Our newest champion, Tom Winninghoff, lives in Long Beach. Tom is a multi-time champion and sports a high game of 297 and a high series of 690. Tom was using Brunswick Activator drilled by Jeff Carr for the win this weekend. Tom wanted to thank his girlfriend, Sufen, for her encouragement and support and Jeff for taking care of his equipment. Tom also wanted to thank Westminster Lanes for hosting the tournament and the ABT directors for running an outstanding tournament.

Bob Frey was the winner of the optional Senior Sweeper with a 656. The winner of the 2-game sweeper was Gerry Manuel with a 494.

The Mystery Game Pot game and score were drawn after our final squad. The Mystery Game (game 2) was 252. The Mystery Series was 651. There were two bowlers with a 252 and 651, but neither

Walter Ray Williams Jr. Adds 2010 PBA Senior Rookie of the Year to Long List of Honors

SEATTLE, Wash. (Sept. 21, 2010) – Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. added another milestone to his illustrious career by earning the 2010 PBA Senior Rookie of the Year award. Robert Harvey of Boise, Idaho was selected the Senior Tour's Dick Weber Sportsmanship Award winner.

Williams, the 50-year-old Senior Tour rookie who earned a record seventh PBA Player of the Year honor earlier in the year, got the news of his award at home in Ocala, Fla., where he is recuperating from recent hernia surgery.

As a rookie on the Senior Tour, Williams won the PBA Senior Miller High Life Classic in Mooresville, N.C., in his Senior Tour debut. He also finished second to 2010 Senior Player of the Year Wayne Webb in the United States Bowling Congress Senior Masters and had back-to-back third-place finishes in the PBA Senior Lake County Indiana and Senior Pepsi Opens.

Williams, the PBA Tour's all-time leader in wins with 47 titles, challenged for Senior Player of the Year going into the final tournament of the season and would have been the first to earn both honors in the same year, but Webb's victory eliminated any chance for that honor.

"It seems a little odd to win a Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year award in the same year but I had a great time bowling on the Senior Tour," Williams said. "I was shooting for Player of the Year but Wayne bowled very well and he was able to clinch that award in the last tournament of the season.

"I enjoyed meeting the new guys and bowling against some of the others I had bowled against in the past, but I can tell you that there are plenty of good players on the Senior Tour."

Williams discovered he had a hernia at the Senior Pepsi Open in Decatur in August but was able to finish the season before heading home to have it checked out.

"I woke up one morning and noticed a slight bump; otherwise I wouldn't have known it was there. There was no pain and it didn't really affect my bowling," Williams said. "I had it checked out when I got back home and the doctor said 'yeah, it's a hernia.'"

"Fortunately we were able to schedule the surgery so I'll be ready for the World Series of Bowling (which begins the PBA Tour season Oct. 24 in Las Vegas). I need to stay away from heavy lifting for the next three weeks or so but I should be ready to continue a normal schedule a week or so prior to the start of the season."

Bowling Proprietors' Association of America Hits a 25-Year Mark by Adding the 4000th Member

Minnesota Bowling Center Recognized as the Newest Center to Realize the Benefits of Membership.

ARLINGTON—The Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA), announced today that it once again surpassed the 4,000 membership mark. Jason Oskerson, from Kee Lanes in Kiester, MN was officially recognized as the 4,000th member to the join the prestigious organization dedicated to enhancing the profitability of bowling centers.

The BPAA has experienced steady membership growth by continually enhancing benefits for bowling centers to advance their market position and build revenue. From unprecedented savings through national "Smart Buy" agreements with Pepsi, Sysco Foods, music licensing, insurance programs and others to the marketing tools, educational programs and networking opportunities, BPAA members have a wealth of opportunities to develop new market segments while returning dollars to their bottom line.

"Here at Kee lanes, we look forward to participating in many of the BPAA Smart Buy national programs," said Jason Oskerson, owner of Kee Lanes. "The money-saving programs along with their innovative marketing tools should really help us grow. We are proud to be recognized as the 4,000th member."

The BPAA represents the business interests of bowling centers domestically and is expanding to include centers in Canada, Australia and other countries. The current 4,000 membership number equates to more than 85% of the lanes in the United States. 25 years ago when a completely different BPAA organization had 4,000 members, it had approximately 25% penetration of the industry.

"We thank Kee Lanes for their confidence in the BPAA and for being our 4,000th member," said Steve Johnson, Executive Director of the BPAA. "We believe we have created a great organization dedicated to growing our members' businesses and that of the industry. The BPAA remains focused on delivering quality products and exceptional value to every member."

The BPAA plans to officially award Mr. Oskerson a 4,000th member plaque during the industry's premier event, International Bowl Expo June 26 - July 1, 2011.

AMF BOWLING CENTERS, ANHEUSER-BUSCH PARTNER TO HELP STRIKE OUT UNDERAGE DRINKING Employee Education, I.D.-Checking Program Rolled Out in 299 Bowling Centers

Richmond — The largest owner and operator of U.S. bowling centers is asking teens to think twice before attempting to purchase alcohol beverages in its venues. AMF Bowling Centers, Inc., Anheuser-Busch and its local distributors announced a new campaign to help address underage drinking and prevent sales to minors in AMF's 299 locations, operating in 35 states and Puerto Rico.

The We I.D. program, which builds on current efforts by AMF to restrict underage alcohol sales, provides retailers with drivers license guides to help employees verify identifications, introductory training DVDs and digital clocks that display the date of the legal age required to purchase alcohol beverages. We I.D. posters and signage will be displayed at check-out areas in all AMF Bowling Center locations to reinforce each store's commitment to requiring valid identification for the purchase of alcohol.

"The We I.D. program provides useful tools and sends a clear and consistent message to underage customers about our firm commitment to checking identification for all alcohol purchases," said Joe Scarnaty, vice president of Food and Beverage for AMF Bowling Centers. "Ensuring our associates are properly trained and are supported with easy-to-use materials to prevent the sale of alcohol to minors helps protect our teens and the community."

In fact, 95 percent of American adults age 21 or older agree that sellers of alcohol beverages should be trained to spot fake identification, according to a survey conducted by Opinion Research Corporation CARAVAN® 2010.

"We're proud to support AMF with its ongoing commitment to abide by the law and help keep our communities safe," added Kathy Casso, vice president of Corporate Social Responsibility at Anheuser-Busch. "This We I.D. effort complements and reinforces the progress that's been made in preventing underage drinking among our nation's youth."

The number of adolescents ages 12 to 17 who drink has declined 18 percent in the past five years, according to the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services' National Survey on Drug Use and Health, issued last fall.

"I applaud Anheuser-Busch and AMF's efforts to prevent alcohol sales to minors," said Police Chief John Venuti of Virginia Commonwealth University, which is located in Richmond, Va., also home to AMF Bowling Centers. "We I.D. is a very visible campaign in the community and helps reinforce existing laws against underage drinking."

JIM MURTISHAW And JOHN SOWELL Kick Off Season With 800s

by Frank Weiler

MURRIETA—Imagine bowling 800 your first week of league play. Well, Jim Murtishaw and John Sowell don't have to dream such dreams because they both actually did just that last week! Both accomplished this feat in the same league, just one pair of lanes apart from each other.

Murtishaw led his team to a winning night by bowling 815 (269 - 267 - 279). DEWAINE WEST went head to head against Jim but could take only one point, though he bowled a 280 and 761.

Just a few lanes away from Murtishaw, John Sowell rolled 803 (246 - 278- 279) leading his team victory.

Other high scores at CAL OAKS BOWL, in the same scratch league, were bowled by KEN GRANELLI (733), KEN CLAY (715), and MIKE VINYARD (708). Our ladies were led by ANITA MURTISHAW with 670 (235 - 204 - 231). Two local teen bowlers made their adult scratch league debut in the league. DEREK SCHROEDER bowled 632 and two-hander JAMES HAWKINS rolled 616. I think we will be hearing more about the exploits of these two young men as the season progresses. Derek and James expressed their thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers.

DEAF HALL OF FAMER ROGER SELLERS PASSES AWAY AT 72

McGEHEE, AR—This writer received a fax from Bill Cozad that the long time major dynamo in Southwest Deaf Bowling, Roger Sellers passed away at age of 72 in his home at McGehee, AR on September 16. He had been ill for the past couple years. Sellers began bowling in 1958 but was best known in 1977for his work in Fort Worth, TX when he formed Fort Worth Deaf Mixed League. He served as the league secretary-treasurer from 1978 to 1983 and league president from 1984 to 2002. Sellers also was the long time chairman of Fort Worth Deaf Singles Classic.

His interest in Southwest Deaf Bowling Association began when he got involved as a bowler in 1977 and his work in Fort Worth Deaf Bowling got him elected Vice-President of SWDBA in 1983. While in office as Vice-President in 1990, Sellers took over as SWDBA Secretary-Treasurer due to the former's misuse of SWDBA funds. Then he was elected as Secretary Treasurer and served till 2002. Sellers' work in SWDBA got him elected as only the 3rd Secretary-Treasurer in National Deaf Bowling Association in its 43 years. As a bowler Roger hit his best 300 game in 1977, his best series 791 in 1982 also had a 299 in 1979 and a 790 in 1980. Roger Sellers' list of honors includes induction in SWDBA Hall of Fame in 1992, his alma mater Mississippi School for Deaf Hall of Fame as a bowler in 1992 and National Deaf Bowling Hall of Fame in 2002. Our condolences go to his wife, Virginia, their two daughters and sister.

RON HOGUE HITS 300 AT FOUNTAIN BOWL

FOUNTAIN VALLEY—Congrats to Ronald Hogue for hitting a perfect 10 in his league at Fountain Bowl on August 30. We do not know what his other games were and the series. This deaf right-hander used to bowl in So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League currently bowled in league at Fountain Bowl and Angel West League at AMF Carter Bowl.

BOB JONES ROLLS 248-714 IN HIS SENIOR SWEEPER LEAGUE AT CANOGA PARK

WINNEKTA...Bob Jones rolled a 248 in his 714 series (this writer forgot his other two games) in his 49's Senior League's sweeper at Canoga Park Bowl. As lofty this 714 was but Bob with his zero handicap did not win much as others with large handicap got most of the money.

NEW DEAF TOURNAMENT AND CLASSICS SCHEDULE IS READY

CHICAGO—Walter Niesluchowski who is also President of Great Lakes Deaf Bowling Association, announced that the new 2010-2011 Deaf Tournaments and Club Classics Schedule are ready for distribution to all interested bowlers. He also said that some with question mark would be updated later.

Those who are interested in finding out where and when the major deaf tournaments and long running deaf classics are, can click on internet www.n-ski.com/Schedules and print two pages list. The lists have the contact person of each event to get information on the correct dates and fees.

Most interesting note is the 75th Annual GLDBA tournament being held at Red Rock Hotel, Casino and Bowling Center in Las Vegas Monday April 6-9, 2011. This along with the women's GLDBA will be the largest deaf bowling gathering of the year.

A “First” for California Senior Bowlers

by Phyl Knoll

It was a “landmark” event when our Annual Senior Singles Tournament opened on August 26, 2010 at Buena Lanes in Ventura. There we saw for the first time, our California Senior Gentlemen bowlers on the lanes with our Senior Ladies, participating in this tournament. As expected, the Men and Women competed in their own divisions and each was based on age categories. Super Senior Div., 75 and over, Hdcp; Div A 70-74 Hdcp; Div B 65-69 Hdcp; Div C 60-64 Hdcp and Div D 55-59 Hdcp.

All of this was a result of the hard and long hours spent by the Tournament Committee designing the new tournament format, approved by the Board of Directors. As a result 440 entries were received, 329 women and 111 men, with a total prize fund of $5,707 having been paid to the winners. First place winners of each division will be given the opportunity to represent California at the 2011 National Senior Tournament in Reno, Nevada.

The excitement of the entire weekend was two “300” games being bowled. One by Joe Porcelli of Northridge and one by Sam San Paolo of Harbor City, the first of his bowling career!

Of course, all of this was only made possible by the willingness of Buena Lanes and the Ventura County USBC WBA to host the event and we truly thank them for their wonderful hospitality.

Prize winners and more...can be seen on our website: calusbc.com.

Eleven Year

SHRIVER

Bowls 212

by Frank Weiler
INDIO—What do eleven year old girls do for fun these days? BOWL!!!

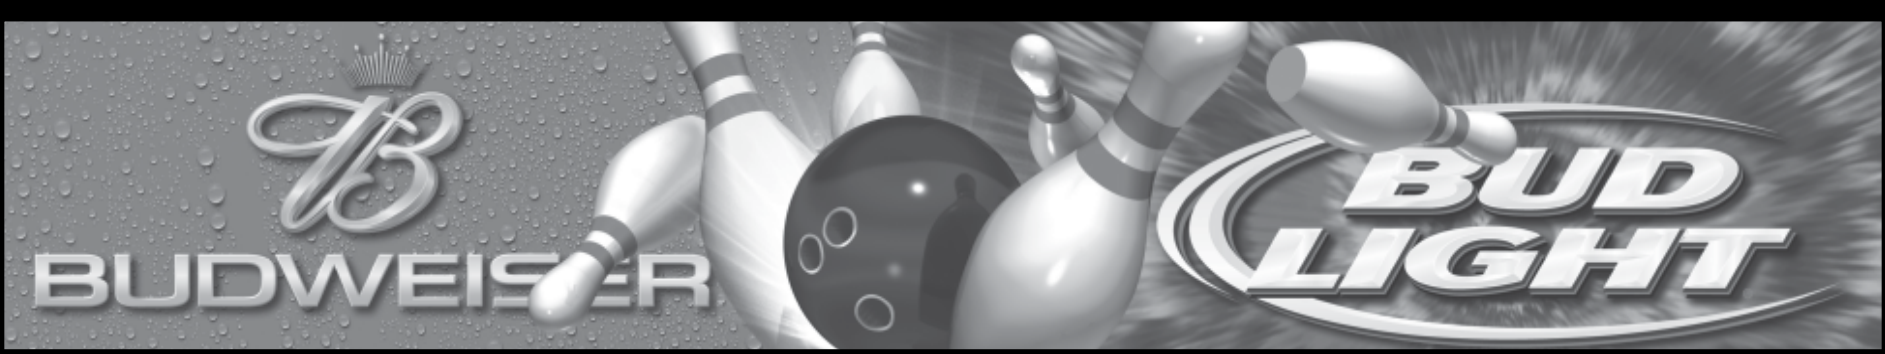

At least that is what many young girls do in the California desert. What would you do if you were in the land of date palms and it was 110 degrees outside? BOWL!!!

Anyway, bowling is the choice for fun with young Kelsee Shriver. She started bowling in 2005 at age six, and currently is averaging 125. She began bowling as a pee wee and continues in the youth league at FANTASY LANES.

Kelsee wants to thank her mom and dad for supporting her bowling efforts, and the BOWLING NEWS for recognizing Citrus Belt youth bowlers.

JEFF WELKER Opens Season With 300!

by Frank Weiler

LAKE ELSINORE—How would you like to start your league season with a 300 game? Well Jeff Welker did! His first game of this season, in the Senior Scratch League at Trevi Lanes earlier this month, was a 300.

Jeff followed up with games of 210 and 236 for 746. As far as I know, this is the second time in CITRUS BELT history that one of our bowlers started a league season with a perfect game. Citrus Belt Hall of Famer CHUCK TAYLOR did it about forty years ago.

Interestingly, Welker is manager of Pechanga Lanes in Temecula. These lanes are on the Pechanga Indian Reservation, where Jeff is dedicated to teaching some of our local Native American youth the fine points of our sport.

Jeff came back to bowling three years ago, after years away from the sport. These three years have seen him average 200 each season, with a high book of 215 in 2009. Jeff bowled his high series of 786 in 2008. Jeff’s 300 was his first certified perfect game.

Welker used his Storm Reign of Fire ball to roll his big game. He wants to thank MATT MURTISHAW of Fast Lanes Pro Shop within Cal Oaks Bowl, for drilling his bowling ball to perfection. Special thanks go to Jeff’s wife ROXANN, to all the senior bowlers in his league, and the BOWLING NEWS for their support of his bowling efforts. I would like to thank DINO CASTRELLA, Trevi Lanes assistant manager, for telling about Jeff and his exploits.

Helen Duval Bowling and Personal Outstanding Life

by Agnes Duffy
Helen Duval has been a close friend of mine for over fifty years. Up until seven years ago when I moved to Sonoma we lived only a few miles apart. We bowled in some of the same leagues and were involved in many bowling events plus personal events.

She entered the working world as a Milliner. That's designing and making hats and along that same line, Helen was an excellent Seamstress. Helen was a natural bowler and started in 1938 at the local Cal-Rec Center. The coaching and training was not available then that has developed worldwide since then.

I don't know when she met another enthusiastic bowler Rossaire (better knows as Rost) Duval nor when the wedding bells rang for them, but they purchased their lovely home in Berkeley, CA. It soon became filled with trophies and her favorite plant-African Violets.

The Violets need some additional coverage as Helen traveled this country and other parts of the world and learned about them. AMF annually presents the "Helen Duval Award" to the person that does the most nationally for junior bowling. Helen presented this at the NWBW annual luncheon. She also presented an African Violet (not always easy to carry on a plane.) Many of her friends over the years have received plants or a leaf with instructions on how to grow them. I am afraid some of us were not as successful with the flowers.

Bowling became very important in her life because she quickly became not only a high bowler, but in teaching others. Not just juniors, but other programs. The California Women's Bowling Association had many programs to promote bowling and coaching. Helen was very involved and wrote articles for various publications over the years. Learn to bowl, Bowl Better, Solve Bowling Problems, How to Select a Ball, and many more subjects.

It was necessary to drive to the bowling centers in California and other areas. Cadillac was her choice and one had over 200,000 miles on it when she turned it in for a new one. When a cell phone was furnished to her, she carried it in her trunk. But she did use a portable microphone for her teaching presentations.

As a good cook everyone enjoyed the holiday or special parties held frequently for family and bowling friends in that Berkeley home. Yes, there were smaller meals served now and then. During World War II there were special day leagues to attract women to bowling. A popular one was WIG league. Everyone would receive your choice of a wig during or at the end of the league. Joan Feinblum won a very attractive one and was wearing it at a luncheon at Helen's, I was there too when all of a sudden Joan's wig landed in her plate of food. What a good laugh we had.

She became a bowling proprietor when, with Rosy, they acquired 8 lane College Bowl in Oakland. They owned this center for many years.

One Friday night we were bowling in an eight team scratch five person league in Berkeley Bowl. I was not bowling on Helen's team but her five year old son Richard was there. He spent most of the evening sitting on my lap. I was entertaining him, making faces, etc. In the morning the horrible word POLIO described his illness. Everyone who had contact with Richard that evening had to have a special huge shot immediately. Poor Richard had to spend almost a year in the hospital with very few visitors. Then when he returned home it was a long time to be able to walk. Helen introduced bowling to his fitness program. After they started him in a wheelchair then held him by the back of his belt at the foul line and taught him how to bowl. What a back swing he had. Over the years he had to wait until he aged before the operations necessary to implant metal equipment in his back were possible.

When he was spending so muh time at home in bed, the computers were starting with games. It was so great and very few of his visitors could begin to match his skill. I think he even became a good cook during this time. Eventually, Richard averaged 208 and became a pro.

Helen and Richard were together with Nobu Asami and her son Dean when they did a tour in Japan teaching disabled children how to bowl. Prior to the tour, parents in Japan hid their children away if they were disabled in any way. This was a big step in changing how the "Special people" were treated and was a great thing for Richard to contribute to everyone.

Golfing-she was pretty good at it. On one of my trips to my favorite island, Maui, it was a two week stay at a two story condo on the water. Helen joined us for the last week and brought her golf clubs with her. We played the Kaanapali 18 hole upper course. What a beautiful course to enjoy no matter what the score. We played golf in this area on other occasions.

She deserves the title Nurse because she left the Pro Tour for a year when Rosy had a brain tumor. He was able to recognize visitors at his home but was bedridden for that time. Living so close, I was able to visit quite often.

I need to mention some of her bowling in our California tournaments. She was Captain of the Fitzpatrick Chevrolet team that won WIBC National Tournament. These are the California Team Championships won. This record can never be equaled.

Year	Name of team	Score	#Entered
1968	Fitzpatrick Chevrolet, Concord	3064	3107
1970	Fitzpatrick Chevrolet, Concord	2993	2704

Singles Champion-1958-Helen Duval-637.
All Events Champion-1954-Helen Duval-1740.
California Queens Tournament-Helen Duval.

I always enjoyed working and playing with Helen. She was a fine teacher and my horizon was extended because of her. She touched so many lives. It's fortunate that a person is given 94 years on earth to spend it as Helen did. She passed away in her sleep on July 29th, 2010. As Mary Lynly wrote, "Her enthusiasm filled a room, and her friends filled auditoriums." Refer to BOWL.com for details from USBC News: News Hall of Famer passes away at 94-for details on National honors etc. Or you can contact Terry Bigham at email address- terry.bigham@aol.com

Joan Romeo to Lead CBW

Joan Romeo of Van Nuys will guide the California Bowling Writers for the next two years as their president. The talented Mrs. Romeo has numerous attributes to draw from. She is a Director on the board of directors of the Bowling Writers Association of America and holds several important committee positions. She consults to various businesses through her own business, The Marketing Team and currently serves on the committee for the National Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum new exhibit honoring Professional Women Bowlers.

Her goal for CBW is to be true to our purpose and create and awareness of our sport by educating members and non-members in communication through print, promotion and the use of electronic media.

She has been involved in Marketing for over 37 years in New York and California. Prior to opening her own business, she spent 15 years as Vice President of The Pearlman Group, an integrated marketing company in Los Angeles. Her bowling clients included WIBC, California WBA, USA Bowling and FIQ.

Her honors include the 2006 California WBA Distinguished Service Award; 2007 Humanitarian of the Year Award presented by Columbia Industries, and the 2008 BWAA Meritorious Service Award presented to an individual or organization for outstanding long-term accomplishments in and for the sport of bowling.

She is the mother of five accomplished children including Robin, and Tori, both known for their bowling skills, and has seven grandchildren.

As described by others, Joan is an "Idea" person and the ultimate promoter. "Over the years, I have gathered a wealth of experience, which I believe will benefit the organization. I like being an involved member rather than a spectator."

The California Bowling Writers look forward to an exciting first year under Joan's leadership.

California Bowling Writers was formed in 1998; membership is open to all California bowling journalists, promoters and supporters of the sport of bowling. The purpose of the organization is to encourage and educate both members and non-members in communication through print, promotion and use of electronic media. At the same time, CBW will recognize and reward those who create media awareness by providing outstanding bowling photography and journalistic excellence.

LEAGUE
By Alice

CERRITOS—The second week of the new season produced some better scoring for the Vegas travel league. John (GM) was on deck to greet us and we thanked him again for welcoming us back to Cerritos Lanes. Also, a reminder that super sub Teri Hefner’s mom Jackie, a favorite desk gal, also welcomed our return and took good care of the league Monday.

We failed to get team results but it’s still early to note them yet. High individual scoring honors featured Roberta McNaught 558, Nancy Soto 203-549, Margo McClain 538, Ana Fukuchi 210-525, Karen Mauricio 219-507, Dee Phipps 218-512, Joan Roper 510, Cil Moon 507, Sue McGill 505 and Marie Collier 200.

Betty Phillips did another outstanding job producing our league rules, prize fund and schedule. They were distributed to members Monday and Team Captains were reminded each member gets a copy. Team members were also reminded to keep them handy for reference. We suggest keeping them in your bowling bag so your don’t misplace or lose them.

NEXT WEEK: 10 A.M. Monday September 27 at Valley View.

AMF Bowl-O-Drome - September 12th, 2010 (l-r): Ashley Dunn – 2nd; Oscar Chan – 1st; Adam Dubia - 3rd

Canoga Park Bowl - September 19th, 2010 (l-r): Ashley Dunn – 3rd; Adam Dubia – 1st; Oscar Chan - 2nd.

TORRANCE – The JAT Farm Club is back in the house (well, at least in the paper) with a two tournament update. We’ll start off with our 3rd event of the season held on September 12th at AMF Bowl-O-Drome. Here we had 19 bowlers take part, but some very good scoring.

The qualifying round spotlighted Eric Torrence with the tournament high game of 277. Also up there was Parker Brooks with a 261 and Matt Miller with 260-223. Nice bowling gentlemen. Other high scores came in from Ashley Dunn 236-256, Luke Holley 256-224, Adam Dubia 240-226, Oscar Chan 236, Gabriella Mayfield 237, Tyler Samora 235, Spencer Van Rijnberger 233, Jordan Krave 224-220, and Josh Gartrell 223. Dunn led all bowlers after five games at plus 96 and with the small field the cut for the 10th and final spot to advance came in at minus 63.

In the match play round, we had scores from Dunn 266-223, Miller 245, Holley 223-236-235, Dubia 223-234-227, and Chan 228-229-221. Holley used the match play format to jump four positions, but came up just a little short and ended as the alternate. However, it was Chan taking the best advantage of match by jumping five positions to get into the finals.

And those finals then started off with the 5th seed Brooks (+104) going up against the 4th seed Miller (+108). Brooks captured this finals match 211-170 to move on to the next opponent. That was 3rd seed Chan (+134), who quietly disposed of Miller 211-175. Next for Chan was 2nd seed Dubia (+162) who battled to the last frame. In the end Chan had advanced once again with a 221-215 win. Now Chan had to face off with tournament leader Dunn in the best of three matches. Dunn captured the first match in a nail-biter 206-200. Chan fought back and lined up taking the second match 224-186. And in the final deciding match, Chan had just a little more to finish with a 202-181 victory and his first Farm Club title. Congratulations Oscar.

The following Sunday (9/19), we moved north a bit to Canoga Park Bowl. This was our first of three PBA Challenges we have planned for the season. I’d like to think that this special tournament was not the cause of our low turnout, but we only had 17 bowlers ready to take on the “Shark” pattern. Bowlers, this was Canoga Park - home of extremely high scoring - and many of you missed out? Because of this, we advanced only the top eight in to the match play round and only the top four in to the finals. I want to thank both AMF Bowl-O-Drome and Canoga Park Bowl for their hospitality.

The qualifying round started off very slow with no reportable scores until the fourth game. The bowlers struggled a bit with the oil pattern, but then started to pick it up. Oscar Chan led the high scores with his 255-227, followed by Tristan Beaner 235, Ashley Dunn 223, Ryan Roderick 223, John Struckman 221, and Luke Holley 220. Needless to say, Chan led at plus 23 after five games and the eighth spot to advance came in at minus 97.

In match play, Adam Dubia found the line for a 256, with Dunn 242-235, Chan 233, Matthew Zweig 226, and Beaner 220 with reportable scores as well. Dubia used match play to jump 3 positions to get into the top four.

The finals first match was between 4th seed Beaner (-9) against 3rd seed Dubia (+19). Dubia took this match with a 223-194 win to next meet the 2nd seed Dunn (+64). Again Dubia held the line and cruised to a 223-168 victory. Now Dubia had to face the top seed Chan (+78) in the best of three. Dubia jumped out quickly and hard to set the tone of the final pairing with a near perfect 289-202 win. He then used that momentum to squeak out the next match 210-207, for his first Farm Club title. Congratulations Adam, it finally came.

Our next tournament will be on October 3rd at Mission Hills Bowl. Normal check-in time of 8:15. I’d also like to remind all of the bowlers that we are having a new member drive. Bring in up to four new bowlers (either division) to the JAT and get $5 off your entry fee for each new member. Have a good couple of weeks off, practice well and get your rest. I’ll see out at Mission Hills.
