Sean Rash Wins PBA Detroit Open for Back-to-Back Fall Swing Titles Open frames costly to top qualifier Jason Belmonte

While neither player

ALLEN PARK, MI -After winning his 10th career PBA Tour title in the PBA Badger Open last week, former PBA Player of the Year Sean Rash didn't waste any time starting on his next 10 titles by winning the PBA Detroit Open for his second consecutive win in the final championship event of the 2016 PBA Fall Swing at Thunderbowl Lanes.

In a low scoring match on the demanding 40-foot PBA Bear lane condition. Rash beat rival and top qualifier Jason Belmonte, 178-161, in the title match 2016 PBA Detroit Open Champion Sean Rash of selecting the Wolf, Bear PBA Fall Swing. The finals or Badger Fall Swing lane aired Wednesday on CBS oil patterns and chose the Sports Network. Bear pattern.

As the tournament leadof the fourth event of the er, Belmonte had his choice could get into a rhythm, Rash was helped by strikes in the first three of four frames. A missed single pin spare by three-time reigning PBA Player of the Year Belmonte was a portent of things to come as he left a 3-4-6-7 split in the fourth frame and a 3-4-6-7-10 split in the ninth frame, failing to convert either one.

"This (lane conditioning) pattern will eat you up," said Rash, who was the No. 2 qualifier for the finals. "It's probably the toughest condition we bowl on. It can be like an obstacle course.

"You take a tough condition like this and then you throw in the changing environment of bowling on TV where there are so many variables, from the changing lane conditions frameto-frame to the different styles of the players in the earlier matches," Rash continued. "It's not like bowling on league night, believe me."

Belmonte notched his third top-five finish in four Fall Swing events after finishing third in the Wolf Open and fourth in the Badger Open, but his bid for his first title of 2016 escape him once again.

Bowlers "Tip Their Hats" To La Keisha Jackson

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — We are bowlers, we are "Olympians", we tip our hats to La Keisha Jackson. She is the Senior Olympics Coordinator for the Inland Empire of CALIFORNIA.

La Keisha is an outstanding coordinator, efficient and still accommodating. Because she loves working with and for seniors, she is the heart and soul of our senior games. She attended every senior game and event. She was there as our senior bowlers competed and was the official presenting us with our medals: Gold, Silver and Bronze.

Best of all La Keisha is a people person. While attending our competition she greeted every bowler with a huge smile. A smile that said welcome before she said a word. Then she followed with encouraging words. She took interest in everyone there and how they were doing. She circulated amongst the bowlers, spoke with everyone and listened to what each had to say.

Every bowlers experience was made special because she Injected her personal touch into every aspect of our competition. We all had a good time, win or lose, because of her.

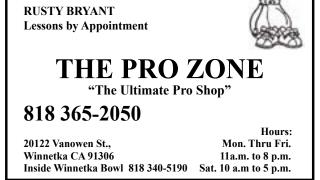

While the Senior Olympics featured competition in five sports (billiards, bowling, horseshoes, swimming and track) La Keisha made us bowlers feel like our sport was the featured sport of the games. Thank you Ms. Jackson.

Therefore, we "TIP OUR HATS" to La Keisha Jackson in gratitude for her making our experience memorable. We want everyone to know that BOWLERS are appreciative. We appreciate you and your efforts on our behalf.

If a player doesn't meet the 10 title minimum requirement for eligibility, the alternative is five standard PBA Tour titles plus two majors. Mike Scroggins (eight titles including two majors) is membership-eligible and title-eligible under the alternate criteria (for the record, Rash, Barnes, Jones, Koivuniemi, Allen and Belmonte also have won at least two majors among their total titles).

When a player achieves both title and years of membership requirements, he is automatically put on the PBA Hall of Fame ballot. Scroggins, Goebel and Hoskins are currently on the PBA Hall of Fame ballot, which requires a candidate to receive votes on at least two-thirds of ballots cast for election to the hall of fame. Last year, the Forest Donkeys team nailed down the state title after advancing out of Forest Lanes. The five members were Jessica Diso, Virgil Dunziellas, Robert Leahy, Brent Ilagan and Jon Diso.

The Donkeys breezed to a 207-146 victory in the championship match of the stepladder final, earning the $1,000 top prize. This year, the champion is guaranteed to win at least $1,555.

Last year, the secondplace team received $700 and the third-place team claimed $400.

In the semifinal match, Rash beat 10-time Tour winner and 2009 Player of the Year Wes Malott, 202-198, striking out in the 10th frame to take the four-pin victory. Rash also had defeated Malott, 259-195, in the title match of the Badger Open.

"I didn't get off to a great start in the match (against Malott), so I was grateful to be in a position where I could win," said Rash, who won PBA Player of the Year honors for the 2011-12 season. "I just stayed with the game plan of playing straighter, keep the ball in play and fill the frames. I could have probably done better but I did good enough to win."

Rash was the first player to win back-to-back in 2016, joining Jesper Svensson (three titles) and fellow two-time winners E.J. Tackett and Ryan Ciminelli as the year's only multiple title winners.

The Detroit Open finalists earned their berths in the stepladder finals by finishing in the top five after a combined total of 36 games in the Wolf, Bear and Badger Open qualifying rounds. Belmonte led finalists with a combined 229.9 average on the three vastly different lane conditions.

In the first match of the finals, Tackett, the Bear Open winner and No. 5 qualifier, defeated Wolf Open winner and No. 4 qualifier Tom Daugherty, 231-159. In the second match, No. 3 qualifier Malott eliminated Tackett, 201-195, to advance to the semifinal against Rash.

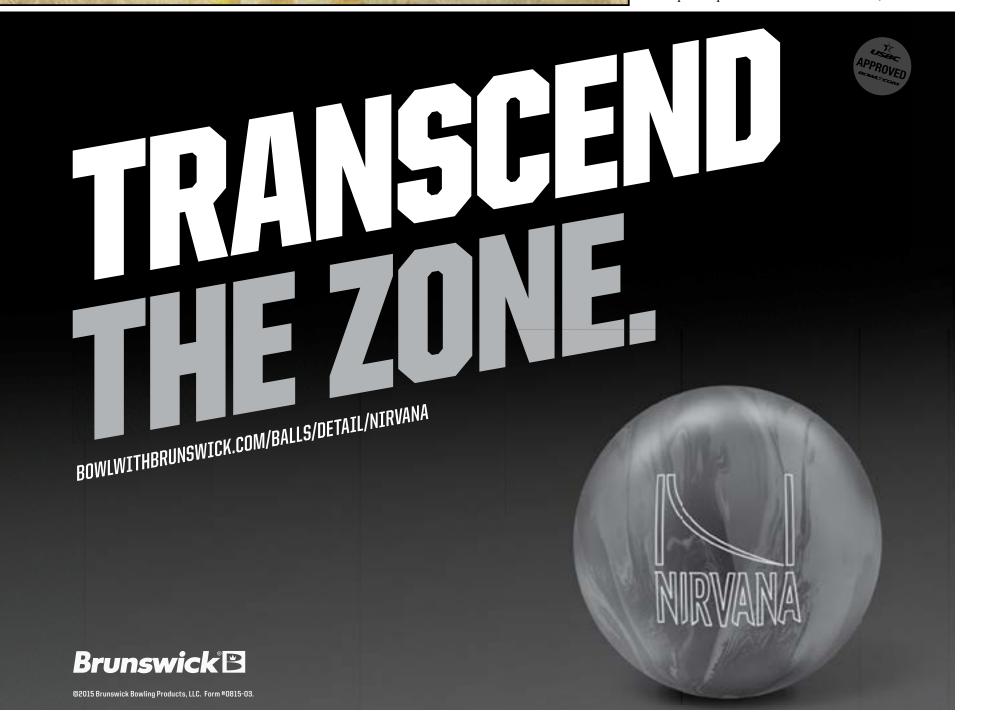

All five Detroit Open finalists also qualified for the finals of the King of the Swing special event which will air Oct. 19 at 9 p.m. ET on the CBS Sports Network. Daugherty, Tackett and Rash earned their spots in the final event as Wolf, Bear and Badger Open titlists, respectively. Because Rash won two events, Malott and Belmonte also earned spots as the top players in Fall Swing points.

63 - Pai

What would you give to see the P.B.A. on Saturday afternoon? A Dick Weber and Ray Bluth match announced by Chris Schenkel.

 The Columbia "300" plastic ball made its debut in 6 gorgeous colors. It could add 20 pins to your average! It also caused ABC rule changes and oil pattern changes plus heated discussions over rubber versus plastic.

Andy Marzich was the winningest guy on the P.B.A. Tour.

Old bowling balls were put in pig pens to keep the creaters busy pushing them around. What do you do with your old equipment? Flower pots? Stepping stones? Walls? Paper weights?

 Another free bowling clinic was sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors of So. Calif. 40 centers scheduled classes. Buddy Bomar and Helen Duval were the main instructors plus a staff of certified instructors to assist.

Imagine - - - teaching people how to bowl! What • a concept.

 ORCHID BOWL came into full bloom near Santa Barbara in April. 24 Gold Crown lanes, billiard room, pro shop, playroom, lounge and coffee shop at the cost of $700,000.00.

AZUSA LANES got gutsy and organized a 10 Game Midnight Marathon for women!

 EL DORADO BOWL had a new singer in the "Gay Doll Lounge". His name was Wally Fernez, worked with Harry Belafonte, Xavier Cugat, and Desi Arnaz. His repertoire included songs from Mexico, South America, Caribbean Islands, Israel and Amerian Ballads. Plus you could do the TWIST!

 Esther Woods rolled the first "300" in L.A.W.B.A. City Tournament history.

 Southwest Traveling Classic Leagues bowled on Thursdays at 9 P.M. Five Divisions traveling to five different centers - - - with a grand roll-off at season's end.

PIONEER BOWL rounded up the bowlers for a "Shoot Out" and a "BAR-B-Q." Early birds catch the worms!

 COSTA MESA had an older center named VAN'S BOWLING ALLEY. 2 guys bought it, put in 18 new pinsetters and called it MESA LANES. Did it have the highest control desk desk on record?

 TROPICANA LANES came up with a thing called "Boom-erang". The format was simple. Pay $1.10 entry fee. Roll 5 balls across 5 lanes, twice. Total pin fall is your score.

 CONNIE MARCHIONE started writing his column about deaf bowlers. And, still writing today 53 years later. Connie is known world wide for his coverage of the deaf news, organizing tournaments, being a squad organizer, bowler, Hall of Famer, league President, and Champion. Connie - I love you.

 Spook Berry, a Lancaster roller, nailed a six gamer with scores of 279, 279, 200, 279, 279 and 259.

STEVE and EILEEN NAGY were at BANNING BOWL at the helm of their 18th Washington Birthday Singles. There are two legends!

 For Sale — 16 Lane Alley, with bar and cafe in West L.A. $15,000.00 gets you in.

Dan Chovan, the great San Diego star really started to shine by winning all of the events in their city tournament. Dan continued to burn up the lanes for over 20 years. Speaking of the San Diego area, where was COMANCHE BOWL located? I moved to La Mesa in 1963, and don't remember a COMAN-CHE BOWL — but I do remember BOWLERO in Mission Valley. Huge and way ahead of its time. Just a lousy location and didn't last long.

Joe Parra opened his first supply shop. 30 years later he was still drilling and handing out advice.

 Billy Myers Senior, was known as the "Southpaw Flame Thrower". Wonder if he ever teamed up with Norm Myers? What a combo that would have been!

 The California Bowling News was named the #1 Publication in the U.S.A. (76 years have gone by and now we are one of 6 remaining.)

CLARK CENTER gave all their league bowlers a card which entitled them to open play at 2 cents a frame all summer. That's about five games for a dollar.

Braasch Bowling Supply became a sponsor for ٠ many great teams. Some were even captained by Dick himself. He's got a lot of good stories!

 "Bowl Down Cancer" programs were run weekly in hundreds of centers in the U.S. Fifty-three years later (and billions of dollars later) we are still losing family and friends AND still chasing the cure.

Joe Kirkwood (Joe Palooka) scored a knockout when he bought KIRKWOOD BOWL. It was very popular. So was Joe. Even in his over-alls and red socks! He even predicted adding 32 lanes!

 Top women bowlers in 1963? Robbie Frey, Wilma Anderson, D.D. Jacobson, Merle Matthews, Betty Phillips, Helen Duval, Hope Riccilli, Esther Woods, Judy Lee, Juanita Rich, Doris Rudell, Rose Butcher, Marge Fox — Just to name a few.

Lots of press space but no $ $ $.

 The beautiful Barbara Eden was pictured in VERY short shorts and high heels standing at the foul line ready to deliver a ball. The Bowling News was noted for picturing leggy women in shorts. No one was ever given credit for the pictures?? Who WAS the photographer?

 Lake Forest College had a bowling program which included lessons, leagues and even pinsetter maintenance.

 Bart Starr (Packer Quarterback) was appointed director of youth activities of a corporation that owned 40 centers. That was in his spare time.

 5 winners of the Herald-Examiner Men's Singles would receive a Buick Sports Coupe. Entry fee $3.25. 21 centers were running qualifiers.

The Bowling Writers named Betty Phillips and Andy Marzich top "Bowlers of the Year".

That's it for the first six months of 1963. Watch for Part II.

BURBANK - I hope everyone gets a chance to visit a pumpkin patch this month. There is great satisfaction in the carving of an evil jack o lantern in prep for Halloween. Maybe some of you creative bowlers will carve one with a set of pins and a ball on it. Happy Fall!
