Women's Pro Bowling to be Honored at Arlington's Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame

"50 years of Women's Professional Bowling" Exhibit to Open in 2011 During Bowl Expo and USBC Convention

ARLINGTON—The new International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame is proud to announce that it will be adding a new exhibit to the museum which pays tribute to the history of women's professional bowling. The exhibit will be unveiled during the International Bowl Expo and USBC Convention, which will be held, in Arlington, TX during the last week in June 2011.

"We are so excited about Bowl Expo, as well as the USBC convention, coming to Texas. Those who attend this first-ever-event will get a first-hand look at the IBM/HF, International Research and Test Center, as well as the offices that comprise the International Bowling Campus," stated IBM/HF chairman Pat Ciniel-lo. He went on to add that the exhibit will display rare photographs and artifacts – from those who made professional women's bowling a reality, to the great women bowlers who competed on tour.

A committee has been formed to develop the contents of the exhibit, as well as to raise funds in order to build it. Jim Goodwin, President of the Bowling News Network and publisher of Stars & Strikes Bowling Newsmagazine, has been named chairman. Goodwin worked with the Ladies Pro Bowlers Tour and the Professional Women's Bowling Association for 20 years. Public Relations expert Joan Romeo, owner of The Marketing Team agency, will be handling the fund-raising and promotions aspect of the project.

Joan's two daughters, Robin and Tori, are former pro tour players. Robin is in the PWBA and USBC Halls of Fame.

Former LPBT & PWBA Tour Director and Historian Fran Deken will be an invaluable member of the team in recording the history and making sure all the right people are honored; and former PWBA owner and museum trustee John Sommer, who operated and financed the LPBT and PWBA for 22 years from 1981-2003, will contribute his time, effort, and expertise to the project. Deken and Sommer are also members of the PWBA and USBC Halls of Fame.

50 Years of Women's Pro Bowling will occupy a prominent place within the new museum, and become a permanent part of bowling's incredible history for all visitors to explore year round. The Museum and Hall of Fame occupies 18,000 square feet of the International Bowling Campus, which is also the home for the United States Bowling Congress, the Bowling Proprietors Association of America, the International Training and Research Center, and many more related organizations that make up bowling's headquarters.

ESPN Pro Bowling Kicks Off November 28

VEGAS — ESPN coverage of the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour's 2010-11 season is set to kick off on Sunday, Nov. 28, at 1 p.m. Eastern with coverage of the Brunswick Pro Bowling Cheetah Championship, the first of seven PBA World Series of Bowling events.

On ensuing Sundays at 1 p.m., ESPN will air the step-ladder finals of the Pepsi Viper Championship (Dec. 5), Chameleon Championship (Dec. 12), Scorpion Championship (Dec. 19), GEICO Shark Championship (Dec. 26) and the USA vs. The World team championship (Jan. 9) before live coverage of the PBA World Championship airs Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 14-16, on ESPN2 and ESPN.

Team USA 2011

NORWALK—The Team USA roster for 2011 began to take shape as the United States Bowling Congress announced the selection of seven women and six men to join the elite squad.

Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour stars Walter Ray Williams Jr., Chris Barnes, Wes Malott, Bill O'Neill, Patrick Allen and Tommy Jones were the males selected while current PBA Tour exempt player Kelly Kulick and former PBA Women's Series competitors Liz Johnson, Shannon Pluhowsky, Tennelle Milligan, Shannon O'Keefe, Stefanie Nation and Carolyn Dorin-Ballard were named to the women's team.

When the Going Gets Tough, the Tough Get Going

Paula Vidad Spearheads Tri-States Queens Tournament

NORWALK—Due to declining participation, last year the California USBC injected $17,000 into the Queen's and Master's Tournaments in hopes it would attract a crowd and with the threat of abolishing both tournaments if it didn't work.

Bowlers who participate in the Queens were asked to comment and the bottom line was: Location (although we know it is more financially prudent to have it close to the state tournaments for staffing reasons); No one wants to qualify at one time and have to come back for the finals (in this case a trip for the So. Cal gals to Northern California twice.) Few liked the format and increased fees were a factor and there were numerous changes. The original format was simple and effective and you know what happens when you fix something that ain't broke. It also appears no one cared what the bowlers thought.

Old format: All Queen's events on one weekend – you can bowl your tournament events (or not,) qualify and if you qualify – go into double elimination – winners and losers brackets. If you make the finals they are held on Monday – usually Memorial Day weekend which seemed to work well for most. Entry fee was one amount with late entry another and there was a buy in fee to take the place of a no-show. Sponsors supported the tournament and there were monetary prizes for High Qualifier, High Game, etc. The previous year's Queen was seeded. Associations often sent their local tournament All Events winner. The tournament was promoted by sending entry forms to those who bowled in the two previous years and entries were available through the local association offices or

by Arvo Dygert

LOS ANGELES—An icon of Los Angeles bowling left us October 28th 2010 and he will be greatly missed.

Lou was born April 4 th 1929 in Jackson Mississippi and was the seventh child of eleven children.

Lou played in the Negro baseball league where his versatility allowed him to play many positions and later was inducted into the Negro Baseball Hall of Fame.

Lou was the kindest gentlest man I ever met. He never raised his voice and never had a harsh word for anyone.

He was always ready to help anyone with their bowling problems..

Lou passed away at Midtown Bowl Thursday morning among his friends.. So long partner.

ABTA Returns to Bowlm Lanes this Weekend
Saturday is Special Frozen Handicap Event

UPLAND—In our long awaited return to Upland Bowl, bowlers came out for a semi tough shot this week. Despite the many happenings elsewhere and mainly the big Pacquiao fight we still had a decent total of 131 entries this week. The people enjoyed the hospitality of the friendly Center . Cut scores were a +70 for the men and +38 for the women. This week, our three Super Seniors added to the board were William Parks (+51) and Walter White (+49) for the men and Joyce Charles (+25) for the women. That would give us a total of 48 bowlers making it to the semi-finals this week for what would also be the finals as it was a Beat the Board semi-finals.

For all qualifying squads our top qualifier for the Men was White Hot Rodney Payne with a +203, and for the women it was Deborah Sanders with a +100. Each will get paid entries into a future regular ABTA event. Each week our top seed overall draws the Match Series, and this week it was worth $1050. The top seed drew a 511 but we had no one that bowled that score. This week at Bowlm Lanes we will estimate the Match Series at $1550. For the 3-6-9 qualifying this week, there were not a lot that qualified for the roll-off, but those that did saw Ryan Nam be the last person standing to go for the $2000 pot. He missed on his first shot and received a $50 consolation. We will add another $100 at Bowlm Lanes for total of $2100.

In the doubles this week, we had 96 groups get into the doubles, with 17 spots being paid out. The top prize this week went to LeStar Walker and Rodney Payne with a 1527 for $120. In 2nd place it was Rodney Payne and Stan Por with a 1518 for $100. The low to cash was 1421 and we paid out $960 in doubles.

This week we had a different format, as we would not have match play finals due to Upland Bowls very popular Cosmic Bowling that started at 9 pm. The final standings were determined after the three games at semis. After the first game, the leader was George Covarrubias (last weeks winner) with a +72 and close behind him was Bohner San Pedro with a +67. The fifth place score after game 1 was a +54, so it was real close after the first game. During the 2nd game we would see changes in the top and it get closer still. There was a mere 9 pins separation between our top 6 bowlers, with 7th place only 13 pins behind our leader. The 2nd game leader was Aaron Hodges with a tie for 2nd between Chris Moore and JJ Soon at +85. At +83 were Stan Por, Bohner San Pedro and David Jones. We would see the 3rd game come down to the end to decide who would be this weeks champion. Aaron finished first and set the stage for a close finish by Chris Moore. Chris would need to punch out in the 10th frame to over take Aaron but fell short, and Aaron Hodges first place finish with a 761 score getting $1000 for first plus $1700 in cash and carry, Chris Moore in 2nd with a 742 for $500 and 3rd place finisher was Stan Por with a 730 getting $200. In 4th and 5th place with a 718 were Andrew Toro and Jemerald (JJ) Soon getting $110. As a reminder we do guarantee 3 women in the top 16, so 15th and 16th saw Kerry Lucka and Franki Matush. It was close battle in the final game to see who would win this week.

Our top seed/ Hodges had the honor of drawing the match game worth $1900 and drew a 256. After a review of all the scores bowled, we had no one that shot that score, so it will carry-over to next week and we will estimate the pot at $3500 at Bowlm Lanes. This week we had 6 new bowlers join us, and no returning member. Let's welcome these new bowlers to the club, Jayakomar Jayarajan, Mike Scimone, Marcus Battiest, Kelley Bendt, Joseph Kaiser and Angela Smith, and we would see 2 of the new bowlers make the semi-finals in their first time

FOUNTAIN VALLEY—

The second trip to Fountain Bowl this season produced a new season high series for the 156 and over bowlers. Roberta McNaught fired 257-661 to set a new season high series. She will now take a super 2-weeks vacation with spouse David on a cruise to Hawaii and two weeks enjoying food and fun.

Other high scorers were Doris Lewis 225-596, Carolyn Anderson 556, Margo McClain 206-554, Dee Phipps 548, Linda Kinney 535, Karen Mauricio 202-528, Hedy Schoner 520, Vi Wilson 514, Aresia McGee 211-505, Madelyn Majick 500 and Darlene Waken 200.

Fountain Bowl opened earlier than their usual time so we could get the league underway at 10 a.m and we do appreciate it and we also enjoy super service from the control desk to the yummy coffee shop. We won't return there until next year (February) and our last time there will be in March which will also be the 4th and final position round. Yep! Fountain Bowl is a class A bowling center and it's little wonder that the Pro Bowlers continue to include it on their touring schedule.

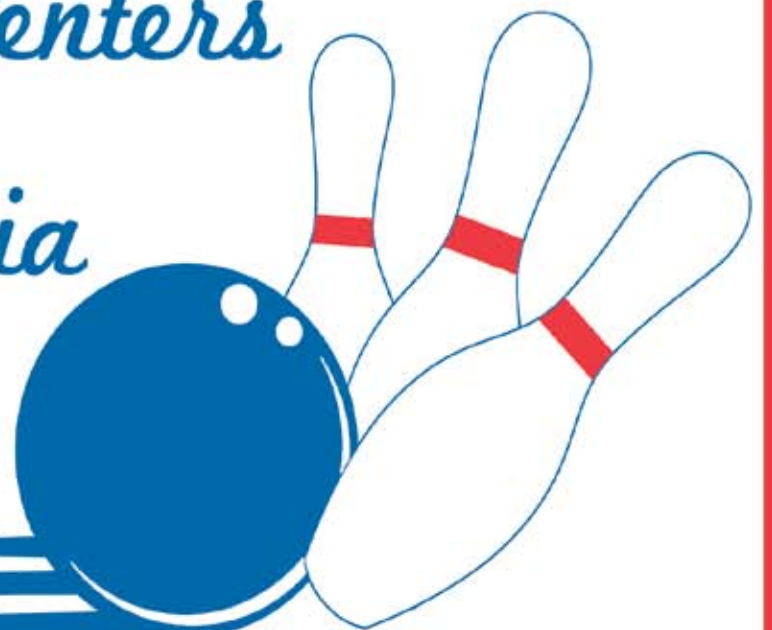

Fountain Bowl #1 swept 3 games from opponents and now lead the league with 23 wins, followed by Cal Bowl #1, 20; Keystone #2, 18; Bowling News, 17; Cal #2, 15; Cerritos and Keystone #1, tied at 14; Valley View #2, Del Rio and Fountain Bowl #2 tied at 13 wins, Valley View #1 and Linbrook Bowl tie at 10 wins.

Lois Nankervis, a former Vegas league member, called to say hi and wondered if any of today's league members remembered her. She reads the column every week and at age 80 plus, is still bowling. However, she now participates in centers closer to her home in Wilmington.

Unfortunately, only a very few recall her participation and those of us who do, are still awed by the fact she traveled by taxicab to the bowling sites that were far more distant than they are now. Phyllis Baldwin was on deck Monday to be available, if needed for subbing, and to bring us good news that Mary DeFord will be back bowling soon. We have missed her! Also, Audry Thibodeaux is returning next week.

NEXT WEEK: 10:30 a.m. Monday November 22 at Del Rio Lanes. A reminder again that Charter Bus and Hotel reservation deposits are due this month and there's only two Mondays left in November.

THE OFFICIAL SOFT DRINK OF BOWLING

Sysco Takes The Lead

by Aimee Gomez

DOWNEY—Despite Jon Brandon’s league leading 259-243-258/760, Katie Jake’s Bar and Grill fell to Sysco. Kevin Valmonte added a 234-204/627 for Katie Jake’s while Vernon Adams 234-210-246/690, Charlie Kinstler 243-218/652 and Paul Barraco 211-208/613 led Sysco to the sweep. The first game came down to 14 sticks, as the second game battle was even closer, five. Every game was a fight to the finish, but left Sysco alone in first with ten wins.

Linder Insurance bowled Brylaw Accounting. Brylaw used Larry Stephens 204-236-257/697, Charles Zelaya 210-225-202/637 and Billy Myers Jr. 203-207-212/622 to win the third game and come back for totals. Linder’s Keith Klagge 269-207-211/687 and Shane Soper 206-233/631 led their team to the first two games.

Bowlers Depot jumped into second place with four wins over Herzog Insurance, bringing their win count to eight. Raul Rosales 220-243-236/699 and Jeff Carr 278/644 led the way against Lee Liu 246-220/640 and Phil Lebaquin 212-200/600 of Herzog.

In the corner, Tifco and Junior Amateur Tour faced off. JAT won the first two games and were able to hold onto totals for four wins, moving them into third place. David Yamauchi 216-217-239/672 led JAT, while Larry Campbell 212-226/617, Aimee Gomez 257/606 and Jared Lawrence 226-201 contributed. Tom Jackson 211-256/663 and Phillip Sujo 228-210-209/647 bowled well and snagged the last game.

Storm Products and Key Container faced one another. Early on, it looked like the evening would be a great one for Storm, as they won the first game by over 250 sticks, but Key Container made a comeback. A costly 2-8-10 in the tenth only got Key Container the second game tie, but they came away with the third game win. Ramon Torres led the pair and Storm, 221-225-248/694, while Paul Varela added a 246-225/649 set. Darrion Tipton finally moved right and shot 246-212/624, as Brandon Grant pitched in a 203-224/604.

Threadworks took four from ABTA although only one bowler broke six on the pair, Carl Labayan 202-213/603.

Pro Approach took four from Bowlmum thanks to Jon Stone, who shot a nice 206-238-259/703 set. Arnold Cheesman 225/621 threw the lone sixer for Bowlmum, and led them to a second game win.

On the last pair, Clyde’s Video Game took advantage of the struggling first round winning Zavala’s Taquerias. Mike Villareal led the pair and Clyde’s with his 244-235/663 while Jeff Garrison 226-211/606 had the only six on Zavala’s.

So far, the Cheetah has been slightly different, so come to league prepared for anything. Have a great week!

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

THERE IS NOT MUCH DEAF NEWS EXCEPT BOB JONES ROLLED ANOTHER 700

WINNETKA—Robert G. “Bob” Jones told this writer that last Monday he hit a 244 in this first game and 266 in his third game in his Monday league at Canoga Park Bowl. “What was your 2nd game?” I asked him and Bob responded with a shrug, a 191 with too many 9’s. Hey that’s a 701, another 700. So good for you! I said.

To finish this column, this writer wants to seize his opportunity to show his long overdue gratitude and appreciation albeit this first one below was too late.

THE LATE DETROIT WRITER MATT FIORITO WROTE ABOUT DEAF BOWLING

DETROIT—It was with sadness when I received the news that the great Detroit Free Press sports writer Matt Fiorito passed away at 74 last Friday from acute leukemia.

Fiorito was inducted in PBA Hall of Fame for meritorious service and also in four other Halls of Fame for services to bowling.

Fiorito was one of many sports and bowling writers like the late Dick Evans (FL), Bob Cosgrove (DC), Chuck Pezzano. (NJ), Bob Johnson, Chicago and others I regret forgotten to name, who gave their time and space to write interesting articles about deaf bowlers and deaf bowling.

Although I am a Detroit native and sad because I never had an opportunity to personally met Fiorito to give him my appreciation for his written articles in the Detroit Free Press about deaf bowling. A Detroit friend of mine, Jim Lombardi often mailed me clippings of deaf bowling written by Fiorito, mostly about the deaf PBA member Pete Kaczmarczyk in Detroit leagues and a deaf team once bowled in major league.

My condolences go to the Fiorito family for their loss.

APPRECIATION TO MALUCCI FOR HIS DEDICATED 800 STANDING PLAQUE

LAS VEGAS...Last June 15 in his Tuesday Rocks League at Red Rock Lanes, Carl Malucci after being disappointed on not being able to attend the June 12th 50th anniversary So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League Celebration Banquet in Los Angeles, announced to his teammates that if he ever hit an honor score on this day, he would dedicated his award to Connie Marchione as a tribune for his marvelous 50 years of service in the first ever-deaf traveling league.

So that night Malucci happened to roll 299-268-268 for 836, his 22nd career 800 and also his 16th career 299. Weeks later he received a beautiful thick glass standing 800 plaque award from Red Rock Lanes.

Last October 14, true to his dedication words as at the end of the Deaf Senior Bowlers of America’s Match Play Tournament at the Orleans Bowling Center, Malucci made his presentation to this writer. Surprised to receive this unique beautiful 6” wide x 7” tall x 1 1/8” thick glass plaque, this writer thanked Malucci for erasing the gloominess of his own 3rd place finish in this day’s tournament from his mind with this handsome award. I will always cherish Malucci’s thoughtfulness.

PBA Challenge #2 – The New Bowlium

Stevn Roderick Wins First JAT Title

WEST COVINA—The JAT headed east to Brunswick West Covina for our first of two visits this season. Scoring was decent with Brandon Kraye leading qualifying at +211 followed closely by two-handers James Hawkins +177 and Wesley Low Jr. +174. Low to qualify was Ryan Melton at +39. In the first round, the top-4 bowlers took a bye and the lower 8 battled for a spot in the quarterfinals. Daniel Updegraff took out Mark Myers in 3 games while Stevn Roderick swept past Ryan Melton. Brian Hernandez swept past DeeRonn Booker and Steven Maida took out last tournament's champion Jeremy Glover. In the quarters, Brandon Kraye needed only two to eliminate Daniel Updegraff while Stevn Roderick swept cleanly past A.J.Garcia. On the other half of the bracket, Wesley Low Jr. dismissed Steven Maida in two while James Hawkins needed 3 to send Brian Hernandez home. In the semifinals, James Hawkins took out Wesley Low Jr. 235-198 and 211-192 to advance to the finals while Stevn Roderick needed three to lock up his spot 264-276, 215-174 and 213-180. In the finals, with the pair drying up, it was Stevn Roderick playing the fall-back taking down the high-revving two-hander James Hawkins 256-248 and 223-197 for his first JAT Open Division title. Congratulations Stevn!

Jeremy Glover Wins At Palos Verdes

The JAT headed to the South Bay for our first of two visits to Palos Verdes Bowl. A smaller field took the lanes and the scoring was all over the map. Mark Myers led the qualifying field at +189 followed by fellow two-hander Wesley Low Jr. at +188. Jerome Jordan Jr. was close at +130 followed by Bobby Hornacek at +117. Low to qualify was Steven Maida at +18 who advanced after a 2-frame rolloff with Andrew Stewart who also finished at +18. In the quarterfinals, Mark Myers swept past Steven Maida and Jerome Jordan Jr. took out Brandon Kraye in two. Jeremy Glover and Wesley Low Jr. needed all three games to eliminate Bobby Hornacek and Brian Hernandez. The semifinal matches pitted Jeremy Glover against Mark Myers and Wesley Low Jr. against Jerome Jordan Jr. Jeremy Glover made quick work of tournament-leader Mark Myers 201-180 and 186-171 while Jerome Jordan Jr. needed three to eliminate Wesley Low Jr. 210-216, 234-192 and 268-201. In the championship match, Jerome Jordan Jr. took game one 218-191 but Jeremy Glover stormed back to take games two and three 226-223 and 235-198 for his 12th JAT Open Division title. Congratulations Jeremy!

Citrus Belt's DON MOSER and DAVE WODKA Cash at PBA World Series

by Frank Weiler

LAS VEGAS — Don Moser and Dave Wodka mastered the difficult PBA Shark oil pattern at the PBA World Series of Bowling, finishing in the top 50, and earning checks. Wodka averaged 222 during twelve games of qualifying, and advanced to match play with fifteen other bowlers. Dave had a 9 - 7 match play record and finished in 11th place, averaging 217 overall. Dave earned $2050 for his efforts. Moser finished in 19th place with an average of 221.8. He missed the cut to match play by less than ten pins. Moser earned $980. Don used his favorite ball, a Brunswick C4.5, to earn his check. Moser and Wodka bowled pretty darn well when you consider that they finished above such PBA greats as Chris Barnes (21st place), Shawn Rash (24th), Parker Bohn (31st), Mika Koivuniemi (32nd), Jason Couch (41st), Tommy Jones (53rd), Patrick Allen (54th), and Norm Duke (84th) to name just a few. Other Citrus Belt bowlers competing on the Shark oil pattern included RAY COBB, DENNIS HORAN, Jr., ALAN MOJADO, MATT MUR-TISHAW, PAUL NILSEN Sr., and TONY RODRIGUEZ. These great Citrus Belt bowlers wish to thank the BOWLING NEWS for publicizing their accomplishments on the lanes.
