New PBA Regional Players Invitational Series Will Create Affordable Closer-to-Home Championship Events

SEATTLE – The Professional Bowlers Association has created a new PBA Regional Players Invitational series for the 2012-13 season that will give all PBA members an opportunity to qualify for a prestigious new regional championship event closer to home, PBA Commissioner Tom Clark announced today.

The new tournament series, which will be conducted in the PBA's East, South, Central, Midwest, Southwest and joint West-Northwest Regions, will provide dozens of top regional players with international media exposure because all six events will be webcast live, exclusively on PBA's online bowling channel, Xtra Frame.

Each of the six RPIs also will offer prize funds in excess of $25,000, including $6,000 to each winner and a 1:2 payout ratio, and the winner of each will win a paid entry into the 2013 PBA World Series of Bowling.

"In a typical year, the PBA conducts roughly 170 regional tournaments throughout its seven regions, ranging from New England to Hawaii," John Weber, Director of Regional and Senior Tours, said. "In years past, the PBA has conducted two national championship events specifically for regional players – a PBA Regional Players Championship and a PBA Regional Players Invitational.

"We have found, in our changing economic climate, that regional players are having an increasingly difficult time traveling cross-country to attend those national events," Weber added. "The new RPI program addresses that problem by providing our members with signature tournaments that are more affordable and more easily accessible, but still retain special levels of exclusivity and prestige that will reward performance."

Since the late 1960s, the PBA Regional program has been the proving ground for hundreds of young players who aspire to become the future stars of the PBA Tour, and it continues to provide an affordable, close-to-home competitive arena for many others who love to compete but who are involved in careers other than professional bowling.

"The new RPI series also will provide PBA's Xtra Frame subscribers with the added value of bonus coverage featuring both current and future stars in professional bowling," Clark noted. "This is a level of competition never before available to the general public, but because of Xtra Frame's online reach, it's going to be a great addition to the PBA program for players and fans alike."

In order to qualify for their home area RPI, players will be required to qualify among the top 48 in competition points within their own regions during

Walter Ray Wins PBA South Region Scorpion Open

Walter Ray Williams Jr.

CANTON — Newly-crowned PBA Senior Player of the Year Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Ocala, Fla., won Sunday's PBA South Region Scorpion Open at Cherokee Lanes in Canton, Ga., but it was 14-year-old amateur Kamron Doyle of Brentwood, Tenn., who continued to dazzle the bowling world with another eye-opening performance.

Williams, 52, defeated Dick Allen of Columbia, S.C., 255-172, to win the final South Region animal pattern championship of the season. It was Williams' 31st standard PBA Regional title and 85th overall PBA title (47 PBA Tour, four Senior Tour and three Senior Regional titles). He advanced to the title match after eliminating Doyle in the semifinal round, 226-214.

Doyle's third-place finish was his highest ever in PBA competition, but not his first sterling performance. In 2010, also in Canton, Doyle became the youngest player in PBA history to "cash" in a regional tournament when he finished 30th in an event also won by Williams. Earlier in 2012, Doyle became the youngest player ever (also at age 14) to cash in the U.S. Open, finished 61st in a world-class field of professional and amateur bowlers in N. Brunswick, N.J.

As an amateur, Doyle is not allowed to accept money, but his earnings are deposited into his growing USBC SMART scholarship account.

For the record, the youngest bowler ever to win a PBA Regional title was Pete Weber, who won a PBA Midwest Regional tournament in St. Louis at age 17. Doyle is the youngest ever to finish as high a third place. In April, Wesley Low of Palmdale, Calif., also finished third in a PBA West Region non-champions tournament at the age of 14 years, 344 days. Low is 126 days older than Doyle.

Kamron Doyle Breaks Another Record at PBA South Region Scorpion Open: A Fan's Take

by Christopher A. Brown

NORWALK — Kamron Doyle, the 14-year-old bowler from Brentwood, Tennessee who has already set records, displayed his talent once again on August 26, 2012. As reported by Bill Vint at PBA.com, Doyle placed third at the PBA South Region Scorpion Open in Canton, Georgia.

Doyle was knocked out of the running in the semi-final round by Walter Ray Williams, Jr., who went on to win the tournament. This marked Kamron Doyle's best finish yet at a PBA tournament, and made him the youngest person to have achieved such a feat, but it was certainly not his first time making waves in the sport.

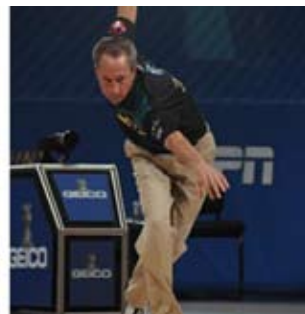

In 2010, at the age of 12, Doyle became the youngest bowler to ever cash out in a PBA tournament. He broke records again in February of 2012 at the age of 14 when he became the youngest bowler in history to win cash at the U.S. Open.

It would seem that the young Kamron Doyle is striving to topple another record, which is currently held by none other than Pete Weber. In 1982, at the age of 17, Weber became the youngest person to ever win a PBA title. At only 14, Doyle still has a little over two years to remove Weber's name from that record and become the youngest-ever PBA title holder.

I fully recognized Pete Weber's contribution to the sport of bowling. His skill can't be questioned by anyone who has watched him perform or taken even a cursory glance at his record. Neither can anyone deny that Weber has brought a great deal of awareness to the sport of bowling with his boisterous and sometimes over-the-top antics.

Kamron Doyle

However, I have never truly been a fan of Pete Weber. I respect skill, but I have always enjoyed watching competitors who carry themselves with a bit of grace and humility. Sean Rash is an example of such an athlete. He has been through some rough times during his career, suffering through a long dry spell that finally ended earlier this year, but he always maintained that air of grace and gratitude.

With all due respect to Pete Weber and his accomplishments, I for one would like to see one of his records conquered by a newcomer like Kamron Doyle. And if Doyle keeps to the path he has already blazed for himself, he just might be the one.

Christopher Brown is an amateur bowler who closely follows PBA events, but has never competed on a serious level. Above all, he appreciates the mutual respect and friendliness that is found within the bowling community. Bowling has proven to be a rewarding pastime for Chris and his two sons who share an equally strong attraction to the sport.

This tournament for deaf men age 55 and over and deaf women aged 50 and over is being held on October 9 to 11 at the Orleans Hotel Bowling Center. There is no team event and just Singles and Doubles events on Tuesday morning Oct. 9th. The entry fee is $85.00 and if you want to enter in the prestigious Senior Match Play Tournament with Qualifying round on Wednesday Oct. 10 and Match Plays on Thursday Oct. 11, it is $40.00 extra. Also the Optional All-events is $5.00 extra. Important, if you read this after the deadline of September 7 and want to bowl, try to get in touch with DSBA Secretary-Treasurer Carol Moers in Denver right way before she put her schedule in the program book. Her V-phone is 720-457-2165 and email is CJMors60@aol.com The Orleans Hotel has special rate for senior bowlers.

RESULTS OF PACIFIC COAST DEAF WOMEN BOWLING ASSOCIATION TOURNEY

(With thanks to Wesley Kay, Santa Ana who sent in the results from which this story is made.) FEDERAL WAY, WA — The 65th annual Pacific Coast Deaf Women Bowling Association tournament at Secoma Lanes in Federal Way, WA drew 8 foursome teams. This is the lowest since its early formative years. Also its prestigious 47th annual Jean Stokesbary Deaf Queens had to be cancelled because it drew only 6 women. Navy Ladies comprised of 3 from British Columbia and one from Oregon won first place with 2434 handicap score, Christel Devos, BC (200) and Toni Van Wieringen, OR (555) helped teammates Sharon Kalk, BC and Jeanne Durnion, BC in winning the $740.00 prize. Two teams, Aloha Gals and Angel West Gals were tied for 2nd place with same 2255 handicap score for the same $270.00 prizes. PCDBA Secretary-Treasurer Wendy Spanton, CA led Aloha Gals with (208) 557 and Kathy Seymour, CA led Angel West with (220) 556.

TEXAN MCCOWIN CAME LONG WAY TO WIN HER 2ND SINGLES TITLE WITH 606

The Singles event drew 30 women and Joan McCowin came a long way first place prize of $185.00. McCowin rolled steady games of 169-164-159 /492 plus 114 handicap for 606. Eight pins behind in 2nd place for the $102.00 was Toni Van Wieringen, OR with 598. Third place $83.00 went to Celia Salcedo, CA with 588 including the event’s high game 193. Last place 9th to cash was Jeanne Durnion, BC with 558.

HENDERSON/SALCEDO DUO TOOK DOUBLES TITLE WITH 1201

The Doubles event had 15 women twos and Californians Valarie Henderson (483) and Celia Salcedo (499) scored 1201 with handicap to win $370.00 first place prize. Second place $180.00 went to Patricia Morford, CA (501) and Joan McCowin, TX (449) with handicap 1178. Four pins back in Third for $110 were Washington duo of Wenokia Cusic and Teri Reppert with 1774. The low score in money to cash $50 in 5th place was 1136. Wendy Spanton had the event’s high game 208 and series 533 but placed in 8th. We regret not having the all events results. But it was amounted in the PCDBA Newsletter that Wendy Spanton, CA had the high scratch 1515 and Kathy Seymour, CA high handicap 1819.

SALCEDO WINS HER 3rd SENIOR QUEENS TITLE

The PCDWBA’s prestigious 16th annual Lucy Beare Senior Queens drew 9 senior women and regretfully there are no qualifying round results. But this is an 8 players bracket layout with defending champion Celia Salcedo, CA as top qualifier and former champion (2010) Kathy Seymour, CA as 2nd qualifier. According to the bracket layout, Salcedo matched with and beat the eventual runner-up Robin Grindstaff, WA in 2nd round, then faced and beat Seymour in 3rd round to get in the championship finals. Meanwhile in the losers bracket Grindstaff battled and won two matches then faced and beat Seymour in the semi finals to get in the title finals against Salcedo. In the title finals Grindstaff beat Salcedo 333-303 for her first loss and another match was required. Salcedo recovered and beat a tired Grindstaff 299-258. Salcedo got $194.00 for her 3rd Senior Queens title. Runner-up Grindstaff consoled with a $115.00 payday and Seymour get $72.00 for 3rd place. Next PCDWBA tournament will be in Vacaville, CA in May Memorial Day weekend.

PBA REGIONAL

ing a season-long points race.

Here's how the new Regional Players Invitational program will work:

- Within the five standard regions, PBA members who reside within the region and finish 1-15 in the seasonal competition points standings will receive an invitation and free entry into the end-of-season RPI for their home region. Players who finish 16-32 on the points list are invited, but must pay a $220 entry fee.

- The next 16 spots will go to players on the points list who have participated in a minimum of 50 percent of the region's tournaments during the year. If any spots remain open, invitations will be extended based upon players' rankings on their home region's points list.

- PBA members living outside of the United States will be eligible based upon their participation in events within any given region. The "home region" residency rule will be waived for international players. If international non-residents bowl in more than one region, they will be required to designate the RPI they wish to enter by July 15, 2013.

- Special rules will apply to the joint West-Northwest RPI. West Region points leaders 1-10 and Northwest Region points leaders 1-5 will earn the free entries. West Region leaders 11-23 and Northwest Region points leaders 6-9 will be eligible for the $220 entry positions. The balance of the field will be offered to the next 12 West Region and next four Northwest Region players who meet the 50 percent participation rule.

- The new RPI program will be open to all PBA members: touring players, senior/PBA50 members, regional members, PBA24 members and PBA International members. Players will only be eligible to participate in one RPI. RPI points qualifying will begin on Sept. 1, 2012, and end on July 15, 2013. The RPIs will be held between August and October, 2013. Dates and locations will be announced later.

- Each RPI will consist of a Friday pro-am and two six-game qualifying rounds on Saturday. The top 16 qualifiers will advance to three rounds of best-of-five-game elimination matches and two rounds of one-game eliminations on Sunday. Saturday's top four qualifiers will earn two bye rounds and qualifiers five through eight will earn one bye round.

They said it well.
“To get maximum attentoin, it’s hard to beat a good, big mistake.” ---THE GAZETTE. (Ask any bowler who ever tossed a bad ball at the wrong time.)

“Imagination is more important than knowledge.”---ALBERT EINSTEIN (Any top bowler will agree that the mental side of the game is at least 80 percent.)

“Trifles make perfection---and perfection is no trifle.”--MICHAELANGELO (That’s why pros practice the little parts of their game for hours on end.) “The true way to soft- en one’s troubles is to solace those of others.”---de MAIN- TENON (In other words, take the time to listen to another bowler’s troubles, and if you talk to enough, you’ll always find someone worse off than you are.)

“Trust in God, and keep your powder dry.”---CROM- WELL (Pray, but make sure you’re throwing a good ball first.)

“Tis strange---but true; for truth is always strange, stranger than fiction.” ---BYRON (Now start believing some of those stories other bowlers tell you, or attend a meeting of a ladies bowling league!)

“Bad laws are the worst sort of tyranny.”---BURKE (And so are bad rules, in leagues or tournaments.)

“All for one; one for all.”---DUMAS (The way bowling teams are supposed to feel.)

“Variety is the very spice of life, that gives it all its flavour.”---COWPER (Except when you run into five differ- ent splits in a game.)

“The winds and waves are always on the side of the ablest navigators.”---EDWARD GIBBON (And so it is that the first thing a bowler must learn is how to adjust and adapt to varying lane conditions.)

“What is defeat? Nothing but education, nothing but the first step to something better.”---WENDELL PHILLIPS (When you lose, there is nowhere to go but up, and that fits most bowlers because there will always be so many more losers than winners.)

“Nobody’s perfect, and I’m the perfect example.”---SUZY SUTTON (Could have swore Marshall Holman said that.)

“A vacation is what you take when you can no longer take what you’ve been taking.”---EARL WILSON (And it’s what you do when you’re in such a bad slump that you count splits and misses in your sleep when you’re sup- posed to be adding strikes and spares.)

“Practice courtesy. You never know when it might be- come popular again.”---BILL COPELAND (Do it in bowling all the time and your opponent will become flustered and confused.)

“If all the year were playing holidays, to sport would be as tedious as to work.”---SHAKESPEARE (A good argument to cut down on some of those long league schedules.)“There’s a funny thing about trouble. It starts out as fun.”---NONNEE COAN (And so do bowling troubles.)

“As there are misanthropists or haters of men, so also are there misologists, or haters of ideas.”---PLATO (You’ve met them, there are a few at every type of bowling met- ting.)

“If you can meet with triumph and disaster, and treat those two imposters just the same...then you are a man, my son.”---RUDYARD KIPLING (And, man or woman, if you can do just that, you’re a bowler’s bowler.)
