Andy Toro Sets "Laughlin Blast" Record

by Frank and Therese Weiler

LAUGHLIN, Nevada – The LAUGHLIN BLAST TOURNAMENT is a senior no-tap handicap event contested twice a year. It brings approximately 200 bowlers from Arizona, CALIFORNIA and Nevada to compete for about $5,000 in prize money. More than the money, the tournament is an opportunity for seniors to compete and show they can still handle pressure. It gives us a chance to be young again and experience "THE THRILL OF VICTORY" just like the old days.

Andy Toro is a regular at "THE BLAST" and he usually shoots big scores every time he laces up his Dexters. This time around he outdid himself. He seemed to challenge the record book every squad. No surprise.

It's no surprise that Andy scored so high this time around. He is a Tournament tested bowler. He bowls in a tournament nearly every weekend. He competes throughout So-Cal and even makes regular trips to Nevada. He books in the 220s and has rolled numerous honor scores. With such a bowling resume, Andy is a threat to

Butturff Named IBMA Bowler Of The Month

Jakob Butturff of Tempe, Arizona, has been voted as the August 2018 Kegel Bowler of the Month by the International Bowling Media Association.

Butturff won his second PBA Tour title of 2018 as well as two PBA regional crowns during the month.

The left-hander downed Tom Daugherty of River-view, Florida, 217-182, for the PBA Xtra Frame Kenn-Feld Group Classic title in Coldwater, Ohio.

The two regional wins were the PBA Glo Bowl Midwest Open presented by 900 Global in Marengo, Illinois, and the PBA Tony Reyes Memorial West/

Northwest Member/Non Member Doubles in San Jose, California, with Ryan Nikolas.

Now, with his second PBA Tour title this season, Butturff has added his name for 2018 PBA Chris Schenkel Player of the Year consideration with the other two-time titlists, Andrew Anderson, E.J. Tackett and reigning PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte.

Also receiving votes this month were Stefanie Johnson, winner of the PWBA Players Championship, Anthony Simonsen, winner of the PBA Xtra Frame Gene Carter's Pro Shop Classic, Rocio Re-

It's All About Passion for Bowlers

by Fred Eisenhammer

WOODLAND HILLS – One night during league play at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills, Cecil Fine, a lights-out bowler, creaked to the line and tossed a misguided shot that barely connected with the pins.

And throughout that night about four years ago, Fine continued to throw wild shots uncharacteristic of this precise bowler who's averaged in the 180s

Kyle Troup: Urethane Isn't A Crutch

by Lucas Wiseman

In the wake of Kyle Troup's victory over Jason Belmonte to win the 2018 Storm Lucky Larsen Masters, we caught up with Troup as he was heading to Team USA training camp in Arlington, Texas.

Troup offered some insight on his strategy of using a urethane ball to win the title and why he thinks urethane has become so popular with professional bowlers.

Why did you decide to throw urethane in the final?

"Going into the stepladder, I knew I was going to have to bowl two games and didn't want to have to beat Belmo at his game, so that's why I threw urethane. I knew (Christopher) Sloan was throwing urethane, and Bill (O'Neill) wasn't going to destroy the lane using urethane, so I knew the shot was going to be there. It was just a matter of executing shots in the stepladder."

So, it sounds like you were pretty comfortable with your ball reaction throwing urethane going into the stepladder?

"Yeah, definitely. I grinded to get to the stepladder. They got really ugly the last two games in the eight-game round. I knew if I got to the ladder, then I had a shot to win because I was probably averaging at least 240 on fresh. The left lane was a little tighter, but I was playing them just about the same. I was trying to throw it a little slower and maybe hit it a little harder on the left lane throughout the two matches. It was pretty simple for me, just trying to stay in the moment and take it one shot at a time, especially bowling Belmo I knew I was going to need 10 good shots probably."

On the fill ball in the semifinal, you threw a reactive ball. Did you think about changing?

"The last shot, I took a look at it, but I knew I wasn't going to do it. The lanes weren't really changing that much with the urethane ball and Belmo was so much further left. I

Eight Berths at Stake for End-of-Season PBA Clash, 2019 FOX Preview

Contenders hope to follow Kyle Troup's example with five events remaining on 2018 schedule

CHICAGO – The Professional Bowlers Association Clash, which will air on FOX on Sunday, Dec. 23 to usher in the PBA's historic 2019 television agreement with FOX Sports, will be a unique end-of-season "eliminator" event, showcasing the 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour's eight earnings leaders.

The PBA Clash will showcase eight of the PBA's premier stars who will qualify for the event based on total earnings in 2018, including prize money yet-to-be-won in the WBT Thailand in Bangkok Sept. 22-28; the FloBowling PBA Fall Swing (including the Wolf Open, Bear Open and Tulsa Open) at The Lanes at Coffee Creek in suburban Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 15-20, and U.S. Open at Northrock Lanes in Wichita, Kan., Oct. 24-31.

After last week's PBA-WBT Storm Lucky Larsen Masters in Sweden, the eight earnings leaders were Jason Belmonte, Anthony Simonsen, Dom Barrett, Andrew Anderson, EJ Tackett, Marshall Kent, Kyle Troup and Jakob Butturff. Close behind were Bill O'Neill, Tom Smallwood, Matt O'Grady and Jesper Svensson. There is ample room for PBA members to make big moves in the final five events, just like Troup, the Lucky Larsen Masters winner, did when he earned a $16,385 first prize to move into the top eight.

The Clash will feature a unique format beginning with all eight players bowling a ninth and 10th frame. Based on total pinfall for the two-frame round, the low score will be eliminated. Starting with the second round, competition will shift to a one-ball, low-man-out format until two survivors remain. The last two survivors will bowl a traditional game to decide the PBA Clash winner-take-all prize is $25,000.

The 90-minute telecast will include biographical profiles of the eight Clash players, and it will include the announcements of the 2018 Chris Schenkel PBA Player of the Year and Harry Golden PBA Rookie of the Year.

PBA INTERNATIONAL-WORLD BOWLING TOUR RETURNS TO BANGKOK SEPT. 22-28

BANGKOK – The next stop for PBA Tour players who are chasing the top eight places on the 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour earnings list for a berth in the end-of-season PBA Clash will be the PBA International-World Bowling Tour Thailand, Sept. 22-28, at Blu-O Rhythm & Bowl Paragon in Bangkok where the tournament’s US$32,250 first prize could play a significant role in the 2018 earnings race.

The WBT Thailand format includes three three-game qualifying blocks with nine-game pinfall totals determining the 42 players who will advance to Round Two which involves qualifiers 25-42 bowling six games (all previous pins are dropped). The top 10 from Round Two will join qualifiers 9-24 for another six-game block in Round Three. The top 12 from Round Three will join qualifiers 1-8 for the six-game Round Four.

Round Four will decide the seven players who will join the highest-qualifying Thai player for the final round on Friday, Sept. 28, that will be a modified stepladder schedule. Match One will include Finalists 6, 7 and 8. The winner moves on to Match Two along with finalists 4 and 5. That winner bowls Finalist 3 in Match Three. The Match Three winner bowls Finalist 2 in the Semifinal Match. The Semifinal winner advances to the championship match where he/she has to beat Finalist 1 twice in order to win the event.

The winner will earn a PBA Tour title if he/she is a PBA member and doesn’t accept handicap pins (like many WBT events, WBT Thailand offers women 8 handicap pins per game. PBA fans can follow the Thailand tournament online through the Asian Bowling Federation’s website: <http://www.abf-online.org/results/ttbawbt18.htm>. Thailand’s Jojoe Yannaphon, a PBA member, is the defending champion. In 2017, Yannaphon was high qualifier and defeated Sweden’s two-handed star, Jesper Svensson, 212-202, to earn his first PBA Tour title.

The WBT Thailand is also a WBT points event. The top three men and top three women in WBT points for the 2018 season will compete in the World Bowling Tour Finals presented by the PBA which will be contested at the International Training and Research Center in Arlington, Texas, for airing on FS1 on Sunday, March 10, at 7 p.m.

It was not the dead-eye Cecil Fine whom Woodlake Lanes bowlers had become accustomed to watching. It was easy to see something was ailing the veteran right-hander and it later came out that Fine was suffering from back pains that he was trying unsuccessfully to stifle with medication.

Fine was bowling because he wanted to spend quality time with longtime friends Ken Borshell, Randy Silverman and Larry Menzer and that was more important than enduring piercing pain for a couple of hours.

Fine happens to be one of the many bowlers who have a passion for the sport.

It’s a passion that so many league and pro bowlers possess that sets them apart from athletes in other sports. It’s why league bowlers rarely call in sick; they’d rather bowl sickly than sit out a night because they’re not feeling well.

These scenarios play over and over each week at bowling centers.

How about iron-man Jamie Beeler’s refusal to skip his league outing despite suffering from the worst kind of kidney stones imaginable?

That happened five years ago when the Chatsworth resident kept popping Advil to keep him bowling for as long as he could.

Fortunately, he survived his bowling night and was able to make it home before he needed to be rushed to the hospital to tend to his super painful stones.

Can you imagine tennis players being so devoted to their sport?

Can you image golfers being so deeply passionate about their game?

Then there’s Eric Haugsby’s story. The Woodland Hills resident got into a severe car accident during the day and wound up still bowling that night despite being shaken up and suffering from bruises and lacerations.

It’s called passion.

How do you explain it?

Is it just because bowlers don’t want to let their teammates down by failing to show? Do they just not want to miss out on a couple hours of fun that only bowling can provide?

How about the story of Theo Sojourn, a Santa Clarita Valley resident? How many golfers and tennis players would do what Sojourn did?

He broke two bones in his right forearm in a snowboarding accident, but that didn’t force this right-handed bowler into abandoning the game that he was just taking up and beginning to love.

Sojourn simply shifted to throwing the ball left-handed, which resulted in several woe-ful double-digit scores at Brunswick Matador Bowl in Northridge before he managed to elevate his game.

Knowing full well he was going to be sidelined for a few months, Sojourn instead taught himself a left-handed baby hook and then crushed an electrifying and career-best 240 game only six weeks after converting to his “off” hand. Would golfers try such an extreme approach to stay in the game? How about tennis players? Don’t think so.

Sojourn risked public ridicule and perhaps injury by plodding through some embarrassing series with his left hand just so he wouldn’t let his teammates down and he could stay connected to his sport. That’s called passion. Or craziness. One or the other.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: ANDY PATTERSON WINS GRAND CASINO INVITATIONAL

Andy Patterson from Tyler, Texas defeated Chris Hibbitts II from Keller, Texas, to win the fifth annual PBA Grand Casino Resort & Hotel Southwest Invitational at FireLake Bowling Center in Shawnee, Okla., Sunday. The entire event was live-streamed by PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling.

Patterson, who earned his sixth PBA Regional title, was able to string strikes while Hibbitts had trouble adjusting to the final pair’s conditions, topping him, 220-158, to claim the $4,000 winner’s check.

After 12 games of qualifying, both players had long roads to the final match. After qualifying 13th, Patterson started his road to victory by downing Houston PBA50 player David Scardaville, 2-0, in the best-of-three-game Round of 16; David Krol from Nixa, Mo., 2-1, in the Round of 12, and Tyler Albracht of Amarillo, Texas, 2-1 in the Round of 8. In the semifinal round, he eliminated newly-inducted PBA Southwest Hall of Famer Mark Scroggins of Canyon, Texas, 279-243.

Hibbitts, who had won two previous PBA Regionals at FireLake, qualified 14th and defeated Sean Lavery-Spah from Pasadena, Texas, 2-1; Joe Findling from Mesquite, Texas, 2-0; Shawn Maldonado of Houston, 2-1, and Devin Bidwell of Wichita, Kan., 236-160, before Patterson ended his bid for another PBA title.

As part of the tournament weekend, Scroggins and Junction City Bowl proprietor and long-time PBA Regional tournament host Joe Ellison from Junction City, Kan., were inducted into the PBA Southwest Region Hall of Fame.

- Steve Lickliter of Beckley, W.Va., won the PBA60 Wilson & Sons Pest Control Open title in Mooresville, N.C.; Stoney Baker of Canton, Ga., notched his 31st PBA regional win in the PBA50 Samuel Adams Mooresville South Open presented by Columbia 300, and Bill Peters of Dayton, Ohio, won his first PBA title in the PBA60 Kingsport Southern Open presented by Storm to complete the PBA South Region’s annual extended Labor Day “tripleheader” at Warpath Lanes in Kingsport, Tenn.
- Lickliter kicked off the series by defeating Sam Ventura of Syracuse, N.Y., 214-207, in the final of the PBA60 Wilson & Sons event at Victory Lanes in Mooresville, N.C., on Sept. 1. Two days later, Stoney Baker came out striking with the front five to defeat PBA Hall of Famer and defending champion Tom Baker (no relation) of King, N.C., 258-220, in the PBA50 event, also at Victory Lanes in Mooresville.
- Along with his 15th regional title, Lickliter earned $2,200. Stoney Baker earned $2,300 in the PBA50 event.
- The South Region players then traveled to Tennessee where Peters was the top qualifier. A recent “super senior” after turning 60 on Dec. 27, Peters defeated no. 2 qualifier Sammy Ventura of Syracuse, N.Y., 259-181, to win the PBA60 title and $1,600 in Kingsport.

- Also in the PBA South Region, Brandon Curtis of Manson, N.C. won his first PBA title Sunday, defeating Matt Martin of Axton, Va., 278-246, to win the 15th annual PBA Fayetteville South Open at Lafayette Lanes in Fayetteville, N.C. Curtis, who qualified in the fourth-and-final position for the four-man stepladder finals with a 17-game total of 4,199 pins – one pin ahead of PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. – disposed of Mike Coffey of Melbourne, Fla., in opening match, 268-245, and easily defeated Dick Allen of Columbia, S.C., 265-226, in the semifinal contest to advance to the championship match.
- In the title match Curtis started with nine strikes to grab a healthy lead while Martin fumbled early. Despite a six-strike rally from the fourth frame to the 10th, it wasn’t enough to catch Curtis who earned $2,400 along with his title.

- Rick Graham of Lancaster, Pa. compiled a 6-1-1 match play record on his way to a 69-pin victory over tournament sponsor Brian LeClair of Albany, N.Y. in the PBA50 Brian LeClair’s Revolutions Pro Shop Eastern Open at Boulevard Bowl in Schenectady, N.Y., Sunday.
- Graham, who finished second in last year’s event, survived a 178 final game in qualifying to advance to the semifinal round. He then led the semifinal round to advance to the round robin finals, where he retained the lead to the end, posting a total of 2,083 pins for the eight-game final round, including match play bonus pins, to out-distance LeClair’s 2,014 total.
- The win was Graham’s fourth in PBA Regional competition, but his first in PBA50 competition. He earned $1,500 for the win while LeClair, who rolled a 279 in the position round to move into second place, earned $900.

- John Dudak of Orland Park, Ill., defeated Brian Menini of Brookfield, Mo., 254-163, to win the PBA50 Diamond Jo Casino Midwest Open at Cherry Lanes in Dubuque, Iowa, Sunday, for his first PBA title after competing in more than 200 events as a “senior” bowler.
- The 64-year-old Dudak, a veteran of 103 PBA50 Tour and 115 PBA50 regional events, earned a $1,600 prize. He defeated Menini after Menini eliminated Jon Schure of Ripon, Wis., 259-223, in the first match and Dean Mueller of Arlington Heights, Ill., 222-180, in the semifinal contest.

- September’s PBA Regional calendar continues over the Sept. 21-23 weekend with the PBA/PBA50 Millsboro Lanes Eastern Doubles in Millsboro, Del.; the one-day Florence Bowling Center Central Open in Florence, Ky.; the PBA50 Cherokee Lanes South Open presented by Roto Grip in Canton, Ga.; the Lubbock Sports Southwest Challenge at South Plains Lanes in Lubbock, Texas, the one-day Mockingbird Lanes PBA and PBA50 Midwest Open doubleheader presented by Hammer in Omaha, Neb., and a Northwest/West tripleheader at Paradise Lanes in Tacoma, Wash., including the Always Painting Northwest/West Open presented by Vac-Tec; the Gary Mage PBA50 Northwest/West Open presented by Great American Casino, and the Jeanne Naccarato Women’s Open.
- The September PBA Regional schedule concludes over the Sept. 28-30 weekend with the Bluffton Central/Midwest Open at EZ Bowl in Bluffton, Ind.; the PBA50 J&L Sports South Open at Paradise Lanes in Spartanburg, S.C., and the Double Decker West/Northwest Open presented by Roto Grip in Rohnert Park, Calif. The Double Decker event will be live-streamed by PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling.

- For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the “schedules” tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow “live scoring” for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple device users using the PBA app).

☐ APPRENTICE* (205 Avg-Under Handicap)

Youth may participate, provided a USBC Scholarship waiver accompanies entry.*

FORMAT: 5 GAMES QUALIFYING

The top 6 bowlers in each division will advance to a single game double elimination bracket. The two champions will bowl a one game match to determine the overall champion of the tournament. Handicap (90% of 205) will apply for the Apprentice Champion.

APPRENTICE DIV. AVERAGE INFO:

- A. Highest Winter 2017-18 OR 2016-17
USBC certified book average, 21 games or more; If none,
B. Enter SCRATCH.

Bowlers are responsible for verifying their own averages. Any falsification of the highest known average will result in immediate and final disqualification. If a "sport" league average is the bowler's only verifiable average, it should be marked with an "SP" in the average box and will be adjusted per the USBC Sport Chart to determine the correct entering average.

set records every time on the lanes.

This summer’s BLAST was the 8th event in Tournament history. We have bowled in seven of the competitions and have never seen such consistency and dominance as was displayed by Andy Toro this time around.

During the three days of competition Andy rolled four perfect 300 games and a whopping 897 (297-300-300). With handicap his three game total was 924!!! We believe Andy’s four perfect games in three days, and 897 series are Laughlin Blast records.

For the three days of competition, Andy’s All-Events score was 2,603 (839 - 840 - 924). His total for nine games is the highest our sources could recall, in tournament history. That handicap total calculates out to a 289 per game average!

Andy used a Hyroad 300 Pearl to bowl his scores. We liked our old Hyroads a decade ago. Maybe we need to try this new version of a classic bowling ball.

Great bowling Andy. We look forward to competing against you next January.

XTRA FRAME ON FLOBOWLING VISITS NORTH CAROLINA, CALIFORNIA

Closing out the month, PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling will visit North Carolina and California to cover another weekend doubleheader: the PBA50 Storm Invitational at Planet Fun Bowling and Entertainment Center in Shallotte, N.C., and a PBA Regional event, the PBA Double Decker West/Northwest Open presented by Roto Grip from Double Decker Lanes in Rohnert Park, Calif., Sept. 29-30.

The PBA50 Invitational, Saturday and Sunday, Sept.29-30, will involve a field of 14 including 2018 PBA50 Player of the Year Michael Haugen Jr., PBA50 Cup winner Brian Kretzer, PBA60 Player of the Year Ron Mohr, Walter Ray Williams Jr., Norm Duke, Parker Bohn III, Lennie Boesch Jr., Amleto Monacelli, Ryan Shafer, Bob Learn Jr., Pete Weber, Harry Sullins, Brian Voss and Johnny Petraglia.

All PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling events are covered live from start to finish. One last reminder: existing Xtra Frame subscribers need to transition their current subscriptions to FloBowling by visiting <https://www.flo-bowling.com/claim-account>. New subscribers can enroll at FloBowling.com.

The Clash also will include a preview of the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour schedule of 30 telecasts on FOX and FS1, resulting in 60 hours of national television coverage in 2019 – twice as many hours as last year. The 10 hours of live broadcast network coverage on FOX is the most for bowling in 20 years. Combined with FS1 telecasts, the PBA will bring its fans 38 hours of live TV, almost five times as much as 2018.

The final PBA International-World Bowling Tour event of 2018 will be the WBT Thailand at Blu-O Rhythm & Bowl Paragon in Bangkok, offering a $32,250 first prize. PBA fans can follow the Thailand tournament online through the Asian Bowling Federation’s website: <http://www.abf-online.org/results/ttbawbt18.htm>. Thai native Jojoe Yannaphon is the defending champion.

The FloBowling PBA Fall Swing will include the two-day Wolf Open (Oct. 15-16), two-day Bear Open (Oct. 17-18) and the two-day Tulsa Open (Oct. 19-20). The Tulsa Open will be an 18-game round robin match play event for the top 18 qualifiers based on combined 24-game pin-fall totals after the Wolf and Bear rounds (12 games in each). PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling will cover all three events, live from first ball to last. First prize in the Wolf and Bear Opens will be $10,000. The winner of the Tulsa Open will earn $30,000.

The final qualifying event for the PBA Clash will be the 2018 season’s final major championship, the U.S. Open. CBS Sports Network will air the finals live on Wednesday, Oct. 31. The U.S. Open will offer a $30,000 first prize.

CLAREMONT NONPROFIT SEEKS TEAMS, INDIVIDUALS FOR BOWLING FUNDRAISER

The annual Balls O’ Fire fundraiser helps people living with HIV/AIDS

Laura Silvius, Development Manager • Foothill AIDS Project • (909) 482-2066 ext. 313 • laura@fapinfo.org

CLAREMONT/RANCHO CUCAMONGA – Bowling for a good cause is easy when you do it with Foothill AIDS Project. The Claremont-based nonprofit holds its 16th Annual Balls O’ Fire Celebrity Bowling Tournament at 11:30 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 14 at Brunswick Deer Creek Lanes in Rancho Cucamonga, and seeks teams and individuals from the bowling community to participate.

“This is our largest, longest-running fundraiser, and it’s essential to our fundraising success each year,” Executive Director Maritza Tona said. “More than that, though, it’s a lot of fun!”

Foothill AIDS Project works with Hollywood producer David Mirisch to invite television, film, and sports stars to lend their name and face to the event. Each team gets a celebrity to bowl with, and friendships often develop between the celebrities and families that come year after year.

“When we first started the Celebrity Bowling Tournament, I took my children to bowl in the event. These days, my children are taking their children,” said FAP Founding Board Member Michael Maher. “My grandchildren especially love bowling with some of the celebrities that they know from the Disney Channel and the other celebrities who participate in the event year after year. We always look forward to the Balls O’ Fire bowling tournament.”

Foothill AIDS Project offers a fundraising page for each individual or team wishing to participate in the event. Setting up and sharing a fundraising page through email or social media is a fun and easy way to crowdfund the registration fee and spread the word about your participation in a local community fundraiser.

Reserving a spot at Balls O’ Fire is easy. Simply text ‘Ballsofire’ to 51555 to register as a team of four or as an individual. From there, create a team name and profile, and easily share! Use your smartphone, tablet or other device, or visit the Balls O’ Fire page of FAP’s website at fapinfo.org/balls-o-fire.

- Admission into the event includes:
- Photo opportunity with celebrities
 - Two rounds of bowling plus one round of cosmic bowling, all with a celebrity guest
 - Shoe rental
 - Lunch provided by our generous sponsor BJ’s Restaurant & Brewhouse
 - Access to the Silent Auction table
 - Entry into the competition for top prizes
 - Opportunity to win door prizes

Joy Mahaffey and CJ Valleroy get very competitive about bowling at the Balls O’ Fire Celebrity Bowling Tournament.

Individual registration includes one guest pass with access to all the above benefits for $125. Team registration admits up to 10 people for $500. Bring family members and friends to enjoy free lunch by BJ’s and enter the silent auction for free air fare, gift cards, gift boxes from MAC Cosmetics, and other wonderful prizes!

If you meet your fundraising goals, we encourage you to keep going! The more funds you raise, the more lanes people you get—and every team or individual that raises over $1,000

This event is unlike any other bowling tournament you have been to. Besides the chance to meet the stars and compete for prizes, you get to spend a day helping raise funds to fight HIV throughout southern California.

Foothill AIDS Project began offering support to people living with HIV and AIDS in 1987. Today, FAP offers a full spectrum of programs and services that empower over 2,600 clients across over 28,000 square miles in three counties to manage their own long-term health goals. Integrated treatment and chronic care management, paired with stable housing planning and outreach, provide many tools for people living with HIV/AIDS to live longer, healthier, and more stable lives.

Evan Disney, CJ Valleroy and Blanca Blanco love bowling for life each year at the Balls O’ Fire Celebrity Bowling Tournament.

1986 – PART 1

by Carol Mancini

We are zooming thru the years now. Lots of new centers, new scorekeeping equipment, innovative balls, super stars and rule changes. Are you ready? Let's goooooo!

- January 1, page 1 — the headline read “Southland Great Howard Holmes Dies”
- The #2 story was the limited number of Team Spots left for the W.I.B.C. Tournament to be held in Orange County.
- ROSANNE HEINZ and KEN LOWMAN were married in Reno.
- The JAT, headed by MICKEY COLLETTI had two great bowlers on their roster. Both were hearing impaired - MARK FISSER and CARL MALUCCI. We will read more about them in the coming years. MICKEY not only ran the JAT he sold BLUE CHIP STAMPS by the millions to So. Calif. centers. A very interesting guy with an interesting hair piece. Remember?
- ROMY CAJUCOM won 3 MWBC Titles in 1985. Watch out, he never lets up.
- MARK FISSER (I told you!) won a televised JAT! POLLY HALE won the girls division. Who did FISSER beat? MALICCI of course.
- PAUL BARRACO won a paid entry into the PBA at GABLE HOUSE slated for January 13-18.
- All centers were supposedly equipped with pins weighing 3 pounds 6 ounces to test if averages would go up, down or remain the same. Big flop - My crystal ball did better.
- Robby's new Gladiator glove “produced more revs, better strike carries and higher scores” All this for $24.95. It never replaced his original “Positioner”.
- RANDY PEDERSON chalked up his first PBA victory at UNION SQUARE LANES in UNION CITY. At age 16 he won the 1979 Junior Elims at CANOGA PARK. THE “CHUCK” YEAGER presented the trophy!!!
- TED FAVORITE - Manager of COVINA BOWL and WEST COVINA LANES retired after 27 years with the Brutocao family. He knew the name of every bowler in every league. His favorite job in the centers was instructing.
- ROBIN ROMEO was averaging 204, which was fifth highest in the U.S. Only 71 ladies in California were averaging 190 or better.
- Another weekend lane challenge to become popular — “Moonlight No-Tap”. The champ would pocket $200.00 plus side pots at WONDERBOWL DOWNEY.
- The question last year was “What kind of a ball should I buy??” This year’s question is “What weight ball should I buy???” Bowlers always have tough questions for the pro shop guys! Wrong answers could kill a shop.
- The A.B.C. had lanes built in Vegas for Nationals which would run 134 days. 10,019 teams entered! BARRY ASHER was on-sight driller.
- GLENN ALLISON was the spokesperson for a new gadget - - - the “Bowler’s Arc Exerciser”. It was supposed to condition hand and finger muscles, loosen joints, simulate ball delivery without the use of a ball. (Never saw one -- did you??)
- An A.B.C. Amendment up for vote at the Convention — “allow the use of various colored pins in sanctioned competition.”
- KEN DALEIDEN gave all his ABT members new shirts. Best looking club in California.
- CLAIREMONT BOWL in San Diego was managed by KEN HUBBARD. His house specialty was a monthly “Honor Roll” Tournament. If you were listed on any house league honor roll --- you were eligible! Ken’s secret to having a full house was his ability to “buy leagues” from other centers. He had many secretaries (male and female) on his payroll. League stealing was big only a few years — AND he played a lousy game of golf!
- P.J. CARROLL announced his new stable of P.B.A. Pros; WARREN NELSON, BUTCH SOPER, JIM TILTON, JIM WINKLEPLECK, MIKE BOUVIA, JOE SALVEMINI and PALMER FALLGREN. Who???
- Ground was broken for THE CONCOURSE in Arlington 40 AMF LANES were sold to JOHN WILSON by BYRON CLICK. (Top Salesman for AMF.)
- FRANK DE MASCIO died. He partly owned LUCKY LANES, WESTBROOK, VALLEY VIEW and VERDUGO HILLS.
- JIM MURTISHAW won the PBA Regional Open at RON-RI LANES.
- OAK TREE LANES in Diamond Bar was scheduled to open in May. 36 lanes and Brunswick Color Automatic Scorers were all set.
- The A.B.C. had 31 proposed amendments to be voted on at the convention. For instance: ABC dues raised from $2.00 to $3.50, lane dressing, to recognize summer league averages, permit the use of colored pins in sanctioned competition, auto-matic scoring mistakes, established a Dutch 20 Game Award, and a bowler must pay for a sanction card BEFORE bowling his first game of the season. What passed?????
- DAVE HURD opened a Pro Shop in JAVA LANES. JIM BREWER’S shop was in GRANANA HILLS LANES. FRED EASTWOOD drilled at SOUTHWEST, BILL STEMPEKE fitted and drilled at MISSION HILLS. Great guys — very knowledgeable.
- “It-Nosis”. Bowlers could increase their average thru personnel hypnosis sessions with Dr. Bez. Say what?????
- WALTER RAY WILLIAMS JR. won his first P.B.A. Crown and won $27,000. He was living in Stockton at the time. At age 26 he was also a champion horse shoe pitcher.
- “Actor DON AMECHE carried a 160 average in 1937.” (Who dug up THAT info?)
- JAT juniors RICK BARBARIA and JULIE GARDNER won titles at LA HABRA. Names we would read about for years.
- Nasty letters from every notable in the Bowling World were sent to the bowling newspapers and magazines protesting Mary Lou Retton’s Choice for “Bowling Spokesperson”. She had never bowled. She was just cute and a good athlete. ABC didn’t get $200,000 worth of good-will. Bad decision!!
- The 1986 WIBC Tournament was held in Orange County. Hosting centers were TUSTIN LANES and KONA LANES. It was the third largest in W.I.B.C. history. Only 2 (1973 & 1983) in Vegas were larger.
- ALLEN SHAW — CORBIN BOWL — Proprietor handed out 300 awards three weeks in a row. His smile got bigger every week. Tom Leigh won the League Officers Tournament and got snapped with Shaw!
- Ron Winger and Al Horn were elected to So. Calif. Hall of Fame.
- HARRY GRANT announced to his leagues at ENCINO BOWL that it would be closing on May 15.
- FRANK STOPPA- age 85- rolled his first 300 game at HOLLYWOOD STAR. He bowled 8 leagues a week and was secretary in 6 in 1986. He had bowled 33 years at that time. Add up those games!
- Dr. JACK MANN - owner of TUSTIN LANES- once set pins for ANDY VARIPAPA.
- DONNA ZIMMERMAN was the “Mistress of Ceremonies” for the W.I.B.C. OPENING. BETTY SCHEGEL was California State President. Ramona Clark headed the Orange County W.I.B.C. Flora Mitchell, W.I.B.C. executive secretary greeted the crowd. Mayor Greinke rolled the first ball. AND AWAY WE GO!! HUSTLE ON TO PART II OF 1986

INVITATIONAL

Teams 9 and 4 Move To 9-1 After Two Weeks

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY – As the Brunswick Invitational took to the lanes for Week 2, scoring was all over the place as the field rounded out to 18 teams and bowlers adjusted to the shot after their week one experience.

In the “A” match, Team 9 and Team 14 were the high 5-0 teams after week one. Team 9 continued to put up big numbers led once again by Eddie VanDaniker and his 724 set. Harry Wong and Arnold Cheesman both put up 628 sets in the one-win effort.

In the “B” match, Team 2 and Team 4 put their perfect records on the line. Team 4 took the 4-1 victory to move them to 9-1 led by Paul Baracco’s 643 set. Mikey Villarreal was big for Team 2 with a 723 set. Team 4 will be in the “A” match next week facing Team 9.

Team 11 and Team 7 had matching 4-1 records going into their match but it was Team 11 moving to 8-2 with the 4-1 win. Danny Wilson scored big for Team 11 with a 688 set while Tony Velasco led Team 7 with a solid 649 effort.

Team 6 was the low of the 4-1 teams matching up with 3.5-win Team 16. Team 16 took the 4-1 win led by Lee Liu’s big 723 set. Will Hinkley paced Team 6 with a 661 set.

Teams 17 and 18 joined the league after missing week one and put their default 2.5-2.5 records against each other. Team 18 was a one-man plus three subs effort that led to a 4-1 win over Team 17. Joel Arcineaga led Team 18 with a 630 set while Leonard Ruiz Jr. paced Team 17 with a 593 set.

Team 15 and Team 8 were looking to get on track after rough outings to start the league. Team 15 came ready to bowl as the swept through Team 8 led by Eric Hefner’s huge 753 set. Brandon Grant led Team 8 with a 644 set.

Teams 12 and 5 were matched up at 1-4 going into tonight’s action. Team 5 came out big the first game but it was all Team 12 from there as they took the match 4-1. Joe Jimenez put up a nice 672 set for Team 12 while sub Scott Hong paced Team 5 with a 633 series.

Junior Amateur Tour and Team 3 met up in a battle of winless teams. J.A.T. was looking to bounce back after a 2623 set left them winless in week one, but their 2563 this week was good enough for a 4-1 win. Anthony Santos was steady for J.A.T. with a nice 674 set while Charles Zelaya struck his way to a 694 set for Team 3.

Teams 13 and 1 were looking to get into the win column as they faced off tonight. Team 13 took games 1 and 3 by enough for totals and the 4-1 win. Austin Karns went 703 and Michael Barnett went 701 to pace Team 13 while Kevin Jones’ 654 let the way for Team 1.

Charles Zelaya (279) grabs the Financial Advisor’s pot for $180 with 2nd going to Erick Hefner (256) for $75. First-place sidepots went to Lee Liu (245) and Charles Zelaya (279) for $40 each, and second-places to Mikey Villarreal (238 and 254) for $20 each. Lee Liu (276) takes the third-game SuperPot for $140 with second going to Eddie VanDaniker (242) for $40. Strikeout pot carries over again as it most likely will the entire first round.

Come on down and see some of Southern California’s greatest bowlers battle every Monday night at 8:30 at Del Rio Lanes. See you all next week!

WORKING
DIRTY.

The all-white color of the Quantum Bias offers enhanced hook characteristics because of the unique traction additive found in our exclusive white pigment. The Bias also has 3.5 times more coverstock for increased durability and hitting power. This ball works harder. Welcome the dirt.
