Frank Barefoot Captures Wood Lanes Summer Classic

Girlfriend Alisha Freeman & Champion Frank Barefoot

BARSTOW — Frank Barefoot of Rancho Cucamonga made a pit stop in August on his way to Las Vegas and bowled 233-224-235-269/961. That score at Revolutions Barstow Bowl held up through September 21st for both the Scratch and Handicap divisions titles and $600 prize. Junior Team USA Member Wesley Low made a run at Frank's scratch score, but fell short by only 14 pins with a 947. The junior sensation's prize of $235 will go directly to his SMART scholarship fund. In the Handicap Division, Chris Gregory of Bakersfield was a close 2nd with 942 for $225. The 1st Annual Route 66 Wood Lanes Summer Classic had a very modest entry fee of only $50 per division or $85 for both. It was intended for the many bowlers who travel to and from Southern California to Las Vegas, but bowlers traveled all the way from Lake Havasu City, San Diego and Bakersfield for the "Beat the Board" Summer tournament. "Next year we intend to make the event bigger and better," announced co-owner Paula Vidad. Look for entry forms January 2015 on their website www.barstowbowl.com

OAKLAND'S DUPREE DICKEY WINS 8th GLOVER MASTERS

EVENT'S HIGHEST FIRST PLACE MONEY EVER

by Bette Addington – California Bowling Writers

BAKERSFIELD, CA — When the Glover Tournament Committee prepared for this year's event over the last nine months they felt they needed to do some changes to entice more bowlers to come and bowl this event. It was more or less a make-or-break year for this event as the last couple of years the number of entrants had leveled off and not shown any increase and since this event's committee strives to have one of the biggest prize funds offered to participants, it came down to seeing what could be done differently. But, little did the committee know, this weekend had some major surprises in store!

As the committee arrived early Saturday morning to set-up for the two qualifying squads of the day, they were greeted by Tom Smith, one of the co-founders of the event, who announced he had been given a check from a person that wished to be anonymous in the amount of $2,000 to add to this year's prize fund with the stipulation that $1,000 would be added to the already guaranteed $3,000 first place and the other $1,000 would be distributed to the rest of the places! What a way to start your event!!

Then the check-in opened for the "A" squad and bowlers kept coming in and signing up and assigned to their lanes. Now one of the changes this year was the Glover Masters was taking place this year along with the Central Valley Masters at the same center, but with different starting times for both events qualifying squads. This has to be a first--having two big bowling tournaments the same weekend at the same center! The Glover event was the first to start the day but with all the entries coming in they were quickly taking up Dupree Dickey received the 2014 Don Glover Champion trophy from Carol King-Glover.

ALICE WINCHESTER Leads Women's Club

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — The Women's Club has kicked off it's winter season with a BANG. A full roster of twenty-eight women are plying DEL ROSA LANES in this top flight singles, match game, Peterson Point classic league for LADIES ONLY.

I'm excited to see these ladies on the lanes again. It has been a long summer without them. I missed the style, competitiveness and class that ladies only bring to the lanes. Guys are guys and ladies are ladies. When left alone ladies bring CLASS to our sport many times missing when ALPHA DOGS compete. Missing even when OMEGA DOGS are in the building.

This seasons club roster is loaded. Some of the best Citrus Belt lady keglers are competing including last seasons champion MARY ANDRUCZYK and EARLINE EDWARDS, the first and only woman to roll a 300 at Canyon Lanes of Morongo. Other 300 shooters in the league include LIKAPEKA IBARRA, TONI FUTCH, THERESE LLOYD and LORRI SCOTT.

After this seasons first session, ALICE WINCHESTER is in first place. She averaged 189 rolling 759 (four games) with a high of 222. Her 1007 handicap score and four match game wins earned her 24.14 Peterson points.

Our TOP FIVE point leaders are:

	(hdcp pins)	(wins)	(points)
1. Alice Winchester	1007	4	24.14
2. Mary Andruczyk	948	4	22.96
3. Rachel Tripp	912	4	22.24
4. Rita Collins	902	4	22.04
5. Lori Haight	921	3	21.42

A Peterson Point is awarded for each match game won and for each 50 handicap pins knocked down.

The TOP FIVE average bowlers are:

1. Mary Andruczyk	193	(scratch average)
2. Alice Winchester	189
3. Toni Futch	187
4. Therese Lloyd	186
5. Margaret Vassar	177

Great bowling ladies and thank you BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt women bowlers.

FLORES' 834 LED TEAM TO 1ST PLACE IN DEAF TRAVEL'S STOP AT DEL RIO

DOWNEY — Southern California Deaf Traveling League did well in its stop at Del Rio Lanes with Dan Flores again for second straight leading the honor roll of eight bowlers including a woman, Celia Salcedo with her 705. Flores started with a190 and finished with a near triplicate 215-216-216 for 834, one of three 800s of the day.

The other two 800s were made by Flores' match opponent Ed Abakumoff with 824 and Paul Taffolla, Sr with a surprising 807. Abakumoff started with 225-197 then struggled with a 151 but he rallied 100 more pins for a 251, his 2nd 250 game of this season. Taffolla, Sr. in a unfamiliar position as team anchor, after games of 203-176 had help of a 247 game before closing with 182 for his remarkable 807.

The next 3 bowlers were close to 800 by two, three and 19 pins respectively. Gorman Low, who doubled in 10th frame to beat his match opponent Robert Audette by one pin 798-797, missed 800 by two pins with 174-189-237-213. Audette, a returnee who did not bowl last year and missed last month, bowled like he did not miss his bowling skill with 797 from 181-235-191-190.

The last two on the honor roll were Gardy Rodgers, also a returnee who missed last year for surgery, had (199) 708 and Celia Salcedo becomes the first woman to crash in the honor roll with her (190) 705 this season.

There is a change in league team standings. Second place Flores' Orange County with Paul Taffolla, Jr's sweeping 5 points made another near swept 16-4 win this time over Abakumoff's Riverside. Orange County took over first place bumping the former leader Low's Hollywood down to 2nd place. Hollywood had lost 8-45 to Audette's Eagle Rock, moving Eagle Rock up to third place. Taffolla Sr's Mid City with Celia Salcedo's sweeping 5 points made a near swept 14-6 win over Jones' S F Valley and Mid City moved up to 4th place.

This oldest deaf traveling league out west thanked Del Rio Management and staff for hosting and good lane conditioning. The league travels to Mission Hills Bowl on Sunday October 19 with bowling at 1 PM. There Orange County will be against Hollywood, Eagle Rock against S F Valley and Mid City against Riverside.

Bowling News is proud to bring you....

Chuck Pezzano

Dean of Bowling Writers, PBA & USBC Hall of Fame

It has been announced that a special committee has been formed to study the possibility of changing bowling's scoring system, officially in effect since 1895 when the American Bowling Congress was founded in New York City. Louis Stein is the man credited with putting together the details at that historic gathering.

Stein was active in all areas of bowling and for a long time was the proprietor of a six lane center near Times Square.

He often attended tournaments with the late Pat McDonough, who covered the Yankees as a top baseball writer for the World Telegram and was a pioneer bowling columnist, starting in the late 1920s.

At one event scorekeepers were needed and McDonough volunteered Stein for the job.

"Does that old man know how to keep score?" he was asked. McDonough was quick to reply.

"Not only does he know how to keep score, he invented how to keep score."

There is no doubt that scoring bowling is not the easiest task and now that automatic computers do the tallying fewer bowlers are on the ball if personal scoring is required.

Stein was not really recognized for creative efforts, was elected to the ABC Hall of Fame in 1997, 102 years after the system was approved.

Also gaining headway are renewed efforts to have bowling accepted as an Olympic medal sport, a dream that has been chased for more than half a century.

The nearest bowling game was in the 1988 Games in Seoul, South Korea when bowling was featured as an exhibition sport. It was a match watered down version of bowling with only 24 participants, male and female.

Bowling has been accepted as a medal sport in numerous international competitions such as Pan American Games, World Games, Tournament of the Americas and others.

The sport also has had a presence at Olympic competition, often a bowling center facility where athletes were welcome to bowl, mingle and enjoy various video games as well as a variety of snacks. Officials were brought up to date on the advantages of bowling as a worldwide sport played in well organized settings by bowling federations in more than 120 nations.

Brunswick has been the major sponsor and the driving force behind the Olympic bids, but the company is now in the process of eliminating its bowling properties so won't be as active in the quest.

Odds are not in bowling's favor.

AN INQUIRING MIND WANTS TO KNOW

by Carol Mancini

NORWALK — Monday morning Lillian checked the Bowling News phone for messages. An unidentified gentleman thought it would be a good idea to dig up some pictures of bowling centers long removed.

In the July issue of the Bowling Industry magazine the featured article presented the life story of bowling center architect Gordon Powers who had designed MANY Southern California centers between 1954 and 1964.

The Architecture and Design Museum of Los Angeles wanted to do an exhibit called “Bowlarama”. (Scott Frager of Pinz Bowl came to their rescue.) With the financial help of AMF and Bowling Proprietors, an exhibit was presented at the Museum in April of 2014 for a month.

I wish we would have been notified prior to the opening so that our 10,000 readers could have had the chance to contribute or attend. Maybe next time....

Centers that Gordon Powers designed were OUR centers! Remember Arena Bowl in South Gate and Hollywood Star Lanes?

Covina Bowl, Bay Shore Bowl, Bowlmum (recently remodeled to original), Friendly Hills, Linbrook, Mar Vista, Palos Verdes, Pinz, Shatto "39" Lanes and Zodo's are still in business.

There are people out there who care about our pin palaces! PLEASE, share with us and our readers. The Bowling News has been around since 1940, so we have a few thousand pages of history on the shelf.

Hitting the Ground Running

By Jim Goodwin for the Bowling News Network

Frank DeSocio

Right after Steve Johnson left, we wrote an editorial urging BPAA and USBC to hire from within. When did you first know you were being considered for the job? Were you surprised when they contacted you?

I was more honored than surprised. There was a lot of talk about who would be best qualified to replace Steve, and I was told my name came up with the search committee. When they contacted me, I had to discuss it with my family, and we were able to come to an agreement and arrangement that would work for both parties.

Will you be living in Arlington, or commuting from Wichita?

Normally, I will spend four days a week in Arlington . . . but they are long days. My work ethic is similar to a proprietor . . . lead by example first in and last out to the office. Most weekends I am home with the family.

You have been involved in bowling for many years, I am sure you hit the ground running. Give us a few of your short and long term goals for both BPAA and for the Bowling Industry in general.

One of our top goals will be to restore Bowl Expo to the attendance levels it once had. It has always been profitable, but less in recent years. To do that, we will promote it more; bring in more dynamic speakers like President Bush and more of that stature. Think about it – if you are a small center operator in Iowa, it is a big deal to belong to an organization that makes that type of speakers and education available, not to mention all of the ways you can save money and make money by attending Expo. As for bowling in general, we just want it to grow and get better, and we will do whatever it takes to help that along, especially in areas like youth bowling. We have a lot of work to do. Good things are happening, but it can always be better.

What is your reaction to the bombshell announcement from Brunswick, and specifically, how will it affect BPAA and Bowl Expo?

I don’t think it will have anything close to the negative impact that some are predicting. From what I have seen, Tom Shannon is a very smart businessman; and we have already learned that all of those rumors about eliminating leagues from the centers are untrue. It is just going to take some time to see how it all plays out. But I think in the long run, it could be very good for bowling to have an energetic company behind all those centers.

What about the products business?

Again, it depends on who buys it, but if it is the right party, it could mean growth and more profit. It is amazing what can happen when energy and fresh ideas are pumped into any company or organization.

Still, if you were representing Strike Ten, as you did for more than a decade, or the PBA, and you were trying to sell bowling to a potential sponsor, and they ask you why they should invest in bowling when its number one brand is leaving the industry, what would you tell them?

I would tell them that bowling is such a great opportunity that somebody was just willing to invest $270 million to buy a group of centers; and that many others are interested in the products side because they know what a good business it is. Don’t forget, we hope . . . that whoever buys Brunswick Products will pay rights fees for many years, so the Brunswick brand is going to be a part of bowling for a long, long time.

How is the search going for your replacement at Strike Ten? Why didn’t they just promote John Harbuck?

I am not a part of that search committee, so I don’t know details, but I understand that the board just wanted to explore options . . . and John is one of the candidates who may get the job.

How will BPAA be involved in the ITRC and the IBMHF, and what more can be done to make those two parts of the IBC successful?

I’ve been involved in the operation of the Training Center since it was built, and I am proud of all of the things we have accomplished with Team USA, and seminars and clinics, and visits from international teams, and youth bowling. We will continue those programs and add more. Regarding the museum, there are some things in the works that I cannot talk about right now, but we will continue to support the museum as much as possible.

After a six month search to replace former BPAA Executive Director Steve Johnson, the Bowling Proprietors’ Association of America named Proprietor Frank DeSocio its 11th Executive Director. The announcement was made May 11, and DeSocio was on the job July 1 immediately following International Bowl Expo.

DeSocio and his wife Cathy, who is the immediate BPAA Past-President, own a chain of bowling centers in Kansas and Oklahoma. After accepting the new job, DeSocio resigned as President of Strike Ten Entertainment, the marketing arm for bowling that he has been involved with for more than a decade. A search for his replacement at STE is ongoing.

BPAA President Tom Martino had high praise for Executive Committee Chairman David Spiegel and his seven member committee, saying “BPAA is very pleased to name Frank as executive director. His bowling, sales and marketing background, as well as extensive industry contacts will be a great asset.”

Indeed, it appears that BPAA was not ready to hire another leader from outside the industry and endure a year or two of the learning curve. Shortly after DeSocio was hired, the United States Bowling Congress, housed in the same building with BPAA, made a similar decision in promoting Chad Murphy to its Executive Director position.

Desocio has been so busy since day one of his new job that it took a couple of months to schedule this interview for the BNN. He was very apologetic that it took so long, but also made it clear that he is working very hard to make BPAA as good as it can be.

A lot of people are saying that the USBC Convention was a pep rally that ignored any problems - given that their membership losses directly affect BPAA center business, do you think they need to develop a better plan for future membership? Any suggestions?

Well, first, your framing of the question is a little negative. I didn’t get that impression at all. I thought they did a good job with the convention, and my impression was that most of the delegates and everyone else who attended went home feeling better about USBC than when they arrived.

That is why I threw in the part about their decisions having a direct impact on proprietors . . . so you are saying that you have confidence in Chad Murphy and Jason Overstreet and their staff to turn things around and improve USBC and in turn help proprietors and bowling in general?

Yes.

Are Traditional centers in big trouble? Is the future one where we see mostly FEC’s - or is there a plan to promote Hybrids, where both traditional league and recreation work together? What percentage of proprietors still believe in bowling as a sport? I’m suggesting it has dropped from over 80% to under 50% . . .

I don’t know . . . but I can tell you that I believe in the sport and what USBC is doing, and all of the proprietors I spend time with out in the field with seem to believe in the sport side of bowling. There is room in our industry for all types of centers, and whatever their methods and business practices are, we will try to help them be successful and make a profit. That is what BPAA has always done, and what we will continue to do.

You and Cathy, and Cathy’s dad before you, have always promoted and supported the PBA. How can BPAA help PBA? We heard recently that there was an attempt to bring the PBA to Arlington before they decided to make their HQ with Luby Publishing in Chicago?

Yes, there was some discussion, but it just did not work out. You should speak to Tom Clark about why they made the decisions they did. Regarding our support for the PBA, it is as strong as it has ever been and we wish them much success. We will always be willing to help as long as it makes sense for both sides and for our membership. BPAA is in support of a strong Professional Bowling Association!

What about the U.S. Opens and the Family Tournaments? We heard that BPAA has eliminated its Tournament Committee?

No, that is not true. We still have a tournament committee, but we have contracted the U.S. Opens and the All American Family Tournament to the USBC. They have some very qualified tournament people and over the years they have done a good job with tournaments. When our board looks at tournaments, they see them usually as something that cost us money instead of a profit item; so we decided to try this new arrangement with USBC to see how it works.

Given the progress being made by World Bowling, shouldn’t they also office inside the IBC? Has there been any discussion of that?

That is not a bad idea . . . but there has been no discussion that I am aware of. We would be willing to sit down with Kevin Dornberger to talk about it if he thinks it might work for all of us.

Stephanie Zavala Completes Kats 2015 Roster

DOWNEY — Stephanie Zavala from Downey, California, has signed with Sam Houston State to finalize the 2014-15 roster for the NCAA national champion Bearkat women’s bowling team.

Zavala comes to Sam Houston after an outstanding spring and summer of competition in national events.

She began her spring by winning the 2014 California Pepsi State Girls championship. The Pepsi USBC Youth Championship, one of the longest running national youth events in America, is open to all USBC Youth members.

Stephanie concluded her national competition in Buffalo, New York, competing in the Junior Gold National Championships which serves as a Junior Team USA Qualifier. She placed 36th out of the 600 top youth and collegiate bowlers who participate.

“We’re extremely happy Stephanie has decided to make Sam Houston her home,” SHSU head coach Brad Hagen said. “Her competitive spirit and determination to succeed will be an excellent addition to what already is an elite roster. Stephanie will be a great contributor to this team and an immediate asset.” For more information go to:<http://www.gobearkats.com/>

TOURNEY SUNDAY AT WINNETKA

WINNETKA — Eight more bowlers have earned a shot at a 2015 Civic from Kolbe Honda after a recent tournament at Winnetka Bowl, reports General Manager Mike Willis. Qualifying for next year's rolloff are Robert Garcia, Bill Kolb and Al Manola, plus Larry George, Brandon Bradley, Frank Torres, Teresa Lauer and Gavin Ross from league play at the center located at Winnetka and Vanowen.

Willis also points out that no one sneaked out onto the concourse at the 32-lane center and painted the white car black.

"Kolbe sold the original car and replaced it with a new black Civic," said Willis.

Information on how to qualify for a chance at the sparkling new vehicle can be obtained by calling Willis at (818) 340-5190. The next tournament is schedule for Sunday, Oct. 11.

BURBANK — Have you ever felt like the fun has gone out of bowling? That the game has become less social and more competitive? When the winning and the money has become more important than doing your best and enjoying it? There are times when all leagues experience this malady. It is unsettling at best and downright emotionally painful at it's worst.

Rules of the league suddenly become a weapon and are wielded with malice. I somehow don't believe that was the original purpose of having league rules. I always believed they were intended to level the playing field and keep bowlers amicable.

Often, the rules that come into question seem to be overlooked in the league meeting and this is when the trouble begins. As a league secretary myself, I know I will be ever more vigilant regarding league rules. I, like other bowlers in the league, have bowled the same leagues for so many years we become complacent, thinking we already know what the rules state and we hate to sit through those meetings. We just want to get out there and get started already!

In the same vein, we as bowlers, need to be more receptive to the concept of rerating bowlers and changing the league maximum as often as may be needed. The new equipment and lane conditions have made bowlers average much higher than years ago and consequently the leagues should be changing as well.

My final thoughts on this subject are: A. Most league bowlers are not going to get rich winning a league. B. I personally refuse to allow any one person or any one event the power to keep me from participating in the sport I have loved and enjoyed for over 50 years.

over half the center! The “A” qualifying squad was off and rolling with 48 entries (more entries than both squads last year!). This was going to be big! Not only big but exciting as the field had not only two past Glover Champions (Eddie VanDaniker and Jeff Frankos) bowling, but an excellent sprinkling of top bowlers from our state and Nevada. Two 300 games were rolled in this squad, one by Steve Smith of San Diego and the other by Robert Piroozshad of Mission Viejo. Those two perfectos guaranteed both their spots in the Top 12 from this squad. Piroozshad came in as the top qualifier with +369 (averaging 252) and Smith came in third with +331. Smith was presented with $100 cash by Carol Glover for rolling the first 300 of the event.

The “B” squad took place later in the day at 5 p.m. and drew 33 entries (which brought a grand total of 81 entries this year), but one entrant emerged from out of nowhere and bowlers began to take notice. This entrant from Oakland was Dupree Dickey and he worked his way up to the number one spot for the “B” squad with +296 (averaging 242). Another notable bowler making the cut this squad was David Haynes of Las Vegas who is currently the point's leader for the PBA Regionals, West Division. He came in sixth with +216 (averaging 230).

Twenty bowlers returned on Sunday morning to bowl in the Match Play Finals (12 from the “A” squad and 8 from the “B” squad). At this point, Robert Piroozshad was still standing in the number one position with (1769). The excitement started to escalate when Bakersfield's Joe Smith, bowling his seventh game of the day, bowled a 300 against Andrew Graff of Las Vegas but really climaxed when it came to determine the Top 5 for the Step Ladder Final and Zack Newman, from Bakersfield and Justin Ziegler, from Corona, tied with 3400 after the tenth/position round game! To break the tie the two had to have a one game roll-off to determine who would be the top seed for the Step Ladder Finals. Ziegler defeated Newman in a close game 228-221. Ziegler, who has just been bowling for five years, has quickly made his presence known, as he placed 8th this year in the USBC Nationals in the Singles event in Reno and occasionally bowls in Regional events.

On to the Step Ladder Finals where fifth seed Eric Forkel of Las Vegas took on fourth seed Dupree Dickey where Dickey won 277-238. Dickey then took on third seed David Haynes. This match was close and then Dickey left a 6-7 split in the 8th frame and he calmly proceeded to pick it up and the momentum totally shifted his direction defeating Haynes 217-214. Next up was Bakersfield's Zack Newman who was competing in the Glover Step Ladder Finals for the third time in his career. Dickey started this match full speed ahead with a turkey while Newman had strike, spare, strike. The fourth frame as Dickey started his approach he nearly lost his ball in his release but gathered it back, calmly, and started over again! All this excitement was starting to come to realization for Dickey as he calmly walk off the lane after he bowled to make a post on Facebook while waiting his next turn. His talent was there throughout this match as well as he easily defeated Newman 235-173 and was ready to take on top seed Ziegler. This final match started off with Ziegler leading with a double and Dickey starting with a spare but after that it was a string of eight strikes that made the pace tough for Ziegler to maintain as he missed a ten pin in the sixth frame. Dickey won the final match against Ziegler 255-226 to win the 8th annual Don Glover Masters. Dupree Dickey, 29, has been bowling for 8 years and was just coming off winning the A Mitchell team event in Ohio 3 months ago. He placed fourth in the Bowlers Journal event in Reno last year. Not a Regional bowler, he says he bowls in local tournaments. He would like to thank and recognize Relax, Release, Repeat (shirt company) and American Dream Development (his sponsor). Congratulations, Dupree!! You won an event that this year had over $13,900 in its prize fund.

Special thanks to the 2014 Don Glover Masters event sponsors: Bakersfield Convention & Visitors Bureau, our anonymous sponsor, Ebonite International/The Bowlers Edge Pro Shop, Fabrications by Addington, Robb's Pro Shop, Brunswick, Phantom Radio, Mark Baker Bowling and Carol King-Glover

Live From Augusta.... It's the MASTERS

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY — Of BOWLING!! Wow... what a difference a week (and a little oil) makes! After going 4 weeks without a perfect game, last night's results served up not 1, not 2, not 3, but FOUR 300 games and a new high series for the season of 824. IF you were not shooting 260+, well let's just say you sssss, no, you ain't.... well, you are NOT getting mentioned, how's that. Pro Approach was again proved stand offish, which is not surprising, they are all smug but the lovely Jessica, but yes, they once again knocked off their challengers 4-1, as Frank "Bad A$$" Barefoot lived up to his name with 300/774 to easily take down Team 12's Jeff Carr 721 & Brent Ilagan 691. Team 16 swept into a second place tie with Team 12 and will face Billy Myers Jr. and company next week. Charles Zeyala 267/763, Arnold Cheesman 279/746 and Herbert Jones 265/722 were able to whitewash an overmatched Team 10. SYSCO also managed the shutout as Charlie Kinstler owned the lanes tonight (and every night!) with 300/781 to overcome the efforts of Ramon Torres who paced Team 15 with 265/715. Team 19 stayed on contention for the round with a 4-1 win over Team 7. The one two punch of Eddie VanDaniker 731 & Lee Liu 727 paved the way as Anthony Santos 694 was only able to help Team 7 win Game 1. Matt Schermerhorn 278/797 & Jonathan Gale 269/735 powered Team 13 into the picture as they were able to HAMMER Bowlm 5-0 without a fight.

Team 6 had an awesome night, as they showed signs of invincibility with an incredible striking performance, beating J.A.T. 5-0 with a huge 2932 Team Series. All but Captain Mike Nakunz (673) managed to bust out as Mason Sherman 278/770, Zack unretired Jellsey 300/747, and Jon "I'm married to Jessica" Diso 300/742 collected not only strikes, but cash as well. Team 18 overcame two close losses to dominate Team 11 the last game to manage a 3-2 win. Team 2 double teamed their way to a 4-1 win as Miguel Garcia 711 & Kevin Too Tall Jones 279/694 took down So Cal's hottest bowler Justin Ziegler & his Team 8 efforts, as JZ led the pair with 742, but couldn't overcome his teammates' inconsistency. The night's biggest set and Team Series happened on the first pair, 11-12 as Mikey Villareal subbing for Spanky went all in for 269/265/290 for 824, while Bobby Campagnale garnered 740, Jason "I'm better than Randy" Buenviaje 706, Brian Main 268/670 added up to a new Team High Series of 2940, a 245 average for all twelve games bowled. Juan Zavala 278/704 & David Gullett 697 paced Team 17. Team 20 was left with a sour taste in their mouth after facing off with Blizz Berry, as Mike Cammarata managed to overcome last week's struggle with a huge set of 279/781. He was helped by anchorman Greg Neuer who returned to action with 267/723. Debbie Abahazy led the losing side with 687. Finally, Buddy "NO HELP" Lucas continued to tear it up with 288/767 but it wasn't enough to eek out a win. Sidepot winners were Game 1 Arnold Cheesman 279 Game 2 Jason Buenviaje 269 Game 3 Super Pot to the STILL unretired Zack Jellsey and his perfect game. Financial Advisor's $240 Pot was hauled in by another 300, Frank Barefoot while David Yamo collected a bill for 290. Many honor scores were hit tonight, pretty common when the "house" shot is out and these guys are able to open them up.

Next will see a challenge from the left side as Arnold Cheesman and Charles Zeyala hope to team up on Billy Myers Jr. and his crew and close the gap for the top spot with only two weeks to go. Realistically, probably 6, maybe 8 teams in contention with only 10 wins left available. The action will be getting hot as evidenced by the FOUR 300 games this past week, so IF you are wondering what most of the top SO CAL bowlers do after MNF, well come down to Del Rio Lanes in Downey and find out!! Have a blessed weekend everyone, see you (maybe) next week!
