Jurek Ends Record 14-Year Title Quest in PBA Shark Championship

ALLEN PARK, Mich.— Jack Jurek of Lackawanna, N.Y., ended a Professional Bowlers Association record 14-year void between titles when he defeated Mike Fagan of Patchogue, N.Y., in a one-ball, sudden-death roll-off to win the PBA Shark Championship at Thunderbowl Lanes.

In the final PBA “animal pattern” championships of the inaugural PBA World Series of Bowling which aired Sunday on ESPN, Kelly Kulick of Union, N.J., defeated Carolyn Dorin-Ballard of Keller, Texas, 198-182, to win the women’s Shark Championship.

Jurek, at age 46, ended his 14-year, 175-day quest for his second Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour title when he struck in the roll-off after he and Fagan had tied a 218-218, and then watched Fagan missed the headpin. It was a heart-stopping finish after an equally tense final frame that saw Jurek falter when victory was an eyelash away.

A pair of doubles early in the game gave Jurek an edge, but he let Fagan back into the match when he left the “Big Four” 4-6-7-10 split in the sixth frame. Jurek jumped back into command with strikes in the eighth and ninth frames, and on his first ball in the 10th. Needing only a nine-count/spare to lock up the title, Jurek left the 3-6-10. He got the spare, and held his breath.

Fagan, with a strike in the ninth, needed three more in the 10th to win by a pin. He got the first two, but left a 10 pin on his last shot to send the match into overtime.

“I got the first strike and gave myself a chance,” Jurek said, “but then the chills that went up my spine were indescribable. That was 15 years of waiting for the opportunity, and it was a little too much for me to handle at the moment. I thought about taking a rack, but I didn’t want to give myself too much time to think about what I was going to do.

“But it was overwhelming. I took a deep breath and thought I had myself under control. But three pins? I thought it was another opportunity I let slip away,” he confessed. “I was fortunate (Mike) left a pin on his third shot.”

Shark Champions Jack Jurek & Kelly Kulick

Jurek had the right to bowl first in the roll-off, so he took a calculated risk.

“The last four shots (Fagan) threw on the left lane, he struck,” Jurek said. “The right lane was a little trickier. I was just kind of banking on the fact that I could throw the first strike and he’d leave something, and it worked out.”

It was not the result Jurek had grown to expect in his career. In 10 previous television appearances, he had averaged a respectable 223.8, but he had a 3-9 won-lost record because his opponents were averaging nearly 250 against him. In the Shark Championship, it was Jurek’s turn, racing to a 255-213 victory over reigning PBA Player of the Year Wes Malott of Pflugerville, Texas, to advance to the championship match.

“It was nice to finally not have 250 shot at me,” Jurek grinned. “The odds were in my favor.”

Jurek knew it had been a continued on page 9

Chris Barnes Thanksgiving Tournament a Big Success

Patrick, Thomas, & Cruz Division Winners

by Jim Goodwin

Plano, Texas—The 5th Annual Chris Barnes Thanksgiving Youth Classic Tournament, sponsored by Columbia 300, drew 390 entries to Plano Super Bowl from several States this year, and it was made more special by the presence of event namesake Chris Barnes. Because of the new PBA schedule this year, Barnes was not committed to bowl on tour and was able to personally attend the event. “I loved it,” he said. “I was able to keep up a little bit in previous years by phone and email because Lynda was here, but it doesn’t compare to being able to see all the players and the level of talent these kids have. It is much better than when I was their age, and this was a lot of fun for me.”

The three division winners that Barnes got to present trophies to were Dimitri Cruz Denton, Texas in the Grades 5-8 Scratch Division, Cody Thomas Siloam Springs, Arkansas in the 184 and below Average handicap Division, and John Patrick New Smyrna Beach, Florida in the 185 and Above Scratch Division.

Cruz won $555 in scholarship money, Thomas took home $1000, and Patrick won a scholarship prize of $1,555. “I put a lot of hard work into getting ready for this event with my coach Tom Blasco in Florida,” said Patrick. “That gave me a lot of confidence, and it paid off.” Patrick, a senior in high school, was bowling in his first Barnes Event.

16-year-old Thomas has bowled in all five Chris Barnes events, and he credited consistency for his victory. “My low game was 174, and my high was 212, so the key for me was just making my spares and being consistent,” he said. “I’ve never made the finals before, so winning really means a lot to me.”

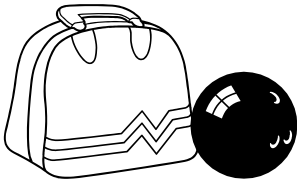

In addition to the scholarship prizes, eight bowlers won USBC Junior Gold Tournament entries during the qualifying rounds. They were Christopher Thomas, Ashley Rucker, Brandi Stephens, Dylan Bunyard, Alex Hartlein, Julianna Stockham, Andrew Buchholz, and Andrew Claus. Several more won Columbia bowling balls and bags during the event.

On Saturday, Chris and Lynda Barnes conducted a 75-minute classroom session. They gave tips about how to play lanes, and talked about their experiences on Team USA and the professional tours. “Youth bowling is the most important part of our sport, and the scholarship events across the country are the best they have ever been,” said Barnes. “These events are producing some very talented young bowlers, and we are proud to do our part to help”

THREE WAY TIE AT THE TOP

DOWNEY — The gap between 8th place and first is a mere 5 games, which could change real fast under the "Position Ever Week" format. The five win points available makes moving up possible and sliding down probable.

For instance, the "J.A.T." team five weeks ago was in 10th place and is now one of the top three. Their 4 game win over "Western Pacific" Monday night proves the power!

There was only one 600 series among the 8 guys, but playing on the second round USBC Open condition, a healthy 500 feels good.

<If you watched the tortuous condition on the PBA Show Sunday and saw the pros struggle, imagine yourself trying to match wits with an oil slick.>

The "J.A.T." set stats: Larry campbell 477, Ken McElvaney 552, Matt Jones 568, David Yamauchi 615.

The "Western Pacific Bowling Supply" foursome supplied consistent scores, but shy a few sticks each game. Gabriel Martinez 511, Leonard Ruis Jr. (Mr. 870) 542, Herman Ferguson 545, Ramon Torres 591.

Other scores worth some print includes Phillip Sujo 620, Arnold Cheesman 627, Brent Shern 711, Paul Barraco 242, David Yamauchi 242, Bruce Williams 245 and Mike Larson 266.

Hang on fellows, only 3 more weeks in this round.

This coming Monday should be worth watching! "J.A.T.", "Clyde's Video", "Strike Hard Apparel" and "Katie Jakes Bar and Grill" will be tested by lane condition, equipment, weather, attitude and skill.

Action starts at 8:30 p.m. at Del Rio Lanes.

XMAS SPECIAL NEXT SATURDAY DEC 19 at Bowling Square Lanes

MISSION HILLS—Jeremy Berkley is an ABTA regular for nearly 3 years did it up big at Mission Hills. He finally downed a Hot Top Seed LeStar Walker in an exciting final game to become our latest Champion.

The scoring was Super at Mission taking Men +107 and the Ladies +42 to the semis. Super Seniors added to the board were Kathy Solowitz, Adam Drozd, and Ely Cruz to the semi finals.

A decent turnout turn out of 154 bowlers saw 45 Semifinalists take the floor, of which all would cash and the top 16 to advance to the single elim finals with 3 women min guaranteed to the top 16.

The scoring was still great. Leading the semis was LeStar Walker at +207 who will sit out and bowl for the title. In second Keith Nahan at +131, who would receive a bye, and enter in round two of the single elim finals. Those advancing to the top 16 finals were men +67 and Ladies (3 guaranteed) +36.

The first round we had Julieta Ward, Lonzell Burnett, Mark Fisser, Kathy Solowitz, Moan Mc Naughton and Darrow Tiongco lose. They received checks of $100, each in 10-16th places. In round two Vuong Do, Ray Sanchez, Keith Nahan and Tim Klepper fall out. They got checks of $110 in 6-9th places.

Round three saw Mark Andrews strike often downing Chris Kelly 291-330. Same story with Jeremy Paulsen whacking Rodney Payne 286-254 it was close!! Rodney and Chris are 4th and 5th and $120 each with Mark. Jeremy to meet for the right to bowl for the title vs Walker. Jeremy was again throwing strikes in a big 285-251 win. Mark Bowled so well in 3rd place he got $200 and alot of respect for sure.

Now it is Paulsen vs LeStar Walker for the title. Two hot bowlers. Walker led off and after four frames he struck and three spares. Only one problem here, Jeremy started out with four strikes to take a big lead. Le Star was close but couldn't find the magic he had earlier and got a double in frames 7-8 but Jeremy struck out the 10th also to lock him out in a big 227/268-207/234 game and his first ABTA Title in the books.

A great win by a fine young gentleman. He is most deserving. I have know this fine young man for a few years now and he is one of the most polite ever. He is on the Quiet side but his bowling surely spoke loudly at Mission. It was nice to have his parents on hand to see the win also his sweet wife Tiffany. Great Bowling Jeremy. Good Guys do win in the ABTA

Great bowling by LeStar Walker also one of the Good Guys. He came so close and same for Mark Andrews in 3rd place. All of these top three men bowled lights out. What a show!!

ABTA Notes: Tourney Hi Qualifiers were Ray Sanchez +251(men) and Julieta Ward led the ladies +160. They will get paid entries for the fine bowling.

The Doubles were headed by Jhun Tan and James Alarcio at 1552, good for $130 followed by Don Quitangon and Champ Paulsen 1532 and $110. Then Lonzell Burnett and LeStar 1530 and $100. We paid 16 places and $1,330 in the doubles.

The Match Game was UN-Matched at 257. So we will again go for $3,500 this Saturday at West Covina Lanes.

The Match Series was NOT HIT at 395 with the car-

Paulsen is ABTA Champion at Mission Hills (L-R) Lonzell Burnett (10th) Chris Kelly (4th) Tiffany Paulsen, her husband Jeremy (Champion) LeStar Walker (runnerup) who also bowled a 300 in the event, Mark Andrews 3rd and Rodney Payne 5th.

ryover of $1,460 we estimate a $2,000 Match Series at West Covina and for $2.00 pot is very popular in the ABTA.

The 3-6-9 not hit as Vuong Do missed on the third shot. We will have a $1,000 pot this week. Young got $50 for beer money.

Jeremy Paulsen, Canoga Park, and used a MaxZone drilled by Rusty at Mission Hills. He thanks wife Tiffany for support and Chris Williams who was on hand also. His parents Rick and Kathy and the ABTA Staff, Thanks.

He thanks God for guidance and dedicate this event to father who passed away last week. He thanks wife (ABTA Member) also for letting him out of the house and his pal Rodney Payne.

Mark Andrews is from Montclair and used a 1975 Columbia plastic ball. Drilled by Norris Turner. He has a daughter Rachel the apple of his eye. He thanks God, and his grandfather who taught him bowling. Special thanks to Choi Kamenar and son, Bob and ABTA staff and also Su Sen Jiang and her love for making his home a happy place. Also thanks to Susan Ramirez for support and James and Jing at the Tea Station in Hacienda Hts for the encouragement, and Mission Hills for hoisting and the #1 Coffee Shop there.

The Challenges and Benefits of League Bowling

by Mary Lynly

I love bowling. In 1960 when I got serious about bowling and my average started to rise, the quest to get above 169 is etched in my mind. It's like the team who continually comes in second and then after a long battle – they win! Who knows what pulls the cork, something clicks and they are winners.

I finally managed to get my average above that 169. Perhaps it was the determination to bowl better at a center that had been my nemesis. Maybe it was my focus. Maybe the team or the league I was bowling on. Who knows, but to finally achieve my goal made a different bowler out of me.

I was a good spare bowler and I worked at being a good strike bowler. I loved it. When teams we bowled would say, “Oh, no – not you guys!” it was a feeling of power. I exuded confidence.

Averaging 170 plus for several years, I am now finding myself struggling as I drop below 160. It is many years later and a hundred life experiences, and the horror of all horrors – my average starts to free fall.

OK. So I am getting a little “long in the tooth” and I don't bend the same. The ball is too heavy. That's it. Get a new ball, one that doesn't hook so much. While you're at it, get rid of those old stiff shoes you've had for 15 years.

Ah – the ball feels good. It's a pound lighter. The shoes are good ones but there is a rubber sole tip on the right foot.

For years I slid my right foot forward slightly and moved right into my approach. The rubber tip is not allowing me to do this. I am told this is a push away foot. Not. I finally mastered taking a step and look a little like the ostrich in Fantasia.

I am frustrated and can think of nothing else but trying to solve my problem. OK – time for a lesson. Yes! That's what I will do. The lesson changes my entire approach. The foot position is changed. The ball is moved way up - nearly under my chin. More power this way I am told. Push the ball toward the center of your body to avoid coming around your back. I am one who sticks with anything I decide to do and usually master things pretty well.

But, in spite of my perseverance I never stopped looking like the ostrich. I continued to get worse. My timing, my balance and my confidence all took a hit.

I am not one to blame the lanes. Could it be my age? I don't feel any different (except in the morning and at night.) I eventually mastered the step but came to the conclusion that maybe there is a degree of difficulty in teaching an old dog new tricks. Hey, I mastered the step.

I love the people on my team and in the league. Averages range from below 100 to over 200 in this league and all have their ups and downs. Somehow I guess I thought I was exempt. I kept coming back with renewed anticipation each week but missing spares like crazy and bowling low scores.

I had a shoemaker take the rubber tip off the right shoe and replace it with a soft leather one. I brought the ball back down where it was comfortable. I decided to continue to try to push the ball to the center of my body to keep from coming around my back. My foot position became comfortable. And you know what? I did learn something from the lesson - renewed determination. It had been missing.

In the end, I added focus. I am sure it will pay off. And, the fun of the game and the great people I bowl with transcend the average dilemma.

Citrus Belt's Cora Wais Rolls 693 At Del Rosa Lanes

by Frank Weiler
SAN BERNARDINO—
CORA WAIS led all lady scratch bowlers last week at Del Rosa Lanes with a 693 series. The series lifted Cora's average to 201.

The other top lady scratch bowlers at Del Rosa are Paula Vidá (208 average), Beth Mendoza (200) and Nicole Ellison. Super-sub Alisha Hill is averaging 207.

The top Del Rosa male scratch bowlers are Bobby Campagnale (244 average), Vernon Adams (239), Dave Wodka (237), Will Kolbow (236) and Ron Schmidt (231).

My thanks go to scratch bowler RON BONNEAU for keeping me up to date on Del Rosa Lanes happenings, and the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt bowlers. By the way, Ron bowled 669 in Del Rosa's top scratch league.

LAKEWOOD—Cal Bowl was the site of action on a rainy Monday morning but all went well, thanks to Vicky at the control desk. Such was not the case for Pris and Karen Mauricio. They missed the first game due to a flat tire enroute to the bowling center.

This was the first week for round two and it produced some changes in standings. Top team, Keystone #2 lost three games to second place team, Cal Bowl #2, but still stay in first place at 36 wins. Cal #2 has 33, followed by Fountain Bowl #2 at 31, Cal #1, 28; Keystone #3, 27; Cal #2, 26.2, Valley View #2, 26. and the rest of the league is closely bunched down to 16th spot.

Betty Phillips led the scoring honor roll with 207-570, followed by Connie Berkley 210-529, Cil Moons 516, Nancy Soto 512, Jerry Whitehurst 201-506, Helen Garard 215-505, Wilma Jones 505, Joan Lumpford 503 and Margo McClain 200.

Former league secretary, Merlene Eash, dropped by to say hi and also confirmed her Vegas sweeps trip in March. She's still not able to bowl but likes to stay in touch with the league members.

NEXT WEEK: Monday, 9:30 a.m. December 14 at Linbrook Bowl. We also bowl there on the 21st and look forward to the annual Christmas party pot-luck and optional gift exchange. We return to Cal on the 28th.

LAKEWOOD — Who said it never rains in California? Well, the rains came and we certainly need it. The air is always so clean after the rain and maybe that's why we see more people taking walks and running for their exercise. It's very cold so keep warm as there will be more rain this week. # Nevada, New Jersey Bowlers Roll 900 Series Three Days Apart

NEVADA / NEW JERSEY—Chris Aker of Winnemucca, Nev., and Andrew Teall of Medford, N.J., recently became just the 14th and 15th bowlers, respectively, to roll United States Bowling Congress approved 900 series.

The feats were accomplished within three days of each other and were the first since Rich Jerome Jr. of Baltimore had a 900 series on Dec. 22, 2008. The first approved 900 did not occur until Feb. 2, 1997 when Jeremy Sonnenfeld rolled three consecutive perfect games in Lincoln, Neb.

Aker, a 47-year-old left-hander, had 36 consecutive strikes Oct. 30 in the Friday Night Mixers League at Spare Time Bowling Center. Teall, a 24-year-old right-hander, matched that Nov. 2 in the Monday Invitational League at Medford Lanes. “It was pretty cool, and doing it with my wife bowling on the team was pretty special,” Aker said. “She usually gets nervous and can’t watch, so she’s only seen one or two of my previous 300 games. This time she watched pretty much every frame, which is nice.” Aker had seven 300 games and an 825 high series before his 900 series.

Teall had five earlier perfect games and beat his previous best series of 813. “I really wasn’t thinking of a 900; all I was really focused on was getting a 200 to get 800,” Teall said. “I’m still on Cloud 9. I didn’t know what to do. People behind me were going pretty crazy but I didn’t know how to act, whether I should jump up and down or fall to my knees.” Aker and Teall are the 13th and 14th bowlers to roll approved 900s, all on regular league lane conditions. There has never been a 900 on Sport Bowling lane conditions.

Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour Stop in Medford, Oregon Cancelled

MEDFORD, OR — The Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour’s scheduled tournament in Medford, Ore., Jan. 4-10, has become a casualty of the national economic slump.

“The Professional Bowlers Association regrets to announce Lava Lanes in Medford will be unable to host the Don and Paula Carter Mixed Doubles event in 2010,” said PBA Commissioner and CEO

Fred Schreyer.

“It’s an unavoidable situation, and it’s too late in the planning process to find a host center to replace Medford,” Schreyer said the Don and Paula Carter Mixed Doubles will be moved to Brunswick Zone-Wheat Ridge in Wheat Ridge, Colo., Feb. 15-21, where it will replace the previously announced Gemini Championship.

The cancellation also will mean a minor rescheduling of the PBA Tour’s 2009-10 ESPN television schedule.

The tape-delayed finals of the Pepsi Red, White and Blue Open presented by the United States Bowling Congress will be moved from Jan. 3 to Medford’s Jan. 10 date.

Schreyer said a decision on the Jan. 3 air date will be made after discussions with ESPN.

long time since his only previous title in the 1995 Tums Classic in Windsor Locks, Conn., but “I didn’t keep track. I knew it was a long time. I knew I could go to my grave with my name on a banner for winning at least one title, but as the years went on, it was important to me to feel like I belonged out here and could win again.

“I may not have had the career I dreamed of when I was a kid, but bowling on tour is everything I still want to do. I’m sorry I’m getting older because I realize my time is getting shorter. Maybe I’m like wine, getting better as I get older.”

Jurek’s record span between titles broke the previous record of 14 years, 6 days held by Les Zikes.

Along with his victory, Jurek earned $25,000, an exemption for the 2010-11 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour season, a berth in the 2010 PBA Tournament of Champions and a spot in the end-of-season PBA Experience Showdown presented by BOWL.COM.

Fagan, who was trying for his first PBA Tour singles title, defeated Jason Couch of Clermont, Fla., 224-201, to earn his spot in the championship match.

In the PBA Women’s Series presented by BOWL.COM title match, Kulick was in a strike-or-bust mode. Three strikes early in the game kept her in the match until she opened in the sixth and seventh frames. Dorin-Ballard, who was seeking her third career PBA Women’s Series title, gave her advantage back with splits and open frames in her eighth and ninth frames.

A key ball change by Kulick in the ninth frame led to another string of three strikes and a come-from-behind victory.

“I thought I made the right ball choice at the start, but as the game went along, things just got worse,” Kulick said. “I don’t know how I strung three strikes in a row early, but in the ninth and 10th, I made a ball change. I knew I had to do something. It was a good guess. I had an idea what I wanted to do, and what the ball was supposed to do, and when the first shot went flush, I knew that was the right answer.”

The title was Kulick’s second during the PBA World Series of Bowling. She also won the inaugural PBA Women’s World Championship. Her Shark victory was worth $10,000. Because Kulick had previously qualified for the PBA Women’s Series Showdown presented by BOWL.COM, Dorin-Ballard earned a spot in the end-of-season event which will be held in the United States Bowling Congress’ International Training Center in Arlington, Texas.

STUDIO CITY

818-769-7600 or 877-2380

BY NICE & SWEET

STUDIO CITY — As you should know (and if not, we'll transcribe it now ) Pinz is 50 years old! We are not over the hill or nearing old age, only being the silver foxes we are and gracefully aging. The number 50 means a lot to us. If it is divided by 10 and add 3 and then cut it in half and multiply it, you get the exact number of times that it took you to figure that equation out.

PINZ ADULTS

Many of you have bowled 250's and 750 series, but have you ever bowled an actually 50? That takes talent and we applaud anyone who can skillfully bowl a 50 and still have pride in their game. Unfortunately, none of you did so here's the scores:

Tavern Guild: Derek Brown 254/650, Tina Hackett 243/649, David Thomason 213/614, James Tan 240, Bob Thomas 215.

Twilighters: Michael Hoit 217/620, Radi Cohanin 253, Laurie Faso 615, Dan Coffelt 232, Bob Riffle 223/610, Arnel Adordionicio 222.

Kings and Queens: Kevin Collins 268/682, Ross Gold-man 235/653, Luke Avery 220, Jeremiah James 214, Wayne Roberts 211.

Funseekers: Bill Devoe 265/716, Jeff Pifko 245/693, Terry Wainscott 235/634, Isabelle Vincent 617, Dave Dittlinger 616, Scott Ladd 242, Rani Jersuhaimi 234.

S.C.B.L.: Michael Gurrieri 258/737, Tom Sardo 279/673, Brian Patterson 236/679, Dave Yamamoto 237/674, Marvin Nance 639, Zack Sturm 237, Neil Inman 236.

PINZ JUNIORS

Great job this week, young 'uns. One day you'll reach 50 and look back at how much fun you had at Pinz. And what a great person Barbara Lee is. Well, we are 50 and we already know that our Junior Director is the cat's pajamas. So party like its 1959 and check out these scores:

Adult Junior: Adam Lander 279/768, Ethan Bensinger 206/591, Max Korn 211/571, Treven Goldsmith 189/531, Tyler Bensinger 179/474.

Well, you have seen 50's before, maybe years ago or just recently. Yet, have you ever realized that some of you are older than the alley that you bowl at? No sweat, we still think you're spring chickens, young bucks, buckaroos, spring bucks, or whatever else shows how young you are. Well, look at these ageless scores:

Bowler of the Week: This week we celebrate one of our own, Mike Da Veiny. He has bowled a terrific games on the Wii but never competed against real people, that is until last week. He "veined" "it" up and pumped those pins for all they were worth. He finished with a 124 game. At least he has a cool name. Sweetness Quote of the Week: "Looking fifty is great-if you're sixty. - by Joan Rivers.
