Seventh Time's A Charm For Sargent

by Bette Addington

Temecula's Marv Sargent finally broke the spell by capturing the title in Bakersfield at the PBA West Region "Nicks dvds.net" Open the weekend of Sept. 9-11, 2005. He placed second in his last six PBA events. Sargent defeated Michael Haugen, Jr. (Henderson, NV) in the final match 237-223 to collect $2,500 for his win. The prize fund for the event was $44,400.

118 bowlers participated in this Regional which started with shot-gun single frame elimination early Friday afternoon for the early arrivals. Brian Cooper (Visalia) won this winning $80. Murray Hickman (Las Vegas) came in second and pocketed $40 plus he received a new Hammer bowling ball. An interesting note, this event drew a total of seven women bowlers which is the largest turnout of women for this event to date.

A Pro-Am event followed on Friday afternoon. Many local junior bowlers participated in this Pro-Am and were thrilled to get pointers from the pros as well as have their pictures taken with their favorites. Michael Haugen, Jr. was a big hit with the juniors. Things were on a much more serious note come Sunday when the top 16 began their elimination rounds. Tony Reyes (San Bruno) was seeded #1. Reyes was defeated by Dennis Horan, Jr. (Temecula) in the second round.

The final four were #4 Sargent against #8 Horan, Jr. Sargent defeated Horan 228-172. The other half put #3 Haugen, Jr. against #15 Jason Milligan (Yorba Linda). This was an exciting match to watch as both Haugen, Jr. and Milligan had strikes for the first six frames. Haugen, Jr. went on to defeat Milligan 251-224.

The final match was Sargent (who is currently 2nd place in the points standing) against Haugen, Jr. (who is exempt on the PBA tour which starts back in October). It was a close match and Sargent emerged as the tournament champion defeating Haugen, Jr. 237-223.

California WBA Past President Mary Hinman Dead At 86

VISTA — One of the most popular ladies to hold the position of President of the California Women's Bowling Ass'n, passed away last week in her sleep.

Mary rose through the ranks of the CWBA in the 1970's and 80's. She ran a tight ship; supervising her directors, her committees, while promoting women's bowling.

Mary was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Her quick wit and ability to adapt (especially during the talent shows) endeared her to the delegates attending yearly conventions.

Mary was cremated and buried with her beloved husband Charlie. Cards may be sent to her daughter Judi Orr, 718 Sycamore Avenue, Vista, CA 92803.

PBA Mourns Loss of Chris Schenkel

SEATTLE—Chris Schenkel, long time PBA play-by-play announcer, died early Sunday at Lutheran Hospital in Fort Wayne, Ind. He was 82.

Schenkel's wife, Fran, and the couple's two sons were at her husband's side when he passed away at Lutheran Hospital, where he had been hospitalized for two weeks after undergoing surgery for a bleeding ulcer.

Schenkel was the PBA's play-by-play announcer for 36 years on the popular "Pro Bowlers Tour" on ABC. He was elected to the PBA Hall of Fame in 1976 under the Meritorious Service category, going in as a member of the PBA's second class of Hall of Famers. The PBA renamed its Player of the Year award the Chris Schenkel Player of the Year award beginning in 1999.

Schenkel's radio and television broadcasting career spanned more than 60 years and included virtually every major sports competition.

Known for his honey-smooth baritone voice, he was the first to cover the Masters Tournament on television, in 1956; the first to call a college football game coast to coast on ABC; and the first to serve as live sports anchor from the Olympics, in Mexico City in 1968.

Other highlights include calling gymnast Nadia Comaneci's perfect 10 at the 1976 Olympics in Montreal, and calling the 1958 NFL Championship game between the Baltimore Colts and New York Giants, considered by many the greatest football game ever played.

Schenkel also had a long association with the Indianapolis 500, including a scary moment. Schenkel, astronaut John Glenn and Tony Hulman, the late owner of Indianapolis Motor Speedway, were passengers in the Dodge Challenger pace car at the 1971 race when it skidded into a bleacher section full of photographers. Twenty-two people were injured, including Schenkel.

Schenkel was born Aug. 21, 1923, on a farm in Wabash County, one of six children. His parents, second generation German immigrants, managed a grain and feed business.

He attended Bippus High School in Huntington County

Chris Schenkel

and later Purdue University.

He fought in World War II in the Philippines, then Korea, as an infantry platoon leader. He came home to find a radio job in Richmond, Ind., then moved into television in Providence, R.I.

In 1947, he assumed television play-by-play duties for Harvard University football. Five years later, he began a 13-year run as the TV voice of the New York Giants.

His many honors include honorary doctorate degrees from Purdue, Ball State and Rose-Hulman Institute. He has been inducted into 16 halls of fame, including the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters and College and Pro Football halls, and he won an Emmy Award for Lifetime Achievement in 1993.

Recently 50 letters were sent to President Bush nominating Schenkel for the Presidential Medal of Freedom. Among those sending letters were Indiana senator Richard Lugar, former Indiana senator Birch Bayh, New York Yankees owner George Steinbrenner, Kansas City Chiefs owner Lamar Hunt, former Indiana University basketball coach Bob Knight and golfing legend Byron Nelson.

Last summer longtime broadcasting partner Jim McKay said, "Chris is one of the friendliest, nicest people you would meet anywhere. He likes people. He loves people. He's very forgiving about people even if anything happens in a bad way."

Schenkel is survived by his wife, Fran, sons Ted and John, daughter Tina, and several grandchildren.

PBA Reacts to Passing of Chris Schenkel

PBA President and CEO Fred Schreyer
“The entire PBA family is deeply saddened by the passing of Chris Schenkel. He was an accomplished professional and was the face of the PBA Tour on ABC for so many years. He was a wonderful ambassador for the sport of bowling, but more importantly, he was a genuinely good person who treated everyone with kindness and decency. He will be missed.”

Carmen Salvino
“Chris came to the PBA as one of the premier announcers and he gave the PBA a lot of credibility at that time. He had a golden voice. Not only was he a great announcer, but I have had dinner with him several times and he was a good human being. He never flaunted his position.

“He’s right at the top as far as PBA legends go because he gave us credibility. We were a new sport on TV and when he came in he brought in a big following. Once people saw the show they loved it, but he brought a lot of people in to begin with. He has to be right at the top as a contributor to our sport.

“I know he loved the PBA. Of all the sports he covered, he always found time to go out with us guys. It always amazed me because he was a big name in sports, but he always wanted to hang out with the bowlers. If he came to Chicago he’d call me. We’d have dinner or go downtown and see a show. He loved hanging around the PBA guys. He was one of us and was like a brother to us. He wasn’t just an announcer.”

“It’s been a tough year. First Dick (Weber) dies, my good friend and then I lost a younger brother to cancer two months after that. It hits home and makes you start thinking differently. Before Dick passed, I never even thought of death. I thought we’d go on forever. Then my brother dies and I realize that nobody’s infallible. When you’re an athlete for some reason you think you’re indestructible. At some point you realize you’re just like every other human being.”

Walter Ray Williams Jr.
“He was definitely a big name in sports and broadcasting. He had such a great voice and was a very personable guy. He was so easy to like and just a very nice gentleman. I really enjoyed meeting him and getting to know him. I wish his wife and family the best.

“It was kind of tough at the end of the last ABC broadcast. Chris and Bo (Burton) were in tears when they were saying goodbye. It was a pretty emotional moment.

“(Chris) was the broadcaster when bowling was at its biggest, in the ‘60s ‘70s and ‘80s, especially in the ‘70s. It was Burton and Schenkel. He was definitely a big part of bowling on TV. I think he added a lot of credibility to it and seemed to enjoy doing the telecast. We had one or two broadcasters over the years who didn’t seem to care but Chris really seemed to enjoy the competition and the players.”

WHAT THEY’RE SAYING ABOUT CHRIS SCHENKEL
From the St. Louis Dispatch:

“His finale for ABC came from suburban St. Louis on June 21, 1987, when he had an emotional send-off while broadcasting the St. Clair Classic bowling tourney in Fairview Heights. Fans gave Schenkel two raucous standing ovations at St. Clair Bowl and he broke down several times.

‘This maybe is the all-time thrill of my career,’ Schenkel said after the telecast. ‘The crowd was just tremendous. It meant everything to me. I’ll always treasure the memory.’

He’ll probably be best remembered as the voice of the PBA Tour for its entire 36-year run on ABC.

‘Bowling has been the constant friend,’ he said in summarizing his career.”

From ESPN.com
“‘He was a very, very sincere, loving man who loved what he did,’ said wife Fran Schenkel, noting that they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in January.

George Bodenheimer, the president of ESPN, Inc. and ABC Sports, called Schenkel a pioneering sportscaster and a ‘true gentleman.’

‘Everyone at ABC and ESPN mourns the loss of a great friend and colleague. Chris was a pioneer in sports television and was the pre-eminent play-by-play announcer to a generation of sports fans,’ Bodenheimer said in a statement. ‘More importantly, he was a true gentleman, beloved by all. He treated everyone with respect and friendship.’”

From the Indianapolis Star
“The amazing thing about Chris was, even though he knew all the kings and queens of sport, just as important to him, even more, were the people from his Indiana roots,” said John Short, assistant vice chancellor at Indiana University-Purdue University Indianapolis, who got to know Schenkel well over the past decade as they helped a mutual friend fight amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, also known as Lou Gehrig’s disease. “It was so overwhelming to see the measure of his character.”

“He was such a wisp of a guy. He was skinny but what a great voice he had,” Al Wester, a legendary radio announcer and friend and contemporary of Schenkel’s, said. “He was one of the beautiful guys. I don’t ever remember anyone saying anything bad about Chris.

“I remember Chris for the many kind things he said about people. He would defend people at the drop of a hat: ‘Now wait a minute. You don’t know if he was up all night with a sick kid or his wife had problems.’ He used to say he would never be critical of an athlete because you didn’t know the extenuating circumstances.”

Last summer, Jim McKay, who worked with Schenkel for many years at ABC, said of his partner: “Chris is one of the friendliest, nicest people you would meet anywhere. He likes people. He loves people. He’s very forgiving about people even if anything happens in a bad way.”

Ben Smith, Fort Wayne Journal-Gazette
“Just now I’m thinking of the voice, and what a soundtrack it was to a whole era. I’m thinking of the voice, how it bridged what we were with what we have become...”

For now, suffice it to say that Chris Schenkel’s life was as rich and full as his famous voice, and that institutional memory took a major hit when he drew his last breath out at Lutheran Hospital early Sunday morning.”

Weber Looks Ahead

SEATTLE—The 2004-05 PBA Tour season was a tough one for Pete Weber, one of the Tour’s most colorful champions who always garners national media attention.

He was hurting in so many ways and no amount of rest or therapy was going to make things right.

On Feb. 14, he lost his father — the legendary Dick Weber — and four days later Pete injured his shoulder while “playing around with my step-son.”

The net result was one of his worst seasons — mentally, physically and spiritually — since earning only $25 in his lone tour start in 1979.

Pete Weber, who includes seven majors among his 31 Tour titles, failed to make a television appearance last season for the first time since 1995.

“My physical condition was not good because of my shoulder injury and I probably shouldn’t have bowled in Indianapolis or Grand Rapids,” Pete recalled. “That delayed my healing time, worsened my condition...I learned healing takes a little longer these days.

Emotionally I was devastated because Dad’s death was totally unexpected.”

Little wonder Pete managed to earn just $43,350 while bowling in only 15 of 20 Tour events last season. That’s a far cry from the $2.8 million he has earned, second only to Walter Ray Williams Jr. in career earnings.

Now at age 43, Pete Weber sounds like a hungry bowler once again, one willing to pay the price to regain greatness.

He has started practicing and even entered an event on the European Tour.

“I have bowled four regionals, getting two no-checks, one cash and one top eight finish,” Pete said. “I haven’t completely healed. I’m only about 90 percent but Chris Schlemer, my Storm ball rep on Tour, said everything looks the same after a few work-out sessions this summer.”

Pete was happy to report that he had recently renewed his contract to use Storm bowling balls on Tour once again. “I feel very confident using Storm equipment because I feel it’s the best out there. I enjoy my association with (owner) Bill Chrisman and the entire Storm family.”

Pete does not sound worried about how he starts the 2005-06 Tour in Tulsa Oct. 26, just how he finishes it in March.

“I am still doing some therapy on my shoulder and will practice more before the start of the season. I seem to start every season slowly because I’m trying to get the feel for Tour life, traveling again.”

Life on Tour is made easier because wife Tracy, another outstanding bowler, is there to watch his game.

Pete, who never seems to lack confidence, says he feels no pressure trying to bounce back after an off season.

“I don’t feel pressure to prove to anyone that I’m back. The only pressure I feel is what I put on myself every week to perform well. Besides, I’m already exempt for next year and that will loosen up the arm swing one more season.”

He has not changed his goals. “They’re the same. I want to win the Masters and be voted Player of the Year...two things I have not yet accomplished.”

Asked if he would join the PBA Senior Tour when he turns 50 in 2012, Pete said: “Of course I will because I have to win seven senior titles to stay ahead of my Dad’s six.”

Pete is already five wins ahead of Dick’s 26 PBA Tour titles.

“My heart is into the Tour this season because I know Dad will be there with me.”

The 2005-06 PBA Tour season begins Oct. 26-30 with the 2005 PBA Tulsa Championship. The arena finals take place Sunday, Oct. 30 at the Donald W. Reynolds Center on the campus of the University of Tulsa.

STRIKE

A STRIKE is made when the full setup of 10 pins is knocked down with the first delivery in a frame. It is marked by an “X” in the small square in the upper right hand corner of the frame where it was made. The count for one strike is 10 plus the number of pin knocked down on the player’s next two deliveries.

Bowling Proprietors Of America Announces New Coaching Program

TEXAS — A new program called Coach It Up has been introduced by BPAA. The program shows bowling center employees how to “coach” open play bowlers on basic techniques to help them enjoy the experience more.

While the program takes customer service to a new level, it also addresses one of the key reasons customers don't come back a second time: inability to keep the ball on the lane.

Coach It Up information is contained on two CDs which are available free of charge to BPAA members. To order, call 800-343-1329, ext. 259.

LEGENDS OF BOWLING

ALHAMBRA, CA — A legend of his own in the Southern California area — Mr. Kenny Bayer of San Gabriel, CA for some 30 years. Not only was Kenny a top Hall of Fame bowler in So. California, but one of the warmest and kindest person you would want to meet.

Kenny Bayer and I became friends 30 years ago. We met at Garey Center Bowl in Pomona, CA, bowling in the pot games that no longer exist.

Later on when I took over Bahama Lanes in Pasadena, Kenny was the head mechanic for Santa Anita Lanes in Arcadia, CA. Mr. Bayer was a member of the San Gabriel Valley Men's Bowling Association for a long time.

Now Kenny joins his fellow teammates and officers of the association, mainly Eddie Hartnett, Pete Porter, Wendel Douglas of the association that have passed on. Another loss was Roy Pinchback, one more teammate.

I had the pleasure of bowling three years in the Friday night San Gabriel Classic League on the Pelligrino's Restaurant team while captained by Dave Lee.

Kenny also liked to play golf and cards, the race track at Santa Anita, also pitch softball and his poker night at home on Tuesday nights while his wonderful wife Bobbie was the hostess.

We made many trips to the state tournaments and also Kenny did win on one of the PPCA tournaments at Bowling Square Lanes in Arcadia. Kenny was the winner of the first High Roller tournament in Las Vegas.

I had the good fortune of living with the Bayers for five years. They helped me during my sobering up days.

My friend Mr. Bayer has left a very fine lady in Bobbi, some very nice children and grandchildren to follow in his footsteps. Kenny is now with his son and his friends in Heaven. God Bless Him.

Seglar Tops 609 Entrants in ABTA Labor Event Special

Gray & Catamisan Fire “300” Games Record Payoffs Include a $3,500 Match game, and a $2,040 Match Series Pot

WEST COVINA—Michael Seglar of Santa Ana won the Big ABTA Labor Special Event from the top seeded position downing a feisty upstart Josie Matsumoto of Yorba Linda in the title game. Josie bowled super, eliminating five straight, gave it her all in the title game. Seglar, in a 200/239-179/224 count, won the ABTA Labor Special topping a Great Turnout of 609 entrants. 126 bowlers made the Semifinals Cash Line at Super Brunswick West Covina Lanes which featured superb payoffs and optionals for our members.

Excitement was in the air all weekend and on Friday Night Jello Gray bowled a perfect game in the 9PM Squad. Then Sunday on the 4PM squad “Steady Freddie” Catamisan did the same, firing a nice perfecto. Both bowlers will be honored with rings, jackets and award plaques at the Annual Awards presentations held at the Gold Coast in Las Vegas, July 4 weekend.

This was a 3 day Friday /Saturday / Sunday event and the scoring was a bit tough, except for Friday. Each day was a separate qualifying board which also made this the fairest way possible for our members.

Friday eve we had (3) Squads, 143 entrants. The cut score for Friday was Men +96, Ladies +48. Saturday we had (6) Squads and had 227 entrants. The cut scores Men +38, Ladies +35, and by the way, our champ Seglar qualified on Saturday eve.

Sunday we had (3) regular qualifying squads and had 155 entrants. Cut scores of Men +23 and the Ladies +16. The 5:30 PM Re-Entry only Squad had a nice 84 entrants. All in all this event had 609 entrants. 126 made the cash line in the semifinals including the added Super Senior bowlers led by Robert Hahn, Rico Cayton, Basilio Terrenal, Nancy Cantoria, and Esther Wilwayco.

The Semifinals took to the floor at 8:20 PM. This fine field of 126 would all cash and have aspirations of making the top 32 single elims of which there are 7 women minimum.

The scoring was great in the semis. Seglar an ABTA regular, shot lights out and led the way with a fine +182 to be top seed, sit out and bowl for the title. In second place was a Super Hot Michele Tucker +151. She would receive a first round bye and enter in round 2 of the Single Elim Finals.

It took a nice +58 for the men and a +40 for the ladies to make the top 32 Single Elim finals which had 7 guaranteed ladies. In a tie (men) +58 we saw Greg Vermillion eliminate Tomas Licauco and Fred Manansala in a 9-10 frame roll off to make his was to the finals with the losers cashing in 33rd-34th places and $148.75 each.

The first round of the finals took the floor. Losing in round one were Marcus Lemons, Lara Velasco, Youna Yun, Lorenzo Justice, Irene Kang, Roger Pierce, Greg Vermillion, James Abilar, Don Quitangon, Peechit Butranon, Junior Guiramy, Anita Smith, Anna Borromeo, Rich Warner and Billy Gilbert. They finished in 18-32nd places and $200 each.

In round two we had Greg Kokanour, Jesse Boquio, Marc Levy, Phil Lebaquin, Vic Copeland, Frank Winick, Alex Mao and Michele Tucker get erased from competition. They collected checks of $235 finishing in 10th-17th place.

In round three we had Josie Matsumoto down Ramiro Garcia 217-175. Anthony Traquena got to Ronnie Sanchez 227-203. In a battle of Greg’s, Greg Reed blitzed Greg Neuer 274-204. Alvin Reyes bowled well disposing of Jason Fowler 223-204. The losers were 6th-9th places and $300 each.

Round 4 had Josie edge Anthony Traquena 190-182. Alvin Reyes got to Greg Reed 199-190. So Greg and Anthony were 4th and 5th and checks of $400 each, with Alvin and Josie to meet the winner to advance to the title game against Seglar.

This match was again close. Alvin could not hit the left lane and Josie prevailed in another good one 190-181. Reyes, one of our Bowlers of the Year, was 3rd and $1,000 with Josie advancing to the title game.

The title match was set on lanes 53-54. A huge crowd was watching, collecting their Horse Money on Josie and enjoying the camaraderie.

We again would have a new champion as Seglar elected to have Josie lead off. She led with a spare then got a one count and open to put herself in a hole. Seglar opened frame 3 and with a split in the 6th Josie coming back keeping clean. He led her by only 9 pins. She then took a lead of 2 pins with a double in frames 8-9. Then Seglar with a strike up in the 9th would need the first in the 10th to take a lead. He did just that and another and a 9 count in a clutch finish, a 200/239 game. Josie would need a double in the 10th to win the title. She got the first one and now one more for the title. She had to be a bit nervous, but threw a decent shot. But it hooked up and got the big 4. The title went to the fine gentleman from Santa Ana who never misses an ABTA event. It was a great title game and Michael came through in the 10th as a champion. We are very proud of him. What a performance! Great Bowling Michael! Micheal was bowling in the reduced entry program in this event but still took home $2,800 as it is $2,200 for the $48 entry and another $500 Bonus for bowling 25 + squads in the calendar year, ( he bowled much more:-) and the $100 Logo Shirt Bonus. He is one fine Guy! Congrats Michael and title #2 is within your reach in the future.

Great bowling by a great lady, Josie Matsumoto who by the way embroidered Mike’s Shirt (and will now do a Champion’s shirt for him also:-) and all of our shirts, and jackets in the club. She really bowled so well. One more strike she would have had her first title, matching her husband Glen who is an ABTA champion. Great Bowling by a super lady and Josie got $2,000 for the 2nd place finish.

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were James Abilar +214 and Michele Tucker led the ladies +151. They get paid entries into any regular ABTA event for the fine bowling.

The Optional doubles were taken by Marcus Lemons, and Jello “300” Gray. Their huge 1502 got them $230. We paid 13 places in the doubles.

The 3-6-9 was worth $700 and James Abilar was the survivor in the rolloff but missed on shot #2 got a $50 consolation. We will go for $800 in the 3-6-9 this Saturday at Cal Bowl.

The Match Series worth $2,040 was drawn by top qualifier Abilar. It was matched by four of our most faithful, Irene Kang, Mitzi Martinez, Gil Romero, and Ken Seiple Jr. They got $510 for their fine 498 series. We will estimate the Series Pot at $250 this week for only $2.00 to enter.

The Match Game 3 worth $3,500 was also msatched by 13 members. They were Anna Borromeo, Eldon Crowder, Basilio Terrenal, Jackie Bayro, John Daily, Youna Yun, Lito Dizon, Francisco Ortiz, Rose Urfano, Lorenzo Justice, Ping Romero, Maria Bacos and Speedy. They got $269 each for their fine 183 game. With the carryover of $400, the Match Game should go for $1,600 this Saturday at Cal.

The weekly winner of the Columbia “300” Ball was Basilio Terrenal who loves the Columbia products, and he thanks Columbia 300 and the ABTA. He had a nice tournament cashing as a Super Sr. and hitting the match game for $269, good for Basilio!

Champion Michael “don’t call me Mike” hails from Santa Ana, and is single. He used an Ebonite Puma drilled by Vic Fabris at Carter and his thumb inserts are done by Mike at Valley View Lanes. He thanks the ABTA for a great tournament and the ABTA staff for a good job. He missed his biggest supporter Pam Russell who was unable to be there due to surgery. He wishes her a speedy recovery and wished that she were there to see him finally win.

Josie Matsumoto is from Yorba Linda and married to Mr. Brackets Glen. She used a Columbia Icon drilled by Mike Wahl owner operator of the Pro Shop in Cerritos Lanes. She does the embroidery for our club and it is named Megastitches. She has many friends in the club and some were cheering her on at West Covina. She has one son, a daughter and two grandsons Kai, and Ian.

Alvin Reyes is from Eagle Rock, and married to Marcy. He used a Pro-Active drilled at the Pit Stop at Santa Clarita Lanes. He thanks God, friends and family for support, and the ABTA & Staff.

THANKS to Don and staff at West Covina for being such wonderful hosts.

They do such a great job there. Special thanks to Joann also. They have one of the finest run Centers in So. Calif. We enjoy it there immensely and look forward to our Big Labor Day Event there again next year. We will return there several times in the year also. Oct. 15th is the next trip there, and also the big Thanksgiving Event.

LEAGUE
By Alice
Meglemre

WESTMINSTER-The Vegas league made the first of four visits to Westminster Lane Monday and welcomed back Margo Martin, Bert Martinez and Doris Lewis. It was a first session for Margo and Bert, and Doris' return followed a couple of weeks off for medical tests. We are happy report all is ok for their future good health.

Doreen and Jenifer were both at the control desk and ready for the 9:30 a.m. competition, following the Labor Day bye. The league had to change from the 10 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. time due to a "wall to wall" senior league that bowls at noon. The coffee was ready and, as always, service was first class.

Doris Lewis led the honor roll with 238-559, topping her own 235 season high game, for 156 and over bowlers, followed by Berneice King 223-551, Vi Wilson 212-545, Gladys Perrin 544, Cathy Wyatt 527, Aresia McGee 512, Barbara Bishop 504, Jamie Vallier, Bernice Bennett and Cindy Martin, 503.

Barbara Bishop thanked all the members that turned out at Cal Bowl on Saturday for the Freedom No Tap tourney, which attracted 93 bowlers, and also, $300 was donated to the Hurricane Katrina survivor fund.

Cal Bowl B and Cerritos Lanes are tied for league leadership 10 wins, followed by Cal Bowl A, 8.2; nine teams tied at 8 wins, one at 7.2; six at 7 wins, one at 6 and one team trails with 4 wins.

NEXT WEEK: Premiere Lanes, Santa Fe Springs, Monday 11 a.m. We still need subs, especially when we travel out of the local area. Please call Alice at 423-1567 if you would like to do some traveling.

Ed Palma Finally Makes the Magic Circle to Pocket $1,400

Gentleman Ed Palma happily and finally makes the Donkee Champions circle. We say finally as in eleven years with the Donkee and a very active member he has eight seconds, several third and fourth places to his credit and was well overdue for a big win. Congratulations to a very nice gentleman.

Ed's a supervisor in mail processing at the Long Beach Post Office. He has two adult children a daughter twenty eight and a son twenty three. ( I think he said - Not Bowlers??)

For his big win Ed was rolling a Columbia Back Yard Bully bowling ball drilled at Cal Bowl. His highest game is a 279 and his highest series is 795 also bowled at Cal Bowl. For hobbies he said it's bowling, bowling and more bowling. No leagues just tournaments. Ed's big win was $800 first place monies, $500 Jack Ace money and $100 shirt bonus for a tidy sum of $1,400.

Our second place gentleman Thomas Licauco was rolling a Bulldog bowling ball compliments of Donkee Products drilled by Rusty Bryan at Mission Hills Lanes. Thomas was on a roll earlier and could have been a second time Champ but what happened???? He had a bad tooth ache????

We had 59 entries with 16 making the Semi's. Nine advancing to the Shoot-out finals from the Semi's were Art Ouzenian , Barbara Burgess, Tommy Newman, Heather Hoang, Ed Palma, Gil Romero, David Quan and Luis Diaz. Top seed Thomas Licauco with a big plus 143 sat out. From this round of eight four were eliminated and four for the second round were Tommy Newman posting a 233, Heather Hoang a 228, Ed Palma a 232 and Barbara Burgess with a 231 game. From this round of four Ed Palma posted the highest game a 209 for the final challenge against top seed Thomas Licauco. Tommy Newman unfortunately stuck a big washout settling for third place with a 207game. Barbara Burgess took fourth with a 204 and Heather Hoang 5th place with a 197 game.. Very close match.

Charting the Donkee champion Ed Palma - Ed came out on a spare, opened for a nine count the second frame, came back with a strike the third frame looking good, spared the fourth and fifth frames, doubled the sixth and seventh, spared the eighth and ninth finishing on a big strike in the tenth frame capped with a nine count for a well shot 192/221 game.

Gentleman Thomas Licauco top seed with a plus 143 settled for second place.. I'm not certain what happened.?? Thomas Licauco had a tooth ache??. .He opened the first four frames, got a strike for a big applause in the 5th frame, spared the sixth and seventh frame, opened the next three frames for a hard fought 113/148 game. Ouch. (P.S. He really had a toothache.)

Our tournament this weekend is two days at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk. Saturday squads are 12:00pm, 1:30pm, 3:00pm and the last is 4:30pm. Four squads. Sunday the usual 10:00am and 11:30am with the semi's and shoot-out to follow. See you at Keystone.

Barbara Burgess 3rd., Thomas Licauco 2nd. for $400.00, Dir. Bert Strain and Dir. Steve Brode congratulating Ed Palma in the middle on finally getting his Donkee Championship and $1,400.00 (Tommy Newman 3rd. not on hand).

Season 20 Gets Underway!

by Randy Myers

Well another season is upon us and from the looks of things; some bowlers are STILL on summer vacation! Of the 24 teams bowling Monday night, 6 teams swept leaving 6 teams looking for their team's first win. Overall, scores were down as only two bowlers managed to roll 700 or more and I would be very surprised to see the same results next week.

On Side "A", not much changed for Cerio, Schroeder, and Gray as their Team #1 blasted Team #2 5-0. Steve Schroeder & Dan Cerio paved the way with 646 & 638 respectively. Team #3 also went 5-0 as Nick Negrete 664 and Herbert Jones 656 led the winners. Another sweep on the next pair, but this time it was the even numbered team as Team #6 pasted Team #5. Paul Smith 674 and George Parker 666 were tops for the winners while Alan Steinberg 616 was high for Team #5. Team #7 Tri-Star Vending downed Team #8 5-0 behind the duo of David Yamauchi 688 and Jon Brandon "IRON" with 619. JJ "Action" Jackson with 633 led team #8. Team #10 rolled to a 4-1 win over Team #9 despite Missy Bellinder's fine 700 series. Summer league Champs James Cox 682 and David Van Gaston 657 did most of the damage, while Greg Neuer 646 helped Missy get Team #9's lone win. Team #11 squeaked out game 1 by five pins, but then Vince Wood took over by firing 280 in game 2 and led Team #12 to a 4-1 win. Vince with 649 and Walter Herrarte 626 led the winners with Scott Norton 635 getting the lone six for Team #11.

On Side "B", the number 13 proved to be unlucky for one night as Team #14 swept Team #13 behind a total team effort as all four bowlers stroked 622 or more. Chris Makroglous 675 and Anthony "Droopy" Drapeau 631 topped the winners with John Shynch 661 and Clyde Lumpford 626 leading the non-winners. Team #16 Money Net Inc. led by Vernon Adams with 650 managed a 3-2 win over Team #15 despite Jason Bueniage's league high 728 set. Ron Schmidt with 629 helped Jason secure the two wins for Team #15. In one of the closer matches, Team #17 defeated Team #18 4-1. Paul Varela 695 and Leonard Ruiz Jr. 633 struck when needed, while Team #18 came up just short despite Harry Wong Jr. 627, Nick Smith 637, and Frank Barefoot Jr. 675 bowling well. Team #19 got a near sweep as they defeated Team #20 4-1. R. Garcia with 635 and Jeff Garrison 629 managed the only sixes on the pair. Raul "Spanky" Rosales fired a fine 679 to lead Team #21 to a 4-1 win over Team #22 with Ramon Torres helping out with 628. The last match of the night ended in another sweep as Team #23 used Super Sub Alex Castillo's 640 and Jason Fowler's 639 to take the 5 wins from Team #24.

The side pots were down as most bowlers were shaking off some summer rust, but the scores weren't bad. Herbert Jones with 268 took game 1 with Frank Barefoot Jr. finishing 2nd with 247. Game 2 went to Chris Makroglous with 269 followed by Jon Brandon 234. Spanky Rosales 260 and Steve Schroeder 248 won game 3, while the SUPER POT went to Jason Bueniage and his fine 279. Chris Makroglous won series with 685 and that wraps up week 1. Congratulations to all the Side Pot winners!

The first week proved we all need to get some practice this week, and maybe make some ball changes. There's plenty of talent again this year, so expect to see some Honor Scores mentioned in next week's report. If you haven't come out to watch this league in action, you're missing out on some of the best bowlers So Cal has to offer. So come on down to Del Rio and catch it all live! Thanks again for checking in!

Gates and Helferstay Co-Winners At Gable House

by Chris Graves

TORRANCE—In a tournament that had a lot of twists and turns, nobody expected the finish that we got at our Youth Labor Day Scholarship Tournament. The big dogs and young guns were out in full force as a field of fifteen bowlers took to the lanes this year. High scores in the qualifying round came from Will Jackson 214-246, Mike Helferstay 203-227-235, Kevin Chow 206-233, Kayleigh Gates 232, Gary McInerney 213-220, and Sean Martin 218.

After the first three games, Kayleigh Gates emerged as the high qualifier with a 515 scratch/767 handicap series. Sean Martin checked in at number two with his 546/765 set. Will Jackson scored the number three seed with a 652 scr./748 handicap series. Finally, despite having the high scratch series with 665, Mike Helferstay was the final seed to qualify with a 713 handicap series. Rounding out the field were Brooks Williams, Scott Santos, Kyle Shore, Cassy Eicher, Kevin Chow, Tim Eich, Brandon Mullikin, Gary McInerney, David Williams, Amanda McInerney, and Tyler Cooke.

The opening match of the stepladder featured the two big guns of the qualifying round as Will Jackson squared off against Mike Helferstay. Both men stayed even through three frames before Helferstay pulled away with a four-bagger in frames four through seven. Jackson was able to stay clean save for a massive split in the seventh frame. Helferstay, on the other hand, stayed clean as he cruised through the first match 245/261-189/221.

Next for Mikey was Sean Martin in the semi-finals. Martin had a 57 pin advantage to start the match and got off to a fast start with a spare and a strike before running into back to back splits. Helferstay responded with a quick three-bagger followed up by four straight spares. Sean tried to answer back with a double before opening again in the seventh followed by a strike, spare, and open in the tenth. Mike finished strong by punching out in the tenth frame to advance to the finals by a final score of 224/240-158/231.

Kayleigh Gates awaited Mike for the final showdown. Gates entered the finals with a 68 pin advantage, 84 pins handicap to Mike's 16. Helferstay got off to a relatively slow start in his attempt to successfully run the gauntlet with a strike and four spares. Gates tried to answer back but had three spares and three opens to show for it after six frames. Kayleigh finally struck in the seventh, but this was in the midst of a Helferstay three-bagger in frames six through eight. Gates with another split in the ninth, then both went strike, nine-spares in the tenth frame to finish the match in a dead heat... Helferstay at 213/229 and Gates at 145/229.

So what happened? Ninth and tenth frame rolloff? Bowl the game over? After a few minutes of confusion and deliberation between the tournament director and her assistant (that would be Ruth and Randy Beigle to the rest of you), it was decided that there would be no rolloff. The match, and the tournament, ended in a tie for the first time since we started doing the stepladder finals some three years ago. For their efforts, Mike Helferstay and Kayleigh Gates will each be receiving $75 scholarships. Nice bowling to all!

In other news...The infamous Gable House Youth Learn-To-Bowl will be making its return this coming Saturday afternoon, September 17. This seasonal tradition will be running from 1-3 p.m. Our Learn-To-Bowl is open to all new/aspiring league bowlers ages 7-21. Topics of interest include: Proper fit of the bowling ball, safety issues, the rules of the game, the basic four-step approach, and the armswing and release. All of this is FREE to you. Two hours of FREE bowling, FREE shoe rentals, and FREE instruction from certified coaches. Spots are still available, so sign up today!

As promised two weeks ago, here is the information you have been waiting for concerning round two of the Star Wars Strike Force league. The second wave will be kicking off on Thursday afternoon, October 6 with a meeting at 4 p.m. and bowling scheduled to start at 4:30 p.m. Like the Monday program, there is a $15 registration fee to join the league, then it's only $12 per person per week. Do note that if you miss a week, you still pay $6.25 to go towards your prize package at the end. At the end of the league, no matter where you finish in the standings, you have your choice of: One of seven Star Wars Viz-A-Balls and an accompanying bag; or a Star Wars Jedi Package featuring a Darth Vader life size stand-up, and Star Wars baseball cap, and a set of six Star Wars movie posters. Spots are still available for this as well, reserve yours today!

That will do it for this week. There are still plenty of spots available for our weekend junior leagues and Adult/Junior leagues for anyone interested. We should be back to business as usual next week with the first batch of scores from the new Winter season. Until then, take care and have a great week.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon
WEST COVINA - This past Sunday, the JAT Farm Club opened its winter portion of the season at Brunswick West Covina Lanes. The turnout was a little lower than expected and could have been due to the hour earlier check-in time. The shot was a little more difficult than what the bowlers imaged. The bowlers need to learn not to have expectations of a particular center and focus on adjustments. Thanks to the management and staff for their as usual grand accommodations.

The qualifying round did see a few high scores. It seemed like everyone had a least one pair that they liked. Javier Hernandez starts off the reportable score list with the tournament's high game of 279. Way to go Mr. Hernandez. Additional reportable scores came in from Albert Fernandez 268, Tommy Neuzil 248, Justin Eubanks 248, Dean Nishijima 233-224, Aaron Steinberg 231, Natalie Jimenez 220-226, Mark Curtis 226, Dee Dee Ho 223 and Susy Monteith 221. Hernandez led the field after five games at plus 66, while the 14th spot to advance came in at minus 97.

In match play no real big movements to speak of but high scores from A.J. Garcia 236, Nishijima 223-234, Ho 220-225, James Hawkins 224, Neuzil 221 and Eric Milne 220. We did see a switch in leadership though, so read on.

The finals started out with 5th seed Garcia (-15) taking on 4th seed Curtis (+17). With distractions in the background it was hard to stay focus on the match, especially for me. However, Garcia did enough to win 171-158, and move on to meet the 3rd seed Hernandez (+18). Again, Garcia just got by 174-169 to meet 2nd seed Neuzil (+40). However, by now Garcia was tired and the distractions had faded. Neuzil captured this match 194-154 to go in to the title match against top seed Nishijima (+68). Here, Dean left no doubt by putting the strikes in where needed and posted a 242-160 victory for his third title. Congratulations Dean.

Bowlers, our next tournament will be on September 25th at AMF Carter Lanes in Fullerton. Remember the start time for check-in is 7:15 am. If you need directions, please look on the back of your membership card and call or email me.

Also remember that the Farm Club has a membership discount program. Bring in a bowler that has never been a JAT member and receive a discount on your own tournament fees. However, you must also have played the mentor role in recruiting the new member, by making sure they know the format, dress code, level of talent and director expectations.

With all that said, enjoy your couple of weeks off and I'll see you at Carter.

Harding, Glusman Guerrero and Fell Champs in JST Season Opener

by Brian Carmichael
With the days starting to get shorter, and the weather getting cooler, one thing comes to mind too many young bowlers. A brand new season of the Junior Scratch Tour is upon us. The JST started off its 05'-06' campaign of incredible tournaments at New Yorba Linda Bowl on Labor Day Weekend, September 3rd-4th for the JST's 2nd annual Labor Day Jr. Challenge. We hope everyone had a great summer, and used it to their benefit, and got tons of practice in. As always we will be offering tons of scholarships at all our JST tournaments. There are some new changes and rules this year, and all can be found at the JST's web site, www.jstbowl.com. Just check it out and let us know how you feel about anything in the Guest Book area of the site. Now with that, let's get into the Labor Day results...

One brand new change to the JST was the introduction of a handicap division to the Novice Div. This season will be a test run of it, and the Novice Div. average criteria is 155 down, and the handicap will be determined at 90% of 155. With that, a small field came out to give it a try over Labor Day weekend, and the format was just 9 games and total pins would determine the winner. Joey Canale shot the high game of the division of a nice 218 to help him in the hunt of the title. After the 9 games though, Canale found himself in 2nd and out of 1st by just 2 pins, as Marc Harding rolled a nice 1587 set to take the championship. Congrats to Marc on the great bowling.

The remaining three divisions bowled 2 blocks of 6 games on Saturday to cut to a PBA bracket elimination format for Sunday. The Intermediate Div. saw Allie Ijams on a roll on Saturday, as she qualified herself as the number 1 seed for Saturday with a huge 2355 set for 12. Eddie Sayles qualified himself for Sunday, by rolling the high game of qualifying with a solid 236 game. The top 8 then went to Sunday's elimination brackets and remember with this format, any thing can happen, with huge upsets to underdog wins. 8th seed Jason Spencer swept Ijams in the first round and then rolled a fine 232 game to get by 4th seed David Phillips to set himself up for the championship match. The man to bowl him in the final match was 6th seed Jeff Glusman, who earlier defeated Sayles in the first match, 2 games to 1, and then dropped 2nd seed Wishtoyo Vasquez in the semi-final match with a nice 199 game. Glusman was determined and showed he wanted it, proving being a later seed isn't such a bad thing as he got by Spencer's 174 with a huge 205 game. Congratulations to Jeff on his win, and great bowling.

The Advance Div. had the biggest field of the weekend as Charlie Hair got the weekend off good by shooting the high game of qualifying in the first game with a tremendous 276. That didn't stop Patrick Snyder from bowling his way to tournament leader, averaging 210 for the 12 games with an awesome 2522 set. The top 12 then went to the bracket elimination finals on Sunday and Snyder won all his matches to make it to the final match after defeating 12th seed David Bigham 2 games to 1 in the 1st round, and then defeating Robbert Page 223-200. 10th seed Augie Guerrero faced 6th seed Bob Vreeland in the semi-final match after getting by 3rd seed Samantha Jimenez in the first round, 2 games to 1, and then a closer match in the second round by defeating 9th seed Nick Reed's 222 with a nice 234. Vreeland got to the semi-final after sweeping 7th seed Dillon Cochran in the first match, and then downing 2nd seed Brittany Page 205-191. The semi-final saw the bowlers give it back and forth to each other, but Guerrero prevailed with a 200 to beat Vreeland's 187. The championship match was then set and Snyder had led for most of the weekend, and this would be by far the closest match of the weekend, going down to Snyder's final ball. It ended up in a 190-188 Guerrero win. Great bowling to Augie, and congratulations on the title.

The Open Div. would cut to the top 8 for the bracket finals on Sunday. Adam Ferry rolled the high game of qualifying on Saturday with a nice 266 game. Devin Bidwell rolled a nice 2604 set to take the 1st seed for Sunday's finals. Bidwell kept up the great bowling, throwing a perfect, 300 game in the first game of Sunday's finals. Congrats to Devin on the 300 game, good for any Storm bowling ball of his choice. He moved on to the next round, but was dropped by 4th seed Mike Fell's 196 game. Fell got there be defeating 5th seed Sam Hitchcock 2 games to none in the first round. Fell then found himself in the final against number 3 seed Mason Sherman, who earlier got there by defeating 6th seed Danny Gartin 2 games to none, including a 257-256 game-winner, and then dropping 7th seed Nathan Urrutia 229-206. Fell found a great line on the championship pair, while Sherman struggled a bit, ending in a 279-171 title winner. Congrats to Mike Fell on his first ever JST win, and great bowling out there.

Congratulations once again to all the winners and scholarship winners. Our next JST tournament will be a regular format tournament and it is set for this Sunday, Sept. 18th at Action Lanes in El Monte. It is a mandatory pre enter and you can do so by calling Butch or Lenni Hesketh by this Saturday night at (951) 684-7941. Remember you cannot qualify for our season ending majors without being a member and being able to receive points. Also remember the more bowlers that come out and bowl, the higher the scholarship prizes will be. Thank you to our sponsors who are here for another year yet again: Storm Bowling Inc., and B&W Bowling Equipment. Thank you to them for everything they have done, and have continued to do. With that, don't forget to check out our site, and see you all this Sunday. Have a great week.

Girls Jr. All-Stars

by David Gordon
WEST COVINA-The Girls Jr. All-Stars met up once again last Sunday to begin the new 2005-06 season. We started off with some decision making that will affect the league and season.

The attendance for the new year is currently low and therefore, it was decided that we will drop down to a two-person team structure. All of the girls, parents and directors will be pushing hard to seek out those young ladies that have the skills, desire and/or potential of becoming a Girls Jr. All-Stars.

However, for the day, we went ahead and started the new season and bowled away while renewing the friendships lost over the summer.

Leading the way this first week was Jillian Gaddison who reportedly never pick up her bowling ball since we finished last season back in March. Well lets not get into that habit, but Jillian put up an 240-215/840 series, just to show it all comes down to natural talent. Way to go Jillian.

Additional scoring came in from Tabetha Reynolds 206-210/762, Deanna

SED Youth Leaders

by Otha Stubblefield
GARDENA-SED Youth Leaders Travel began another exciting season at Gardena Bowl this past Saturday. Scoring wasn't hard, but you do need to pick up your spares. John Mc Cullin had the sole 800 for this session.

SED Youth Leaders Travel meets every Saturday at 2:00, and travels through the member centers of the soon to be re-named Southeast District Youth Bowling Association.

The league fees for this scratch trios league are $14/week. The portion of your fees not taken for the cost of bowling is returned to you in the form of scholarship. You can boost your scholarship funds through optional brackets. If you bowl at Southwest, Gardena, Gage, Palos Verdes, Gable House, Premiere, Bowl-O-Drome, Cal, Cerritos, Keystone or Del Rio.

You're more than welcome to join. If you don't bowl at one of these centers....you're still more than welcome to join. This Saturday, we will be stopping at AMF Bowl-O-Drome.

We still have room for more bowlers, so if you want to give this scratch league a try, show up before 2:00. Hope to see you soon.

Carrillo 736 and Melissa Pena 233/714.

Again, welcome back ladies. We will take next week off to allow time to re-structure the league and for all of us to do our best in recruiting. If any of our readers and bowlers knows of a young lady with a 150 average or better and would be an asset to this league, I am definitely interested in talking with her. My phone number(s) are: 310-244-5129 (w), 626-357-4295 (h) and email address is: David_Gordon@sonyusa.com.

Therefore, we will meet up once again on September 25th at AMF Carter Lanes. Start time is scheduled for 2:00 pm. Don't shy away from developing and displaying your talents in this unique all-girl scratch travel league. Hope to hear from you.

SED Jr. Travel

by David Gordon
COVINA-The SED Jr. Travel opened the 2005-06 season at Brunswick Covina Lanes this past Saturday. Like most starting days, the field was small with only 12 bowlers, but looks to be a promising season with more bowlers and teams to come.

Just a reminder that SED Jr. Travel is a two-person, scratch, travel league that throws 4-games each session at different bowling centers throughout Los Angeles and Orange counties. This experience helps the bowlers develop the skills of adjusting to different lane conditions and styles of competitors. All the while, earning scholarship, learning new bowling formats, having fun and meeting new friends.

On the day, reportable scoring (200 game/700 series or better) gave us some pretty good scoring. Bryan Osbourne led the way with the only 800 series going 263-243-202/887. Nice bowling Bryan. Other high scores are from Michael Gaylor 234-208/779, Javier Hernandez 221/768, J.R. Monteith 203/200/761, Brian Gonzales 200-240/755, Deanna Carrillo 739, J.D. Pelow 202/734 and Allie Ijams 204/704.

This coming Saturday, the group will be at Gage Bowl in Huntington Park at 2:00. To call for directions, call the center at 323-587-3211.

Remember that the new season is just beginning and that we will be taking new members and teams for the first few weeks. For more information on the league or to reserve your spot, please contact me at 310-244-5129 (w), 626-357-4295 (h) or by email address at David_Gordon@sonyusa.com. See you on Saturday.
