Finals for California Fab 5 Tournament to Be Held at Cal Bowl in Lakewood

by Fred Eisenhammer

LAKEWOOD – The California Fab 5 tournament has decided on its site for the finals this year.

It will be held Sunday, Dec. 9 at Cal Bowl in Lakewood, which is in southern Los Angeles County, north-east of Long Beach. The event will begin at 11 a.m.

The Fab 5 is one of the most exciting tournaments in Southern California and often provides a memorable experience for the teams' five bowlers.

Qualifying is starting at various bowling centers in Southern California and will end Nov. 29.

The tournament is sponsored by the Bowling Centers of Southern California.

Forest Lanes in the Orange County city of Lake Forest served as host of the Fab 5 state finals last year. Bowlum Lanes in the San Bernardino County city of Montclair served as the site of the finals in 2016.

The two previous years, the finals were held at Fountain Bowl in Fountain Valley (2014) and Keystone Lanes in Norwalk (2015).

The Fab 5 is a handicap tournament and features a Team Baker format.

Under this format, each of the team's five players bowls two frames per game. The team's anchor, for instance, bowls in frames 5 and 10.

Last year a team from Forest Lanes won the title at its home lanes. The five-some of Jon Diso, Jessica Diso (Jon's wife), Mele Cardoso, Kevin Valmonte and Tarika Onishi earned the top seed for the three-team stepladder finals and then defeated the representative from Jewel City Bowl in Glendale, 457-404, in the two-game championship match.

It marked the third Fab 5 championship in as many years for a Forest Lanes team. The two Disos, along with Virgil Dunziellas, Robert Leahy and Brent Illagan, earned the title in 2015. Valmonte was part of the winning Forest Lanes team in 2016.

The champion Forest Lanes bowlers won $1,000 and Jewel City earned $500 for its second-place performance last year.

SHANNON O'KEEFE, JORDAN RICHARD HIGHLIGHT 2018 PWBA TOUR SEASON

Jordan Richard & Shannon O'Keefe

ARLINGTON, Texas – The 2018 Professional Women's Bowling Association season officially is complete, highlighted by Shannon O'Keefe completing a bucket-list item in earning PWBA Player of the Year honors and Jordan Richard reaching the stepladder finals at five events on her way to the PWBA Rookie of the Year award.

O'Keefe, of Shiloh, Illinois, claimed her first PWBA Player of the Year award after winning two titles in the first four events of the 2018 season, including her second career major at the United States Bowling Congress Queens.

She led the tour in championship-round appearances (seven), which included a runner-up finish at the PWBA Greater Harrisburg Open, third place at the PWBA Tour Championship, fourth-place finishes at the PWBA East Hartford Open and BowlerX.com PWBA Twin Cities Open, and a fifth-place finish at the U.S. Women's Open.

The 39-year-old righthander completed her career year by leading the Tour in points (130,050), tying for the lead in cashes (13), finishing fourth in average (216.27) and making the Round of 12 nine times.

"It means the absolute world to me," said O'Keefe, after clinching the award at the QubicaAMF PWBA Players Championship. "All the hard work, dedication, the tears, the frustra-

Johnnie Englehart's Perfect World

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – The 300 games keep piling up for Johnnie Englehart.

The 60-year-old Englehart turned in his latest perfect game last month, bowling a whopping 19 strikes in a row at one point during a marksman-like 794 series (257-300-237) at Winnetka Bowl.

That was the 71st perfecto for the right-hander from Winnetka, who was inducted into the California United States Bowling Congress Assn. Hall of Fame in June.

Just think: There was a time Englehart was convinced that he'd never bowl even one 300. And he absolutely believed that despite banging out a bundle of 279 games.

Then he bowled a 280 at now-defunct AMF Bowlerland Lanes in Van Nuys. After rolling that career-high game, Englehart still remained steadfast in his conviction that a "300 was not going to be in my resume."

To bowl his 280, Englehart spared the second frame after opening with a strike and then finished the game with 10 strikes. "But it still wasn't a 300," he lamented at the time.

"I came to the conclusion that it's not for me – honest," he said. "The biggest fish and the fastest car weren't for me."

Englehart had no reason to believe otherwise when his father Joe asked him to fill in on his team during league play Jan. 20, 1987 at since-closed Rocket Bowl in Chatsworth.

Englehart, then averaging about 211, was just shy of 29 years old.

He scored a 177 and 165 his first two games, but he still had enough confidence to implore his best friend [Tom Tucker] to hang around as long as he kept striking in the final game.

And strike he did – all the way to his first 300.

"It was a shock," Englehart said. "Prior to that, I didn't think I could bowl a 300. I had bowled a 279 every possible way."

Englehart's story is one of determination and stick-to-itiveness – a good lesson for all those bowlers who remain a strike or two away from nailing their first perfecto.

Englehart accomplished his first 300 amid a slight error in judgment – he turned and faced the ever-increasing throng of spectators after nailing his first strike in the 10th frame.

"I looked back and I shouldn't have," said Englehart, who remembered that he was using a rubber bowling ball. "All I could see was a sea of humans. You'd think I was marrying a princess and they're all lining up to watch."

But he shrugged off any nervousness on his 11th strike and threw a textbook strike on his final attempt. "And then the place when nuts," Englehart said. "It just went crazy. I couldn't get off the approach. You would have thought I had won the lottery. I'll never forget that."

Englehart is one of the L.A. area's most consistently prolific bowlers and has been for decades. He even won his first West Coast Senior Tour event in July – soon after he turned 60 years old and became eligible.

But his first 300 will always be special for him – even as he continues his assault on accumulating 100 perfect games, and perhaps even 100 800 series, of which he has 69.

"I've always said that if I shot a 300, I'd hope my dad would be there," he said. Mission accomplished!

Johnnie Englehart's first 300 didn't come easily. But since then, the California USBC Hall of Famer has been adding to his perfect-game collection in rapid fashion.

CLAREMONT NONPROFIT SEEKS TEAMS, INDIVIDUALS FOR BOWLING FUNDRAISER

The annual Balls O’ Fire fundraiser helps people living with HIV/AIDS

Laura Silvius, Development Manager • Foothill AIDS Project • (909) 482-2066 ext. 313 • laura@fapinfo.org

CLAREMONT/RANCHO CUCAMONGA – Bowling for a good cause is easy when you do it with Foothill AIDS Project. The Claremont-based nonprofit holds its 16th Annual Balls O’ Fire Celebrity Bowling Tournament at 11:30 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 14 at Brunswick Deer Creek Lanes in Rancho Cucamonga, and seeks teams and individuals from the bowling community to participate.

“This is our largest, longest-running fundraiser, and it’s essential to our fundraising success each year,” Executive Director Maritza Tona said. “More than that, though, it’s a lot of fun!”

Foothill AIDS Project works with Hollywood producer David Mirisch to invite television, film, and sports stars to lend their name and face to the event. Each team gets a celebrity to bowl with, and friendships often develop between the celebrities and families that come year after year.

“When we first started the Celebrity Bowling Tournament, I took my children to bowl in the event. These days, my children are taking their children,” said FAP Founding Board Member Michael Maher. “My grandchildren especially love bowling with some of the celebrities that they know from the Disney Channel and the other celebrities who participate in the event year after year. We always look forward to the Balls O’ Fire bowling tournament.”

Foothill AIDS Project offers a fundraising page for each individual or team wishing to participate in the event. Setting up and sharing a fundraising page through email or social media is a fun and easy way to crowdfund the registration fee and spread the word about your participation in a local community fundraiser.

Reserving a spot at Balls O’ Fire is easy. Simply text ‘Ballsofire’ to 51555 to register as a team of four or as an individual. From there, create a team name and profile, and easily share! Use your smartphone, tablet or other device, or visit the Balls O’ Fire page of FAP’s website at fapinfo.org/balls-o-fire.

- Admission into the event includes:
- Photo opportunity with celebrities
  - Two rounds of bowling plus one round of cosmic bowling, all with a celebrity guest
  - Shoe rental
  - Lunch provided by our generous sponsor BJ’s Restaurant & Brewhouse
  - Access to the Silent Auction table
  - Entry into the competition for top prizes
  - Opportunity to win door prizes

Joy Mahaffey and CJ Valleroy get very competitive about bowling at the Balls O’ Fire Celebrity Bowling Tournament.

Individual registration includes one guest pass with access to all the above benefits for $125. Team registration admits up to 10 people for $500. Bring family members and friends to enjoy free lunch by BJ’s and enter the silent auction for free air fare, gift cards, gift boxes from MAC Cosmetics, and other wonderful prizes!

If you meet your fundraising goals, we encourage you to keep going! The more funds you raise, the more lanes people you get—and every team or individual that raises over $1,000

This event is unlike any other bowling tournament you have been to. Besides the chance to meet the stars and compete for prizes, you get to spend a day helping raise funds to fight HIV throughout southern California.

Foothill AIDS Project began offering support to people living with HIV and AIDS in 1987. Today, FAP offers a full spectrum of programs and services that empower over 2,600 clients across over 28,000 square miles in three counties to manage their own long-term health goals. Integrated treatment and chronic care management, paired with stable housing planning and outreach, provide many tools for people living with HIV/AIDS to live longer, healthier, and more stable lives.

Evan Disney, CJ Valleroy and Blanca Blanco love bowling for life each year at the Balls O’ Fire Celebrity Bowling Tournament.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: BUTTURFF WINS 19TH REGIONAL TITLE IN ROHNERT PARK

Top qualifier Jakob Butturff of Tempe, Ariz., defeated Josh Blanchard of Mesa, Ariz., 259-206, to win the PBA Double Decker Lanes West/Northwest Open presented by Roto Grip at Double Decker Lanes Sunday, continuing his unprecedented domination of PBA Regional competition in the west.

The win, which was covered live by PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling, was Butturff’s 19th regional title in his three-year PBA career, and earned the $2,000 top prize.

Blanchard defeated Wayne Garber of Modesto, Calif., 232-222, in the semifinal match after Garber defeated Tim Cagle II of Hercules, Calif., in the opening match, 223-174,

- In Bluffton, Ind., EJ Tackett gave his family’s newly-purchased bowling center, EZ Bowl, a successful initiation Sunday when he defeated Patrick Dombrowski of Parma, Ohio, 235-199 to win the Bluffton Central/Midwest Open. Tackett re-located from Huntington, Ind., to Bluffton when his family recently acquired the bowling center that was subsequently renamed “EZ Bowl” based on the initials of the Tackett brothers, EJ and Zach. The title was Tackett’s first of the year in the PBA Central Region and his seventh career PBA Regional title. He earned $2,500 along with his title. Dombrowski defeated Michael Davidson of Versailles, Ohio, 223-204, to advance to the championship match after edging Brad Angelo of Lockport, N.Y., 182-181, in the first stepladder match.

- Keith Lesko of Prosper, Texas, defeated Mac Sanders of Taylors, S.C., 223-216, to win the PBA50 J&L Sports Spartanburg South Open at Paradise Lanes in Spartanburg, S.C., Sunday. Lesko won $1,900 along with his fifth career regional title. After rolling a strike in the ninth frame, he needed another on his first shot in the 10th frame to take the title and he delivered the shot he needed. In the semifinal round, Lesko eliminated Craig Auerbach of Sunrise, Fla., 244-178, while Sanders disposed of Tim Regan of East Northport, N.Y., 280-183.

- October’s PBA Regional events get underway this weekend with the PBA50 Mel Westrich Memorial/Ebonite Central/Midwest Open at Delphos Recreation in Delphos, Ohio; a PBA50 Southwest/Midwest two-day, two-tournament program at Junction City Bowl in Junction City, Kan.; the Albany Strikers South Open in Albany, Ga.; the 13th annual Battle at Black Oak Casino West Open in Tuolumne, Calif., and the DHC Japan Cheetah Mixed Doubles and Japan Queens at Nagoya Grand Bowl in Nagoya, Japan.

- The PBA Regional schedule for the Oct. 12-14 weekend includes the PBA50-PBA60 Central Doubles Open presented by Columbia 300 at Park Centre Lanes in North Canton, Ohio; the PBA-PBA50 Station 300 Baker Doubles in Bluffton, S.C., and the PBA50 and PBA60 Dick’s Pro Shop Northwest/West doubleheader presented by Boulder Falls at Linn Lanes in Portland, Ore.

- The Oct. 19-21 PBA Regional calendar includes the PBA50 Waxahachie Southwest Open at Hilltop Lanes in Waxahachie, Texas, and the Jackson Central/Midwest Open at Dave Small’s Jax 60 in Jackson, Mich.

- The final PBA Regional events of October take place over the Oct. 26-28 weekend, including the PBA50 Bryan’s Bowling Center East Open presented by the Hopkins Automotive Group and 900 Global in Laurel, Del., and the South Point West Challenge and PBA Member-Nonmember Doubles, both presented by Radical, at South Point Bowling Plaza in Las Vegas

- For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the “schedules” tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow “live scoring” for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple device users using the PBA app).

QUICK NOTES:

- PBA’s list of all-time regional title winners suggests no PBA member has come close to Jakob Butturff’s record in regional competition in his first three years as a member. Unofficially – because the PBA has never created record categories for its regional program – the closest to Butturff’s performance would be newly-elected PBA Hall of Famer Patrick Allen who won 10 of his 30 career PBA Regional titles between 2000 and 2002, his first three years of membership.

A quick check suggests no other PBA member has reached double figures in regional wins in a similar three-year span to start a career. Among the all-time regional title leaders, Chris Warren is no. 1 with 47 titles, but won only five times in his first three years. Pete Weber (second with 46 regional titles) won three times; Steve Jaros (43) won five times and Walter Ray Williams Jr. (33) won two regional titles in his first three years.

The PBA has previously noted that the 24-year-old left-hander won a record nine regional titles in his rookie year (2016), four in 2017 and six times as of Sunday in 2018.

BILL O’NEILL NOW ON “BUBBLE” AS PBA-WBT THAILAND SHUFFLES PBA CLASH TOP 8 LIST

The PBA International-WBT Thailand, which concluded Friday in Bangkok, at least temporarily shuffled the top eight qualifying positions on the 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour earnings list heading into the end-of-season PBA Clash, and Bill O’Neill is now “bubble boy” in the eighth spot.

Following the Thailand tournament, the top four on the 2018 PBA Tour earnings list remain the same: Jason Belmonte, Anthony Simonsen, Dom Barrett and Andrew Anderson. After a fourth-place finish in Thailand, Kyle Troup has moved up two spots to fifth; EJ Tackett drops one spot to sixth, Marshall Kent is seventh (down from sixth) and O'Neill is now on the bubble in eighth place, moving up two spots after finishing 15th in Thailand. Jesper Svensson has advanced to ninth ($1,470 behind O’Neill) followed by Jakob Butturff and Tom Smallwood.

Attention now turns to the FloBowling PBA Fall Swing (including the Wolf Open, Bear Open and Tulsa Open) at The Lanes at Coffee Creek in suburban Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 15-20, followed by the U.S. Open at Northrock Lanes in Wichita, Kan., Oct. 24-31, which will decide the earnings race.

PBA Xtra Frame on FloBowling will cover the PBA Fall Swing live from start to finish. Subscriptions are available at FloBowling.com. The preliminary rounds of the U.S. Open also will be live-streamed by Xtra Frame on FloBowling, Oct. 26-30, before the finals air live on CBS Sports Network on Oct. 31.

The WBT Thailand was also a WBT points event. The top three men and top three women in WBT points for the 2018 season will compete in the World Bowling Tour Men’s and Women’s Finals presented by the PBA which will be contested at the International Training and Research Center in Arlington, Texas, for airing on FS1 on Sunday, March 10, at 10 p.m. EST.

The current top five in men’s WBT points are: Anthony Simonsen, Stuart Williams, Kyle Troup, Andrew Anderson and Sean Rash. The women’s top five are WBT Thailand winner Danielle McEwan, Liz Johnson, Daria Pajak, Siti Safiyah Amirah and Shannon O’Keefe.

The final three events to earn WBT points in 2018 will be the PBA Tulsa Open, the U.S. Open and the all-events division of the World Bowling Men’s World Championships Nov. 24-Dec. 5 in Hong Kong.

PBA50 Tour for eight seasons. He took the opportunity to bowl full-time on the PBA50 Tour after selling his car wash and auto repair business.

“It was very special to win it the first time and especially so the second time,” Keane said. “You become such a family out here (on tour) that you want to see everyone succeed. I try to reach out and help guys whenever I can and many of them do the same for me.

“It’s interesting to see the evolution of meeting someone on tour for the first time and then you become good friends. It has become such a part of our lives that we’re not just bowling people; many of us also are motorhome people.”

Keane has a career-high PBA50 Tour finish of fourth in the 2015 PBA/PBA50 Tour South Shore Doubles with partner Tommy Jones. He had a 2018 season-best finish of ninth in the South Shore Open and a fifth-place finish in the season-ending PBA60 Dick Weber Championship.

“I’m happy to say that I’m getting better each year,” Keane added. “Sooner or later you accept the fact that you need to do something different to get better and thankfully I’ve learned that lesson.”

The only other player to previously earn the Dick Weber Sportsmanship Award twice was Robert Harvey in 2010 and 2013.

Other 2018 PBA50 Tour award winners were Michael Haugen Jr., who earned PBA50 Tour Player of the Year; Rolando Sebelen, Rookie of the Year, and Ron Mohr who earned his third consecutive PBA60 Player of the Year. Player and Rookie of the Year awards were based on competition points. Recipients will receive their awards during a presentation at the 2019 Suncoast PBA Senior U.S. Open in Las Vegas.

The Dick Weber Sportsmanship Award is named in honor of the PBA legend who won 30 PBA Tour and six PBA50 Tour titles during his Hall of Fame career, and was considered one of the sport’s greatest ambassadors.

The MURTISHAW “FAMILY” Ebonite Scratch League Champions

by Frank Weiler

LAKE ELSINORE – The “First Family” of Bowling in the southern tier (Jim, Anita and Matt Murtishaw) are also the top scratch bowling team in the area as well.

The “FAMILY” claimed the title as best team in the southern tier by winning the Ebonite 640 Scratch League Championship. The Ebonite League is the top league in Riverside County with many of the teams boasting PBA bowlers and three of the teams anchored by PBA Champions.

It was no surprise that the MURTISHAW’S won the league title since every time the family has teamed together they have won league championships. Also, the team featured two of the top bowlers in the league (father Jim at 228 and son Matt at 225).

The MURTISHAW’S were the third seed in the league step ladder playoffs and won three consecutive Team Match Games to win the title.

The “FAMILY’S” first playoff win was against DAR-RON PETERS’ trio, by ONE PIN!!! That victory was only secured after Matt Murtishaw finished with four strikes and a huge 258 game. It was an impressive win because Darron was the league’s top bowler (230 average) and had just rolled games of 279 and 278 to lead his fifth seeded team to two huge wins. Two wins that leading up to his teams match against the Murtishaws.

The Murtishaws then knocked off SCOTT LARIV-IERE’S second seeded crew 664 - 636. The championship game was a thriller with the champions defeating the league’s defending champions (JEFF and MARK LEW-EN) 642 - 636.

Congratulations to the champions and it will be interesting to see if the “FAMILY” can defend it’s title as the EBONITE LEAGUE kicks off this season at PINS N POCKETS Bowling Center.

The California Bowling Writers has adopted a new charity!

Operation Freedom Paws nonprofit organization was founded by “California Bowler and Veteran” Mary Cortani in 2010 that has provided service dogs and training support to veterans and others who suffer from post-traumatic stress syndrome, complex PTSD, traumatic brain injury and other physical, neurological, psychological and mobility needs. According to experts, service dogs help empower people with disabilities to live quality lives. Operation Freedom Paws carefully matches clients with their specially chosen four-legged companions, most of which come from rescue shelters. The partners then begin a 48-week program which trains the clients to train their own dogs. At the end of the program, they’re certified together as service dog teams. The charity for 2018 kicked off on June 10, at the CUSBC meeting – Make donations payable to CBW and mail to Treasurer Tina Martin, 57 Shields Lane, Novato, CA 94947-3877. “We are pleased to continue supporting Vets.”

tions – it’s all worth it. I feel I’ve been knocking on the door, and I’ve had some really good seasons. Last year, I finished third, the year before that was fifth.

“I’ve been climbing that ladder and knocking on the door. I just feel player of the year is something people always will remember in your career. I have bucket-list items that I’m trying to check off and that was just one of them. So, to be able to mark that off, I can move on to the next thing.”

Richard, 22, stood out in what was arguably the best rookie class since the relaunch of the PWBA Tour in 2015. Despite missing the Tour’s first three events, Richard settled in nicely, and, in only her fourth event, claimed her first career title at the PWBA Greater Harrisburg Open.

The two-time National Tenpin Coaches Association Division I Player of the Year finished the season second in average (217.43), third in championship-round appearances (five) and seventh in points (89,150).

The Tecumseh, Michigan, native was a mainstay on CBS Sports Network in August, making the TV finals in all four events during the month, and was the only player on tour to make four consecutive finals appearances.

She garnered a third-place finish at the BowlerX.com PWBA Twin Cities Open, fourth-place finishes at the Pepsi PWBA St. Petersburg-Clearwater Open and QubicaAMF PWBA Players Championship, and fifth-place at the Nationwide PWBA Columbus Open.

“I really don’t think it will set in for a while,” said Richard, after learning she had earned enough competition points to claim the honor. “It’s something that I’ve always wanted since I’d heard about the relaunch of the PWBA in 2015. I knew when I came out here it’s what I wanted. I was rookie of the year in college and then I was rookie of the year in one of the organizations that I bowled in, so it’s something that I’ve wanted.”

In addition to O’Keefe, seven players returned to victory lane during the 2018 PWBA season including PWBA Player of the Year runner-up Danielle McEwan, who claimed the PWBA Fountain Valley Open for her fourth career title. McEwan provided O’Keefe a late scare down the stretch in the race for PWBA Player of the Year, but she fell just short of the honor.

Liz Kuhlkin captured her second career title and first major championship at the U.S. Women’s Open. Kuhlkin, who won the PWBA Topeka Open in 2015, was without a title since but made major strides in 2018 to return to the winner’s circle.

Stefanie Johnson captured her first career major championship at the QubicaAMF PWBA Players Championship in front of a hometown crowd at Plano Super Bowl in Plano, Texas. Johnson made the TV finals in three of the four majors this season, finishing fourth at the USBC Queens and second at the U.S. Women’s Open before claiming the emotional victory.

Other players returning to victory lane in 2018 were: Josie Barnes (PWBA East Hartford Open); Liz Johnson (PBA/PWBA Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles, Nationwide PWBA Columbus Open); Diana Zavyalova (Pepsi PWBA St. Petersburg-Clearwater Open); and Rocio Restrepo (BowlerX.com PWBA Twin Cities Open).

Joining Richard as first-time champions in 2018 were Shayna Ng (PWBA Las Vegas Open); PWBA season average leader (217.46) Erin McCarthy (PWBA Louisville Open) and Maria Jose Rodriguez, who captured last week’s PWBA Tour Championship at Richmond Raceway in Richmond, Virginia.

The 2019 PWBA Tour schedule is set and the season will kick off in Cleveland with the PWBA Greater Cleveland Open on April 25-27. The 2019 schedule includes three new venues –Golden Pin Lanes in Tucson, Arizona, Executive Strike and Spare in Louisville, Kentucky, and Buffalo Lanes North in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Visit PWBA.com for the complete 2019 schedule, player biographies, photos, videos and more. Don’t forget to follow the PWBA on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram for all offseason content.

INVITATIONAL

THREE OLIVES VODKA TAKES THE LEAD IN INVITATIONAL
TAKE 4 OUT OF 5 IN SPITE OF THE 795 SET FROM BILLY MYERS JR.

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY – The Bowlm team moved into first place last Monday night after their defeat of Sysco. The Bowlm was not able to keep their hold on the top position though, as Three Olives Vodka was more than up to the task this week. However, there are two weeks to go in the first round and there are still several teams in contention for that first playoff spot at the end of the season.

Billy Myers Jr. came out striking for Bowlm in the first game, leading them to victory with his 279 game. In fact, Bowlm won that game by over 100 pins. The rest of the night would belong to Three Olives Vodka though. Myers continued striking in game two, shooting 278, but that was beaten by a 290 game from Eric Snow of Three Olives, and Myers simply wasn't getting enough help from his teammates on this night. Game three belonged to Three Olives as well, and they won by enough to take totals, winning the match four games to one. Myers finished with a league leading set of 795. Three Olives Vodka was led by Eric Snow with 717.

Sysco got back on the winning track, taking four out of five games from Buddy's Bowling Supply. The wins improve Sysco to 17-8 and have them only two games out of first place but still on the second pair of lanes going into next week. Paul Barraco led Sysco with 276/738. Gabriel Martinez helped with 255/675. Bobby Campagnale had a 278 in the final game to get Buddy's their lone win on his way to a 658 series.

Brian Main substituted for team DV8 tonight in the match against Threadworks, and wound up leading the pair. Brian posted a 255-257-244/756 to lead DV8 to a five game sweep. Lee Liu helped out in the sweep with a 277/726 of his own. Eric Hefner had a nice 262/694 for Threadworks, but it wasn't enough to get them any wins. DV8 remains in contention for the round, now in third place with 17 ½ wins and two weeks to go.

Century 21—My Real Estate improved to 15-10 for the round following their 4-1 win over Herzog Insurance. Consistent scoring throughout the pair in this match, as the high shooter on the pair had 672 and five other players were within 33 pins of that. Low on the pair was 620. That 672 set was shot by Jon Huff, leading Century 21 to the four wins. Joel Arciniega topped the Herzog Insurance team with 248/664, edging out Nacho Vega's 661.

The Junior Amateur Tour Team pre-bowled their games due to the team being out of town for an event. The Professional Approach squad bowled on Monday night and their scores will be compared for wins and losses. Arnold Cheesman started quickly for Professional Approach with a 245 game on his way to a team leading 649 series.

Cal Bowl won 3 ½ games in their match against Tito's Handmade Vodka. The half came as the two teams tied at 862 in the second game. Tito's won the final game, but were not able to make up enough ground from the first game that they lost by 70 pins. Leonard Ruiz Jr. topped the pair, shooting a 259/700 for Cal Bowl. Will Hinckley led the way for Tito's with 279/678.

Keystone Lanes got four big wins over Bowling Guys on the next pair of lanes. They only filled out the recap sheet for the first two games, but we were able to do print outs and math to determine the final results. Stephanie Zavala led Keystone Lanes with 248/698. Daniel Updegraff subbed for Bowling Guys and easily topped the pair with 264/725.

Like the J.A.T, Don Julio Tequila was also out of town, forcing Captain Morgan to go it alone on their lanes. Don Julio will be making up their games, so I won't mention specific scores, but Ramiro Garcia bowled very well, leading the Captain Morgan team.

The final pair of lanes saw Forest Lanes sweep all five games from Linder's Insurance. This one was a blowout from the start as the low player from Forest was close to 50 pins above the high player from Linder's. Jon Diso led Forest with 238/673. His teammates added 665 (Brunning), 658 (Minter) and 655 (Espinoze) in a very consistent night for the team.

Charles Zelaya took the first sidepot of the night with a 267 game. Leonard Ruiz was second with 259. The second sidepot went to Lee Liu with 277. Jon Huff was the runner up at 257. The final super pot paid Bobby Campagnale $120 for his 278 game. Ramsey Basorto was second at 256.

Eric Snow earned $185 in the Financial Advisor's pot with his 290 game. Will Hinckley got paid $100 for his second place score of 279.

There are only two weeks to go in the first round. Only a couple chances left to come down and see the action while the bowlers are still throwing plenty of strikes. Bowling is at Del Rio Lanes on Florence Avenue in Downey every Monday night at 8:30 p.m. This Monday, the top pair will be a rematch of tonight's battle between Bowlm and Three Olives Vodka as Bowlm tries to take the top spot back. Meanwhile, those teams chasing them down will hope for a split so they can make up some ground. It's exciting. Don't miss out. Hope to see you next Monday.
