PBA Clash Returns to FOX Sports Sunday, November 3rd

CHICAGO – The Professional Bowlers Association today announced the PBA Clash, the special event that kicked off the PBA's historic television agreement with FOX Sports, will return to FOX on Sunday, Nov. 3 in a battle between the top eight money-winners from the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season.

The PBA Clash, the most-watched event of the PBA's first season of FOX Sports telecasts, will include an elite field competing in a unique single-elimination competition hosted by Kegel in Lake Wales, Florida. The Clash will be contested at the renowned Kegel Training Center on Monday, Oct. 21, at 7 p.m. Ticket information for the event will be announced in the near future.

Marshall Kent of Yakima, Washington, won the inaugural Clash, defeating seven-time PBA Tour winner Dom Barrett of England, 218-215, in a telecast that was watched by an average audience of more than 1.7 million viewers, the largest audience watch any bowling telecast on any network since 2005.

The 2019 field will be determined at the conclusion of the PBA FloBowling ATX Invite at Dart Bowl in Austin, Texas, on Sept. 21. Remaining events that provide earnings opportunities include this weekend's Gene Carter's Pro Shop Open at Mid-County Lanes in Middletown, Delaware; the Bowlerstore.com Classic presented by Moxy Xtra Pair, at Pla-Mor Lanes in Coldwater, Ohio, Aug. 21-23; the FloBowling PBA Summer Swing including the Wolf Open, Bear Open and Illinois Open presented by the Brands of Ebonite International at Parkside Lanes in Aurora, Illinois, Aug. 24-31.

The USBC Cup points competition covering the entire FloBowling PBA Summer Tour, and the FloBowling ATX Invite.

BJ Moore Wins First PBA Tour Title

Late string of four strikes locks up victory to end seven-year quest for a title

WILMINGTON, N.C. – BJ Moore of Greensburg, Pennsylvania defeated 13-time Professional Bowlers Association titlist Sean Rash of Montgomery, Illinois, 243=215, to win his first PBA Tour title in the Go Bowling! Professional Bowlers Association Tour's Wilmington Open Wednesday at Ten Pin Alley Family Fun Center.

Moore, a 30-year-old right-hander, ended a seven-year quest for his first title in his 50th PBA Tour tournament. Moore's previous best finish was second place in both the 2016 and 2019 PBA Scorpion Championships.

BJ Moore

"I don't know what to say; it's awesome," Moore said. "I'm a process guy and that's definitely what I was focused on this week. Sometimes you have to take your lumps before you can win, but it's all been worth it."

Rash praised Moore for his performance. "He threw it great when he needed to," Rash, the top qualifier, said. "It was a great effort."

Moore gained the upper hand in the final match, throwing strikes on his first four shots while Rash left a 7-10 split and opened in his fourth frame. Moore, however, failed to convert the 3-6-10 in his fifth frame to slow his momentum. Nursing a modest lead and taking advance of Rash's inability to carry strikes on the right lane, Moore put together another string of four strikes to win going away.

In the first match of the four-man stepladder finals, Marshall Kent of Yakima, Washington flirted with the first perfect game in FloBowling's inaugural season of PBA Tour livestreaming coverage, rolling strikes in the first nine frames of

Walter Ray Williams Jr. Returns to Winning Form on Way to Third PBA50 Player of the Year Award

Eugene McCune wins 2019 PBA50 Rookie of the Year • Ron Mohr wins fourth consecutive PBA60 Player of the Year honor

CHICAGO – After winning his third PBA50 Player of the Year Award in his 10th season competing on the tour for players 50 and over, 59-year-old PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. sent a message that he will be a major force for some time to come competing in the "senior" ranks.

Williams, who also earned the PBA50 Player of the Year crown in 2012 and 2013, opened the 2019 season with three consecutive wins including the PBA50 National Championship for his third career PBA50 Tour major, and never had a finish worse than ninth until a 17th-place finish in the PBA50 David Small's JAX 60 Classic, the final PBA50 event of the season.

The all-time Go Bowling! PBA Tour titles leader with 47 wins brought his career PBA50 Tour titles count to 14 which tied him for the all-time PBA50 Tour titles lead with retired Hall of Famer John Handegard.

"Obviously, it was a really good, encouraging season," said Williams, who owns seven Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year honors on the PBA Tour. "I wasn't always the best bowler in the field (this season) but you can't argue with three wins and the other top finishes I had."

Williams is among a handful of players who continue to compete on both the PBA Tour and PBA50 Tour including fellow Hall of Famers and rivals for more than three decades, Norm Duke, Pete Weber, Parker Bohn III and Amleto Monacelli. Williams' PBA50 Player of the Year award came at what could be a crossroads for his career on the PBA Tour.

"I wasn't pleased with how I bowled on the regular tour this season so the PBA50 Tour gave me a lift," he said. "Bowling on the regular tour has always been enjoyable for me but last season wasn't enjoyable. I'm not ready to retire from bowling on the PBA Tour but that's a tough tour

Ryan Ciminelli Wins PBA Gene Carter's Pro Shop Classic for Eighth Title

Two strikes in 10th frame ends three-year title drought

MIDDLETOWN, Del. – Ryan Ciminelli of Lancaster, South Carolina, defeated top qualifier Tom Daugherty of Riverview, Florida, 217-209, to win his eighth Go Bowling! Professional Bowlers Association Tour title Sunday in the Gene Carter's Pro Shop Classic at Mid-County Bowling and Entertainment Center.

Ciminelli, ending a three-year title slump, took an early lead against Daugherty, starting with three strikes and getting help when Daugherty left the 3-6-7-10 split and opened in the fourth frame. But Ciminelli returned the favor, leaving the 4-6-7-9-10 "Greek church" in his ninth frame to give Daugherty a chance to shut him out. When Daugherty failed to strike out, Ciminelli locked up the title with strikes on his first two shots in the 10th frame.

"I really don't know what to say," the 33-year-old left-hander said. "There's a few different reasons why this one means so much to me. What really matters is all the people here watching me win. There were a lot of people who helped me out. I can't thank them enough."

Daugherty, a 44-year-old two-time PBA Tour title winner, took the lead in Sunday's five-game cashers round and systematically won every match he needed to win in the 12-game match play round to secure the top berth for the stepladder finals. But he fell one match shy of picking up his third PBA Tour title.

"Maybe I'll get (Ciminelli) next week in Coldwater (Ohio)," Daugherty said.

In the first stepladder match, Ciminelli threw strikes on his first two shots in the 10th frame to lock out Tom Smallwood of Saginaw, Michigan, 224-214. Ciminelli, pursuing his first title since winning the 2016 Parkside Lanes Open in Aurora, Illinois, was nearly perfect in eliminating Canadian two-hander Zacharay Wilkins of Barrie, Ontario, 266-223, in the semifinal match. After a spare in the first frame, Ciminelli threw eight consecutive strikes to deny Wilkins' bid for his first PBA Tour title.

The Gene Carter's Pro Shop Classic was the fifth of 10 events that are part of the FloBowling PBA Summer Tour.

The FloBowling PBA Summer Tour now moves west to Coldwater, Ohio, for the PBA Bowlerstore.com Classic presented by Moxy's Xtra Pair at 16-lane Pla-Mor Lanes where qualifying will take place on Thursday followed by the cashers round, Rounds of 16 and 8, and stepladder finals on Friday.

All rounds of the sixth FloBowling Summer Tour event will be livestreamed on FloBowling.com. For additional information, visit FloBowling.com.

O'KEEFE WINS BOWLERX.COM PWBA ORLANDO OPEN

by Daniel Farish and Aaron Smith USBC Communications

ORLANDO, Fla. – Shannon O'Keefe of Shiloh, Illinois, became the first player in nearly 20 years to claim four titles in a Professional Women's Bowling Association Tour season by winning the 2019 BowlerX.com PWBA Orlando Open at Boardwalk Bowl.

O'Keefe, the reigning PWBA Player of the Year, edged Danielle McEwan of Stony Point, New York, in the championship match Saturday, 207-202, to record her 12th career PWBA Tour title and take home the $10,000 top prize.

The stepladder finals of the BowlerX.com PWBA Orlando Open aired live on CBS Sport Network.

"I don't know if there are words to describe it," O'Keefe said. "I'm very proud of my season, proud of how I'm competing and proud of how I've been mentally approaching it. This season, more than any other, has just been so vivid to me."

O'Keefe and McEwan have been at the top of the PWBA points list the last two seasons, and the title tilt lived up to expectations, as both players entered their respective final frame with the chance to secure the win.

O'Keefe, who finished the match first, had made a ball change on the left lane in the eighth frame but elected to switch back to the ball she used throughout the stepladder finals after making a bad shot and leaving a 3 pin, which she converted.

"We decided to be a little gutsy in the eighth frame," O'Keefe said. "I threw that ball in the fill the previous game, and it read the lane so well. We were trying to strike on that lane, and I just threw a bad shot."

With a strike in the ninth frame, she needed to roll two strikes in the 10th for the chance to shut out McEwan. After recording the first strike, she left a 4 pin on her second shot to give McEwan an opportunity to lock up her second win of 2019.

"The left lane was just a little tricky," O'Keefe said. "It had a little wiggle spot, but if you got it going up the lane, it wanted to hook. I was really making sure my hand was soft through the bottom and to stay down on my shots. I told myself to just execute and be proud of my execution. I threw the first one in the 10th so good, but I twirled the second one just a bit."

McEwan's first delivery in the 10th frame was left of target, resulting in a 6-10 combination.

O'Keefe's run of success since the relaunch of the PWBA Tour in 2015 is apparent, but her ability to keep putting herself in position to win now has her name being mentioned with great bowlers from different eras.

The last time a player won at least four titles in a season on the PWBA Tour was 2001, when future United States Bowling Congress Hall of Famers Carolyn Dorin-Ballard (seven wins) and Liz Johnson (four wins) and Australia's Cara Honeychurch (four wins) each accomplished the feat.

The 2001 season featured 23 events, while O'Keefe claimed her fourth title in the 12th event of the season.

Shannon O'Keefe

The PWBA ceased operations during the 2003 season before the relaunch in 2015.

"As I get older and my career progresses, it's very cool to hear your name mentioned in the same sentence as the people you've looked up to," O'Keefe said. "To be able to achieve something like that is very humbling for me."

O'Keefe was the No. 2 seed for Saturday's championship round after a miscue in her final frame during the Round of 12 earlier in the day cost her the chance to tie for the top seed and force a one-game roll-off with McEwan.

Needing a double in the 10th frame to secure the top spot outright or a strike and spare to tie McEwan, O'Keefe delivered the first strike but left and missed a 10 pin to finish the frame and fall one pin short of McEwan's overall qualifying total of 4,788 for 22 games.

McEwan admitted to not making the shots she needed in the title match, but she's still seeing improvement in her game as the 2019 season nears completion.

"It wasn't a good shot (in the 10th frame), and I had too many bad shots against the greatest player on the planet in Shannon O'Keefe," said McEwan, a five-time PWBA Tour champion and the 2019 U.S. Women's Open winner. "That's just something you can't do."

"I ended up holding onto a spot on the show, though, which is an improvement from last week. I'm happy to still be seeing small improvements in my game from week to week, especially at this point of the season."

In Saturday's semifinal, O'Keefe rolled four consecutive strikes, starting in the fourth frame, to jump ahead of Colombia's Rocio Restrepo and never looked back, earning her spot in the title match with a 226-201 win. Restrepo, a four-time PWBA Tour champion who has been fighting injuries all season, was making her first championship-round appearance of the year.

Restrepo advanced to the semifinals by staying clean in a 197-179 win over Liz Kuhlkin of Schenectady, New York. Kuhlkin won the 2018 U.S. Women's Open at Boardwalk Bowl, winning four consecutive matches on her way to the title.

In Saturday's opening match, Kuhlkin rolled eight strikes on the way to a 228-194 victory over Katelyn Simpson of Emmett, Idaho. Simpson was making her first career championship-round appearance.

A total of 32 players earned spots in this week's main field. The top 24 players on the 2019 PWBA points list (through the Pepsi PWBA Louisville Open) secured automatic spots in the field, while a pre-tournament qualifier (PTQ) held Thursday at Boardwalk Bowl determined the bowlers filling the rest of the field.

Singapore's Cherie Tan was the lone player in the top 24 not to compete this week, which allowed nine bowlers to advance from the PTQ.

The elite field bowled 16 games Friday to determine the top 12 competitors, who advanced to bowl an additional six games Saturday. Total pinfall for 22 games determined the five finalists.

1991 – PART 4

by Carol Mancini

We are half way through 1991. Looks like a lot of memories to write about. Wish I could share the pictures. Bad thing...thru the pictures I can see friends and myself growing older! Maybe its the pages that got wrinkled. Follow me...

- Horoscope for Gemini this week. (June 13) Make sure you have extra shoe laces, skin patch, tape, shur-slide, towel and a pen. Plus, wear blue!
  - Canoga Park Bowl floored a "Filipino League". 3 free games if you know what kind of league.
  - Get out yur thinking cap. Remember "Re-Creations"? Twas the entertainment group sponsored by the B.V.L., Elks, and Howard Johnson to put on shows in veteran's facilities. 155 each year! The cast of musicians, dancers and singers changed every year. Always a patriotic theme. So much talent!
  - Another 300 at Friendly Hills for Paula Vidad. Smile for the camera Paula.
  - Mark and Danel Fisser marry on June 8. The pastor performed the ceremony both vocally and in sign language. Mark hoped to join the Pro Tour.
  - Leo Magnus was named the LABA "King of the Hill" and awarded the "Big Bad Bowling Buddha"
  - The Bowling Venue of the 1991 U.S. Olympic Festival was held at South Bay Bowling Center. Local "go getter" Phyl Knoll was in charge of ticket sales, transportation and many other features.
  - For Sale: Brunswick Rhino Ball- $69.95. Twister- $56.25 Phantom- $85.95. If you have one that is undrilled, its worth more now.
  - Lee Taylor won another one! The WSBT Fresno Open. It was a favorite. The Northern guys came south and the southern seniors went north. Same month, he entered the Hall of Fame.
  - A new car was the prize for a "Hole in One" at the Bowling Proprietors annual golf tournament. When did Managers find time to promote bowling and practice their golf game? A swing is a swing, is a swing?
  - Bryan Alpert moved back to So Cal in time to roll in Grananda's 8 gamer. He shot 300, won 2 sidepots, both blocks, and the top 5 places in doubles for a total "take home" of $1,711. He didn't take it home, he donated it to the Junior Program!! (For our young readers, Bryan was the first Southlander to roll an 800 right handed AND left handed.)
  - Marv Sargent teamed up with Him Murtishaw to win "Robby's PCB Doubles" at newly opened Pinkys. (Marv Sargent entered Calif Hall of Fame this year-2019). Bob Laster and Larry Gray came in second. All were (are) headliners.
  - May 18, 1991. Sacramento's Mark Benavidez entered a PCCB tourny at Cordova Lanes. Game one-289, game two-300, game three-300/889.
  - Surprise--an ad from Beverly Bowl! Sabu's "Dynamic Duo" mixed five gamer. Directors were Sabu Chitjian, Harry Kosian, and Arman Zernedijian. What flag were they flying???
  - Keystone Lanes guranteed a 1991 Toyota Truck for the winner of the 5 game "Classic". (Read on we might find out who won.)
  - A lucky ticket winner at Corbin Bowl won 100 free games---of bowling!
  - Vista Bowl was the sight for the "Welcome Home Troops" Day. All vets in the area were invited to bowl, share stories and eat. Manager Nick Mancini even talked the Marines into a band concert and a TANK. Kids could climb inside. Vets from WWII, Korea, Vietnam and Desert Storm were honored. (Question? How long has Desert Storm been going on?)
  - Jim Horning was manager at Pinkys.
  - Simon Rojas was a seond behind Bob Smith at ABTA. First to jump into the picture!
  - Gene Giegoldt ruled at Canoga Park. He was the V.P. and manager.
  - For years Connie Marchione organized squads of Deaf bowlers for the Grant Classic.
  - The SEDBA honored "The Best League Secretary" in each center-at the annual awards banquet. Could be male or female-The centers choice. (When did that award die?)
  - Frank Keltz (Writer for the Bowling News) presented an amendment to the ABC Convention removing the word "Male" from the American Bowling Congress constitution and bylaws allowing women to join the ABC.
  - The WIBC leaders didn't like the amendment-it could cause competition for membership.
  - What about women Pros bowling with the Men Pros? Another point for leagal council.
  - Adele Dancel won $1,000 in Vegas. NABI week brought out stars Dave and Just Soutar for the presentation.
  - California Governor Wilson passed a new tax law. Newspapers were taxable! Bowling News included new tax in the current price and took the hit!
  - Dang! The BPASC sponsored "Bowlers Nite With The Dodgers"- August 13, 1991. Another great project-GONE!
  - The BPASC had many projects to raise money for the Grand Prix Scholarship program. The incentive for college dollars kept Juniors bowling much longer.
  - The second place $15,000 from the NABI went to Cesar Dela Rosa of San Diego.
  - First place in the 32 team Whitlock League at Del Rio Lanes was guaranteed $32,000. That league has always had a waiting list.
  - Young Robert Smith smashed the pocket at Canoga Park Bowl in the Junior Memorial Tourny. His 258-245-214-300 made everyone believe he was "PRO" material! He even won 2 gold medals in the U.S. Olympic Festival of Bowling at South Bay Bowl the summer of 1991.
  - A guy-Dan Nadean, Las Vegas, won the High Roller. His bank account increased by $200,000!
  - Four Southland women were "Best in the West" at the Olympics; Darlene Weekly, Patty Ellenburg, Lynda Norry and Julie Gardner.
  - Carolyn Starzec, Vera Kelly and Pat Schatt entered San Fernando Hall of Fame.
  - 24 lane center in Lompac, Calif sold for $975,000. Included in the deal was the property, coffee shop, lounge, and kitchen.
  - 15 youth students and 30 adult students from the Palm Springs Braille Institute bowled regularly in Cathedral City.
  - In July 1991 alone, ad congratulations shouted out to; Roman Zamora, Dean Sanderson, John Englehart, C.R. Carmignani, Rick Jorgie, Jason Hoffer, Jene St Pierre, Robert Smith, Tom Hawkins, Eddie Williams, and Dave Olsen.
- We've made it thru the first part of 1991. Bowlers night at Dodger Stadium was the best! Only $7 a seat, $1.25 Hot Dogs and $3 beer. Frank Kietz visited every center every week. He could sniff out a story and his camera was always loaded! He was a real "pain in the posterior" most of the time, but got the job done. Hope you enjoyed the junket and a few memories were jolted. Lets hear from YOU!! I'm in the office every Monday.*

with all those young guys.”

So tough, in fact, that Williams has added the two-handed delivery – made famous by tour stars Jason Belmonte, Anthony Simonsen and Jesper Svensson among a growing number of others – to his arsenal. He employs the technique to be more effective primarily when he has to play an “inside” shot.”

“Basically, if I have to move way inside and throw it right, that’s when I’ll use it,” Williams said. “It’s still a work in progress but it has become a useful tool for me when the (lane) conditions warrant it. I like the results I’ve had with it, so I’ll continue to develop it.”

One example of the effectiveness of his two-handed technique was his performance in the Suncoast PBA Senior U.S. Open where he eventually finished sixth after starting the tournament in 53rd after the first round of qualifying. He used the two-handed delivery often in qualifying and match play to negotiate the challenging Senior U.S. Open lane condition eventually finishing sixth. The fruits of his labor with the two-handed delivery paid off again when he bowled a 300 game in qualifying for the PBA50 River Extreme Open to become the first player to bowl a 300 game using a traditional and two-handed delivery in national PBA competition.

Williams led the PBA50 season with 32,480 points, more than 10,000 ahead of 2017 PBA50 Player of the Year Brian LeClair, who finished second with 22,320. Williams also led in earnings with $42,525 and was third in average with 227.48.

Three-time PBA Tour titlist Eugene McCune won the PBA50 Spectrum Lanes Open which served as a springboard to winning PBA50 Rookie of the Year honors. Bowling in just six tournaments, the 51-year-old hard-throwing right-hander, also had ninth-place finishes in the Suncoast PBA Senior U.S. Open and the JAX 60 Classic and 13th in the USBC Senior Masters that contributed to his 11,070 point total leading rookie contenders.

PBA Hall of Famer Ron Mohr once again dominated competition among players 60 years of age and older to win his fourth consecutive PBA60 Player of the Year Award.

The 63-year-old right-hander won the PBA50 David Small’s Championship Lanes Classic for his 11th career PBA50 Tour title and had a string of six top-five finishes in PBA50/60 tournaments plus a sixth-place finish in the PBA60 Dick Weber Championship to end the season.

“It’s been an unbelievable year,” said Mohr, a two-time PBA60 titlist who is the only player to win more than one PBA60 tournament since the category began in 2014. “I don’t recall ever being on a stretch where I’ve bowled that consistently well.

“I believe I have some good years left but what does concern me – like every athlete – is the time when you’re no longer competitive and you have a decision to make. But for now, I’m still seeing the lane (condition) well and throwing the ball with confidence. Hopefully if I continue to focus on good execution the outcome will take care of itself.”

Mohr finished the PBA50 season third in points overall behind Williams and LeClair with 20,575, ranked fifth in average with 222.53 and second in earnings with $33,440.

PBA50 Tour players will have the opportunity to vote on the PBA50 Dick Weber Sportsmanship award that will be announced later.

Go Bowling! PBA Tour Rookies Continue To Chase Mykel Holliman

Thanks to his runner-up finishing in the USBC Masters, Mykel Holliman of Collierville, Tenn., took a comfortable lead in the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour’s rookie competition points and retained his edge after the first four events of the FloBowling PBA Summer Tour.

Holliman, a 26-year-old left-hander, ranked 31st on the overall 2019 PBA Points list, 4,565 points ahead of Kenneth Ryan of Farmingdale, N.J., on the list of 2019 Bowl4Life PBA Rookie Watch candidates. Wichita’s Patrick Hanrahan is third among rookies. Also in position to make a challenge are former Teen Masters winners Mike Coffey of Melbourne, Fla., and Greg Young of Viera, Fla., along with Jake Rollins of Glen Rock, N.J. With five title events in the Summer Tour and the U.S. Open remaining, a big finish or two by the leading rookies could re-shape the race.

Competition points won’t decide who wins the Harry Golden PBA Rookie of the Year Award, but that’s a key category for consideration in voting to be conducted at the end of the 2019 season. The Rookie of the Year will receive a $2,500 bonus from Chuck Gardner’s Bowl4Life Foundation and the foundation will donate an additional $2,500 to a youth bowler scholarship in the ROY’s name.

Kyle Sherman Retains Lead in FloBowling PBA Summer Tour Points Race

Gene Carter’s Pro Shop Classic runner-up Tom Daugherty advances from 22nd to place to seventh

CHICAGO – Kyle Sherman of O’Fallon, Missouri retained his status as the FloBowling PBA Summer Tour’s most consistent player, finishing 12th in Sunday’s Gene Carter’s Pro Shop Classic in Middletown, Delaware, to remain No. 1 on the Summer Tour points list after five of nine events while Delaware runner-up Tom Daugherty of Riverview, Florida made the biggest move on the points list, advancing from 22nd place to seventh.

Closing the gap on Sherman was AJ Johnson of Oswego, Illinois, who moved up one place to second after his eighth-place finish in Delaware. Johnson now has 4,180 points, only 200 behind Sherman. Bill O’Neill, Langhorne, Pa. (3,965); EJ Tackett, Bluffton, Ind., (3,540), and BJ Moore, Greensburg, Pa., (3,355) round out the top five, all after solid performances in Middletown.

The FloBowling PBA Summer Tour points are important because they involve bonus cash to the top five in the USBC Cup points standings, eight berths in the end-of-summer FloBowling ATX Invite and eight expenses-paid trips to China for the inaugural PBA China Tiger Cup in November. Fans can follow the summer points races (USBC Cup, FloBowling ATX Invite and PBA China Tiger Cup) by clicking on this link.

The FloBowling PBA Summer Tour’s next stop is Thursday and Friday in Coldwater, Ohio, for the PBA Bowlerstore.com Classic presented by Moxy’s Xtra Pair at Pla-Mor Lanes. After Coldwater, the Summer Tour’s final points events are part of the FloBowling PBA Summer Swing presented by the Brands of Ebonite International next week at Parkside Lanes in Aurora, Illinois, where the PBA Wolf, PBA Bear and Illinois Open titles will be at stake. The Summer Tour will conclude with the FloBowling ATX Invite at Dart Bowl in Austin, Texas, on Sept. 21.

All PBA Summer Tour events except the Illinois Open are Tier 3 events (2,500 points for first place). The Illinois Open is a Tier 2 event (double the Tier 3 points including 5,000 points for first).

Also underway along with the summer points competition is the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour earnings race which will reward the top eight money-winners with berths in the second PBA Clash that will take place at the Kegel Training Center in Lake Wales, Florida, in late October for airing on FOX on Nov. 3. Australia’s Jason Belmonte is the runaway leader in earnings as of Aug. 18 with $264,050. Sean Rash currently holds the eighth spot with $77,430, less than $5,000 ahead of Sherman. a 274-179 victory over reigning PBA Player of the Year Andrew Anderson of Holly, Michigan. Kent lost his bid for a 300 game when he left the 3-6 on his first shot in the 10th frame.

In the semifinal match, Kent failed to convert a 2-5-7 split in the fourth frame, but Moore returned the favor, leaving the 4-6-10 split for an open in his sixth frame. Kent doubled to regain the lead, but made another mistake, leaving the 2-8-10 for another open frame. Moore responded with three strikes to lock up a 214-181 win to advance to the title match.

The Wilmington Open was the fourth of 10 events that are part of the FloBowling PBA Summer Tour. The FloBowling PBA Summer Tour resumes Saturday when the PBA Gene Carter's Pro Shop Classic qualifying gets underway at Mid-County Bowling and Entertainment in Middletown, Delaware.

Bowlers Truly Say the Darndest Things, Part 2

by Fred Eisenhammer

Here is Part 2 of my favorite bowling quotes through the years:

Karen Beeler, on husband Jamie, who survived three games in league play despite suffering from excruciating kidney stones that forced Jamie into an emergency visit to the hospital that night: “Nothing keeps him from his bowling. Nothing.”

“We’ll add up all our scores in just a blink.
Then we’ll buy ourselves another drink.
We’ll spend an hour trying to explain,
Why we didn’t bowl a better game.”

Jerry Zerg, on his team’s league name, “The Irritable Bowl Syndrome”: “It was the most apt name we could get.”
Siena Cawelti, on her love for the sport: “I live and breathe bowling and if I could eat a bowling ball, I would.”
West Coast Senior Tour owner/director Dick Sanders, on how technology had cheapened bowling scores: “The perfect example is a 300 game in tournaments. No one knows he did it but the guy who shot it. Three-hundred games are so phony baloney, although it’s still exciting for the guy who shot it for the first time. Everyone’s a pro now. If you collect money in league at the end of the season, you’re a pro.”

Justin Adams, on bowling his first 300 game: “It was one of the coolest feelings. The last shots were gut-wrenching. I literally took a lap around the bowling alley.”
Gail Marlis, on switching to her left hand after incurring an injury to her right (throwing) arm: “Not bowling is not an option.”
Gail Marlis, again, on what bowling means to her: “Bowling is like my play date with my friends.”

Randy Silverman, on watching the late Andy Varipapa perform a one-man, trick-shot exhibition at now-defunct Mission Hills Bowl about 60 years earlier: “One thing that stands out in my mind is that he set up the 7-10 split with one pin (the 7) on one lane and another pin (the 10) on the lane to his right. He used two bowling balls, one in each hand, and he released the balls and they would cross each other. One ball would pick up the 7 pin on the lane he was on and the other would cross the lane and pick up the 10 pin. He was spectacular.”
Theo Sojourn, on bowlers’ resilience: “Heart attacks, strokes, it doesn’t matter. People go back to bowl. It’s just amazing that some people can get hurt and they have a chance in bowling to come back.”

Sami Rice, calling her husband Mike’s mental outlook a factor in his 288 game in which he opened with 10 strikes: “He keeps bowling better each year. He’s never bowled this well. He just doesn’t take the game as seriously as he did in his 100-some years of bowling.”

Temmy Walker, who sports a distinctive first name, on how she knows she’s not the only Temmy around: “I know there is another one in L.A. because she got the [personalized] license plate that I wanted.”

Bev Zietz, brushing off an incident in which she was sidelined for three months after colleague Barb Dasaro inadvertently dropped a bowling ball on her toe: “[Barb] really knows how to take out the competition.”

Hall-of-Fame bowler Robin Romeo, on her mother Joan being named in 2015 to the United States Bowling Congress Hall of Fame for meritorious service: “When I was on [Professional Women’s Bowling Assn.] tour, she used to be called ‘Robin Romeo’s mother.’ Now, I’m ‘Joan Romeo’s daughter.’ She’s not ‘Robin Romeo’s mother’ anymore.”

Veteran bowler Ken Borshell, on his desire to bring more women bowlers into his league: “Damn tootin’. I’m not dead yet. When I get older, my eyes get younger.”

Carol Tucker, counting her blessings amid her retirement from teaching: “I feel like the luckiest person on Earth because I enjoyed my career so much and I was able to retire with enough money to buy bowling shoes, running shoes and frozen yogurt.”

Geoff Gast got to play the role of the “Big Fella” for his team. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer

Geoff Gast, exulting about leading his league team to victory despite his relatively low average: “It was like I was being Shaq and Kobe and leading the way. I was being the Big Fella and the Big Man and bringing home the win.”
Rick Auerbach, on elite bowler Charles Kenny: “He hits the pins so hard I told him that on my way home, I would look for some pins on Ventura Boulevard.”
Hollywood icon Susan Sarandon, promoting her worldwide ping-pong social clubs while at the same time taking a paddle to bowling: “[In ping-pong], you don’t have to wear someone else’s shoes.”

Greg Kolski knows there’s a price to pay for practicing 100 games in one day. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer Devoted bowler Greg Kolski, on the chances of his repeating his practice session of an astounding 100 games in one day like he did seven years ago at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills: “Possibly, but I’d probably need a sponsor because I couldn’t afford to bowl 100 games.

Will The Real Zac/Zach Tackett Please Stand Up?

Professional bowling has had a few players over the years who are sometimes mistaken for one another because they share the same name: Walter Ray (and Walter) Williams; Gary Jr. (and Gary) Faulkner; Don (and Don) Johnson among others.

The latest additions to the list arose during the PBA Harry O’Neale Chesapeake Open when Zac and Zach Tackett competed in the same event for the first time. They are not related to each other, but are similar in stature if not in other ways:

• Zac Tackett without an “h” is formally Zachery Tackett, brother of 13-time PBA Tour champion and former Player of the Year EJ Tackett. This Zac turns 23 on Aug. 27. He’s 5-foot-10, weighs 165 pounds and is a right-hander player who lives in Huntington, Ind. He is a fourth-year PBA member who won his only title in a PBA Central Region “Challenge” Tournament in Monroe, Mich., in 2019. Zac’s bowling hero, he noted, is “probably (Norm) Duke.”

• Zach Tackett is formally Zachary Tackett who will turn 22 in December. He’s 5-foot-9, weighs 165 pounds and is a left-handed two-hander who lives in Virginia Beach, Va. This Zach is a PBA rookie who bowled in the PBA Harry O’Neale Chesapeake Open, his first tournament as a member. His bowling hero is Jason Belmonte.

PWBA Leaders

by Frank Weiler

LOUISVILLE, KY. – After completion of the Louisville Open and Dasha Kovalova’s dramatic win the Women’s National Tour is just three tournaments away from crowning a “BOWLER OF THE YEAR”. At present, 2018 “BOWLER OF THE YEAR” Shannon O’Keefe is the Tour point leader. I would say she is a strong favorite to repeat as the Tour’s top bowler.

The PWBA TOUR leaders after the Louisville Open are:

“Player Of The Year” Points Leaders:

- |                          |        |
|--------------------------|--------|

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: MARSALA WINS PBA50 EVENT IN BOWLING GREEN

• John Marsala of St. Louis defeated Ron Profitt of Brookfield, Ohio, 256-191, to win the 22nd PBA50 Progressive/Gerdeman Insurance-Al Smith Chrysler/Dodge/Jeep Central/Midwest Classic at Al-Mar Lanes in Bowling Green, Ohio, Sunday.

The title was Marsala’s first of the year in the PBA Central Region and his second career PBA Regional title. He earned $3,500 along with his title.

Profitt defeated Brian LeClair of Albany, N.Y., 213-202, to advance to the championship match after eliminating Brad Snell of Mount Prospect, Ill., 218-203, in the first stepladder match.

• Mark Myers of Phoenix and his non-member partner Greg Thompson Jr. of Tempe, Ariz. posted a 9-3 match play record and a combined 20-game total of 9,543 pins Sunday to win the PBA Tony Reyes Memorial Member/Non-Member Doubles at 4th Street Bowl in San Jose, Calif.

Myers won his first PBA Regional while Thompson, a four-time PBA Regional winner, doesn’t get credit for a fifth title because he is no longer a member. The winning team shared the $4,000 first prize.

Myers and Thompson defeated Robbie Porter of Rancho Cordova, Calif. and non-member Gary Lenox of Hillsboro, Ore., who had a 4-8 match play record and 9,455 pins.

The Tony Reyes Memorial is named in honor of the late PBA Tour champion who died in 2012.

• College student Noah Gallegos of Golden, Colo., defeated fellow non-PBA member Brandon Knowles from Westminster, Colo., 239-235, to claim his first PBA win and the $2,500 first prize in the seventh annual PBA Lakewood Storm Southwest Open, presented by New American Funding, at Holiday Lanes in Lakewood, Colo., Sunday.

Gallegos, who has completed two years of study toward a pharmacy degree at McKendree University, finished the qualifying rounds in fourth place, earning a bye until the Round of Eight in the single-elimination match play finals. The son of two-time PBA Regional champion Steve Gallegos, Noah started the best-of-three-game match play with a 2-0 win over PWBA player Jennifer Russo of Monmouth Junction, N.J., to advance to the semifinal round where he recorded a 241-235 victory over top seed Kris Koeltzow from Wheat Ridge, Colo., set up the final match. Knowles overcame former Lakewood winner Francois Lavoie of Canada, 221-215, in the other semifinal match.

QUICK NOTES

• Action resumed Saturday and Sunday in the FloBowling PBA Summer Tour points competition where Mid-County Bowling & Entertainment Center in Middletown, Del., is hosting the PBA Gene Carter’s Pro Shop Classic. Updated points standings will follow each Summer Tour event at this link: <https://www.pba.com/SeasonStats/PointsList/132?list=10>. The FloBowling PBA Summer Tour points competitions also will determine the USBC Cup points leaders, and the eight qualifiers for both the FloBowling PBA ATX Invite and the PBA China Tiger Cup Invitational.

• With his win in the PBA Wilmington Open, BJ Moore became the third first-time title winner in 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour competition, joining Louisville’s Matt Ogle (Mark Roth-Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship with Sean Rash) and Kyle Sherman of O’Fallon, Mo. (PBA-PWBA Storm Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles with Amanda Green).

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

by Heather Dawson

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — End of summer leagues are on the calander. Vegas Leagues are heading east, trophies ordered, $$$ stuffed in envelopes and final averages sent to USBC office. Pheww!! Secretaries earn their fees for sure.

Big Bear: Jerry Cant chased the headpin all day and his 279-268/750 shows who won. Lisa Swansen chalked up 635 with a couple of goodies. Sid Nakagawa 259/659, Jonathan Gale 258-255, Michael Goss Jr 257, Robert Cervantes 258/666, Sonny Dew 255/671, Louis Whitlock 255/680, Billy Anderson 646, Joe Acosta 642, Lisa Swansen 233-225/635, Delores Reynolds 221, Shirley Owens 220-199/605, Sue Cant 217-193/584, Annie Yonemura 194/540, Susan Alvarado 193/514, Ccarol Egenias 191/519.

Pin Heads: “Tom’s T-Shirts” has a 3 game lead with only the position week left to bowl. Will “Champs” go on their shirts? Stacy Kelly topped ALL bowlers with her 555 this week. The high game of 206 was on 3 scoresheets. One each for Mark Komadina, Darlene Waken and Stacy Kelly. Mark Komadina 517, Gary Kelly 193, Damon Flewelen 187/509, Jerry Waken 176/470, Darlene Waken 486, Diane Robles 198/531.

Funsters: Tie at the top! “2 Has Beens +2” and “Just Us” and 2 teams sitting 3 games behind. Mathamatically its anybody’s win. Randy Antazo 643, Vic Santos 619, Jim Plante 576, Odette Dalton 568, Leona Belletti 515, Carla Sanchez 471, Fred Guray 247, Rey Santos 236, JoJo Jasmin 214, Elvie Del Rosario 195, May Toledo 188, Adela Santos 179.

Sierra Bugs: 3 teams are fighting for that top spot. “Hit and Miss”, “Spare Me”, and “Ya-Yas”. GO GIRLS!! Janet Reece (super sub) topped all catagories this week, plus she won the scratch sidepot. 516 on games of 215, 166, 135. Connie Wood 176-172/512, Stephany Graves 174/461, Pamela Johnson 171/464, Christine Ewaskey 169/456, Ann Weiss 168.

Recycled Teens: Watch out “Team Seven” Team “Girl Power” could get you this week. Only 3 games behind and they would love to be crowned “Champs.” The “Joe/Jo’s” were top guns this week. Joe DeJesus 624 and Jo Mount 504. (Even JoJo Jasmin made ethe sheet!) Joe DeJesus 234-201/624, JoJo Jasmin 223-204/566, Roland Sanchez 209/538, Jorge Fernandez 201/558, Lucy Seiple 186/479, Jo Mount 181/504, Joanne Burke 179/471, Lanore Knudson 170, Vancie Keith 168, Roycie Murren 477, Adela Santos 468.

Grandmas/Grandpas: Looks like “Jus Sho-N-Off” has the top spot corraled. Congrats Al Romero, Pamela Norwood, and Walter Gist. But it ain’t over yet. 2 weeks to go! Larry Cosgrove 272/561, Chris VanDeven 221-192-179/592, Esque Donnell 180/497, Walter Gist 177-175/507, Rinze Dykstra 175-173/487, Betty Green 189-168/513, Del Stewart 185/464, Joanne Burke 180-178/508, Roycie Murren 176/464, Dorothy Ruggiero 166/462, Donna May 164/457.

Young at Heart: “Keep It Moving” only needs to win one game on position week to be the Champs! Team 8 would love to win four and force a roll off. Rey Santos battled the ball and pins AND won. 258-223/652, Tua Sula smiled at the way the pins were falling for her, a nice 546. Phil Hylton 246/642, Ike Sanders 230/638, Ron McClain Sr 226, Rich Heid 221/626, Willie Burkhalter 220/573, Earl Hullett 215/576, Dee Phipps 203/464, Tua Sula 202-191/546, Carla Dean 188/527, Betty McDiarmid 182/490.

Cal Bowleros: Tie at the top! “Strike Time” and “The Three Amigas”. Let the games begin. “Wildflower” oould break the tie. Only 1 game back. Carolyn Rousseau 5570, LaWana Clark 524, Nene Camanag 522, Janice Taylor 212, Donna Gillespie 187, Danne VanHorn 178.

Senior Men’s Trio: “Rollin For Papa Nella” has a 6 game lead on position. Congrats to Jerry Cant, Curt Soares, and Emmerson Wafer. Their current team average is 655. These Seniors have knowledge, experience and desire. The Winter League should have close to 40 teams. The Best in the West! Kevin Gannon 267/751, Emmerson Wafer 259/669, Rick Llaneta 254, Jorge Fernandez 249/669, Sonny Dew 248, Rob Kordich 727, Arnold Cheesman 672.

Marcus Lemons: Great to see Vernon Adams back on his game, like 278-267/770, Alicia Ferguson was Queen of the pins this week 236-227/681. Denisha

The Youth Winter season will be starting up the week of Sept. 3rd to 7th. The first one will be our Tuesday night at 7 pm Jr/Adult Sport Shot league on Sept 3rd meeting at 6:30 pm, then we will have our Thursday for ages 19 & under bowling at 4:30 pm meeting at 4:00 pm with 2 on a team starting Sept. 5th.

Then Sept. 7th meeting at 9:30 am bowling at 10 am we have the 8 & under bowling 2 games, 8 to 12 bowling 3 games and then our Jr/Adult 12 & up group bowling 3 games.

Also on this day at 1:30 pm we will have our Jr Gold league that bowls 4 games on Sport shot with a chance to earn a spot into the Jr Gold that will be held in Las Vegas in July 2020.

A reminder to all bowlers 18 years old and over that will be bowling in our league we will need you to go onto www.bowl.com and take the safesport test it’s free and printout the certificate, as it is a requirement now to bowl in a youth/adult league.

Thank you for your cooperation in advance. Any questions please call Annette Anderson our Youth Director 909-860-3558 center or 909-717-0571

As a reminder with the new rules coming in and the Winter season starting make sure all you adult league look into putting this rule in to your league to save you from a big headache: Nobody under the age of 18 is allowed in your league even if the parent signs the parent consent form.

Otherwise, everyone in your league must comply with this new law and complete the SafeSport course through Bowl.com or your league could not be certified, your card could be pulled or you could be suspended from USBC all together.

Just tell the youth bowler to stay in the youth league until they turn 18 and come back and you will be more than happy to let them in your league.

At least they can earn scholarship for college in the youth league.

Check our website www.oaktreelanes.net for more information and all of our specials and our youth website www.tbybp.com. Keep the great scores a rolling.
