Anthony Simonsen Wins FloBowling PBA Wolf Open for Second Go Bowling! PBA Tour Title of the Season

Simonsen beats Andrew Anderson, 239-226, in title match to also win fifth career title

OWASSO, Okla. — Anthony Simonsen of Austin, Texas, won the FloBowling PBA Wolf Open Tuesday to become the fifth two-time winner this season and adding his name as a candidate for PBA Player of the Year honors with only three Go Bowling! PBA Tour tournaments left in the season.

In the first tournament of the FloBowling PBA Fall Swing, Simonsen, the top qualifier for the finals, beat another two-time winner, Andrew Anderson of Holly, Mich., 239-226, in the title match at The Lanes at Coffee Creek to also win his fifth career title.

Simonsen opened in the eighth frame of the title match but still had a five-pin lead over Anderson heading into the ninth frame. He got back on track with a strike in the ninth and the first shot of the 10th frame which was enough for the victory.

PBA Commissioner Tom Clark, Champion Anthony Simonsen & The Lanes at Coffee Creek Proprietor Joe Sparks

“I didn’t throw a good shot in the seventh frame so when I left the 2-4-8 in the eighth frame, that was the result of an over correction,” Simonsen said. “I didn’t panic because with the five-pin lead heading into the ninth I felt the match was still in my hands. I had confidence in my ball reaction and that I could buckle down and throw the good shots I needed to make.”

Simonsen joined Anderson, and other player of the year candidates 2016 player of the year EJ Tackett, four-time and reigning player of the year Jason Belmonte and Jakob Butturff as the season’s other two-time winners.

“Overall it’s been a good season for me but I think there’s a couple guys, including Andrew, who have the edge on the player of the year race, said the 21-year-

In the semifinal match, Anderson, the 2018 USBC Masters winner, beat Kris Prather of Plainfield, Ill., who was trying for his first tour win, 297-227. Anderson was denied a 300 game when his final shot in the 10th frame went high and he left the 3-6-10.

In the opening stepladder match, 18-time tour winner Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., beat Darren Tang of San Francisco, who was also trying for his first tour win, 227-216. Jones then advanced to the second match where he lost to Anderson 230-191.

The FloBowling PBA Fall Swing continues with the Wolf and Bear events. The entire Fall Swing was streamed live on Xtra Frame on FloBowling which is providing multi-stream coverage of every lane of competition. For continued on page 2

The 2018 season concludes with the U.S. Open Oct. 24-31 at Northrock Lanes in Wichita, Kan.

EJ Tackett Wins FloBowling PBA Bear Open to Become First Three-Time Winner of 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour Season

Tackett Beats England's Stuart Williams 212-197 for 12th career title

OWASSO, Okla. — EJ Tackett of Bluffton, Ind., won the FloBowling PBA Bear Open Thursday to become the first three-time winner of the 2018 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season.

In the second tournament of the FloBowling PBA Fall Swing at The Lanes at Coffee Creek, Tackett successfully defended his Bear Open title from 2016 by beating top qualifier Stuart Williams of England, 212-197, in the title match for the 12th win of his career.

Despite an open in the 10th frame, Tackett had struck in the seventh, eighth and ninth frames which gave him enough of a lead to clinch the win. Williams, who was trying for his second career tour title, opened in the seventh frame when he left the 2-4-8-10 split and was unable to close the gap.

“You hate to win a match with an open in the 10th frame,” said Tackett, the 2016 PBA Player of the Year. “I was fortunate that the strikes in the seventh, eighth and ninth gave me enough of a cushion and set me up to be in good position for the win even though it wasn’t pretty at the end.”

As the season’s only three-time winner, Tackett becomes a top contender for PBA Player of the Year honors with just the FloBowling PBA Tulsa Open and U.S. Open left in the season.

“I’m the first to win three but you can’t be sure continued on page 5

England's Stuart Williams Wins FloBowling PBA Tulsa Open For Second Go Bowling! PBA Tour Title

Williams wins four matches and beats Andrew Anderson 237-215

OWASSO, Okla. — Stuart Williams of England won all four matches and averaged 251 in the stepladder finals to win the FloBowling PBA Tulsa Open Saturday, the pinnacle event of the FloBowling PBA Fall Swing at The Lanes at Coffee Creek.

In a stepladder final that featured a dual lane condition pattern — PBA 39-foot Bear condition on the left lane and 33-foot Wolf condition on the right lane — Williams beat two-time Go Bowling! PBA Tour winner and finals top qualifier Andrew Anderson of Holly, Mich., 237-215, in the title match for his second career title and the $30,000 first prize.

Williams, the No. 4 qualifier for the finals, was in control from the start when Anderson, the 2018 USBC Masters champion, opened in the first two frames after leaving splits.

“Bowling on two different conditions in the finals it was important to go with ball choices that I felt the most confident in and commit to those choices,” the 37-year-old Williams said. “I was fortunate that I was able to stay with the same balls and game plan for all four matches and that really confirmed I made the right decisions.

“On the longer condition I wanted to throw slower and use a release where my hand came more around the ball. For the shorter condition, I concentrated on keeping my ball speed up and getting the ball to roll more end over end.”

ZACK JELLEY - Receives High Average Award

by Frank Weiler

REDLANDS – Zack Jelley has done it again. Zack Jelley has shown that what he did in 2015 was no fluke. Zack Jelley has led the Citrus Belt in Average for the second time in the last four seasons.

In 2015 Zack led the Citrus Belt Association in Average while booking 244. Last season (2017-18) Zack did it again. He led the Citrus Belt with a 245 average. In the photo shown above Zack is holding the two plaques he has received for being the Citrus Belt's High Average Bowler in 2015 and 2018.

As far as I know only two bowlers have led the Association in Average three times. Starting this season Zack has an opportunity to become only the third bowler in last 90 years to lead the Citrus Belt in Average three times. Zack, GO FOR IT! Show us why "CALIFORNIA BOWLERS ARE THE BEST IN THE WORLD".

PBA OFFERS $1 MILLION BONUS FOR TITLE MATCH 300 GAME IN FOUR 2019 EVENTS

OWASSO – At the members’ gathering in Owasso, PBA CEO-Commissioner Tom Clark announced that PBA players will have four opportunities to bowl for a $1 million bonus if any of them can roll a 300 game in the title match of four PBA tournaments in 2019.

The 300 game bonus will be at stake during FOX Sports’ live telecasts of the PBA Tournament of Champions on FOX on Sunday, Feb. 10, at 5 p.m. EDT from AMF Riviera Lanes in Akron, Ohio; the PBA Players Championship on FS1 on Sunday, Feb. 17, at 1 p.m. from Wayne Webb’s Columbus Bowl in Columbus, Ohio; the Go Bowling! Indianapolis Open on FS1 on Sunday, Feb. 24, at 1 p.m. from Woodland Bowl in Indianapolis, and the PBA World Championship on FS1 on Thursday, March 21, at 8 p.m. from Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich.

There have been 26 perfect games bowled on national television throughout the PBA’s history, but only two in title matches: the first by Bob Benoit in defeating PBA legend Mark Roth, 300-255, in the title match of the Quaker State Open in Grand Prairie, Texas, in 1988, and the second by PBA Hall of Famer Mike Aulby in the highest scoring title match in PBA history, topping David Ozio, 300-279, in the finals of the 1993 Wichita (Kan.) Open.

of anything at this point especially with two big tournaments left," Tackett said. "I've been doing a good job of giving myself the best chances to succeed all year and I'm going to have to continue to do that down the stretch."

Tackett, the No. 2 qualifier for the finals, advanced to the title match by winning the semifinal against Kris Prather of Plainfield, Ill., winning a one-ball roll-off 9-8 after a 245-245 tie.

Prather was coming off a season's best third-place finish in the Wolf Open which concluded Tuesday.

Prather, the No. 3 qualifier, beat Wolf Open runner-up Andrew Anderson of Holly, Mich., a two-time winner this season that includes the USBC Masters, 199-194, in the second stepladder match to advance to the semifinal.

In the opening match, Anderson, the No. 4 qualifier, beat No. 5 qualifier one-time tour winner Richie Teece of England, 202-178, to advance to the second match against Prather.

The finals were conducted on PBA's Bear 39-foot lane condition pattern.

Top 18 Advance to FloBowling Tulsa Open Match Play

After the combined 24-game qualifying totals from the Wolf and Bear events, Prather leads the field of 18 players who advanced to Tulsa Open match play with a 5,476 24-game pinfall total (228 average). All five Bear Open finalists made the cut to match play with Anderson finishing qualifying in second with 5,470, followed by Tackett in third with 5,457 and Williams fourth with 5,419. Teece advanced by finishing in a tie for 11th with 5,223.

Wolf Open winner Anthony Simonsen earned the 18th and final qualifying position with a 5,172 pinfall.

The 18 players who advanced to match play and the five who advance to the stepladder finals will have the added challenge of bowling on the Bear 39-foot lane condition on the left lane and the Wolf 33-foot lane condition on the right lane in each match.

The entire Fall Swing is streamed live on Xtra Frame on FloBowling which is providing multi-stream coverage of every lane of competition. 46TH INVITATIONAL THIS SUNDAY AT BELLEVUE

The Merced/Atwater Women's 500 Club is hosting their 46th Annual Invitational No-Tap Tournament this Sunday, starting at 1:30 p.m. The Invitational has three divisions according to your average. A division 160 and above, B division 146-159, and the C division is 145 and below. Entry fee is $25 which includes your free buffet lunch and 50/50, raffle prizes, and door prizes will be offered during the afternoon. Over 60 - 70 gifts will be given out to all bowlers courtesy of Delta Sierra Beverage of Modesto. Each division winner is guaranteed an additional $100 for their win. Entry forms are now available at Bellevue Bowl, and it is a great tournament.

CVSBC RESULTS FROM TRACY DOUBLES

The club had 48 doubles rolling and paid down 12 places at West Valley Family Bowl in Tracy last Saturday. Qualifying in first was the team of Jim Bass and Steve Sutton with a 1,954, second qualifiers were Dave Castro and Dave Brown with a 1,930. There was a one game roll-off with Bass/Sutton rolling a 449 to get edged out by Castro/Brown's 455. Castro and Brown are the newest doubles club champions. First place earned $373, second place for $298. Coming in seventh place was the team of Mindy and John Krone for $176, and in eleventh place was Larry Valenti Sr. and Mike Coe for $89. Up next for the club will be a singles event on Saturday, Nov. 17 at Black Oak Lanes up at Tuolumne City.

HIGH ROLLERS

Daniel Stephens 190, Janie Schropp 540, Christina Whitcomb 257/603, Connie Heil 182, Tim Porter 225, Bill Rife 190, Mickey Wallbaum 189, Edward Olivarez II 278/650, Dave Souza 231, Jonny Newkirk 231, Tony Rosas 197, Doug Laidlaw 238, Ernie Pinheiro 202, Ed Rowen 194, Yolanda Walsh 194, Julie flowers 258, Jenny Dart 199, and Tony Shukle a 190.

50 AND OVER SENIORS AT YOSEMITE

The following Bellevue bowlers make their names known last Friday as T.J. Rowen had a third place finish in the first high pot game, Bob Heller had a third in the first high pot game, and Linda Roach placed third in the final women game of the day. Roach finished in third in the women's overall series with a 863 and Heller in the men's overall high series with a 922 for third. Up next for senior no-tappers will be the annual Turkey Shoot at McHenry Bowl on Friday, Nov. 17. Here is you chance to win a bird for Thanksgiving.

RIZZUTO AND BERRA WORKED THE DESK

I was visiting my Urologist Dr. Dennis Cesar last week and he always has a sports story to tell me. He knew about my bowling column in the Sun-Star. He told me when he was growing up in the New Jersey area he would bowl at Berrea & Rizzuto Bowl in the Jersey area. You could walk in and see Berrera and Rizzuto behind the desk taking your money and giving you you're bowling shoes. As you know that Phil Rizzuto played shortstop and Yogi Berrera was the catcher for the New York Yankees, and both are in baseball's Hall of Fame. In his office at his home he has an autographed photo of Rizzuto. Also in his home office has a Manhattan bowling ball which is all rubber. It was the only ball on the market way back when. I think all bowlers had one when they started bowling, I did.

IBM/HF RAFFLE OFFERS “HALL OF FAME VIP EXPERIENCE” FOR PBA HALL OF FAME CLASSIC

The International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame, in cooperation with the PBA, has created plans for a “Hall of Fame VIP Experience” in conjunction with the PBA Hall of Fame Classic that will be contested at the International Testing and Research Center on the International Bowling Campus in Arlington, Texas, Jan. 3-6.

The “Hall of Fame VIP Experience” project involves a nation-wide fund-raising raffle that will provide one lucky winner with a once-in-a-lifetime experience centered around the PBA tournament and PBA Hall of Fame induction ceremonies in Arlington Jan. 5-6.

The PBA Hall of Fame Classic will be the first event of the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season and the first PBA championship to air live on FS1 as part of the PBA’s new television agreement with FOX Sports. The stepladder finals will be televised on Sunday, Jan. 6, at 11 a.m. EST from the ITRC in Arlington.

Raffle ticket sales, for $20 per ticket, are currently underway at participating bowling centers throughout the U.S., or by contacting the IBM/HF at 817-385-8230 or www.bowlingmuseum.com. The winning ticket will be drawn on Facebook Live on Tuesday, Dec. 18 at 2 p.m. EST. All proceeds from the raffle will benefit the museum's Frame-4Frame Film Restoration Initiative which is intended to restore and preserve the IBM/HF’s irreplaceable collection of history bowling films.

- Round-trip travel and meal expenses for two to the International Bowling Campus, site of the 2019 PBA Hall of Fame Classic.
- Invitations to weekend events hosted by Hall of Famer Mike Aulby.
- Private, behind-the-scenes guided tour of the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame, and the International Bowling Campus.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

by Lil'

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — Here it is the last Thursday of October and we have great scores to report from our bowlers here at Cal Bowl.

Halloween is just a few days away and then the Holiday Season arrives. While shopping at the stores over the week, guess who I saw. . . . “SANTA CLAUS”. (Not the real one — the one that lives on the store selves. I guess I have to go to visit him there. He still looks good!)

Let’s see who made this week’s Honor Roll...

Funsters: Jim Plante 627, Jojo Jasmin 619, Randy Antazo 588, Mike White 239, Beth Austria 520, Myra Kremen 505 and May Toledo 501. Side-pot winners were: MEN—Game One: Jojo Jasmin 270; Game Two: Boylee Inocente 206; Game Three: Jim Plante 257. WOMEN—Game One: Luz Cruz 248; Game Two: Odette Dalton 181; Game Three: Becky Salcedo 248. In the statistics last week: 29 people bowled over average and 37 bowled under average.

Vegas In May: Team 13 is leading in first place with 21 wins over Team 7 who has 17 wins. High scores for the week include Johnny Humphrey 657, Kenneth Johnson 632, Antonie Johnson 610, Darrell Baker 2398, Davis Bryant 233, Anthony Hill 233, Patrice Smith 598, Mlena Zelaya 541, Nicole Freeman 540, Erika Dixon 252.

Senior Men’s Trio: Sonny Dew 279/717, Paul Johnson 269/698, Joe Acosta 683, Curt Soares 676, Paul Staff 259/672. Don Boaz 290, Roy Coleman 289.

C.A.U.L.: Frank Rossello 256/684, Blake Miller 247/674, Allan Lee 236/655, David Regul 236/624, Tom Davis 611, Lori Gilmore 467.

Marcus Lemons: Coney Woodman 257/739, Eric Bell 256/683, Lester Sells 668, David Fitzgerald 253/662, Chris Aquino 656, Felecia Tripp 222/627, Precious Davis 601.

Bowling Buddies: They may have only four teams in this league but they are having fun and bowling well. Here are some of their scores. Dan Ewaskey 601, Rich Alonzo 382, Eugene Carter 223, Christine Ewaskey 516, Nancy Farina 383.

Cal Bowleros: Side-pot results: Game One: Millie Buckles 232; Game Two: Susan Garcia and Beth Austrina 205; Game Three: Cathy Wyatt 230. Scores: Beth Austrina 536, Carolyn Rousseau 523, Cheryl Hilton 500, Ginny Lindsay 205.

Sierra Bugs: It’s week six and all the teams have team names. It’s going to be a close race. The standings in the side-pots are: Game One Sandy Wright 213; Game Two Mira Kremen 170; Game Three Linda Maldonado 202. High games in the leagues were from Sandy Wright 489, Linda Maldonado 455, Connie Wood 450, Cathy Anderson 449, Bonnie Jones 445, Kristi Wilkerson 444, Pamela Johnson 443, Myra Kremen 443, Darlene Waken 433.

Practice League: Joseph Watson 596, Dennis Ingram 581, Raymond Perez 567, Charles Bullard 231, Lisa Swanson 558, Peggy Alexander 466, Del Stewart 436.

Recycled Teens: Boylee Inocente 248/679, Roland Sanchez 236/623, Ed Hansen 605, Joe DeJesus 595, Jim Plante 590, Rick Seneris 569, Jojo Jasmin 568, Tom Petway 528, Jorge Fernandez 518, Lu Anthony 523, Lucy Seiple 500.

Young At Heart: High scores from this week were by Jimmy Hamilton 253/651, Scott Robbins 631, Earl Hullett 620,

HALL OF FAMER MARSHALL HOLMAN ADDRESSES PBA PLAYERS ABOUT ROLES AS ENTERTAINERS

During the annual PBA players meeting prior to the start of the FloBowling PBA Fall Swing in Owasso, Okla., earlier this week, PBA Hall of Famer Marshall Holman accepted an invitation from the PBA to talk about the role of PBA players and all professional athletes as entertainers.

During a colorful career in which he won 22 PBA Tour titles over a span of more than two decades, the volatile Holman built one of the PBA’s largest love-hate fan bases, but always respected the game and in retirement has continued to embrace the sport’s fans through his involvement as an unofficial ambassador for the PBA.

The meeting also brought players up to speed on new media partners FOX Sports and FloSports, ushering in a new era of the PBA heading into the ground-breaking 2019 season.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: HURRICANE MICHAEL POSTPONES BLUFFTON DOUBLES

Hurricane Michael forced the postponement of the PBA-PBA50 Station 300 Baker Doubles planned for the Oct. 13-14 weekend in Bluffton, S.C. PBA South Region tournament manager Sam Zurich said he and the tournament host center will explore the possibility of re-scheduling the event for a later date.

- PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J., making his annual trip to the Pacific Northwest, posted a 7-1 match play record and knocked down 3,819 pins Sunday to win the PBA50 Dick’s Pro Shop Northwest/West Open at Linn Lanes in Lebanon, Ore. Bohn, who earned $1,500, defeated Chris Warren of Grants Pass, Ore., by 28 pins for the win. Warren had a 5-3 match play record and 3,791 total pins for his 16 games including match play bonus pins. In the companion PBA60 Open for bowlers age 60 and older, non-member Mike Karch of Edgewood, Wash., went 6-2 and knocked down 3,907 total pins for 16 games to top Ed Silva of Manteca, Calif., by 287 pins and earn $1,500. Silva had a 5-3 match play record and a total of 3,620 pins.
- PBA60 competitor Sammy Ventura of Syracuse, N.Y. and his PBA50 partner Jeff Zaffino of Warren, Pa., defeated Dick Gran of Hartville, Ohio and Brian Kretzer of Dayton, Ohio, 2-0, in the best-of-three-game championship match to win the PBA50/PBA60 Doubles Park Centre Lanes Central Open presented by Columbia 300 at Park Centre Lanes in North Canton, Ohio, Sunday. Teams in the event included one bowler between the ages of 50 and 59 and one bowler over the age of 60. This was Ventura’s eighth PBA50 regional title and Zaffino’s 11th. The champions split the $2,800 first prize. In the best-of-three-game semifinal round, Ventura and Zaffino defeated Darryl Bower of Middletown, Pa., and Michael Tryniski of Fulton, N.Y., 2-0, while Gran and Kretzer downed William Peters of Dayton, Ohio, and Eddie Graham of Kettering, Ohio, 2-1, to set up the championship match.
- The final PBA Regional events of October take place over the Oct. 26-28 weekend, including the PBA50 Bryan’s Bowling Center East Open presented by the Hopkins Automotive Group and 900 Global in Laurel, Del., and the South Point West Challenge and PBA Member-Nonmember Doubles, both presented by Radical, at South Point Bowling Plaza in Las Vegas
- For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the “schedules” tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow “live scoring” for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple and Android device users using the PBA app).

1986 – PART 4

by Carol Mancini

What a year for bowling in California. More clubs, more centers, more big scores!
Part four will cover October to December.

- The 26 foot lane dressing rule was the biggest topic for debate by proprietors, bowlers and associations. ABC was complaining the lanes were too easy! They were sanctioning (on an average) 3 800's and 16 300's a day. What was the answer for the different lane finishes and lane materials? Most writers agreed on - - - - - "Learn To Bowl!"
 - What? Another tournament club! TONY LAQUIHON came up with the "LUCKY BOWLERS TOUR". First tournament was held at "SHATTO 39 LANES". Did it survive? Keep reading!
 - Baseball and bowling have a few things in common, both use a ball, both have strikes, bowling has 10 frames and a baseball team's line-up (in American League) was 10 players. Thank you BOB JOHNSON for that info!!
 - The only bowler to appear on the cover of Sports Illustrated was STEVE NAGY.
 - Junior J.A.T. star Charles Willison at age 20 had 2 titles, an 802 and 5 300 games. Another J.A.T. star was RICK BARBARIA - 5 time title holder.
 - California's AGNES DUFFY was elected to W.I.B.C. Hall of Fame.
 - MARK FISSEY won a Rhino ball at a banquet and rolled a 300 the next Sunday. Thanks BARRY ASHER.
 - WALTER RAY WILLIAMS JR. received the "MOST IMPROVED" award in his league.
 - In the November 7 issue, the following action was available - - - - - "The L.A. Open", Pot Shot, Best 3 out of 4, LPBT, Alibi No-Tap, No-Tap Plus, 8 Game Marathon, Singles No-Tap, Big 5 No-Tap, Ladies Scrambler, Grant Classic, ABT, CBT, Roll-N-Donkee, SBT, SBTBA, TAB, 190 and Under No-Tap, Ladies Scrambler, Grant Classic, ABT, CBA, Roll-N Donkee, SBT, SBTBA, TAB, 190 and UNDER No-Tap, NBAC, Miller Lite Doubles, Sunbelt, Blue Chip, Blue Chip, Blue Chip, South Bay T.B.A. No-Tap Doubles at Jewel City, and the Big Buck. This is just a sample of what was going on in the L.A. area. How about "stuff" that wasn't advertised???
 - DICK GOLDSTEIN was bowling manager at SEQUOIA ATHLETIC CLUB. The "club" also had racquetball, handball, squash, basketball, track, volleyball, aerobics, swimming and fitness equipment! Only ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGAR and SUPERMAN could make use of all the activities!!
 - TED STALLING was manager at WONDER BOWL.
 - BETTY MORRIS won the Brunswick Open at Wonder Bowl. She received a check for $5,000.00.
 - VIRGINIA NORTON was on the staff at WONDERBOWL.
 - P.J. CARROLL added $2,000.00 to the SEDBA Annual Tournament.
 - The 2 guys perfect at GAGE BOWL were JIM TODD and MIKE MORA.
 - KEVIN SHIPPY replaced BUD FISHER at P.B.A. Public Relations Director.
 - The Cal-State Handicap All-Events winner, Cliff La Pointe, received a watch and a years use of a JEEP COMANCHE plus a pile of cash.
 - Ever visit MACY LANES in Anaheim? Built in an old grocery store. Lanes had more curves than MARILYN MONROE. Strange entrance! Didn't last long.
 - The Sunbelt Club kept having BIGGER ads every week.
 - BAHAMA LANES had a great league! All leagues end, everyone boarded a plane for seven days in St. Thomas. But only 2 nights. (Sorry, I fell for that one also!)
 - STAR GAZER was still writing the Horoscope column. But the "Gossip Column" was the reader's favorite.
 - For the 1985-86 season, the Calif-State Women's Ass'n collected $266,664.85 for B.V.L.
 - Whittier's 10-lane center, HANDLEY LANES was an adventure and cheap. 75 cents a game. The desk gal was mechanic, porter, bartender, league coordinator and office manager.
 - ROBIN ROMEO had the highest woman's average in California, 212. TISH JOHNSON 206, DONNA ADAMEK 203, WENDY MACPHERSON 203, and VIRGINIA NORTON 203 made the over 200 list.
 - BUTCH WITTMAN was the likeable, well trained, Western Region Field Rep. for ABC. His area was California, Oregon, Washington, British Columbia, Hawaii and Alaska. 40,000 miles a year driving. 30,000 miles flying.
 - GEORGE BRANHAM III, ARLETA, was the first black bowler to win a PBA event beating MARK ROTH in the finals winning $33,260.
 - A ROLL'N DONKEE 2 ball carrier was selling for $49.95. They couldn't make them fast enough!
 - Five person leagues were disappearing. Travel leagues were disappearing. Childcare was disappearing. Uniforms were disappearing.
 - GIP LENTINE was up for PCB BOWLER OF YEAR, along with LARRY GRAY, JESS STAYROOK, and JIM MURTISHAW. Almost forgot COREY GROTH!
 - RONALD REAGAN declared (on October 29, 1986) the week of January 4, 1987 - - - - - "National Bowling Week".
 - DAN ROCHE was President of the "P.J. Carroll Masters League". Dan was also President of the PBA "Image Committee". Looks and lane manners were 100% important to the committee.
 - First time ad — COLLEGE BOWL in Fullerton. Win a trip to Hawaii plus big New Years Eve Bash.
 - One year subscription to the Bowling News $15.00.
 - Bowling is 149 years old. Birth place was Madison, Conn.
 - AMF Bowling was sold for $223 million to a group in Richmond, Virginia called AMF. Splain that one! Stranger deals are down the road.
 - The L.A.B.A. (Men) had 24,144 members.
 - Dumb question asked - - - - - "if your calendar didn't have numbers, would time stand still?"
 - Wish I had been there - - - Barry Asher's end of the year swap meet sale at his Bowlers Supermarket. Lefthanded shoes! Free coffee and donuts. Plus an autograph.
 - ACTIVE WEST had 24 centers. All open Christmas day.
 - NICK MANCINI wrote a final 1986 story. "Has bowling died?" His view was - - - no, not dead, just changing. No more strict rules, no more penalties. The younger bowlers just wanted to have fun. And that changed the whole concept of leagues, tournaments, parties, and purposes.
 - The same picture of GLENN ALLISON appeared 51 times in 1986, advertising his urethane ball. What a guy! (and still is!)
- We end this year's trip from lane to lane. Hope it jarred a memory, brought a smile, reminded you of a friend or sent you back in time.

INVITATIONAL

Sysco Wins the First Round of the Brunswick

by Mike Cammarata

Downey – Bowlum and Sysco were tied at 22 wins each heading into the final night of the round in the Brunswick Invitational. They would square off on the top pair of lanes. Three Olives Vodka was in contention as well, sitting in third place with 20 wins. Four wins by either of the top two teams would eliminate Three Olives, but a 3-2 match on the top pair would mean that Three Olives would still have a chance.

Bowlum won the first game of the match with a strong 279 showing from Danny Wilson. Rob Renko added a 222 to help out. Gabriel Martinez and Paul Barraco had big scores for Sysco, 268 and 245, but it wasn't enough to get the win. Bowlum won the first game by 30 pins.

On the second pair, Three Olives Vodka got the first game to keep their hopes alive, winning by six pins. Curt Soares had a 265 game to lead them to victory.

In the second game on the top pair, Sysco got back on track. They shot a 902 game, largely because of a perfect 300 game shot by Gabriel Martinez. The 902 was enough to win by 39, and give Sysco a nine pin lead heading into the final game. With the score for totals being that close, a 3-2 split in the match seemed less likely, but Three Olives was still hopeful.

Three Olives Vodka took their second game as well, to remain alive heading into the final game. Game two was almost as close as the first one, as Three Olives won by only ten pins. Mikey Villarreal led the way this time with a 259 game.

Back on the top pair in the third game, the score was close throughout. In the 10th frame, it was still either team's game. When 2nd bowler JT Diso converted a 4-9 split, Sysco seemed to have the momentum. Then, doubles by the final two bowlers, Charlie Kinstler and Gabriel Martinez, would be enough to win the game and totals, giving them a 4-1 win in the match which locked up the round. Kinstler, who had struggled to 339 after two games, shot a 246 in the deciding game. Martinez shot a 227 to finish with a 795 series. Danny Wilson had a strong 735 in defeat for the Bowlum team.

Three Olives Vodka finished their match with a sweep of Buddy's Bowling Supply. They did what they needed to do to get into a roll-off, but they didn't get the help they needed on the top pair. Curt Soares led the team with 265/686. Mikey Villarreal was right behind with 259/679.

In what was a really amazing scenario, it was exciting to see three teams in contention for the round, literally down to the final bowler of the night on the top pair. It was a fantastic finish to the first round.

In other action, DV8 swept five games from Professional Approach. It was a very steady set from DV8 with low man on the team being 656. Lee Liu led the way with 279/692. Vernon Adams had a 246/699 in defeat for Professional Approach.

Del Rio Lanes 7502 Florence Ave., Downey CA 90240 • (562) 927-3351

Century 21 used great bowling by Jon Huff and Eddie Van Daniker to take four out of five games from J.A.T. Huff had a 254-257-246/757 set, while Van Daniker shot a 278-214-257/749. Jeremy Glover was subbing for J.A.T. and led the pair with a 266-267-248/781.

Keystone Lanes got a couple of 750 sets from Stephanie Zavala and Charles Zelaya to sweep past Captain Morgan. Zavala shot 214-279-257/750 in the leadoff spot for Keystone, while Zelaya added a 237-236-279/752 in the three hole. Those scores were more than enough to beat Captain Morgan, who was led by a 697 from Joe Jimenez.

Joel Arciniega led the next pair with 279/726, but unfortunately those scores only got his Herzog Insurance team one win. Cal Bowl took four out of five games with consistent scoring, led by Leonard Ruiz Jr. with 228/612.

Bowling Guys won all but the middle game from Threadworks. Bryan Osborne led the pair with 246-269-217/732 for Bowling Guys. Chris Hefner led Threadworks with 256/696.

Tito's Handmade Vodka won four out of five from Don Julio Tequila. Don Julio took the final game of the match using a 227 game from Macy Jimenez. Tito's Vodka got the rest though, as Gary Duran led the pair with 258-225-234/717. Will Hinckley helped out with a 279/668 set of his own.

Linders Insurance edged out a 3-2 win over Forest Lanes on the final pair. Robert Pompa led Linders with 241/652. Ryan Huff was right behind him with 256/650. Ray Minter led the pair, topping the Forest Lanes team with a 235-217-235/687 set.

Eddie Van Daniker won the first sidepot of the night with his 278 game. Gabriel Martinez was second with 268. Martinez won the second sidepot with his 300 game. There was a tie for second place between Joel Arciniega and Stephanie Zavala. The third game super pot ended in a tie as well, as Lee Liu and Charles Zelaya split the pot with matching 279 games.

Gabriel Martinez earned an additional $185 for his 300 game as it won him the Financial Advisors Pot. This pot had a three way tie for 2nd at 279. Will Hinckley joined Arciniega and Zavala in splitting this pot up.

The 279's and 700's will be a fond memory, as we head into the meat of the season now that the first round is over. Next week begins the sport patterns. First up will be seven weeks on the short oil. We'll see plenty of plastic and urethane over the next couple months.

Sysco got their spot.

Who will be next?

Come down to Del Rio Lanes in Downey on Monday night to see the action as the best in Southern California get challenged.

WORKING
DIRTY.

The all-white color of the Quantum Bias offers enhanced hook characteristics because of the unique traction additive found in our exclusive white pigment. The Bias also has 3.5 times more coverstock for increased durability and hitting power. This ball works harder. Welcome the dirt.
