MURTISHAW & MURTISHAW Dominate

by Frank Weiler
MURRIETA — The Murtishaw men are leading all scratch bowlers in Cal Oaks "BIG LEAGUE" on Thursday night.

After four weeks, patriarch Jim is averaging 241 with four solid seven hundreds and high of 757. Son Matt is subbing at a 242 pace, with a high of 736.

By the way, the Murtishaw's are available for advice and ball drilling at their FAST LANES PRO SHOPS inside Brunswick Cal Oaks and Classic Lanes.

In today's world of scoring some would say a 240 average isn't so impressive. I say otherwise because the lane conditions for this league are difficult.

While CAL OAKS BOWL gives their bowlers a consistent shot every day, the shot on Thursday night at 9 PM is challenging.

The lanes are not oiled after the 6 PM league and no one can guess how the early evening keggers are going to move the oil around. I call the condition a "MISHMASH."

A Mishmash condition means these scratchers face a different challenge every week. Sometimes it is wet-dry, sometimes dry-dry, other times it is wet.

No one ever knows what to expect. To attest to the difficulty of the Mishmash, many of the other regular scratch bowlers are ten or more pins below their book average.

Some of the other bowlers doing well in the league are ALLEN FREEMAN, JAMES HAWKINS, JASON KIRKISH, SKI SZCZAWINSKI and DEWAINE WEST.

The high series so far are Allen Freeman's 768, Joey Mathis' 766 and James Hawkins' 761. What's up? Or should I ask what's down?

Last season Jim Murtishaw rolled three 800s in the first four weeks. This year no one has reached 770! Game highs include JERRY DeYAGER'S 299 and ALAN MOJADO'S 290.

ANITA MURTISHAW'S 684 leads the ladies parade with the high game by PAULA VIDAD at 246. Thank You BOWLING NEWS for keeping an eye on Citrus Belt bowlers.

Paula Vidad Looks to Defend USBC Senior Queens Title

ARLINGTON — Paula Vidad, will be defending her 2011 Senior Queens title this weekend and will attempt to become the first woman ever to go back to back. 2012 Senior US Open Champion Robin Romeo will be a top contender along with runner up Lucy Sandelin, 2010 Senior Queens Champion Char Hammel and Hall of Famer's Dana Miller-Mackie, Tish Johnson, Anne Marie Duggan, Pam Buckner and Fran Deken.

First contested in 2000, the USBC Senior Queens attracts an outstanding field of women who are age 50 or older, from all over the country and even the world. The event features the same qualifying process as the traditional Queens, but the senior event uses an abbreviated match play format.

After qualifying, bowlers making the cut join the defending champion in double-elimination match play, culminating with a stepladder finals

Missy Masters Cal Bowl Open

LAKEWOOD — Leonard Ruiz, Tournament Director, welcomed the "Open" challengers Saturday, to a day of great scores by great bowlers.

When the dust cleared, Missy Parkin was declared champ, and awarded her $2,000 prize money.

Over $8,000 was paid out in prize money and brackets.

Big thanks goes to Eric Snow for computing brackets and entering all scores, and deskman "Jaime" for his track record of running scores to Eric.

Leonard has uploaded the tournament pay-offs and bracket winners on facebook for the world to see.

Missy would like to thank her new sponsor Ebonite International as well as Etonic, Vise and Parkins' O.C. Bowling Supply for drilling her equipment.

Thanks to the bowlers who make the trek to Cal Bowl from Vegas, Arizona and all over California.

to determine the champion. Billed as the toughest Major championship to win, the match play competition will be undaunting.

Three days of qualifying action begins 10AM PT, Friday, Oct. 19th at the International Training and Research Center in Arlington, TX. Three-game match play begins 7AM PT, Monday, Oct. 22nd and concludes with the Top 4 Stepladder Finals 9:30AM PT, Tuesday, Oct. 23rd. BowlTV will provide live streaming coverage from first ball to last at www.bowl.com.

Alvin Francisco Finishes His Final Frame!

NORWALK — One of Our Finest, and Nicest ABTA Members Alvin Francisco passed Wed., Oct. 11 and left us at the youthful age of 41 die to heart failure. This man was so loved and liked by all that it is amazing.

Alvin was born March 5, 1971 in Forte Mead, Maryland. His father was a military man, over 20 years in the Navy. Alvin was raised in different States with parents Vicente and Anabella Francisco, and younger brother, Arthur. His father was transferred to Long Beach, Ca. in 1979 where his family, who are very close, were finally together notably the Trias and Francisco families.

Alvin never married but loved and cared for his family and friends, a complete gentleman so well-liked and One You can trust.

ABTA is fortunate to have him as a long time member. He and his cousin Annaliza and several other family members could be found at the events. I don't think he was or is a member of another Tournament Assn., but if so, they would surely be glad to have him as such!! He was humble and Modest and a Gentleman to all who knew him.

Mar. 5 1971--Oct. 11 2012
Alvin Francisco was presented the Male Bowler of the Year in 2011 at the the South Point Hotel Las Vegas in the Annual Awards presentation. He will be missed.

Many of the members who heard of his passing have said that no one was nicer. Many were surprised as they just bowled with him at West Covina.

He was humble. You can put credence in every one of his actions. He was reliable and honest. He did part time directing in our Club also and a great job always.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

ROBBY PYPER HITS HIS FIRST 300 AT RED ROCK LANES

LAS VEGAS—Finally after 32 years of trying, Robby Pyper II put 12 strikes in his second game on the eve of October 10 for his first career 300. The former Californian right-hander now residing in Las Vegas hit his perfecto after first game of 177 in 3705 Vegas Rollers league at Red Rock Lanes. Naturally he was so excited with his first 300, he finished with 151 for a 628 series.

The next day Pyper II came to Orleans Bowling Center to catch this writer there for the Deaf Senior Bowlers of America tournament to give the news of his 300. As proof he gave the team recap sheet and said he had one scare in his string of 12 strikes. A 9 pin stood on a perfect hit but fell after he turned his back to the pin. The crowd clapping made him turn back to see the pin gone. Congratulations to Robby Pyper for his first 300 and hope he hit his next one soon.

Lousy Bowlers Score for Cancer Research

by John Baker Sr.
LAUGHLIN — The smell of rosin and easy slide in the air sounds of bowling balls crashing into a pin or two, what is this you say a professional tournament?

No it's the Lousy bowler's tournament at the Don Laughlin's Riverside Lanes in Laughlin, Nevada. The hotly contested tournament for the bragging rights to be the best of the LOUSIEST bowlers. More than 60 took the lanes with averages under 176, two divisions: one for 136 and under, one 137-175 in what would turn out to be a high scoring, with handicap, event and it came down to the last game to determine our champions.

Opening up big was Tricia White with a huge 214 (250 with handicap) and took the early lead in Division 2, while Division 1 was being lead on the consistent shooting of Aleda Parker with Cecilia Martinez right behind her. When the pins settled and the scores were counted we had our champions.

Division 1 winner was Aleda Parker and had a score with handicap of 649 and this is her second win in the lousy bowler's tournament. Aleda wanted to thank her husband for all the great advice today which helped her win (again), with a total of $38.00 plus a brand new Ebonite ball for her day.

Division 2 Champion Jane Agnello won with a handicap a score of 666, what a little bowling devil and this is her first win. She wanted to thank the staff and employees at Riverside Lanes for running such a great tournament and for her day. Jane won $60.00 and also a new Ebonite ball.

Everyone enjoys this tournament and has fun being a "lousy" bowler and in all 25 lousy bowlers cashed in the event. Many were first time tournament bowlers, Way to go! A great time was had by all and a portion of the proceeds will go to Prostate and Breast cancer research.

Earlier that same morning another event took place that was the Better Bowlers Tournament. This was for those not good enough to bowl in the Lousy Bowlers (average over 175). In this inaugural event the scoring pace was tough. It came down to the last frame in the last game before we knew who had won and in the end only 18 pins separated first place from third place.

It was between Jim Coble -1st, Chuck Meek -2nd and John Baker -3rd and in the end with a last game score of 230 Jim Coble emerged victorious and earned $50.00 as well as a new Ebonite ball.

In all 5 people cashed in the event and proceeds from this event helped the junior fund and the Colorado River USBC scholarship for college. We want to thank all who participated in these events and we hope to see you soon at another of our tournaments real soon.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege
Disciplinary action by Carol Mancini

Carol: WE NEED TO TALK!!!
Steve: Uh-oh.....No good conversation ever starts like that.
Carol: You got that right, “Bucko!”
Steve: What did I do?
Carol: What did you do?! Other than destroying the entire bowling universe, nothing!
Steve: What?!
Carol: You heard me! I leave you alone for just one interview and you make my life look like, “The Great San Francisco Earthquake!”
Steve: What are you talking about? During the interview, we talked a little about bowling and I showed him a new use for old bowling balls.
Carol: That’s all you talked about, huh?
Steve: Well, yeah..... I think so! I mean, his phone kept going off and.....
Carol: Then how do you explain this e-mail?!
Steve: What e-mail?
Carol: THIS E-MAIL!!!!.....It’s from your new buddy!
Steve: Really?! He sent me an e-mail?
Carol: Here! Read it!
E-mail: Steve, I am sending you...this brief note...for two reasons (code for: There are at least three reasons). The first is to say...how much I enjoyed...talking to you (code for: “Vote for me!”). Del Rio Lanes...is the finest bowling establishment...I have ever seen (code for: “I’d never actually been inside a bowling center before.”). It should serve....as a beacon of hope...to bowlers everywhere (code for: “Tell all your bowlers to vote for me!”). Your location...in the greatest city in California (code for: “I have no idea where I was that day, but I really need California to vote for me.”).... was....as always...a thrill!
As we discussed,... I have asked Mr. Ayers...to serve his country...as its first “Bowling Czar”. His extensive background...and knowledge of our favorite sport (code for: “He knows where the lanes are located in the White House.”)....will lead to vastly improved performance...and job creation...in the sport Americans invented...over five thousand years ago (code for: “Don’t bother me with facts!”). Patriot that he is, he accepted this new position with fanatic enthusiasm (code for: “Are you #@%&* kidding me?!”).
As I mentioned.... he is renowned for his ability to come up with explosive.... game- changing ideas. Here are a few of his initial thoughts (code for: “Here’s what I want him to do!”).
- Bowling balls will be allowed on basketball courts, golf courses, tennis courts and any other sports which rely on balls! Restriction of bowling balls to bowling centers is discrimination!
- An executive order will be issued mandating that every citizen be required to bowl or pay a tax (code for: “I’ve gotten away with this before. Let’s see if I can do it again.”).
- Crossing the foul line can cause hurt feelings-especially for young children. That is unacceptable! Foul lines will be removed from all lanes not designated as historic landmarks. (code for: “I will offer major contributors a mechanism to opt out of this nonsense!”).
- Like the word “gutter”, the term “handicap” is offensive to some. Henceforth, it shall be banned. It will be replaced by the expression, “score subsidy”.
- The score subsidy will also be revised. It will be 100% of the difference from 300. Everyone will now bowl a 300 game every time (code for: “I make your dreams come true! Vote for me!”).
- Bowling pins will no longer be predominantly white. From now on, there will be equal numbers of white, black, brown, red and yellow (Hillary’s idea).
- Bowling pins will no longer be allowed to freely fly about without inspection by certified TSA agents. New pins will be created from recycled materials which will simply fall over with as little violence as possible. Pins now in use will be required to remove their shoes and stand in long lines until cleared for take-off.
- Smoking in bowling centers will no longer be banned; just tobacco products.
- French fries will still be allowed, but each bowler will be prohibited from having more than one (Michelle’s idea, not mine).
- Legal beverages (beer) will also continue to be allowed (with the exception of “Blue Moon”). Quantity allowed will be restricted to one fluid ounce per game (Bloomberg’s idea, not mine).
- Leagues will no longer be made up of a collection of teams. All bowlers will play for one team- MINE (code for: “Bowling will be unshackled from the chains of discrimination. There will be no men’s, women’s, or junior leagues. No leagues will exist for blind, deaf, or the physically challenged. Anyone will be able to bowl wherever and whenever they desire. Sounds like chaos? It won’t be; trust me! [code for: There will be so many rules and regulations, inspectors, overseersand other bureaucrats that we should achieve full employment in no time.])!
Steve: Wow! This is bad!
Carol: Bad?! No! The meteor that wiped out the dinosaurs was bad! The plague was bad! Japan’s tsunami was bad! This is the end of my world as I know it! This is bowling Armageddon!
Steve: So.....what do you want me to do about it?
Carol: You started it.....now finish it! Talk to him! DEAN! GET ME THE WHITE HOUSE!!!
Dean: One white house, coming right up.....
Phone: brrrrriiiiing..... brrrrriiiiing.....brrrrriiiiing.....
Voice on phone: This is a white house; how may I direct your call?
Steve: I’d like to speak to “B.O.”, please!
Voice on phone: I’ll put you right through, sir!
Carol: B.O.?!
Steve: Yeah, that’s the code they assigned him. If you know the code, they put you right through.
Carol: Well that’s appropriate ‘cause this whole thing stinks!!!
Steve: Shhhh!
Ring tone (“Hail to the Chief!”): Dum, dum, ta-dum....
Voice on phone: Hello?
Steve: Uh.....Mr. pres.....
Voice: Of course it’s me! Who else would be answering this phone?
Steve: Uh, sir, this is....
Voice: I know who this is! In fact, I know where you are and where you live! I even know what you had for breakfast.....let’s see here.....styrofoam packaging peanuts! Really?! That must be a misprint.....or another one of those codes they use. I should probably attend more of those meetings. Hold on a second; let me sink this putt.....nuts! Not even close!!! Hey Joe, accidentally kick that in for me, will ya. No, I won’t look.....plausible deniability.....I know!.....It went in? Really?! That’s another hole-in-one for me... and on a par five! I’m starting to get the hang of this! Now, if you’ll just give me a minute Joe, I have to take this call.....Hey, coach! How are you? And how are things in my favorite voting center in California?.....Did I say voting center?.....Really? I meant bowling center!
Steve: Yes sir, I’m sure you did. Uh, sir, the reason I’m calling is that I just got your e-mail about all the changes being proposed for our sport.....
Voice: Pretty innovative, huh? Well, that’s what progressive thinking is all about; making life better for everyone. Now, what can I do for you Steve? Just name it (code for: GET ME VOTES!).
Steve: Well sir, we need to talk about some of these ideas. The USBC has been doing a great job of.....
Voice: The USBC? Who are they?
Steve: The United States Bowling Congress. They govern this sport.
Voice: Bowling has its own Congress?!
Steve: Yes sir.
Voice: Are you suggesting they may not approve some of my Czar’s ideas? If that’s the case, I’ll be glad to deal with them the same way I deal with the House and the Senate.
Steve: How’s that, sir?
Voice: I’ll just ignore them (code for: “I get away with that all the time!”).
Steve: I understand sir, but some of these ideas are just Voice: I know, aren’t they something? I told you we’d change things! I’ve even thought of a few more. Are you ready for this? I promised to end this country’s addiction to oil and promote “green” technologies. Well, I talked to the lane manager at my house and he told me the lanes are dressed with oil every day, even if they don’t get used. Did you know that?!Steve: Yes sir.
Voice: That makes no sense to me! Even though they haven’t been used in twenty years, they still need to be conditioned every day? Can you explain that?
Steve: Well, sir, I’ve heard it said that bowling lanes are like good work horses; even if you don’t use them, you still have to feed them.
Voice: That’s quaint, but why do we have to use oil?
Steve: There are several reasons, sir. Oil has a low coefficient of friction, so it protects the lanes surface. It also moves as a lane is played. This forces bowlers to read and adjust to an ever-changing condition.
Voice: Low co-e-whatsis of friction?
Steve: It’s slippery, sir.
Voice: Why didn’t you just say so? If it’s slippery you want, let’s just coat the lanes with algae!
Steve: Replace oil with algae?
Voice: Yes, algae! When I was growing up in K...Ke...Ken...Hawaii. there was this stream, and the rocks were all covered with algae. That algae was so slippery that I fell down every time I crossed that stream!
Steve: Did you land on your head a few times, sir?
Voice: As a matter of fact, I did. How did know?
Steve: Just a lucky guess, sir.

He was also modest and it was great to interact with him. He told me one day, “I am going to get one of these titles” and that he did! In fact he got what you call Hot, as in five events he was top qualifier in the finals 3 times!! I can’t think of anyone in all the years doing that! In fact he is the only one ever to do so!

He won two of them including the Las Vegas Open at the South Point. It was great to see by all of us!!

Alvin will be missed by his friends and family. God only knows we will miss him at the Tournaments.

It feels so strange that we will not see him and his smiling face again. He will not be forgotten by all who knew him.

Alvin, We already Miss YOU, and we already know that You are working on that 300 game from above where it means so much more.

It was such a pleasure to have known you my friend. God Bless You and Your Family!

One of many friends BOB SMITH.

ABTA at Keystone Lanes for third of HDCP Special - Handicap is Semi Frozen Special Saturday

Alvin Francisco Passes Away Funeral Saturday - Viewing Thurs-Friday see special article

FONTANA—We returned to Foothill Lanes where we saw 165 entries come out on Saturday for a fun competitive day of bowling. The cut scores were + 93 for the men and + 48 for the women, on a medium shot this week. The Super Seniors added to the board (two men and one Woman) were Manny Loria +89, Ely Cruz +68, and Wendy Soo Hoo +41. Super seniors are men 63 and over, and for the women you just need to be a young 55. That would give us 43 bowlers making it to the semi-finals.

The High qualifiers were Kmel Cunanan for the men with a +218. He shot a 298 scratch game during the 6 pm squad, leaving the 3-6 on his final shot. On the same pair Freddie Catamisan shot eleven strikes in a row after leaving a nine count in the first frame. Both these occurred during the second game. For the women it was Marina Suos with a +148. They will get a paid entry into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed draws the Match Series, and this time it was worth $240. Kmel would draw the score and he drew a 531. We had no bowler that bowled this score. Therefore, we will estimate the Match Series at $580 at Keystone Lanes event. Teddy Villaroman was standing for the 3-6-9 roll; he got the chance to go for $1,000. He was not able to get all five strikes or nine counts so he takes home a consolation of $50. The pot will be $1,100 at Keystone Lanes.

In our optional doubles, finishing in first were Roland “Pacquo” Suase and “Steady” Freddy Zamora with a 1518 for $160. Finishing in second was Tim Tran and Jimmy Wong with a 1515 for $140. There was a total of $1,970 paid out in doubles and 26 paid spots with low to cash of 1421.

After the semi-finals, finishing in first was Kmel Cunanan with a +213 and finishing in second was Melvin Finner at a +155. So he sat out the first round. Our top seed had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $3,500. Kmel drew a 189. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had four bowlers who shot that score. They were Samson Kong, Ed Abarca, Clemente Guajardo, and Benjamin Chung. Each will get $875. We still have four full pots and now a fifth pot started we will go for $3,500 again. Saturday at Keystone Lanes

This would bring us our top 16 Match Play finals. In the first round, the seven losers were Mariya Toro, Sun Sundara, Ada Wong-Hum, Roy Li, Jimmy Wong, Jeff Taino, and Roland Suase each will get $100. In the second round, the four losers were Rey Josafat, Tomas Chavez, Marina Suos, Tim Tran with each getting checks of $105.

This would get us down to the final five bowlers. The weekly horses are paying a low of $29, Emilio Flores, to a high of $155, Manny Natividad. In one match, it was Manny Natividad the fourteenth seed versus Melvin Finner the second seed. This was another of our high scoring matches where Manny advancing with a 198/232 to 150/183 final. In the other match, it was Edgardo Talavera the third seed versus Emilio Flores the fourth seed. This was another one of the medium scoring matches. This match went down to the tenth frame where it was Edgardo ecking out the close victory with a 193/233 to 178/232 to advance. Emilio and Melvin finished in fourth and fifth getting checks for $112.50 each.

Our semi-final match was all set, and would pit the third and fourteenth seeds from the semis against each other. In the weekly “horses”, we would see Manny paying $155 and Edgardo paying $41 if they would win their match. Edgardo would lead off the match with a spare. Manny would open in two out first three frames, giving Edgardo a lead of 28 pins at that point. Both bowlers would stay clean all the way to the ninth frame. Edgardo held too big of a lead at that point, and he would still go on to advance with a 194/234 to 173/207. Manny would take home $200 for his third place finish. For those lucky “investors” that had Edgardo as a horse, he paid $41.

The title game was all set. It would be top qualifier Kmel Cunanan going for his third title and Edgardo Talavera for his first championship. Kmel would start out with an open. Edgardo would match that open and then get a strike in the second frame. Kmel came up and got a couple of spares in his two frames. Edgardo would come up and get two more strikes to give him 3 and put him up by 30 pins. Both bowlers would stay clean thru the seventh frame and at that point Edgardo held a 26 pin lead. An open by Kmel in the eighth frame gave Edgardo a 36 pin lead, and that would lead to Edgardo finishing with a 208/248 to 162/190 to take home his first ABTA championship. He would take home $1,000 for the victory and an additional $1,700 for Cash and Carry to give him a total of $2,700. Kmel would take home $500 for his second place finish.

He would like to thank his boss Usha and Al Villarreal for all their support, all of his friends who prayed for them and the cheers and support. On a Very Sad Note we are in sorrow to hear of the passing of our Friend and ABTA Member Alvin Francixco, who left us way too soon. He was a wonderful man and no one was nicer or more helpful. He was a Special Person to say the least. Our ABTA members at Foothill were in shock and in sorrow when they heard the news. Please see our related story on this fine man in this paper which lists the viewing and funeral. I will miss this man. He was One of a Kind.

Its history folks as Edgardo Talavera enters the archives as our latest champion. Hope to see you at Keystone Lanes! If you have any comments or suggestions, use the contact page on our Website to send comments to us. Thank you for being an ABTA member until then!

VIENNA OPEN VICTORY CLINCHES BERTH FOR BARNES IN WBT MEN’S FINALS

VIENNA — In front of the biggest crowd ever at Plus Bowling in Vienna, Austria, PBA Tour star Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, captured his 14th PBA Tour title and his second Columbia 300 Vienna Open win Sunday when he defeated fellow American star Sean Rash, 257-214, in the title match.

By winning the event, Barnes took a 54-point lead over Rash in the race for the third and final berth in the Bayer Advanced Aspirin World Bowling Tour men’s finals, presented by the PBA. With only the Australian Masters remaining in the 2012 WBT points race – and 50 points available to the winner – Barnes has officially locked Rash out of the WBT finals, which will be conducted during the PBA World Series of Bowling IV at South Point Casino and Hotel in Las Vegas on Saturday, Nov. 10.

Barnes, who won his first PBA International Tour title, also collected a first prize of roughly $9,000. Rash, who lives in Montgomery, Ill., made a valiant bid for the title, striking out in the final game of Round 3 to advance from fifth place into the stepladder finals as the No. 3 qualifier. Rash then eliminated England’s Stuart Williams, 191-181, and Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., 189-158, to advance to the title match.

Heading into the Australian Masters (which concludes Oct. 27 in Sydney), reigning WBT men’s champion Mika Koivuniemi of Finland has retained the top qualifying position for the three-man stepladder finals with 408 points. Mike Fagan (342 points) and Barnes (328 points) are second and third, respectively. Rash is fourth with 274 points.

The women’s WBT rankings are dominated by American PBA members with Missy Parkin of Lake Forest, Calif., leading the way with 329 points. Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., is second with 319, while Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, N.Y., is third with 295. Defending WBT women’s champion Carolyn Dorin-Ballard has a chance to overtake Johnson, but is not entered in the Australian event.

The World Bowling Tour, conducted by the World Tenpin Bowling Association, is made up of a series of events around the world. Players earn points based on where they finish in each event. The top three men and top three women on the basis of total points over a span of two years are invited to compete in the Bayer Advanced Aspirin WBT Finals presented by the PBA.

The WBT Finals will pay a total prize fund of $70,000 with the winner of each division earning $20,000, second place $10,000 and third place $5,000. The WBT finals will be conducted on a special lane installation at South Point Hotel and Casino on Saturday, Nov. 10, and will air on ESPN as the first event of the PBA Tour’s 2012-13 television season on Sunday, Dec. 9, at 1 p.m. ET.

Paying it Forward

A real conversation with a real professional

by John Baker Sr.

In speaking with Chuck Mogavero of PBS pro shop in Kingman, AZ to get his take on bowling and the importance of being prepared. Chuck is no stranger to the PBA tour, as a former member, he has a very specific and enlightening view point on pro bowling. This is a very real conversation we had with him.

Chuck begins with: I have been bowling for 43 years, 5 of them on tour , 3 full time and several other leagues and tournaments. My father started me out when I was 7 years old . Sunday morning practice sessions and junior leagues followed .The only thing I knew was that I loved the game from the first year I started. I never averaged over 175 until I was 18 years of age . That’s when I met the best coach I have ever been associated with ,Wayne Zahn. He had the greatest natural ability and he took your game and improved it by taking what you did well and tweaking it and not changing so much you had to rebuild and all your natural ability was gone. Shortly thereafter honor scores came and tournament victories as well, just local stuff.

That’s when everything changed and the opportunity to go on the PBA tour arose. Biggest mistake my father and I ever made. However in 1985 it seemed like the right thing to do. At that time there weren’t any big money amateur tournaments . I don’t even know if collages had bowling programs back then. There wasn’t JBT or Team USA back then so if you had anything going you turned Pro. At age 22 I went out there and made the smooth transition from league bowler and sweeper winner to – touring pro. Yeah right, I thought my head was going to explode, that’s the one thing that saves your ass when you’re out there , I can attest to that, it was the weakest part of my game. If there’s one piece of advice I can give it’s this “ Don’t go anywhere near competing with the best in the world straight from your Thursday night beer fest”. Now a days there are so many things to do in junior competition and college bowling, you should take full advantage of them. They build your mind and self confidence. All in all, it wasn’t too bad. It could have been worse, a lot worse. I bowled in 112 national tournaments, I cashed in 48 of them and make 24 man match play in 30 of those. Highest finish I had was 7th and the most I made in a single year was just over $25,000. Just to make myself feel better, I took a look at the PGA golfer who finished at the same place on the money list that year – he made $465,000. Too bad my dad didn’t like golf. After I had decided to quit the tour, I took all of my equipment that I had and had won in the nearest dumpster. I didn’t bowl for over 7 years. When I picked it back up, that’s when I actually started having fun.

To make a long story a lot shorter, there’s two things that I would NOT change about the role bowling has played in my life. First, as a pro shop operator I really have the ability now to promote the sport. The proper fit helps every bowler enjoy the game without pain. The proper layout helps the competitive bowler get everything out of every piece of equipment they have Seeing both are very enjoyable for me. Secondly, I now have a son that is light years ahead of me in this game. Thankfully, he listens to me. I hope he gets all the junior and collegiate experience he can before he even tries to bowl professionally. You have to be extremely talented and mentally tough to compete with them, I wasn’t. I had no one around me who could understand or help me with the situation at that time. I hope to be able to prepare my son to do whatever he has set his mind to do. The proper steps need to be taken. That’s the proper word – steps, stairs, don’t take the elevator like I did.

I know Chuck personally and he is a great guy. Chuck operates a pro shop along with Art Garcia. They both have first hand knowledge of the bowling circuit. Chuck is knowledgeable and will happily take the time to explain things. This is lacking in some businesses nowadays. It was a pleasure to speak with such a real down to earth guy who also realizes the importance of customer service and paying it forward! Thanks Chuck.

Money to Super Pots And Sweepers

The Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season.
With 47 entries on Monday, the Financial Advisors sidepot is looking at $235 in the weekly sidepot and $9000 estimated for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game.
Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot, will be adding $1,000 to the total collected. If you win 2 Super Pots all season you'll be ahead before we even get to sweepers with the $9000 payout. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

“TEAM KEGEL” TOPS THIS WEEK

DOWNEY — The “KEGEL” quartet took three games from “CLYDES VIDEO GAMES” to have a 23 game total for the first six weeks with next week being the end of the first round.

Are they home safe, not a chance! Check this out. If KEGEL wins one they will have 24. If BOWLIUM wins 4 they will have 24. CLYDES could tally up their own 24 with a 4-game win. PRO APPROACH at 19 could win 5 and have 24. LINDER INSURANCE, also with 19, could jump to 24. Five teams can still win the round and the possibility is there for a four way tie.

How much “fun” will week seven be? Come join the “bleacher bunch” to watch these great teams in action.

Brian Gonzales was the only 300 shooter this week. Nice going, Brian.

Vernon Adams and Jeff Seesholtz shared the first side- pot with their 279's. Second side-pot went to Steve Gurrieri's 248. Herbert Jones squeezed his own 279 for the #3 pot.

Josh Tajjiri with his 279 snagged the FINANCIAL ADVISORS POT for $235.00. Nice Pickins!

Four seven week rounds is a little different this year; but faster paced and more roll-off weeks at the end.

The league sheet is on line at www.delriolanes.com; take a look.
