, the PBA Xtra Frame Kenn-Feld Group Classic at Pla-Mor Lanes in Coldwater, Ohio, Aug. 26-27.

Both events will be live streamed on PBA’s online bowling channel, Xtra Frame. For Xtra Frame subscription information, visit xtraframe.tv.

1973 - PART 1

by Carol Mancini

- The first event of the year was the P.B.A. event at BOWLING SQUARE. The camer- as flashed as DON CARTER, BILL SHOEMAKER, JIMMY ROGERS, JIM HAMPTON, JAMES CAAN, HARRY WILSON (tough guy!), BOB EUBANKS, FRANK CADY, DAVE SOUTAR, RAY BLUTH, BARRY ASHER, CARMEN SALVINO, DON GLOVER, JIM GOD- MAN, DON PORTER, JULIE LONDON, BOBBY TROUP plus the P.B.A. stars kicked off the PBA stop.
- Yum - - - Del Contes restaurant on P.C.H.. DAVE DEL CONTE was composing music and doing beer commercials.
- San Diego's JEAN LEARN joined the W.W.P.B., and then the Men's 700 Club welcomed her. Averaging over 190 she was a natural to teach the game. And she did!
- Give you 3 guesses - - - who won the P.B.A. at BOWLING SQUARE? I'm sure BARRY ASHER will re-call. He came in second behind GARY DICKINSON.
- Bowling shows ranked fourth in popularity behind football, baseball and basketball.
- JOHN LAWLESS - - - new manager at BOWLIUM.
- EL DORADO BOWL held "Half a Marathon?" or a five gamer. Got your attention?
- TROPICANA LANES: LENNY EISENBERG must have had a free week-end to run a "10 Game Marathon". Even had 2 squads, so you could change partners and shoot again.
- JAY ROBINSON won the Denver Open and made the 'Firestone' roster.
- LA MESA BOWL Pro Shop was selling Bonanza Balls —fitted and drilled —$19.95.
- KING PIN LANES had a new top gun. MANNY PERKISS. Too bad he wasn't more friendly.
- ALHAMBRA VALLEY BOWL hosted 16 teams of lady deaf bowlers. They bowled the TEAM EVENT, took a lunch break, then bowled doubles.
- True gentleman MIKE BONTA was king of the GRAND CENTRAL MARATHONS. Com- ing soon was MANCINI'S Marathon Relays. (Excuse the many moments of MANCINI — but he was running the biggest, most action filled events in So. Calif.) Always a turn - away crowd in a 60 lane center.
- DAVE STEELE was the manager at SAN GABRIEL LANES for a short time. He got to watch the installation of underground ball returns, the latest invention to hit California.
- The bargain of the year was a coffee mug (with the inscription "World's Greatest Bowler" plus your name.) You got your own mug for subscribing to the Bowling News. A real $5.00 margin!
- BOBBY KNIPPLE won the P.B.A. King Louie Open.
- WALLY POON handled the reigns at MONTEREY PARK LANES.
- GAREY CENTER BOWL in Pomona was sold again. Anybody remember that center?
- DAVE FRAME "almost" made Rookie of the Year. Needed 9 more games at press time.
- Jewelry from safety pins was a short time craze. Gals would put together bracelets between frames.
- "The Man Killer" was the name of the 20 gamer at GARDEN SQUARE BOWL. $1,250.00 First Place. BIG $60.00 ENTRY FEE!!! At least there was a one hour break between the tens.
- Oh Lordy - - - Another MANCINI money maker! This time it was the "MULE" at GRAND CENTRAL . 10 SQUADS Per week-end for four week-ends. 240 bowlers filled every squad!! Believe it or not!
- JACKSON BOWL was leveled by fire on Feb. 25. Manager DICK MARQUIS reported the bowl will rise again!
- "The International Society of Girl Watchers" (founded in 1960) alerted the San Diego women bowlers that they were being watched. They were to be judged on personality,

- poise, form, appearance and bowling skills.(I hope we find out the winner in a few weeks.)
- The "MULE" was postponed to accommodate the leagues from JACKSON BOWL after it burned.
  - MIKE MCGRATH defeated EARL ANTHONY 234-222 in New York's Madison Square Garden.
  - LARRY GRAY made the paper every week. Why? Because he was King of the L.A. Junior All Stars. How's your thumb Larry?
  - A beautiful mother of two — SHARON OSINSKI — a bowler— was picked as a gal to be watched by THE SOCIETY OF GIRL WATCHERS.
  - RUDY HINOJOSA became the new general manager of LUCKY LANES. He made the rounds. I have some good stories tucked away RUDY! You can't hide in Iowa.
  - ANDY MESSINA jumped from FREEWAY BOWL to WONDERBOWL ANAHEIM to ROSSMOOR BOWL, had a good reputation and was a great hustler.
  - San Diego BILLIE LEE won the W.W.B. title at DEL RIO LANES. Her first. Her prize? A check for $540.00 and a clock trophy. I think the smile is still on her face!
  - BACH'S oval thumb was a bowlers treasure. More secure grip. Comfortable pitches. More hook. Striking power. Magic???
  - BILLY MYERS & wife LOTTIE had a baby boy which BILLY swore would NOT be called "Junior".
  - VLADIMIR PROMYSLOV, the mayor of Moscow rolled a game at WESTLAKE BOWL in Daly City. Will TRUMP and PUTIN test the WHITE HOUSE LANES? How about they bowl for world peace?
  - W.I.B.C. was over 3 million mark.
  - 6,000 bowling balls were destroyed when the Western Columbia warehouse burned to the ground.
  - HARRY GRANT'S Singles was up to $50,000. Ready for summer action.
  - Mighty Mite DONNA ADAMEK led the Jr. Scratch League at STARDUST week after week. Her career ran year after year. Go DONNA Go!
  - Smile! The definition of a wedding ring — is — a tournaquet worn on the left hand to stop circulation.
  - The JEWEL CITY dream team was this awesome foursome—KENNY BAYER, DAVE LEE, JACK MONAGHAN and RICK ST. ANGELO. Oh, to watch them just one more time! Please God—let there be bowling in heaven!
  - TOYO WORLD LANES in Tokyo, Japan was the largest in the world. 504 lanes. No leagues. Just open play. Men in suits and ties. Hardly any women.
  - COLE and GOLDSTEIN were back with more "KWIKIE SINGLES". $50,000 on the line. Their ad included this line — "Happy Mother's Day - Why Not Bring Mother Down for A Kwikie".
  - 12 colleges in So. Calif. entered 220 students in the Cerritos College Invitational. Well, a good thing can't last forever!
  - Names in review: KEN HUBBARD at San Diego, SANDY MALE 298 game at Alhambra, GEORGE HAVELES , Manager of GARDEN SQUARE, JACK BINGHAM, owner of "Take A Chance" Pro Shop, CONNIE MARCHIONE, president of Pacific Coast Deaf Bowlers, WEB SHERIDAN, L.A.B.A. Secretary, BOBBE NORTH, Instructor at 4 different centers every week, PHIL KAPSIMALLIS, junior star, ROSA PECK, writer, WALT BLOCK, promot- er (and still in the banking biz in 2017), ROSANNE HEINZ, BOWLING SQUARE league organizer, CHERYL KOMINSKY, bowler of the Year, CONNIE PICK, coolest gal at Cano- ga, HERB ROTH, the Judge, TOM LONG, Ball Driller.
  - Wish I could mention every name on every page. Each had a fleeting moment of fame.

100th overall win. “You have to earn it – you can’t expect it. “It’s been a humbling experience this year,” Weber admitted of his otherwise disappointing season in which his previous best finish was third in the USBC Senior Masters. “You’re going to have the down times no matter who you are. You have to take the good with the bad.”

Weber, the 2015 and 2016 PBA50 Player of the Year, has won 37 PBA Tour titles, 48 PBA regional and 4 PBA50 regional titles in addition to his 11 on the PBA50 Tour. His 100 titles ranks second behind fellow hall of famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. who has 102 titles overall in PBA competition.

Both Weber and Duke got off to strong starts in the championship match. Weber started with the first seven strikes before leaving a solid nine pin in the eighth frame. Duke, who was also on a string of strikes, left a pocket 7-10 split in the eighth frame which pretty much ended his hopes for the win.

“I knew going in it was going to take a 260 game against Norm and fortunately I bowled 270,” Weber said. “I needed every bit of it because every time I bowl Norm, we always have a great match and it seems like it’s always a battle.”

Weber’s title also moved him into a tie for fifth with Williams and Gene Stus on the all-time PBA50 Tour titles list.

Duke, who qualified third for the finals, needed a win to overtake LeClair in the player of the year point race. LeClair, who finished seventh in the tournament, was the only player to win more than one title during the season winning the Pasco County Florida Open and Johnny Petraglia BVL Opens. He also had a second-place finish in the Suncoast PBA Senior U.S. Open.

In the opening match Bohn, trying for his second consecutive title of the season after winning last week’s Dave Small’s Championship Lanes Classic, defeated Williams, the 2017 USBC Senior Masters winner, 212-206.

In the second match, Duke defeated Bohn 224-217 to advance to the semi-final match where he beat hall of famer Amleto Monacelli, 268-224. Both Duke and Monacelli were also trying for their second titles of the season. With a win Bohn could have also won the PBA50 Player of the Year crown.

In all, the five championship round finalists represented a combined 177 PBA Tour and 38 PBA50 Tour titles.

Finishing in the top eight in PBA50 points, LeClair, Duke, Bohn, Bob Learn Jr., Michael Haugen Jr., Williams, Monacelli and Ron Mohr earned the opportunity to compete in the PBA50 Challenge which will be held in conjunction with GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling IX presented by Eldorado Reno Properties this November.

PBA players 60 and older will wrap up their season with the PBA60 Dick Weber Championship presented by Hammer..

PBA50 DeHAYES INSURANCE GROUP CHAMPIONSHIP
presented by Pro Bowl West and Ebonite
Pro Bowl West

Final Standings:

- 1, Pete Weber, St. Ann, Mo., $7,500.
- 2, Norm Duke, Clermont, Fla., $4,000.
- 3, Amleto Monacelli, Venezuela, $2,500.
- 4, Parker Bohn III, Jackson, N.J., $2,000.
- 5, Walter Ray Williams Jr., Oxford, Fla., $1,750.

Stepladder Results:

- Match One – Bohn def. Williams, 212-206.
- Match Two – Duke def. Bohn, 224-217.
- Semifinal Match – Duke def. Monacelli, 268-224.
- Championship Match – Weber def. Duke, 279-255.

CARITA HATMAKER Rolls 235

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA - Carita Hatmaker loves bowling. Carita Hatmaker is a league bowler. Carita Hatmaker is married to a scratch bowler (husband Scott averages 225). Carita Hatmaker loves competing on the lanes, especially against her husband.

Bowling 235 when you’re averaging 160 means your score is 75 pins over average. Not many bowlers bowl games 75 over average but Carita did and beat her husband in the process. Her 235 out scored husband Scott by twenty pins! Carita loves competing against her husband especially when she beats him, like now.

Carita rolled her 235 in Cal Oaks Merry Makers League on a recent Tuesday afternoon. It was hot as hell outside (103 degrees) and Carita blistered the lanes inside. Her big game resulted in a huge 546 (157-154-235) scratch series and even bigger 705 handicap series. Great bowling Carita and thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting our CALIFORNIA lady bowlers.

Congratulations!

The staff and bowlers at Buena Lanes in Ventura, California have donated more than $89,500 to the American Cancer Society in Ventura County over the past nine years. This year, their “Bowl to Strike Out Cancer” raised enough to jump over the $100,000 mark. Here’s hoping other centers will take up challenges to “bowl down cancer”.
