THE GREATEST BOWLER OF ALL TIME FINALLY GETS A BIOGRAPHY

CHICAGO

— Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) superstar Earl Anthony, who died in 2001 at age 63, was perhaps the greatest athlete without a biography.

That's no longer the case, however, as Luby Publishing recently published EARL: The Greatest Bowler of All Time by Barry Sparks.

Anthony, a southpaw from Tacoma, Wash., forged a dominating career on the PBA Tour from 1970 to 1983, winning 43 titles. In 2008, he was named The Greatest Player in the PBA's 50-year history by a panel of bowlers and media members.

"It's mystifying how any athlete who is considered the greatest in his sport could go this long without a biography," said Sparks, a writer from York, Pa. "Imagine if there were no biographies of Hank Aaron, Michael Jordan, Wayne Gretzky, Peyton Manning, Arnold Palmer or Jimmy Connors."

Sparks thought it was an injustice, and he set out to rectify it. He spent two years interviewing people, researching and writing the biography.

Keith Hamilton, president of Luby Publishing, the world's leading publisher of bowling periodicals, said, "As the years march on, the heroes of our game who were cherished by bowling fans will fade from memories and become less revered. But bowlers like Anthony, Dick Weber, Carmen Salvino, Don Carter, Don Johnson and Billy Hardwick and others from the past should continue to be cherished and celebrated, much as Ruth, Gehrig, Mantle, DiMaggio, Aaron and Mays are still revered by baseball fans. It's my hope that Earl's biography can help make that happen."

Sparks says Earl Anthony was bowling's unluckiest superstar. He didn't pick up a bowling ball until he was 21. He didn't go on the PBA Tour full-time until he was 31, an age when many athletes' careers are ending.

After winning three Player of the Year awards, he suffered a major heart attack in 1978. With a fierce determination, he returned to the lanes to win Player of the Year three more times. PBA founder Eddie Elias called Anthony's feat "one of the greatest comebacks in sports history." Sparks takes a season-by-season look at Earl's impressive career. He shares the challenges Anthony faced, the reasons he was able to enjoy unparalleled success, his greatest achievements and his frustrations.

The author interviewed more than 100 people, including 23 PBA Hall of Famers, to get a greater insight into the superstar, who defined greatness. Earl's peers shared stories about his work ethic, competitiveness, adaptability, temper and humor.

EARL: The Greatest Bowler of All Time can be ordered online at www.earlathonybook.com. The 293-page book includes more than two dozen vintage photographs. Ten percent of the book's profits will be donated to the Earl Anthony Scholarship.

PBA Star Tommy Jones Elected To PBA Hall of Fame

CHICAGO — Nineteen-time title winner Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, South Carolina, and former ownership partners Mike Slade and Rob Glaser have been elected to the Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Fame, PBA Commissioner Tom Clark announced today.

Jones was unanimously elected for superior performance by an elite panel of veteran bowling writers and PBA Hall of Famers. Slade and Glaser were elected for meritorious service by the PBA Hall of Fame Board.

Induction ceremonies of the 2020 Hall of Fame Class will take place on Saturday, Jan. 18, at the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame, and the Arlington Hilton, in Arlington, Texas, as part of the PBA Hall of Fame Classic tournament weekend.

Jones, one of five PBA players to win both PBA Rookie (2001-02) and Player of the Year (2005-06) honors, has earned more than $1.7 million in his 20-year PBA career. The 41-year-old power player owns 17 standard PBA Tour titles plus two majors: the 2006 U.S. Open and 2007 PBA Tournament of Champions. He has finished in the top 10 in annual PBA Tour earnings nine times and has finished in the top five in 47 of the 326 PBA Tour tournaments he entered, cashing in a remarkable 80.3 percent of those events.

An 11-time member of Team USA, Jones also has been on winning teams in PBA League Elias Cup competition three times and was the recipient of the PBA League Mark Roth Most Valuable Player Award in 2017.

"It's one of those things I probably wouldn't have known was coming if I hadn't seen an article about being on the ballot," Jones said of his election to the Hall. "It's a huge honor to be among all of those players who are in the Hall. It's something you dream about all of your life. It'll probably hit me when I'm standing up in front of the crowd to accept."

Defining moments in Jones' career? "For me, it's a combination of things. The U.S. Open title was big and being selected No. 30 among the top 50 players in PBA history (in 2009) as the youngest one (age 30) also was pretty cool for me," Jones said. "The U.S. Open was defining because I bowled so bad the previous year. The Tournament of Champions at Mohegan Sun also was a great win

Five Big Names Still Seeking First U.S. Open Title

by Lucas Wiseman

The list of past champions at the U.S. Open reads as a who's who of bowling greats — Pete Weber, Marshall Holman, Walter Ray Williams Jr., Mark Roth, just to name a few.

However, there are some names missing from the list who might expect to be there. For example, the great Earl Anthony won 43 career titles but was never able to capture a U.S. Open victory. He finished runner-up in the event three times.

There are five prominent players competing in this year's U.S. Open who are looking to win their first U.S. Open title. For some of them, the journey is just beginning; for others time is running short.

Here's a look at those five players who will compete in the U.S. Open when it begins Oct. 25 live on FloBowling.

Donna Morales

by Mary Lynly

As a President of an organization, when was the last time you asked someone on your board to chair a committee and some brave soul said, “I will do that!” Donna Morales has thrown her hat in the ring over and over again for the last 30 years offering to climb on board for a variety of committees and events. Because she is one of those organized people, if she didn’t know everything about the task, she soon learned and in time, maybe even made it better.

Donna is one of those people who does such an outstanding job of everything she does – no one wants to follow her. She’s responsible, promotes, creates enthusiasm, organizes and she understands the value of a good report, communication and recognition.

She was born in Eugene, Oregon and her parents moved to California when she was 13 years old. Bowling came naturally as her grandfather and parents were bowlers and her dad and grandfather had bowled on some championship teams in Oregon. Her dad was very opinionated, and when it came to bowling, he was firmly entrenched in the idea that a Brooklyn strike was not a strike! No matter what. Good reason to aim for the right pocket.

She met her husband Harold in High School, where they were both in band. She says, “Although I saw him every day in band class, it wasn’t until I saw him smiling and laughing one day outside of class that it was WOW – and that was it – the stalking began.” It wasn’t that easy but using various lures he soon began to notice her. Early marketing methods! They were married in 1963 and the marriage has lasted for 56 years. Harold has always been an ardent supporter of her endeavors. They have one son, a daughter-in-law and a yellow Lab grand dog.

As a San Jose WBA board member for 5 years in the early ‘90’s, she served as the Head Scorekeeper for the annual Women’s Tournament each year. Getting scorekeepers for a good sized tournament is a very demanding full time job. The baptism of fire for sure. Backing up a bit, until she started league bowling in 1978, she was pretty much just a recreational bowler. It wasn’t long before she was asked to join a league that was being formed to coach novice bowlers. This was a few years before she became a CWBA Certified Bowling Instructor in 1990 – but this was no doubt the beginning of her doing more than just bowling. When the secretary/treasurer of the local 600 club moved out of the area, Donna took on that job, a position she still holds. At the same time, she started coordinating bowlers for approximately 12 different national, state, and local tournaments every year. Under her leadership tournament participation mushroomed, much of it due to her ability to market events and communicating with participants, while making out the entry forms, submitting them, and in most cases also making hotel reservations for everyone. Who wouldn’t love that? She said she’s found that bowlers don’t seem to find the tournament information that’s put out at the bowling centers, or if they do find it, they just don’t really read it, so she’s their source if they’re interested in bowling tournaments. She has a database of about 250 bowlers that she contacts when she gets information about a tournament, and then it’s up to each bowler to decide whether they want to bowl that tournament or not, and if they do, they then contact Donna to begin the process. Organization is a must since she can be working on several different tournaments at the same time.

What began with about 4 teams for a tournament in 1992, has grown to 40 teams for the upcoming USC Women’s Championships in Las Vegas next year, with 9 of those bowling at 7 different times! Prior to this next year’s 40 team group, the largest group was 31 teams for the same tournament that was held in Reno in 2018. She also recently gathered 75 bowlers for the 2019 CUSBC Senior Singles tournament in Monterey. After Donna compiles all the necessary info for a particular tournament, she mails copies to each participant so they know exactly where and when they bowl and what tournament rules, they must abide by to ensure that they will not be disqualified.

She has shared her leadership talents with the San Jose area bowlers for nearly 30 years and has found, as older bowlers pass away or stop bowling when centers close, the numbers wane. “It seems that new or younger bowlers aren’t interested in bowling “clubs”, like our local 600 Club, or in doing tournaments; and sadly, they’re also not interested in following league or USBC rules either”, she says. She’s experienced this firsthand for many years while serving as the secretary/treasurer of the local 600 Club, and in the same capacity in a women’s and a mixed league.

As a member of the California Bowling Writers, she attended their 2018 annual meeting where CBW was looking for a new charitable endeavor. When asked if she had any ideas, Donna suggested Operation Freedom Paws, an organization that couples mostly shelter dogs with Vets that suffer from PTSD or other physical, neurological, psychological or mobility needs, and then trains the Vets to train their own dogs so that they become certified service dog teams. CBW was excited about the opportunity and did, indeed select OFP as their new charity. CBW just completed their 2nd annual bowling event fund raiser with Donna running the event that included a tournament and a variety of enticing things like a bake sale, silent auction, brackets, etc. netting $4,842.25 for OFP for a one-day effort. Outstanding. CBW board members were there to help, as were members from the local bowling association board who wanted to support Donna because she supports them all year by bringing in bowlers to their various tournaments.

Donna has given 30 years to bowling. The way she services the groups she compiles is to die for but people like Donna Morales are few and far between. Vacations, family and friends get-togethers and personal travel have all been affected during those 30 years by the number of hours it has taken just to organize and coordinate bowlers for tournaments. Since her husband retired over 13 years ago, she says she thinks it’s time for her to also “retire” - at least from coordinating bowlers for tournaments, while she and Harold are still in good health, so they can enjoy a more carefree retirement, as they had originally planned when Harold retired. She says, “Harold has been so supportive in so many ways, but I know that he would like for us to have more time to spend together, and so would I for that matter – but I feel that I certainly OWE him that! Hopefully we’ll have at least another 13 years to enjoy some of the things that we’ve missed during the last 13 years.”

Perhaps it is time to give it up. With Donna Morales backing away, it is certainly our loss.... USBC, California USBC, CBW, Santa Clara County USBC and hundreds of bowling participants. Can she really back away? Time will tell.

The California Bowling Writers has adopted Operation Freedom Paws!

Operation Freedom Paws, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, founded in 2010 by California Bowler and Veteran Mary Cortani, provides service dogs and training support to veterans and others who suffer from post-traumatic stress syndrome, complex PTSD, traumatic brain injury and other physical, neurological, psychological and mobility needs. According to experts, service dogs help empower people with disabilities to live quality lives.

Operation Freedom Paws carefully matches clients with their specially chosen four-legged companions, most of which come from rescue shelters. The partners then begin a 48-week program which trains the clients to train their own dogs. At the end of the program, they're certified together as service dog teams.

The charity for 2019 kicked off on June 8, at the CUSBC meeting – Make donations payable to CBW and mail to Treasurer Tina Martin, 57 Shields Lane, Novato, CA 94947-3877. "We are pleased to continue supporting Vets."

Jason Belmonte has established himself as the greatest major-event competitor in the history of the PBA Tour. No one, not even Weber or Anthony, has won more major titles than the Australian two-hander.

Belmonte surpassed both the bowling greats earlier this season when he won the PBA Tournament of Champions and the PBA World Championship. His total major victories now sits at 11, while Weber and Anthony are both at 10.

The only major Belmonte has never won is the U.S. Open. It remains the one missing piece to an otherwise sparkling bowling resume.

“It’s the only major that I haven’t won yet, and I really want to win it,” Belmonte said before last year’s U.S. Open. “But I think if I go into the U.S. Open really wanting to win, I think it does more damage than good. I’m going to try to put that at the back of my mind, play with what’s in front of me and make my spares. That’s what I intend to do.”

Belmonte has had his chances. He lost in the championship match of the 2013 U.S. Open to Wes Malott, 214-156. In 2012, he finished third, losing to eventual champion Pete Weber in the semifinal.

Last year, Belmonte missed the first cut in the event by 53 pins, finishing in 46th place. Given his performance so far this season, it would not be at all surprising to see him improve greatly from last year.

Parker Bohn III ranks fifth on the all-time titles list with 35 career titles, yet none of them have been the U.S. Open. The PBA Hall of Famer, who is now 56 years old, had a stretch where he nearly won the event, however.

Bohn made it to the title match in 1994 and said he bowled “a really good match” but lost to Justin Hromek, 267-230. The following year, Bohn made the show again as the third seed but lost in his first stepladder match to Steve Hoskins, 256-216, to finish fourth.

Since 2013, Bohn has only bowled the U.S. Open once, finishing 71st in 2017, and said the schedule aligned just right this season to allow him to bowl. He spends a lot of his time these days wearing his dad hat versus his professional bowler hat, he said.

With nothing to lose and everything to gain, Bohn said he’s looking forward to competing but realizes it’s a bit of a tough task.

“You never know that this year doesn’t turn things around,” Bohn said. “I may be a medium underdog and find myself at the top of the heap when it’s all said and done. Let’s cross our fingers and hope something like that can happen.”

A Bohn victory this year would certainly rank right up there for feel-good story of the season with Norm Duke's back-to-back wins.

Not only has Sean Rash never won the U.S. Open, he has never even made the step-ladder finals at the event. But that doesn’t paint the true picture of Rash’s 12 career appearances at the U.S. Open.

Rash has been extremely steady, especially in recent years, but just hasn’t broken through. Since 2011, Rash’s average finish in the event has been 20th, although he has yet to crack the top 10.

His best finish actually came in his U.S. Open debut in 2006 when he finished 12th. He has since finished in 13th place a staggering four times in 2015, 2013, 2011, and 2007.

Rash has been surging in recent months on the PBA Tour and seems to be at the top of his game. If he can carry that momentum into this year’s U.S. Open, he is without question a threat to win the event.

Over the years, EJ Tackett has had a couple of incredibly impressive showings at the U.S. Open, but he’s had way more disastrous finishes.

Tackett finished fourth last year for his best career finish at the event. His second-best finish was sixth in 2013. He finished 20th in 2016 and in 2011, but after that, his record drops off a cliff. In his other four appearances, Tackett has finished on average in 115th place.

The 13-time PBA champion has shown the ability to perform well in major events, however. He won the 2016 PBA World Championship and the 2017 PBA Tournament of Champions.

Tackett has also been one of the most consistent performers on the PBA Tour in recent years, often battling Belmonte for titles. But if he wants to continue to climb up the ladder as one of the all-time greats, winning the U.S. Open would do wonders.

Unlike the other bowlers on this list, Jakob Butturff’s career journey at the U.S. Open is really just getting underway.

At just 25 years old, he’s the youngest on the list and has competed in the event the fewest number of times. However, Butturff has made a huge impression in his four appearances, especially the past two.

Butturff led the U.S. Open by a combined 1,169 pins the past two years. Let that sink in for a second. He led by a combined 1,169 pins. And he didn’t win.

In 2017, Butturff lost as the top seed to fellow lefty Rhino Page, 256-222, and then followed it up with a 207-206 loss to Dom Barrett in 2018.

The seven-time PBA Tour champion has no reason not to be confident heading into this year’s U.S. Open after dominating the field the past two years.

"Because the last two years have been so successful, I'm excited to get back out there and give it my best once again," Butturff said recently in a USBC release. "It's a marathon. After 114 games, I have two second-place finishes, which is special. Yes, there was some disappointment, but to perform like that against such a talented field that includes many of the bowlers I watched when I was younger, feels incredible."

Find out if Belmonte, Bohn, Rash, Tackett or Butturff can finally hoist the U.S. Open trophy when the event begins Oct. 25 live on FloBowling.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE:

NUZZO, GUERRIERI WIN PBA50-60 DOUBLES EVENT IN OHIO

• PBA60 competitor Joe Nuzzo of Girard, Ohio and his PBA50 partner Danny Guerrieri of Youngstown, Ohio, defeated Bill Peters of Dayton, Ohio and Eddie Graham of Kettering, Ohio, 482-479, 475-395, in the best-of-three-game championship match to win the Park Centre Lanes PBA50/PBA60 Central Open Doubles event presented by Columbia 300 in North Canton, Ohio, Sunday.

Teams in the event included one bowler between the ages of 50 and 59 and one bowler over the age of 60. Even though the champions split the $2,800 first prize, neither earned a PBA title because both are non-members.

In the best-of-three-game semifinal round, Nuzzo and Guerrieri blanked PBA Hall of Famer Tom Baker of King, N.C., and partner Dean Billings of Rootstown, Ohio, 2-0, while Peters and Graham downed Jeff Zaffino of Warren, Pa., and Don Herrington of Ballston Lake, N.Y., 2-0, to set up the championship match.

• Closing out the October PBA Regional calendar will be the South Point West Challenge presented by MOTIV and the South Point Member/Non-Member Doubles presented by Hammer at South Point Bowling Plaza in Las Vegas.

QUICK NOTES

• PBA Southwest Region Hall of Famer Nathan Bohr, a 23-time PBA Regional title-winner and three-time Southwest Region Player of the Year, married two-time PWBA champion and 11-year Team Colombia competitor Maria Jose Rodriguez Saturday in Austin, Texas.

PBA TONY REYES COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD NOMINATIONS DUE NOV. 22

Nominations are now being accepted for one of the PBA's most prestigious awards, the PBA Tony Reyes Community Service award, which is presented annually to a current PBA member who does extraordinary community service, charitable and/or educational contributions over the course of a PBA Tour season. To be eligible, the nominee must be a PBA member in good standing.

The community service award was first presented in 2013, a year after the PBA Tour champion died as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident near his home in northern California. Reyes, one of the PBA's most popular players, was a former collegiate All-American bowler, an eight-time PBA Regional title winner and the 18th player in PBA history to bowl a nationally-televised 300 game.

Following Reyes' death on Sept. 28, 2012, a group of his fellow competitors gathered in front of a tribute masking unit created in Reyes' honor for the PBA World Series of Bowling at South Point in Las Vegas.

To nominate an individual, click here to access the nomination form: (https://www.pba.com/Content/files/awards/TonyReyes\_App\_2019.pdf). Type or print clearly, filling in all requested information completely. Supplemental materials such as newspaper clippings, event programs or pictures may be submitted. Nominations are due by Friday, Nov. 22. The winner will be recognized during

1992 - PART 4

by Carol Mancini

A few facts gleaned from the 1992 pages of the Bowling News. Bowling is played in more than 80 countries. Bowling was showcased in the 1936 Olympic games in Berlin. Bowlers donate more money to charity than any other sport.

- Southport Lanes in Chicago was built by Schlitz Brewing Company in the early 1900's. It has manuel pin setters and over lane ball returns.
- Ken Rogers was at the helm of Pockets and Pins in Long Beach.
- Toot-Toot-Toot...Congrats to David Fitzgerald from Inglewood Lanes. Why? 280-278-244/802...that's why!
- Pioneer Bowl installed auto scoring. (Not too long before they closed.) They should have installed a parking garage!
- Cashers at Oak Tree's scratch 8 gamer: Champ Anthony Barone, followed by Chris Zuniga, Billy Myers Jr, Roy Karnowski and Mike Hornacek. (These guys were weekly cashers somewhere in the 90's. Some still are in 2019.)

“MOTHER McCUTCHEON” Was “The Greatest Female Bowler of All-Time”

by Frank Weiler

If you polled all the bowlers on planet earth in 1950 probably 95% would declare FLORETTA McCUTCHEON to be “the greatest female bowler of All-Time”. Since then opinions have changed because of the exploits of bowlers like MARION LADEWIG, LA VERNE CARTER, BETTY MORRIS, LISA WAGNER, PAULA CARTER, ROBIN ROMEO, WENDY MACPHERSON, KELLY KULICK, LIZ JOHNSON and SHANNON O’KEEFE. However, regardless of changing times, changing equipment and changing opinions “Mother McCutcheon” was “The Greatest Female Bowler of All-Time” at one time.

When I spoke to a dozen or so League bowlers recently no one had ever heard of Floretta McCutcheon. Not so unbelievable when most of these same bowlers didn’t know who Al Gore or James Buchanan were or bowling greats Ned Day and Buzz Fazio! People today only seem to know of yesterday’s celebrity or last week’s winner and that’s all! I don’t know the reason for this state of affairs, but I do think it’s deplorable. Maybe HILLARY CLINTON would have been right if she had referred to us bowlers as “DEPLORABLES”.

Who was Floretta McCutcheon? Who was this “Greatest Female Bowler of All-Time” who no one knows?

Floretta Doty was born in Ottumwa, Iowa on July 22, 1888 and lived there until she was thirteen years old. She moved with her parents to Denver, Colorado in 1901. During those early years Floretta never bowled. In fact, she never bowled until she was 35 years of age. She was a relatively big woman carrying as much as 208 pounds on her five-foot three-inch frame. After taking up bowling during her middle years she was able to bring her weight down to the mid 160s.

In 1921, at the age of thirty-three, Floretta married Robert J. McCutcheon a fellow who enjoyed bowling. They had one daughter named Barbara and lived a normal family life until 1928 when Mrs. McCutcheon was hired by Brunswick to conduct bowling clinics, participate in exhibitions and give bowling lessons. But I’m getting ahead of myself.

McCutcheon’s Bowling career got off to an unspectacular start when in 1923, at the invitation of her husband, she joined a team in an Industrial League Robert bowled in. She ended up bowling in two leagues that season. Her first game score was 69! After the 1923-24 season Floretta stopped bowling until 1926. When she came back to Bowling, Floretta got serious and began to study the techniques used by better bowlers. Her favorite was “World Champion” Jimmy Smith.

Mrs. McCutcheon, affectionately called “Mrs. Mac”, continued to improve throughput 1926 and into 1927. In 1927 she rolled her first perfect 300 game and several 700 series. Her local reputation grew to the point where she was given an opportunity to bowl against World Champion Jimmy Smith when he came to Denver in December 1927.

On December 18, 1927 Floretta became a National Bowling sensation when on that date she defeated Jimmy Smith in a three-game match 704 (246-234-224) to 697 (224-256-217). After the match Smith was quoted as saying “I HAVE JUST MET THE WORLD’S FINEST BOWLER AND SHE IS A WOMAN”.

That spectacular victory over Jimmy Smith led to McCutcheon being hired by Brunswick Corporation in 1928 as a traveling instructor. On that first year on tour McCutcheon appeared in sixty-six cities. Over the next decade she continued traveling throughout the country. During that period, she bowled over 8,000 games and averaged 201. She rolled ten (10) perfect 300 games and eleven (11) 800 series. These numbers are monumental. During these early days of “Ten Pins” perfect games and 800s were rare. Also, these scores were bowled in many different Bowling Alleys on unfamiliar lanes.

When her traveling days were over Floretta proved her touring scores were no fluke. While bowling in a WIBC sanctioned League during the 1938-39 season she averaged a

- Romy Cajucom was presented a new ball from Pockets and Pins for his 300 game in the CBA Tournament. Romy was another weekly cashier and had his picture taken as often as Bob Smith. (That OTHER club.)
- Barry Gurney, latest PBA Senior Tour Champ. A “rookie” at age 51. He beat out Dave Soutar, Dave Davis, John Handegard, finally Tommy Evans.
- McDonalds served up their famous burgers at the 1992 Olympic Village in Barcelona, Spain.
- The US Ambassador to the games was Therese Abair. Brunswick built a center for the athletes. It included 10 billiard tables, and huge TVs. Brunswick held bowling tournaments for each sport! 172 nations entered athletes. Olympic officials thought the “ball” controlled the game outcome...until they tried it.
- Rah Rah Sis Boom Baa-James Dery dug deeper and salvaged a 300/823 at Sports Center.
- The PWSBT membership was open to both men and women. Just be over age 50, have a book average and a sanction card. The first senior ladies to join were Betty Salvato, Carolyn Starzec and Shirley Anderson. They were all equal on the lanes and in the cashing line.
- Our own Glenn Allison pocketed a “Kool” $12,500 for winning the PBA in Buffalo, NY beating John Handegard, John Hriesina and Bo Burton up the ladder.
- Cartoon character Homer Simpson had a few words of advice for bowlers. “Don’t sip another players beer. Gulp it while he’s up to bowl.” “The louder you yell, the more pins will fall.” “Bad game? Cheat on the addition.”
- The latest bowling ball carrier produced by Keith Kenworthy’s Donkee carriers held 8 balls and shoes. It was called the Macho Mule! You needed a crane to put it in your car trunk.
- Canoga Park Bowl celebrated 35th anniversary.
- The BPASC mobile bowling lane was the highlight on the carnival sponsored by Harley’s Simi Bowl in the Simi Valley.
- The ABC decided on lanes made of maple would be 42 inches wide in 1895. Later in the year lanes were sanctioned at 60 feet.
- Al Hoffmann was elected the new California MBA 46th President.
- Andy Marzich entered ABC Hall of Fame.
- A new idea for Vets, Stamp collecting. Collectors, or others who had unusual stamps were asked to send them to your closest VA Hospital. Stamp collecting was a great hobby, conversation maker, ice breaker for hospitalized vets.
- After Arena Lanes closed, the lanes were cut, crated and shipped to the Phillipines for duck pin lanes.
- Billy Myers Sr, longtime top dog at La Puente Lanes, shifted to Santa Anita Lanes when they closed, advertised for a mechanic.
- For sale-Family bowling center 30 miles north of Palm Springs. 35 years old but clean and friendly. Where was it?
- Cal Oaks Bowl in Murrieta was Brunswick’s newest.
- Glenn Allison, PJ Carroll, Walt Risnick and Ed Stoner were named to SEDBA Hall of Fame.
- Charles Zelaya was declared winner of the 40th Grant Classic.
- Applause, Applause...from July first to December 31, 1992 the following bowlers chalked up a 300 game. Most was their first. Their centers were proud enough to pay for a Congrats ad:
- Midtown: Ryan Small, Oak Tree: Jim Anderson, Sherri Goetz, Robert Smith. Sports Center: Willie Holley, Jim Marin, Jim Harvey, Robert Arsenian, Kevin McCarthy, Dave Benz, Chuck Hansen. Gage Bowl: Sonny Bibaeff, Anthony Jimenez. NBAC League: Jim Allen. Colima Lanes: Steve Gurrieri, Romy Ellazar. El Dorado Bowl: Robert Mosley. Del Rio Lanes: Fred Dowler, Jeff Miwa, Jim Cale, Newton Acevedo, Doug Hoskins, Ervin Gilliam, Rick Kouri. Premiere Lanes: Jerry Ross. Cal State: Brad Petzel. Clark Center: Wayne Harnstom, Gregory Thomas, Scott Tyau. Mission Hills: Rusty Bryant, Rick Easley. Bowlerland: Jumill Williams. State Tournament: Dan Roche. Jewel City: Bobot Edralin. Linbrook: Mark Fisser. Matador Bowl: Mike Trutt, David Cogswell, Rick Polzien, Paul Mahotz, Paul Zubernick, Dave Murrell. Cal Bowl: Mike Lewis. Rocket Bowl: Joe Hafferty Jr. Upland Bowl: Bill Hayes. Pickwick Bowl: Bruce Leon Jr. Granada Lanes: Francisco De Jesus. Canoga Park: Mark Blasko. NORCO Classic: Roy Black. Santa Anita Lanes: Mike Daniels. Inglewood Lanes: Joe Hill III. Englewood Bowl: Ervin Gilliam. Gable House: Andy Levitt, Don Sowinski. Keystone Lanes: Terry Conti.

This concludes our page by page collection of people, places and scores for 1992. Five Bowling News staff writers put it together each week, plus the photographers. All without computers! Believe it or not!

National high and National record 206. It was a league average record that would stand for fourteen (14) years until 1953.

In addition to bowling in local leagues, McCutcheon wrote Bowling Instructional Booklets, organized Leagues and served as a Director on the Board of the Chicago Women’s Bowling Association.

Mrs. McCutcheon’s contribution to the growth of the sport of Bowling and to the increase in the popularity of the sport during these years is incalculable. She conducted exhibitions, clinics and lessons that introduced the sport to over 250,000 women.

After retiring from Touring in 1938 “Mother McCutcheon” continued as a Bowling Instructor until 1954. She ran a School of Bowling in New York City until 1944 and from 1944 to 1954 in Chicago. In 1954 she retired and moved to Pasadena, California.

In 1956 McCutcheon was inducted into the WIBC Hall of Fame. A Bowlers Journal International poll in December of 1999 rated her the twenty-fifth (25th) Greatest Bowler of the Twentieth Century, male or female. A Miami Herald Newspaper poll of twenty experts in 1999 listed McCutcheon as the tenth (10th) Top Woman Bowler of the Twentieth Century.

On February 2, 1967, at the age of 78, Floretta McCutcheon passed from this world. She was a Bowling pioneer who not only possessed extraordinary abilities and talent as a bowler but also revolutionized the sport by introducing it to the women of the world. She demonstrated that women were able to bowl and showed that the sport was more than a beer garden past time for blokes who drank, spat and cursed. While the importance and impact of her contributions to the sport are generally unrecognized and unappreciated by historians, they make her one of the most significant persons in Bowling history.

LAKEWOOD – What words have we heard a thousand times and never get tired of? Picture this: you walk into your favorite center, pick up a league sheet, find your lane and greet the bowlers. The microphone squeaks and a voice recites a familiar phrase: “Your lanes are coming on for practice.” There is a scurry to put the balls on the ball return, slip on your shoes and take that first practice shot! *** = This weeks High Scores Pin Heads: Who gives up watching Jeopardy to bowl? The “Pin Heads” thats who! Making the who's who list this week is***Damon Flewelen 205/526, Tom Saner 202/488, Tom Komadina 200/573, Chuck Appleberry 200/576, Ashley Brown 221/563, Stacy Kelly 220-202/606, Mel Leach 197/564.

DIAMOND BAR — Any mechanics looking for work? We are looking for part-time or full-time. Put in an application at Oak Tree Lanes. We will be willing to train if you are new to the game and willing to learn. But do need to be able to work nights and weekends.

Hello Oak Tree League Bowlers MARCH MADNESS starts this week Oct 21 through Feb 17, 2020 then the top 64 will play off. Each week it will cost you $2.00 if you want to get in, you will use your 2nd game, and you are trying to get the most pins over you average scratch. The win over all will win $300 extra for their league prize fund.

Need a place to host your company Christmas Party? Give Oak Tree Lanes a call. We can help you out and set something up for you? On the other hand, any other event starting next year, we will be having packages for adult birthday parties also.

Need gift cards for birthday gifts or stocking stuffers? You can purchase them though our Youth program and help them at the same time. If you order by Monday, you will have them by Thursday and they have several on hand. You can see a youth bowler or ask for Annette Anderson the Youth Director. They are available year round.

DV8 Rolls Over Forest Lanes in Roll-off to Win Round

by Jonathan Garza

DOWNEY – They came in a game down, but with all the opportunity in the world. Vernon Adams led his DV8 to a huge night that culminated in a berth in May's Brunswick Invitational Roll-off.

One game separated three teams coming into Week 7 Monday night, and the early news was that Brian Main was scratched from the Tito's Vodka lineup. Main could've been a difference-maker, but DV8 was determined from the git go – shooting 2678 in sweeping five games from the former top seed of the week. Adams led the team with a 731, while Main's sub, Memo Rosales shot 682.

With Tito's first loss, hope was had for Forest Lanes, which needed a sweep and for DV8 to sweep. The first game was a preview of a walkover, as Forest Lanes shot 1,013 to Team Hu$tle's 881. Fast forward to Game 3 and Bobby Hornacek finished off a stellar night, by punching home 12 strikes for a perfect 300 game and an 836 series. His team shot 2987 to force a roll-off with DV8. Jello Gray led Hu$tle with a 737 series.

The stage was set for a roll-off. One game would determine who would have a chance at the top prize at the end of the season, and who would spend the next round hoping for a way in.

Two early splits by Jon Huff and Jeff Carr woke the team. Forest Lanes did little to apply pressure early on, as only anchor Stephanie Zavala started off with a strike.

Then DV8 went off. In the fifth frame DV8 had jumped out to a 411-375 lead, a not-so-comfortable 36-pin lead when everything is on the line.

Sixth frame, Huff strikes again. So did Forest Lanes leadoff bowler Jon Diso. But then what happened next could have iced whatever steam Forest was about to recapture, as Tony Brunning dropped the ball into the gutter.

DV8 substitute, Matt Mosley couldn't cover his leave, but Carr and Adams weren't looking back. In fact, they both didn't miss the rest of the game, finishing for 258 and 248 respectively.

It was a 902-824 win for DV8, which will be the first team in the five-team stepladder bracket to win $16,000! Back to the other action:

Bowlium took advantage of a sluggish start by Junior Amateur Tour (JAT); taking the first game by 118 pins. But JAT went all in the next two games, winning them by a combined 171 pins and taking four points for the night. JAT was led by David Yamauchi's 686 series; while Butch Jackson led Bowlium with a 676.

Kingpin Pro Shop got a nice 792 series from Mike Villarreal and swept Captain Morgan on 25 and 26. Both teams walked into this one with 17 wins apiece, and it was the second game that was the most competitive, as Kingpin pulled off an 847-836 win. Captain Morgan was led by Donell Carter's 663 set.
