LORI SCOTT Rolls Her Second 300

by Frank Weiler

SAN BERNARDINO — Lori Scott has done it again. Last week she rolled her second certified perfect game. It is her second honor score in a little more than a year. Quite an accomplishment for one of the Citrus Belt's rising stars.

Lori's second perfecto was bowled in the TNT (Tuesday Night Teachers) League. Teachers League! It shows that reading, writing and "rithmatic" can lead to better bowling.

It's not surprising to see Lori roll another honor score because she is a scratch bowler and is dedicated to improving her game. She practices regularly and takes lessons.

Congratulations to Lori and thanks to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting our California female bowlers.

"Dead Money" Upsets PBA Stars to Win Inaugural PBA Team Challenge Title

Long-time bowling friends unite to topple decorated team of PBA veterans

LAS VEGAS — "Dead Money" is a poker term related to the money left in the pot by players who have folded. It also is the name a team of five relatively untested bowlers gave themselves before upsetting a highly-decorated team of Professional Bowlers Association stars in the inaugural PBA Team Challenge at the South Point Bowling Plaza Sunday.

The PBA Team Challenge, a first-of-its-kind five-player team competition for the sport's most talented players, was conducted as part of the multi-event South Point Bowling Plaza Fall Classic.

Dead Money featured a lineup including PWBA Tour Championship winner Danielle McEwan of Stony Point, N.Y., who stepped into the lineup to replace injured Alex Aguiar (who came up with the team name); one-time PBA Regional winners Alex Cavanaugh of Massapequa, N.Y., and Matt O'Grady of Matawan, N.J.; one-time PBA Tour winner Anthony Pepe of Elmhurst, N.Y., and 30-year-old PBA rookie Matt McNiell of Prior Lake, Minn., who made his PBA Tour debut during the Fall Classic.

With McNiell bowling anchor, Dead Money put together a string of six strikes to take a 249-234 lead after the first game of the two-game Baker format title match and locked up a 497-452 victory by out-bowling "4 Majors and 100 at 1" in the second game, 248-218.

Combined, the five Dead Money players have won one PBA Tour title. The top-seeded "4 Majors and 100 at 1" own a combined 46 titles including PBA Tour major championship by Bill O'Neill of Lang-

Danielle McEwan Wins South Point PBA West Challenge for First PBA Title

LAS VEGAS — Competing against a strong field of U.S. and international non-champions, Danielle McEwan of Stony Point, N.Y., defeated Aaron Lorincz of Belleville, Mich., 277-236, to become the ninth woman to win a Professional Bowlers Association Regional title in the South Point PBA West Challenge at South Point Bowling Plaza Friday.

The tournament, part of the multi-event South Point Bowling Plaza PBA Fall Classic, was open to players who have never won a PBA event and drew bowlers from Colombia, Australia, Sweden, Venezuela and Canada. As a PBA West Region title winner, McEwan is now eligible to enter the 2016 FireLake PBA Tournament of Champions which will be held in Shawnee, Okla., Jan. 30-Feb. 7.

"Every time you win it's pretty awesome, but against the guys? That's pretty cool," the 24-year-old former Fairleigh Dickinson collegiate All-American said.

In the semifinal round, Lorincz eliminated Colombia national team member Manuel Otalora, 212-178, while McEwan defeated eight-time European Bowling Tour titlist Martin Larssen of Sweden, 207-203.

McEwan is riding a stunning hot streak which began with her victory in the Professional Women's Bowling Association Tour Championship in early September, concluding the first full season of women's professional bowling since 2003. She was in the field continued on page 8

Michelle Silver Dominates Women's Division in California State Singles Championships

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA — How well did Michelle Silver bowl at the 2015 California state singles championships last week at Winnetka Bowl?

The right-hander from West Los Angeles finished first in the women's prestigious 176-and-higher division – and she placed second. For good measure, she tossed in a perfect game – her 20th.

Silver bowled two different six-game sets in the tournament. Showing her consistency, Silver averaged a blistering 240 in her second set and her first set wasn't too far off with a 237 average.

With handicap, Silver finished with scores of 1,614 and 1,597. That put her ahead of her closest competitor, Jennifer Loreda, who averaged 210 and finished with a handicap-aided total of 1,572.

So Silver nailed the top two spots in the standings, though a bowler can earn money from only one finish.

The results provided by the California United States Bowling Congress are deemed unofficial for now but the winners are not expected to change during the confirmation process. Official results and the list of payouts are expected late this week on the cusb.com website.

Silver said she was “very ecstatic” with the results, considering she believed that she had not been bowling at her best lately. It had been four years since Silver bowled her 19th perfect game, recording that feat at AMF Mar Vista Lanes.

“I had been in a bit of a slump,” said the 49-year-old Silver, who won the California state Queens title in 2003 at Winnetka Bowl. “I don't know if the slump is over, but this performance gives me hope for the future. It gives me hope I can compete in scratch tournaments. I feel I still can compete.”

“The last time I bowled like that was in the WWPB [Western Women Pro Bowlers] in 2006 at Camarillo Lanes.”

Silver's scores on the first set were 194, 268, 238, 210, 289 and 224. Silver came back about an hour later and maintained her elite level of bowling with scores of 300, 193, 243, 213, 227 and 264.

Her title wiped away the disappointment of last year's state singles tournament in which she averaged a torrid 235.3 but still placed second to Darris Ruffner.

“I was willing to come back to the scene of the crime and try again,” said Silver, adding that she planned to defend her state title next year in Tuolumne.

Interestingly, Silver had to scramble just to participate in the state singles event – after competing in a Palm Springs tournament late Saturday night.

“I didn't know that everything would line up so well,” said Silver, who carries a 201 average. “I never thought I'd have a moment like this. I feel so blessed.”

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

Dear readers,

The results of Oct. 11 So Cal Deaf Traveling League at Chaparral Lanes could not be sent to the printer because a viral scam blocked my computer. After it was finally solved, the brief highlights of the league's day is shown here.

Darrell Stogryn's 827 from 249-207-228-173 was the lone 800 of the day at Chaparral followed by Gorman Low's (231) 754. Robert Audette's the day high 234 game, Ed Abakumoff's 211 and Celia Salcedo's ladies' season high game 204.

Although Bob Jones' league leading S F Valley lost 8-12 to Stogryn's Chino Hills, Valley still retains its lead. Second place Audette's Mid City also lost 4-16 to Abakumoff's Riverside and was replaced by Riverside in second place.

ABAKUMOFF'S 805 BEATS STOGRYN'S 801 IN DEAF TRAVEL AT CAL BOWL

LAKEWOOD — At Chaparral Lanes and its recent stop at Cal Bowl none of the six trio teams in Southern California Deaf Traveling League for the second straight session, hit a 2000 four games team series. Also a trio team Mid City with entering average of 490 rolled an all time low series of 1667 with team games of 392-443-443-389 in this scratch league.

Six bowlers made the day's honor roll with Ed Abakumoff's 805 leading Darrell Stogryn's 801 as the day's top series. Abakumoff had games of 200-208-197-200 and Stogryn's consists of 197-208-185-211. Bob Jones followed with a 717 and teammate Sharon Caldwell hit a new ladies' season high game 208. Two other men also hit 200s, Bob Taylor with 204 and a 200 by Emad Aranki who last Thursday won the Deaf Senior Bowlers of America "Masters" at Las Vegas.

Jones' leading S F Valley increased its lead with a 15-5 win over hapless Mid City. While Valley now has 15.5 lead over second place Riverside, the other teams are close by with only 6 points separates Riverside down to 6th place Chino Hills.

The league thanks Cal Bowl for hosting and without a week rest, will move on to bowl at Jewel City Bowl in Glendale on November 1.

2011 PBA Tournament of Champions.

“We all kind of grew up together bowling in Junior Gold and other tournaments, and we’re good friends,” McNiell said of his team’s chemistry. “The big thing for us was throwing good shots and having a good time, and we had a blast.”

In the first match, 900 Global Phoenix, with a lineup featuring four past or current Arizona State University collegiate bowlers plus Phoenix-based Michael Haugen Jr., a four-time PBA Tour winner, eliminated Team Brunswick in the first two-game Baker format match, 471-411. PBA rookie Jakob Butturff, a 21-year-old lefthander, threw seven strikes in eight attempts as 900 Global’s anchor bowler.

Dead Money then ousted 900 Global, rallying from a 43-pin deficit after game one with a 278 game to win the match, 493-484. McNiell threw two strikes in the 10th frame to lock up Dead Money’s comeback.

The round-robin match play competition leading into the stepladder finals included a Baker format 300 game by Team Brunswick’s Walter Ray Williams Jr., Sean Rash, Tom Smallwood, Jason Sterner and anchor bowler Parker Bohn III, the all-time leader in 300 games bowled in PBA competition (104). Williams, Rash, Smallwood and Sterner each threw two strikes. Bohn struck in the fifth frame and completed the perfect game with the final three strikes in the 10th.

Gabriel Ramirez Puts On A 'Miracle' Show At California State Singles Championships

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA —Who was the most surprised person that Gabriel Ramirez won last week’s prestigious 176-and-higher handicap division of the 2015 California state singles championships at Winnetka Bowl?

It had to be Gabriel Ramirez. “I’ve never bowled there before,” said Ramirez, a Monterey Park resident. “I didn’t know the lane conditions at all. And when I warmed up, I didn’t even warm up well.”

It turned out that those ominous signs were no problem for Ramirez. He rolled his first perfect game en route to averaging a blistering 238.8 for his six-game set, more than 50 pins above his average. With his handicap from being a 185-average bowler, the left-handed Ramirez scored a total of 1,702.

Kent Maruyama was second with a score of 1,654 and Kirk Oliver placed third at 1,645. The results provided by the California United States Bowling Congress are deemed unofficial for now but the winners are not expected to change during the confirmation process. Official results and the list of payouts are expected late this week on the cusbc.com website.

This is how hot Ramirez was. After opening in the first frame of his first game, he rolled 11 strikes in a row. Then he blasted his perfect game, which means he rolled a whopping 23 strikes in a row.

“I’ve never really thrown the ball so well,” Ramirez said. “I just wanted to see how I could do. I’m just an OK bowler; I’m not a great bowler. I bowl just once a week – on Friday nights – and that’s it.”

Ramirez registered scores of 278, 300, 174, 201, 232 and 247.

There were 202 entrants in the tournament with some players bowling at least twice. That figure exceeded the tournament’s participation in 2014 in Visalia (135 bowlers) and in 2013 in Torrance (178). The tournament had four squads at Winnetka Bowl, divided over two days.

Left-hander Gabriel Ramirez smoked a 278 and a 300 in his first two games of the 2015 California state singles championships.

Ramirez said he was “ecstatic” about his first 300, calling it his most exciting moment. Ramirez’s previous best was a 290 that he bowled three years ago. In that game, he opened with a spare and then rolled 11 strikes.

Learning last week that he unofficially won his state division title, Ramirez said that feat now ranked as his biggest thrill. Ramirez said he had bowled an occasional tournament, “but I had never placed first in my life.”

Ramirez was asked what happened in his Game 3, the only time he failed to exceed his average. “I have no idea,” he said. “I went back to normal. I finally woke up. I think it was more like shock that I had just bowled a 300.

“I had been close before but I always choked. For some reason, I wasn’t nervous this time.”

Ramirez also was asked if he could envision rattling off 23 straight strikes again. “Hell no,” he said. “I seriously doubt that. It was one of those miracle things.”

California State Singles Tournament to Move North for 2016

by Fred Eisenhammer

TUOLUMNE — The California state singles championships will move to Central California in 2016, tournament director Larry Worrall said.

The tournament will be held at Black Oak Lanes in Tuolumne on Oct. 16 and 17. The state championships will return to the Southland the following year at a site to be determined, Worrall said.

The tournament was contested in 2013 in Torrance with 178 entrants. One hundred thirty-five entrants participated in 2014 in Visalia.

Two hundred two bowlers were entered in this year’s tournament at Winnetka Bowl. “The number of participants was the best we’ve had so far,” said Worrall, adding that the tournament “went pretty smoothly and no one complained too much.”

There were four squads spread over two days of competition, which took place Oct. 17 and 18. The first three squads used all 32 lanes at Winnetka Bowl. The fourth squad had plenty of openings.

Two bowlers turned in honors scores during the tournament. Michelle Silver of West L.A. notched her 20th perfect game and Gabriel Ramirez of Monterey Park blasted his first 300. Both players won their division championships, according to the unofficial results.

Larry Worrall has served as the tournament director for the California state singles championships.

of 16 finalists in the PBA Xtra Frame South Point Las Vegas Open singles event that ended Thursday until the final qualifying game when she dropped to 22nd place in the male-dominated field of 112. Her finish was still good enough to clinch an invitation to represent the PWBA in the DHC PBA Japan Invitational in Tokyo in January.

“I think I’m doing so well because of the women’s tour,” McEwan said. “It’s the first time we got to bowl on a regular tour, and my game got really sharp, and I’ve been able to keep it going. I’m going to ride it as long as I can.”

As a four-time member of Team USA, McEwan’s next competition will be the World Bowling Women’s World Championship Dec. 4-13 in the United Arab Emirates. Afterward, she will immediately fly to Reno, Nev., where she will represent the PBA East Region in the PWBA-PBA Women’s Regional Challenge, a head-to-head match play competition involving women’s points leaders for all eight PBA Regions, during the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VII.

The South Point Bowling Plaza PBA Fall Classic continues with the most high-powered five-player team competition in PBA history, the PBA Team Challenge, Saturday and Sunday. The PBA Fall Classic concludes with the PBA50 Western Open, a regional tournament for players ages 50 and older, on Monday.

The entire Fall Classic is being covered live, exclusively on PBA’s online video-streaming service, Xtra Frame. For details, visit pba.com.

JAT Sport JuniorRecap

David Schneider, Michaela Buhain
Answer Riddle of the Sphinx
by David Schiada

NORWALK LANES — The first week on the Sphinx pattern was challenging for most of the JAT Sport Junior’s, but not for David Schneider and Michaela Buhain. Both were able to overcome the tough conditions to lead the action last Saturday at Keystone Lanes. David led all Juniors with a 756 series for four games, including a high game of 202. Michaela had the second highest series with a 735, also rolling a high game of 202. The high game of the week went to Matt Alford who edged David and Michaela with a 203 game, part of his 685 series. Last week’s results shook up the standings a bit, cutting Julian Zavala’s lead. There are just three weeks left in the first round of the JAT Sport Junior’s league with a spot in the Junior Gold Championships awaiting the winner. The lanes will be wearing the Sphinx costume again next Saturday when we hope to see fewer tricks and more treats on Halloween.

Upcoming Tournaments: October 31-November 1 – JBT at Cal Bowl (Lakewood); November 1 - JAT Brunswick Challenge La Habra 300 Bowl.

JAT Sport is a league for advanced juniors who are serious about competitive bowling. The league runs every Saturday starting at noon at bowlers have an opportunity to earn scholarship awards and compete in tournaments, including the 2016 Junior Gold Championships to be held July 16-22 in Indianapolis, Indiana. If you are interested in joining, please contact Armando Zavala at (562) 896-4467 or join us Keystone Lanes on Saturday at noon.

CONGRATULATIONS! TO MICHAEL BONDY who recorded his second 700 series this season, (242-244-239 - 725) in our Roaring 90’s League. I know he wants that 800 series so-o-o bad, he can almost taste it. It’s coming Michael!

Ciminelli Out-Strikes Pepe to Win PBA Xtra Frame South Point Las Vegas Open

LAS VEGAS (Oct. 22, 2015) – Ryan Ciminelli of Cheektowaga, N.Y., struck on 10 of 12 shots to defeat top qualifier Anthony Pepe of Elmhurst, N.Y., 269-211, in the title match of the PBA Xtra Frame South Point Las Vegas Open Thursday at South Point Bowling Plaza.

In winning the duel of New York lefthanders, Ciminelli picked up his third career title and first since the 2013 PBA Chameleon Championship. It was a big disappointment for Pepe who had led the tournament from the first round, qualifying first for the step-ladder finals by 370 pins over Ciminelli.

“It’s so hard to win a tournament twice, and leading by 370 pins...man, I’ve been there,” Ciminelli said. “I know what it feels like. I thought he was a little nervous and I tried to show a little emotion, and get after him. That’s just part of competition.”

In the first match, Ciminelli’s boyhood idol, 52-year-old PBA Hall of Famer Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J., put together a string of four strikes, but got help when Bill O’Neill of Langhorne, Pa., left the 2-10 and 4-5 splits, opening in the fifth and eighth frames to give Bohn a comfortable cushion in his 215-200 victory. He then started the second match with seven strikes and ran away from Australia’s Jason Belmonte, who left three 10 pins in the first five frames, 253-210.

Bohn’s bid for his 35th career title and sole possession of fifth place on the PBA’s all-time titles list (he currently is tied with Mark Roth) came to an end in the semifinal match when Ciminelli followed a missed split conversion in the first frame with a string of five strikes on his way to a 234-190.

“It’s funny because when Parker bowls good, I seem to bowl bad. When Parker bowls bad, I bowl good, because of the differences in our styles,” Ciminelli said. “But this week, it seemed like if you threw the ball well, you were rewarded.”

Ciminelli, 29, said the win also was an important building block in her career.

“I still have a ways to go in taking what comes to you, and just dealing with it. Parker’s my idol that way. He just never gets upset about anything. I still have some things to learn about being a professional bowler and one thing that happened this week was dealing with perseverance. I had two 140 games and usually when I do that, I just miss the cut. To come back from that was big for me; the old me wouldn’t have been able to do that.”

The South Point Bowling Plaza PBA Fall Classic continues Friday with the South Point PBA West Challenge, a regional tournament open to players who have not won a PBA title. Action then shifts to the most high-powered five-player team competition in PBA history, the PBA Team Challenge, Saturday and Sunday. The PBA Fall Classic concludes with the PBA50 Western Open, a regional tournament for players ages 50 and older, on Monday.

The entire Fall Classic is being covered live, exclusively on PBA’s online video-streaming service, Xtra Frame. For details, visit pba.com.

1949 Weekly Deadline, All About Pounding The Pine

NORWALK — By 1949 the Bowling News was picking up ads and scores from all over California. Antioch Bowl, Cee Vee Playdium in Chula Vista, Delano Beach, Bowlor Drome in La Jolla, Oceanside Center, Pismo Beach, Upton Bowl in Richmond, El Camino in San Luis Obispo, Tracy Bowl, Green Mill in Ventura, Santa Barbara Bowl, Stockton Bowl, just to name a few! Every hamlet had a few lanes. Jewel City Bowl in Glendale opened fully manned and ready for action. Twas called the “GEM”, and is still around. Is Jewel City the oldest center still in business? Montrose Bowl?

A “CONDOLENCES” column discussed teams and bowlers who were the subjects of “Bad Beats”. Column space for losers? Ooops. A sub bowled a 299 game and the team he was subbing for decided to use an “absentee” score instead! That hurts. Another oops. “Mike” started his first game with 6 splits, then finished with 5 strikes for 161. He also had a spare in the 7th frame.

Merle Matthews (Hall of Famer) had a tough night. Was on her way to a 700 series with 5 straight strikes and the nasty 7-10 split halted her 3rd game. Her 666 was anything but welcome. Aldo Dido (I like the name) fell to his knees when the 10-pin stood on ball 12.

Ed Hartnett (190 average) rolled 34 consecutive games before breaking 200. We remember Ed as the Secretary of the San Gabriel Valley Assn. in the 70’s.

The first story about “Child Care” while Mom’s bowl appeared. Magnolia Bowl in the San Fernando Valley started the program that lasted over 50 years. I don’t know of ANY center in 2015 that provides child care. Do You?

Teenage bowling was gaining momentum. Leagues, tournament, pictures, challenges, and high scores. It’s all about the kids. Many of them were sons and daughters of great bowlers. A new family tradition had been established.

Compton Bowl ran a 3 weekend “Vacation Singles Classic” with a $10.00 entry fee. Based on 500 entries, 80 bowlers and guests received vacation time in Sun Valley, Idaho.

The W.I.B.C. tournament in Columbus, Ohio hosted 2,600 teams in 41 days. Columbus alone entered 1,067 teams.

This one is a doozy! Chic Schutt was named King Keger of the “League of Unfortunate Bowlers”. He rolled a 300 game in a mixed foursome league. A.B.C. did not recognize such a feat. Had he been a woman, W.I.B.C. would have sanctioned the 300.

Imagine this amazing 3 game match. A 4-man team of blind guys rolled against 4 amputees. The G.I. amputees won 1131 to 739. They challenged all who wanted to bowl them.

The L.A.W.B.A. women bowlers rented a large bus to take 40 (8 teams) to Columbus, Ohio for the Nationals. Their round trip and bowling took 3 weeks. 40 women on a bus for 3 weeks — Yikes!

Harry Grant was the bowling manager of Sunset Bowling Center. At the Grand Opening of the Katz Brothers (Irving and Myer) Beverly Hills Recreation, visitors could get a free demonstration ride in a new Dodge or Plymouth.

Arcadia Bowling Courts opened its doors in September. East of Santa Anita Blvd., north of Huntington Drive on Morlan Drive. Art Goddard was manager there for a short time right before it closed. It was a favorite hang out for the jockeys from Santa Anita Race Track. One jockey even owned Bowling Square.

Brunswick does it again. Their B-10 electric pinsetters went on sale. 18 improvements over the B-1. “Built by men who knew Bowling Best”. Open play prices were up from 15 cents to 25 cents and 30 cents.

Compton Bowl came up with the “GRUNT HUNT”, a singles shoot-out with a 16-pound ham as the grand prize. Yuummmm!

A 25-year-old thief held up the deskman at Bonnie Brae Bowl and got out the door with $155. An alert bowler called the cops. A patrol officer arrived, saw the robber running and yelled, “STOP”. When the thief didn’t stop, he was shot and killed. He was carrying a toy pistol. He had a lengthy record.

Vermont Bowl was owned by Frank Del Conte. When he retired he still owned Saddle Back Lanes.

Bowling writer Bill Flesch ran a weekly advice column called “Bowl Your Cares Away”. His motto was “Reach out for those high scores”. Reach, being the subject of July 4, 1949 article.

Custom made bowling blouses and slacks hit the market. Imagine! Women bowling in slacks - - - except in tournaments. The no slacks, shorts, culotte rule changed in the late ‘90’s. Out went smoking, in came the shorts.

Forty-seven men’s associations were active. I’m assuming there was an equal number of women’s associations.

Bowlers Enjoy Final Night of High Scoring in the Brunswick Invitational - Pro Approach Wins Round

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY — The bowlers in the Brunswick Invitational went out with a bang as the first round came to an end on Monday night. There were plenty of big scores, as people bowled for total wins and sidepots. As for the round, that was clinched a week earlier as the Professional Approach had already won enough games to clinch the first of six playoff spots up for grabs this season.

On the first pair, the Pro Approach team only widened their lead by taking four games from Threadworks. Billy Myers Jr. led the Professional Approach with a 233/666 set. High for Threadworks was substitute Jerry Cant, who shot 257/694. The Professional Approach finished the round with an amazing record of 31-4, to win it by 9 games. Pretty amazing!

Linder's Insurance edged out Los Altos Trophy, 3-2. Much bigger scores on this pair, led by Raul "Spanky" Rosales who was subbing for Linder's. Raul shot 226-279-248/753. Jason Buenviaje added 715 for Linder's, including a sidepot winning 280 in the first games. In fact, all three sidepots went to this pair. Spanky won the second game with his 279. Kevin Jones won the third sidepot with 257 to finish his 736 series. Juan Zavala rounded out the high scoring on 23-24 with another 700.

Alhambra Coin Center only took one of the three games from Forest Lanes, but did it in grand fashion shooting 1022 in the final game to pull out totals as well and win the match 3-2. Kurt Kisely led the Coin Center with 247/719. T.J. Abahazy chipped in with 254/704.

Another team breaking the 1000 mark on Monday night was J.A.T. They started their series with 1051, and did it with David Yamauchi only pitching in with a 207. The other three posted 844, with Deeronn Booker shooting 299, Larry Campbell 276 and Katrina Fujikami adding 269. After adding another 924 in game two, they cruised to a 300 pin victory in totals. Booker led the way with 749. Campbell added 717, and Fujikami finished with 700 even. Paul Barraco shot well for Sysco with 279/737, but simply was no match for the JAT on this night.

Keystone Lanes hung on for a 3-2 match victory over Ketel One Vodka. Five of the eight players were over 650, but nobody broke 700. Jared Lawrence of Keystone Lanes was closest with his 697. Eddie Van Daniker led Kettel One with 681.

Bowlum won four games in their match against Relax-Release-Repeat. Dave Kovach shot 258/729, and Scott Poddig added 259/719 to help in the victory. Vernon Adams topped R-R-R with 246/683.

Don Julio Tequila bowled Wowo's Smokin' Hot BBQ on the next pair. Buddy Lucas and Bobby Campagnale both broke 700 for Don Julio's squad on their way to four wins. Wowo's BBQ got the last game, but had dug too big of a hole to contend for totals. Joe Torre led the BBQ with 249/659.

Leonard Ruiz Jr. was the star on the next pair, again. Leonard had 278-244-247 for 769 to lead Pino's Pizza to the first sweep of the night as they easily disposed of Herzog Insurance. Kevin Gagnon led Herzog with 677 and Ben Smith added 667, but none of the games were close enough for them to contend in.

Erickson's Foods swept all five games from GJC Service. The first game was very close as Erickson's pulled out a 936-920 win. Game three was close as well. In the end though, GJC just kept coming up a touch short and wound up getting swept. Michelle King was the star of the match, with 235-269-279 for an outstanding 783 series. Great bowling, Michelle! Mike Jennings of GJC wasn't too far off with his 267-215-296 for 778, but it was in a losing effort.

Cremation Center of California got four wins on the final pair from Cook's Bowling Supply. Jon Huff made it through all three games to lead the pair with 656 for the Cook's team. Tops for the Cremation Center was another of the league's great ladies, Patrice Smith. Patrice shot 268/653 to lead her team.

The Financial Advisors pot was split with a pair of 279's in game two. Congratulations to Paul Barraco and Buddy Lucas for splitting the $320 on Monday.

Scoring in round one was a little lower than normal as bowlers took a little time adjusting to the new lane surfaces. Still, when it was done, 25 bowlers finished the round averaging over 220, led by Vernon Adams at 240. I'm very curious to see how the tougher patterns will play now too.

Round 2 starts next Monday night as the bowlers will bring out the plastic, the urethane and the polish as we begin the short oil round. Come check out all the action, starting at 8:30 p.m.
