First licensed video game in more than 30 years offers fun challenges for PBA fans

CHICAGO – PBA Pro Bowling, the first officially licensed video game designed for gaming consoles and PCs in more than 30 vears, makes its official debut today, the Professional Bowlers Association and FarSight Studios have announced.

The new PBA Pro Bowling game for Xbox One. Nintendo Switch, PS4 and Steam owners allows gamers to interactively "bowl" against more than 15 PBA stars, including Jason Belmonte, Jakob Butturff, EJ Tackett, Norm Duke and others, with commentary provided by PBA announcers Rob Stone and Randy Pedersen.

"It's been our dream to create an official PBA video game with the real pros since a lot of us watched the PBA Tour growing up," FarSight Studios Vice President Bobby King said. "We're proud of the game that we've created and can't wait for people to check out just how easy and fun it is to play, while still being difficult to master."

To preview the game, view the trailer released by FarSight Studios: (https:// youtu.be/QkW87h5 Cxg).

PBA players are depicted in acmotion-captured curate animations, featuring the best bowling physics ever incorporated into a video game. The action is further enhanced by the use of authentic PBA lane oiling patterns and approved bowling equipment from 10 PBA product registered companies.

Among the additional features are quickplay and local multi-player modes, online leaderboards, E-Sports style online tournaments, and optional powerups and special balls.

The easy-to-use "Arcade" controls are patterned after the hugely popular PBA Bowling Challenge for mobile devices from Concrete Software which has been downloaded more than 27.6 million times, including almost 2.5 million times in 2019 alone.

In addition to the current roster of PBA stars, FarSight anticipates adding "Simulation" controls, additional PBA stars, venues, bowling equipment and other challenges in the future. The game is selling for $19.99 at launch. To place online orders, visit http://probowling.com/buy.

The Meaning of Life: Is It Bowling?

WINNETKA - About 50 years ago, the late and great Chicago newspaper columnist Mike Royko wrote a whimsical story about folk singer Bill Malloy. Malloy was on a personal mission and he would not be deterred, Royko reported. Malloy wanted to discover the meaning of life.

So Malloy traveled all the way to India in an effort to extract wisdom from that country's spiritual gurus. But Malloy returned home to the U.S disappointed.

"Amy's Team" in the Fab 5 qualifying tournament at Winnetka Bowl consisted of Bill Lew, Amy Lew, Fred Eisenhammer, Justin Pluchino and Derek Dimaggio. Amy's team performed well and enjoyed the fun and frivolity of the event, which was won by Mark Alvarino's team.

Bower entered the position round match trailing Sammy Ventura of Norwich, N.Y. by 10 pins. Bower doubled in the 10th frame to force Ventura to throw the first strike to win the game and earn the 30 bonus pins. Ventura failed to strike, giving Bower a 215-199 win and the title by a final margin of 36 pins, 3,417-3,381. The win was Bower's fifth in PBA50 Regional competition to go along with 11 standard regional titles. He also received $1,500 for the win.

Bowling From 8 Miles High

by Dave Williams

I always enjoy reading J.R. Schmidt's segment in Bowlers Journal International that brings back memories from former decades about bowling and the incredible history of our great sport. The latest, in the October 2019 issue, "Wene Got Her Wings With Sky-High Win Over Weber," did not disappoint.

As one who spent more weekends with Dick Weber in the early to middle 1980's, with the possible exception of his wife Juanita, I can safely say that this was Mr. Weber's favorite recollection. Whenever someone would ask him about his favorite memory in bowling, I knew that it was time for the "Bowling in a 707 Cargo Jet" story.

Weber loved to tell that flashback from January 6, 1964, and I never got tired of hearing about the promotion that was labeled "Operation Astro Bowl" by the marketing geniuses at AMF. Some of Dick's preferred embellishments were that the pilot was a friend of Sylvia Wene, or my most beloved, that whenever he got up to bowl, the pilot would tilt the nose of the plane up just slightly.

In spite of the pilot's perceived best efforts to sway the outcome of the match, Mr. Weber did establish yet another record, when he was the very first bowler to record a strike while bowling from 8 miles high. Although the match was very close, Weber lost by 2 pins, 146-144. This score brought back memories for me from the 1980's, when I witnessed Dick winning or losing matches quite often by just a couple of pins.

While I always considered myself a pretty fair country bowler, my blood pressure was always elevated whenever I bowled in an exhibition match with Weber. I can see him just like it was yesterday, when he would say to me, "Dave, just relax!" Unfortunately, I could never take his advice and approached every shot as though it was the most important of my life. I carried this same attitude into the Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) Tour, where I was affectionately known as "Gabby," for my lack of conversation.

On at least three occasions that I can remember, Dick and I tied with identical scores for three games. After the third time I began to wonder if he was doing this intentionally. Like the 2 pin loss to Sylvia Wene, he seemed to know the right time to win, lose or tie. Yes, in case you are not familiar with Dick Weber, he was that good.

A perfect example of this took place at the Grand Opening of AMF Southland Bowl in London, Ontario. We tried to get Jo Jo Capon, a ten year old phenom that had defeated Mr. Weber by a score of 205-185 at the Grand Opening of AMF O'Connor Bowl West in Toronto, Ontario. When we couldn't get Jo Jo, I filled in for him and was fortunate to defeat Dick in a three game match, 658-647.

However, the night wasn't over for Weber. The Master of Ceremonies, Rob McNaughton, announced prior to a match with a local bowling star, "Dick, you took it easy on Dave. Now we want you to go all out in your next match." Weber gave McNaughton a wave of the hand and proceeded to roll 279, 279, and 244, for an 802 series. Yes, he was that good... even from 8 miles High!

WILL JUNE Reporting on the "Oldies But Goodies" and "Sagging Garbanzos"

by Frank Weiler

MORENO VALLEY – Will June reports that with LONNIE RITCHEY now bowling in senior leagues the atmospheric climate in the "Valley's" afternoon leagues is electric again. Lonnie is showing us that senior bowlers can score at a time when many of our seniors are beginning their journey as "SUPER DUPER SENIORS" (bowlers 70 years and older) and experiencing sagging scores. Any woman with "SAGGING GARBANZOS" knows how a senior bowler feels about sagging scores, especially knowing there is nothing that can be done to alter the downward trend!

Getting older is a challenge for most senior bowlers but apparently not for Lonnie Ritchey. Five weeks into this season has him rolling 650 or higher scratch three game sets every week. His highs for the first five weeks are league highs 268 and 695. Lonnie's scoring has carried his team, "Attitude to Spare", to a commanding first place win/loss record.

The "Attitude to Spare" foursome has won 75% of its games for a 15 - 5 won/loss record to date.

The "Cool Kids" are in second place with a 13-7 record. The Kids are led by Jim Nadziejko and Lovie Clovman. Ike Horn and Will June have led the "Love Strike" team to a 13-7 record and third place, just a few tiebreaker pins behind the "Cool Kids".

1993 - PART 1

The bound volume of the weekly papers for 1993 is 4 inches thick, which means a lot of pictures, stories, scores and awards. (We are so lucky to have a copy of every paper issued since the first day in 1940!) Thanks bowlers for following me on our "Tour of the Times". Centers come and go, but bowlers are here to stay and play.

- The West Coast Seniors headed out to Ridgecrest, where Manager Jim Bowen rolled out the red carpet and asked the local motels to add $1500 to the prize fund! Beautiful Sierra Lanes had a "high scoring" reputation. E.G. Mock, opened with a 279 and never looked back. Winner, winner! Question. What other hobby did E.G. have?
- Bahama Lanes finally had a score to boast about! Rick Roy rolled 821. Bahama was part of the Active West chain.
- There was a push in California to TAX bowling. Sales tax? Amusement tax? An article in ABC Magazine explained how taxing bowling had cause 73% of the 3600 centers to be closed.
- BPAA U.S. Opens: Women bowled at Menifee Valley Bowl, Men bowled at Clairemont Bowl in San Diego. Winners got paid entries to the U.S. Open in Garland, Texas.
- Mickey Cogan, G.M. at Gable House (and still on in 2019) welcomed AC Delco Pros yearly. Mike Aulby was PBA President. The T.V. Finals was seen on Saturday 3:30 p.m. "Wide World of Sports." Chris Schenkel on the mike. The Gable House event kicked off the 32nd serson of T.V. finals! Winner was Ron Williams.
- First 300 of the year? Gary Golob at Sports Center Bowl.
- Alex Cheesman won his first CBA Title at Cal Bowl. He's still rattling the pins at Cal!
- Yup! More perfectors the first week of 1993. David Cervantes, Canoga Park Ron Egy at Pickwick, and Dan Roach Del Rio Lanes. Can't forget the 299 by Jack Price at Hollywood Star.
- Nineteen centers were still running squads of "Gold Stamp" competitions against colored pins. If a certain colored pin came up in a certain spot, and you got a strike...a "spotter" would pay you in Gold Stamps. Was it REALLY true that certain mechanics could manipulate the location of certain pins for their friends? I take the fifth!!!
- NABI opened the New Orange County Division at Garden Square Bowl. Membership?
   $20. This made NABI number five in Southern California. San Ventura, San Gabriel, Valley Division and Antelope Valley Division. There were 65 other Clubs around the LISA
- For Sale- 6 lane center, only $295,000. Location not revealed.
- Paula Vidad bowled THREE perfectos in the WWPB Open, Bel Mateo Bowl in San Mateo was Paula's favorite forever! The top three gals averaged over 225!
- Tilton's Pro Shops bought the balls used by the pros at Gable House! You could try the newest on the market at a fraction of the price. Want a Purple Rhino used by Pete Weber? Or a Marshall Holman Hammer? Of course the price included re-drilling. Get an autograph on the ball!!!
- The latest Roll'n Donkee carrier held 12 balls! $125. Includes a crane to get it in your trunk
- The "Chicken Feed" cans at the Women's State Tournaments was started in 1981. The $38,776 collected to date (1992) was donated to the National Hall of Fame and Museum.

- Eight year old David Monson rolled a clean game at Mission Hills Bowl. Robin Romeo doubled in the 10th for a 162. Yvette Boyer got 6 crazy strikes in her 134 game. The Mission Hills column writer gets credit for all info!
- President Bill Clinton and his daughter bowled often on the Truman Lanes in the White House. He started bowling as a kid in Hope, Arkansas.
- Junior Bowler Mike Calvillo popped a 300 during his JAT visit to Cal Bowl. (He's popped a ton more since 1993!) Same day defenders: Ramon Torres, Jack Jackson, D.A. Smith and Jamie Spencer. Still dusting those trophies, guys? Those gals were tough on the lanes also! Christy White, Alicia Heckathorne, Aimee Gomez and winner Pam Sankey. The JAT still ranks Cal Bowl as their favorite!
- Doug Johnson averaged 268 to snag his seventh PWSBT win at Buena Lanes! 194 amateurs bowled the Pro-Ams!
- Reno...January 25, 1993. Golden Shovels were used to break ground for the National Bowling Stadium in Reno. 29 degrees with 3 feet of snow! All the trees and plants were glistening with ice, sleds were in use and skiers on the slopes. This California gal was on a "motorcycle" by sundown!
- Bud Horn, So. Cal longtime manager, was hired at Santa Fe Lanes, Las Vegas top gun. He looked good behind his big desk.
- The San Gabriel Valley WBA ladies disclosed at a meeting with WIBC Reps. that they had lost over 14,000 members in the past ten years. Reasons? Higher sanctioning fees, centers closing and leagues not sanctioning. Duties of an association office continue on less income. Bowlers still wanted awards, league supplies, rule books, book averages, membership cards, lane inspections etc, etc. Many association offices closed or joined up with local ABC offices. It didn't get better when WIBC joined ABC to become USBC!!! All locals were forced to merge. More on that later.
- Jesse Soria- San Gabriel Lanes G.M. has so many ideas and projects going that "The Road Runner" came in second! He should have sent up a smoke signal for help! Yut Ta Hey Jesse.
- Reg Pearson was stolen from the 50 lane Reno Hilton, then transferred to the new National Bowling Stadium. The spot all managers wanted! He was great. Never too busy to talk to a bowler or a writer.
- Bruce Leone rolled his first 300 at Grand Central Lanes in Glendale. His last 3 biggies at Pickwick. In the ninties he received a ring and a watch for each from the ABC. More loot came from LAWBA and the State Assn. Of course a picture in the Bowling News!

We will end Part one the first of February. Next week we'll review the Valentine's issue. Why do Valentines tug at our heart strings? YOU REMEMBER THAT SPECIAL ONE!! Time out.

Oil service station workers with the question about the meaning of life.

Why Standard Oil? That's because Standard Oil stations at that time had a sign hanging outside that read: "As you travel, ask us." So Malloy did. He went from one station to the next with the same question: "What is the meaning of life?" Here are some of the answers that Malloy received:

(Spoiler alert: None mentioned bowling!)

One attendant replied: "I'm new here." Another said: "I don't remember anything in the manual about that." And another: "I'm not much for church, myself." After Malloy visited a multitude of Standard Oil service stations, the company's customer relations department took action.

Standard Oil contacted Malloy and asked him to spell out exactly what he wanted to know.

Malloy said he simply wanted to know the meaning of life. One week later, Malloy got his answer from Standard Oil. It came in the form of a letter. Excited about the mailing, Malloy tore open the envelope. But inside, there was no note, no message.

The entire contents consisted of one application for a Standard Oil credit card. Said Malloy: "They gave me the only answer they knew." So why bring this story up?

Well, this is a bowling newspaper so, yes, this anecdote has some meaning for the sport.

Royko's column jumped into my mind last week as I was gathering my thoughts after competing with four fabulous teammates in the state Fab 5 bowling tournament at Winnetka Bowl.

To me, the meaning of life is found through relationships – and that relationships come in various personal forms (husband/wife, etc.) and that passion is typically present. Relationships also can be present between a person and his passion, whether it's bowling, golf, sewing, bridge, etc.

Now as far as bowling . . . There's a reason that league bowlers, such as Gail Marlis and Theo Sojourn, have refused to give up the game after incurring an injury to their bowling hand by switching to their left hand to release the ball.

Said Marlis: "Not bowling is not an option." And she added: "Bowling is like my play date with my friends."

On our Fab 5 team, Amy Lew bowled first and her dad was fourth. It was so cool to see the closeness of that duo throughout the tournament. And likewise, if was neat to see how Amy beamed when her boyfriend Derek Dimaggio stroked one of his never-ending string of strikes.

There were smiles, fist bumps and high-fives all around our team on strikes, spares, near misses and awful misses. And this scenario played out with the other five teams, including the pressure-resistant Mark Alvarino team that won

I was touched by the warmth among our team's bowlers – at least during the times I wasn't looking over my shoulder and wondering: Was it the mischievous Amy or was it the mischievous Justin Pluchino who kept preying on my vulnerable self and tapping me and then disappearing?

So, what's the meaning of life? Let's just say bowling (and other pursuits) often fills that role – sometimes in a minor capacity and sometimes in a major way. Some people all the time think and dream and talk about bowling and getting better and winning league titles and individual awards.

That's why fights sometimes break out when some players get angry with the notion that others may be sandbagging to boost their teams' prospects – and potentially sink their own.

A couple of years ago, Adam Lew from the bowling-rich Lew family, made a pointed joke (perhaps with a shred of truth) after rolling his first 300 and receiving a commemorative perfect-game ring.

Said Adam: "Some people ask me why I wear it on my wedding finger and I'll say, 'It's because I got married to the

That's true passion.

Instead of bugging Standard Oil, perhaps Bill Malloy should have asked Gail Marlis or Theo Sojourn or Adam Lew about the meaning of life.

Yes, it's bowling.

At least for some people.

So. California's Finest

34th Year! Brunswi

The New Short/Dry Pattern Keeps Scores In Check

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY – The Brunswick Invitational took the lanes for the first week of the new round. The league is using a new 29' 5.25ml pattern that was tour-designed for plastic ball competition. It has three extra feet of dressing, but only 18% of the volume of the previous years. The pattern was designed for plastic and lower-end balls were definitely the weapon of choice for many.

The 'A' match featured a rematch of last week's rolloff teams DV8 and Forest Lanes. Forest was looking for a little redemption after their one-game loss that cost them the round. DV8 started off with a couple key hits in the 10th to take a 802-800 decision but it was all Forest from there as the struck their way to a 4-1 win. Jeff Carr led DV8 with a 588 set while Bobby Hornacek again was huge for Forest Lanes with a 680 set.

The 'B' match feature two teams who gave the first round a decent run but fell just short of the top. Kingpin Pro Shop and Junior Amateur Tour were both 4 games back sitting at 22-13. Kingpin Pro Shop came out striking strong taking game one by 78 but it was all J.A.T. from there as they blasted game two by 187 and game three by XXX for the 4-1 win. Greg Neuer was big for Kingpin with a 614 set while Anthony Santos stroked his way to a huge 676 set to pace J.A.T.

Tito's Vodka at 22 wins took on Team Hu$tle who gave the first round a strong shot. Tito's was short-handed fielding two subs and Team Hu$tle took advantage taking games one and two, dropping a close game three and capturing totals for a 4-1 win. Team Hu$tle was led by Jamie Carrington's solid 600 set while sub Brandon Golden paced Tito's Vodka with a 574 series.

3 Olives Vodka and Bowlium matched up in the 7-8 pairing. Bowlium won a very low scoring first game but it was all 3 Olives from there taking games two, three, and totals for a 4-1 win. Butch Jackson led Bowlium with a 570 set while Kevin Peterson paced 3 Olives with a 577 set.

Cal Bowl made a strong finish to end up in the middle of the pack after round one and jumped up to meet Threadworks. Cal Bowl dropped the first two games to Threadworks by just 10 pins total, then stormed back in game three for a 93-pin win and a 3-2 result. Carl Labayan led Cal Bowl with 631 set while sub Nacho Vega put up a 572 set for Threadworks.

Buddy's Bowling Supply took on US Foods in the battle of the top 17-18 teams. Buddy's took game one by just 4 sticks then dropped game two by 10, setting up a winner-take-all in game three. Buddy's put up some numbers to take game three and total pins for the 4-1 win. Gabriel Martinez was solid for US Foods with a 649 set while Bobby Campagnale went big for Buddy's with a 667 series.

Captain Morgan and Rednil Insurance Brokers were the 13-14 matchup. This match was all Captain Morgan as the swept their way to a 5-0 result. Joe Jimenez led Captain Morgan with a 613 set while Jonathan Huezo was big for Rednil Insurance putting up a 627 series.

Don Julio Tequila took on Century 21-PEAK with the teams sitting at 15 and 14 wins and looking to make a move in the second round. The match was one-sided all night at Don Julio swept past Century 21-PEAK for the 5-0 win. Bobby LaFromboise led Century 21 with a 535 set while Raul 'Spanky' Rosales was huge for Don Julio with a nice 680 set.

Bowling Guys, Saddleback Lanes, Professional Approach and Keystone Lanes rounded out the night's action. Bowling Guys took a 4-1 win over Saddleback led by Antoni Palangio's 622 set. Saddleback was paced by John Vallin's 596 series. Keystone took 4 wins from Professional Approach led by Bill Heffem's 547 set with Tony Winn pacing Pro Approach with a 575 set.

Financial Advisor's sidepots went to Kevin Peterson (256) for $190 with 2nd to Bobby Campagnale (245) for $90. Upper division sidepots went to bobby Hornacek (231) and Bobby Campagnale (245) for $50 each with 2nd going to Spanky Rosales (225,237) for $25 each game. Lower division sidepots went to Susan Heffern (214) and Kevin Peterson (256) for $40 each with 2nd to Tony Velasco (213) and Jason Carrillo (237) for $20 each.
