Malaysia's Ismail Wins Singles Gold

HONG KONG – Malaysia's Rafiq Ismail, a finalist for the PBA Rookie of the Year award in 2018, won the gold medal in singles Saturday at the 2018 World Bowling Men's Championships.

The left-hander entered the singles medal round as the No. 3 seed and defeated No. 4 seed Dan MacLelland of Canada, 217-204 to take the title at the South

China Athletic Association Bowling Centre in Hong Kong.

In a tense semifinal match, Ismail took down No. 2 seed Kyle Troup of the United States, 171-170, and threw a clutch strike to open the final frame to help him advance.

In the first semifinal, MacLelland eliminated top seed Andrew Anderson of the United States, 256-170.

Malaysia Wins Doubles At Worlds

HONG KONG – Malaysia has long been a country that has been in the hunt to win gold medals at past World Bowling Men's Championships but always seemed to come up a little short. The lone exception was the gold medal Malaysia won in the 1979 trios event. Now, the Malaysians have won two gold medals in two days at the 2018 World Bowling Men's Championships after capturing the doubles event.

Adrian Ang and Tun Hakim defeated Team USA's EJ Tackett and Andrew Anderson, 433-370, in the gold-medal match at the South China Athletic Association Bowling Centre in Hong Kong. The victory came a day after Rafiq Ismail won the singles gold medal for Malaysia.

Hakim fired a 228 game, while Ang shot 205 in the title bout, while Tackett had 196 and 2018 PBA Player of the Year Anderson only managed 174.

It was the second straight day the United States was left disappointed after a medal round. During Saturday's singles medal round, Team USA finished with a pair of bronze medals with Anderson and Kyle Troup losing their semifinal matches. In Sunday's doubles semifinals, Tackett and Anderson put up a big game in defeating Korea's Park Jongwoo and Kim Kyungmin, 495-377. Tackett shot 259, while Anderson had 236.

Malaysia's Hakim fired 262 in the other semifinal, while Ang shot 196 to defeat Canada's Dan MacLelland and Francois Lavoie, 458-412. It was the second medal of these World Championships for MacLelland, who earned the silver in singles.

10th Anniversary PBA World Series of Bowling to Return to its Original Home in Suburban Detroit

Five consecutive nights of national television coverage on FS1 set for March 2019

ALLEN PARK – The 10th anniversary Professional Bowlers Association World Series of Bowling will return to its original home at Thunderbowl Lanes in suburban Detroit in March where it will write a new chapter in bowling history with five consecutive nights of prime-time national television coverage on FS1.

PBA's World Series of Bowling, created in 2009 as a multi-event series of tournaments, has grown into the most important international event in bowling, annually attracting the most talented bowlers from around the world. And the 2019 WSOB X will continue the trend, concluding with an historic television package including four consecutive nights of live championship tournament finals telecasts – Monday through Thursday, March 18, 19, 20 and 21 – plus a USA vs. The World team match featuring the World Series' top performers on Friday, March 22.

The five consecutive nights of prime-time coverage is a first in bowling history, and an important segment in the PBA's 60th consecutive year of national television coverage. All five two-hour shows, part of the 2019 Go Bowling! PBA Tour season, will air on FS1 at 8 p.m. EST from the famous arena bay inside historic Thunderbowl Lanes in Allen Park, Mich.

WSOB X, which gets underway on March 10, will include four championship tournaments: the PBA Cheetah 33, Chameleon 39 and Scorpion 42

Championships plus the 2019 PBA World Championship which will include an elite field of players based upon their overall performances in the three preliminary "animal pattern" events that will be contested on distinctly different lane oiling patterns. The PBA World Championship will be contested on the Earl Anthony 43 oiling pattern. Each event's numerical designation indicates the distance oil is applied down the lane.

A total of 115 PBA members will be invited to compete in the World Series, based upon their composite WSOB earnings between 2015-17, plus any PBA Tour title winner who has not qualified on the composite earnings list. A pre-tournament qualifier will be held on March 10 at Thunderbowl to allow other PBA members to compete for all remaining berths in the 135-player field.

Fans can pre-order tickets for the World Series by visiting PBA.com (<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/pba-world-series-of-bowling-x-tickets-49606041004>).

Team USA Wins Trios Gold At Worlds

HONG KONG – After two days of disappointing performances in medal rounds, Team USA finally broke through Monday to win its first gold medal of the 2018 World Bowling Men's Championships.

The United States threesome of Kyle Troup, EJ Tackett and Andrew Anderson defeated Indonesia's Billy Islam, Hardy Rachmadian and Ryan Lalisang, 632-551, to win the trios gold medal at the South China Athletic Association Bowling Centre in Hong Kong.

Troup led the way for Team USA in the gold-medal match with 229, while Tackett had 223 and Anderson shot 180. For Indonesia, Lalisang had 189, Islam shot 183 and Rachmadian had 179.

E.J. Tackett, Kyle Troup and Andrew Anderson

The trios victory was the first in the event for Team USA since 2010 when Patrick Allen, Rhino Page and Wes Malott won the event in Munich, Germany.

In the semifinals, the United States put up a big score in defeating Korea, 695-654. Tackett shot 245, Troup had 243 and Anderson totaled 207. Korea was led by Kim Kyungmin's 243 game with Koo Seong-hoi shooting 212 and Park Jongwoo 199.

Indonesia advanced in the semifinals with a 632-

591 win over Sweden. Lalisang led the way for Indonesia with 235 and was followed by Rachmadian (216) and Islam (181). For Sweden, Mattias Wetterberg had 202, Jesper Svensson shot 195 and Martin Larsen had 194.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: BAILEY WINS SOUTHWEST TITLE IN BEAUMONT

PBA Southwest Region veteran Mike Bailey of Irving, Texas, won his seventh career regional title in the Beaumont Southwest Open Sunday at Crossroads Bowling Center in Beaumont, Texas, defeating Anthony Lavery-Spahr of Pasadena, Texas, by 18 pins to claim the $2,500 first prize.

Bailey posted a 4-4 match play record in the final round, but needed a 258-202 win over Lavery-Spahr in the final match to claim the title. Lavery-Spahr finished with a 4,853 pinfall total for the 21-game event. David Scardaville of Houston was third with 4,653 pins followed by Sean Lavery-Spahr in fourth with a 4,622 total.

• The November PBA Regional calendar comes to a close over the Nov. 30-Dec. 2 weekend with the Knob Hill/MJK Pro Shop Challenge (a non-champions event) presented by Brunswick at Knob Hill Country Lanes in Manalapan, N.J.; the PBA50 Victory Lanes Midwest Open presented by Allstate in Kankakee, Ill.; and the re-scheduled Break Point Alley Member/Non-Member Doubles in Tavares, Fla.

ILLINOIS NATIVE BOBBY JAKEL TO

MANAGE PBA MIDWEST REGION

LOCKPORT, Ill., native Bobby Jakel, the PBA Central Region manager since 2006, will succeed Rich Weber as PBA Midwest Region manager at the start of the 2019 season.

Jakel, a 49-year-old graduate of Illinois State University where he majored in psychology and bowled with the Redbirds for four years, will become the PBA Midwest Region's seventh manager, following in the footsteps of Pat Patterson, Ray Bluth, Don McClaren, Dick Weber, John Weber and Rich Weber. He also will continue to manage the PBA Central Region.

"I'm looking forward to handling duties in both regions and seeing Midwest bowlers more often," Jakel said.

Bowling:

The Greatest Sport in the World. Here's Why!

by Fred Eisenhammer

WINNETKA – So why is bowling the greatest sport in the world?

Maybe I should rephrase that.

Perhaps I should ask: Why is bowling the greatest sport in the world to so many of us devoted to the sport?

There's a reason for that.

And it's embodied in the spirit and enthusiasm of Geoff Gast.

Geoff is a diminutive firebrand who admittedly is not the greatest athlete in the world. But this charismatic right-hander has found a sport where at times he can perform at a level higher than all the great ones – the Pete Webers, the Earl Anthonys, the Norm Dukes.

Admittedly, that's with his handicap included. But no matter.

That minor fact doesn't short-circuit Geoff's touching adoration of the game.

Once when Geoff bowled particularly well for his league team, he enthused, "It was like I was being Shaq and Kobe and leading the way. I was being the Big Fella and the big man and bringing home the win."

In July, Geoff blasted his first 200 game after bowling in leagues for eight years. He finished with a smoking-hot 211, and that translated into a stratospheric 310 with handicap – the best in the league.

That's why bowling is the greatest sport in the world. When Geoff Gast can bowl 10 pins higher than any pro bowler potentially can – with handicap, of course – that provides a feeling of accomplishment that other sports have trouble matching.

Bowling is for white collar, blue collar, any collar. In any one frame, one can bowl a strike and no pro bowler can do better. The pro may snake a well-crafted hook neatly into the pocket and blow up the pins. But anyone off the street can toss a straight ball and hit the head pin head-on or on either side of the head pin and finish with the same strike result.

Heck, bowlers have been known to miss the head pin entirely and because of a wicked chain reaction of dominos, they can strike too.

Bowling is an equalizer. Form and accuracy win out in the long run. But in the short term, who knows?

In any one frame, Geoff Gast can outperform Pete Weber.

Actually, in a game, Geoff Gast can outperform Pete Weber.

Geoff was up to his "Big Fella" tricks last week at Winnetka Bowl when he drilled a career-best 484 series. He was so excited that he announced his feat on Facebook:

"Last night in league play, I bowled a 168, 148 and a 168," Geoff wrote. "I had 11 strikes and nine spares. I bowled a 161 average. My league average is 119."

That series translates into a whopping 781 with handicap. Don't be surprised if Geoff reaches 800 soon.

Geoff is definitely a winner – and he's a winner regardless of what he bowls.

Geoff Gast smoked a 781 handicap series last week. His many bowling achievements represent what makes bowling the great sport that it is. Photo by Fred Eisenhammer has adopted a new charity!

The California Bowling Writers

Operation Freedom Paws nonprofit organization was founded by "California Bowler and Veteran"
Mary Cortani in 2010 that has provided service dogs and training support to veterans and others who suffer from post-traumatic stress syndrome, complex PTSD, traumatic brain injury and other physical, neurological, psychological and mobility needs. According to experts, service dogs help empower people with disabilities to live quality lives.
Operation Freedom Paws carefully matches clients with their specially chosen four-legged companions, most of which come from rescue shelters. The partners then begin a 48-week program which trains the clients to train their own dogs. At the end of the program, they're certified together as service dog teams.
The charity for 2018 kicked off on June 10, at the CUSBC meeting – Make donations payable to

1987 – PART 2

by Carol Mancini

We left off the last of March and ready to pick up the good stuff in April. So come on along, it will be fun to check the facts.

- April 10, 1987 front page headlines shouted the accomplishments of the top match bowlers in So. Calif. KEVIN GANNON and KENNY BAYER were elected to So. Calif. Hall of Fame. DENNIS HORAN won his sixth PBA Regional in one year. GLENN ALLISON rooted on DON SAPLIS one night at KEYSTONE when DON started the evening with the first 17! BOB MILLER rolled a 300 on Friday the 13th.
- The Ladies All Star Trio League at KEYSTONE LANES rostered the best in the west. Here are a few: CIPPY CAKE, SHIRLEY KATUSIC, THERESE ABAIR, CAROL MURBACH, AMY HIRT, MARY JO LIGHT - - - - all averaged over 190. These gals were always in skirts, sponsored shirts and high kickers.
- DONNA ADAMEK was teaching senior citizen classes at SOUTH BAY BOWL.
- SHERYL POOLE won the San Gabriel Valley Queens tourney.
- CAROL JOYCE was elected President of the L.A. Women's Ass'n.
- DUDLEY PEEBLES - - - flash back ladies. He was the state photographer. Always there with camera in hand and a pen for his checkbook. A true gentleman. Team pictures were his specialty for years!
- Looking back three years I wrote about the beginning of a new tournament club — The Sunbelt Bowlers Tour. Would it survive with so much competition? Three years later they were guaranteeing $10,000 first place and $25,000 over- all for their "Sunshine Bowl" tournament.
- Still having weekly tournaments — Amateur Bowlers Tour, S & E Bowlers Tour, NBAC, Roll'n Donkee, Touring Amateur Bowlers, RMC Tour Classic, CBA, J.A.T., P.C.B. just to name the ones that advertised.
- Closing in April and May of 1987 — SIERRA VISTA BOWL and RED FOX LANES.
- BETTY SCHLEGEL was CAL STATE WOMEN'S PRESIDENT. LINDA JOHNSON was a director. (LINDA became State President later on.) REMEMBER — WE ARE BACK IN 1987 !!!
- Looking good was the L.A.B.A. MASTERS finalists. Champ BILL STREET and 2nd BILL SNOBERGER.
- Ground was broken for BRUNSWICK CLASSIC LANES in NORCO. Estimated cost for the 40 laner was $4 million.
- GEORGE BRANHAM III, ARLETA, was the first African American to win a national title on the P.B.A. Tour. Based on a couple of wins, BRANHAM was named Touring Pro of the Year 1987.
- Orange Co. B.A. donated $26,120 to B.V.L. Tops in the national.
- The PASQUALE family — ARENA BOWL invited RED FOX bowlers a new home. Some RED FOX employees are still working in local centers in 2018!
- A young FRANK BELLINDER was pictured receiving congrats for his 300 game at KEYSTONE LANES.
- The Southeast District Service Club League celebrated their 58th season at GAGE BOWL. They started in 1928 at the 8 lane HUNTINGTON PARK RECREATION CENTER, then on to SOUTH GATE BOWL.
- PETE WEBER beat JIM MURTISHAW, ART TRASK, MARK ROTH and MIKE AULBY to win the Firestone and earn $50,000.
- ROY FIRESTONE was elected to PBA Hall of Fame. No FIRESTONE without him!
- SUSAN LOVE was pictured week after week. Why? She kept cashing, cashing, cashing.
- FRED EASTWOOD had a slogan for his pro shop "I'll give you a fit".
- The Saturday night "Pot Shot" at DEL RIO LANES was in it's fifth year. The "Pot Shot" was a spin-off of Mancini's "HOT POTS" at GRAND CENTRAL. All no-tap and instant pay-offs.
- RUDY HINOJOSA was a past manager of VERDUGO HILLS BOWL and current manager at WESTBROOK. He made the rounds over the years - - - - - like about 6 others. Eventually they would find a fit.
- Mr. WON YI was the Sunbelt champ at "VALLEY VIEW". Mr. YI won a lot in 1987.
- The California State Youth Championships was held in Fresno. STACY RIDER was the girls scratch champ. SANFORD CARVAJAL was the boys champ.
- ART JACKSON was the bowling manager at CAL BOWL. They had over 4,000 league bowlers and had leagues 24 hours a day! Build airplanes and bowl - - - - that was life in Lakewood.
- SMILER! The "Lip Flippers" team out of Orange County was leading the C.W.B.A. Tournament in San Diego. Did they win? ? ?
- RED PFEIFFER was publisher of "The Bowling World".
- VIRGINIA BOWLING CENTER in Long Beach was on the Pike. Kids used balls that were half sized. The PIKE! ! AAhhhh. Good Times!
- In April and May of 1987 DEL RIO LANES was accepting deposits for the fall Whitlock Vending League. When a first place team is guaranteed $20,000, the Southlands best didn't want to be left out!
- ALLEN SHAW was proprietor of CORBIN BOWL. (we never heard from him after he moved to Hawaii.)
- PETE WEBER won the Firestone and passed his Dad in money earned and tournaments won.
- PHIL KAPSIMALLIS ran over BOB LINSLEY, MIKE TUCKER, PAT BYRNE, and DOUG KEMP on his way to grab the Sunbelt Scratch trophy.
- GEORGE BRANHAM 111, and RANDY PEDERSON teamed up to win the PBA REGIONAL at GRANADA HILLS.
- RON GAUDERN was named Executive of the Year by the Bowling Writers. He owned COLUMBIA BOWL in Duarte, 2 in San Antonio and WESTERN COLUMBIA in San Gabriel. Ron was on the Falstaff Beer team with Billy Welu, Dick Hoover, Harry Smith and Glenn Allison. Tired of being on the road he stuck with Columbia - until he retired. Quite a man!
- KEN and GAYLE RACETTE both shot 300 in their leagues at FRONTIER LANES in San Diego. Each registered an 800 series the season before. Both had composites average of 207 this year.
- California bowlers donated $258,064.28 to the year's B.V.L. Fund, Ventura was top donor.
- KEYSTONE LANES and GREG CHAPIN became connected. Who knows the story?
- May 30, 1987 (half way thru the year) 26 centers had some kind of action going on for Memorial weekend. Congrats went Bryan Alpert, named Brunswick Rookie of the Year. 2018 deskman at KEYSTONE LANES, David Van Gaston won the ABTA at LINBROOK. THE "TOURING AMATEUR BOWLERS" CLUB proudly announced their banking problems" had been solved. TOM LEIGH won NBAC at CANOGA PARK. NBAC had their own league at MATADOR BOWL.

I'm sure you have memories of 1987. If you care to share-- send it!!

ANAHEIM – Hope everyone enjoyed their Thanksgiving and are back to work...on the lanes.

Our current hi-average, Terry Brent, determined to hold his prestigious Star Status, showed us how it is done! Terry rolled consistent great games of 249-237-258/744 and added 235 to claim high series for the day in the 590 Classic at 979. Next week his opponent will be facing a 220 average, should be a most interesting match!!

Lenny Huber has started a very rigid practice regime and it certainly paid off this morning as evidenced by his games of 226-238-oops 185 - 233 (after a quick adjustment), to post a fine 882 set.

Smooth-strokin Chris Hefner, not far behind, posted games of 203-228-239 and 191 for 861.

Louie Juarez, always in the game and only a few sticks behind Chris, tossed games of 279-205-180 and 195 to claim 859.

More Hot Scores: Don Gardner 279, Danny Janssens 245, Rose Williams 239, Andrea Fredericks 238, Ron Douglass 232, Mel Cabias 231, Dave Easel 224, Dick McKenzie 223, John Conway 223, Steve Sparks 222, Nick Lam 221, Carl Adinolfi 220, Bob Turner 217, Norm Wallker 211, Eleazar Munoz 210, Rod Cantrell 205, Adrian Bradley 203, Willy Bordenave 203, Jim Banaban 203 and Sandy Magana 200.

Until next week...

FYI: Our Christmas pot luck will be Dec. 21 so please bring your favorite dish to share...Yum!

DIAMOND BAR – Two people from our center will be inducted into the San Gabriel Valley USBC Hall of Fame on Dec. 15, 2018 at the Continental Restaurant at 2 pm.

Everyone is welcome to attend, the cost is $25.00 a person. They will be having a buffet luncheon. This just shows one reason to be a certified member of the USBC.

The first person who will be awarded is for the Youth Boy Bowler of the Year - Leoj Chin - He is an 11th grader and been bowling in our program since 2015. He started bowling back in 2007 at Bowlum with a 63 average and is now carrying a 200 average. He has a 300 game and several 750+ series. He bowls in two of our youth leagues, has gone to the Jr Gold Tournament for the past 2 years, attends as many tournaments as he can and has very devoted parents.

Receiving the Meritorious Service award is Annette Anderson. She has been involved with the bowling business for many years. She is currently our Youth Director but you will see her helping out everywhere in the center.

We would like to congratulate the other winners:

Superior Performance - Danny Ly
Female Bowler of the Year - Nicole Rayon
Male Bowler of the Year - Ryan Phipps

Remember if you would like to show your support to these winners you can attend this presentation. You don't have to be a member or even a bowler. Just call the San Gabriel Valley USBC offices at 626-337-6270, ask for Linda Johnson-Piliros, Association Manager to RSVP.

Well, the remodeling is continuing. Please stop by and see the upgrades. We have been updating the center the past few weeks, new carpet, chairs/tables on concourse and we are finishing up the flooring in the bowlers area.

The installations of the new seating in the bowlers area will be starting within the week, have lots more improvements on the way.

We will be having a NEW YEARS EVE PARTY, so if you're looking for safe fun to bring in the New Year, then come and make your reservations with us.

We have special rates for signing up early - $125 =Dec 1 - 15, $130 = Dec 16 - 25, $135 = Dec 26 - 30, $145 = Dec 31. You will get bowling-Thunder Alley from 9 pm to 1:30 am, party favors, Large 1 topping Pizza, Pitcher of soda, rental shoes and your lane put in the drawing with a guarantee of each lane winning once. Prizes will be given out every 5 minutes and a special drawing every 15 minutes.

We will be hosting the San Gabriel Valley USBC Adult & Youth Annual Championship Tournament in 2019. Get your team together! Support your local association!

Come visit our new beautiful center.

Go onto www.leaguesecretary.com and download your league sheets every week before bowling.

INVITATIONAL

CENTURY 21—PEAK TAKES THE LEAD WITH ONE WEEK TO GO

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY – There are three games left to bowl in the 2nd round of the Brunswick Invitational this season. Going into the final night of the round, Century 21—PEAK will hold the top position. Keystone Lanes will bowl against them, and needs four wins to overtake Century 21. J.A.T. still has hopes of the winning the round. Bowling Guys has a shot as well. J.A.T. and Bowling Guys will both need a substantial amount of help, as they'll need to sweep their match, and see a 4-1 win in favor of Keystone to force a tie.

Century 21—PEAK got to the top spot by sweeping all five games on Monday night from the Keystone Lanes squad. Jonathan Huff got them off to a great start by shooting a 247 in the first game on his way to a 665 series. Eddie Van Daniker helped as well, posting 227/611. Jeff Carr added a couple 200 games for good measure, sealing the deal for Century 21. All of the games were close, ranging from 19 to 33 pins, but all fell in favor of the C21 team. Herbert Jones led Keystone with a 230/621 set. Sol Cericos added a 219/598 in defeat.

With Keystone getting beat, Buddy's Bowling Supply had the best chance to move up to the top pair for the final week, but Sysco ruined their hopes. Buddy's took the first game, in a high scoring affair, 837-804, behind a nice 243 from Buddy Lucas. Sysco came back to take the next two games and totals though, giving them a four to one win in the match. Gabriel Martinez led the way, shooting a 255 in the final game for a 668 series. Paul Barraco gave some help with 226/606. Buddy Lucas topped the pair, but would have rather had the wins than his 690 series.

J.A.T. moves up to the second pair, only a game behind Keystone, following their 4-1 win over the Professional Approach. Anthony Santos had the big set of the night, leading the J.A.T. team with a 248-257-212/717 series. Kevin Valmonte started slowly but finished with a 267 game for 608 to help Santos out. Arnold Cheesman topped Professional Approach with a 227/632 set that helped them get the one win.

Bowling Guys started the night on the fourth pair of lanes, but following a 4-1 win over Cal Bowl, they will move up to the second pair and be the final team still with a chance at the round next Monday. Bowling Guys got beat in the first game by over 120 pins. Ramon Torres led Cal Bowl in that one with 225. Bowling Guys did get game two, but only by 12 pins, so they still trailed totals by over 100. The final game was all Bowling Guys though. They won by over 200 pins, giving them a 102 pin victory for Del Rio Lanes 7502 Florence Ave., Downey CA 90240 • (562) 927-3351 totals in an amazing turnaround. In the finale, Kevin Jones shot a 235. John Struckman was right behind with 233. And Bryan Osborne added a 210 for good measure, as team posted an 857 game.

DV8 took four out of five from Bowlum, but fell just short of remaining in contention for the round. Raul "Spanky" Rosales led the pair by more than 150 pins shooting a 278/698 set.

In a battle between two teams sponsored by liquor companies, vodka won out over tequila. 3 Olives Vodka swept past Don Julio Tequila by 130 pins in their match. Mikey Villarreal and Eric Snow led the way for 3 Olives with matching 617 series'. Macy Jimenez bowled well in defeat for Don Julio with a 210/602 of her own.

Ralphie Ramirez shot a great set on the next pair, leading Tito's Handmade Vodka to a sweep of Forest Lanes. Ramirez had games of 235, 229 and 247 for a 711 series. Tito's was never challenged in this match, winning totals by close to 400 pins in a tough night for Forest Lanes.

Captain Morgan got five big wins for the overall leader board by sweeping Threadworks. Joe Jimenez had a good look for Captain Morgan, shooting a 255/668 set.

On the final pair, insurance companies slugged it out and Herzog Insurance came out on top of Linders Insurance in every game, for a 5-0 win. Scores were low on the pair, as Herzog Insurance got the five wins in spite of not having a single bowler break 475 for the series. Joey Hanna of Linders Insurance led the pair with 536.

Anthony Santos took the first sidepot of the night with 248. Jon Huff missed by only one pin, getting second place money for 247. Spanky Rosales won the second game with 278. Santos cashed again, this time in second place, with a 257 game. The final game superpot paid $158 to Gabriel Martinez for a 255 game. Herbert Jones was the runner up with 230.

Spanky Rosales was the Financial Advisors pot winner with his 278 game for an additional $185. The $100 second place money went to Anthony Santos.

After next Monday, we'll have a second team qualified for the playoffs at the end of the season. Who will join Sysco as playoff qualified? Century 21—PEAK controls their own destiny. So does Keystone Lanes if they sweep. What about J.A.T.? Or Bowling Guys? It's going to be an exciting conclusion. Swing in to Del Rio Lanes next Monday to get a front row seat. The bowling begins at 8:30.
