EBONITE IS BACK!

by Mama Mancini

DOWNEY — “September” to Ebonite bowlers translates into the beginning of 36 weeks of challenges. And questions. “Who will be on my team?” “Do our averages fit?” “What equipment should I use?” Plus many more.

Monday night, team after team came thru the doors, signed in and greeted ole friends. After getting their lane assignment, checking the old bag for shoes, team fees were paid and side-pots grew. Desk gal Bea has welcomed the bowlers every Monday for 27 years and was there again making sure everything went right!

As the weeks roll on, we will meet the players, report the scores and show the team standings.

For starters, Roger Wrase put up an impressive 815, a nice target for the other big guns.

Paul Varela was perfect, Ray Torres, Bobby Campagnale and Mark Zirges were one pin shy of perfect, and 279’s were posted by Eddie Van Daniker, Harry Wong and Matt Garcia. The “House Shot” used for round one, is always the most playable and produces the highest stats.

We welcome all the first timers to the league; the “old timers” will give you a run!!

As you can see first place money has gone to $20,000, and more money down the line! Mike says one more team will fill out the schedule. So if you are a single or a team, give him a call quickly!

Diana Zavjalova Wins 2013 USBC Queens

HENDERSON, Nev. - Latvia’s Diana Zavjalova became the first foreign player in more than two decades to win the United States Bowling Congress Queens presented by Storm as she defeated USBC Hall of Famer Leanne Hulsenberg of North Ogden, Utah, 190-160, at Sunset Station’s Strike Zone Bowling Center on Thursday night.

The 22-year-old right-hander was the first No. 1 seed since 2009 to secure the title, and she did so in her first USBC Queens appearance. Hall of famer Carol Gianotti of Australia was the last foreign player to claim the coveted crown, doing so in 1989, two years before Zavjalova was born.

“There are just so many feelings right now, but excitement is at the top of the list,” said Zavjalova, who earned $20,000 and the traditional Queens tiara. “This is the first time I have bowled in this event, I was the leader and I was able to beat a hall of famer. I’m living my dream. I just can’t believe it.”

Zavjalova has been successful under the television lights before, helping Webber

International to the women’s title at the 2012 USBC Intercollegiate Team Championships, but the experience is much different when you’re out there alone.

Despite being nervous, Zavjalova felt confident with her first few shots, though the 10 pin didn’t agree. After missing one in the second frame, she was able to refocus, and the pins started to cooperate.

“I was mad on the inside, but I knew I had to let it go,” said Zavjalova, who struck in the sixth, seventh and eighth frames to put the game out of reach. “I started fresh after the open, and even though I left another 10 pin, I made it and kept trying to throw good shots.”

Hulsenberg, who has made more than 100 television appearances in her career, threw 15 strikes in her first two matches but was plagued with poor carry in the finale. The 1999 Queens champion missed two single-pin spares late in the game to ultimately cost her a chance at becoming the ninth bowler in history with two Queens victories. She took home $10,000 for the runner-up finish Thursday.

In the semifinal, Hulsenberg struck eight times as she defeated Shayna Ng of Singapore, 249-172. Ng, who was never lower than second in the standings all week, left splits in the fourth and fifth frames and wasn’t able to recover.

Hulsenberg started her first game on TV since winning the 2011 Bowling’s U.S. Women’s Open at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas, with a missed 7 pin before getting comfortable. She then rattled off a string of five strikes to build a 30-pin lead over Jennifer Higgins of Westerville, Ohio, and advanced to the semifinal with a 235-184 win.

In the evening’s opening match, Higgins trailed after six frames but made a late charge with three consecutive strikes and cruised past USBC Hall of Famer and two-time Queens champion Lynda Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, 205-173.

The Queens is open to any female USBC member, and with this year’s event coming just after the World Tenpin Bowling Association World Championships, the field included 202 players representing 15 countries.

Other international Queens winners include Kazue Inahashi of Tokyo in 1984 and Katsuko Sugimoto, also from Tokyo, in 1981 and 1982.

Chris Barnes Wins PBA Southwest Regional Players Invitational Title

Veteran PBA Tour champion tops Mike Edwards to win World Series entry, RPI Finals berth

SHAWNEE, OK. – Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, rallied from a 45-pin deficit after three games, throwing the final nine strikes to defeat Mike Edwards of Tulsa, Okla., 245-203, Sunday to win the Professional Bowlers Association Southwest Region’s Regional Players Invitational title at FireLake Bowling Center.

Barnes, a 43-year-old 16-time PBA Tour title winner, earned $6,000, a paid entry into the PBA World Series of Bowling V in Las Vegas in late October and a berth in a new PBA RPI Finals which will be televised on ESPN. The regional title was Barnes’ 25th including two previous titles during the 2012-13 season.

After qualifying 10th for the single-elimination match play finals, Barnes eliminated George Brooks, Loveland, Colo., 3-0, in the Round of 16; fellow PBA Tour champion Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, 3-2, in the Round of 12; Chris Hibbitts of Fort Worth, Texas, 3-1, in the Round of 8, and Blake Starr of Oklahoma City, 223-186, in the semifinal round.

In the title match, Barnes failed to convert splits in the first and third frames while Edwards jumped into the early lead behind a string of three strikes. Barnes then switched to a ball he had used successfully a little earlier while Edwards was unable to put back-to-back strikes together during the rest of the match. One chopped spare attempt gave Barnes the margin he needed for the win.

The PBA Southwest RPI was covered live, from start to finish, on PBA’s online bowling channel, Xtra Frame. The title match can be watched on YouTube.com. “I survived,” Barnes said. “With a couple of games left against (Malott), I figured out how to play outside. I missed practice session because I was in Las Vegas watching my wife (Lynda) bowl in the USBC Queens finals. I started the tournament playing inside and I struggled.

“In my match against Wes, I got to the point where I didn’t think I could strike any more playing where I was, so I moved to the right to try to find something and I was able to throw some strikes.

“Never was eligible to bowl for the Southwest Region title before,” Barnes said, “so it’s absolutely a nice win. You have to bowl the best guys in your region, and the extra benefits of winning a World Series spot is a great benefit.”

The Southwest Region RPI was the third in a series of six PBA Regional championship events. The PBA Central, East and combined West/Northwest Regions also will host RPI events in the coming weeks, with each RPI winner advancing to the PBA RPI Finals that will be taped for delayed airing on ESPN as part of the World Series of Bowling V at South Point Casino, Hotel and Bowling Center, Oct. 26-Nov. 3. Tom Daugherty of Wesley Chapel, Fla., won the South Region title in early August, and Dave Beres of Waukesha, Wis., won the Midwest RPI title over Labor Day weekend.

Each RPI is open to 48 players who have qualified through a season-long points competition in their respective regions, and each RPI is being covered live from start to finish on PBA’s exclusive bowling channel, Xtra Frame. Visit pba.com for Xtra Frame subscription information.

The next RPI will be the PBA Central RPI at Thunderbowl Lanes, Allen Park, Mich., Sept. 13-15. The remaining RPI events include the East RPI at Maple City Bowl, Hornell, N.Y., Sept. 20-22, and the West/Northwest RPI at the National Bowling Stadium, Reno, Nev., Oct. 18-20. Championship: Chris Barnes, Double Oak, Texas ($6,000) def. Mike Edwards, Tulsa, Okla. ($3,500), 245-203.

DEH & MEDINA III WIN INAUGURAL TONY REYES MEMORIAL DOUBLES TOURNAMENT

by Bette Addington

BAKERSFIELD—Bakersfield bowler Carlie Medina III, proved why he was selected the 2012-2013 GEUSBC (Golden Empire United States Bowling Congress) Bowler of the Year when he traveled to San Jose on Labor Day weekend to compete in the inaugural Tony Reyes Memorial PBA Member/Non-Member Doubles tournament held at Fourth Street Bowl.

Medina teamed up with PBA member, Marty Deh, of San Jose. Although they struggled after the first game, Medina said they, “never lost confidence in each other” and went on to win this event which drew 58 doubles teams from around the western region.

Other Bakersfield bowlers who competed were Zack Newman, Kiel Jordan and Damon LaBlue.

For his first PBA win, Medina and Deh split $4,000. Medina would also like to say “thanks to Nick Smith and the Brunswick staff” for their support.

Medina dedicated his win to his friend, the late Tony Reyes who he had the pleasure of bowling with and was on Reyes hand-picked team for bowling annually in the USBC Open Nationals. Their 2013 team (TR2) finished in 24th place in the Open Team event in the USBC Nationals in Reno. Reyes died on September 28, 2012 and his love for the sport of bowling lives on through those he continues to inspire.

Inaugural Tony Reyes Memorial Doubles results:

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

MARK FISSER 267-972 TOPS DEAF TRAVEL OPENER STOP AT KEYSTONE

NORWALK — Southern California Deaf Traveling League in its 54th year welcomed back two top-notch returnees, Mark Fisser and Dan Flores in its league season opener with 6 teams of trios at Keystone Lanes. Fisser after being away from this traveling league for more than a decade has not lost his skill, blasting out BIG games of 258-252-267 for a super 777s three games series.

The smooth stroking left hander, a former USBC's first deaf Star of Tomorrow (1987) slowed down to a 195 in his 4th game for league leading 972 series. In his day's high game 267, Mark had 6 Strikes in row before a solid 7 pin stopped his streak.

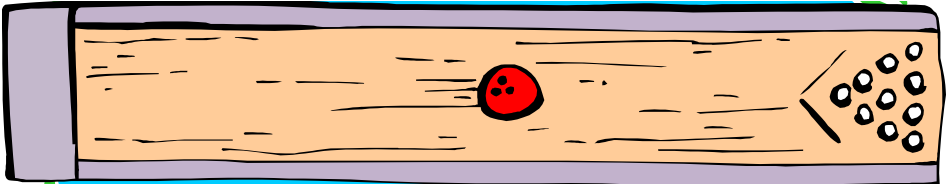

Flores, a smooth stroking right-hander of renown went the opposite way, slowing down with 158-164 before dueling with Fisser in 3rd game ending with a 258. Flores closed with a 167 for a 745 series. With Fisser's 972 leading the day's honor roll of 6 bowlers, lefthander Jeff Stansell was next with 760 from 233-212-145-170. Lefty Bob Jones who recently won a trophy in a summer tournament at his near home bowling center, had steady games of 190-195-182-191 for 758.

After Flores' 745, league president Ed Abakumoff closed with a 217 for 708 and teammate Gorman Low had 702 with a 205. Last season's average leader Leroy MacMonagle had a 698 missing the honor roll by 2 pins. The high ladies were Celia Salcedo with her series 651 and Anita Lorenzo with her 184 game. Jones' Eagle Rock team is early season leader with a near sweep 17.5 to 2.5 over MacMonagle's Orange County team. Fisser's Anaheim is in 2nd with 16-4 win over Flores' S F Valley and Abakumoff's Riverside in third with 13-7 win over Stansell's Mid City.

Fisser's Anaheim with 2155 took the day's high team series. Stansell's Mid City had the high team game of 605 from Stansell's 233 and pair of 186s from his teammates Paul Taffolla and Andy Lorenzo. This league thanks Keystone's management for hosting and will travel to Mission Hills Bowl on Sept. 22 with bowling at 1 PM.

EDWIN MILLER 257-902 LEADS RIVERSIDE SILENT LEAGUE

RIVERSIDE — With thanks to Edwin Miller who submitted this news. Riverside Silent League now have 12 teams. Edwin Miller bowled very well with 209-213-223-257 for 902 scratch to lead the league's opening day. Miller is looking forward to his third straight team title. He also won the league's sweeper's singles and doubles. Miller mentioned that his son, Enrico made a big improvement in his youth league, finishing with a 133 average.

NORWALK — You’re going home from your bowling league, or your softball game, or maybe a hot date when all of a sudden BAM you’re struck head-on by a drunk driver going the wrong way on the freeway! Your passenger is killed instantly and you are left fighting for your life.

This happened to the daughter of a dear friend of mine. She was taking her best friend to work via the 710 Freeway at 10:00 PM on a nice November evening when a drunk driver hit her head-on. She has been having surgery after surgery to repair her shattered leg and ankle. She needs one more surgery to finish this process and enable her to walk again. The problem is her insurance has run out and of course the drunk driver has none. So we, her friends, have been doing fundraisers to help her cover the $15,000 needed to do this last surgery. My idea was a No Tap bowling tournament. This will take place Saturday, September 28th at noon. Check-in will be 11:30 AM. The tournament will be held at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk Calif. The cost is $20.00 with optional side pots, 50/50 pots and mystery pots available. And,there will be many door prizes! Please come out to this fundraiser and help my friend walk again. If you preregister you will receive 20 extra door prize tickets!

LAURA LEE DANIEL Leads Citrus Belt Women at USBC Queens

by Frank Weiler
HENDERSON — Laura Lee Daniel traveled from Corona to Henderson last week to compete against the best women in the world. Her goal - win this years USBC Queens tiara.

Laura Lee finished the first day of qualifying in seventy-first place with a 201 average for five games. Day two saw Daniel average a whopping 228 with games of 268 and 266. After two days her overall average was 211, good for nineteenth place.

Remember, this scoring was registered on the difficult Queens oil pattern with balls (Roto Grip Defiant and DV8 Diva) drilled for her home oil patterns.

Also, Daniel did not have the aid of a manufacturers rep coaching her or the luxury of specially drilled balls gratis a la Brunswick, Columbia, Storm etc.

On Day three Laura Lee fired a 267 game on her way to a 203 average for the block and a three day composite of 211. After three days of qualifying (15 games) Daniel stood tall in thirty-second place. The field was cut to the top 64 for match play. Two hundred and one women left the starting gate on Sunday and as the sun set on Tuesday there were three score and four ladies left.

Match play saw Laura Lee face four experienced professionals: Aumi Guerra (Dominican Republic), Jordeen Koizumi (Arizona), Bernice Lim (Singapore), and Sandra Anderson (Sweden), winning two matches. The tournament was a double elimination affair with Daniel’s 2 - 2 record resulting in her tying for 24th place and earning a check for $900.

Daniel’s best match was her 106 pin win over Koizumi when she bowled 628. Each match was decided by total pins for three games.

Two other Citrus Belt ladies, KATHY ALLEN (Moreno Valley) and PAULA VIDAD (Sun City), entered the tournament and held their own against the likes of Linda Barnes, Carolyn Dorin-Ballard, Leanne Hulsenberg, Liz Johnson, Tish Johnson, Kelly Kulick, Stephanie Nation, Shannon O’Keefe, Missy Parkin, and Robin Romeo to name a few.

Former Citrus Belt stroker JACQUELIN FARRIS also did well. Jackie is the daughter of Citrus Belt association manager ELISE HAMNER and now lives in northern California. Thank you BOWLING NEWS for supporting our Citrus Belt ladies.

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

John La Spina’s heart always will remain in Brooklyn, though the physical structure that molded his life, his beloved Maple Lanes, will be gone.

It was a wonderful day back in 1960 when an enthusiastic 11-year-old La Spina was honored at the grand opening of the center as the person to roll the first ball, a ball he helped keep rolling for more than 50 years.

La Spina grew in body and knowledge from those pre-teen days because he loved and still loves the game, his perfect game, from every angle. He wasn’t just a young man who loved to bowl, he was a youngster who was involved in the every day chores that must be done, checking house balls to insure they were properly distributed, help clean up, pitching in if the snack bar was busy, noting the desk operation, and listening and watching and learning from his dad, Peter, and the devoted employees.

Peter, his father, was a builder of buildings and the father and builder of Maple when some of the greatest names in the sport and other interested parties, convinced him that bowling might be a way to go. Among his mentors were Carter Burgess, who led AMF to major success and later became a praised U.S. Ambassador.

“My father always was a businessman first, evaluating the plus and minus factors of his building and other projects,” said the younger La Spina. “After his death our family all tried to follow his standards. Maple Lanes is one of the few open spaces in mid Brooklyn. When it changes hands, a needed, huge condo complex will tower over the area.”

The decision has been one of the most difficult in the life of La Spina, who has made many. Maple Lanes is still in business and La Spina also controls Farmingdale Lanes, Coram Country Lanes, JIB Lanes and RVC Lanes, all in New York.

Through the years he has owned, operated and bought and sold numerous bowling centers.

La Spina has been a national bowling figure for some four decades, always bringing a fresh look and a forever optimism to all his positions. He has been close in every part of bowling from the kids to the pros and a willing and able member and top officer of many bowling organizations, including the presidency of local, state and national bowling proprietor organizations, a stalwart in representing bowling in civic and charitable endeavors, and working with other sports.

“My deep interest, in addition to the bowling business, has been in the real estate aspect of bowling ventures,” said La Spina.

But he has never been far from the whole world of life, always bringing employees or bowling associates to major events such as Bowl Expo or finance a trip for a high school bowler to attend a top pro competition.

He has helped obtain and been the personal guide of guest speakers at Bowl Expo and that list included past presidents, high ranking politicians, business personalities, show business greats and even astronauts.

“I have never failed to realize that so many decisions I have made in regard to bowling centers involves individuals who have spent their entire working lives with our centers, and that means their families also have an attachment. And in places such as Maple, many customers consider their bowling center their home away from home. I offer them my solace, thanks and appreciation for life’s fond memories,” said La Spina.

Bowling has deeply involved John, his father, brother, son and all their families. Maple Lanes will go as a traditional landmark in Brooklyn, much as baseball’s revered Ebbets Field.

In the final analysis, La Spina felt that the business part of the decision, and the future of his family and many employees, would benefit in the long run.

La Spina has been one of the most astute figures in bowling for a long time and if there ever was a position such as commissioner of all bowling, he would fill the bill.

One thing for sure, whenever Maple Lanes is mentioned, his heart will beat a bit faster.

Match Series est $4,200 • Match Game est $1,500 • 3-6-9 is $2,900

LAKEWOOD — We concluded our scorching Labor Day Weekend Special Event graciously hosted by Cal Bowl in Lakewood. A total of 489 entrants tried the challenging lane conditions and 92 bowlers advanced to the semifinals for a chance to bag the $12,500 top prize (max possible with Bonuses). Cut scores for the men were +76 on Thursday, +81 on Friday, +92 on Saturday, +74 on Sunday for the regular qualifying squads and +66 for the re-entry squad. For the women was +65 on Thursday, +88 on Friday, +46 on Saturday, and +81 on Sunday on the regular qualifying squad and +31 for the re-entry squad. Super Seniors added were Vic Paolucci, Bert Dancel and Mike Bousquet for the men, and Anita Smith and Elvira Gauci for the women. This made 92 Bowlers to cash in the Semi Finals

High qualifiers for the weekend were Kelly Wynn with a +193 for the men and Marife Catalasan with a +134 for the women. They each get a paid entry to a Regular ABTA event. Top qualifier gets the privilege of drawing for the Match Series and Kelly drew the unmatched 377 series. Our Match Series fund of $2,910 carries over to our next event at Action Lanes Saturday September 14.

Top in our OPTIONAL DOUBLES were Matt Garcia and Chris Kelly with their 1449 for $130. Don Quitangon and Jeff Taino took second with their 1444 for $110, and the husband/wife team up of Tres and Marife Catalasan took third with their 1438 for $100. Total doubles payout was $1,550 for 27 spots with a low to cash score of 1340.

From the 92 semi finals qualifiers, Matt Garcia led with his +173 followed by Jhickie De Luna with his +147. Jhickie will sit out the first round of the Single Elim Finals and Matt will sit out for the title match. It took men +57 and Ladies +20 to make the Tp top 32 Single elims Top seed Matt got the honor of drawing our Match Game and he drew 163. The five lucky bowlers who split the accumulated fund of $2,910 were Ricardo Baca, Ben Bagaoisan, Danny Eguilos, Scott Johnson and Julie Nguyen. They got $582 each

In our top 32 Match Play Finals, eliminated after the first round and getting $215 each were Anita Smith, Kristine Soliman, Mark Fisser, Orpah Toliver, Darrow Tiongeo, Mike Bousquet, Marvin Galsim, Edgardo Talavera, Mamerto Jablan, Ronnie Cordero, Julian Conwi, Mikko

Miller, Roland Suase, Greg Kokanour and Reny Alkonga. After the second round, we lost Deborah Sanders, Bobbie McCollum, Leo Silva, Christopher Eguilos, Mike Moore, Tom Mazulla, Bryan Moore and Louis Evans. They each take home $250. Four more bowlers lost contention for the title match after the third round. Going home with $350 each were Elvira Gauci, Angela Lung, Carlos Castillo and Jhickie De Luna. This brings us to our HORSE pick finalists. Favorite Som Seng will payout $138, Dom La Guardia at $150, David Godinez at $184 and Vic Paolucci at $237. Vic advanced against Som and Dom downed David. David Godinez and Som Seng placed 4th and 5th respectively, taking home $725 each. Vying for the Title Match spot, exhausted Dom and Vic played their best but in the end, Vic finished stronger. Dom La Guardia placed 3rd for $1,250. Vic is the Horse winner paying $237 to those who had faith to pick him

The stage is set for the Title Match as contender Vic Paolucci and Top Seed Matt Garcia shake each other's hand for well wishes. Matt is on fire as he throws one solid strike after another while Vic couldn't follow after his strike on the first frame. The game ended with Matt throwing the front 8, finishing with a huge 279 scratch game and Vic with his 165. Vic finishes 2nd for $2,500 and Matt gets an additional $5,175 for Cash & Carry and $200 for wearing his ABTA shirt on top of the guaranteed $5,000 top prize for a total of $10,375!

Three time Champ Matt Garcia hails from Long Beach and claims to be single and available. He used his Ultimate Inferno drilled by ABTA member Mikey Villareal to cinch his win. He thanks his family - mom Marie, dad Ron, brother Darren and nephew Christopher (from sister Amber) for the cheers and support. He also would like to extend special thanks to dear friends Matt Fukuda and Rachel Macias.

Runner up Vic Paolucci is from Orange and he used his Roto Grip Micro Bite drilled by Ramon Torres from Vegas. He gives credits to wife Amelia and his children - Sylvana, Albert, and twins Jessica and Walter. He gives special thanks to friend Howard Smith and to all ABTA bowlers who showed support.

Third place, Dom La Guardia is from El Monte and used his IQ Tour Edition drilled by David Haynes from Vegas. He is deeply grateful to wife Zeny's all-out support and to his kids - Jayzel, Jaye Anne and Justin.

David Godinez, fourth is from Redondo Beach and he used his Global 900 Hook and Jigsaw Corner throughout the weekend. He thanks Frank Bellinder his equipment work and gives a special shout out to friend Steve Brode for the support and encouragement.

Fifth is Som Seng from Bellflower and he used his Storm Anarchy drilled by another ABTA bowler, Charles Weeks at Cal Bowl. His strength and inspiration is his family - wife Kunthea, kids Kunika, Kristina, Kala and Som Jr. PLUS another baby due in December! He thanks his friend Sal for making it possible for him to bowl this weekend's tournament.

Additional prizes and giveaways: Joe Baghdadlian won the sponsor ball from Global 900 this weekend. Eugene Haynes won the paid entry for the upcoming Thanksgiving Special Event to be held at CAL Bowl and top Prize is a nice $10,000, Steve Brode got the paid entry for the January Vegas Event, Regular Entry winners were Roland Suase, Jeffrey Sargent and our newest Female Super Senior, the beautiful Beth Borci. ABTA shirt winners were Jeff Lindenmuth and Steve Brode, and Andy Yu won the raffle 900 bowling ball. Total paid out for this weekend = $42,600.

ABTA would like to thank all our dedicated bowlers for the loyalty and support. Thank you for being a part of our weekend family at the Tournaments. We'll see all of you at ACTION LANES in El Monte this Saturday, September 14th. Please see our ad in the California Bowling News page #5 or check out our website (www.abta1.com) for our schedule and directions. Action is located at 10534 Lower Azusa Rd El Monte 626-350-8831 and easily addressed from the 10,or 210 or 605 freeway. Hope to see you there and the following week we are hosted by Popular West Covina Lanes and Sept 28 we make a visit to Foothill Lanes.

Thanks again ABTA Members You are the Best!! Thanks to Cal and staff for being great hosts we return there for the Thanksgiving Special Nov27-30 Saturday Night Finals. Until then!!

Where Have All The Delegates Gone...

by Marianne Evans

ONTARIO — I was sitting in the hotel bar chatting with old friends and making new ones at the Double Tree Hotel in Ontario at the California USBC Convention weekend. There was much discussion about the low delegate count this year and why it continues to diminish. By the way, this year there were 117 delegates registered to vote, including the Youth! As we surmised why their are fewer delegates than ever, a couple of folks stated that their Association does not send their full compliment of delegates. They told me that although they are entitled to send the maximum number of delegates, 6, their respective Boards vote to send only 3. Looking perplexed, I asked why they would do this? Is it because of a lack of interest by their Board members, or was there some other reason? I suggested that if there is a lack of interest by their Board Members then perhaps they should look to any certified league member as a potential delegate. This would broaden their field of potential participants. However, if there are other Board Members who have an interest in serving as delegates, they should be given the opportunity. Apparently, this is not the case at all. They do have Board Members who want to go but deny them the privilege of attending. They said because they give their delegates a stipend to defray the costs of attending convention, their Board does not want to spend a lot of money to send 6 delegates. After my mouth dropped open with disbelief, I asked why their Board would deliberately take away votes from their membership? Perhaps their Board should vote for a designated amount of money to give their full compliment of delegates and then spread the money amongst those who wish to attend convention. How about conducting a bake sale or some other type of fundraiser to earn money for their delegates? This was the first time I ever heard that a local Board of Directors voluntarily reduced their number of delegates to fit a budget. I did not realize a Board of Directors has this power.

As a local Association President, I feel a responsibility to our members and that our Board owes them the best representation possible. Come on folks, please take a step back and reconsider what you are doing. Don't be so quick to reduce your right to vote at our State Convention.

Our Association stopped paying our delegates years ago due to budget cuts, just like everyone else, yet we are able to find committed individuals who want to serve our members and we send our full compliment of delegates.

There are plenty of changes coming from USBC that will affect our bowlers and what is left of our local Associations. I beg of you, please do not forfeit your right to have a say. I encourage you to actively participate in your State Convention.

Virginia "Ginny" Snodgrass, Former OCWBA Board Member, Passes On

by B.A. Campbell

TUSTIN--Former Orange County WBA board member and National Convention delegate Virginia "Ginny" Snodgrass passed away Wednesday, September 4th, at the age of 94. She had retired from her last "paying" position as a Party Coordinator for Tustin Lanes a few years ago, but still volunteered at the City of Tustin Senior Center and made aprons for the center to sell (over 500!) for the center's fundraising.

Known by many in the bowling community for her infectious humor, snort-laugh and upbeat attitude, she was truly one of Orange County's bowling ambassadors. She gave many (including this writer) support, hugs, and cheers during their bowling endeavors. Others can attest to her many years in the bowling community better than I, but I can admit for myself, that she had a sympathetic ear in my life, and a fun bowling teammate! She was the only other person that understood the saying, "Life is short, eat dessert first," and she and I did just that, at breakfast in Reno at the Nationals in 2006. Ginny had wanted no memorial services performed, but every time I look at the clock we won for first place in a summer league together, I will smile and think of her. Hugs back to you, Ginny.

Paul Nilsen Rolls Three 800s In Last Month

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA - Paul Nilsen continues scoring at Cal Oaks. During the last month he has rolled a 825 (246 - 300 - 279), 800 (256 - 266 - 278), and 800 (242 - 279 - 279).

His first and third big sets were bowled on Monday nights (600 Scratch Trio League) and the other on a Friday (TGIF League). For me nothing is surprising about what Paul does on the lanes. His high revolution game has him averaging 239 with the potential for an even higher average. Congratulations Paul and thank you BOWLING NEWS for recognizing the exploits of Citrus Belt bowlers.

Good luck to all in this new season. Have lots of fun, bowl well, and keep those high scores coming. See ya.

Six-time Professional
Bowlers Association
Tour Champion Les
Schissler Dies at 83

SEATTLE — Six-time Professional Bowlers Association Tour champion Les Schissler of Brighton, Colo., died Saturday at the age of 83.

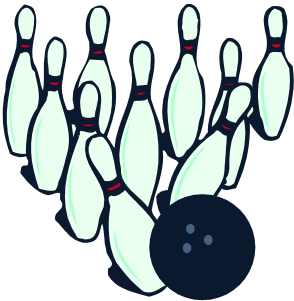

Schissler won the 1967 All-Star Tournament (now the U.S. Open) for his only major title. He experienced a resurgence in his pro career in 1983 when he finished fourth in the United States Bowling Congress (then American Bowling Congress) Masters at the age of 53. Les was a good, steady, solid bowler,” said Hall of Famer Carmen Salvino. “If the (lane) condition ever called for bowling from the corner of the lane, he was unbeatable. He had one of the classic styles in the sport and was very accurate.”

Schissler, a member of the USBC Hall of Fame, was also a three-time USBC Open Championships titlist, winning Classic singles, all-events and team titles in 1966. In 1967 he bowled a 300 game in the USBC Classic team event, the first 300 game ever rolled in team competition of the prestigious tournament.

“He was pretty quiet and even-tempered and that was probably one of the keys to his success,” said PBA historian Chuck Pezzano. “He was consistent and always kept the ball in play. Sometimes you didn’t even know he was there until he did something great on the lanes.” Schissler won the first of his five standard PBA Tour titles in the Indianapolis 500 Open in Indianapolis in July 1963.

He also competed on the PBA50 (formerly Senior) Tour where he had best finishes of third in 1987 and fifth-place finishes in 1985 and 1990.

Information regarding services is pending.

Badger, Wolf, Bear "Animal Patterns"

MILWAUKEE – The Professional Bowlers Association has unveiled three distinct new lane conditioning patterns.

The new lane conditioning patterns, named the Badger, Wolf and Bear, are a continuation of the animal pattern theme the PBA introduced in 2005 to not only test the versatility of the players and demonstrate the variety of scoring challenges PBA players face, but to give PBA members, grassroots league bowlers and fans an easier way to identify specific types of conditions.

The Badger will be the longest animal pattern ever (52 feet). Conversely, the Wolf will be the shortest animal pattern ever (32 feet). The Bear will be a flat pattern of medium length (40 feet), similar to what has been used at the U.S. Open in recent years and characterized as the most difficult test in professional bowling.

The way lane oil is applied (in shape and volume) to the 60-foot playing surface of a lane is a strong factor in the scoring pace of a professional bowling tournament, testing the skills necessary for success and the strategic approach the players must take.

"We listened to players and fans looking for more diversity in our lane maintenance program and have developed patterns that will give everyone fresh looks," said PBA Commissioner Tom Clark. "These new animal patterns have dramatically different, uniquely challenging characteristics."

The original animal pattern system, featuring the Chameleon, Cheetah, Scorpion, Shark and Viper patterns, eventually became the foundation for the PBA Experience League program which allows grassroots United States Bowling Congress league bowlers across America a chance to bowl on the same lane conditions PBA players compete on in national and regional tournaments. The original animal patterns will be used again at this fall's PBA World Series of Bowling V in Las Vegas.

All eight animal patterns, in addition to PBA major tournament patterns, will be used and available for future PBA national, PBA50 and PBA regional tournaments plus PBA Experience league play. All of the new patterns are USBC Sport Bowling-compliant, which generally means flatter ratios of oil across the lane and demanding more precision by players than on more typical "house" conditions found in bowling.

"The best players in the world will develop fresh strategies to attack the lanes and fans will be entertained by the results," Clark said.

A complete description of the new animal patterns, along with graphs illustrating how oil is applied for each pattern for PBA members, will be available on pba.com under the "resources" tab. Along with the new patterns, the PBA has created a new series of animal pattern logos which will be used in conjunction with each pattern.
