Meeting Mike DeVaney in Reno

by Frank Weiler

RENO – While in the “Biggest Little City In The World” last week, for the World Series of Bowling IX (WSOB), I bumped into Mike DeVaney. Mike and I were both there for the WSOB but for different reasons. Mike was there as a Storm Tour Representative and I was there as a bowling fan and writer.

Mike was one of the best bowlers to come out of California in recent years. He competed successfully on the PBA National Tour for about a decade and won two titles. But now Mike isn't bowling, he is helping other's compete.

When competing Mike was known for his analytic mind and perceptive skills. This made him a valuable teammate when it came to assisting other bowlers with on lane adjustments. His talent for helping other bowlers was a natural first step on the road to his current position on Team Storm as a Tour Rep.

It appears that Mike enjoys his new job and it also appears that the Storm pro bowlers have high regard for Mike's abilities. They recognize that Mike brings a great deal of knowledge to the lanes.

Mike's duties during a tournament include observing the pros bowl as they compete, advise them regarding lane adjustments and ball changes and filming them bowl for later evaluation. During competition Mike is busy every minute working with Storm's bowlers.

On Team Storm Mike works with Del Ballard and Tim Mack. Mike and Tim have been friends for years. They bowled as teammates and won two World Team Championships together along with Barry Asher, Billy Myers Jr. and Robert Smith.

The DeVaney family has relocated to Las Vegas to make it easier for Mike to travel to tournaments. While California misses Mike, we are rooting for him to succeed and wish him the best in his new career.

Bowling Earns SoCal Girl Invitation to White House

WASHINGTON D.C. – Ashley Dunn – A young lady whose name is likely familiar to our readers for her Local, National, and International accomplishments as a California youth standout is pictured here with her teammates from the 2016-17 McKendree University Women's Bowling Team. The team was recently honored at the White House by President Donald Trump and Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos for winning the 2017 NCAA National Championship.

The nine McKendree bowlers who took part in the ceremony held Friday November 17, 2017 included Seniors Sarah Wille, Jessica Mellott and Nicole Fung Calleja; Juniors Lauren Pate, Ashley Dunn, Ashley Hathaway and Christie Draper, and Sophomores Breanna Clemmer and Taylor Bailey.

The Bearcats' title-winning squad were joined by Women's Head Coach Shannon O'Keefe, Director of Bowling Bryan O'Keefe, graduate Assistant Coach Matt Farber and Director of Athletics Chuck Brueggemann in the event which was part of National Collegiate Champions Day. McKendree was among 18 NCAA programs to be honored at the gathering that included a meeting and photo opportunities with President Donald Trump throughout the Rose Garden, South Lawn and inside the White House.

“Our ladies have been incredibly lucky and blessed to have the experiences they have had over the last few years,” said McKendree women's bowling Coach Shannon O'Keefe. “This was a truly special experience they had today. They earned this visit due to their hard work, sweat, tears and working through their frustrations that allowed them to relive an incredible championship that they won back in April. It's a completely humbling honor and something we will all remember for the rest of our lives.”

Last April, McKendree became the first Division II program to capture an NCAA Women's Bowling Championship. The Bearcats rolled through the eight-team field at the 2017 Women's Bowling Championship in Baton Rouge, La., sweeping the University of Nebraska 4-0 in the best-of-seven title match. It marked the first NCAA National Championship for McKendree in any sport.

Huang and Wiseman Wow the Field at Corbin Bowl

by Fred Eisenhammer

TARZANA – “It was shock and awe. It will never happen again.” That was Jillian Wiseman’s reaction to how her team fared in the fifth annual After-Thanksgiving Doubles No-Tap Tournament on Friday night at Corbin Bowl.

Wiseman and Nicholas Huang, both 25-year-old right-handers, surprised the field by claiming the title of the event, edging the second-place team of Jocelyn Bustamante and Mark Alvarino by a mere three pins. The winners finished with 1,763 pins.

Wiseman averages 110, but she went on a tear in her first of three games, rolling a 221. Meanwhile, Huang, who averages, 181, crushed a 268.

“After the first game, we were feeling pretty good,” Wiseman said.

Huang led the way in the second and third games by blasting a 278 and 265, allowing the team to walk off with the $280 first-place prize. Wiseman also claimed the first-game side pot, earning an additional $60.

Forty-five teams took part in the tournament with prize money given out to the top six finishers. Bustamante and Alvarino split $240 for their runner-up finish.

Jeffrey Hein and Lisa Samler placed third with 1,614 pins ($190); Amy Lew and Ivan Soriano took fourth with 1,605 pins ($150); Terri Bricker and Gary Bricker claimed fifth with 1,597 pins ($100); and Michelle Silver and Eugene Lane earned sixth with 1,575 pins ($60). Lane had been part of the winning team the past two years in the tournament.

Martin Torres won the second-game side pot and Josh Muscantine earned the third-game side pot.

Wiseman and Huang said late Friday night that they were planning to return for next-year’s After-Thanksgiving Doubles No-Tap event.

“We came here just for fun,” said Wiseman, who bowls with Huang on the same team in a league at Pinz Bowling Center in Studio City. “We had no hope of winning.”

"To California Bowling Writers:

Thanks so much for providing the calling cards that make it possible to communicate with my husband while he is deployed in Kuwait. The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

The Perfect Coach: Part 7

So far, this series of self-coaching articles has described how to perform an effective stance and push-away. Last week, we discussed how these two skills help tame an inconsistent arm-swing. This week, we discuss the skill that ends your delivery: the release. If there is a worst time for something to go wrong, this is it. Let’s see what it takes to keep bad things from happening here.

Ideally, a proper release occurs when the forward portion of the arm-swing aligns the ball with the ankle of your sliding foot and your wrist has kept the hand positioned behind the ball. At this very instant, your arm is nearly vertical to the floor and ball speed is maximized. This is the exact point in the arm-swing when the pressure exerted by the thumb needs to be relaxed. As the thumb exits the ball, you should feel its weight transfer to your fingers. You must now use the strength of those fingers to loft the ball out onto the lane.

That sounds so easy, what could possibly go wrong? Well.....

1) You could lose your grip on the ball, causing it to come off your hand too early. This usually sends the ball scurrying off toward your favorite channel (and I don’t mean ESPN!). Poor fit and/or perspiration are the enemies here. A visit to your pro shop takes care of one, keeping your hand dry cures the other.

2) The ball may hang up on your thumb. Your shot may hit the target, but the hang-up will prevent your fingers from effectively rotating the ball. It will slide excessively down the lane and pin action will decline severely. As mentioned earlier, the fit of your ball is crucial to consistency.

3) You could hang on to the ball too long. This is the most common flaw in the delivery of non-elite bowlers. It is caused by insecurity and is the biggest challenge you face when coaching yourself. You already know the best point in your delivery to turn that ball loose, yet your fear of making a bad shot causes an inability to actually let it go. You cannot steer the ball, nor should you think you have to. If you have practiced the previous skills as prescribed, even if only a little, you now need to trust them. Trust that the stance aimed the ball at your target. Trust that the push-away moved it along the line leading to that target, and the arm-swing kept it moving along that line. In other words, trust that the ball is already heading where you want, and just let go of it!

That’s easy to say, but how does someone stop being timid at the release point? The answer is: Be a great coach! Good coaches will tell you, “Focus!” but a great coach will tell you what to focus on, and when. Self-coaching means reminding yourself to focus on posing into an effective stance*. As you begin your approach, switch your focus to performing a methodical and accurate push-away. After the push-away is complete, refocus to keeping your back-swing under control. Then, as the arm-swing becomes vertical, silently scream the word, “NOW!” like an imaginary military drill sergeant. Feel the weight of the ball on your fingers as the thumb exits the ball and lift it out onto the lane. This tip may help. Rather than fearing making a bad shot, be curious about where your new technique will actually send it. Changing your emotional outlook may relieve the anxiety and tension which causes hesitation/inconsistency.

There you have it and this concludes this series of self-coaching instructions concerning the improvement of your technique and how to think your way through each delivery. You will do well if you understand that the mental aspect of your game is every bit as important as the physical part. Tune in next week when we will address the next step to becoming an elite bowler; learning to modify your skills.

1977 – PART 1

by Carol Mancini

- In 1977 the weekly issues increased from 12 pages to 16 pages.
- SAM SATO had a shop that sold bowling supplies and fishing tackle.
 - GEORGE SNOW was moved out of BOWLING SQUARE and teamed up with DICK MARQUIS at PARK BOWL. (Two big egos that would soon clash.)
 - The N.B.A. started a club for the over 40 crowd. Great idea - - - to be stolen by other clubs in the near future.
 - GRAND CENTRAL had a giant BLUE CHIP STAMP swap meet. Bring your sellable items and your stamps! No cash allowed. Barter, swap, trade, sell, or just give it away.
 - W.I.B.C. gave out 800,000 awards in the 1976 season. Every league gave out “Most Improved Average”, “League High Average” and “League Champions”.
 - RODEO BOWL ran “cash only” events. No checks.
 - The National Brotherhood of Street Racers had a league at TRIANON BOWL in SOUTH GATE.
 - To quote a smart fellow - - - “You know you have made it as a bowler when your past coaches start arguing about who taught you how to bowl.”
 - MARY MacINTYRE (blind bowler) picked up the big 4 split — her first spare in 2 games.
 - Bowlers in VICTORVILLE had to stomp thru snow to get to the lanes.
 - JOHN and PEGGY FANTINI was the management team at BEACON BOWL in BARSTOW.
 - EARL ANTHONY won the P.B.A. Classic at GABLE HOUSE.
 - IMPERIAL BOWL was known as the “Home of the KWIKIE SINGLES.”
 - The P.B.A. offered $10,000.00 for a 300 Game bowled on T.V. during the finals.
 - BILL SCHANIEL and GLEN RAVENSCROFT were N.B.A. managers. N.B.A. was a strong club for many years.
 - The combination of GEORGE SNOW and DICK MARQUIS seemed like two rams butt-ing heads. They soon parted.
 - HARRY GRANT was declared ineligible to bowl the K.T.T. (and a few other tournaments).
 - RUDY LEEWAYE was the District Manager for Brunswick. What a salesman!
 - JOE ESTRADA won the first “MR. BOWLING” tournament at COVE BOWL. Why doesn't somebody get some 2017 action going???
 - In 1944 a record was set for the “longest stretch without an open frame” - - -244 frames. Who keeps track now???
 - NICK MANCINI finally had his dream tournament come to life. “The Grand Slammer” at GRAND CENTRAL BOWL guaranteed $10,000.00 first place plus another $90,000 for 262 payoffs. Biggest 10 game marathon ever.
 - A real bowling bargain was the package deal for Reno Nationals. For $265.00, the deal included airfare, hotel and tournament fees.
 - PAULA SPERBER married DON CARTER and they lived happily ever after.
 - Pro Bowler BOB STAMPE elected to ABC Hall of Fame. EARL ANTHONY named Bowler of the Year. PATTY COSTELLO was named woman Bowler of the Year.

- MANNY PERKINS was top gun at VALLEY VIEW BOWL - - - one time at KING PIN LANES. Another “Manager” that traveled from bowl to bowl, trying to find a center that “fit”. At least a dozen men were on the move. They were either full of great ideas or full of _____. Owners needed to make money not make headlines.
- Big invention - - - Lane Injection. A company would inject Epoxy into lane heads. It tightened up the boards, kept oil on the lanes and lengthened the life of the wood. Another business put “out of business” by artificial lanes.
- JACK and LA VERNE EDLER established the “U.S. Bowling Academy at MAPLE LANES. They had five other Professional Coaches on staff. For $25.00 you received 4 lessons, a book and 50 games of practice.
- MIKE McGRATH and VIRGINIA NORTON were NBA guest celebs at CLARK CENTER for their tourneys, a competition for bowlers over 40 years of age.
- The 74th ABC Tournament (7200 Teams) competed in Reno.
- Saturday, Feb. 4 at Midnight - - - nineteen centers ran 10 game marathons. There were also some 8 gamers and 102 centers with Blue Chip programs.
- YOGI BERRA was the spokesman for AMF MagicScore, T.V. commercials and news-paper ads.
- Top prize up for KTT grabs?? A Dodge Charger! Strange. 96 KTT members will be bowl-ing a squad of the Grant Classic. Splane that to me!
- Western Columbia took over the 24 lane ROYAL OAKS LANES in DUARTE and re-named it COLUMBIA BOWL.
- WES SORENSON and wife BOBBIE were managers at CLARK CENTER in Bellflower.
- “HOT LIPS” wrote the column for ALL STAR LANES in EAGLE ROCK, a center you loved or couldn't hit.
- FRANK KIETZ joined the Bowling News staff! Boy, could he dig up the dirt!
- “Grand Opening” was scheduled in July for TUSTIN LANES. AL FREITAS was captain of the team.
- ESTHER WOODS was chosen for C.W.B.A. Hall of Fame.
- WALLY KING'S best (or strangest) league promotion at BOWLING SQUARE was to drop leaflets from his plane on the city of Arcadia.
- After five years of testing, Brunswick presented Armor Plate Pin Decks and Lanes. But, actual sales didn't start for 5 more years after it was certified by A.B.C.
- On the drawing board was OAK KNOLL'S BOWL in Santa Maria, a 40 laner.
- Remember playrooms for the kids? Do you have one in your 2017 center?
- Musical manager time; GEORGE SNOW leaves PARK BOWL for WESTMINSTER LANES, replaced by DICK MARQUIS from EASTLAND.
- To close out part one of 1977 - - - FOR SALE. Tables made out of 25 year old bowling lanes. Made in SANTA MONICA.
- Which turkeys are your favorite? On the table or on the lanes? Got to go gobble up some more news.

BURBANK – I apologize for my absence. I was on a much-needed mini sabbatical after the whirlwind of tournaments this month. My Thanksgiving included gratefulness for all those who participated and especially for those that helped. Whether we want to admit it or not, bowling brings many diverse people together. People, who in other circumstances, would likely not cross paths.

I am thankful for all those I have met on the lanes. I have learned a lot from them. We are not always aware of how we impact others when we share a pair. Lately, I’ve heard tales of bullies on the lanes. Bowlers who degrade other bowlers for whatever reason, are not acceptable and bring down the worthiness of our grand sport.

I hope for these bowlers to see the wickedness in their ways and join in positivity. While “it’s only a game” is a truism, for some it may be the only game they have. The one thing they look forward to, the one time in a week they see other human beings or a friendly smile.

If you’re frustrated with another bowler’s time spent on the approach or their style or their choice of shirt that day, breathe. Remember why you are there and enjoy the diversity in bowling.

INVITATIONAL

Standings Tighten Up as Week Five is in The Books

by David Yamauchi

DOWNEY – The second round of the Brunswick Invitational has just two weeks left and teams are piled up all still alive in the round. Scores were once again all over the board as bowlers took on the oily short pattern. Sweeps and splits tightened up the field as 6 teams are still very much alive for the round with two weeks to go.

In the “A” match, Herzog Insurance and J.A.T. battled in a rematch of last week’s “A” match. J.A.T. bounced back after a tough finish last week coming out of the gate with a 164 pin win and never looked back as they swept past Herzog Insurance 5-0. Kevin Valmonte led J.A.T. with a 646 set while Danny Wilson managed 548 to lead Herzog. J.A.T. will remain in the “A” match next week.

In the “B” match, fast-climbing Cal Bowl and Tito’s Handmade Vodka were just one game apart going into Monday’s action. Cal Bowl took the first game by 163 sticks but dropped the next two and held on to totals for a 3-2 win. Raul “Spanky” Rosales led the Vodka guys with a 595 set while Leonard Ruiz Jr. was solid again for Cal Bowl with a 586 effort. Cal Bowl will move up to the “A” match based on total pins to face J.A.T. next week.

Los Altos Trophy and Keystone Lanes met up in the third match with Los Altos looking to continue their momentum and Keystone looking to bounce back. Keystone took game one by triple-digits and continued to roll to a 5-0 win led by Eddie VanDaniker’s strong 674 series. Nick Rodriguez led the Trophy team with a 566 set.

Linder’s Insurance and Forest Lanes battled in the 7 vs. 8 match. Linder’s took games one and two, dropped a close game three, but had plenty in the bank for totals and a 4-1 win. DeeRonn Booker went huge with a 678 set for Forest Lanes while Arnold Cheesman was solid posting 639 for Linder’s.

DV8 and Buddy’s Bowling Supply matched up their 10-10 records. Buddy’s two-sub lineup started the night strong, dropping only game three for a 4-1 win. Buddy Lucas was high for Buddy’s Bowling with a 595 series while DV8 was paced by a strong 626 set from Ashkan Talvildaran.

Bowlum and Threadworks were the low of the 10-10 teams in Monday’s action. Threadworks came out strong taking games one and two but dropped a close game three for a 4-1 win. Eric Snow paced the Threadworks bunch with a 579 series while Billy Myers Jr. once again led Bowlum with a nice 615 set.

Professional Approach battled first-round winner Sysco in the 13-14 match. Professional Approach started off with a 35 pin win but it was all Sysco from there for the 4-1 win. Carl Stokes paced Pro Approach with a 588 set while Gabriel Martinez (Xframe Champ) was big for Sysco with a 636 series.

Century 21 – My Real Estate, Three Olives Vodka, Bowling Guys and Don Julio Tequila rounded out the action. Century 21 took game one by enough to score a three win night over Three Olives and Bowling Guys were all over Don Julio Tequila for the 5-0 sweep. Bobby Campagnale led Three Olives with a 607 set, Johnny Sikkens paced Century 21 with a 554 effort, Kevin Jones was big for Bowling Guys with a 644 set and sub Omar Olid led Don Julio with a 471 set.

Sidepots went to Eddie VanDaniker (225, 255) for $57 each game with the Super Pot going to Raul “Spanky” Rosales (226) for $171. Financial Advisor’s pot went to DeeRonn Booker (258) for $190 and second to Eddie VanDaniker (255) for $100.

Come down Monday night and see the best scratch league in So. Cal. take the lanes at Del Rio on the last two weeks of the challenging 26’ short oil pattern.
