Duke, Ballard & Handegard To Be Inducted Into PBA Hall of Fame

SEATTLE—Norm Duke, Del Ballard Jr. and John Handegard will join bowling's elite as each player will be inducted into the PBA Hall of Fame during the PBA 50th Anniversary Gala at Red Rock Resort and Casino in Las Vegas, Nev. on January 24, 2009. The induction marks the first time since 2000 that the Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour will add new inductees into the Performance Category of the PBA Hall of Fame.

Norm Duke of Clermont, Fla. currently owns 30 career PBA Tour titles, including six career Majors, recently becoming the first player in PBA history to win three consecutive Majors as he captured the PBA World Championships in Wichita, Kan. earlier this season.

Duke started his career on the right path becoming the youngest player in PBA history to win a PBA Tour title at the young age of 18, when he captured the 1983 Cleveland Open. Duke, who is a two-time PBA Player of the Year (1994, 2000), also has been in the top 20 of both earnings and average every year since 1991, winning the George Young High Average Award four times (1991, 1994, '2005-06, '2006-07). Duke is currently sixth on the all-time TV appearances list with 100 singles appearances and ranks fourth on the all-time career money leaders list.

"To be inducted into the Hall of Fame, it's a requirement that you be a top notch bowler for a number of years," continued on page 6

USBC Seeks To Protect Interests of New York Members

ARLINGTON, TX—Attorneys representing the United States Bowling Congress appeared in court last week with the goal of protecting the interest of more than 85,000 USBC members in the state of New York.

Earlier this year, an audit discovered $274,000 was embezzled from the New York State USBC Bowling Association. Stephen Donahue of Weedsport, N.Y., the former NYSBA manager, is charged by New York authorities with felony grand larceny in connection with this case.

The audit revealed members of the NYSBA board of directors consistently failed to follow procedures designed to protect member interests and safeguard funds. In October, USBC revoked the charter of the NYSBA after this breach of fiduciary duty was discovered.

"USBC has a responsibility to step in and protect bowlers when board members of a state association fail to safeguard the funds entrusted to them," said USBC Chief Operating Officer Kevin Dornberger. "USBC remains confident the decision to revoke the NYSBA charter is correct both morally and legally. USBC is very concerned about the failures of leadership on the NYSBA board that enabled the embezzlement."

NYSBA has filed suit against USBC in an attempt to have its charter reinstated. A state judge has granted a temporary restraining order in the case until the next scheduled hearing on Jan. 12, 2009. At this time, the NYSBA charter remains revoked.

"USBC has and continues to take action in the best interest of members," Dornberger said. "The lawsuit is premature and without legal merit. We intend to vigorously defend our position and the best interest of bowlers in New York."

USBC will provide services directly to NYSBA members until this matter is resolved.

Reno To Host 2011 USBC Open Championships

ARLINGTON, Texas - The United States Bowling Congress has reached an agreement to bring the 2011 USBC Open Championships to the National Bowling Stadium in Reno, Nev.

The 2011 Open Championships was originally scheduled to be held in Osceola County, Fla., at a new 100-lane bowling facility in the ESPN Wide World of Sports complex on land made available by Walt Disney World. The current credit market delayed funding for a key third party involved with the construction project, jeopardizing the timeline for completion.

With the Open Championships now set to be held at the National Bowling Stadium in 2010 and 2011, USBC and the Reno-Sparks Convention and Visitors Authority are teaming up to provide unprecedented exciting incentives for bowlers who attend both tournaments. At the 2011 Open Championships:

* Every day, one bowler will win a high performance bowling ball.

* Every five weeks, one team captain will win a new car or truck.

* Team captains bringing four or more teams will receive a VIP stay complete with limo service and luxury hotel accommodations.

To be eligible for the incentive program, participation in both the 2010 and 2011 Open Championships is required.

"This agreement ensures the Open Championships has a first rate venue for 2011 and our partners in Reno stepped up to make it happen," said USBC Vice President of Tournaments and Events Jack Mordini. "The numbers show that the bowlers enjoy going to Reno and our relationship has been a great one over the years. With these new incentives, USBC bowlers will have a better chance at winning big in Reno than ever before."

The RSCVA, along with partner hotels, plan to develop additional unique benefit packages for USBC bowlers in the months ahead.

Malott & Feldman Claim Titles at CLR Carmen Salvino Scorpion Championship

Wes Malott, Carmen Salvino and Michelle Feldman

VERNON HILLS, Ill.—Wes Malott of Argyle, Texas, and Michelle Feldman of Auburn, N.Y., each captured titles at the CLR Carmen Salvino Scorpion Championship at Brunswick Zone Hawthorn on Sunday.

In a tight championship match, Malott watched as Ken Simard of Greenville, S.C., left a 10 pin on his second shot in the 10th frame, to give Malott the victory, 216-211. Malott could have locked out Simard, but also left a 10 pin on his second shot in the 10th to open the door for Simard.

"It's not the way you want to win, but I have four titles now and none have come from striking out ... I was either sitting on the bench or the game was over in the eighth frame," said Malott, who won the Discover Card Windy City Classic in Vernon Hills during the 2006-07 season. "I just have to keep plugging away and being patient. My goal is to keep winning a title each year, maybe multiple titles. Hopefully this is just the beginning."

Sunday marked Malott's third television appearance in six weeks and his fourth career victory. He now has won one title in each of his four seasons on Tour.

In the day's second match, Simard nearly rolled his third perfect game of the week, but left an 8 pin after 10 consecutive strikes and finished with a 289-199 win over Brad Angelo of Lockport, N.Y. Angelo advanced to meet Simard with a 225-212 win against Jason Couch of Clermont, Fla., in the opening match.

In the PBA Women's Series event, sponsored by USBC, Feldman defeated Missy Bellinder of Fullerton, Calif., 200-147 in the championship match. It was Feldman's third consecutive TV finals appearance and second consecutive title.

"I have no idea how I'm doing this," Feldman said. "I just feel fortunate that I'm bowling well. Hopefully I can keep this up and do it again next week."

Both Feldman and Bellinder qualified for the Women's Series Showdown, in which the winners (and runners-up if players win multiple titles) will participate in a season-ending sponsored by USBC and broadcast on ESPN.

The CLR Carmen Salvino Scorpion Championship was the third event in the PBA's six event "Versatility Swing," in which players can earn separate points based on their performance in each of the six events. These events include the five events on the animal patterns (Viper, Chameleon, Scorpion, Cheetah and Shark) as well as the Earl Anthony pattern that will be used in Medford, Ore.

The CLR Carmen Salvino Scorpion Championship also marks the only time all season the Scorpion pattern will be used as the sole pattern for an event.

The PBA will travel next to Cheektowaga, N.Y. for the Cheetah Championship with the finals airing live on ESPN on Sunday, Dec. 7.

CERRITOS—The Vegas league returned to Cerritos Lanes Monday for the third of five bowling dates and Jackie, at the control desk, had everything ready for us. Incidentally, Jackie is the mother of one of our favorite super subs, Teri Hefner.

Speaking of super subs, Kelly Trujillo had the day off from work and was on deck Monday to score league leading 240-567, followed by Jamie Vallier 540, Roberta McNaught 532, Gladyce Perrin 527, Betty Phillips 200-513, Doris Lewis 505, Dottie Lawn 498 and Virginia Gray 495.

Doris’ Hair Designs returned to league leadership Monday sporting 30 wins but David McNaught CPA is right behind them with 29.2, followed by Cerritos #2, 29; Keystone #2, 28.2; Westminster #1, 27; Keystone #1, 24; Cerritos #1, 23; Valley View #2, 22; Westminster #2, 21 and Cal Bowleros, 20.2. The rest of the league trail at 18 through 12.2.

Joan Roper brought Christmas shopping to the league Monday with beautiful hand made slippers, scarfs and bracelets. She will have them available through the next couple of weeks for those interested.

Also, remember, next four weeks, December 8-15-22-29 will be bowled at Linbrook Bowl at 9:30 a.m.. The Christmas party and optional gift exchange is slated December 22 with Charlie ‘Santa Claus’ Williams exchanging strike tickets for those participating.

Remember, $10 minimum and you must include your name on gifts. Roberta McNaught will chair the pot luck committee, supervised by Alberta Stoute, and we hope the event continues featuring a great menu. We never plan who brings what but for 51 years, it always seems to come out perfect from salads to deserts.

NEXT WEEK: Monday 9:30 a.m. December 8 at Linbrook Bowl.

MALUCCI HITS 7 STRAIGHT 700s, TEAM HITS 2733 AT RED ROCK LANES

LAS VEGAS—Certainly I did not expect Carl Malucci to report back to me that soon with his Team Nation foursome hit another scratch 2700 series but he did. A couple weeks after Team Nation hit a deaf mixed record 2745 series, Malucci informed me that his team did better collectively as in team work hitting 2733.

In that 2733 series , the team work resulted in Melchora Lee rolling 629, Joey Harris 668, Barrett Lee 666 and Carl himself a 770.

The team games were 897-897-939, the last game was short of the record 948. Malucci admitted that in his 770 (255-259-256), twice he had front 8 strikes stopped by solid 7 pin which he missed both times. He also had a split in his other game. So this fate kept the team score from getting higher.

Lets say Team Nation has a great anchor in Carl Malucci and as he goes they will go with him. I do not have the Red Rock Lanes’ Sunday Mixers League sheet. It is a handicap league and I wonder if the Team Nation’s 948 and 2745 are the top scratch scores in this league. Also is Malucci’s 811 the top scratch series?

Let us focus on Malucci’s 770 series. That is his 7th consecutive 700 series in this Sunday Mixers League. Coming off a run of 751-753-756-783-811-736 or you may say 8 out of 9 weeks with his 780-685 before that. I do not know of any deaf bowler with such consecutive scores. Some had runs of lower 700’s but not with 735 or better. For the 9 weeks Carl averaged 758 per week or 252.7 per game.

That is a lot of strikes and he is aiming for 10 straight weeks of 700s.. I am not pushing Malucci to make records and to report to me if any higher scores may have achieved. Granted that Red Rock Lanes is a new center just opened about a year or so ago and you may say that the lanes were easy to achieve high scores. Wait till PBA Tour hit there and we will see.

FISSER HIT 935 IN TAT 610 CLASSIC LEAGUE AT AMF CARTER

FULLERTON—It was a surprise that I got an email from Mark Fisser. Mark said he finally joined a 20 trios teams league, TAT 610 Classic scratch league at AMF Carter Bowl with Daniel Vasquez and a hearing man, Bob Herman. It is for first time since Men’s Mercantile scratch league that shut down Brunswick Orange Bowl 4 years ago this first deaf former (1986) ABC Star of Tomorrow has joined a league. In between that time Fisser just bowled in tournaments.

Mark informed that last Nov. 25 he rolled 258-200-266-213 for 935 in that league’s short oil pattern and next week the league will have long oil (Shark) pattern. He had several 900s before this 935 and is averaging 220. Also that Vasquez had shot a 4 games series of 1006 earlier for the league’s season high series and had been struggled lately as his average is down to 208.

Since his first ABTA title last June, Fisser had bowled in lot of scratch tournaments especially the ones that uses PBA oil patterns. He had bowled on Chameleon and Viper oil patterns and admitted that they are not easy at all. He plans to bowl on Friday 28th Scratch 10 Gamer at Brunswick Classic Lanes in Norco that will be using all the PBA 5 oil patterns, Shark, Viper, Scorpio, Chameleon and Cheetah. It will be a challenge for him.

As a former PBA member in early 1990’s, Mark is considering a return to PBA next summer. He knew he has to learn to bowl on PBA oil patterns before he does. I wish him the best and hope he will report his results back to me. Maybe he should try to enter the PBA Tour Dick Weber Classic at Fountain Bowl as an amateur before he joins.

Cerritos Lanes in Special Two Day Event This Weekend!

LAKEWOOD — Michael Kong stepped up and won the Big Thanksgiving special at Cal Bowl topping 544 entreats and taking home a nice $6,475 to Temple City.

This event had fair and semi-ough scoring conditions each day and the scores didn't vary more than 9 pins in the three day event making it very fair for out entrants.

This event saw much action and great payoffs for our members as the Match Game, Match Series and Big Shot pot were hit. There were some nice drawings and such also.

Due to the nice turnout 115 bowlers made the semis from each separate qualifying day and the Re Entry squad. They would bowl three games in hopes of making the top 32 single elim finals.

Leading the semis was Jonathan Morales at a great +152. He would sit out and bowl for the title. Ironically his father Abe was runner up at +125 and would receive a first round bye entering the roll-off in round two. It took a good +43 to make the top 32 including the seven guaranteed ladies.

The roll-off was on and losers of round one got checks of $200 in 18-32nd place. Round two, losers got $230 finishing in 10-18th places. Round three got $250 finishing in 6th thru 9th places.

We saw Vuong Do take out

Mike Villarreal and Tony Tang edged Loretta Lawson, Samson Kong got to last weeks champ Kris Ordonez and Jeff Taino downed Kenny Kwan.

Round four had Kong edge Taino 213-195. Do out struck Tony Tang 254-221. So Tony and Jeff were 4th and 5th and $315 with Kong and Do to go at it for the right to bowl Morales for the title.

This game was a big one but Do lost his shot and Kong advanced to the title game with a 233-183 win. Vuong was 3rd with a great showing at CAL.

The title game! Jonathan Morales vs Samson Kong for the big Bucks. Morales led off with two spares and Kong answered with a big three bagger to take a lead as Jonathan opened in frame 3 and seemed to have lost the shot that got him to the top. After Kong opened in frame 6 he had his chance with a strike but left a big 6-7 split in frame 7. After an open in the 9th, the tile went to Kong, as he struck out in a 220/244-145/182 win and a tidy $6,475 pay day. I have known this man for many years and he is a gentleman to the core and most deserving. He has many friends in the ABTA and his brother Michael is one of our finest also. Great Bowling by a great guy, Congrats Samson!

Great bowling by a nice young man Jon Morales who almost got the win! He took home $1,500. The Morales' are a bowling family as Dad Abe, Brother Jim and Sister Jerilyn all bowl in the ABTA and are fine people! Mom Narissa is the bowling fan:-) Vuong Do bowled well in third for $750.

The Match Game was shared by 7 of our fines, Jhoy Sarte, Gina Velarde, Anthony Dancel, Jamecart Alarcio, Glen Mabilangan, Orpah Tolliver and Tim Klepper. They got $500 each. The pot has a nice carryover of $930. We estimate the Match game at $2,300 at Cerritos.

Match Series was hit at 581 by the Champ Kong and Tri Vo. They shared the $926 and $463 each.

The Hot Shot Pot was hit by pretty Valerie Colian for $100 as she got the needed 9 or better. This is a free bonus to our bowlers from the ABTA. Congrats Valerie. The Colians are fine ABTA supporters and great people, Dad Pilbert, Mom, Beth, daughter Valerie and son Francis are all ABTA Members and bowlers.

The 3-6-9 was not hit but Greg Go and Mike Villarreal got $50 each for a consolation. The pot goes for $1,000 this week at Cerritos Lanes.

The Optional doubles were topped by Jun Contreras, and Je Je Gabriel, 1421 and $220. Je Je also teamed with Jeff

Ed Palma Wins Thanksgiving Weekend ABT Championship at Westminster Lanes

Our Thanksgiving Weekend Tournament saw 194 bowlers vie for the first place price of $3700. Our first squad was Wednesday night and 47 bowlers participated in the squad that offered guaranteed sidepots. The squads on Thanksgiving evening were smaller, but guaranteed sidepots were paid out at the end of each squad. Friday and Saturday squads were constant and the Sunday morning squads were busy.

After the semi-finals were completed, our top eight included Jeff Juckett, Orpah Toliver, Fred Ringor, J.T. Jackson, Ed Palma, Mike Malinick, Sammy Bacha and Ken Daleiden. The eight finalists drew for lane assignments and at the conclusion of the first round of matches, Orpha Toliver, Fred Ringor, J.T. Jackson and Ed Palma remained. The final four then bowled head to head to see who would come out on top. At the end, Ed Palma came out on top besting the final four with a score of 291, J.T. shot 230, Orpah shot 216 and Fred shot 213.

Our back-to-back champion, Ed Palma, is a lifetime ABT member and has been bowling for over 16 years. Ed is employed by the U.S. Postal Service. Ed sports a high game of 279 and 765 series. Ed was using a Storm Dimension drilled by Ben Mach for the win this weekend. Ed wanted to thank Ben Mach for drilling his equipment all his bowling buddies for their support and encouragement. Ed also wanted to thank Westminster Lanes for hosting the tournament and the ABT Directors and Staff for running an outstanding tournament.

The winners of the Take-2 Sweepers were paid out daily. The winners included, Mikey Villarreal, Zach Weiss, Terry Hlebasko, Adam Randal and Vuong Do.

The Mystery Game Pot game and score were drawn daily. On Wednesday night, game 2 was drawn. The first chance score of 134 (good for $400) was drawn. Our second chance score (good for $200) was 271. The third chance score (good for $100) was 159 and 248 was the fourth chance (good for a free entry). There were no winners. Thursday's results were game 1, first chance 189, second chance 282, third chance 106 and fourth chance 141. There were no winners. Friday's results were game 1, first chance 242, second chance 157, third 197 and fourth 108. Stan Por was the winner of the first chance and received a check for $400. Saturday was game three, scores were 300 for first, 227 for second, 159 for third and 246 for the fourth. There were no winners. Sunday's drawing was game one; scores were first chance 202, second 251, third 292 and fourth 216. There were no winners. The Mystery Pot is available to all members (Classic and Masters) and only costs $5.

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD — Thanksgiving Day is over and now it's time to get ready for the holidays in December. Some people are very creative and like to make their gifts, others may still be working on their shopping lists, or maybe you took advantage of those great deals on Black Friday. If you need help with gift ideas, inquire at the front desk or check the pro shop.

Our list of honor scores is not as long this week due to the Thanksgiving holiday. Look at what was reported by our Cal Bowl bowlers.

BY NICE AND SWEET

STUDIO CITY — ‘Tis the season so they say. But what should we all consider when the proverbial snow descends upon us, “Go to Pinz”. As always we wish everyone a safe and happy holiday season, but don't you think a ferw rousing games of 10 pin bowling are in order? We do. It's the only way to vent that pent up anger towards other shoppers and the busyness of December. Take advantage of our center while you have a break, maybe on a lunch break perhaps.

PINZ ADULTS

The snowmen and elves have worked very hard this past week to decorate our center. Just to bowl here would inspire many of you Kris Cringle's to shed a tear over the pure beauty of your surroundings. Many of you have the holiday spirit and believe me it has shown this past week. Here are the scores:

Tavern Guild: Mark Peavey 258/672, Jeff Pifko 267/655, David Quam 245/628, Eric Walther 225, James Theodoulos 222.

Twilighters: Jim Moore 236/648, Ron Koblin 278/642, Robert Lerman 255/620, Shin Takei 256/616, Bob Riffle 605, Tony Viacava 245.

Kings and Queens: David McKennett 223/610, Ross Goldman 2243/605, Richard Fischer 604, Eric Erickson 222/603, Kevin Collins 224/603, Tony Ferrari 223.

Funseekers: Tony Annibale 289/770, Zoran Jacimovic 278/729, Chuck Alexander 251/720, Marvin Nance 687, Dave Dittlinger 670, Dane Price 267, George Martinez 252.

PINZ JUNIORS

You need to get out a pen.....Don't worry, we'll wait.....OK, so breaking news. Come in Wednesdays after school. We have the best offer around, 3 games, shoe rent and instruction from our USBC certified coaches for only $10. It won't be beat. Welcome back and we'll have scores next week.

PINZ SENIORS/LADIES

Your age is just not a number to us. The only number that matters is the amount of points you have earned while being a part of Club 55. You can get free games just by having 12 points, it's a very good deal. You kept bowling great this week and here are the scores to prove it:

Happy Timers: Ken Burkenheim 222/582, Jack Burkenheim 547, Ruth Swick 183/449, Yolanda Dragotta 156/427, Gary Olsen 191.

Breakfast Club: Myrna Schiffman 201/517, Christine Stark 225/491, Pam Vaughan 178/474, Charlene Gaffney 449, Gerry Jarvis 166/437, Donna Klein 165.

Joslyn Seniors: Bob Taylor 203/555, Sol Stein 536, Audrey Bales 206/477, Teri Bonato 185/464, Arnold Freedman 187.

Bowler of the Week: This week's best bowler was Ron Koblin, a fine man. He bowled a terrific 278 during Twilighters. His eyes must have been twinkling from our extravagant decorations. Great bowling, Ron.

Sweetness Joke of the Week: What's the favorite Christmas Carol of new parents? Silent Night. Where do mistletoe go to become famous? “Holly” wood!

2008 CUSBC PRINCE/PRINCESS TOURNAMENT WINNERS

OROVILLE—The California USBC Prince/Princess Tournament for bowlers with a 175 or lower average, was held at Tyme To Bowl Lanes in Oroville on October 17 – 19, 2008. The handicapped tournament consisted of a six (6) game Singles Event (2 three game blocks), changing lanes each block.

Congratulations to our Prince, L. T. Ingram from Imperial Valley USBC and our Princess, Kerry Billings from the Santa Clara County USBC.

Our Princess, Kerry posted a total score of 1399 to win her division. Kerry and her family moved to California in 1974 and have been bowling since that time. At 9 years of age, Kerry was asked to sub for a friend's team, which was the beginning of 30 years of bowling so far, while meeting and making many friends along the way. In 2007, Kerry took a break from bowling to have some heart surgery. She's completely recovered and healthy now. Her plans for the future include increasing the number of tournaments she's bowling in and devoting more spare time to learn and grow more in her favorite sport. Kerry is currently serving on the Santa Clara County USBC Board of Directors.

Our Prince, L.T. Ingram posted a total score of 1400 to win his division. L.T. began bowling at the age of 32 in 1965, in a company league, Richfield Oil Co. (now known as Arco) At the time he retired from Arco in 1985, L.T. was bowling most of his leagues at Cal Bowl in Lakewood. During all his years of bowling, L.T. posted a high game of 289 and several 700 series. His highest average was a 204. For the past several years, L.T. and wife Joyce have been bowling at the Sports Alley on the Naval Air Facility near their home. In June 2008, the new El Centro Brunswick Zone XL opened it doors in the Imperial Valley and L.T. and his wife are now enjoying this beautiful new center, bowling one league a week. L.T. also had some major surgery this past year and is recovering nicely.

A total of 56 Men bowled in the Prince Tournament and 222 Ladies bowled in the Princess Tournament this year. The prize fund was based on the number of entrants in each division, paying a ratio of 1 for each 6 entries.

We hope to see all of you next October. Watch for the date and the location for the 2009 tournament to be announced. Please check the CUSBC web site at www.calusbc.com for additional information.

A complete description of all USBC Holiday eBay Auction items will be listed on bowl.com starting Tuesday, Dec. 2, and on eBay.com under the key word "usbcscholarships" when the auction is underway.

Winning bidders will be contacted on Monday, Dec. 15 but their identities will not be announced to the general public until after Dec. 25 to protect secrecy over the holidays.

Since the annual Holiday eBay Auction was launched in 2004, more than $100,000 has been raised for the Anthony Scholarship Fund. Named in honor of the late bowling superstar who died in 2001, the fund is administered by USBC's SMART program. Each year USBC awards five $5,000 scholarships in Anthony's name to deserving student-athletes based upon academic achievement and civic involvement. Over the past five years, 25 young bowlers have received $125,000 in scholarship assistance, thanks to the Anthony Scholarship program.

Ibarra, Low and Glover Win JST Titles at Brunswick Covina Bowl

COVINA—Sunday Nov. 23rd found the JST at Brunswick Covina Bowl, it was JST’s first time at this bowl and the turn out was great. I would like to thank Susann and the staff for all their great help and support, it was fun. I can’t forget our sponsors with out them this would be real difficult, big thank you to Roto Grip Bowling Products, Sports Innovators, Pins & Needles Emb.

Handicap Division Alex Ibarra a young bowler from their youth program came to bowl that Sunday like no one had ever seen him bowl before. You talk about being in the zone well I think Alex found it and would not let it go, he entered the tournament with a 78 average but he did not average under 120 the first 5 games. He led the field into match play with 1087, Lauren Langer right after him with 1021 Alex got not only high point for series he also shot high game for additional 5 pts. Match play had no change for Alex he held on to #1, Ashley Dunn jumped into the #2 spot with Ryan Pekins taken over 3rd seed. Ryan went to work in the roll off and rolled a nice 202 to Ashley’s 179, Ryan was then up to meet Alex who kept rolling and stopped Ryan with a 220 to his 181.

Advance Division found Wesley Low determined to make a run for the titles this week and he did so with style. Wesley led the field with a +109 for 5 into match play, giving him the series points, he also shot the high game of 258 for the game points, runner up games came from David Phillips 247, Courtney Schultz 246, Henry Chang Wo 245, Alex fisher 241, Donald German 237. Wesley held on to the #1 spot by winning 2 of 3 matches, Shaun Morad moved up to #2 winning 3/3, Donald German dropped to #3 Jordon Davis made a valiant run by winning all 3 but just missed. In the first match Donald rolled a 238 to def Shaun’s 213. It was now the champion match Donald up to meet Wesley, they fought and kept everyone on the edge of their seat to a 245 vs 245 tie. Wesley won the 9th & 10th frame roll off to win his first title in the Advance division.

Open Div. found Jeremy having a field day going 305 over right behind him was Brandon Pekins +110, Deeronn Booker + 104, Charlie Hair +101, the cut was set at Mike Bronstein at +13. Jeremy walked away with high points for series and game 280, 279, 267, Mark Curtis 265, Jerome Jordan 258, Casey Lescano, Deeronn Booker, & Nick Alford all had a 257 game. Jeremy lost the line and only won 1 match but held on to the #1 spot, Deeronn Booker went 2/1 to take #2, Charlie Hair did the same to move to #3, just ahead of Brandon Pekins who also went 2/1, Joey Chuo came in 5th. In the first match Brandon lost to Charlie Hair 200 – 164, Charlie next was up to meet Deeronn and in a close match won with 257 to 250, Charlie was now up to meet Jeremy for the title and Jeremy found the line again rolling 268 to 224.

Our next tour is at Brunswick Moreno Valley Bowl Dec. 21, until then please have a wonderful and safe Holiday.

“We are extremely pleased to have been selected as the host city for the 2011 USBC Open Championships,” said RSCVA President and Chief Executive Officer Ellen Oppenheim. “We are looking forward to opening our doors and providing an unparalleled experience for championship participants.”

USBC remains optimistic that the Osceola County facility will open by 2012, which means the 2013 USBC Women’s Championship would be the first USBC event held there.

“The impact of the credit crisis continues to be felt across the country,” said USBC Chief Operating Officer Kevin Dornberger. “We recognize our members on the East Coast would like to see the Open Championships closer to home. The project in the Orlando area may not be ready in 2011, but we are committed to seeing an arena for bowling in this ideal location.”

As the Open Championships continues to grow, fewer cities have large enough venues available to host the event. The Open Championships requires 100,000 square feet of convention center floor space for seven consecutive months.

“USBC has talked with nearly every potential host city in the eastern portion of the country,” Mordini said. “City leaders are increasingly cautious about booking one event for seven months straight, even one with a proven track record of success like the Open Championships.”

The USBC Open Championships is the largest participatory sporting event in the world with nearly 85,000 athletes competing during a 140-day stretch from late February through early July. The Open Championships creates an estimated $100-million impact for the local economy of the host city.
