

LAS VEGAS BREAKS THROUGH TO WIN FIRST PBA ELIAS CUP TITLE

The High Rollers, featuring MVP Andrew Anderson, AJ Johnson, Matt Ogle, Matt Russo, Sean Rash, Thomas Larsen and manager Amleto Monacelli, prevailed over the Portland Lumberjacks to win 2024 PBA Elias Cup

by Nolan Hughes

Since the franchise's inception in 2020, the Las Vegas High Rollers have been knocking on the door of the PBA Elias Cup. This year, they broke the door down. The top-seeded Las Vegas defeated the Portland Lumberjacks in the PBA Elite League presented by Snickers Elias Cup Finals to win the franchise's first title. The High Rollers fell behind 0-1 before rattling off three consecutive wins to win the Race-to-Three match at Portland, Maine's Bayside Bowl. Andrew Anderson, who was voted the regu-

REDLANDS – The first annual BILL MOSSONTTE Memorial Tournament was won by a foursome from Temecula Lanes. The tournament was dedicated to the memory of legendary SoCAL Bowling Proprietor BILL MOSSONTTE and competed at three Bowling Centers (Empire Bowl, Temecula Lanes and Valencia Lanes) currently owned by Bill's son Will Mossontte. The GRAND CHAMPIONSHIP FINALS were competed at Empire

Bowl this past weekend after three Qualifying Tournaments, one each held at Empire Bowl, Temecula Lanes and Valencia Lanes earlier this summer. Thirteen teams qualified for the Grand Championship, three from Empire Bowl, six from Temecula Lanes and four from Valencia Lanes. The Grand Championship started with three handicap games rolled by each team with the five highest scoring teams qualifying for the stepladder finals. Each match of the stepladder finals was a single scratch game, BAKER FORMAT. The eventual tournament champions qualified second for the Grand Championship Finals with a score of 2,776. Not a surprising pin total or finishing position because this young team of predominantly two-handed keggers posted the highest Pre-Grand Championship Qualifying score

Where Have All The Bowling Centers Gone...

Bowlarama Sparks Memories

by Dave Williams

At one time there were eight bowling establishments in the greater Santa Rosa and Sebastopol communities of California, including at least two private clubs. The number was reduced to zero in recent years, for a region with close to 500,000 residents in the standard metropolitan statistical area (SMSA). The last one to close was Rose Bowl, in the Roseland Shopping Center, in 2006.

The center was actually renamed Continental Lanes in 1987, when the first Continental Lanes in downtown Santa Rosa was leveled to make way for new retail shops on Mendocino Avenue. Vera Richardson opened the original Continental Lanes in 1963. During the day it had a thriving cafe and lounge that catered to businessmen and women looking for a quick bite to eat.

But at night the lanes in the rear of the building took center stage, featuring most of the top bowlers in the area during the 1970's and 80's, because of the well maintained lanes with easy scoring conditions. Tim Colgan, Vera's grandson, took over the business and in 1984 moved the lanes and fixtures to Windsor, a rapidly growing city just north of Santa Rosa. The 24-lane Windsor Bowl is still in operation today.

Three years later Colgan was back in Santa Rosa, renaming Rose Bowl for the razed Continental Lanes, and taking over operation of the center once owned by bowling mogul Jim Decker (father to past president of the Bowling Proprietors Association of America, Jim Decker III). Bowling had always been a fixture in the Roseland Shopping Center since the development opened in 1959.

An additional location in the area that is near and dear to my heart, L & L Lanes in Sebastopol, closed in the 1990's, becoming a Starbuck's and strip mall (the coffee shop is now Brew Brothers Coffee). Amazingly, the "B-O-W-L" sign is still there in the parking lot, most likely waiting for someone to retrofit the four letters to their business. Why do they always save the sign?

Another popular destination of mine in the 1970's was Holiday Bowl in Santa Rosa. The location is now a shopping mall anchored by Walgreen's Pharmacy. Back in the day it was home to some of the finest action bowling in Northern California. At a time when 200 average bowlers were rare (1950's - 1960's), the Central Sonoma County Men's Bowling Association would feature at least a couple every year, usually from Holiday Bowl.

The Masquerade Room at Beverly Bowling Center (1960, Chapman, McCorkel & Associates)

An Exception To The Rule

There is still a "bowling center" of sorts in the Santa Rosa city limits. It's called Chuck's Bowling and Bar and is located inside Poppy Bank's Epicenter. It's the largest all-in-one destination for sports, fitness and entertainment in the area north of San Francisco (Sonoma, Marin and Napa counties). It's packed with a unique mix of indoor sports, a fitness center, trampoline park, arcade, advanced laser tag, and bowling lanes (string machines) with a lounge.

How a bank became involved in this endeavor is anyone's guess, but one can only assume that it was a business that went bankrupt, and Poppy Bank elected to carry on the operation rather than close. There does not appear to be any bowling leagues and the glow lights look to be on at all times, so Chuck's cannot be termed a bowling center in the traditional sense...

OWLARAMA, THE BOOK - While trying to decide from which online retailer to buy the Bowlarama book, I received an email from Tom Knapp, this column's number one fan from Minnesota. "Don't buy the book," instructed Tom. "One is on the way and should arrive on Thursday." Tom said that he also purchased a book for Bowling Hall of Fame member Bud Horn in Las Vegas. Tom was a longtime resident of Southern California, working for Horn at Park Lanes in Baldwin Park, as well as Western Columbia. His "real" job was at 3M. Many thanks for the book Mr. Knapp!!

of 2,771, a comfortable 55 pins higher than the second highest score of 2,716.

The championship game was won by Temecula Team #2 with a Baker Score of 180. Strikes were difficult to come by and the championship was won by the team of better spare makers! The championship foursome included Frank Bello, Jacob Mueller, Alberto Lopez and James Johnson. The championship team earned a nice check for $3,080, with each member taking home $770.

Andy Toro rolled the high scratch game (278) and high scratch series (703) of the Grand Championship Finals earning a couple of hundred dollars for his performance. Jerry DeYager rolled the high handicap game of 284 (267 scratch plus 17 handicap pins).

A salute to WILL MOS-SONTTE for a great tournament, a great concept, a great format and a well managed competition.

Nancy Fox-Wilcox Shoots to the Top

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – It's one thing to be down. It's another thing to stay down. Right-hander Nancy Fox-Wilcox is not one to bottom-fish for long. She demonstrated that quality last month when she launched a blinding-fast turnaround one week after her team finished last in Winnetka Bowl's Mary 49'Ers senior league.

On the same day that Nancy's three-women team was presented the not-so-fabulous "Crying Towels" to mark its finish as the league's doormat, Nancy soared to a triumphant performance in the women's division of the Mary 49'Ers Sweepers tournament.

Averaging 118, Nancy threw one blue dart after another at the pins and finished with scores of 146, 137 and 125 for a sterling handicap series score of 654. Those efforts were good enough to reward Nancy with $110.

"I was just trying to have a good time," Nancy said. "When they called my name [for the payoff], I was shocked and said, 'Oh, my God.'"

Nancy's teammates, Judy Robertson and Diana Moller, were not surprised by Nancy's virtuoso effort. Said Judy: "She's a surprise bowler because she's so powerful."

Said Diana: "I know she's a good bowler."

Winnetka Bowl General Manager Mike Willis said bowlers often rise to the occasion when the Sweepers tournament rolls around. "People just go nuts on Sweepers days," Mike said. Nancy just happens to be one of those bowlers who really know how to make a mark at Sweepers.

Nancy nearly duplicated her gangbuster Mary 49'Ers Sweepers performance two days later in a second Winnetka Bowl league in which she competes. Bowling in the Funtimers league's Sweepers event, Nancy smashed a solid 652 handicap series (143, 146, 120), just two pins off her Mary 49'Ers score.

Although she didn't place first in the Funtimers women's division, Nancy still walked away with $100. It was a very good week for Nancy Fox-Wilcox.

INVITATIONAL

Michael Barnett Blasts Them For 813, Basurto & Perez are Perfect

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY – The Brunswick Invitational took to the lanes for the third week of the new season as teams were lined up and killing the house shot after two weeks. The scoring trend continued as the talent on the lanes took advantage of the house shot. Michael Barnett wowed the crowd with a 279-279-255-813 effort to lead the league while both Ramsey Basurto and Jesse Perez posted perfect 300 games.

Family Ties (Bobby Campagnale) was looking to stay perfect after two weeks of big bowling, taking on Del Rio Lanes (Jonathan Huezo) who stayed up in the standing after a 3.5-1.5 result in week 2. Family Ties took the first game, but Del Rio Lanes took the next 2 for a 4-1 win moving them to 11.5 wins on the season. Michael Barnett's league-high 813 set jumped Del Rio Lanes to the win while Bobby Campagnale paced Family Ties with a 672 series.

Don Julio Tequila (Gabe Garza) took four last week to get to the "B" match taking on Touchstone Homes (Christian Eichelkraut) who used a 4-win week to move up in the standings. This night was all Don Julio Tequila as they swept through Touchstone Homes for the 5-0 win. Jason Carrillo 696 and Gabe Garza 695 were high for Don Julio while Terry Hatley was huge for Touchstone Homes with a nice 714 set.

Bowlium (Billy Myers Jr.) dropped to the third match after a 1.5 win week taking on Junior Amateur Tour (Kevin Valmonte) who bounced back to a 4 win week in week 2. Junior Amateur Tour rode a big game 1 win, holding on for game 2 and coming down to the anchors for totals as they backed into a 4-1 win over Bowlium. The anchors paced the pair with Kevin Valmonte posting 693 for Junior Amateur Tour and Billy Myers Jr. again high for Bowlium with a 657 set.

Love Laundry (Ramsey Basurto) who were victims of Family Ties in week 2, dropped down to match up with Threadworks (Eric Snow) who is always a tough matchup. Love Laundry cleaned up as they swept through Threadworks to add 5 wins to their season total. Vernon Adams led Love Laundry with a big 743 set while Paul Varela was right there with a 740 series.

DV8 (Jonathan Gale) and Taco Bell (Kaven Massey) were both looking to keep the momentum going after 4-win results in week 2. The night was a run for the border as Taco Bell swept through DV8 for the 5-0 win. Jeff Hickenbottom led Taco Bell with a 687 set while Jonathan Gale was big for DV8 with a 701 set.

Forest Lanes (Jon Diso) took on Pro Approach Cal Bowl (Austin Wasielweski) in a matchup of teams looking to bolster their 4-6 starts. Forest Lanes took the first two by plenty to hold on to a 4-1 win over the Cal Bowl bunch. Jesse Perez was perfect with a 300 en route to his 730 set while David Silva led Pro Approach Cal Bowl with a 691 series.

Weaverbird (Eric Williams Jr.), Pro Approach Oak Tree (Leonard Ruiz Jr.), US Foods (Gabriel Martinez) and Pro Approach Del Rio (Augie Labrado Jr.) rounded out Monday's action. Weaverbird took 4 from Pro Approach Oak Tree led by Eric William's huge 745 set while Bobby Hornacek paced the Oak Tree bunch with a 676 set. US Foods got back on the winning track with their full lineup and a sweep over Pro Approach Del Rio. Mike Bogue jumped in for US Foods and led the team with a 697 set while Omar Ponce Jr. was big for Pro Approach Del Rio with a nice 709 set.
