Ray Varela Wins 2nd ABT Singles Championship at AMF Valley View

ABT at AMF Vallew View Lanes (L-R) Adam Randall, Ray Varela, Zachary Weiss, Stan Por and Daryl Brandt.

GARDEN GROVE—After four qualifying squads at AMF Valley View on December 6-7, 2008, our finalists included Ray Varela, Stan Por, Zachary Weiss, Adam Randall and Daryl Brandt. The finals format this weekend was a beat-the-board format and at the end of the day, Ray Varela came out on top winning his second ABT championship.

Our newest champion, Ray Varela, is married to Paula. They have four children: Paul, David, Elena and Fernando. Ray has a 300 game and a 749 series to his credit and does his league bowling at Cal Bowl. Ray's son, Paul and Danny Contreras drilled his equipment. Ray wanted to thank his wife, Paula, and his children for their love and support. Ray also wanted to thank AMF Valley View for hosting the tournament and the ABT Staff and Directors for running an outstanding tournament.

The winner of the Senior Sweeper this weekend was Daryl Brandt with an 833 series. The winner of the 2-game sweeper was Zachary Weiss with a 556.

The Mystery Game Pot of Gold game and score were drawn after the finals were completed. The game drawn was game 1. First chance score was 147, second chance was 179, third chance was 256 and 187 for the fourth chance. There were no winners. The mystery pot is open to all bowlers and costs only $5.

The ABT staff and membership would like to thank the management and staff at AMF Valley View Lanes for hosting tournament. Our next scheduled event will be December 13-14 at Linbrook Bowl. This will be a three game format tournament with Saturday squads at 12:30, 2 and 3:30PM. There will be one special entry squad Sunday morning at 10AM. The semi-finals/finals will be a beat the board format beginning at 11:30. All semi-finalists must check in by 10:45AM. First place is guaranteed at a minimum of $500. Progressive will also be available.

We hope to see you December 13-14 at Linbrook Bowl.

No Hanging Chad's Here!

SAN DIEGO . . . The NABI San Diego tournament held at Mira Mesa over the weekend was a successful one for Chad Hill, as he won his second title of 2008. Chad was the final qualifier, but became the #1 seed after the position round. In the top 8 eliminator finals, he rolled some terrific games, & when the last frame was bowled, he had his second title. As a young & improving bowler, Chad is really benefiting from participation in a PBA Experience League at Mira Mesa, as well as the challenging conditions encountered in tournament competition. Congratulations, Chad!

The other finalists were Tonya Danielly, Brian Watkins, Mike Tangonan, Paul Willey, Jr., Nick Inganna, Tim Knight & James Rostello.

$50 guaranteed sidepots were earned by Tim Knight, Homer Bautista, Jeff Greer, Paul Willey, Jr. (1½), James Rostello (1½), Tonya Danielly, Mike Tangonan (1½) & Tony Damian (1½). Three bowlers shared the 3-6-9 Perpetual Pot, Jeff Greer, Willey & Hill.

This tournament was our annual Toys for Tots Tournament, & I want to thank all the bowlers who brought a toy to donate to this really worthwhile charity sponsored by the US Marines. Three large bags of toys were delivered to the collection point on Sunday morning, & those helping unload my car thanked us over and over again. Your generosity was truly appreciated!

The next NABI tournament is our final tournament of 2008 & will be held at Kearny Mesa Lanes on December 20th. We'll be off the following two Saturdays for the Christmas & New Years celebrations, so our next tournament is the two day Year End Invitational on January 10 - 11 at Parkway Bowl. If you are qualified, you'll receive a postcard in the mail with all the details. 2009 officially kicks off on January 24th at Admiral Robinson Center. The NABI San Diego staff wishes all of you a Merry Christmas & a happy holiday season. See you at Kearny Mesa on the 20th, we'll be saving a cookie (plus some Christmas goodies) for you!

Parker Bohn III & Carolyn Dorin-Ballard Win Cheetah Championship

CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y.—Two of the greatest to ever throw a bowling ball, Parker Bohn III of Jackson, N.J. and Carolyn Dorin-Ballard of N. Richland Hills, Texas, took home titles at the Cheetah Championship, the seventh stop on the 2008-09 Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour. The final round was telecast live from AMF Thruway Lanes on ESPN.

Bohn III's 32nd career title came after defeating No. 3 seed Mike Scroggins of Amarillo, Texas 242-198 in the televised championship round.

"I had one ball that worked all week, my Twisted Fury; I had tried to use others, but it was almost impossible to get through the pins," said Bohn III, who is currently fifth on the list of all-time PBA Tour titlists.

Bohn III was the top seed entering the final round after defeating No. 2 seed Patrick Allen of Wesley Chapel, Fla. in Friday's final position round 279-237.

"If it's a stepladder format, I want to be No. 1 every week, that's the way I like it" said Bohn III, who only had to win one match on Sunday's telecast to win the championship.

Scroggins advanced to Sunday's championship match by climbing the ladder in the stepladder format, first defeating No. 4 seed and local fan favorite Jack Jurek of Lackawanna, N.Y., 235-175, then

No. 2 Allen, 222-200.

PBA Women's Series Dorin-Ballard defeated No. 2 seed Stefanie Nation of Arlington, Texas, to take home the Cheetah Championship trophy and her 2nd career PBA Women's Series title.

"This was a very emotional day for me," said Dorin-Ballard. "It's Pearl Harbor Day, and my dad was a P.O.W. in World War II, and I felt like he was looking out for me."

Dorin-Ballard defeated Nation 208-204 in the close championship match. Dorin-Ballard threw a clutch strike the first shot in the 10th frame and then left a 1-2-4-10 wash-out, sparing it to force Nation to strike the first shot in the 10th frame. Nation left a stubborn 10 pin to give Dorin-Ballard the title.

"Stefanie did really well in the 10th, but I got a break and took it," said Dorin-Ballard. "The lanes were tight and if I didn't catch it the way I needed to, I wouldn't have gotten the strikes."

For the first time in PBA history, the Women's Series final was shown first on the telecast, followed by the men's stepladder competition and men's championship round.

The Lumber Liquidators PBA Tour continues next week at the Lumber Liquidators Shark Championship at Country Club Lanes in Baltimore, Md. The finals will be telecast live on ESPN at 1 p.m. ET.

Parker Bohn III and Carolyn Dorin-Ballard capture the Cheetah Championship in Cheektowaga, N.Y.

ANAHEIM—The Vegas travelers bowled at Linbrook on Monday for the first of four consecutive weeks and Carrie, at the control desk, was the greatest. Also, we were so pleased to see Pat Willmore this week. Pat had to quit bowling this year but Nan McGill sees to it that Pat drops by for a visit often and we look forward to seeing her again a week from Monday when she celebrates her 90th birthday.

Super sub Teri Hefner led the honor roll this week with 212-585, followed by Doris Lewis 211-571, Margo McClain 202-570, Cil Moons 204-507, Dee Phipps 238-541, Kathy Parrish 531, Bernice Bennett 529, Madeline Majick 528, Melba Knight 200-525. Myrt Owens 517, Jean Morby 513, Norma Payne 503, Gladys Perrin 497, Betty Phillips and Patti Givehchin tied on 495 clusters and Lynette Williams 492.

Doris' Hair Designs enjoy a 2-game lead with 33 wins, followed by Cerritos #2, 31; Keystone #2, 30.2; Westminster #1, 30, David McNaught CPA 29.2; Keystone #1, 29; Valley View #2, 25; Cerritos #1, 24; Cal Bowleros 23.2; Westminster #2, 22 and the rest of the league trails at 19-18-15- two at 14.2 and cellar team at #12.2.

We hoped to have a report about Berneice King, following major surgery on Monday, but we are all sending prayers her way to assure a successful operation and recovery. Bernice Bennett is taking care of the high games and series scratch side pot during her absence.

More Christmas gifts were displayed Monday when Roberta's daughter, Dava, brought beautiful jewelry and Joan Roper also had slippers, scarves and bracelets behind her lanes. The Christmas party-potluck is slated December 22, and a reminder again that the optional $10 gift exchange for strikes will be handled by Charlie 'Santa' Williams.

Final WCST Ebonite Singles For 2008
Heads To Riverside Casino Lanes in Laughlin This Weekend - December 13-14

by Dick Sanders

LAUGHLIN—Riverside Casino Lanes in Laughlin, is getting ready to host the final WCST Ebonite Singles Tournament, this week-end December 13-14, with a 5 game singles sweep-er added on Friday, December 12th. This tournament will be for current WCST members only, that had bowled in at least 3 WCST Tournaments in 2008. On Saturday, December 13th, for the Qualifying, the tournament format will be made up of two squads. Each squad to bowl 10 game straight. The Seniors, ages from 45 to 59, will bowl the “A” Squad, Roll Call: 8:10AM, Bowl at 8:30AM. Lanes then to be stripped and re-oiled for the Super Seniors, ages 60 & up, the “B” Squad, Roll Call 1:10PM, Bowl at 1:40PM. $175.00 is the entry fee for each bowler. It is requested the bowlers arrive a little earlier than their check in time, to sign up for the optional money events in the tournament, and the brackets. The brackets, will be handled by Harold Mountain & Bart DiBartolo. The $2500.00 of added money will be pro-rated to each division, that is determined by amount of entries in each division. At the time this article was written, there were 44 seniors signed up, and 48 super seniors signed up. There are limited openings for those bowlers that are eligible to bowl this tournament. Call my cell phone now and make your reservations at 760-792-4596

Finals on Sunday, December 14th, for both divisions will start at 8:30AM.

There will be an optional 5 game singles sweeper, on Friday, December 12th to start at 3:00PM, and will be open to all bowlers, ages 45 and up. Expected turn-out 35 to 45 bowlers. If over 40, then 1st place will pay $500.00. $60.00 is the entry fee, which includes the High Game Side-Pot, Brackets are separate at $5.00 per bracket. The Sweeper will pay one cash place for every 4 entries, also included will be one cash place out of the higher money for every 5 super seniors entered. I will be at the lanes on Friday, December 12th, after 9:00AM. In case you don’t reach my cell phone, please call the hotel at 1-800-227-3849, and ask for the bowling center.

Jowdy’s Journal

by John Jowdy

During the past few weeks, six of the most worthy individuals in bowling, Tom Kouros, Gene Stus, Lowell Rothschild, Del Ballard, Norm Duke and John Handegard achieved the highest honors in the game. .

Kouros, Stus, and Rothschild selections were the latest additions the USBC Hall of Fame.

Duke, Ballard, and Handegard breezed into the PBA Hall of Fame.

In my opinion, the establishment of an athletic Hall of Fame is one of the most noteworthy institutions society can render to a community, state, or country. It is emblematic of performers whose deeds brought glory, honor, and fame to the area they represent.

A Hall of Fame, in essence, is a shrine for immortals; a sanctuary that separates super stars from the less fortunate and lesser talented individuals. These honorees are selected in the performance category. Additionally, it also honors individuals in the meritorious category; those whose deeds and actions unselfishly contributed to the betterment of the sport.

Principally, inductees must be thoroughly and accurately researched. Favoritism, partiality, or biased opinions must be set aside. Selections to Halls of Fame should never be founded on a popularity basis.

Nonetheless, bowling has had its share of biased opinions. It was rumored that Buddy Bomar’s delayed induction into the ABC Hall of Fame was principally due to the fact that Joe Wilman, a Bomar foe and a major force on the Hall of Fame Board, used his influence to block Bomar’s path to the hallowed sanctuary.

Several years later, the ABC Hall of Fame board came under stern criticism when a dozen or so members were admitted to the Hall of Fame in a block. The selection committee reasoned that time was fleeting; that these particular individuals were on their last go-round and would soon be by-passed and forgotten. It befuddled many bowling writers around the nation but more than that, it infuriated several Hall of Famers who felt the actions had diluted the quality of the Hall; that it diminished the luster and honor that symbolized a seat in the elite shrine.

On a happy note, I’d like to express my glee in the selection of Tom Kouros and Del Ballard to their respective Hall of Fame inductions. This is not meant to demean others who were selected but Ballard’s and Kouros’ inductions were LONG OVERDUE.

In my opinion, Tom Kouros is the most knowledgeable individual in bowling. He is a bowling proprietor. He was an outstanding bowler. Although he never achieved Hall of Fame status in the performance category, he was a highly respected bowler in the Chicago area. He is one of, if not the best bowling instructors in the world. Kouros has coached and helped coach many of the most outstanding amateur and professional bowlers in America and throughout the world, including women bowlers. In fact, the World Bowling Writers instituted the annual Tom Kouros Outstanding International Coach Award in his honor, an honor recognizing his reputation as a coach. He has authored two of the most comprehensive bowling instructional books. He is a graduate of Illinois University with a degree in physics, a degree that he has successfully applied in his bowling philosophies. He is an excellent writer and has penned interesting and informative articles in the International Bowlers Journal for many years.

Despite all these attributes, Kouros’ belated selection to bowling’s highest honor has, in all likelihood, been stunted by his frank and outspoken opinions...a trait that can occasionally rile, irritate, and annoy his critics. Nonetheless, I admire Kouros’ straightforward candidness far more than I do individuals who placate those with diverse opinions just for the sake of “getting along”.

Del Ballard’s selection to the PBA Hall of Fame was inevitable....a mortal cinch. His induction, as well as that of Norm Duke, was delayed when the present PBA hierarchy originally ruled that no one could qualify for Hall of Fame status unless they were retired for five years. Fortunately, the rules recently reverted to the original PBA requirements and Ballard’s selection was a mere formality.

On the other hand, Del has failed to meet the required 70% vote for induction to the USBC Hall of Fame by the narrowest of margins, simply due to the fact that the competition was so strong. Furthermore, because of recent PBA/USBC rule changes, Ballard may be further delayed. The new regulations for induction into the USBC Hall of Fame have opened the doors for all-time greats like Marshall Holman, Mark Roth and Johnny Petraglia. With all due respect, these players will further complicate Ballard’s chances to receive the required 70% vote for election. The eligibility of Holman, Roth, and Petraglia have certainly dampened Del’s luck for the time being.

As in many other sports, there is a lot of luck involved in attaining hall of fame status. When classes of quality hopefuls for induction are so competitive, a 70% margin of approval can be a difficult task. Consequently, a very worthy candidate may have to wait for what may seem an eternity to enter the prestigious club of immortals...the USBC Hall of Fame.

Nonetheless, sooner or later, Del Ballard’s USBC Hall of Fame plaque will be placed among bowing’s greatest achievers.

CERRITOS—Steve Anderson was the best as he won his first ABTA Title at Cerritos Lanes finally downing Alejandro Garcia in the title game. Steve, who joined last month made the best of it as he won from the top seeded position in the finals.

The scoring was decent at Cerritos as it took Men +66, and the Ladies +16 making the board on Saturday and the 10:15 AM Squad Sunday morning had Men +43 Ladies +26. Super Seniors added to the board were Leo Tartamella, Art Lindsey and Bobbie Mc Collum.

The Semis took the floor in hopes of making the top 16. Steve Anderson fired a big 279/296 3rd game to vault to the top and be able to sit out and bowl for the title. In 2nd was Tony Tang who received a first round bye and would enter in round two of the the top 16. It took a +24 to make the top 16 including 4 women who made the cut.

In round one of the finals Single elim losing were Bheth "Ms Bite" Alcayde, Jeredei Harnpatananakitpanich, Buti Obrar, Rey Josefat, Anna Bautista, Anthony Dancel Rogelio, Esquivel, and Barbara Burgess. They got checks of $100.

Round two saw Glen Mabilangan, Emilio Flores,

Gino Mansilungan, and Oscar Ibardolaza lose out. They got checks for $110 in 6th thru 9th places.

Round three saw Bobbie Mc Collum take out Steve Doman 191/175. Alejandro Garcia outstruck Tony Tang 267-226. They were 4th and 5th with great bowling and $120 with Bobbie and Alejandro to meet for the right to bowl Anderson for the title.

This game was a good one but the splits got to Bobbie and Garcia wins at the end easily 228-181. Bobbie was 3rd with great bowling and $200 with Garcia off to the title game.

The title game now underway. In a close match as both had had one open in the 2nd frame. Garcia took a lead with a double, then had a washout. After 6 frames it was near even inc the handicap difference. But Garcia had opens in frames 7-8 and just couldn't make up the difference. Anderson wins it 178/197 to 144/177 and proved that spares mean a big thing on a semi tough condition. Congrats Steve on a great win and title #2 is in your future. Steve is very Likable and we are glad to have him in the ABTA.

Alejandro Garcia is also likable and almost got the win.. He is an up and coming bowler who gives his all on the lanes. He will win one soon .

Great Bowling by Bobbie, Steve Doman, and Tony Tang. Anyone of these could have won the title at Cerritos. Tourney. Hi Qualifiers were Red Hot Jhon Tan +167. Barbara Burgess led the ladies +55. They each get a paid entry to any regular event.

The doubles were topped by the Bowling Mansilungans Carlo and Gino, 1460, good for $170, edging portsiders Alan Basto and Danny Eguielos 1455 $150. Andrew Lung and Jimmy Wong 3rd 1415 $140. We paid 18 places and $1,430 in the doubles.

The Match Game was UN-Matched at 236 so with the carryover of $2,060 we estimate $3,500 this week at West Covina Lanes.

The Match Series was Matched at a 570 by Som Seng and Paul Fenner worth $320. They got $160 each. We estimate the Match Series to be $350 this week and only $2.00 to enter.

Anthony Dancel was last up in the 3-6-9 roll and missed on shot #1. We go for $1,100 this Saturday at West Covina. He got a $50 Consolation for beer money.

Champ Steve Anderson is from Redondo Beach and used a Cell drilled by Arvo at Gil's Pro Shop. He is a proud father of Paige a freshman at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo.

Bobbie Mc Collum 3rd, Steve Anderson (Champion) Alejandro Garcia (runner up) Vilma Garcia Alejandro's Mother and #1 Fan!

He thanks coach and Mentor Roy Walker for the help in his bowling. He hasn't bowled much for 20 years and making up for lost time. Kudos to the Merry Makers (League) at Mar Vista Lanes and to Bob and the ABTA for a great tournament.

Alejandro Garcia is from Glendale and used a Bash drilled by Brandon at Jewel City Bowl. He is single and he surely thanks his pretty Mom Vilma for support. Vilma is at most every ABTA Event also, and Looking like his sister not his mother :-)

Bobbie McCollum is from La Habra and used a Vibe drilled by Mikey Wahl at Cerritos Lanes . She thanks hubby Jack for support and Grandsons Caden, Cole, Casey, and granddaughter Dylan and the ABTA Family for support.

We had 9 new members at Cerritos and first time cashers were Jeredei H. , Jimmy Natividad, and Robert Fales.

Winners of the Fight picking Pacquio in round 8 were Ace Cordero $100 and Danny Eguielos $50. Nine people picked him in round 8 and these won the bowl-off for the cash. I predicted a Pacquio win and if De La Hoya were a warrior he would have fought as the real fighters do. He is not a warrior but smart and could see that if he did so they must have the ambulance ready for sure :_). He didn't want to go on a stretcher :-) he is very smart! Great Going by Manny Pacquio a true champion who gives so much to his people esp the poor. He is Most Deserving.

Drawn for a chance at the Hot Shot Pot was Gino Manisilungan. He missed so the Hot Shot Pot is $1509 this week. Free to our members. Gina got a $25 consolation.

Thanks to the Super Cerritos Staff, Paul, and Crew, esp. Maria, and Jackie for a superb job they are just great there.

It's History folks as Steve Anderson enters the archives as our latest champion. This Saturday, we are hosted by West Covina Lanes in West Covina in a One Day event. Qualifying squads are 12:00-1:00 2:30-4:00 & 6:00 PM and Semis at 7:45 PM.

The Following Saturday (One Day) Christmas Event at Bowling Square Lanes in Arcadia 12:00-1:00-2:30-4:00 & 6:00 PM. Lots of Gifts and Prizes. Check in Early. Gifts on every squad.

LAS VEGAS ROOMS DUE ASAP! Dec. 29 is the final Deadline! We have great rates and the Rooms at the South Point are First Class!

A WBPI Exclusive

Western Bowling Proprietors Insurance (WBPI), a division of L.J. Linder & Associates Insurance Services Inc., works exclusively with Financial Pacific Insurance Company to provide a comprehensive property/casualty insurance program for the bowling industry. WBPI offers many benefits for bowl proprietors: Workers Compensation, Group Health, Employee Benefits coverages, and Western Bowling Proprietors Association's (WBPA) "Pre-Paid Legal Defense" program (PLDF), which provides around-the-clock, retained counsel to protect against frivolous law suits and opportunistic claimants that can ruin proprietor's loss history and increase their premiums upon renewal.

LAKEWOOD — Only in Southern California can you have a variety of weather in a week. First it was rain, then cold winds, then sunny days with temperatures around 80 degrees with a possibility of rain for the weekend. In the higher elevations during the winter, you can throw in some snow for those skiers. So everyone gets their choice of weather.

People are feeling festive as they decorate their homes with Christmas lights and decorations. Take a ride around your neighborhood and enjoy the sights. It can't help but make you feel happy and the kids really enjoy it.

Here is the Cal Bowl Bowling Report...

STUDIO CITY — This article now stands for what we believe in NON-SEQUITARS. Indeed the College BCS Series is upon us and we can not celebrate the hometown favorite University of Buffalo Bills in the International Bowl...ok, so sorry, I mean USC isn't in the BSC title game. We have our own champions that may or may not have attended college.

PINZ ADULTS

These dirty Gators are the sole reason to come in and see them flo-ride through other teams. Their scores are like cutting through a brick of wigmore cheese (the food not his commentary). The goodness spreads like butter and we all love butter on a hot day in the swamp. Here's the scores:

Tavern Guild: Jeff Pifko 233/633, David Quam 236/622, Tony Annibale 213/605, Jan Chambers 222, Curt Zellers 222, Rick Kondo 213.

Twilighters: Mark Spiwak 258/716, Eddie Barnes 235/645, Ron Koblin 245/641, Dane Price 637, Laurie Faso 618, Michael Hoit 246, Eric Maize 241, Jim Moore 235.

Kings and Queens: David McKennett 242/675, Richard Fischer 255/641, Kevin Collins 223/623, Tony Ferrari 258, Randy Frederick 232.

Funseekers: Keane Murakami 256/717, Dane Price 712, Gary Bailer 267/712, Tony Annibale 258/707, Zoran Jacimovic 280/706, Jay Fletcher 256.

S.C.B.L.: Dave Yamamoto 246/699, Jim Foltyn 243/696, Marvin Nance 259/664, Jeff Dowling 634, Dwayne Miller 620, Stephen Santay 264, Keane Murakami 249.

PINZ JUNIORS

We missed Mrs. Lee very much this week, not just because she was at the Steelers game. We wanted to thank her for all of her contributions to the sport of bowling and football fandom. She has her very own Troy Polomalau bowling ball that continually bowls strikes. Yet, you have to wipe it off occasionally, the hair may be too long (only for NFL people). Here are the tangent filled scores:

Adult Junior: Brad Spector 215/596, Ethan Bensinger 223/590, Jamie Spector 247/558, Max Korn 192/500, Damond Taylor 193/493.

Senior Scratch: Brittlan Halpern 236/856, Treven Goldsmith 221/790, Natalie Kato 220/781, Nikolai Berk 225/775, Scott Englehart 768, Natalie Honda 220.

Senior Galaxies: Daniel Cohen 181/483, Mario Vargas 139/400, Jessica Taylor 133/360, Michael Gans 128/355.

Junior Stars: Nicole Martinez 172/424, Nicholas Martinez 99/261.

Pee Wee Bumpers: Hugh Cooper 97/168, Art Michener 85/166, Andrew Parker 75/140, Samantha Vargas 75/140, Steven Santiago 59/116.

PINZ SENIORS/LADIES

Hi, hello, and good day. These sentiments float around like Sooner's receivers in a big game. Maybe you like Florida or Oklahoma in the big game, but one thing is for sure; you don't care about what we write about in this article. Wordums, peace, and go UB Bulls, Here's the scores:

Happy Timers: Ken Burkenheim 235/546, Nelson Hicks 545, Ruth Swick 171/460, Yolanda Dragotta 160/445, Gary Olsen 206.

Breakfast Club: Nancy Kato 189/519, Charlene Gaffney 203/518, Myrna Schiffman 212/496, Bernie Filosa 179/471, Marion Weis 188/471.

Coffee and Donuts: Pauline Lipin 248/512, Charlene Gaffney 184/500, Elayne Klein 498, Joan Karchem 196/474, Annie Block 184/462, Lu-Juan Lietzke 190, Bernie Filosa 186, Donna Hickox 184.

Joslyn Seniors: Arnold Freedman 206/569, Art Abell 198/497, Teri Bonato 170/463, Betty Dushkin 173/454.

Bowler of the Week: This week we honor Mr. Mark Spiwak. He bowled a 258 game during Twilighters for a 716 series. Yet, the real acclaim is in his candor and good character. Great bowling, Mark.

Niceness Quote of the Week: "I told you this week I would not be on topic, how 'bout that BCS?" Monsignor Doyle Wolfgang Von Frankenstein the Third (squared) esq.

Canoga Park Jrs.

Keystone Juniors

by Michelle Lawson

NORWALK—Hello again from Keystone lanes. Its been a great day of high scoring and being with friends.

We start out with our BUMPERS. Ike Pugh, shot fantastic scores, both over his average of 97, with a 130-140. Samuel Rangel had duplicate scores of 95 and David Schneider blazed a game over 100 with 104- good scoring Bumpers

Lets jump up to the PREPS. Starting with bowlers who shot all 3 games over their averages, Gabriel Reyes avg 64- bowled 71-106-76 and David Serrano avg 70- shot 84-78-79 Damian Perez shot 110-133-153. Joshua Prickett shot 121-114-111,Trinidee Castro bowled 113-122,Eric Thompson had a real nice game of 145, thats 50 pins over his avg.

Up one level to our MINORS. Bowling all 3 games at or over their avgs are, Lauree Bennett avg 147 bowled 155-160-181 Frankie Cervantes was at it again avg 81 bowled 133-133-111 two games over 50 pins of her average. Way to go Frankie. Danny Contreras 104 AVG BOWLED 121-116-105 Marissa Cross nice game of 149. Matthew Estrada nice game of 183 and Christian Bennett had a nice 192 to finish up our Minors.

Moving up to the MAJORS. Hitting her average all 3 games this week was Carolann Minard avg 118 bowled 137-148-123. Alex Mochizuki also did this feat with 159 avg bowled 165-179-172. Thats about it this week. Remember, be good Santa's watching you.

HUNTINGTON PARK—Forgive me dear readers for taking an extra week off, but I had an unfortunate mishap which I must attribute mostly to my carelessness.

Without going into too much detail, remember that this is the holiday season, and that means increased vigilance when you go out to the shopping malls and movies theatres. Otherwise, you may lose your important personal belongings such as laptops and scores from two weeks ago – end of public service announcement.

I managed to hold onto your results from Gage long enough to note some fine shooting by Jeremy Glover. I know this is your second 900 (did I mention Del Rio), but the new season high is now 985. Jeremy's high 268 game in conjunction with Keyon's performance led his team to sweep all competitors. Keyon helped the effort with a 215/779, for a 1764 new season high team score.

Lawrence Merriweather should not be overlooked (how can you) with his 256 and 801 series. Brent Shern followed with a 255/796 along with upstart Brandon Pekins at 225/790. Bowling 200 games were Steven Alford with 218, and Justin Gadaire 202. In the interesting 6-man baker match, Team Shirmiece easily overtook Team Dementia (or Teamenia) for a victory of a score that fails to come to mind. I'll write it down this week, I promise.

Before we get to this week, don't forget about JBT Main Event at Texas Station this Christmas. If you don't know about it, go to www.juniorbowlerstour.com and click on the Main Event link. If you're looking for an exciting and challenging tournament, then this is it! We're at Gardena Bowl this Saturday at 1:30, so see you there!

JAT News & Notes

by David Yamauchi

A.J. Garcia Strikes For His First Title

The JAT headed over to Lakewood for our annual visit to Cal Bowl. Luckily someone noticed that the lanes hadn't been oiled after Rock n' Bowl the night before so we got a late start after the shot was put down. It didn't matter to Charlie Hair who led qualifying with a whopping +254 followed closely by Brandon Kraye at +230. Low to make the cut in 16th place was Melissa Pena at +54 while Preston Fukumizu took the alternate spot at +47. After only one upset we advanced to the round of 8 where 8th seed A.J. Garcia took down top-seed Charlie Hair 2-0 while 4th seed Travis Zehntner dismissed 12th-seed Jeremy Glover in two. On the other side of the bracket, 2nd-seed Brandon Kraye strung 12 for a perfect 300 handing DeeRonn Booker a tough 300-278 elimination in game 2. Mark Curtis Jr. took out 6th-seed Devin Bidwell to advance to the semis. In the semi finals, Travis Zehntner took A.J. Garcia to game 3 but A.J. strung 12 of his own for a perfect 300 game and a spot in the finals. Brandon Kraye finally met his match against Mark Curtis Jr. 277-234 in the elimination game bolting Mark to the final match. The two non-champs went at it for their first title with Mark striking first with a 215-184 win but it was all A.J from there 208-196 and 199-168 for the 2-1 win and his first title. Congratulations A.J.!

Special Holiday Event This Sunday

The JAT event for this Sunday will be our special holiday event for 2008 with lots of treats including a raffle with fun prizes and the chance to win a Brunswick Smash Zone. Qualifying High Game in both clubs will earn a $25 bonus gift card and any "300" game will also receive a $25 bonus gift card! As another bonus we will give you three "free misses" in the first 4 games of the Match Twenty Five so someone could break the $125+ jackpot at Keystone! Every bowler entering the tournament will receive 5 free raffle tickets and each bracket and Match Twenty-Five entry will earn another free raffle ticket for the drawing. Candy, cookies, gift cards and bowling balls all up for grabs in the raffle- come out and buy tickets and support the JAT Scholarship Fund this Sunday at Keystone!

T-Shirts, Hoodies, and Polo Shirt Pick-Up

Those of you who ordered JAT Logo items can pick them up at Keystone. Orders not picked up will be held until the next event or can be shipped out if necessary.

Updated Schedule and Our Next Event

Our next event will be this Sunday, December 14th at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk. Again, it's our holiday event and we hope to see you all out on the lanes this Sunday for our last tournament of 2008! Also, check the website for updates, new videos, latest news and schedule changes for the upcoming events at www.bowljat.org.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordan

LAKEWOOD—Here is our update for the JAT Farm Club. Our last tournament found us at Cal Bowl on November 16th. Twenty-seven bowlers took to the floor with a "change of pace" format, using the Open division's format of six qualifying games and bracket eliminations. Taking advantage of the good lineage, we decided to cut to the top 16 for match play.

In the qualifying round, Brett Huntoon gave us our tournament high game with a near perfect 278. He also had a 258 in the mix. However, leading the way was Daniel Updegraff with his first five games of 227-226-258-237-228. He led after qualifying at plus 190. Other high scores during the round came in from John McCullin 269-263-224, Mark Myers 259-258, Wesley Low 247-227, Stevn Roderick 246, Brian Hernandez 244-244-235-222, Kaitlin Mayall 244-231, Noel Sosa 244-223, Victor Hilvano 222-222-237-243, Nolan Smith 227-236, Godfrey Galsim 236, Steven Alford 231, Marty McDonald 227, Nicole Shepard 225-223, Alex Fisher 223, and Eric Torrence 221. The cut to advance came in at minus 62.

In the first round of eliminations many of the sets went a full three games, allowing the bowlers to get their monies worth. Notables from this round go to Huntoon 258-247, McCullin 258-227, Mayall 230-255, Gary Smith 244, Shepard 238-226, Randall DeLeon 237, Galsim 227, Updegraff 224, and Myers 224. Surprisingly, some of those high scores came in a losing effort.

In the next two rounds Myers started to make his presence known with a 269 game in the round of eight and 224-265 in the semis. Others highs were from Galsim 247, McCullin 244, Hernandez 234, Huntoon 231, and Shepard 222.

The finals then placed Myers against Huntoon, both looking for their first title. Myers being the veteran though put all question of concern out of reach going two straight games of 247-217 and 217-199 for his long overdue title. Congratulations Mark.

Well bowlers, you've enjoyed a little time off to feast and live life outside of bowling, yeah right. Our next tournament is this coming Sunday at Keystone Lanes. Check-in begins at 8:15 and we'll be running our normal Farm Club format (5 and 5 and finals). This will be our Christmas tournament with a few raffles and maybe some surprises. It would be nice to see the entire Farm roster (plus new bowlers) there.

As a quick side note: We will be doing the Open format at least one more time before the end of the season in June, but there will be plenty of advance notice given, as points in this format are doubled along with other advantages to the high shooters. When announced, these are the tournaments you really don't want to miss.

Have a good remainder of the week and I'll see you at Keystone.
