SOUTH POINT'S LARGEST WORLD SERIES CROWD WATCHES CHEETAH THRILLER

LAS VEGAS — The largest on-site crowd in South Point's five-year history of hosting the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling witnessed Liz Johnson's remarkable rally Saturday to qualify for the PBA Cheetah Championship presented by PBA Challenge Mobile Game finals. A packed house filled South Point Bowling Center all day, but it was Johnsons unprecedented move from 24th to fourth that captivate the crowd.

Johnson, the first woman to appear on a PBA Tour national telecast in the 2005 Banquet Open in Wyoming, Mich., outscored the field of 24 finalists in the second qualifying round Saturday night, averaging 261.6 over her final five games and striking twice in the 10th frame of her final game to knock PBA Hall of Famer Pete Weber out of the TV show.

While there have been several players who have advanced from 24th place to reach TV finals in years past, it was the first time a player has done so in a seven-game non-match play situation without the benefit of match play bonus pins.

November is B.V.L. Month

by Carol Mancini
NORWALK — First up is the Southern Los Angeles County U.S.B.C. Assn. Annual Tournament at Keystone Lanes on November 1st.

All bowlers in their association are eligible for the one squad event at Noon — check-in early and bring your U.S.B.C. card!

NO-TAP is the name of the game this year. Big numbers and lots of fun. Two divisions (Men and Women). The entry fee is $30.00 of which $8.00 goes to the B.V.L. FUND and $13.75 is prize fund.

DO IT FOR THE VETS!

San Gabriel Valley B.V.L. State Qualifier at Bowlm

by Carol Mancini
MONTCLAIR — November 9th is B.V.L. Day at Bowlm for the San Gabriel Valley bowlers. Two squads have been set; 10:00 A.M. and 2:00 P.M.

The entry fee is only $20.00 with $10.00 going directly to the B.V.L. Fund. This tournament is also a qualifier for the State B.V.L. IN 2015.

Men, women and youth qualify in their own average group. Winners in each division are automatically entered in the State B.V.L. Tournament at McHenry Bowl in Modesto on March 21, 2015.

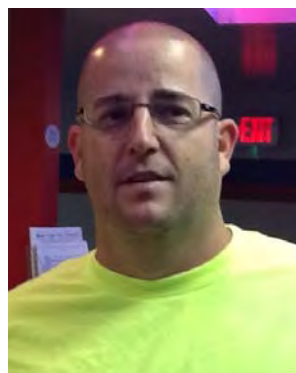

Thou the prize fund is small, it's always been an honor to be a B.V.L. winner and represent your association.

California bowlers are number ONE in their support of our vets. BOWL NOVEMBER 9th AT BOWLMIUM AND BRING YOUR SANCTION CARD!

BARNES TOPS "ACTION" JACKSON IN $11,000 HEAD-TO-HEAD ACTION MATCH

LAS VEGAS — In an unofficial kickoff to WSOB VI, 17-time PBA Tour champion Chris Barnes of Double Oak, Texas, soundly defeated Los Angeles-based actor and PBA Regional competitor J.T. (Action) Jackson, 247-183, Friday in a one-game challenge match produced by Xtra Frame that is available for free viewing on PBA's YouTube channel.

The match (which involved each player putting up $5,000 and an additional $1,000 provided by the PBA) also is available in the "2014 WSOB archive" on Xtra Frame.

REDLANDS — I am a statistics oriented guy. As a kid I could quote the batting averages of every baseball star and Hall of Famer. I knew every record held by HANK AARON. My favorite though was WILLIE MAYS. He could do it all.

Bowling like baseball has statistics which allow us to measure performance. At the professional level the PBA tracks averages, strikes, strike percentages, spare percentages, tenth frame results, split percentages, wins, losses, cashes, cuts, television ap-

Lady Gaga Finds Life in the Fast (bowling) Lane

by Fred Eisenhammer

MALIBU — So what do you do for fun when you're rich and famous?

If you're Lady Gaga, bowling in the comfort of her home is now an option.

The 28-year-old pop star has spent $23 million to purchase a mansion in Malibu that features a two-lane Brunswick bowling alley, according to the Los Angeles Times.

Just in case she gets bored with her bowling hobby, Lady Gaga also can spend time with a bocce ball court and a salt-water swimming pool with a spa in the backyard.

The 10,270 - square-foot home features a breathtaking view of the mountains and Zuma Beach.

Lady Gaga rose to fame in 2008 with her debut album, "The Fame," with its hit songs, "Just Dance" and "Poker Face."

In addition to being a singer, Lady Gaga also is a songwriter and actress.

Who knows?

Perhaps Lady Gaga will become so enamored of her Brunswick lanes that she'll compose a smash song about bowling. Rock on!

Oil Pattern Used "House Shot"

Is the corporate approach having a negative effect on bowling?

by Rosie Parker

With the increased effort to get bowling in the Olympics, which seems to have a more positive look these days, what do we have in common with our global counterparts? According to World Tenpin Bowling Federation President Kevin Dornberger: "USBC is one of our 108 members and while they are an active one they do not have the influence they could have, largely do to their recent lack of interest in the sport (although that does seem to be changing some). In most federations the communication occurs between the federation and competitive/tournament members."

When asked about the similarity of our local and state association system Dornberger said: "Very few have the equivalent of local associations, of course none are as large as USBC. There are some in Europe that have club structure, I guess similar to leagues but more about competition and meeting social needs. Some federations have regional groups. In general I think the national federation has more control over them than USBC. The smaller federations are autonomous."

More and more professional bowlers are making the trek overseas to pro tournaments that have more lucrative prize funds and, more and more bowlers from other countries are taking part in U.S. PBA events.

Travel is expensive and it's not like two or three Pros and even families can get into a motor-home and drive around the U.S.A. Are we able to fit into the global mold? How many moms like Candy Cook (Steve Cook's wife) will travel and home school their kids on the way to help their husbands/wives fulfill their dream.

Quite a scenario it will be interesting to see how it all plays out.

One person's view about bowling in the U.S. :

by Rosie Parker

It's sad to see what is going on with bowling. Our local board has vacancies and we try to bring new people on but no one wants to be that committed so then we operate at half capacity. With our parent organization taking awards away, it will be interesting seeing what we will do to be able to provide awards. We couldn't go with the usual award source as their minimum order was way more than we needed, so we went with our State award source but the cost to our association will be a consideration. I would imagine all other associations are currently going thru the same thing. And, most importantly, our association did not raise our local fees this season and kept USBC cards the same price. This will be killer for sure. Is USBC reaching out to aid us? No. Makes me wonder if our state is reaching out to local associations since they have volume purchase on their side? I don't think so.

Thankfully, I have been able to communicate with another association in CA to send me an awards program we could use for a sample. Not all the other associations will seek out like I did. And what if associations do nothing? Bowlers are going to get discouraged and not want to sanction leagues and away goes leagues as we knew them.

And then there is the rating USBC is doing on local associations. First, if you serve on your board you had to go online and take their test. Most of our board members did but not all so that hurt our rating. Next, depending on the size of your association, you have to put on clinics for new bowlers. We are at 2,000-plus so are required to put on 3. Then, we need to report the number of entrants in our various City tournaments and if we don't get enough to participate, that hurts our rating too. It's crazy. Is this how USBC is involved anymore? Where's the help?"

From a state association leader across the U.S. :

by Rosie Parker

"We also have this terrible feeling about USBC. We can't see where it is going and they are no help to local and state associations. Oh well, we were in bowling when it was the best."

How are things going for your association? Good news? Let's hear it. lynlymary@surewest.net Any news is welcome.

New Scoring System for Competitive Bowling to be Unveiled During World Bowling Tour Finals at WSOB VI

International task force develops fast-paced, easy-to-understand format for match play competition

ARLINGTON, TX – Athletes and bowling fans around the world will be introduced to a proposed new scoring system for competitive bowling during the World Bowling Tour (WBT) Men’s and Women’s Finals in Las Vegas on November 2.

The new scoring system for competitive bowling is the result of the work done by an all-star panel of international bowling experts, including World Bowling leaders, athletes, coaches, news media and commercial bowling industry executives. The international task force, with the additional input of Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) leadership, developed the new system in order to make the sport more attractive and easier to understand for casual bowling fans, the news media and the competitors.

The new system, which impacts how the sport is scored as well as the format for competition, will be unveiled during the WBT Finals. The singles match play competition will be conducted as follows:

- 1) A match will involve 12 frames.
- 2) In each frame, each player will throw one shot.
- 3) If Player A gets a higher pin count than Player B, he/she will win the frame.
- 4) If both players strike, the frame will be tied.
- 5) If neither player strikes, but each has the same pin count, each player will try to convert the spare. If both successfully convert their spares, the frame will be a tie. If one player has a higher pin count than the other after two shots, that player will win the frame.
- 6) Scoring for the match will reflect who has won the most frames (example, 1 up, 2 up, etc. All-square means the match is tied).
- 7) At the point one player has won more frames than frames remain (example: 3 up after 10 frames), he/she will be declared the winner.
- 8) If a match is “all-square” after 12 frames, the tie will be broken using the single-frame format described above until the tie is broken.

The new system emphasizes winning the frame, much like golf’s Ryder Cup places emphasis on winning a hole. This new system is expected to dramatically reduce the length of time and complexity of scoring required to complete a two-player match.

World Bowling President and CEO Kevin Dornberger noted “We believe we have found the right balance between modernizing our sport while retaining credibility and tradition our athletes and fans value. All of us involved with this project are looking forward to its introduction in Las Vegas”.

The World Bowling Tour Men’s and Women’s Finals will be contested in the new South Point Bowling Plaza in Las Vegas on Sunday, Nov. 2, and will air on ESPN on Sunday, Jan. 25.

About the World Bowling Tour Finals: The top-ranked bowlers in the world will be featured in the season-ending World Bowling Tour (WBT) Finals in November in the grand finale to the WBT season. The top three men and top three women in the WBT rankings were finalized over the weekend as the final stop on the 2014 schedule was held in Bangkok, Thailand. The finalists were determined based on the WBT points standings and will compete for a $70,000 prize pool on Nov. 1 or 2 in Las Vegas.

About World Bowling: World Bowling is the official trade name for former FIQ, recognized by the International Olympic Committee as the world governing body for the sport of Bowling. World Bowling is autonomous in administering the sport and is responsible to promote the development of bowling throughout the world, promote the Olympic movement, contribute to the achievement of the goals set forth in the Olympic Charter, establish rules for the uniform practice of bowling throughout the world, and ensure that official bowling activities meet the requirements of the Olympic Charter. JOHNNY PETRAGLIA FEATURED IN VFW MAGAZINE ARTICLE

NORWALK — PBA Hall of Famer Johnny Petraglia was the subject of an article in the October edition of VFW Magazine by Richard Kolb featuring noted sports figures who served during the Vietnam War. Among other noted athletes who were featured in the story were Dallas Cowboys legend Roger Staubach and former Notre Dame/Pittsburgh Steelers star Rocky Bleier. According to the article, Petraglia enlisted for a two-year tour-of-duty in the U.S. Army in September of 1966 and first served as a cook, which was required for all new enlistees. He was sent to Vietnam in October of 1967 where he served in the 368th Transportation Company that was responsible for the discharge and loading of cargo. He was discharged in June of 1968. At the time Petraglia entered the service at age 19, he was already a PBA member and had just come off his first PBA Tour title – the Fort Smith (Arkansas) Open in August of 1966. The October issue of VFW Magazine will be archived on the organization’s website in the near future. A digital version of the article is not available, but a copy of the magazine may be requested by email (magazine@vfw.org) or by calling (816) 756-3390.

DANNY WISEMAN YOUTH TOURNAMENT AWARDS $21,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS

BALTIMORE — PBA Hall of Famer Danny Wiseman hosted his third annual Danny Wiseman Youth Scholarship Tournament Sunday at AMF Country Club Lanes in Baltimore, and wound up distributing more than $21,000 in scholarship money to the bowlers who advanced to match play. Brianna Marie Barna and Adam Zimmerman were the big winners. For final results of Wiseman’s event, visit his website: dannywisemanbowling.com.

85 YEAR OLD STEALS THE SHOW BY WINNING SINGLES TITLE

EL PASO — USBC Association Hall of Fame Member Benjamin (Benny) Salcines cruised to the singles title by edging out Don Quitangon by 23 pins. This 169 average bowler had games of 227 237 and 200 for 664 and with his 162 pins handicap had a 826 good enough to take home the $2000.00 first place check. Benny used Storm Products throughout the tournament. This was a very emotional experience for not only Benny but all bowlers in the 2nd Annual Law Enforcement, Fire Fighters & First Responders Tournament at the Gold Coast in Las Vegas.

They had a re-entry squad for singles and there were several bowlers that didn’t bowl it due to the fact they didn’t want to take the title away from Benny. I actually saw tears from some of the bowlers as they announced Benny’s name for winning the singles.

Benny and his significant other, Alta James moved from El Paso TX to Austin TX about four years ago. Benny currently bowls in two leagues at Westgate Bowling Center and recently participated in his 26th USBC Open Championships. It obvious this is something he is very proud of doing. He retired from Billy the Kid (clothing industry) in El Paso TX.

The double winners were a father and son team. Josh (672) and Mitch (749) Kelsey had a 1531 with 111 pins handicap and won $1000.00. Josh is a claim adjuster in Surprise AZ, came in with a 203 average. He used the Columbia 300 Eruption Pro during doubles. Mitch, from Peoria AZ is a retired Law Enforcement Officer and came in with a 215 average. He used the Roto Grip Hyper Cell throughout the tournament.

The winning Team was the “2 Cops and the Informants” who ran away with this event with a handicapped total of 3011 and took home $500.00 each. My brother, Dave Gulley and Ann McGee Team came in a distance second with a 2880. On the winning team were: Thomas (Tom) Candura (600) with a 188 average, Bob Godden (726) with a 200 average, Richard Dominguez (565) with a 167 average, and finally Sean Buras (649) with a 188 average.

Tom is a retired Police Sergeant from Newark NJ and used a Roto Grip Hyper Cell and currently lives in Las Vegas NV; Bob is also from Las Vegas NV; Richard used the Blue Hammer, First Blood, and the Assassin and is from Las Vegas NV; and finally Sean works as a Casino Supervisor and lives in Henderson NV and he used the DV8 Endless Nightmare.

Don Quitangon won the all events title with a 2279 with handicap. He had a 571, 581, 641, for a 1793 scratch total and won $300.00.

This tournament is for active & retired First Responders, Law Enforcement, Fire Fighters, men & women from agencies that serve our communities as well as their guests. Each four person team must include at least 2 that are eligible and up to 2 guests. For more information on this event please visit www.high-roller.com and let’s make this tournament an even a bigger success in 2015. This tournament was sponsored by Storm Products, Inc. and presented by the High Roller.

BURBANK — Tomorrow is Hallowe'en! My favorite holiday aside from Christmas. I find it interesting that on the one day a year you are able to become any entity you wish, good or bad, grown ups are so very reluctant to dress in costume!

I realize as adults we are responsible for getting the kids out there for a night of 'sweet' fun and it may not allow us to dress up ourselves. Years ago, when Trick or Treating was still 'a thing' and families walked their neighborhoods together for frightful fun, I heard of a great substitution for the adult treat bag...a shot glass! The kids get their candy bags filled and you get a shot of whatever at each house! Now that is dangerous fun for the whole family!

pearances and results to name a few. The PWBA and LPBT did the same as well as many amateur organizations such as the ABC, WIBC and USBC. For aficionados like myself statistics add to the appeal of sports, especially bowling.

At the local level we don't keep the detailed statistics the professional associations do, but we do keep some. The most prominent of these is book average. The book average of every bowler who has ever bowled in the CITRUS BELT is recorded in our annual yearbooks. Yearbooks compiled and maintained by PAM MEEKER. I love perusing the pages of these books of our "bible."

These books tell me that the highest average ever recorded here is 253 by VINCI WOOD during the 2012-13 season. It was probably the best season ever recorded in the Citrus Belt. Vinci rolled over twenty 800s that year, which may be the second most ever in the national history of the ABC/USBC.

Will any Citrus Belt bowler ever top 253? Maybe. Right now, after eight weeks, Zach Jellsey is averaging 254! Can he keep it up? Can he go the distance? YES HE CAN. Yes he can if he wants to. Yes he can if he goes for it. Yes he can if he works to get it.

I know that Zach has the talent to average 254 on a house shot but I wonder if he wants to. I wonder if he has the desire to average 254. In the past I know that Zach has not emphasized league bowling. He is a competitor and handicap league play doesn't present much of a challenge to a PBA Regional Champion like himself. He usually bowls in just one certified league each year to establish a book average. So, only Zach knows if he wants 254, if he wants to go for it, if he wants to work for it.

One thing for sure, like Willie Mays, Zach can do it all. He has a power game, he has a finesse game. He can roll it, he can spin it. He can use one hand, he can use two hands. He can play inside, he can play outside.

He can read lanes, he can make every necessary adjustment. Zach Jellsey is a threat to break the record.

I love records. I loved 1998 and Mark McGuire's quest for 61 and beyond. I loved 2001 even better when Barry Bonds broke McGuire's record. Zach is on a record pace and I plan to follow his progress throughout the season. His quest will not be a physical one. He has all the physical tools necessary to prevail. His battle is a mental one. A metaphysical challenge only won by someone with mystical mental abilities.

I say his battle is a metaphysical one because his biggest challenges will be responding favorably to adversity. He will have to bowl well when hurt. He will have to bowl well when feeling blue and he will have to bowl well when the world around him may be crashing. A bowling season is long and it takes mental toughness to get through it. More so when history is on the line.

I believe Zach will maximize his opportunities and minimize his mistakes. I believe he will get metaphysical and seize the moment. I believe he will set a new record. I look forward to enjoying the quest. By the way, Zach just rolled another 300 and 836 in EMPIRE BOWL'S Odd's N End's League.

Proprietor WILL MOS-SONTTE competes against Zach in that league and continues to be in awe of what Mr. Jellsey does. It is...MENTAL, ...METAPHYSICAL.

Gone But Not Forgotten

NORWALK — Inglewood Sport Center/Bowl was located at 685 South La Brea in Inglewood. This was a typical design of centers in the 40's. Note the small windows.

Montrose Bowl in Montrose has the same outside facade and is still specializing in youth birthday parties, etc. It's worth a trip up the hill to Montrose for a glimpse into the past. Built in 1936, the bowl still has over-lane-ball returns. Inglewood Bowl hosted many big tournaments over the years. Bowlers were loyal!!!! It was their home, their family. Always someone you knew was practicing or having a legendary hamburger. (I wish McDonalds had stolen their secret.)

Sadly Inglewood Bowl was sold and closed in 1975 (or 1976) right in the middle of the building boom. Share your pictures and stories.

New Round Same Leaders

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY — A new round started tonight, the dreaded 2nd Round “Dry” Shot... only 26 feet of oil. However, one thing hasn’t changed, and that is our leaders! Professional Approach led the league every week last round until the one that mattered, losing to Keystone Lanes on the final night of the 1st Round. To prove they are not one “shot” wonders, they came out firing last night, taking down the always tough SYSCO team 5-0 to hold the top spot once again. Billy Myers Jr. showed he’s the “boss” with his 659, while Jessica “Crowns” Diso showed why she’s queen, shooting 244/597 to lead all ladies on the night. The final game came down to the 10th, anchor man Frank “Bad Ass” Barefoot left a washout, while Gabriel Martinez got a split. Frank needed to convert to win, and he did, not an easy task on this very challenging pattern. Forest Lanes is next up for Billy’s bunch as they used sub Gip Lentine and his 590 to take down the struggling Cook’s Bowling Supply team 5-0. Bowlium is also at 5-0 after winning game 1 by 5 and game 3 by 6 to sweep past Erickson Foods. Scott Poddig led the way with 611 for Bowlium.

Power House Video Games find themselves in 4th place; despite missing anchor Eddie VanDaniker, bowling in the WSOB. However, super sub Mikey Villarreal more than filled the void shooting 247/630 to team with leadoff Val Wise and his almost 6, 599 set to take down Threadworks. Eric Snow 615 & Paul Varela 595 were best for Threadworks. Leonard Ruiz Jr. rolled his way to 247/646 and guided his team to a 4-1 win over Blizz Yogurt. CASAMIGOS Tequila also ended the night 4-1 as they overcame a struggling Herzog Insurance team. Los Altos Trophies was also among the leaders after one week, winning 4-1 and will get to square off vs Team DV8. DV8 continued their hot bowling, shooting 892 the first game, on their way to a league high 2467 and a 3-2 win. They needed all they could get Game 1, as First Round Winners Keystone Lanes came firing back to take the last two games, and ended the night with 2390, the 2nd highest team series. DV8 was led by Jeff Carr 240/686 and Brent Ilagan 613, while Keystone got huge efforts from Charles Zelaya 269/640 and yes BIG T, Andre Rounds 605. J.A.T. also managed a 3-2 split with American Harvest Vodka as David Yamauchi’s 267 last game paved the way for the huge 3rd game win, with enough to pull out totals. DeeRonn Booker was the star though, shooting 246/659 to lead J.A.T. while Kevin Too Tall Jones finished at 600 for AHV.

Alhambra Coin Center ended the night on top as well, taking down GJC Services 3-2, and their reward? They will meet Keystone Lanes next week. Mike Jennings led the league with a very consistent 689 set and paved the way for his Tifco Industries team to pull out game 3, and Totals by 1 pin! Mike got very little help from his teammates, but it was just enough to overcome the 636 effort from the Japan bound Kevin Valmonte who led Linder Insurance to the first two game victories.

Sidepot winners were Game 1 Dave Korach 217 Game 2 DeeRonn Booker 246 and 3rd Game Super Pot was a tie between Leonard Ruiz & Mikey Villareal with 247. The Financial Advisor’s 2nd game pot went to DeeRonn Booker as well, with his 246 ($240) & Val Wise 242, good for $100.

Next week features a lot of interesting match ups, let’s see if anyone can master this challenging pattern and go back to back 5-0. Three teams have a chance, but I’m guessing none will. Last week I predicted less than 4 series 680 or higher, we had two, but all failed to break 700! Next week I’m sure we’ll see an increase in scoring as guys adjust, bring other equipment, and try to find a line that will make them look like a “real” scratch bowler. The weather is cooling, but the action is heating up, so please stop by and watch some of the best be humbled! Have a blessed week everyone; see you next Monday at Del Rio Lanes in Downey!
