Empire Bowl Opens Season With Bowler Appreciation Specials

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS — The summer is over in the bowling world and the new winter season is beginning. I can't wait to get started, even while being hampered by an injury to my bowling hand. It was a joy to walk into EMPIRE BOWL last week and being greeted by proprietor WILL MOSS-ONTTE with the words: "Glad to see you back." It is the first time I have had a proprietor personally welcome me back for the winter season. WOW!

Will Mossontte knows bowling and CUSTOMER SATISFACTION. He can't do enough to keep his customers, us bowlers, satisfied. Hence he put together some specials to give back to his bowlers.

First there is Will's new Bowler Appreciation League. The big deal about this league is the low lineage for three games, just five dollars! The league costs twenty bucks, with fifteen "Georgies" going into the prize fund.

Every bowler in the league is guaranteed four "Benjamins" and a free night at the South Point Casino in Las Vegas, for the league sweepster. You must be an Empire Bowl league bowler to be eligible for this Wednesday night bargain.

Then there are a number of low cost practice specials. There is Tuesday dollar night, Monday morning buck fifty games, rent-a-lane deals on Sunday and quarter mania on Sundays and Mondays. For details call manager SHERRY WILLIAMS at 909-793-2525.

ATTENTION BOWLERS

Keystone Lanes will have the following patterns for practice every Tuesday for 2 hours from 6:30pm to 8:30pm for $10.00. 8 lanes will be open for practice sessions. Please text the cell phone below to confirm your attendance.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege Abandoned by Carol Mancini

Carol: Steve, I think you may need to sit down.

Steve: I am sitting down.

Carol: I have lined up a verrrry special interview for this week. You'll never guess who it is!

Steve: Paul McCartney?

Carol: Nope.

Steve: Godzilla?

Carol: Don't be silly!

Steve: Arnold Schwarzenegger.

Carol: Un-un.

Steve: The Pope?

Carol: Noooo.....give up?

Steve: The president?

Carol: Who told you that?

Steve: Who told me what?

Carol: That the most powerful man in the world is going to be here!

Steve: You can't be serious!

Carol: Dean! Did you tell Steve our little secret?!

Steve: How did you, I mean, why is he.....

Carol: It's a long story! Let's just say I met this really cute guy in a black suit and tie. I mentioned that bowling is the most popular sport in this country and that I ran a bowling newspaper with weekly distribution of a million copies and.....

Steve: A million copies?!

Carol: I may have accidentally added a couple zeroes, but what's a zero? It's nothing, right? Any-way, he was really cute!

Steve: Carol!!!!

Carol: The next thing you know, Dean is bringing me this email saying you-know-who would like to do a photo-op right here at Del Rio Lanes.

Steve: How did a photo-op turn into a full-blown interview?

Carol: Gee, I really don't have a clue.....but I'm sure you'll do just fine.

Steve: What do you mean, "I'll do just....."

Dean: HE'S HERE!!!!

Carol: Did I forget to mention that I have a date tonight with a really cute guy? Bye! See ya next week!

Steve: Carol! GET BACK HERE!!!!

Back Door: "Slam!"

Ringtone ("Hail to the Chief!"): Dum, dum, ta-dum.....

The special guest: Hello, Michelle? Of course it's me! Who else would answer this phone! Hey, tell Biden to just...shut...up!.....Yeah.....un-huh.....ok, tell Hillary to call back later. I'm doing something really important right now. Give the girls a hug for me and I'll see you soon. Bye!

Steve: Wow! That's some ringtone, sir!

Guest: Thanks, I never get tired of hearing it. Okay, let's talk bowling. I've.....

Ringtone ("Hail to the Chief!"): Dum, dum, ta-dum.....

Guest: Sorry about that. I'll just turn this thing off! There we go!Now as I was saying....

Door: Knock, knock, knock, knock! Click-click!

Man in Black: Excuse me, sir! Your phone has gone dead. Here's a new one.

Guest: Thanks.

Man in Black: You're welcome, sir.

Door: Click!

Steve: Lillian, would you mind locking that door? We're trying to do an interview here.

Ringtone ("Hail to the Chief!"): Dum, dum, ta-dum.....

Guest: I need to get this! Hello?.....Of course it's me! Who else would be answering this phone?!

Look, we're trying to reach out to one hundred million voters here! For the next half hour I AM NOT TO BE DISTURBED! DO I MAKE MYSELF CLEAR?!.....Thank you!

Steve: One hundred million?

Guest: I may have added a couple zeroes. By now, nobody expects me to be good with numbers?! Now let's talk about my favorite sport.

Steve: You're favorite sport? I didn't even know you bowled.

Guest: If it's America's favorite sport, it's my favorite sport! My wife even bought me a ball. I could use a few lessons though.

Steve: That would be an honor, sir. Besides the math, what sort of problems do you experience?

Guest: Mainly distance.

Steve: Excuse me?

Guest: You know.....distance. When I try to shoot a foul-shot, my fingers get stuck in the ball and it hits the floor right in front of me. I need more distance! And while we're at it, maybe you could show me how you're supposed to "dribble" that thing.

Steve: Uh, sir.....

Guest: As you may know, I love a challenge so I took it out to the golf course. I teed it up and took a good swing at it with my favorite driver. I shattered the driver and barely knocked the ball off the tee. I need a lot more distance than that! And my hands are still stinging. Is there a special club or something? By the way, is it true that eighty million people bowled last year?

Steve: There's no exact figure, sir, but the actual number is probably even higher than that.

Guest: That's a lot people! Is this sport regulated?

Steve: I don't think so.....

Guest: I'll appoint a czar; maybe Mr. Ayers! He's always coming up with some real dynamite ideas! We'll issue a mandate requiring everyone to bowl!

Steve: I don't think that's necessary, sir. It's already the most popular sport.....

Guest: It's not about being popular; it's about creating jobs! Now, tell me more about this game.

Steve: Well, first of all, a bowling ball does not belong on a basketball court or a golf course. It's rolled down a lane with the intent of knocking down as many pins as possible.

Guest: The lanes are those long thingamabobs out there?

Steve: Correct.

Guest: What are those groove things on each side of the lane?

Steve: They used to be called gutters, but someone found that term to be offensive. Now we refer to them as channels.

Guest: Got it.....historically gutters, now channels.....

Steve: What's the tablet for, sir?

Guest: I'm just taking some notes to give to my "Bowling Czar." If we're going to regulate this, I want it done correctly.

Steve: Sir?

Guest: It's like this. Obviously, lanes have a far right and a far left. We'll go back to calling the far right side a "gutter" because to me, anything on the right is offensive. In that way, we honor this game's great history. We'll call the far left side of the lane, "MSNBC".

Steve: MSNBC?

Guest: Of course; the liberal CHANNEL! Get it? Ha-ha! It's a tribute to how this sport has progressed.

Ringtone ("Hail to the Chief!"): Dum, dum, ta-dum.....

Guest: Excuse me for a moment.....Yes? Of course it's me! Who else would.....

Steve: Excuse me, sir. I have some advice for you.

Guest: What?

Steve: It's one more use for that bowling ball of yours.

Guest: I'm listening!

Steve: Put that phone on the floor and drop this old, 16 pound, LT48 on it! SMASH!!!!!!!!!!

Guest: Oh, I could learn to like this game! That was sweet! Do you mind if I celebrate with a ciga-rette?

Steve: Sorry sir, smoking is banned here.

Guest: Darned regulators!

DEAF TRAVEL BOWLS AT BRUNSWICK COVINA LANES SUNDAY 11 AM

COVINA — So. California Deaf Traveling League will make its scheduled stop at Brunswick Covina Lanes this Sunday 23rd with bowling at 11 AM. In the league's 2012-13 season opener On Sept. 9 at Keystone Lanes, in case you missed the news, Francisco Navarro rolled the nation's deaf bowlers first perfect game of the new season. Dan Flores hit his 300 in a summer league at Jewel City Bowl early last August.

Navarro's career 4th perfecto, which came in the 4th game of his 879 series, is only the 2nd in this traveling League's 53 years history. Carl Malucci hit the first one 15 years ago and Mike Moore had 299 at Del Rio Lanes, followed by Bob Jones' 298 at Action Bowl.

Lets see how Navarro follows his season opening 219 average at Brunswick Covina Lanes. In this Traveling League's match points format, he will be challenged by Leroy MacMonagle who is now 2nd at 209 average. Also their teams are tied for first place in this early season.

CALIFORNIA USBC ASSOCIATION

California Pepsi Youth Bowling Championships Workshops

USBC is revamping their long-time format in the Pepsi Youth Bowling Championships with new age divisions and all scratch competition. Four divisions for both boys and girls will now be offered – U8, U12, U15 and U20. Previously, Pepsi had divisions for 11-under handicap and 12-up handicap or scratch divisions.

For Youth
Program
Directors and Coaches

NEW CALIFORNIA IS ADDING TO THIS NEW FORMAT AND WILL BE RUNNING A HANDICAP DIVISION ALONG WITH THESE NEW AGE DIVISIONS FOR 2013. This will allow new bowlers a chance to earn scholarships at the District Finals and at the State Finals. After 3 rounds of qualifying, we want to see both new bowlers and scratch bowlers have a chance to earn awards.

Five local Pepsi Workshops are scheduled to help explain these new tournament changes to Youth Program Directors and Coaches. Other Pepsi questions/issues such as help with filling out qualifying paperwork can also be answered. Please RSVP at least one week prior to lynn@calusbc.com if you can attend. Thank you for your support to youth bowling!

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

Too often bowling has been depicted as an activity that has overcome a sordid past.

As a youngster I sort of reluctantly accepted the oft repeated tales of drinking and gambling and assorted other ills as the main lure of the game, and not the thrill of rolling a ball and knocking down more pins than the other bowlers.

Early in my writing career I met some people who were involved with the early days of the sport and others who were related to or knew some of the pioneers of the game. One day a fellow sportswriter handed me a package, told me that an older woman had dropped it off for me and if I didn't want it to just throw it away.

It was a scrapbook of bowling articles that appeared from 1900 to 1905. I was surprised, fascinated, and proud, and eagerly devoured every word. It was all positive, maybe by design, maybe because that's the way it was. It had many a piece about women's bowling, informative, educational, and illustrative of a larger role women played than ever imagined.

Serving on various Hall of Fame and other committees I had the opportunity to peruse long ago publications and articles about the sport plus much of the research done by bowling scholars such as Al Matzelle, Bruce Pluckhahn and Herm Weiskopf.

Sure there was some gambling, drinking, plenty of needling, lip action, equipment tampering and all the rest that goes with the building of a sport, but there also was the touch of class given by builders, engineers, women, churches, athletic and social clubs and people from every walk of life.

That's why the restoration of a three alley bowling center, brand new back in 1899, has to be one of the brightest bowling stories of the past decade.

The Brunswick Foundation and Georgian Court University have teamed to bring back a bowling jewel of the past located on the campus of the school in Lakewood, N.J.

The alleys were constructed originally by the Brunswick Balke-Collender Company, now Brunswick Corp., a pioneering bowling firm that was founded in 1845, and became a world leader in a wide variety of products. The Foundation was established in 1957, and is deeply involved in projects and causes that enhance the interests of the company, employees and committees.

Georgian Court University was founded in 1908, and its main campus, though just minutes from busy, major Garden State super highways, has been designated a National Historic Landmark of architectural, social and cultural importance. It originally was the winter estate of George Jay Gould.

"Bowling has a long and rich history at Georgian Court. We are grateful to the Brunswick Foundation and delighted to bring this piece of history back to life", said Rosemary Jeffries, president of the school.

A part of the University's Casino building, the three lanes are almost as exactly as they were in 1899. The wooden, overhead ball returns, the lanes, and all other equipment. All meet today's specifications, though modern pins will be used and wooden bowling balls only as a way to try out century old bowling.

The Casino building is a historic monument in itself. At the time it was built, Casino was a word more applied to a sports complex than it was to today's primary definition as a home for gambling.

And what a complex it was. It housed and hosted indoor polo, indoor court tennis, swimming, and other sports, along with the well cared for bowling alleys,

The cream of the nation's best of society, industry and the arts and thousands of college students, mostly women, have enjoyed the alleys at Georgian Court as far back as 114 years ago, proof that bowling was not only acceptable, but an esteemed part of the sporting scene.

CERRITOS — Week four we rolled into Cerritos Lanes where the air was cool and the staff was helpful.

Doris Lewis was in a groove with a 213,215 and high series of 612. Terry Jackson shot a nice 204-524, Darlene Hom 235-523, Margo McClain 520 series and Bernice Williams with a 200-503. High Series for the day was a 2011 by Team 3, Westminster Lanes 1. The High Handicap Game of 710 was shot by team 8, Valley View 1.

So after four weeks of competition Westminster 1 is leading the way with 11 wins, 1 lost.

Westminster 2 and Valley View 2 are close behind with 9 wins 3 lost.

The McGill family dog is still homeless with a sad heart. Please help find it a new loving home. Contact Vi Wilson @ 562-498-7108 if you are interested.

We Are Full... 64 Bowlers Floored Last Night

LOOKS LIKE AN EXCITING SEASON!!

New Sponsor “Financial Advisors” Is Adding Money to Super Pots And Sweepers

7502 E. Florence Ave., Downey CA 90240 • (562) 927-3351

The Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season.

With 40 entries on Monday, the Financial Advisors sidepot is looking at $200 in the weekly sidepot and over $8000 estimated for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game.

Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot, will be adding $1,000 to the total collected. If you win 2 Super Pots all season you'll be ahead before we even get to sweepers with the $8000 payout. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

Not Everyone is Perfect, But Jimenez Was Week 2

DOWNEY — Week Two of the Ebonite League again produced some great scores on the “House Shot”. The “PRO APPROACH” team swept for 5 points on a 672 by Charles Weeks, a 700 even for Brandon Grant, 707 by Harry Wong and this weeks top gun—Vernon Adams tossing a 796 (279-279-238).

Team 12 (Pro Approach) is tied for first with Team 13 and Team 4 (All sponsors will claim teams next week). Team 13 snagged four points from Valmonte's foursome aided by a nice round 1001 “team” game 2. Team 4—also tied for the top spot—had the second highest team series of the night, 2798. Contributors were Chaune Merritt 591, Joe Jimenez 728 (300), Ramon Torres 742 and Leonard Ruiz 737.

The Side Pots, the Super Pot and the Series Pot were all claimed by Vernon Adams and Arnold Cheesman. Arnold didn't shoot the highest series of the night, but had his high games at the right time.

Joe Jimenez posted the only 300, with Eric Snow and Jon Diso close, to the end, with their 290's. The Jimenez 300 was worth $200.00 as part of the “Financial Advisors Pot”. Welcome back to bowling Roy Karnowski. Looks like “you still got game”!.

Jessica Diso should win all female honors this year (unless another gal joins)! Her 701 proves that she can hold her own in this league. Good job Jessica!

Now that the league is full, “Let the maneuvers begin”. Each round will have a different “shot”, testing the ability, flexibility and ball knowledge. Don't wait to see great bowlers on Saturday T.V.—venture to Downey, have a seat and enjoy the show every Monday night.

Mike Cammarata would like to thank all the bowlers who signed up and especially the ones that patiently waited for teams to be formed.
