CHASE Nadeau is Money in The BANK

by Frank Weiler

HENDERSON — BEN FRANKLIN said there are only two sure things: death and taxes. What about sure bets? While there may not be a sure bet I know of one safe bet: CHASE NADEAU. You can be sure that the young Mr. Nadeau will be a huge success in life.

While at the USBC Queens Tournament a week ago I had the pleasure of meeting an amazing young man, Chase Nadeau, who is wise beyond his eighteen years. Nadeau is co-manager of the Sunset Station Pro Shop, one of several pro shops owned by his dad Dan and partner TERRY LEONG. JOHNNY PETRAGLIA, JR., son of the PBA legend, co-manages with Chase.

During my week in Henderson I had several conversations with the young Mr. Nadeau and he always impressed. Whether we spoke of bowling, business, competing, school or life in general, Chase was informed, intelligent, and well spoken. One afternoon Chase was conversing with ELAINE HAGEN (USBC Hall of Famer) and myself and eloquently described the challenges faced by young people today. On another occasion we discussed the health issues related to smoking. It is hard to believe this young man just graduated from high school.

Chase Nadeau

Oh I forgot, Chase is also a great bowler with the potential to be a PBA star. He can bowl with one or two hands and average 230 both ways! He prefers one hand and in some ways resembles MICHAEL FAGAN when doing so.

Others say his game has some of SEAN RASH in it.

As part of the Queens Tournament there were sweepers conducted nightly with many pros participating, including CHRIS BARNES, MICHAEL FAGAN, TISH JOHNSON, JOHNNY PETRAGLIA, JR., PAULA VIDAD, DAVE WODKA, and DIANA ZAVJALOVA (2013 Queens Champion) to name a few.

On the last night of sweeper competition Chase Nadeau finished second for $235. His 652 (3 games) on the challenging Queen's oil pattern was just four pins shy of Rich Gaya's winning score. Other notable finishers were JIMMY "900" continued on page 11

Mary Lynly Takes the Reins as CBW President

California Bowling Writers Meeting and Luncheon Highlights

ONTARIO — CBW President Joan Romeo wished CBW success and did not seek reelection. Secretary Donna Dillard reported CBW now has 81 members and Treasurer Tina Martin announced the CBW current balance. Marijane Viat Award Committee Chairperson Marianne Evans thanked Eldorado Hotel & Casino for their sponsorship of $250 in support of the writing contest. Legislation Committee Chairperson Elaine Hagin brought before the members two Amendments and both were approved. Amendment #3 to change current Bylaw concerning term limits. The bylaw will bring terms back to two years. President, Treasurer and two Directors shall be elected in odd years and Vice-President, Secretary and the other two Directors elected in even years. Amendment #4, dealt with what constituted a quorum at meetings and will now be revised to state, “A quorum will constitute those present.”

Luncheon Committee Chairperson Mary Lynly said all were looking forward to hearing our keynote speaker Len Nicholson and he did not disappoint. Our 15th anniversary was celebrated at our luncheon and thanks to Double Tree by Hilton who created a small token cake with our CBW logo on it and the remainder was served separately. To top things off the Eldorado Hotel in Reno donated wine for our toast. Thanks to Joan Romeo for negotiating that and thanks to Gary Forman for leading the toast. Our usual quality raffle prizes highlighted the luncheon and Bob Thomas of the National Bowling Stadium was the winner of the beautiful Tony Reyes memorial ball donated by Bette Addington. Historian Chairperson Jill Williamson has been busy updating the CBW History books and she unveiled a new book she created called “In Memory Of” as a tribute to past members of CBW to honor their memory. If any of you have pictures please get them to her or contact any of us from our website www.bowlingwriters.org. It was announced that Jan Hogue will be the CBW newsletter’s new Editor replacing Jackie Wyckoff. Special thanks to Jackie for all the years putting this newsletter out for CBW. Elaine Hagin stepped in for Nominating Committee Chairperson Pat Helwig. Your new CBW Officers are: Mary Lynly – President, Tina Martin was re-elected as Treasurer. Director #1 is Bette Addington and Director #2 is Wendy Boswell of Chico. There will be some appointments to be made shortly. Charitable Endeavor Chairperson Mary Lynly reported that this year’s total amount of $8,779 for our 9th annual Phone Card Drive for the Troops allowed us to purchase 685 phone cards for the troops overseas for Valentine’s Day (2/14/13). Since 2004, CBW has raised $55,899.35! Of that, special thanks to CUSBC who has supported us over the years and donated $25k!! Mary asked if we should continue with this campaign and all attending this meeting were in favor of keeping the Phone Card Drive alive!

CBW 2013 Media & Publicity Luncheon with keynote speaker, Len Nicholson. The luncheon featured a Keynote speaker, Len Nicholson, aka The Phantom (Phantom radio show) presentation was titled, “Behind the Scenes of the PBA” and attendees were treated to some great insight into several key PBA bowlers. Nicholson, who has been involved with the sport of bowling for 57 years, had the most opportune position as he started out behind the scenes as a lane man. This eventually led to his employment with Kegel. Through the years he has had the unique experience to work with several bowlers on tour. His advice to bowlers he was on tour with was to be their own best friend.

His first experience was in the early 1960’s when he met Billy Hardwick due to his employment at a bowling center in Louisville, KY. Nicholson watched Hardwick go out on tour the first year and he went 0-18 and never cashed. Hardwick persevered and went out the following year and ended up Bowler of the Year! So, never give up. Hardwick then moved to Florida in 1970 and wanted Nicholson to move there to be a bouncer in a pool hall of all things! Nicholson went and ended up going on tour with Hardwick and his buddies and became the “tour go-for”. Along with Hardwick was Sam Baca. He and Len started a lane maintenance program in 1971. Nicholson mentioned his Phantom Internet Radio show that changes guests every week. Tune in to hear their 25-minute interview program. You’d be amazed at what you can learn as well as get to know some of Bowling’s most interesting personalities!

An Open Letter From the President of the SGVUSBC Association

COVINA — Greetings to our friends and fellow bowlers. I hope you are all in good spirits and in reasonably good health.

Another year has past since we visited our leagues for our annual BVL fund raising drive to honor our disabled veterans of California.

Last year our economy dipped and so did the donations. The only thing that remained the same or increased in numbers was the amount of disabled veterans that need our help.

Remember the dedication of these brave men and women in our armed forces fighting to maintain our freedom .Regardless of our political affiliations or whether we approve or disapprove our involvement in foreign countries, they served with no questions asked.

So as our association embarks on our fund raising efforts, please remember that we are all volunteers giving of our valuable time from our families to help these who desperately need our support.

So as we come to your leagues talking to you our friends and fellow bowlers, please open your hearts and donate as much as you are able to so that our disabled family and friends that have served us so unselfishly may have a more comfortable life as is possible.

Remember that they gave us the freedom that we all share to do what we love to do, bowl. Our annual BVL tournament this year will be held on November 10th and will be hosted by the Bowlum Lanes in Montclair. There will be two squads at 10 a.m. and 2 pm.

We will again be raffling off a patriotic based basket and at least 1 bowling bowl with the possibility of 2. The tickets for either basket or ball will be 3 for a dollar or 21 for 5 dollars to be drawn during the tournament.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation and donations. We hope to see many of you at our tournament. There will be some festivities prior to bowling the tournament. To find out what they will be you will have to come out. The most important thing is that the veterans thank you with all their collective hearts.

Sincerely, Chris Pilios, President and BVL chairman SGVUSBC

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege
“Encouraged” by Carol Mancini

Carol: Welcome back to California, Stevie! We’ve missed you since you went back to coach your girls in PA. I was wondering if you’d be back.

Steve: Well, those two goons you sent to “invite” me back made it hard to say, “No!”

Carol: Why, I have no idea what you’re talking about. But if it makes you feel any better, some of our readers actually wrote to say they missed your column.

Steve: Your readers? Both of ‘em?

Carol: Ouch.....well, I see you haven’t changed. You still have that dry sense of humor we all love so much. Hey, Dean! How about tightening up those restraints on Stevie’s wrists just a bit.

Steve: Okay! Okay! I’ll be good! Just don’t call me STEVIE!

Carol: Done! Now let’s get down to business. Last year we started this column to amuse and inform our readers about various bowling issues. Where do think we should go from here?

Steve: Well, we could start with a contract and...

Carol: Dean.....the restraints!

Steve: .....and then again, maybe not. How about this; a new season is underway and I would like to pay tribute to a person who gave more to the game of bowling than anyone I have ever known.

Carol: AW.....that’s sweet of you, but I really don’t crave that sort of recognition.

Steve: It isn’t what you....

Carol: On second thought, go right ahead. I’ll just sit back and listen.

Every sport produces legendary performers. Examples are Babe Ruth, Jimmy Brown, Michael Jordan, Billie Jean King, Earl Anthony and, well, you get the picture. Just the mention of these names evokes images of the sports they represent.

But seldom do those responsible for a player’s success get the credit they deserve. Who are they? Coaches! Coaches teach players how to make the most of their natural talent. Legendary coaches are the rarest of breeds, but all sports have them. Who hasn’t heard of Vince Lombardi, Casey Stengel or Phil Jackson. Can you name even one bowling coach who fits this mold?

For me, only one name comes to mind: John Jowdy! He stood head-and-shoulders above all others. If genius is best described as the ability to take a complicated subject and make it simple, John Jowdy was the Einstein of bowling. His book, Bowling Execution, is incomparable in both scope and clarity. Chapter two proves my point. In plain and simple language these few pages describe not only the various oil patterns, but how to play them and adjust to them as they change. His book is a must-read for any bowler seeking elite status!

In my last conversation with him, John said to me, “If (pro bowler name withheld) wants to know why he hasn’t won in four years, all he has to do is call me! I’ll tell him! I know exactly what he’s doing wrong!”

That’s the way John Jowdy was; all anyone had to do was call him. I wish I could pick up the phone and call him just one more time, but that will never happen. On August 1st of this year, the bowling world said, “Goodbye, Coach.....” I doubt that anyone will ever fill the void he left behind.

Carol: I’m speechless! That was beautiful!

Steve: Thanks, I’d really given that a lot of thought and...

Carol: Hey! Did you bring any of those chocolates with you?!

Open Letter from the Desk of Linda Johnson-Pilios

Association Manager for San Gabriel Valley USBC and President of California USBC

COVINA — Welcome to the 2013-2014 season, yet another year of bowling. Encouraging you to join a certified league and keep bowling alive.

There has been a lot of misunderstanding and misquoted information in regards to all the changes and future changes from USBC Headquarters.

First with the summer dues, the ONLY thing that changed is there are NO more advanced summer dues. There were bowlers who would purchase their membership in a summer league which gave them the advanced (coming) year along with the following winter and again the next summer. Many local associations SGVUSBC included were losing fees because of this. Leagues that only bowled in the summer season beginning on or after March 15 would receive membership for two years. Now with the action taken ALL membership begin August 1 and end July 31 which is the fiscal season for bowling and has been forever.

Regarding the awards program, beginning August 1, 2014 USBC will no longer be giving individual member recognition awards. Each local association will be taking care of their membership. I understand there are several here in the south that already has their local awards being processed; there will be no more magnets or bag tags. Contact your local association for any further information.

Now for the High Score awards, beginning August 1, 2014 USBC will be recognizing bowlers with a once in a lifetime 300/800/900 award. However; if a bowler has already received one of these awards they will not receive another. After the 2013-2014 season the 11 in a row award will be eliminated. USBC is asking that applications be sent in for bowlers who continue to roll these awards.

There are major changes for the youth, local associations will need to meet with the respective bowling centers and work out how the youth are going to be processed.

Congratulations to all the winners from the California Women's and Open Championships. I want to thank you for your patience regarding the prize fund checks and the time delay for processing. Please read the rules of the tournaments, most important for all and perhaps we won't have such long delays.

November is the first window for the youth Pepsi tournament competition, all youth directors should be aware and will be receiving information soon. Questions please contact Lynn Matsubara at calusbc.com.

Cecilia Lung Wins 5 Straight Matches

Wins Her 3rd ABTA Title at Action Lanes

No winners: MATCH GAME - 269, MATCH SERIES - 524

ALL Pots / Funds Carry Over for Sept. 21st at West Covina Lanes

ESTIMATED Match Series $5,000 - Match Game EST $2,400 and 3-6-9 at $2,900

EL MONTE — We would like to thank our loyal ABTA bowlers for joining us at Action Lanes this past weekend despite missing the May-weather fight. We had a decent 151 entries with the guaranteed 38 bowlers advancing to semi finals. We had more excitement than the fight from what I hear!! Cut scores of (+50) for the men and (+32) for the women reflects the tough lane conditions at Action Lanes. Super Seniors added were Vic Paolucci (+42) and Ben Bagaoisan (+38) for the men, and Sierrie Herradura (+31) for the women.

High qualifiers for the weekend were Samson Kong a (+160) for the men and Marina Suos with a (+80) for the women. They each got a paid entry to a future regular ABTA event. Top qualifier gets the privilege of drawing for the Match Series. Samson drew 524, yet another unmatched series. Our Match Series fund of $3,580 carries over to West Covina next weekend, and is estimated near the Max of $5,000.

Tops in our OPTIONAL DOUBLES were siblings Samson and Michael Kong with their 1403 for $110. Samson Kong and Du Quach took second with their 1400 for $90, and Samson Kong (again!) with Giang Huynh took third with their 1399 for $80. Total doubles payout was $900 for 18 spots with a low to cash score of 1306.

From the 38 semi-final qualifiers, two female bowlers rallied to the top but our very own Annaliza Agoncillo was the leader with her (+107) followed by 2nd Seed Marina Suos at (+92). Marina will sit out the first round and Annaliza will sit out for the title match. Top seed gets the honor of drawing for Match Game and Liza drew 269. No Match, needless to say. Our Match Game fund of $860 carries over to next weekend and is estimated at $2,400 as none of the bowlers came close due to the difficult shot. Our optional 3-6-9 fund of $2,900 also carries over to West Covina. The last three bowlers standing- Joel Arciniega, Mark Andrews and Vic Paolucci split the $50 consolation prize.

Our top 16 Match Play Finals were eliminated after the first round. Getting $100 each were Sun Sundara, Mark Fisser, Andy Yu, Joel Arciniega, David Dittlinger, Samson Kong and Stan Por. Bowlers who lost in the second round were David Emrich, Ricardo Baca, David Quon and George Marquez. They each take home $105. Our HORSE pick finalists are now up. Payouts were as follows: Cecilia Lung $40, Cezar Marcella $51, Marina Suos $55 and Anthony Ta $77. For the third round, we saw neck-to-neck games as Anthony Ta's 256 game squeezed by Cezar Marcella's 243. Cecilia Lung finishing strong with 225 against Marina Suos' 204 game. Marina and Cezar finished 4th and 5th respectively, taking home $110 each. Facing off for the chance to challenge the top seed, Anthony Ta and Cecilia Lung both had a tough time but luck's with the lady when Anthony missed a critical mark on the final frame. Finishing 3rd and taking home $200 with his 193 game was Anthony Ta. Our HORSE winner and advancing to the title match with her 203 game is Cecilia Lung.

It's LADIES NIGHT as challenger Cecilia Lung meets Annaliza Agoncillo at the top. Both bowlers tried to keep it close and tight as they matched each other's mark until the 9th frame when Cece failed to convert a 6-7-10 split. Liza goes up and throws a strike on the nine frame. To punch out is to shut down Cece's chances so when Liza threw her first bowl on the final frame, mixed reactions can be seen and heard from the spectators as the 4-7-10 split was left standing. Failing to convert the split, Annaliza Agoncillo's 201 game put her in 2nd place worth $500. Cecilia Lung won the ABTA title with her 217 game, taking home $2,700 which included $1,700 from the optional Cash & Carry.

Another 3rd time Champ, lovely Cecilia Lung is from Monterey Park. She used her Storm Super Natural drilled by Aarik Torres from Covina Bowl to conquer the lanes and the title. For all the support, she wishes to thank her husband and fellow ABTA bowler Jerry Chang, her sister Angela, brother-in-law Henry Hoang, the rest of the Lung siblings who couldn't be at Action Lanes, friends from BOWL-MANIA and all the ABTA Staff.

Runner up Annaliza Agoncillo is from Long Beach. She used her Global 900 Freight Train drilled by Chuck Weeks from Cal Bowl. Behind her all the way was husband Arnold, daughter Anne Marie, son Aren, sister Joyce, brother Arnold and the rest of her family. Included in her list of thanks were Kmel Cunanan for his coaching patience and guidance, all the ABTA Directors for the camaraderie and support, Cal Bowl friends, Cecilia Lung for a great game, and late cousin ALVIN FRANCISCO for his presence and who continues to give her inspiration in the sport.

Third place winner Anthony Ta is from Temple City and thanks Annie Lu and kids William and Susan.

This weekend's raffle winners are the following: Du Quach won the sponsor ball from Global 900, Manny Loria won an ABTA Shirt, Steve Brode, Anthony Dancel and Ed Palma each got a free entry for a regular tournament. ONE OUT OF FOUR BOWLERS cashed at Action Lanes! Total paid out for this weekend $13,488. As always, we humbly thank you for your support and hope to see you all at West Covina Lanes on September 21st. Please see our ad in the California Bowling News or check our website (www.abta1.com) for our schedule and directions.

West Covina Lanes is easy to get there. Take the 10 Freeway to Vincent and go south 1 ½ miles as Vincent turns into Glendora. The Phone there is 626-960-3636. Check-in Early Please. Thaks again for being an ABTA Member.

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

Kids, like most grownups, love to throw things. That's why most of them get a big kick out of bowling when they first start. They can go hog wild throwing the ball every which way, and find it pleasant, relaxing and kind of adventuresome.

But soon they discover there's more to better bowling than just throwing the ball. First they find they must roll it, that brute strength rates second to touch and finesse, and that despite their smaller physical size, such a handicap is not fatal in bowling.

They find they must roll the ball a certain way on certain lanes and they're not quite sure how to do it but they find that there are many little tricks. Their most important discovery comes when they realize they can use help.

It's useless to take a small child and attempt to teach him all about bowling overnight. He must have his fling at just throwing the ball.

Once he discovers that bowling isn't as easy as it looks, then it's time to take him in hand and start from scratch. Most kids don't want to be 200 averagers right away. They want to learn how to keep the ball out of the gutter first.

Too many instructors, and that includes parents, relatives, friends, admirers, and anyone else who happens to come along, try too hard to treat children like adults when it comes to bowling. A five, six or seven-year-old has to wait a bit before becoming an Earl Anthony or a Mark Roth.

Let them have their fun fling before they get down to the serious business at hand.

The most important fact about youngsters is the guiding factor in dealing with adults, too. And that is simply that each is an individual, with varying mental and physical limitations.

So it is then that no age is too young for a child to start bowling, if the child is ready. As to equipment, weight of bowling ball, attire and other equipment, the same holds true. Don't rush any youngster, but don't hold back either.

We have a tendency to overdo many things. Bowling, in the same way as other forms of sports for children, must necessarily be regimented, organized as much as possible. For starters, that's great, but the youngsters must be given leeway too, in the areas where they are qualified.

Decisions on league matters that directly affect them should involve them in the decision making. Decisions on financial matters, safety and discipline are better left to older, and presumably, saner heads.

When we start a child in bowling, we are introducing him to a sport he or she may still be participating in 50 or 75 years later. That's why the start is so important. It sure could be the start of a great career or a fine amateur career, but more than likely it will just be a fine diversion over the years.

In most cases bowling has done a better job than other sports when it comes to junior activity, and it needs to get better every year.

Kids aren't nearly as mere as they used to be. They're bigger, smarter, and as the Fonz would say, "cool" as can be. They're our future.

We can help by lighting the first spark with a little extra care.

BURBANK — As I mentioned last week, I am recuperating from a steroid shot to my right palm. This is to hopefully alleviate the pain I have resulting from trigger finger, which I unfortunately have in both hands now. I have to stay off the lanes for at least the month of September. I shouldn't even be typing but a girl's gotta do what a girl's gotta do! So let's get on with it.

Practice League: (scr) Shad Ortiz 202, Chantal Pershing 169, Ace Robson 528, Lesley Hansen 468. (hdcp) Anthony Hernandez 252, Kerry Ware 259, Matthew Winslow 682, Krystale Blue 627.

Tuesday All Stars: Youth. Last week until October 8th and our champions were Cameron Sinkoski and Cooper Hansen. Well done, boys.

Orbits: Handicap team scores only. Team 9 615, Team 2 588, Team 4 574. Individual scores will post after 12 games bowled.

Senior Foursome: Scratch scores only until 3 games bowled. Doug McMillan 202/535, Marie Menez 173/454, Jesse Menez 184, Kathy Temple 171/465.

Thursday 890: Scratch score only until 12 games bowled. Dave Higgins 251, PN Nale 199, Roddy Ronquillo 679, Rose Kwok 546.

OK bowlers, I'm back to the hand exercises. In the meantime, keep the ball rollin'!

NORWALK — You’re going home from your bowling league, or your softball game, or maybe a hot date when all of a sudden BAM you’re struck head-on by a drunk driver going the wrong way on the freeway! Your passenger is killed instantly and you are left fighting for your life.

This happened to the daughter of a dear friend of mine. She was taking her best friend to work via the 710 Freeway at 10:00 PM on a nice November evening when a drunk driver hit her head-on. She has been having surgery after surgery to repair her shattered leg and ankle. She needs one more surgery to finish this process and enable her to walk again. The problem is her insurance has run out and of course the drunk driver has none. So we, her friends, have been doing fundraisers to help her cover the $15,000 needed to do this last surgery. My idea was a No Tap bowling tournament. This will take place Saturday, September 28th at noon. Check-in will be 11:30 AM. The tournament will be held at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk Calif. The cost is $20.00 with optional side pots, 50/50 pots and mystery pots available. And, there will be many door prizes! Please come out to this fundraiser and help my friend walk again. If you preregister you will receive 20 extra door prize tickets!

Heather was recently interviewed by a reporter from Channel 2 News. To see her story, on your browser go to CBS local news, when that pops up in the search box type in Heather Dean. You will love this courageous, young woman’s story.

Thank you,
Michelle Lawson

Nadeau
SCHMITZER (4th), Johnny Petraglia, Jr. (5th), and LARRY DANIEL III (6th). Daniel is the son of Laura Lee Daniel. The top lady of the night was TAYLOR BULTHUIS who finished third with a 650. She missed a single pin spare (four pin), late in the third game, that cost her the title.

There are big things ahead for Chase Nadeau in bowling and business. I am sure he will harness his emotions and keep a young mans natural bravado in check. By the way, he owes me and my sidekick Therese Lloyd reserved seats for his PBA television shows. Yes, I used the plural “SHOWS.” Thank you BOWLING NEWS for recognizing a star of tomorrow.

Ebonite Week 2

DOWNEY — This year's EBONITE 24 team league is sure to supply plenty of exciting matches, contested on four head scratching patterns. We want to thank all 96 members for committing to this seasons team action.

What a great reunion of past winners, team players and new challengers who will soon be shirted and "looking good."

Scores will be looking good too — — —THIS round! Rolling on the basic "house shot", the league is averaging 218.

After 6 games Bobby Campagnale is averaging 262, followed by Roger Wrase 250, Jon Diso 250, Vernon Adams 249, Keith Laing 245 and Harry Wong 245. Low average 199. Enjoy it guys — you know what's ahead!

As the weeks go by, we will be featuring team standings, top ten scores of the week, side action winners and unusual happenings.

Latest league sheets can be read on delriolanes.com by 1 A.M. Tuesday!

After all the teams have their sponsors (and are not just numbers) we will introduce the players.

So, you can read about the combat of these great stars, or take the short ride to Del Rio Lanes and "feel" the game up close. 8:30 Monday nites — see you there!
