JAKOB BUTTURFF NEWS: A UNIQUE TROPHY AND AN UNEXPECTED SETBACK

TEMPE — Unorthodox left-hander Jakob Butturff of Tempe, Ariz., made PBA news for a couple of different reasons over the past couple of weeks.

On the good news side, the 25-year-old Arizona native defeated EJ Tackett, 258-244, to claim the $50,000 winner-take-all prize in the PBA Clash. Along with his cash prize, he also received a unique bowling pin trophy made of Legos by a company called "Custom Brick Sculptures."

Unique trophies are kind of a badge of honor to distinguish certain events, but this trophy was the first one made of Legos. The tie-in to Legos is that the popular Legoland Theme Park Florida is located in Winter Haven, Fla., just up the road from the Kegel Training Center in Lake Wales, Fla.

On the bad news side, Butturff was noticeably absent from the ranks of contenders in the U.S. Open in Mooresville, N.C., especially after finishing as U.S. Open runner-up in both 2017 and '18. He was

by Bill Vint

KUWAIT CITY — England's Dom Barrett defeated Iceland's Arnar Jonsson, 289-235 and 278-277, Wednesday to win his eighth PBA Tour title in the PBA-World Bowling Tour Kuwait Open in Kuwait City, Kuwait. Barrett, who qualified third for the step-ladder finals, had to beat Jonsson, the top qualifier, twice to claim the $50,000 first prize under tournament rules.

Jonsson, 25, joined the PBA in August. He became the first Iceland native to bowl for a PBA Tour title.

Barrett, 34, advanced to the title match by defeating Venezuela's Ildemaro Ruiz, 276-223, in the second stepladder match and Canada's Mitch Hupé, 253-230, in the semifinal contest. Ruiz opened the stepladder finals with a 275-234 win over Hong Kong's Michael Mak. In the World Bowling Tour Men's and Women's Finals held in conjunction with the Kuwait Open, Barrett again defeated Jonsson in the title match, 276-232, after Jonsson eliminated Sean Rash in the semifinal match, 289-223. Colombia's Maria Jose Rodriguez defeated defending champion Liz Johnson, 252-234, for the women's title after Johnson eliminated Clara Guerrero, 255-232, in semifinal match.

PBA Adds Nearly Half a Million Dollars to Prize Fund for 2020 Season on FOX

Tournament of Champions, PBA World Championship, PBA Playoffs winners will each receive $100,000

CHICAGO — Building on this year's strong inaugural season on FOX Sports and bolstered by the recent acquisition by Bowlero Corp., the Professional Bowlers Association has announced a $400,000 boost in prize money for the 2020 Go Bowling! PBA Tour on FOX Sports season.

Every event on the schedule will enjoy prize fund increases and two of the PBA's most prestigious major championships, the PBA Tournament of Champions and PBA World Championship, will now award six-figure first place prizes.

All roads lead towards the PBA Playoffs, with the season's top 24 points earners clinching a spot in the $320,000 event, which again features a $100,000 first place prize.

Entries opened today for the full schedule of PBA on FOX season events, which will all pay a 1-in-3 cash ratio (other than the animal pattern stages of World Series of Bowling XI). Revised competition formats and conditions await, including more dual-pattern events at both classic and new venues around the U.S.

Qualifying and match play rounds of the events will be livestreamed on Flo-Bowling, with the finals on either FOX or FS1. Twenty-three telecasts on FOX or FS1 are live, kicking off with the PBA Hall of Fame Classic on Jan. 19 on FS1. Highlights of the broadcast schedule include three straight majors including the U.S. Open for the first time on FOX during "Big February," and five-straight days of PBA WSOB XI coverage in March.

More detailed tournament information is listed event-by-event in chronological order below or click on the 2020 season tab under the "schedules" link on pba.com. The link to each tournament includes information on how to enter.

Quote of the Week

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA — Quote of the week comes courtesy of Bill Robb.

Bill opines lightheartedly about the competitiveness of his fellow bowlers in the Funtimers senior league at Winnetka Bowl:

"All seniors think they're pros. Just ask them. They should feel lucky they can get out bed."

Bill, incidentally, has a perfect game in his resume and has won numerous individual tournament titles.

He's 87 and averages 170.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: WILLIAMS-ALLEN PARTNERSHIP WINS AGAIN

• The partnership of seven-time PBA Tour titlist Dick Allen of Lexington, S.C. and PBA Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr. of Oxford, Fla., has proven to be highly successful in PBA/PBA50 doubles competition where the duo was victorious again Sunday.

Williams, in winning for a 114th time at all levels of PBA competition, and Allen defeated Brandon Curtis of Manson, N.C., and Troy McKinney of Yorktown, Va., 202-197, to win the PBA/PBA50 Decker Appraisal Services Baker Doubles title presented by Hammer Sunday at Interstate Lanes in Bristol, Va., for the second year in a row.

Williams, who recently celebrated his 60th birthday, and Allen qualified first for the stepladder finals and watched as Kristian Rogers of Salisbury, N.C. and Craig Auerbach of Sunrise, Fla., eliminated Joe Scarborough of Charlotte, N.C., and Nick Christy of Newport, N.C., 251-216, to start the four-team stepladder finals. Curtis and McKinney then defeated Rogers and Auerbach, 246-201, to advance to the title match.

Allen and Williams, along with Dennis Lane, were partners in winning the 2016 PBA/PBA50/PBA60 trios event in Bristol that made Williams the first player in PBA history to win a grand total of 100 titles. Allen and Williams have bowled as doubles partners four times in PBA Regional events, winning twice and finishing second in the other two events.

This year’s win was Williams’ 20th in PBA50 Regional competition to go along with 33 standard PBA Regional, 47 PBA Tour and 14 PBA50 Tour titles. Allen picked up his 26th PBA Regional win and a share of the $4,000 first prize in Bristol. Allen’s 26 titles are tied for 18th place on the list of 1,903 players who have won at least one title in PBA Regional competition.

• Chandler Stevens of Archbold, Ohio defeated Patrick Dombrowski of Parma, Ohio, 214-195, to win the PBA Fort Wayne Central/Midwest Open at Pro Bowl West in Fort Wayne, Ind., Sunday, for his first PBA title and a $1,700 first prize. In the semifinal round, Stevens topped Nathan Michalowski of Mount Pleasant, Wis., 219-199, and Dombrowski downed Aaron Lorincz of Center Line, Mich., 190-145, to set up the championship match.

• Brian Boghosian of Springfield, Mass. and Keith Laing of Oakdale, Conn., defeated local non-PBA members Mark Bouchard of Deep River, Conn. and Matt Dzikiewicz of Rocky Hill, Conn., 176-224, 200-194, 169-167 in the best-of-three-game title match to win the PBA/PBA50 Callahan’s Bowling for Gold Doubles presented by Tech Vision Sunday at Callahan’s Bowl-O-Rama in Newington, Conn.

Boghosian, the 1999 USBC Masters champion, and Laing overcame a loss in the first game of the title round. After winning game two by six pins, the winners needed a mark and good count to win the final game. Laing, who won his first PBA Regional title in April, got a spare and a nine count to secure the victory.

The win meant the first PBA Regional title for Boghosian who had won a regional in 2016 as a non-member. Boghosian and Laing each earned $2,000. The tournament was open to teams include one member under the age of 50 with a 50-plus partner.

In the best-of-three semifinal round, Boghosian and Laing defeated Sam Ventura of Norwich, N.Y. and Anthony Pepe of Long Island City, N.Y., 2-0, while Bouchard and Dzikiewicz defeated Ryan Shafer and Howard Ayres, both of Horseheads, N.Y., 2-0.

• Jordan Jung of Canada defeated Jake Peters of Henderson, Nev., 216-213, to win the PBA Mesa East Bowl Western Open presented by Columbia 300 at Mesa East Bowl Sunday for a $2,500 first prize along with his first PBA Regional title. Peters topped Lanndyn Carnate of Modesto, Calif., 208-194, to advance to the title match after eliminating Jakob Butturf of Tempe, Ariz., 212-202, in the first stepladder finals match.

• On the Nov. 15-17 PBA Regional weekend schedule are the PBA50 Bryan’s Bowling Center Eastern Open presented by 900 Global in Laurel, Del.; the PBA50 PLYGEM Windows Rocky Mount South Open at Rocky Mount Bowling Center in Rocky Mount, Va., and the Japan Region’s High Sports Cup Chameleon Open at Kashima Bowl in Kashima, Japan.

• On the pre-Thanksgiving Day weekend schedule, Nov. 22-24, is the PBA50 Allstate Central Match Classic at Westland Bowl in Westland, Mich.; the Break Point Alley Member/Non-Member Doubles in Tavares, Fla., and the PBA and PBA50 Epicenter Northwest-West Open tournaments in Klamath Falls, Ore.

• The only PBA Regional tournament over the Nov. 29-Dec. 1 Thanksgiving weekend will be the PBA50 Beaumont Southwest Open at Crossroads Bowling Center in Beaumont, Texas.

• The PBA Regional schedule over the Dec. 6-8 weekend includes the Knob Hill East Challenge at Knob Hill Country Lanes in Manalapan, N.J., and the Warren Harley-Davidson Central Challenge at Freeway Lanes of Warren, Ohio. Both “challenge” tournaments are open exclusively to non-title winners.

• The PBA Regional program concludes its 2019 season with PBA/PBA50 Houston Emerald Bowl Doubles Dec. 20-22 in Houston, Texas. The Southwest Region event is projected to pay a projected $7,000 first place.

• For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the “schedules” tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow “live scoring” for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple and Android device users using the PBA app).

QUICK NOTES

• Kyle Troup and Kris Prather have joined the ranks of PBA Tour players that are now rostered members of the PBA Challenge Game for mobile devices. Concrete Software’s wildly popular bowling game for mobile devices is also initiating a new series of daily challenges, so everyone who has downloaded the game should check their apps for more information. If you haven’t yet downloaded the free app, visit Google Play or the Apple Store to acquire the game...and take on Troup, Prather or any of the other PBA stars who are participants in the game.

1993 – PART 2

by Carol Mancini

We kick off this session checking the Valentine issue (Feb 11, 1993). Pictured on the front page... Josh Cunningham (Age 14) rolled a 300 at Del Rio Lanes. Pro bowler John Mazza beat Norm Duke to win in the Peoria PBA event. Picture #3 was Anne Marie Duggan, La Habra, winning in Claremore, Oklahoma. Does anyone else know what Claremore is famous for besides bowling?? Keep reading!

- Ron Winger wins again. This time the WCS in San Marcos. $735 into the hand.
- The PWSBT under club director Art Goddard headed to newly opened Santa Fe Lanes in Vegas. (Remember Art's Buddy Bud Horn was manager!) Expected on the lanes; Glenn Allison, Don Johnson, Dave Soutar, Doug Johnson, John Handegard, Lee Taylor, and of course Ron Winger. All friends of Bud Horn.
- West Hills Lanes announced the old center would be closing to make room for a new 80 lanes in Green Valley. Some doubt in February.
- 76 year old Jim Bray passed away. He owned the Pro Shop inside Grand Central. Never a charge for lessons or advice. Just wanted to share his years of knowledge.
- Yo! James Framel thrilled the Thursday Men's League at Bowlerland with the 12 biggies. xxxxx=300.
- Amphone Silavong (translation "I love bowling") won the Donkee at Friendly Hills. Besides his picture in the paper, he won a Macho Mule and $1000.
- Jerry Hale wore many hats at Sequoia Athletic Club; teaching pro and Pro Shop owner to name a couple. Sequoia was massive and tried to satisfy everones athletic needs. Way too much to care for properly. Didn't last very long. They even sold shares in the place!
- Cheryl Gartin (mother of Katrina Gartin) put together another winner to be proud of...a 298 game at Del Rio Lanes. Katrina has a few awards of her own, especially the 2018 season!
- Wendy Macpherson was pictured with Sam's Town's Mike Kaufman giving her a giant winners check from the LPBT. Other So Cal local Anne Marie Duggan finished second.
- Joe Roussin got the job of AMF District Sales Manager. (Joe, call me on Monday)
- Southeast District B.A 299 rings were presented to Brian Buettner, Rlcky Corona, and Kevin McCarthy at Keystone Lanes.
- Check these prices in Long Beach. Average bowling $2.25 a game, hamburger $1.96 and fries .59 (Taco Tuesdays .19, McDonalds .25 cokes and K of C .35 sides....ah the "good old days. $4.50 an hour wages??)
- Gene Giegoldt- Canoga Park- put together the second youth bowling tour...8 days in Australia and 8 days in Hawaii. (I would really like to hear from anyone that made that trip. Call me any Monday)
- Roy Rogers was asked by this reporter, "How do you feel at 81?" His answer, "My bowling ball gets heavier and my horse gets taller."
- WCBT 1993 Anniversary Champion Pete Dumpit won his second Anniversary Tournament. He bowled his way out (average too high) but picked up his $9000 check on the way to the bank. Had to retire his jersey also!
- Local Johnny Wooley was named "Joe Bowler" at opening ceremonies of ABC in Tulsa.
- Practice at Clark Center, 9 to 5, for only $1.00 per game.
- The Assistant Manager at Brunswick Valley Bowl was George Abdelmessih. Who????
- The Three Muskateers at Mission Hills were: Bryan Alpert 803, Eddie Williams 803, Joe Babineau 803. Different leagues and times. Just an oddity.
- Pickwick special on Friday nights. For $10, all the bowling, billiards and dancing you could squeeze in 2 hours. Music was piped in.
- The CBA League at Cal Bowl had 56 teams! Claimed to be the biggest league in the state.
- Bryan Alpert rolled a 803 (left handed) at Mission Hills. His other 4 800's were from the right side. The ABC didn't have an award for this very unusual combo.
- Bowling balls on sale! Rhino $89, Hammers $89, Yellow Dot $69, Disney $49. (If you have one thats undrilled, call me)
- Steve Brode won the CBA at Sequoia. Much more about Steve as we go along.
- Papa Wayne Harnstrom did it too. Sons Ed and Andy rolled their perfectos before pops, and are really proud of their "teacher".
- The California WBA donated $10,000 to the BVL fund earmarked for Women Veterans Wall. 400 WBA members were vets. The Women's Memorial Wall will be built at the entrance of Arlington Cemetary. A nation-wide search was on to locate the names of the 1.8 million women who served.
- WOW, Corey Groth and Mike Jennings opened "Bowlers Trading Post" with a full page ad. The shop was between Upland Lanes and Deer Creek Lanes.
- Gus Tzanetopoulos helped cut the ribbon at the ground breaking ceremonies for the new Sunset Lanes in Green Valley, Nevada. A 7 Million Dollar project.
- Pinky's Bowl was the site of the Women's State Doubles and Singles to start April 3, 1993. A tournament the State Board ladies will never forget! Can't wait to write about it! We have to wait a few months of 1993 time to exaggerate the mishaps. A bowlers nightmare. Gottcha hooked??
- Royalty Rules. Crowned by San Gabriel Valley WBA...Eileen Ortiz Bumangland, Queen and Princess Heather Choi. Their smiles lit up the front page.
- Pam Martin was winner of LAWBA Queens. The LAWBA was organized in 1925. Prohibition was in full force. No champagne to toast the winner. 1993 over 200 toasted lady after lady at the awards luncheon.
- Joe Norris had knocked down 112,910 pins in A.B.C. Tourneys. He wasn't done yet!
- After prohibition ended, a bowling tradition was born. THE BEER FRAME! Bowlers were singing "Happy Days Are Here Again." April 5, 1933 the beer frame was back.
- 13,500 men entered their State Tournament in San Jose. Cal State President Al Hoffman said this was 150 teams.

We could write volumes and spotlight the weekly stars, but we will just list the 300 shooters in the pages of part 2: Tim Robbins, Steve Mond, Dale Fox, and John Wescott-Sports Center Bowl, Scott Tyan, Dave Olsen, Daryl McCloud- Clark Center, Paul Shepherd, Jack McQuaide- Del Rio Lanes, Keving Gallagher (Jr bowler)- Granada Lanes, Billy Foster, Andre Rounds, Brian Batalon- Cal Bowl, Juan Fonseca- Mission Hills, Joe Ybarra- Bahama Lanes, Ace Sisler- Friendly Hills, Joel Chaffee- Buena Lanes, Butch Couch- Gable House, and Mike Spence- Corbin Bowl. WOW, in only 2 months 17 perfect games were reported and the shooters had their pictures printed for posterity. Even Jack McQuaide had short hair. I'll bet some of these guys are still rolling the same ball! Ahh, you thought I forgot Claremore, Oklahoma. There is a very old hotel there. The walls in the hallway are covered with Will Roger's gun collection. Who was Will Rogers? Ask your grandma or your phone!

ARLINGTON, Texas – A Junior Gold Championships collaboration, a trip to the Pacific Northwest and a stop at the longtime home of pro women’s bowling highlight the 2020 Professional Women’s Bowling Association (PWBA) Tour schedule.

The future of the sport will be on hand in Las Vegas in 2020 when the live televised finals of the PWBA Las Vegas Open will be conducted as part of the Junior Gold Opening Ceremony at The Orleans Arena.

The Las Vegas Open will run July 8-12, with preliminary rounds conducted at Sam’s Town Hotel and Casino. The Orleans Arena is located inside The Orleans Hotel and Casino and seats approximately 9,000 spectators.

The 2020 PWBA Tour season will open April 23 when the PWBA Tour makes its second consecutive trip to Arizona for the PWBA Tucson Open at Lucky Strike Bowl. The tour then heads to Spokane, Washington, for the first time in PWBA history for the PWBA Spokane Open (April 30-May 2) at Lilac Lanes at Cedar Creek. The PWBA last visited Washington in 1986 for an event in Tacoma.

A familiar venue returns to the schedule as Steve Cook’s Fireside Lanes in Sacramento, California, will host the PWBA Sacramento Open (May 7-9), followed by the season’s first major, the United States Bowling Congress Queens. The Queens will be in Las Vegas for the first time since 2016, with the South Point Bowling Plaza serving as the venue for the May 13-19 event.

The Midwest swing of the 2020 PWBA Tour schedule begins in Parma Heights, Ohio, where Yorktown Lanes will host the PWBA Greater Cleveland Open (May 28-30) for the second consecutive year.

The tour then returns to its historical roots in Rockford, Illinois, where the PWBA was headquartered through 2003. Cherry Bowl will host a PWBA event for the first time in 16 years when the PWBA Rockford Open is held June 4-6.

The PWBA Tour makes its first visit to Longview, Texas, for the PWBA East Texas Open (June 11-13) at Oil Bowl with the U.S. Women’s Open, the second major of the season, to follow June 23-30 at USA Bowl in Dallas.

Following the PWBA Las Vegas Open in July, the PBA/PWBA Striking Against Breast Cancer Mixed Doubles once again returns to Copperfield Bowl in Houston on July 30-Aug. 2. The event is operated by 2019 PWBA Hall of Fame inductee Donna Conners and 1987 U.S. Women’s Open champion Carol Norman.

The final leg of the 2020 PWBA Tour will commence with the return of the PWBA Greater Columbus Open on Aug. 6-8 at Wayne Webb’s Columbus Bowl in Columbus, Ohio, followed by the PWBA Tennessee Open (Aug. 13-15) at Pinnacle Family Entertainment Center in Clarksville, Tennessee.

Seminole Lanes in Seminole, Florida, will play host to the season’s third major, the PWBA Players Championship, on Aug. 19-22.

The 2020 PWBA Tour season will conclude with the PWBA Tour Championship, which brings together the top 16 players from the season. The dates and site for the event will be announced later.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

by Heather Dawson

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD – The latest balls on the market have interesting names like: Phyx, Blackwidow Bite, Conspiracy, Hammertime, Idol, Taboo, Hy-Road, Rocket, Pro Motion, Crux Prime, Hustle, Whitehot Badger, Sc-Andel, Frantic, Breeze, Kingpin, Byonridiculas. Who gets to choose the name? What are YOU rolling? The manufacturers say a ball has a lifetime of 80-90 games!!! After that, the ball is dead. Scary thought.  This weeks high scores.

Funsters: Question. Are subs allowed in your leagues sidepots? Subs are always handy, but damn we hate to lose a pot to them!Jack Mongillo 713, Elmer Cali 625, Jim Plante 612, Lisa Swanson 588, Beth Austria 528, Danne VanHorn 494, Dan Monzon 266, Phil Hylton 266, Chris Abing 237, Odette Dalton 213, May Toledo 193, Joan Griebe 179.

Senior Mens Trio: California trees weren't the only thing on fire this week. These scores aren't watered down.Jerry Cant 279, Arnold Cheesman 279/748, Harold Dubose 269, Lon Richardson 261, Ed Cabs 259, Bob Watson 720, Jim Plante 710, John Woods 700, Steve Vaughn 700.

Sierra Bugs: Keep your eye on the ball, keep your ball clean, and keep practicing. Looks like these gals follow the rules.Mel Leach 233-203-183/619, Ann Weiss 190, Becky Salcedo 189/485, Ginny Lindsay 187/521, Darlene Waken 185/519, Janet Reese 180/506.

Practice League: Twenty teams on Tuesday night! The top 15 are less than seven games out of first. Doesn't get much more competitive than that.Raymond Perez 620, Doug Gaethke 586, Gary Perez 564, Del Stewart 489, Lillian Johnson 469, Tina Tarvin 395, David Louis 240, Damon Louis 226, Ron Jay 213, Cheyenne 165, Dede Rains 148.

Young at Heart: Believe it or not, Team 17's Andra Gibson and James Thompsons both had 663 for the day. We believe it!David Patterson 247/668, Jimmy Hamilton 237/635, Gerald Lunceford 233, Ed Hanson 232, James Thompsons 231/606, Johnny Humphrey 226, Phil Hylton 647, Anthony Leavell 619, Rey Santos 610, Dee Phipps 206/531, Danne VanHorn 200/486, Jo AldenMount 196, JoAnne Burke 192, Oritta Steel 188/537, Dorothy Ruggiero 510.

Pin Heads: PINS! Somebody teach them to fall over, or run to the pit. The league averaged 152 this week, up 5 from last week.Damon Flewelen 219/555, Bruce Brown 208/554, Chuck Appleberry 202-196/562, Linda Maldonado 249/577, Ashley Brown 220-210/629, Stacy Kelly 219/601.

Short Practice Club: "Oil Can Harry" put out a toughy this week. A real head shaker.Kevin Gallagher 624, James Som 428, Allen Swickard 382, Lisa Swanson 446, Arron Scognamillo 182, Bridgette Wade 164.

Mini Couples: "Mini" usually means "small" but not in this league.Bill Dennis 629, Ron Ipjian 603, Kirk VanDoren 569, Orrelle Dennis 579, Girlie Huervas 497, Emily Burchman 480, Bob Hutto 279, Danny Peramaki 235, Rudy Tomaneng 198, Marilyn Mariano 206, Cristy Lopez 173.

Grandmas/Grandpas: These bowlers are truly GRAND. Brag more about their grandkids than their scores.Walter Milsap 227/538, Chris VanDeven 195/510, Esque Donnell 192-187/556, Jerry Cocks 185/493, Betty Green 206/511, Vancie Keith 198/467, Pamela Norwood 179/433, Donna May 178/478, Del Stewart 177-177/499.

WILL JUNE Reports –

“Christmas Club”

Bowlers Are Ready To “Cash-In”

by Frank Weiler

MORENO VALLEY – Will June reports that Christmas Club bowlers are just two weeks away from cashing in. Everyone is excited knowing that the marathon is nearly over, and a nice payout is just around the corner.

The Christmas Club League is a marathon where bowlers compete for 44 weeks and 132 games. So, with 42 weeks gone by, everyone knows it is time to “CASH-IN”. Collecting cash for Christmas shopping.

Amazingly after months of competition the first and second place teams are only separated by half a point! That's competition! That's competitiveness. That's the sport of BOWLING!

The TOP BOWLERS in the league are:

Men:	Chris Boskirk	148 (Average)
	Doug Williams	144

Women:

Evelyn Wilson	148
Alicia Passero	133

The TOP SCORES for the season are:

Men:	(Series):	Chris Boskirk	530
	(Game):	Chris Boskirk	211

Women:

(Series):	Evelyn Wilson	505
(Game):	Rachel Hartman	206

INVITATIONAL

BRUNSWICK INVITATIONAL CLEAN 30 PROVES TO BE POSSIBLE

ONE TEAM THREATENING TO RUN AWAY FROM THE FIELD IN 2ND ROUND

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY – Don Julio Tequila has not only won all fifteen games they’ve bowled so far in the 2nd round, they’ve won them by a substantial number of pins. Last week, they won totals by over 400 pins, which makes you wonder who will finally take them down in a game, let alone a match.

On the third week of the round Don Julio Tequila was paired up against Junior Amateur Tour. The J.A.T. team stayed in the first game, only losing by 40 pins. While it’s still a loss, they had to feel like they would be in the match. Jason Carrillo led Don Julio in the opener with a 248 game. After that, Don Julio won the next two games by substantial amounts, to complete the sweep by over 250 pins. Carrillo remained hot throughout the night, posting a steady 248-246-243/737 series. Brandon Golden added a 247/652 to help out as he joined the team tonight in place of Jason Buenviaje. David Yamauchi led J.A.T. with a 611 in defeat.

Cal Bowl is the only team within five games of the top even though we are only three weeks into the round. They completed a sweep of Bowling Guys on the second pair of lanes, which improves Cal Bowl to 13-2 for the round. That will bump them up to second place and give them a shot against Don Julio next week. Leonard Ruiz Jr. led Cal Bowl with 231-232/654. Ramon Torres added a 619 to back Leonard up.

U.S. Foods will move all the way up to third place for the round, at 10-5, after a 4-1 win over Team HuStle. JT Diso easily topped the pair, leading U.S. Foods with a 237-275/660 set. Gabriel Martinez added a 236 in the final game. Team HuStle kept fighting, taking the final game by 12 pins to salvage one win behind a 203 game from Jello Gray.

DV8 dropped the first game to Buddy’s Bowling Supply by only two pins. Gip Lentine led Buddy’s in the opener with a 223 game. In the middle game of the match, Buddy’s won again, and this one wasn’t nearly as close, 830-674. Bobby Campagnale had a huge 280 in that one, and was helped by Buddy Lucas with 234. That win gave Buddy’s a 158 pin lead for totals heading into the final game. It would not be enough. DV8 caught fire in the finale, posting a 902 game which was enough to overcome the large total pins deficit by 23 pins for a 3-2 win in the match. Jon Huff led the comeback with a 287 game on his way to 719. Jeff Carr and Vernon Adams were both in the 220’s as well. The three wins gives DV8 nine for the round, putting them even with Saddleback Lanes.

The next pair of lanes saw another big comeback as 3 Olives Vodka took the first two games from Forest Lanes only to get steamrolled in the final game by 278 pins. The comeback gives Forest Lanes a 3-2 win, improving them to 8-7 for the round. Stephanie Zavala was the star of the pair, as she posted a 256-207-278/741. And, on top of that, she was clean for all 30 frames to break the Clean 30 Pot that is collected at the start of each sport shot round. Bobby Hornacek helped Stephanie out, shooting a 650 set, while Jon Diso finished with a 268 for 628. Ryan Cunningham led 3 Olives with 225/651.

Saddleback Lanes improved to 9-6 for the round with a 4-1 win over Captain Morgan. Ramiro Garcia was the top scorer on the pair, shooting a 248/656, but it wasn’t enough to get his Captain Morgan squad over the top. A steady set from Saddleback Lanes did the trick, as Alex Abieras led the way with 221/612.

Tito’s Vodka swept past Rednil Insurance on the next pair, improving their 3rd round record to 9-6 which has them up with the leaders. Sol Cericos topped the pair, leading Tito’s with 236/624. Michael Barnett continues to bowl well for Rednil, shooting a 230/621, but I’m sure he’d rather leave with a few wins.

The Professional Approach brought in Ryan Hinchliffe to sub for Reggie Brown, and he proceeded to lead the pair with a 243/646. That set, with help from Aaron Hodges’ 613, led Professional Approach to a 4-1 win over Keystone Lanes. Keystone did get a solid 228/609 set from Bill Heffern in defeat.

Bowlum took four out of five from Threadworks with a very consistent night from their roster. They had two bowlers in the 550’s and two others in the 570’s, which was enough to hold off Threadworks by 43 pins in a tight contest. Mike Calvillo led the pair, pacing Threadworks with a 232/619, but it was only enough for one win.

A 246/701 set from Mikey Villarreal was more than enough to lead Kingpin Pro Shop to a sweep over Century 21—Peak. Greg Neuer gets the assist in this one with a 223/620 of his own.

Stephanie Zavala took the first sidepot of the night in the upper division with her 256 game. Jason Carrillo was the runner up with 248. In the lower division, Mikey Villarreal took the opener with 231, while Kevin Peterson got second place with 211. The middle game was won by Bobby Campagnale with his 280, and JT Diso had to settle for 2nd place with 275. In the lower division, Mikey won again, this time with 224. He won by only one pin, as Jonathan Gale shot a 223. The final sidepot went to Jon Huff in the upper division, as Huff blasted a 287. Stephanie Zavala cashed again, taking second place with 278. Villarreal completed the lower division sweep, winning the final game with 246. Sol Cericos gets second place money for 236.

Bobby Campagnale also won the Financial Advisors Pot with his 280 game, adding $190 to his winnings. JT Diso gets $90 for second place with 275.

We’ll move past the midway mark in the round next Monday night. We could have a new leader, if Cal Bowl can pull the upset against Don Julio. Come down to Del Rio Lanes to check out the action. It begins at 8pm, and you can even take part in some of the action by participating in the Kingpins Sidepot. See you there.
