Marketing the New Bowling Museum

ARLINGTON—The USBC moving to Arlington, Texas is great, but honestly, I'm more excited about the inclusion of the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame in the same building. Having bowling history at your doorstep creates tremendous marketing opportunities.

All who visit the new International Bowling Campus from around the world will have the opportunity to tour the museum, and it will add a dynamic dimension to every visit. In close proximity to Texas' most attended entertainment district, the museum should attract thousands of new visitors who never had the chance to see it in St. Louis.

When the museum opens in 2010, bowling fans and sports fans in general will stop in, and the thousands who attend the other attractions in the district will make the museum one of their stops – if bowling does a good job of marketing the facility.

The challenge for the new museum will be to make it interesting, make it attractive, and continually offer new exhibits and attractions for those who have attended before as an enticement to re-visit. I can even envision "live" exhibits, such as a ticket to attend a training session of Team USA or another national team that may be visiting, or special exhibition matches at the International Training Center that will be located at the opposite end of the building.

If the PBA becomes involved in the project, exhibition matches with their top players could be arranged in the tour off-season. The possibilities are virtually endless. Dallas-Fort Worth is a huge media market. Imagine an an-

by Stacy Rider

ANAHEIM—Linbrook Bowling Center opened its doors in 1958. Fifty years later and many fine memories, the staff and patrons celebrated the event Saturday, August 30 and Sunday, August 31. All of our events were sold out in advance. Linbrook Bowl was definitely the place to be!

The day was kicked off with a Junior Adult Tournament sponsored by Orange County Games. The Handicap Division winners were: 1. Kevin Hopkinson/Evan Mostow 1478; 2. Chris Conway/John Conway 1368; 3. Sarah Clark/Bob Clark 1363; 4. Matt Clark/Nicole Bloom 1362. In the Scratch Division: 1. Mark McLeod/E.J. Rogers 1256, 2. J.D. Greenhalgh/Andrew Newburn 1236. The Best Dressed 50's Award went to Cara Myers and Kelsey Myers.

John Haveles, the General Manager, made a wonderful presentation about the history of Linbrook Bowl after which, Cynthia Ward, President of the Anaheim Historical Society, presented Linbrook Bowl with a beautiful plaque commemorating Linbrook as a "Googie" style Landmark significant to the architectural heritage of Anaheim, California.

Next up was the Senior No-Tap sponsored by Caremore with a sold out crowd of 128 bowlers. The main event winners were: 1st place (tie) Roger Morris and Doc Dennis 939, 3. Tony Chaco 918, 4. Jack Stewart 917, 5. Dick McKenzie 880. We paid out 16 places in the main division and sidepots each game. The 3-6-9 was won by Frank Pearlman for $128. Many memories were shared by this group of bowlers and a terrific time was had by all.

The League Bowlers Luck of the Draw event was the third tournament. There were many close matches. The last three teams ironically ended up being our Friday night leagues: The Kamaaina League, Vegas party and T.G.I.F. It came down to the last bowler on the Vegas Party League. Without mentioning any names a single pin spare was missed to give the Kama-aina league the victory, bragging rights and a pizza party for their league! Congratulations to all three teams and thank you to all the bowlers for coming out for the special day.

Our featured match was up next. Eva Munson and Terry Brent against Rose Williams and Glenn Allison. It couldn't have been a better match with these Hall of Fame bowlers. Rose and Glenn took the first match by 12 pins. Eva and Terry came back strong at the beginning of the second game. They moved ahead of them but Rose smashed a 4-bagger to shut them out. Thank you to all four bowlers for putting on a terrific show that the bowlers loved to watch!

I don't have any stats on the Color of Money event. But I am sure a great time was shared and I know they were expecting an exciting evening. They had a terrific turnout of 92 bowlers. Lots of money and prizes were awarded to the bowlers!

Our open play bowlers enjoyed 50 cent games and shoe rental on Sunday and limited lanes were used on Saturday. We had a great turnout for the Karaoke Contest. Many patrons enjoyed the BBQ and live band.

I would like to thank all of our sponsors for helping out with the events raffle prizes. Without your help we could not have made these events so successful. Thank you to the staff for making it all happen and to the bowlers for making this 50th anniversary a terrific celebration.

LONG BEACH—The 2008 - 2009 bowling season is now officially underway, following Monday Labor Day, although the Vegas league got an early start on August 18.

The reason the league starts early each year is to be able to schedule it's 33 week schedule of two rounds, one position at the end of the league team sweeps and OPTIONAL Vegas Doubles and Singles sweeps in late March or early April.

Members especially like the two round schedule which means they only bowl each team twice until conclusion. When the season starts, there is usually a league meeting and it is very important for members to attend and approve, or disapprove, management. For instance, will you have voice and vote to elect knowledgeable officers, set league fees and rules? Remember, it is YOUR LEAGUE and you have voice and vote.

There's always those who complain AFTER the league is off and running but making changes to league rules is possible, it's a very difficult procedure.

The Vegas league elected officers at the end of last season and conducted the meeting for the new season in July. Membership interest is evident with more than 75% attending to set league fees and rules. Although there are a few changes made annually, they basically remain the same.

Since the Vegas league was on a Bye Monday, we have no report except to remind gals looking for a league that there's still two openings in the 16-team Classified Foursome. It's now in it's 51st consecutive year so that assures you it must be doing everything right. Call me at (562) 423-1567 for more information and sign on as a member or "sub".

NEXT WEEK: Monday 10 a.m. September 8, Keystone Lanes. The schedule, league rules and financial statements are included on one sheet and will be distributed to each member. One per bowler so, a reminder to team captains to see that only each team member gets one. Also, please carry it in your bowling bag so you will have it available when needed. Addresses and phone numbers for hosting centers are included this year.

Inland Empire NABI Champion Tim Bodiford

MORENO VALLEY—We want to thank ABC Moreno Valley Bowl for being our perfect host of our Labor Day tournament. Tim Bodiford won with his Storm Duece II, drilled by Leo Estes at the ABC Pro Shop. Tim has been bowling for 22 years, and has bowled a sanctioned 300 at AMF Riverside Lanes, (displaying his handsome 300 ring.) He also bowls in the Friday Sams Town League at Riverside Lanes. Tim, a very likeable young man, has only been a NABI member for about 2 months. He drives a limo for his occupation, and his hobby is bowling. Tim is quite the family man, coaching his 2 daughter's soft ball team, and his son, Damon, is always his biggest fan, coming to all the tournaments with him. Tim dedicates this win to his wife & kids. Good bowling Tim!

We had a Beat the Board with the top 7 as follows: (all with HDCP) Tim Bodiford, bowling a 691 series, Shawna Miller in a tie with Guy Clear, bowling a 680 series, Neil Colgrove, with a 650 series, Jay Shackelford, a 641 series, Kerry Lucka, bowling a 632 series & Tom Jones, with a 629 series.

Our sidepots went to Russell Valentine, Jonathan Miller, Tom Jones & Jay Shackelford (3). Our Ebonite Game Breaker was won by Jay Shackelford & we all had plenty of hot dogs. It was great fun!

Look for our Inland Empire NABI ad for Trevi Lanes on Sat, Sept. 6 in this week's Bowling News.

Also, look for our ad for the new Orange County NABI, beginning our first tournament this Sunday, Sept. 7 at Bowlium. All the details for both tournaments are in our ads. See ya there!

They are from (L-R): Julianne - Tim's wife, Tim Bodiford - Champion, Damon, Tim's son, Jessica (in rear) Tim's daughter, Taylor - Tim's daughter, Tom Jones - 7th place, Guy Clear - tied for 2nd place, Shawna Miller - tied for 2nd place, Neil Colgrove - 4th place.

Reno Offers Bowlers Competition & Entertainment

RENO, NV—It's not too late to enter! The National Bowling Stadium is accepting entries into the 2008 Storm National Mixed Championships with the goal to set a new record for the number of entries and the biggest prize fund ever offered in the tournament's six year history.

Entrants into the 2008 Storm National Mixed Tournament and the Festival of Bowling have a wide variety of choices. With seven different events in the two tournaments and loads of activities in the Reno-Lake Tahoe area, the selection is almost endless.

Within walking distance of downtown's major hotels, visitors can see a 1981 24-Karat Gold plated DeLorean at the National Automobile Museum, watch the kayakers on the Truckee River at Wingfield Park, enjoy real circus acts at the Circus Circus, attend concerts and sporting events at the new Reno Events Center, watch movies in a 12 screen Cineplex, stroll down the Truckee River Walk, or just sit and relax at any number of cafes along the way. Scheduled events during the tournaments include the Great Italian Festival, October 11 and 12, Nevada Day Celebrations in Carson City, October 30 - November 2 and University of Nevada-Reno Football games. For a complete list of events happening during your visit, go to WWW.VisitRenoTahoe.com and follow the link to the Events Calendar.

The Storm National Mixed Tournament and Festival of Bowling will be held for six weekends in a row between October 2nd and November 9th. The first squad of the weekend is Thursdays at 2:00PM, giving bowlers enough time to get to town and get settled before bowling. National Mixed Team event is held at 6:00PM Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays and the Mixed Doubles and Singles may be bowled at either 10:00AM Friday, Saturday or Sunday, or at 2:00PM Thursday, Friday, Saturday or Sunday. There is no Team event Sundays in order to give bowlers and chance to finish early. All Festival events are held during each squad.

If you want to switch partners or bowl with a new friend you have made at the tournament the Festival of Bowling Events are just for you. The Festival of Bowling events include Open Doubles (any combination of bowlers men and/or women) and Open Singles (for those who may not have a doubles partner but would like to bowl a Singles Event or would like to bowl an additional Singles Event tournament). Other events in the Festival are the Senior Doubles (any combination of bowlers, aged 50 and over), Senior Singles, with separate men's and women's divisions, and the Adult/Youth Doubles.

The Adult/Youth Doubles has become a favorite event for the many families traveling to Reno. One adult and youth are a team, and competitors may change partners and form other teams, thereby giving families and friends a chance to compete up to three times.

In the past five years, the Mixed National Tournament and the Festival of Bowling have awarded nearly $700,000 in prizes, $20,000 of which was in the form of scholarship money to youth bowlers.

Special Room Rates have been set up with the tournament sponsoring hotels Circus Circus, Silver Legacy and the newest addition Club Cal-Neva. This year, the Silver Legacy and Circus Circus are offering free room upgrades to group organizers. Book 5-15 rooms at the Circus Circus and get a complimentary upgrade to a mini-suite. If you book 16 or more rooms, the mini-suite is free. The Silver Legacy offers group organizers booking 10 or more rooms a free room upgrade. For reservations, call the Silver Legacy at 1-800-687-8733 (Booking Code - MIXED07), the Circus Circus at 1-866-447-7728 (Booking Code - IBOWL07) or the Club Cal-Neva at 1-877-777-7303 (Booking Code - STORM). Be sure to mention the Booking Code for your room upgrade.

Complete rules for the National Mixed Tournament and the Festival of Bowling as well as the entry form may be downloaded from www.NationalMixed.com

LABOR REWARDED!

SAN DIEGO—The NABI San Diego Labor Day Tournament was hosted by Parkway Bowl this past weekend, & Jeff Greer powered his way to the top & was rewarded with $1675 for his effort. Concentration & total focus were his forte, as he captured his second NABI title. He was the #1 seed after the semifinals & faced some strong challenges on his way to the victory. When it was all over, he admitted to being emotionally drained, but it was worth the effort! He received $1000 for finishing 1st, $500 for being in the optional upgrade & an additional $175 bonus for being a frequent bowler. Jeff also wanted to dedicate this win to his father, who taught him how to bowl & about life. William David Greer passed away 6/13/2008.

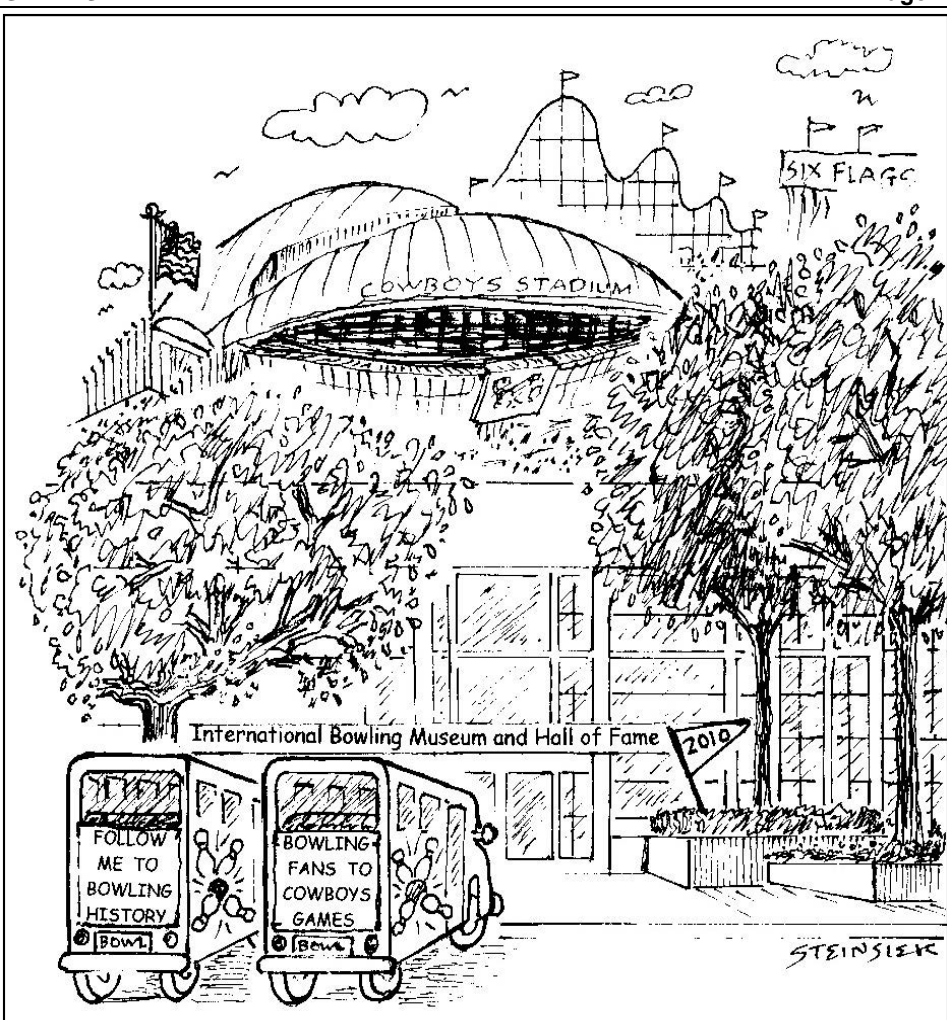

N.A.B.I. Champion Jeff Greer

The other top 8 finalists were Randy Sanicolas, Chad Hill, Jonny Long, George Evans, Bert Chadwick, Ed Lomibao & Elsa Hall.

Ron Tanja struck out in the 10th frame of each of his three qualifying squad games & collected $150. Only 3 bowlers managed to strike in the 3rd, 6th & 9th frames of game two, Robert Anderson, Manny Mayo, Jr. & George Evans. Each received $67.

There were lots of $50 guaranteed sidepots to go around, & Andrew Chain, Fred Hutto (2), George Evans (2), Bert Chadwick, James Whiteley, Serf Distrito, David Danielly, Brian Watkins, Tom Brophy, Gil Gissendaner, Riz Lejarde, Marissa de Luna, Paul Phounsavath (3), Elsa Hall (1/2) & David Santos (1/2) were the recipients.

The next NABI tournament will be September 13th at Mira Mesa Bowl. Details will be included in the next Bowling News. See you at Mira Mesa on the 13th we'll save a cookie for you!

nual televised major event or a made for TV event from the new Training Center.

Local sports fans that are attending Texas Rangers games, or those going to the new billion-dollar Dallas Cowboys Football Stadium will visit the museum if bowling officials can design some meaningful cross-promotions. Even NASCAR fans may stop in while visiting Texas Motor Speedway, which is only a short drive away. And don't forget, the Cowboy's Stadium will host a little event called the NFL Superbowl in 2011.

Here's an idea - during Cowboy and Ranger games, open up the IBC parking lot to fans. It's only a five-minute drive to the new stadium, and affordable parking will be hard to find. It looks like the lot will hold about 300 cars, and if it is done right, it could become a very popular place to park for Cowboy games and Texas Ranger games that are held when the bowling building is normally closed. To take it a step further, buy a couple of shuttle busses to get people to the stadium and back. Paint bowling pins on the bus, and have a sign on the back that says "Follow Me to Bowling History." The busses will be rolling billboards for bowling; and handout information brochures, coupons and discount tickets can be distributed to passengers. A reasonable parking fee will easily pay for the busses in a short time.

Directly across the street from the new museum is Six Flags Over Texas, which is bigger than California's Disneyland - another golden marketing opportunity. Why not make a deal where millions of Six Flags ticket stubs have an attachment for a bowling museum discount, or a free gift, redeemable at the museum?

The Arlington Sports and Entertainment District is already one of the nation's most desirable and centrally located vacation destinations; and with the edition of the Cowboys Stadium and the International Bowling Campus, it will become even more attractive in the future.

The question is, will bowling get its little slice of the sports entertainment pie in Arlington? With the right marketing and promotions, the potential is tremendous.

New Time Slot Set For U.S. Women's Open on ESPN

ARLINGTON, TX—Due to a schedule change, the 2008 U.S. Women's Open, a United States Bowling Congress event, will debut on ESPN this Sunday at 2 p.m. EDT, one hour later than originally scheduled.

Sunday's premiere will mark the first of five consecutive weeks of U.S. Women's Open coverage on ESPN, which will continue on Sept. 14, 21 and 28 and Oct. 5, all at 2 p.m. EDT.

The U.S. Women's Open started with more than 180 competitors, who battled through 32 grueling games of qualifying Aug. 1-4 at Brunswick Zone XL in Romeoville, Ill., before the top 16 advanced to the single-elimination bracket that will be featured on ESPN.

The field of 16 of the most talented women bowlers in the world was divided into four sub-brackets, and on each of the first four telecasts, four players will face off for a spot in the finals, which airs on Oct. 5.

The field includes Team USA members, former professional stars, international standouts, collegiate champions and top amateurs, and the event concludes with a climatic title match that makes bowling history.

THE CHUCK LANDE STORY

by John Jowdy

Although two foreign bowlers, Jason Belmonte of Australia and Osku Palermaa of Sweden have energized young bowlers all over the world with their two-handed thumbless delivery, they are not the first bowlers to apply this method of execution.

My first encounter with this unique bowling style occurred in 1989. Lande, a young bowler from Dallas, participated in the PBA summer tour and, although not a big winner, he was quite impressive

I contacted Chuck Lande recently and he gave me the following account of his two-handed thumbless method of bowling.

Lande began bowling in a youth league at age 12 in 1977. He bowled with one hand his first season and averaged a dismal 120. In 1978, Lande's mother purchased Chuck a ball from Kmart. The sporting goods cashier drilled the ball and, needless to say, it was a "lousy" fit. He couldn't even hold the ball; plus it was too heavy. Consequently, he inserted the two fingers but not the thumb. The next season, he averaged close to 175 and by the age 15, he was averaging over 200.

Here are some of Mr. Lande's accomplishments in his early years of bowling:

1. He rolled his first sanctioned 300 at age 17 while bowling in the Junior Leagues.
2. At age 18, he rolled back-to-back 300 games en route to winning the prestigious Dallas Morning News Match Game Championships.
3. He rolled perfect games in over a dozen bowling centers in the Dallas Metroplex

Lande joined the PBA in 1986 at age 22 and bowled virtually all SW Regional PBA events from 1986-1991 and posted the following record:

1. He won five PBA Regional titles from 1987-1991.
2. He had at least five runner-up finishes, which he tries to forget but still haunt him.
3. He cashed in over 85% of PBA Regionals that he bowled in.
4. He qualified for the National Resident Pro Championships from the SW Region Point List three times during that period.

It is important to note that the SW Region was one of the PBA's toughest during that period. It featured such players as Gary Dickinson, David Ozio, Del Ballard, Norm Duke, Tony Westlake, Chris Warren, Mark Williams, Henry Gonzales, and Mike and Mark Scroggins.

Lande competed on the PBA summer tour in 1989 and learned three things:

1. He was good enough to compete with PBA players.
2. The lifestyle was a total beating and not very exciting.
3. The opportunity to earn a good living was not there except for Hall of Fame caliber players.

In the mid 1990's, Lande began tinkering with computers. He visited all local computer and electronic superstores and purchased all customer-returned units, as well as all units placed on the clearance racks. He would fix up the computers at home and sell them to bowlers and bowling proprietors. The little sideline hobby continued to grow and by the year 2000, Lande was the proud owner of a state of the art PC repair, refurbishing and marketing facility. He employed repair technicians, national and international sales reps.

The rapid growth and success of the company helped him land on the Dallas Business Journal Fast Tech 50, Dallas' 100 top fastest growing businesses in the Dallas/Ft. Worth area. He garnered two semi-finalist awards for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award and made more than enough money from 1998 to 2000 that he was beginning to think of retiring.

Lande was a guest speaker at Bowl Expo in Las Vegas in 2001 speaking on the need for proprietors to embrace computers and technology in their centers. During his visit to the show, he was shocked to learn how few proprietors used PC's, or had websites, or kept a customer database, etc. Yet, they all mentioned that business was great. He left the trade show with the desire to sell his tech company and build a center of his own in his hometown just outside of Dallas.

He sold the company to a private investment group of ex-telecom executives in 2002. Shortly afterwards, he hired Howard Ellman, a designer he met at Bowl Expo, to develop a concept for a modern bowling center. This gave birth to Rowlett Bowl-a-Rama, a truly state of the art facility. The beautiful center has been successful in attracting league and casual bowlers, with over 200 youth league bowlers and about 800 adult league bowlers (in a 26 lane center). The figures continue to grow. He really enjoys the bowling industry.

Bowl-a-Rama is also home to former Junior Team USA bowler Jaime Foster, a 21-year-old female two-hander as well as a seven-year old two-handed prodigy named Anthony Simonsen, who continuously shoots games of about 230.

Lande currently bowls three games a week in a competitive league at his bowling center and averages between 225-230 (which he thinks stinks) He still bowls two-handed and typically uses regular urethane or polyester equipment, claiming modern balls are too powerful. He hopes to bowl in some PBA senior events when he turns 50 in 2014.

Chuck Lande's success is truly emblematic of The American Dream and is arguably the most financially successful ex-professional bowler ever. Many "big name" bowlers have taken advantage of their reputations and, with financial backing, have achieved great success. However, Lande's wealth is a result of his ingenuity and foresight. Furthermore, he amassed his fortune by age 35, an almost unbelievable accomplishment

Chuck Lande is married to his wife Diane. They have two beautiful children, an eight-year old girl Jordan, and a five-year old son, Jeremy.

National Deaf Bowling News

by Connie Marchione

SO CALIF DEAF TRAVELING LEAGUE LIVES ON FOR ITS 49TH SEASON

NORWALK—At its meeting last August 17 at Keystone Lanes, So Calif.

Deaf Traveling League got three new members and a couple returnees to replace those who left and will have 6 teams of trios ready to start its 49th year. The same officers for the last 2 years were re-elected for another two years terms.

It will begin its 2008-09 season on Sunday Sept. 7 at Canoga Park Bowl, one of the 8 bowling centers the bowlers selected to travel to.

During the new season, the officers and bowlers will plan on how to prepare for its 50th Anniversary next year.

GALLO AND DECKER ENTERS IN PBA LADIES AND LEGENDS

Note: This writer was priming this story before I got injured in a fall at Kansas City last May. This story is something many people did not know that two participants were deaf and worth mentioning.

ROCKFORD—Deaf bowlers Frank Gallo, Jr., Newport, VA and Lindy Decker, Dover, PA were among the 139 PBA senior men and 52 professional and amateur women entered in the Columbia 300 PBA Ladies and Legends presented by MGD 64 at The Cherry Bowl, Rockford, IL last May 2-4. The Ladies and Legends features the ladies' top female bowlers and the legends' top pro senior male bowlers who are 50 and older;

Gallo, Jr. and Decker did not bowl together because the event format calls for all bowlers to bowl 2 qualifying rounds of 6 games with top 24 women and top 24 men bowl as doubles partners doubles according to the to the positions they qualified. So they hoped fate would pair them together but read on..

In the first round Gallo placed 80th with 1247 (207.8 ave.) and rallied in next day's 2nd round with 1377 (229.5 ave.) but his 2624 total placed him 38th, 54 pins short of making top 24 men. Because of large men entries and he, being a super senior, Gallo cashed for $900.00.

With Decker who last month scored a deaf women's record 2179 all-events total in the Great Lakes Deaf Women's Tournament at Columbus, OH, it was different and interesting tale. She bowled horribly in her first 6 games placing 40th with 1123 (187.2 ave.) but in the next day's 6 games, Decker busted out with a big 1408 (ladies' 3rd highest of day, 234.7 ave.) for 2531 total for a big jump up to 21st place. She made the top 24 women qualifiers for the round robin Baker system match plays..

For the 24 games Baker system match plays, Decker was paired with 21st place PBA Senior Tom Howison, Chillicothe, OH who had 2696. They did well, moving up and finished in 12th place with 11 wins and 13 losses record and 5604 total pins for $2500.00 prize. ($1250 each).

The men's senior standout Tom Baker, King, NC led the men's qualifying and was paired with the ladies' pro standout Liz Johnson, Cheektowaga, NY who had won last two Ladies and Legends. But in Baker system format, they finished in 15th place.

The winners were #4 Qualifiers Kelly Kulick, Union City, NJ and Robert Harvey, Boise, ID who had the best 19-5 win & loss record for the $15,000.00 prize..

Kudos to Decker and Gallo for cashing in their first debut in this event.

Last Season Was A Tough One For Us

(Excerpts from June 19th Article)
It's been a trying time to be the director of the JAT. In the past two years the JAT family has suffered some very saddening losses. We suddenly lost three JAT Alums, Derrick Salary, T.C. Giberson and Joel Reyes all well before their time. We also lost a great supporter of the JAT, T.C.'s mother Lori Giberson. These were individuals from different corners of Southern California who came together to do what they loved to do. Four amazing individuals that I never would have had the chance to cross paths with if it wasn't for bowling.

With a heavy heart I attended each of the four funerals and as I looked around familiar faces surrounded me. I was so proud to see all the support and outreach of the JAT bowlers and parents who came together to help comfort the families of our Alums. It enforced my belief that the JAT is more than just a tournament-it's truly a family. The sight of generations of bowlers paying their respects was truly amazing.

Every time I run into the guys I bowled with it seems like not a day had passes since we had been on the lanes. A couple of hours together ragging on each other and catching up really made me miss the "old days" of JAT. Many times alumni ask me "Is the JAT still around?" I always answer "yes" and tell them how hard we are working to keep things going strong. Most ask why I'm still around and it's because of what JAT meant to me. It was the place that I met my best friends- the guys I'm still in touch with and always look forward to seeing. The experience of bowling junior had such a positive effect on my life that I want to make sure that every junior has the chance to have a JAT career under their belt.

As our new season starts, a few juniors won't be back and will be off to start their adult careers. Again, I will encourage all the juniors to "age-out" and play out your entire junior career. Every bowler I've crossed paths with after they "turned" tells me that they miss their days of junior bowling. When I was a junior I didn't realize that 20 years later I'd be brought to tears laughing about "road trips to Fresno for CSC" or "snow in Vegas on Christmas break". It's a once in a lifetime experience that is never forgotten. I hope every one of you bowling now has made friends as special and memorable as the friends I've made thanks to this great game of bowling.

(Please go to www.californiabowlingnews.com and download the June 19th issue to read the complete article on page 11)

See you all on the lanes this Sunday!

SED Jr. Travel

by David Gordon

ROSEMEAD – Hello everyone and welcome back from a long summer. SED Jr. Travel starts back up this Saturday, September 6th, at Del Rio Lanes in Downey. Registration begins at 1:30, with bowling to start at 2:00. The cost will remain at just $15 per session.

For those new, SED Jr. Travel is a scratch 2-person team format, which bowls 4 games each week at a different bowling center throughout the Los Angeles and Orange counties. The junior program develops many of the skills you will need for higher competition, but keeps a lot of the fun you're use to from your Saturday morning house leagues. Recommended averages for SED Jr. Travel start at 165 for boys and 150 for girls. For more information, please email me at David_Gordon@sonyusa.com or call me at 310-665-9536.

I hope to see most of you veterans and a lot of new faces this Saturday.

Linbrook's 50th Anniversary Bash

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—I feel compelled to comment on Linbrook's celebration of 50 years in the business of providing bowlers of all ages a home (center) to participate and to enjoy this great, fun sport of ours.

The celebration was held this past Saturday, August 30th and as I drove into the familiar parking lot, which is extensive, I could not see even one space available, other than the marked "Handicapped." Finally, just bidding my time, I followed a bowler who was apparently (thank goodness) leaving and snagged their space. As I gleefully walked up to the front door, I spied several large BBQ's with a multitude of people waiting for the 50 cent hot dogs, pizza and cold drinks. I stopped for a sample and was very pleased ... everyone knows that Linbrook's pizza is absolutely the BEST, but you should also know that their hot dogs rival the world-famous Nathan's ... who knew? What a feast! They were certainly prepared for a crowd and had ample food and drink to please all. Their "live" fifties style band was fab and set up in the meeting room, along with many tables and chairs, and ... 50 cent cold beer. Lots of folks were congregated in THERE!

Many of the pre-arranged tournaments on tap had already taken place throughout the day so by the time I arrived (3:30), all that remained was the 3-6-9 elimination and then the Luck of the Draw Tournament was ready to roll by 5 O'clock. This tournament was run Baker style and each league bowling at Linbrook had the opportunity to form a five-man team to compete on a random (luck of the draw) pick against another team. Each team bowled a one game match and if you won, you advanced. If you lost, well then you became one of the rooters. I came specifically to support and root on my team -- Rocky Marsh Doubles and boy, it was stacked with such good bowlers, even had two Hall of Famers on the roster. Well, we did win our first match but then fell by the wayside in the next (just no cary) you know ... and alas, just became rooters too. Oh well, it was sure fun and my team did me proud! The winning team, Kamaaina Club, get pizza for their entire league and the second place team will be awarded an ice cream party. I can hardly wait for the next Big Party; I know my team will do much better!!

The featured match of the day was the Hall of Famers match between Rose Williams and Glenn Allison vs Eva Munson and Terry Brent. They had a two-game match and it was soooo exciting to see soooo many strikes and the crowd was fab, rooting all of them on. It was kinda like attending a hockey game in person, without the bloodshed. The team of Rose Williams and Glenn Allison prevailed. Mr. 900 himself hasn't lost a thing -- still smooth and exciting to watch, like a machine!

General Manager John Haveles and the entire staff at Linbrook Bowl are to be congratulated on a job well done; a lot of work but worth it. I hope they don't wait another 50 years before they plan, on a much smaller scale, another such party. We thank you, Linbrook, for a very fun-filled day. Here's to another 50 years!!!

Partners Brent & Wilson Emerge Champs in Rocky Marsh Doubles

by Joy McGregor

ANAHEIM—Our Rocky Marsh Doubles league concluded in fine fashion with sweeps on Friday, August 29th. Season awards were presented to the high achievers and cash awards to the members lucky enough to cash; unfortunately, I was NOT one of them! High men's average went to John Conway at 229 and ladies to Janine Ditch at 210. High men's series to John Conway at 999 and ladies to Janine Ditch at 948 ... do you see a pattern here? Men's high game to Shig Shoji at 298 and ladies to Rose Williams at 268. Pretty high huh? Also, congratulations to our most improved bowlers: Gloria Ferrulli at +24 and Kyle Osterman at +38.

Our champs this year - Team #2 (Dirty Old Men) comprised of Jack Wilson and Terry Brent are not only the best of friends, they sure do bowl well together; they had high game at 559 and high series at 1939. Jack finished the league sporting +20 pins for a 206 average and Terry at +25 for a 228 average. They finished on top by a landslide - 61 games. Just outstanding bowling from two of the NICEST "Dirty Old Men!"

The entire Rocky Marsh Doubles league says, "THANK YOU" to Linbrook Bowl for providing yet another, yummy luncheon. Also, kudos to the well-trained and courteous cafeteria staff; a job well done and the food was delicious.

I truly enjoyed my job as secretary so 'thank you' to all you bowlers who made up this great league, to all our loyal subs and to the Bowling News for publishing our article each week.

You would think the end of a summer league would signal the end of summer also but, Mother Nature says, I don't think so! And we all know better than to mess with Her. So....Adieu to Rocky Marsh summer league: Bonjour 590 Classic winter league. Start date: Sept 5th at 9:30 am sharp!

I hope everyone had a nice Labor Day and are now ready to begin - a fresh start, so to speak, in your winter leagues. Have a productive new bowling season and see y'all right here next summer. Until then..
