VanDaniker Wins Second Straight

PWB Title
by L.H.Wheeler

WEST COVINA — The PWB stopped into Brunswick West Covina Lanes for their second tournament on Halloween to find out the Bear pattern was full of tricks and not so many treats. The pattern gave many bowlers fits as the lead changed hands just about every game, with the winner not being decided until the final game.

In the end, Eddie VanDaniker pulled out the victory by two pins by firing off a 269 final game for a plus 89 to leap ahead of Keith Laing who finished with a plus 87, and Eddie Gaddison who ended with a plus 67 score. The remaining cashers were only separated by a few pins each as Lanndyn Carnate finished in fourth with a plus 26, Bobby Campagnale with a plus 25 in fifth, and

by Fred Eisenhammer

For Joan Romeo of Van Nuys, it's been a pretty eventful year.

In May, she watched her United States Bowling Congress Hall-of-Fame daughter, Robin Romeo, become the first woman to win back-to-back USBC Senior Queens titles. Four months later, Robin combined with Lucy Sandelin, Paula Vidad and Tish Johnson to earn the women's team gold medal title at the World Bowling Senior Championships in Las Vegas.

Now, it's Joan's turn.

The USBC has announced that Joan would join her bowling phenom daughter in its Hall of Fame in 2016. Joan, who has served in various administrative roles in the sport for 25 years, was selected for meritorious service.

Joan learned of her honor at the wedding of Bowlers

ing the announcement that day: "I burst into tears and so did she. I know how hard she's worked in bowling – ever since I was a junior [bowler] . . . To see her recognized for her love and contributions to bowling is just unbelievable. I still can't believe it.

Robin and Joan Romeo are both United States Bowling Congress Hall of Famers. Joan learned of her honor at a wedding last month at Bowlum Lanes in Montclair, Calif. Photo courtesy of Robin Romeo

"It's a thrill for me. I can't wait to see her inducted."

Joan admitted to being in "total shock" when she heard the news. "When they told me a long time ago that they were thinking of nominating me, I said, 'don't.' I didn't think there would be any way I'd be elected."

In its press release, the USBC listed some of Joan's bowling positions: president (2012-2015) and vice president (2010-2012) of the International Bowling Media Assn.; president of the California Bowling Writers; an executive coordinator role for World Bowling; and trustee to the IBM/Hall of Fame."

Additionally, Joan has earned such awards as the California Women's Bowling Assn. Distinguished Services Award; Colum-

Del Norte Elementary Open New Library

ONTARIO — Krystle Gonzales of Bowlum Lanes attended the ribbon cutting of the brand new library at Del Norte Elementary School.

In August of 2014 Bowlum awarded a $1,000 grant from Kids Bowl Free to Del Norte Elementary School. While they were happy to receive the grant, nothing was mentioned regarding what they would be using the funds for. In early October of 2015, Krystle Gonzales, marketing director for Bowlum Lanes, received an official invitation to attend the ribbon cutting ceremony as the sponsor of the new library they created using the grant from Kids Bowl Free.

The ceremony was also attended by the Superintendent, Board of Trustees, various retired administrators, as well as all the children of Del Norte Elementary School. All the teachers in attendance were dressed as different book-related characters such as the Cat in the Hat, Thing 1 and Thing 2, Waldo, Sleeping Beauty, Robin Hood and many more. All the speeches were aimed at getting the kids excited about reading and the ribbon cutting ceremony ended with a class by class walk-through of the new library.

Bowlum has been participating in the Kids Bowl Free program since 2010 and this year was a record-breaking year -3,000 children signed up.

2014 was the first year that Bowlum has been able to nominate schools, and they took full advantage of nominating all the schools in the area. Bowlum was very proud to present one of those schools with a grant.

If you would like more information about this topic, please contact Krystle Gonzales at (909) 626 3528 or by email at Krystle@Bowlum.com.

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

LOW'S 268-795, MID CITY 2066 LEAD

SO-CAL DEAF TRAVEL AT JEWEL CITY BOWL

by Connie Marchione

GLENDAL — At Jewel City Bowl Southern California Deaf Traveling League continued to struggle as Robert Audette's Mid City team made a complete 180 degrees turn-about from last week's low of 1667 team series at Cal Bowl to the day's only top team 2000 series. Mid City's 2066 (513-499-512-528) at Jewel City Bowl turned out as the season high team series replacing S. F. Valley's 2062.

For the first time this season not a single 800 (4 games) was rolled as Gorman Low missed by 5 pins with his 795 and Robert Audette's 791 also missed by 9 pins. Low's 795 consists of 268 (spare, 9 strikes, 8, spare)-192-162-173. Audette in his thrilling match duel against Darrell Stogryn, had 211+180-209-191 while Stogryn hits 204-154-210-204 for 772. Bob Jones capped this day's four men honor roll with his 210-704. On the ladies side Denise Burrows had a 168 high game and Sharon Caldwell the high series 605.

The league leader Jones' S F Valley increased its lead with 13.5 -6.5 points win over 3rd place Eagle Rock. Second place Riverside battled to a close 11-9 over 5th place Low's Anaheim but fell to third when Audette's Mid City moved up from 4th to second with a near sweep 17-3 win over 6th place Chino Hills.

This 56 years old deaf traveling league thanks Jewel City Bowl management and staff for hosting and will return for its 2nd round session on March 20. With a week hiatus the league will resume playing at Gable House Bowl for its first position round on Sunday November 15. The position round will have S F Valley with a big 17 points lead facing Mid City, Riverside just 1.5 points behind against Eagle Rock and Anaheim also just 1.5 points behind against Chino Hills.

THREE ELECTED TO 2016 USBC HALL OF FAME CLASS

ARLINGTON — The United States Bowling Congress Hall of Fame will have at least three new members in 2016 - one in the Outstanding USBC Performance, one in the Veterans category and one in Meritorious Service - after their election by the USBC Hall of Fame Committee.

Two-time USBC Open Championships titlist Steve Kloempken of Pleasant View, Utah, will be enshrined in the Outstanding USBC Performance category, Professional Bowlers Association senior standout Harry Sullins of Chesterfield Township, Michigan, will become the newest name in the Veterans category and longtime bowling writer Joan Romeo of Van Nuys, California, will be recognized for years of service to the bowling industry.

The committee also slated eight bowlers for the Superior Performance national ballot that will be voted on by a panel of USBC Hall of Fame members, board members and veteran bowling writers.

The men's ballot includes Mike Durbin of Livingston, Texas; David Ozio and Mark Williams of Beaumont, Texas; Randy Pedersen of Clermont, Florida; Mike Scroggins of Amarillo, Texas and Danny Wiseman of Baltimore.

The two competitors on the women's ballot are Kim Adler of Melbourne, Florida, and Tammy Turner of West Palm Beach, Florida.

The induction ceremony will take place April 28 at the 2016 USBC Convention in Las Vegas and will include those elected for Superior Performance.

A look at the newly elected USBC Hall of Famers:

Steve Kloempken

The 45-year-old right-hander's balanced resume includes international success as a past member of Team USA, a memorable collegiate stint at Wichita State and two victories on the sport's biggest stage at the USBC Open Championships.

Kloempken's two appearances on Team USA (1991, 1994), were highlighted by doubles and trios gold medals at the 1991 World Bowling Men's Championships in Singapore. That momentum carried over to his collegiate career, where he helped the Shockers to three consecutive victories at the Intercollegiate Team Championships from 1993-1995.

In 27 years at the Open Championships, Kloempken has a 213.5 average and won titles in Team All-Events in 1993 and Regular All-Events in 2003. He has seven other top-10 finishes.

Harry Sullins

Sullins, a 57-year-old right-hander, will be the 50th bowler inducted in the Veterans category of the USBC Hall of Fame.

His resume includes five Professional Bowlers Association national titles, the first in 1986, along with 12 regional victories. He also has found continued success on the PBA50 Tour, earning three national titles and eight regional wins. His lone major championship was the 2009 PBA Senior World Championship.

Sullins is known for his longevity and owns the PBA record for consecutive tournament appearances with 239 from 1986-1993.

As a state and local standout, Sullins has earned 10 city championships and nine state titles, which helped earn him induction into the Metro Detroit Hall of Fame (2002) and Michigan State Bowling Association Hall of Fame (2003).

Joan Romeo

Romeo has worked in various roles supporting the International Bowling Media Association, World Bowling, International Bowling Hall of Fame and Museum, California Bowling Writers and the Team USA program.

Through 2015, there are 412 members of the USBC Hall of Fame - 215 in Superior Performance, 116 in Meritorious Service, 49 in Veterans, 20 in Pioneers and 12 in Outstanding USBC Performance.

The USBC Hall of Fame was created in 2005 by merging the former American Bowling Congress and Women's International Bowling Congress Halls of Fame.

SAN DIMAS — The ABTA enjoyed its return to Chaparral. 6 new members and three returnees joined us, enjoying the ABTA in a One Day Beat the Board Finals Format.

On a tough fair scoring condition the scores were lower taking Men +36 and Ladies +40.

In the qualifying, Freddy Zamora fired a +164 to lead the men. Sheila Hernandez had a nice +72 to lead the ladies. They will receive paid entries to their next regular event.

The Super Seniors added to the board were Glen Matsumoto +30, Art Windsor +26 and Sierrre Herradura +27. This gave us 35 bowlers to the Beat the Board Finals. Where you finish in this one is where you cash.

Freddy drew the Match Series and a 389 was matched by no other than Holden Au. He wins a nice $1,120 for his feat! Holden is deserving. Congrats to HIM!! The Mystery Match Doubles drawn by Sheila Hernandez was unmatched at 376. We estimate a $1,000 pot at CAL Bowl Saturday.

The 3-6-9 Pot worth $1,500 had Freddy Zamora out duel the field and then got the 5 9's or better to take home the $1,500 for his great effort. Congrats to One of the Good Guys! Freddy is a Great Supporter of the ABTA.

The Beat the Board Finals took the floor with 35 bowlers. It was a good one, after the first game, 7 bowlers were within 15 pins of the lead including 2 women.

Game Two had Pedro Cintron take the lead; close behind Robert Contreras, Chris Kelly, Dom Laguardia and 4 others in distance. It had many in the hunt going to the final game!! ALL SCORES included handicap.

Game 3 saw Contreras finish big and fire a big 257, and finals score of 713 to take hold of the top spot winning his 2nd ABTA Title and $2,600. Borillo finished a scant 9 pins behind and took home $500 with Chris Kelly in 3rd at +79 $200.

Christian Bueno +77, and Pedro Cintron +53 were 4th and 5th and $110., 6- 9th were Danny Reece Jr., John Gonzalez, Arnold Angoncillo and Analiza Angoncillo.

10-16th were Dom La Guardia, Jun Contreras, Howard Smith, Freddy Zamora, Ben Bagoisan, Sierrre Herradura and Sheila Tolentino $100 each.

We paid out 35 Places and a $4,034 prize fund plus pots and optionals at Chaparral. It is nice to return there!

Our Champion, Mr. Contreras had the honor of drawing the Match Game worth $5,000 and he drew an UN-Matchable 126. So we will go for $5,000 again at CAL we have reserve pot of $900.

Champion Robert Contreras hails from La Puente and used a LOCK drilled by ABTA member Aarik Torres at Covina Bowl.

He is married to Heidi an ABTA member,who is also a very decent bowler and supportive. Robert is One of the Good Guys, soft spoken, but had his ball speak-loudly at Chaparral. Very nice to see him win his 2nd ABTA title! Congrats Robert!!

Romeo Borillo, a past Champion is from Sun Valley, married to a pretty lady and ABTA member Andrea, with 3 kids Genesis, Isiah and Kayden. Another Good Guy here!!

Chris Kelly hails from Fontana and married to ABTA member Valinda. He used a 900-Global drilled by Memo at Chaparral. They have two sons, Scott and Brandon. Nice to see Valinda on hand. we have missed her. Chris is One of the Good Guys Too!

This Saturday we return to Cal, One Day, with Top 16 to advance to Single Elim Finals. Squads will be at 1 PM, 2:30 PM, 4 PM, and final squad at 6 PM. Semi-finals at 8:00 PM. Top 16 to follow.

Contreras Wins 2nd ABTA Title at Chaparral $2,600
Robert Contreras stepped up and won his 2nd ABTA title at Chaparral with great and steady bowling in the 3 game finals. Runner-up was Romeo Borillo $500 and 3rd Chris Kelly (L—R) Arnold Agoncillo 8th, Heidi Contreras proud wife of Champion Robert $2,600, Romeo Borillo 2nd $500, Chris Kelly 3rd $200 and Analiza Agoncillo 9th.

Nov. 14 we visit Oak Tree Lanes. Enter there and Get 1 BONUS PIN for the Big Thanksgiving Event. The same is Nov. 21 as we visit Popular Bowlum in Montclair WITH FROZEN HANDICAP for the Thanksgiving Special.

It was so nice to return to Chaparral! Thanks to Mandy and Mike for hosting us. And the Great Staff specially the efficient desk gals there. We hope to return there soon if possible.

Join us at CAL BOWL Saturday. The center is located at 2500 Carson Ave. in Lakewood easily accessed by the 91, 605 or 405 Freeways. Phone there is 562-421-8448. Check in early folks. See YOU at CAL. See our ad here or www.abta1.com or Facebook or www.abta1.com.

Plan for the BIG THANKSGIVING EVENT at WEST COVINA LANES NOV. 25-26-27-28. $10,000 1st with Bonuses and $3,500 1st Guaranteed min. plus MANY Bonuses.

NOTE: If bowling at Oak Tree you get One Bonus Pin for the Thanksgiving Event, also same if bowling at the Bowlum.

Check in early at CAL especially the 6:00 PM Squad. See you there. Make plans for the Thanksgiving Event. There are Bonuses available. Check them out. Thanks for being an ABTA Member.

Bowling Proprietors' Association of America Announce Peyton Manning as Keynote Speaker at International Bowl Expo

Nation's Premier Bowling Industry Trade Show Welcomes Five-Time NFL MVP for Keynote Speech

LAS VEGAS — Today the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America (BPAA) announced renowned Denver Broncos quarterback, Peyton Manning, as the selected keynote speaker for the upcoming International Bowl Expo (IBE), the bowling industry's premier annual conference taking place on June 26th - 30th at the Mandalay Bay in Las Vegas. Manning will be kicking off proceedings on the 29th with a presentation speech about his insights surrounding the importance of teamwork, leadership, and keys to success in any endeavor.

As the industry's leading annual trade show, the International Bowl Expo will feature a wide variety of exhibits for products and services, as well as a set agenda of interactive seminars and "how-to" workshops aimed to assist bowling center proprietors with leveraging the best tools and strategies to strengthen their businesses. Each of the sessions in the program serves to educate the audience on the newest strategies, technologies, and marketing ideas to effectively maximize profits and continue to expand the success of the bowling industry as a whole around the nation.

"Bringing the International Bowl Expo to fruition is a labor of love for all involved," said Nancy Schenk, Chair of International Bowl Expo. "It takes a tremendous amount of work, but once all's said and done, we know that this gathering of likeminded business professionals is a collectively beneficial event that's sure to instill the necessary strategies to help attendees make the right moves to enhance their growth and share the experience of bowling with more people throughout the country."

"We couldn't be more thrilled to have Peyton on-board as the keynote speaker at this year's IBE," said Tom Martino, BPAA President. "As one of the NFL's greatest quarterbacks and leading MVPs to ever grace the ranks of the NFL, Peyton represents all of the ideals we value within our own industry and continue to push the members of our association to embody everyday as we help them to find the success they strive for."

Manning's astounding achievements - being a 14-time Pro Bowl selection and setting records for single-season passing yards and touchdown passes, among others - are only a part of his story. In the midst of solidifying his place among NFL greats, Manning has managed to build an impressive resume for his humanitarian efforts. In addition to forming the PeyBack Foundation in 1999, he also serves as a member of the American Red Cross National Celebrity Cabinet and The Pat Summit Foundation Advisory Board. Manning's altruistic background has earned him the Byron "Whizzer" White Humanitarian Award and the NFL's Walter Payton Man of the Year Award in 2005 as well as the Bart Starr Award in 2015.

Bowling Etiquette Rules: A Reminder

by Fred Eisenhammer

Do you have a pet peeve about etiquette and courtesy when you bowl?

I have one.

When I release the ball at the foul line, oftentimes a bowler on an adjoining lane will thunder to my side and rifle his or her ball while I'm still tracking my shot and anticipating my upcoming pin action (or lack thereof).

It's easy to get startled by such an ill-mannered bowler . . . and annoyed. Why can't that bowler just wait a few seconds and allow me to watch my electrifying shot (thinking positively) before I triumphantly return to my seat?

The fact is that rudeness often prevails in a bowling house. It's rarely intentional, but it can produce a disturbing moment or two.

On this same topic, perfectbowling.com, a nifty website that provides bowling tips, advice and other interesting data, came up with its list of nine bowling rules for etiquette and courtesy.

So here's goes – the etiquette rules from perfectbowling.com.

- 1 – The first rule in bowling is to never bother another bowler while they are in the process of bowling.
- 2 – Bowlers on the right-hand lane have the right-of-way to bowl first.
- 3 – Never pick up your ball from the return rack while another bowler is preparing to bowl and is in his/her starting position.
- 4 – Refrain from using obscenities or vulgar language.
- 5 – After your shot, let others bowl.
- 6 – Wear proper shoes.
- 7 – Keep food and other refreshments off of the approach.
- 8 – Remember, there are others waiting to bowl.
- 9 – Above all else, have fun.

I'll add Rule No. 10 to the list: Let the bowler next to you complete his or her turn and walk back to his or her seat before you start your approach.

Of course, it's inevitable that some bowlers will slip up from time to time, so it's important not to get flustered if someone violates one of these rules.

Remember, it's just a game.

bia 300 Humanitarian Award; Bowling Writers Assn. of America Meritorious Service Award; and BWAA President’s Award.

Robin, a Newhall resident, said she believed that Joan’s biggest achievement was her fund-raising role in helping to open a 2011 “50 Years of Women’s Pro Bowling” exhibit at the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame in Arlington, Tex.

According to the “Stars and Strikes” newsmagazine, Joan brought in “a majority of the more than $100,000 it took to build the exhibit.”

Working in Hall-of-Fame programs is a natural thing for her to do, Joan said. “The Hall of Fame is near and dear to my heart because Robin’s in it,” said Joan, adding that Robin actually is a member of seven Halls of Fame.

Additionally, another one of Joan’s daughters, Tori Romeo, a former professional, is a member of the California Bowling Hall of Fame.

“As far as I’m concerned,” Joan said, “my biggest achievement has been my kids. I’ve been really lucky that all my kids turned out well.”

Joan has five children; in addition to Robin and Tori, she has a third daughter in Deborah and two sons in William and David.

Joan said that her bowling involvement has reaped rewards – for instance, it’s allowed her to travel for bowling events to such faraway places as Abu Dhabi in the United Arab Emirates and Sweden.

Robin, the acknowledged top woman bowler in the L.A. area, added that Joan has made a name for herself in her own right.

“When I was on [Professional Women’s Bowling Assn.] tour, she used to be called ‘Robin Romeo’s mother.’ Now, I’m ‘Joan Romeo’s daughter.’ She’s not Robin Romeo’s mother anymore,” said Robin, the acknowledged premier bowler in the Los Angeles area.

The USBC will hold its Hall-of-Fame induction ceremony April 28 at its 2016 convention in Las Vegas.

Joan will be in a group of three who will be honored for induction that day. The other inductees will include two-time USBC Open Championships titlist Steve Kloempken of Pleasant View, Utah, in the outstanding USBC performance category; and Professional Bowlers Assn. senior standout Harry Sullins of Chesterfield Township, Mich., in the veterans category.

JAT Sport Junior Recap

David Schneider Best Again

Nick Caner Moves Closer to First

by David Schiada

NORWALK — Two storylines emerged from last Saturday’s JAT Sport Junior action at Keystone Lanes – David Schneider’s hot hand and the tight race for first place. For the second straight week, David Schneider led the JAT Sport Juniors with a 709 series for four games, including a high game of 208. After a difficult opening game, David found his groove on the Sphinx pattern, averaging 193 for his final three games.

With just two weeks left in the first round and a berth in the Junior Gold Championships on the line, the battle for first place continues. Nick Caner, who entered the week in second place, won four points to put the pressure on the leader, Julian Zavala, who will be making up his games on Tuesday. Finally, congratulations to Mark Wells, the Junior Silver member who rolled the high game of the week, 210.

Upcoming Tournaments: JAT Brunswick Challenge La Habra 300 Bowl has been rescheduled to November 8.

JAT Sport is a league for advanced juniors who are serious about competitive bowling. The league runs every Saturday starting at noon at bowlers have an opportunity to earn scholarship awards and compete in tournaments, including the 2016 Junior Gold Championships to be held July 16-22 in Indianapolis, Indiana. If you are interested in joining, please contact Armando Zavala at (562) 896-4467 or join us Keystone Lanes on Saturday at noon.

The San Fernando Valley 600 Bowling Club was in action late last month at Winnetka Bowl, holding its third tournament of the year. Kneeling are Deanna Peters, club secretary; Sienna Cawelti; Meleese Seigler, club sergeant at arms; Teresa Lauer, club president; and Farol Brifman. Standing are Judy Valazza; Lynn Snyder; Petra Kaun; Connie Wannomae; Henny Shepherd, club vice president; Chris Drew; Mona McNaughton; Pam Blake; Helen Layfield; Cindy Dominguez; and Arlene Bonino.

Valley 600 Club Holds Final Tournament of 2015

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – It’s called the San Fernando Valley 600 Bowling Club and there’s a reason for that. Each player had to roll a sanctioned 600 series to qualify for membership in the all-women’s club. The club has about 30 members and about half of them were at Winnetka Bowl late last month during one of its singles tournaments. Connie Wannomae earned the title of the handicap-aided tournament by rolling a 603 scratch and finishing with a score of 687. It was the club’s third and final tournament of the year. The club was launched in the early 1960s, said Teresa Lauer, in her second year as group president. The club’s charter says the group’s mission is to “encourage the spirit of good fellowship, sportsmanship and charitable activities and to play the game in a clean manner to bring credit and honor to themselves and to the San Fernando Valley 600 Club.” Lauer said the club had about 80 members at its peak. “It’s been dwindling,” said Lauer, who met with club officers and players before last month’s tournament to plot how to increase membership. “It’s so much more fun when you have more members,” said Lauer, who has bowled a 758 series and a 299. One of the club’s recent highlights came “probably four years ago” when Judy Valazza blasted a perfect game during a doubles tournament, Lauer said. The club is planning a doubles tournament in January at Winnetka Bowl for its first 2016 event.

Are bowlers the toughest athletes around? Not everyone agrees.

by Fred Eisenhammer

Without a doubt, the toughest, most dedicated athletes around are bowlers. That’s what a recent California Bowling News story so emphatically stated the other day – that bowlers are totally devoted to their sport – more so, than say tennis players and golfers. This point was backed up by numerous examples of local bowlers who had sustained injuries or illness but had overcome them. One such bowler cited was Jamie Beeler of Chatsworth, who survived a serious bout of kidney stones to complete his three games in league play. Another bowler was Eric Haugsby of Woodland Hills, who got into a severe car accident during the day but still mounted the fortitude to stumble into his bowling center to take part in his league action later that night. And a third bowler was Theo Sojourn of the Santa Clarita Valley, who sustained two broken bones in his right forearm but came back that week as a reincarnated left-hander who would soon blast a personal-best with his “off” hand. But Laura Hanson was not really impressed with all these bowling feats. The Los Angeles award-winning amateur tennis player doesn’t dismiss the toughness of bowlers. She just wanted to give her group of fellow tennis players its due. Said Laura: “Hey, not true about tennis players [that they’re not as tough as bowlers]. I have a friend who had surgery on his right arm and played left-handed for quite awhile!” OK, so we’ll allow that some tennis players are pretty tough too. But there weren’t any golfers stepping up to defend their ranks.

rounding out the cashers was Mikey Villareal with a plus 23.

Congratulations to Eddie for taking crown for the second time in a row, and a heartfelt thanks to all the bowlers that showed up to support the fledgling club.

The next tournament will be held on December 5 at Forest Lanes. Check in time will be 10am with bowling starting at 11am. Format and pattern will be announced early next week.

Amateur Russ Davies Defeats Walter Ray Williams Jr. To Win PBA50 South Point West Open Regional

LAS VEGAS – Amateur Russ Davies of Las Vegas won the most memorable match of his career by defeating PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. to win the PBA50 South Point West Open presented by Track regional Monday at the South Point Bowling Plaza.

The 60-year-old Davies defeated Williams 217-206 in the title match for his first PBA title in the concluding event of the inaugural PBA Fall Classic.

“This is unbelievable,” said Davies, primarily a local league and tournament bowler who is a member of the Southern Nevada Bowling Association Hall of Fame. “It’s the highlight of my career for sure. There’s nothing like winning a PBA title especially when you can do it by beating one of the all-time greats.”

Davies got off to an early lead in the title match by starting with the first three strikes and was able to hold off Williams for the rest of the match. Williams struck on the final ball of the 10th frame forcing Davies to mark. The lefthander left a six pin and then picked up the spare in the final frame to clinch the win.

“Let’s face it, I’m the underdog so I was pretty calm for most of the match,” said Davies who finished 22nd in the 1974 Showboat Invitational as an amateur. “When it came down to having to pick up that six pin for the win, I’ll admit I got a little nervous.”

In the semifinal match, Williams defeated Jeff Jamison of Boulder City, Nev., 248-234, and Davies beat Mike Kanada of Camarillo, Calif., 229-224, to advance to the title match.

The entire PBA Fall Classic, which also included the PBA Team Challenge, PBA Xtra Frame South Point Las Vegas Open, South Point PBA West Challenge Regional and preliminary rounds of the Mark Roth/Marshall Holman PBA Doubles Championship presented by Storm, was broadcast in its entirety by PBA’s online bowling channel Xtra Frame. For Xtra Frame subscription information visit pba.com.

BURBANK — Over the years, I have been startled and annoyed with lack of seriousness given to the sport of bowling. Many say it isn't a sport. Really? Others say it is only a game for drunkards. Seriously?

These non-believers surely are not bowlers. Bowlers know the intricacies of the game. Bowlers know that our muscles and our ability to maintain balance are important. Many bowlers do not imbibe during bowling league or tournaments for these very reasons. Focus is a huge part of our sport, just as it is in every other sport. It's fairly difficult to have focus when you're three sheets to the wind!

However, the real reason I get upset about the lack of seriousness is this: so many adults do not put credence into the fact that if their child participates in bowling a sanctioned league that returns money, their child can possibly lose their CIF standing in sports.

Remember Jim Thorpe? He was stripped of his Olympic Medals because it was discovered he was paid to play baseball prior to participating in the Olympics. In those days, professional athletes were not allowed. CIF still follows that rule. It can affect your child's college scholarships in any of the others sports if it is discovered they have bowled in an adult league. This does not apply to properly sanctioned youth/adult leagues.

Parents, youth coaches and league coordinators, I beg you to be aware of this ruling. Do not jeopardize the future of youth bowlers. It can truly have a serious impact. Rant over.

Second Round Brings Short Oil and Low Scores

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY — The Brunswick Invitational started the infamous second round tonight where the pattern went from house shot to 26' modified Cheetah. As the oil got shorter the scores got lower as strikes were hard to come by on the new pattern. The combination of conditioner up front and a lower friction surface made for a seriously challenging pattern as ball reaction was all over the map.

In the "A" match, round winner Professional Approach matched up with their closest rival Linder's Insurance who finished the round 9 games back. Linder's took 4 from the first round winners led by Kurt Arakaki's 599 set. Billy Myers Jr. led Pro Approach with a 546 set for the one win.

In the "B" match, Los Altos Trophy and Alhambra Coin Center met up after Coin Center's three wins moved them up from 6th to 4th place. Los Altos used a big last game to take totals and 3 points led by a 565 from Joe Jimenez. George Gaucin had a great look for Alhambra Coin as they took the first two games with his 618 set.

In the "C" match, Threadworks fell down to 5th place after being the last victim of Pro Approach while JAT took 4 to move to 6th place despite having the highest total pinfall for the first round. JAT had a good look as they swept by Threadworks with a 2363 set led by Katrina Fujikami's 613 set. Super-sub Spanky Rosales led Threadworks with a 589 set.

Battle of Charlie's houses as Forest Lanes took on Keystone Lanes in the 7-8 matchup. The Norwalk house took the honors as Keystone took a 4-1 win. Arnold Cheeseman led Keystone 608 while Gip Lentine paced Forest with a 575 set.

Nice dinner combo in the 9-10 match as Pino's Pizza faced off with Don Julio Tequila. The Tequila bunch took 4 wins led by Buddy Lucas' 533 set. Ramon Torres was high for Pino's with a 532 series.

Bowlum took 4 last week to move up to the 11-12 match against Erickson Foods who jumped up with a sweep last week. The Montclair boys swept past Erickson Foods led by Sam Hitchcock's 569 set. Matt Garcia was high for Erickson with a 542 set.

Sysco was trying to rebound after getting bounced by JAT the previous week taking on Ketel One Vodka who took 2 to remain steady. The Sysco group took one and totals for three points led by Eddie VanDaniker's 639 set. Gabriel Martinez lit up the lanes with a 700 series in the 2-win effort.

The triple-R guys of Relax-Release-Repeat matched up against the Wowo's Smokin' Hot BBQ bunch. The triple-R guys swept straight past the BBQ boys with Vernon Adams leading the pair at 564 and Brandon Kraye posting 560 for Wowo's.

Herzog Insurance were swept down to the 17-18 match last week to face GJC Janitorial who also got blanked on the last week of the round. Herzog came up big holding on for a 3-pin total pins win in a 3-2 match. Kevin Gagnon led Herzog with a 555 while nobody on the GJC crew was able to break 5 with Ryan Hinchliffe coming close with a 492 set.

Cooks Bowling Supply and Cremation Centers of CA repeated their match up of last week in the 19 vs. 20 matchup. Cook's took 4 led by Matt Schermerhorn's 555 set while the Creamtion Center bagged 1 win with Matt Mosley's 525.

High scores were hard to come by but sidepots went to Gabriel Martinez 288 and Herbert Jones 230 for $69 each. Third game Super Pot went to Gabriel Martinez with a 224 for $207. Financial Advisor's Pot was paid to Larry Campbell 234 for $220 and 2nd place to David Yamauchi 231 for $100.

Come on down to Del Rio next Monday night and watch some great bowlers try and figure out the tough condition on the new lane surface!
