Shannon O'Keefe Claims PWBA St. Petersburg-Clearwater Open

PLANO, Texas – Coming off a three-title season and then coaching her collegiate team to two national titles, Shannon O'Keefe of O'Fallon, Illinois, seemingly could do no wrong.

But bowling seems to have a way of challenging even the best players, and it took a little longer for O'Keefe to make her first television appearance of the 2017 Professional Women's Bowling Association Tour season.

The top seed for the PWBA St. Petersburg-Clearwater Open, O'Keefe captured her fifth career PWBA title with a 202-200 victory over Colombia's Clara Guerrero. The stepladder finals were televised Tuesday on CBS Sports Network.

When the final match reached the 10th frame, O'Keefe simply had to strikes and a nine-count. But Guerrero left the 4-6-7-10 combination and did not convert the spare.

That left O'Keefe needing a spare and nine pins to take the match, and she took advantage of the opening to win the event and, in the process, turn around a troubling season.

"It's been a challenging year," O'Keefe said. "I missed the very first cut by seven pins, was frustrated by that, then dug my heels in and just had to grind every week. Then, in the middle of the season, I missed back-to-back cuts and was really upset. I don't think I have been that upset over bowling, ever."

Her thoughts went from questioning what she was continued on page 6

Fab 5 State Tournament to Start in October

by Fred Eisenhammer

MONTCLAIR – It's just around the corner and it's arguably one of the most exciting amateur bowling tournaments in the state.

It's the Fab 5.

Details are just coming out about the tournament, which is sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors' Assn. of America.

This much is known:

The tournament will commence with qualifying at various bowling centers around the Southland in early October.

The finals will be held in early December at a site to be determined. Last year the top four teams in the state finals earned money. The five-member winning team won a total of $1,555 (split five ways or $311 per person).

Bowlium Lanes in the San Bernardino County city of Montclair served as the site of the finals in 2016. The two previous years, the finals were held at Fountain Valley in Fountain Valley (2014) and Keystone Lanes in Norwalk (2015).

The Fab 5 is a handicap tournament and features a Team Baker format.

Under this format, each of the team's five players bowls two frames. The team's anchor, for instance, bowls in frames five and 10 each game.

More information on this tournament is expected to be released in the next week or two.

Vince Duarte-Castro Shoots Two 800's in 1 Night

DOWNEY – Vince Duarte Castro has been having an amazing season bowling at Del Rio Lanes in a few different leagues. For most of the summer he was in three leagues, although he's down to two at the moment and is carrying a composite average close to 230. In addition to those leagues, he is trying to get into more tournaments and elevate his game to another level.

This past Sunday night, he accomplished something most bowlers can only dream of. One 800 series in elusive enough, but two in one night is almost unheard of!

Vince started his night bowling in the Vegas Longshot's league. He was bowling on lanes 1-2. Vince says he had a lot of room during practice using the Storm Fight, but wasn't carrying. He made a change during practice to another ball and lost the line, so he went back to the Fight.

The carry didn't take long to come to him, as he started his set with a 247 game. He then shot a 279 game, leaving only a 10 pin in the 9th frame. The third game started with the spare, but then put ten strikes together for a 289 to finish at 815 for the first set.

Vince then moved to lanes 11-12 for the Major continued on page 2

Beginning Year League Information – What’s New

by CBW President Bette Addington

This Workshop is put on each year to not only hand out league packets to secretaries and the new Average booklets but also to bring everyone up to speed on any NEW changes that will affect their leagues this coming season.

The first topic of discussion was Bonding. President Neubig shared that USBC doesn’t cover league envelopes that mysteriously get lost while in a league secretary’s possession. By this he was referring to when bowlers turn in their envelopes to a league secretary, he or she needs to make sure they are not left out in plain view while the secretary is up to bowl! Be sure to put them away in a safe place. Also, President Neubig read a question he found on bowl.com concerning whether a bowler who had a felony twenty years ago could hold the position of league secretary and the answer is no, they still cannot hold that position if they have been convicted of a prior felony. It was stressed that a good way for secretaries to keep track of money they have been given each week is to have a sheet that you have each team representative sign with the amount they are giving you in their envelope that week to verify what they are paying so there is no misunderstanding and you can refer back to that sheet if there are any questions.

Assoc. Manager Nancy Weber then explained what she needs from secretaries when they submit their league’s sanction and the league bowlers’ sanction cards. One of the hardest things is getting all your league bowlers to fill out a sanction card the first night they are bowling as well as any bowlers that bowl multiple leagues need to also fill out a sanction card form for all their additional leagues when they bowl in these other leagues their first time even though they have already paid for their card in their first league of the season. If you do not fill out a card for an additional league you are bowling in, your name will not be on the league roster. It should be the responsibility of the team captain to be sure all their team fills these cards out throughout the season when a bowler bowls on your team as a sub or alternate.

USBC sanction cards have gone up this season which reflects the dues increase passed a year ago at the USBC National Convention. Cards are $21 ($13 – National; $2 – State; and $6 – local). If you are a bowler transferring from another CA association and have a valid 2017-18 USBC card, the transfer fee is $6. If you are a bowler transferring from another state and have a valid USBC card, the fee is $8. Please fill out your USBC sanction card application clearly and if you have a pre-printed form (bowled in the same league last season), be sure to check that your name, address and phone are correct if you have moved or married. If any of this incorrect, this is where your USBC card will be mailed and you might not get your card in the mail when they are mailed out. If you get married or have a change of address during this new season, you need to submit a new sanction card to get the information updated. It usually takes two months from the start of fall leagues to get your new USBC sanction cards. You can always go online to bowl.com to see if you are listed to check your status.

There is also a league roster sheet in all the secretaries’ league packets for the secretaries to list all their league bowlers that you send in with your sanction cards. You only need to send this sheet in once at the beginning of the season and the purpose of you providing all the names of your league bowlers is to help Nancy have a place where she can double check a name of a bowler if she can’t read their sanction card application.

USBC will bond a league up to $10k. If a league’s prize fund exceeds $10k, you need to put that information on your league sanction form in order to be covered.

Hope this helps give you some further advice on what takes place and is discussed at this annual Workshop. It is open to any league officer and always takes place mid-August. This should also let you know how important it is to have both a league president and league secretary who are efficient and will take the time to do their job for the betterment of your league. This is why it is so important to have at least one team member attend the league meeting at the start of your season to be sure the correct people are elected to these positions.

Ron Range Mesmerizes Torrance Gable House Bowlers With His Beautiful 11 In-A-Row

by Phyl Knoll

TORRANCE – It was quite a day in the Roaring 90’s Scratch Doubles League on June 29th. After the first couple of frames, executing with his HYROAD ball, everyone knew it was “just going to be Ron’s day until the 12th shot and “what a finish!” All of us felt immediate heart-ache for the “two pin” cost him his third perfect game!! BUT, “HOLD EVERYTHING FOLKS” “THAT LOUSY 2- PIN’ JUST AWARDED RON HIS FIRST CAREER 299 GAME! CAN YOU BELIEVE THAT?”

Ron became interested in bowling at the young age of eight years old. He became obsessed with practicing on his game. While attending college, even though he wasn’t able to participate in league play, he would go to Gable House to better his game.

His dedication brought him to the accomplished bowler he has become today. Ron recorded his career high game, a 300, in 2001 his second in 2004 and managed to maintain the Roaring 90’s League highest average of 206 over 51 games, our last season. WE ALL, CONGRATULATE THIS NICE YOUNG MAN.

MEET FRANK MENCHACA!

NORWALK — At 77 years, Frank is cashing checks and wearing a champions crown.

Recently Frank entered the National Senior Tournament at Texas Station - - - in the 75 and over division. To no ones surprise, Frank won and claimed the $1000.00 check.

For a guy who averages 150 in league play at West Covina Lanes and Shatto 39 Lanes he knows his way to the winners circle.

One of his fondest memories was the California State Seniors Team Tournament in 2008. You can’t loose with this team! Richard Valdez, Bert Strain, Keith Kenworthy and Frank Menchaca.

Congrats Frank on your 2003, 2004, 2007, 2009, 2017 championships.

PBA Players Help Boston’s Mookie Betts Raise $150,000 for New England Kids’ Charities

Tommy Jones, Bill O’Neill, Dom Barrett, Tom Daugherty, Chris Via and Malaysia’s Zulmazran (ZZ) Zulkifli were participants in the inaugural Mookie Betts Big League Bowl held on August 17 at Jillian’s Lucky Strike Lanes in Boston, helping the Boston Red Sox star and noted bowling enthusiast raise more than $150,000 to benefit Pitching In For Kids and One Mission, a pair of charities aimed at improving the lives of children in New England and helping affected kids deal with their battles with cancer.

Betts, an accomplished bowler, competed in the 2015 GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VII in Reno and in the 2017 CP3 PBA Celebrity Invitational in Los Angeles.

The inaugural fundraiser, held in an upscale bowling facility in the shadow of historic Fenway Park, also included a group of Betts’ Red Sox teammates.

“Californian” JERRY WOOD Laughlin Superstar

by Frank Weiler

LAUGHLIN, NV – Big Shots, Big Scores, Big Wins. That is what CALIFORNIA bowlers are about. That is what “Californian” Jerry Wood is all about. That is what Jerry Wood is all about when he goes to Laughlin and hits the lanes.

Big Shots, Big Scores, Big Wins. BIG, BIG, BIG IN RIVER CITY. That is why Jerry Wood is a Laughlin Superstar. He makes big shots, big scores and has big wins.

Twice a year (January and August) Jerry is among a hundred or so bowlers from Arizona, CALIFORNIA and Nevada who converge on “River City” to compete in the Laughlin Blast Tournament. A Senior Handicap No-Tap Tournament for bowlers fifty and older. Each Blast is actually three tournaments, with champions crowned Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Though Jerry is 80 years young he enjoys beating the pants off the 50 year old kids. He won the Laughlin Blast “Triple Crown” in the summer of 2015 (winning the Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday tournaments), won a title again in 2016 and last week won again. He has won titles in three consecutive years.

In addition to all those titles Jerry is rolling some of the biggest scores in Laughlin Blast history. Last Monday he bowled an incredible 920 (298-318-304) handicap series. The score may be the highest series in “BLAST” history. Jerry also combined with partner Frank Weiler for a phenomenal 1,757 (920-837) doubles set.

Jerry Wood is a CALIFORNIA bowler and a Laughlin Superstar. He has been bowling for three score years and is in such good shape the odds are he will be competing in Laughlin when he is 100 years old. Jerry Wood is another example of why CALIFORNIA bowlers are the best in the world.

Jason Belmonte Wins PBA-WBT “Storm Lucky Larsen Masters” in Sweden for 15th Career Title

MALMO, Sweden – Australia’s Jason Belmonte defeated Cameron Weier of Tacoma, Wash., 245-180, to win the PBA International-World Bowling Tour’s Storm Lucky Larsen Masters at Baltiska Bowlinghallen Sunday for his 15th career PBA Tour title.

Belmonte, 34, joined EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., as the only three-time PBA Tour title winners in 2017. Earlier in the year, Belmonte won the Barbasol PBA Players Championship and a record fourth USBC Masters title. His win in Sweden, a new event on the PBA International-WBT schedule, was his second international tour title. He also won the 2012 Australian Masters.

After qualifying first for the Malmo stepladder finals by 45 pins over Weier, Belmonte started the title match with two spares followed by a string of six strikes to build a lead Weier couldn’t overcome. Belmonte won the equivalent of $19,832 along with his title.

Weier, a 26-year-old former Robert Morris-Illinois collegiate star, won his only PBA Tour title in the 2015 Qatar Open. He defeated Finland’s Jari Ratia, 226-194, to advance to the title match.

The Malmo tournament – named for Swedish PBA star Martin Larsen – was a World Bowling Tour points event. The top three men and top three women in 2017 WBT points will bowl in the WBT Men’s and Women’s Finals, presented by the PBA, during the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling IX, presented by Eldorado Reno Properties, on Nov. 19 in Reno, Nev. Two additional qualifying events – the WBT Thailand in September, and the PBA World Championship in Reno – remain on the schedule prior to the finals.

An Untimely End to Fred’s Watch (2016-2017)

by Fred Eisenhammer

AGOURA HILLS – I know. I know.

It had to happen.

Buy a cheap watch and this is what you get: A watch that expires before its time.

It’s sad. So, sad.

It did its job so beautifully and made this bowling writer a happy person who showed up for interviews and bowling sessions on time.

I thought my watch would survive years of use, perhaps decades.

I thought my watch could stand the test of time – indefinitely.

But I was wrong.

On Wednesday, Aug. 16, my beloved watch passed away in its sleep without notice after flawlessly ticking away on my wrist for 1 year, 4 months and 6 days. Cause of death: a broken-down battery.

I’ve written extensively about the troubles I’ve had finding a watch that wouldn’t fall apart. My previous watches came from trustworthy places such as Costco and T.J. Maxx and ranged from $70 to $140. No cheapies there.

I had gone through four watches in quick succession when I settled on a $10.99 Target watch. No one was happier than I was wearing this no-brand-name timepiece with actual numbers 1 through 12 – and no Roman numerals.

Friends and family applauded how much I became attached to this watch. A comment from Facebook friend Rob McNaughton was typical:

“I gave up on expensive watches long ago,” Rob wrote. “I’ve had a watch that I bought at Walmart over 10 years ago and never have had to replace the battery! And it’s got BIG numbers that I can read in my old age!”

So what does this tale have to do with bowling?

Plenty!

Here is the most important lesson for bowlers from my watch experience:

Embrace change and don’t give up. I found happiness with a mundane, no-nonsense watch after repeatedly being let down by more-expensive watches.

Likewise, bowlers should adapt when times are tough and they should find a new method for their madness.

Here are some cases in point:

John Kiledjian was a lights-out right-handed bowler who routinely scored in the 200s with a sharp-breaking hook. When he hurt his right elbow and couldn’t bowl the way he’d like, he adapted.

He shifted to bowling with his left hand.

That’s not to say he’s bowling as well now as he did before. But he’s still in the game, still improving and he’s enjoying a new side of the game – so to speak. He’s still looking for his groove. But time is on his side.

Then there’s Michael Antin. Another lights-out bowler in his heyday, Michael realized he needed to make changes after a series of injuries robbed him of his ability to blast away at the pins. So he now bowls craftily, throwing precise shots that hook sweetly into the pocket.

He doesn’t score 265 like he did in his teen-age days. But reincarnated as a 150ish bowler, Michael finessed his way this year to a 233 game – which ranked as the highest handicap score in his league: 304.

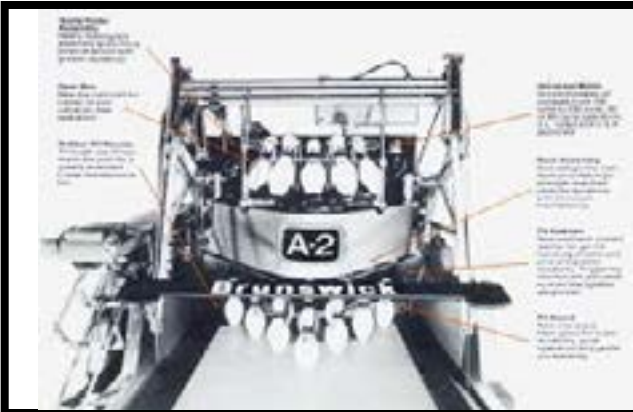

Michael didn’t give up and he found his timing.

Oh, one more thing: I’ve since replaced my fallen no-name Target watch with a similar no-name Target watch.

Same price: $10.99.

I had lasted one week without a watch before hastily returning to my Target in Agoura Hills and finding a replacement.

I didn’t want to waste any more time.

Sol came out on top as he fired a 254 game to Mark Lester’s 234 to win the title. Sol earned a $500 bonus and a nice $1,500. Mark Lester let himself be known at the Bowlium and he could have won it all but ended runner-up and took home a nice $750. In 3rd was Tess Dizon with a nice +148, she got $313.

5 others were close and could have won, including 4th Jessica Garcia +135 doing to possibly taking a week off and going home. Instead, her husband, Bryan, worked with her each round of the PWBA Orlando Open, including practice sessions, giving her one goal on which to focus.

“He said to exaggerate my pushaway, then work on keeping my elbow a little tighter at the bottom, then the next round was keep my left arm really stable,” said O’Keefe, who coaches the McKendree women’s bowling team during the school year. “By the end of the tournament, it’s the best I have felt throwing the ball in a year and a half. And that just snowballed into the rest of the season.”

Guerrero, who has battled injuries since late last year, also was making her first TV appearance of the season and was attempting to climb the stepladder as the No. 4 seed.

In the opening match, Guerrero struck on four of her first six shots to get past Danielle McEwan of Stony Point, New York, 215-198.

Also making her first TV appearance was Giselle Poss of Montgomery, Illinois, a 2016-2017 National Tenpin Coaches Association first-team All-American at Vanderbilt competing in just her fourth PWBA event.

Poss held a slim lead heading into the seventh frame, but back-to-back open frames – missing a 7-pin and failing to convert the more difficult 2-4-8-10 combination – cut short her bid to advance as Guerrero took a 235-214 victory to reach the title match.

The qualifying and match-play rounds of the PWBA St. Petersburg-Clearwater Open took place July 6-8 at Seminole Lanes in Seminole, Florida. It was the second consecutive year Seminole Lanes hosted the tournament. The stepladder finals were one of three shows taped at Plano Super Bowl, in conjunction with the U.S. Women’s Open, for later broadcast on CBS Sports Network.

The finals of the PWBA Orlando Open aired Aug. 15, and the Nationwide PWBA Rochester Open finals will be broadcast on CBS Sports Network on Aug. 29 at 8 p.m. EDT.

Carol, some other facts about that PCB tournament. Two factors contributed to the high scores. First, Roy Horneke was the laneman at Bowling Square so the lanes were blocked big time. Second, it was the era of "soakers" and most every one had one. Unfortunately Dick Strobbridge did not, so E.G. Mock lent him one of his.

Not that unusual except that EG was left handed and Dick was right handed. So the 300 he shot was with a left handed drilled ball. In the championship game Lee Taylor and unfortunately I can't remember the other bowler's name but they both shot 278 and since Lee was ahead going in he won.

It was the weirdest tournament I ever saw with high scores everywhere. If I remember rightly Clark Moore from (I think) Riverside shot 279,289,299 his last three games. Your mentioning it brought back my memories of that tournament.

Rhino Page Ends Title Slump with PBA Xtra Frame Kenn-Feld Classic Win - EJ Tackett Claims Storm Cup -

COLDWATER, Ohio – Rhino Page of Orlando, Fla., defeated rookie Chris Via of Springfield, Ohio, 190-173, to win his first Professional Bowlers Association singles title in seven years Sunday in the PBA Xtra Frame Kenn-Feld Group Classic at Pla-Mor Lanes. Earlier in the event, EJ Tackett of Huntington, Ind., clinched the PBA Xtra Frame Storm Cup title in a finale without much drama.

The Kenn-Feld Classic championship match reflected the challenging scoring environment, where strings of strikes were rare and spares were at a premium. Via, the tournament leader coming into the title match, left a 2-10 split and opened in the first frame. Page returned the favor, leaving a 3-7-9 split and opening in the sixth frame.

After a ball change that resulted in a cross-over strike, Page tacked on another for the only double of match, taking a six-pin lead. Via then left a 4-9 split in the ninth and opened again. Needing a double in the 10th to force Page to mark in his final frame, the former Notre Dame College two-handed player got the first strike but not the second.

All Page needed was seven pins to end his title slump, and he threw a strike to lock up his fifth career title.

"I can't even catch my breath," Page said. "It feels so wonderful, I can't even describe it. I can't thank the guys who helped me keep my head up the past seven years."

"I think (Pla-Mor Lanes) is one place that shows it's not always about the (lane conditioning) pattern, but the playing surface as well. It's not like there were a lot of strikes to be had, so I relied on my spare game, and that was the key."

In the opening match, Jason Sterner of Rockledge, Fla., struck on five of his first six shots and held a 36-pin lead, but lost his momentum when he left a 4-7-10 split and opened in the seventh frame. Given an opening, Joe Bailey, a 35-year-old veteran of PBA Central Region competition with one title, responded with a double, but needing a double in the 10th frame, he left the 3-4-6-7 split and opened. Sterner won, 209-179, but Bailey recorded his highest finish (fourth place) in 39 national tour events.

Sterner quickly became a victim of the challenging scoring environment in the semifinal match, dropping a 214-168 decision to Page, who started with a spare and three strikes, and stayed out of trouble the rest of the game to earn his shot at the title. The Xtra Frame Kenn-Feld Classic was the final tournament in the seven-event PBA Xtra Frame Storm Cup series that awarded $50,000 in bonus prizes to the five points leaders, including $20,000 to Tackett as the points champion. Tackett came into Coldwater with a nine-point lead in the Storm Cup race, and picked up two more points with his 19th place finish.

As a testament to the difficulty of the event, Tackett had the highest finish among the four players who had a mathematical chance to win the Cup, but the other three failed to gain any ground. Because only the top 20 finishers in each tournament earn Storm Cup points, England's Dom Barrett, who finished 65th; Marshall Kent of Yakima, Wash., who finished 58th, and Dick Allen of Columbia, S.C., who finished 76th in Coldwater, failed to win a point. Regardless, Barrett held on to second place for a $10,000 bonus, Kent wound up in a tie with Sean Rash of Montgomery, Ill., who finished sixth in Coldwater, for third place ($7,500 each) and Allen earned $5,000 for fifth place in the points race.

The entire Xtra Frame Tour and Storm Cup series was live streamed on PBA's online bowling channel, Xtra Frame.

Final Standings: 1, Rhino Page, Orlando, Fla., $10,000. 2, Chris Via, Springfield, Ohio, $6,000. 3, Jason Sterner, Rockledge, Fla., $3,500. 4, Joe Bailey, Wooster, Ohio, $2,000. Stepladder Results: Match One – Sterner def. Bailey, 209-179. Semifinal Match – Page def. Sterner, 214-168. Championship – Page def. Via, 190-173.

Senior Bowling Tour Rolls On 25 Years and Counting

by Fred Eisenhammer

WESTMINSTER – The West Coast Senior Tour has four more bowling tournaments to go this season before it concludes 25 years in operation.

So is the WCST ready for another quarter-century of events? “Absolutely,” says Dick Sanders, who has presided over the WCST’s two-and-a-half decades as the tour’s feisty director and owner.

Sanders hasn’t wasted any time getting the 2018 season planned out. In late July, he announced the tour’s schedule for next year with eight events planned for Southern California and four for Nevada.

Still to go this season are tournaments Sept. 2 at Westminster Lanes; Oct. 15 at Linbrook Bowl in Anaheim; Nov. 4 at South Point Bowling Center in Las Vegas; and Dec. 9-10 at Riverside Casino Lanes in Laughlin. Westminster Lanes will be serving as a WCST tournament site for the first time since 2001.

The tournaments in Las Vegas and Laughlin are expected to climax the WCST season. Sanders estimates he’ll get 35-40 entries in Las Vegas and 40-45 in Laughlin.

Overall, Sanders says the WCST entries have held steady this year. “We’ve had about the same as last year,” he said. The tour is open to eligible players 60 and older.

Sanders has maintained the same number of entries despite a disappointing break-up with the TVS Television Network Company. TVS, a syndicator of American sports programming, was expected to tape the finals of WCST tournaments and distribute the content to various TV channels and other media formats. That deal, however, never really got off the ground.

Still, Sanders has kept WCST interest up with several novelties, such as creating a round-robin format for the tournament finals. He’s also changed rules to benefit the 70-and-older segment, whose membership in the tour has been growing.

Additionally, Sanders has been encouraging women bowlers to take part in the tour, allowing women to compete starting at 55 years. One woman who has taken advantage has been United States Bowling Congress Hall-of-Famer Robin Romeo.

Sanders said Romeo has bowled in two WCST tournaments this year. “Robin Romeo is the most wonderful lady I’ve ever known,” said Sanders, whose tour has paid more than $4 million in prize money over more than 400 events. “She’s the classiest person I’ve ever met.” Romeo won the first WCST tour in which she competed – in 2001 at AMF Bowling Square Lanes in Arcadia.

Behind Sanders, the WCST has fought to boost entries since its heyday in the mid-1990s when the tour averaged more than 100 bowlers a tournament. The tour attracted a staggering 233 players to Ventura for one tournament in 1995, Sanders said.

Those grandiose events were two- and three-day affairs in those years, unlike the primarily one-day events now. The tournaments attracted bowlers from Northern and Southern California and Nevada those years. Now, the tour basically gets its players from the Southland and Nevada.

In any event, Sanders is focused on providing bowling tournaments for senior bowlers – and sees plenty of decades of WCST competition ahead.

“If I’m not there, cover it anyway,” he joked.

For more information on this scratch bowling tour, call Sanders at 760-363-1164.

Dick Sanders has guided the West Coast Senior Tour for 25 seasons – and sees many more years ahead.

JAT Kicks Off Another Season with New Preps Play

by David Yamauchi

NORWALK – The Junior Amateur Tour kicked off their 2017-2018 Season with an event at Keystone Lanes last Sunday. 65 bowlers took to the lanes including 12 in the newly-created Preps Division geared toward bowlers 140-165 average. Scoring was high as the bowlers came out of with their striking shoes on!

Preps Division- 2nd Louis DePero, Champion Luke Mercado and 3rd Emily Schrider

Thanks to a generous grant from the Bowling Centers of Southern California (the local association of bowling proprietors) the newly formed Preps Division took the lanes for the first time. With the sponsorship, the 140-165 average Preps bowl three games for only a $10 entry fee and have the chance to earn SMART Scholarship funds for their efforts. $275 in scholarship funds were awarded to our Preps. The first Preps Champion was Luke Mercado with a 525 series earning him a championship plaque and $75 scholarship. Other cashers included Louis DePero- 488 (plaque + $65 scholarship), Emily Schrider- 472 (plaque + $55 scholarship), Kaitlynn Yukihiro- 455 ($45 scholarship) and Aidan Contraras- 437 ($35 scholarship). We hope to see more bowlers come out and get some tournament experience in the new Preps Division in upcoming events!

In the JAT Farm Club (averages 165-190), a field of 30 bowlers took the lanes. After 5

Farm Club- 2nd Brandon Howard, Champion Allexander Zieg and 3rd Andrew Chan.

Zieg at +173. In the stepladder, Zieg stayed hot taking out 2nd seed Chan 233-202 to advance to the championship match against wire-to-wire leader Brandon Howard. In the final it was Allexander Zieg taking the match 236-187 to earn him his first JAT Farm Club title. Congratulations Allexander!

In the Open Division the high-average juniors showed their stuff as soon as the lights came on. Ryan Lee wowed the crowd with a 10-pin-spare-sheet 290 to start, followed by another 290 game and a 228 for an 808 series to pace the field at +322 for his 6 games of qualifying. Nick Caner was close on his heels with a 247-279-264-246 run in the middle games to get him to +286 and Kevin Banaag was 3rd at +159. Low-to-qualify was Clifford Baltazar at +40. In the best-of-three bracket the top-4 took a bye while the bottom 8 battled in the Elimination Round. David Schneider defeated Eric Phillips in two, Nolan Am Khong took out Clifford Baltazar in two, Costa Gastouniotis cruised past Leoj Chin in two and Marquan Rivers upset 6th seed Solomon Salama in three. In the Quarterfinals the top-4 seeds stepped back in and 1,2 and 4 took care of business with the only upset being spoiler Rivers defeating Kevin Banaag in two. Ryan Lee swept past Schneider, Nick Caner cruised past Gastouniotis and Reigh Abaoag took three games to get past Am Khong. In the Semifinal Round, Caner ran through Rivers in two to set his spot in the finals while Abaoag needed a tie breaker and a third game to squeak past Lee to meet Caner. In the Finals, it was an exciting match as Nick Caner came out striking for a game one win 235-201 but Reigh Abaoag stormed back and put on a show for the crowd with the front-11 in a 298-205 win setting up a one-game winner-take-all. In the final game, a couple missed spared and a few timely shots boosted Nick Caner to a 204-184 win and his first JAT Open Division title. Congratulations Nick!

Open Division - Champion Nick Caner and 2nd Reigh Abaoag.

Special thanks to our tour Title Sponsor Brunswick Bowling for their support of junior bowling and the JAT. Our next event will be Sunday, September 24th at La Habra “300” Bowl in La Habra. BURBANK – As I look back, my life as been a whirlwind of bowling. Encompassing special tournaments and leagues. I've travelled to places I never would have because of bowling. I've met people for the first time on the lanes and then sat next to them at a card table in a casino that night. I've watched children roll their first strike and basked in the glow of their gaping smiles of joy and awe.

I learned about the business of the sport at the knees of the old timers and came away educated and enriched. This ultimately led to my becoming a leader in the local association way back in the days of Women's Bowling Association and the LABA. And serving on the Youth Board starting in the YABA days. In those years, there were times I backed away, overwhelmed. But I always returned. I am in love with bowling.

I have seen the effect it has on children who may not excel at anything else in their lives. I have seen 100 year old men still rolling that ball in spite of aches, pains and blurred vision. I've heard every excuse for bad bowling and every piece of advice to improve my game. I have made life long friends & enemies. I am older, wiser and now have those at my knees, learning. I can't, and won't, help myself. I love bowling and people that come with it. I am still here and I am still learning.
