A Tribute To DAMON "GOLDIE" GOLDMAN

by Frank Weiler
SAN BERNARDINO — We have lost a LOCAL LEG-
END. He was colorful, courageous and inspiring to the end. He was a bowler, a promoter, a sponsor, a manager, a proprietor and an entrepreneur. All things to all bowlers. Bowling in the Inland Empire will not be the same without Goldie on the lanes. He will be missed but never forgotten. REMEMBER HIS SPIRIT. Mr. Goldman was in the bowling industry for 57 of his 83 years.

Damon "Goldie" Goldman

Forty-seven of those years were spent at DEL ROSA LANES, working his way up from desk man to bartender to general manager. He also spent time at Town Square Lanes. When Brunswick purchased Del Rosa Lanes in 1980 Goldie moved on and purchased San Bernardino Recreation Center Lanes. Outside of bowling Goldie worked at Kaiser Steel in Fontana. REMEMBER HIS AMBITION.

Goldie came to San Bernardino in 1942 and graduated from San Bernardino High School in 1949. Over the years he came to know thousands of local people and probably every bowler to compete in the city during the last fifty years. Everyone liked Goldie and appreciated

PBA Tour Action Returns to ESPN Sunday at 10 a.m. With Cheetah Championship Finals

Liz Johnson becomes first woman to qualify for two PBA Tour TV finals telecasts

LAS VEGAS — The 2014 PBA Tour season heads down the homestretch when the PBA Cheetah Championship presented by PBA Bowling Challenge Mobile Game finals return to ESPN on Sunday at 1 p.m. ET. The Cheetah Championship will be the first of seven consecutive GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VI events to air on Sundays on ESPN.

The Cheetah finals will feature Liz Johnson of Cheektowaga, N.Y., who became the first woman to qualify for two PBA nationally-televised finals by qualifying fourth for Sunday's three-player "shootout" format first match. She will be trying to join Kelly Kulick as the second woman to win a PBA Tour title. Kulick won the 2010 PBA Tournament of Champions to become the Tour's first woman titlist. Johnson narrowly missed becoming PBA's first woman champion when she finished second in the 2005 Banquet Open, losing to Tommy Jones, 219-192, in the title match.

Joining Johnson in the all-New York shootout round from the brand new 60-lane South Point Bowling Plaza, are two-time PBA Tour title winner Brad Angelo of Lockport and 26-year-old rookie Anthony Pepe of Elmhurst, who will be trying for his first Tour title in his first career TV appearance.

The player who bowls the highest score in the shootout round will advance to the championship match against top qualifier Dick Allen of Columbia, S.C., who will be trying for his fourth Tour title.

Contested on PBA's Cheetah lane condition pattern, the Cheetah Championship is the first of five PBA title events originating from the World Series. Following the Cheetah finals will be the Viper Championship (Dec. 21); Chameleon Championship (Dec. 28) and the Scorpion Championship (Jan. 4). The PBA World Championship will wrap up the PBA Tour's 2014 season with a live telecast on Sunday, Jan. 11 from the South Point Bowling Plaza at 10 a.m.

ESPN's coverage of the PBA World Series will continue with the PBA Challenge presented by the International Bowling Museum and Hall of Fame, featuring PBA50 Tour, PBA Regional, PBA Women's Regional and Teen Masters finalists on Jan. 18 at noon, followed by the World Bowling Tour Men's and Women's Finals presented by the PBA on Jan. 25 at 10 a.m.

New Qualifiers in Winnetka Bowl's Win-a-Honda Contest

according to Winnetka Bowl Manager Mike Willis.

The new qualifiers are Roxanne Leigh, Bob Englehart (in an upgrade from his previous qualifying score), Patrick Rollins, Andy Mujro and Ron Constable.

The next roll-off is scheduled at Winnetka Bowl for Sunday, Dec. 14, at 1 p.m.

Winnetka Bowl Prize – Mike Jafari, General Sales Manager of Kolbe Honda, displays a 2015 Civic, one of which will be awarded to a lucky bowler in the Win-a-Honda contest ongoing at Winnetka Bowl.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

HELLO TO BOWLING: Part II

Good morning. Last week you said you were interested in learning to bowl. If that's true, there's only one reason you're here; you want to be good at it! Well, like anything, there is a right way and a wrong way to go about it. I'm going to teach you the right way.

Being a bowler is similar to being an athlete in any other sport. You need to carve out a little piece of your life and dedicate it to this. Becoming a winner requires that. There are strategies to learn, skills to master, and trust to develop between you and me. That's a challenge. If you won't do that, I can't help you. Now, are you ready to begin?

Lesson #1: Bowling is more than just throwing a heavy ball at some pins.

The first step toward becoming a good bowler is to act like one! That means getting your head straight. Every time you enter a bowling center, pretend there's a box waiting for you at the door. When you walk through that door, mentally put your ego, attitude, issues and any other distractions in that box. You want to leave here better than when you arrived, and those four demons prevent that. That means no cell phones, music, video games or anything that keeps you from focusing on learning to bowl.

The second step is to develop confidence. Confidence comes from competence. Competence results from practice. Practice develops experience and muscle memory. I know you probably think of practice as work, and the last thing I want is for you to think of practice as a chore. Bowling is fun; practicing should be too! I'll talk more about that later.

- Now it's time to learn a little bit about this game. The basic concept is simple:
- You'll bowl three games each time we meet.
 - There are ten frames in each game.
 - There are ten pins in each frame. The pin closest to you is called the head pin. It is the #1 pin. There's three rows of pins behind it numbered left to right and front to back: 2-3, 4-5-6, 7-8-9-10.
 - Your job is to knock them all down using something called a bowling ball.
 - You are allowed to deliver that ball twice each frame; as many as 3 times in the last frame.
 - You win by scoring higher than your opponent. DUH! But that doesn't necessarily mean

Two things will make you a better bowler: experience and knowledge. Obviously you lack both, but knowledge is more important because it enhances what you experience. Bowlers who know what they're doing are the ones everyone wants on their team. Got that? Good! Let's move on.

A bowling alley consists of two parts; the "approach" and the "lane". The approach is about fifteen feet long. It's where you perform. The lane is where you see the results of your performance. The two areas are separated by a thin line called, the "foul line". During the delivery of your ball, you may not cross that line FOR ANY REASON! Doing so is a foul and the pins knocked down by your shot will not count. That hurts your score.

The lane is sixty feet long from the foul line to the center of the head pin. There are channels on each side of it called "gutters." The gutters are there to trap your ball so it can't knock any pins down. That hurts your score.

So how do we keep the ball from going into a gutter? That's easy! I'm going to teach you four very simple skills that will make the ball go exactly where you want. You need to learn and practice them. But before I teach them to you, I want to tell you four little secrets that will help you understand why those skills are so important.

Secret #1: Bowling is a game of accuracy, not power! The pins fall very easily, but only if something hits them. A skilled bowler is capable of delivering a ball which does exactly that.

Secret #2: You don't win by knocking down more pins than your opponent. You win by delivering more "marks." What's a mark? Good question! A mark is an X or a slash (/) on your score sheet. An X indicates that you knocked down all ten pins with the first ball. That's referred to as a "strike." It scores 10 plus bonus (total pins felled by the next two shots).

A slash means you knocked down all ten pins but needed two shots to do so. That's called a "spare." A spare also scores 10 plus bonus (pins downed by the next shot only). Those bonus pins create the scores needed to win. Using the four skills, you will create many more marks than you will if you don't use them.

Secret #3: You don't have to be at a bowling center to practice bowling. Of the four skills you need to learn, three can be practiced at home. Practicing at home, in private, will develop the focus and muscle memory that will enable you to deliver one effective shot after another. That will help your scores (and your pocketbook). Games that involve pitching things like beanbags or horseshoes will help develop your bowling skills. Remember, I said practice should be fun.

Secret #4: There is a targeting system built into the lanes. It was put there to help others beat you. If you don't want to be beaten, you need to learn how to use it, too. It's the hardest thing to learn because it requires discipline. It's always tempting to look at the pins when you bowl, but that's what separates winners from losers. Remember, I said there's a right way and a wrong way to bowl. LOOKING AT THE PINS IS THE WRONG WAY!

I know what you're thinking! Does it really make any difference where I look? It really does. It's psychological. When you look at a big target sixty feet away, your brain thinks you must heave the ball sixty feet. The ball is too heavy for anyone to do that. Looking at a small target that's only fifteen feet away shifts your thinking from power to accuracy.

You're skeptical? Of course you are. At first, everyone is. Tell you what, take two buckets. Put one fifteen feet away and the other sixty feet away. Take some rolled-up socks or bean-bags and try to pitch them into the buckets. If you are more accurate pitching the bags into the bucket sixty feet away, you are an extremely rare individual.

I'll teach you how to use the targets later. For now, you just need to know that they exist and you must use them! The four skills enable you to pick one and roll the ball over it again and again.

Manny Antonio Wins First ABTA Title at CAL BOWL

Deborah Sanders Hits $3,520 Match Game

All Other Pots Carry Over to Chaparral Lanes

Qualify 1:00-2:30-4:00 & 6:00 PM BTB Finals 8:00 PM

LAKEWOOD — ABTA visited Cal Bowl this past weekend where plenty of money was up for grabs.

It was a lighter turnout but not lacking for excitement as Manny Antonio won his first ABTA Title downing five straight opponents to take home his First Championship.

Cut Scores were decent. Men +65, and Women +33 with Super Seniors added, Teresita Abing +8, Roger Romero +58, and Ely Cruz +55.

Tourney Hi Qualifier Stan Por +153 drew for the Match Series and the Mystery Match game. He drew blanks as the Series was unmatched at 424 and the new Mystery Match Doubles unmatched at 320 in game two.

Match Series est. $4,200 Saturday and the Mystery Match game estimated at $2,200 Saturday. (This pot will cap out at $10,000 as it is a Doubles.)

All was not lost at CAL as the Semis took to the floor and after the 3 games leader Louis Bachus topped the field by far at +148. Nemesio Tagalag in 2nd +95. Louis will sit out and bbwl for the title with Nemesio to enter in game two of the top 16 single elims. It tool +47 to make the top 16 and that included the three guaranteed women.

As always the HQ in the Semis, Bachus, this week will draw for the Match Game worth $3,520. He drew 210 matched by Deborah Sanders. She was a Very Happy Lady to be sure as she finally hit something big in the ABTA . About time!! Maybe she will finally win a title soon. Congrats to one of the nicest ladies you can meet. About time Deb!!

The 3-6-9 pot worth $3,000 again for this event. The last person standing Freddie Manansala was not able to make the 5 9's or better. But Steady Freddie took home a $100 Consolation for his work in the 3-6-9. He took home a consolation of $100. Again the pot will be at $3,000 at next event. Doubles paid out 9 spots and taking the top spot was Vuong

Do and Stan Por.

The final on the floor saw first round match losers take home $100 in 10-16th place. Round two losers $105 in 6-9th Place got $102.50.

Michael Kristich was 4th and Justin Ziegler 5th $110. Then we saw Manny Antonio on a roll win his 4th straight match edging Nemesio Tagalag to advance to the title game. Nemesio really bowled well in 3rd and $200.

Manny is the horse winner at $83 and now advanced to the Title game to meet Hi Qualifier Louis Bachus. Here we go again.

In a high scoring title game both bowlers bowled very well. Strikes were often but Manny pulled away with a big 4 bagger enroute to the title 262- 222 with Handicap.

Manny is married to Doris, is from Long Beach, and they have 2 children Mikey and Ralph. He used a Storm IQ drilled by Manny Gonzales! Rico Cayton, ABTA Bowler has passed away. I know Rico is smiling from above.

Deborah Sanders Hits The Match Game at CAL $3,520
Joey Rodriguez (L) congratulates Deborah Sanders. She finally hit a big one as she hit the Match Game at CAL BOWL with her 210 Game. She took home a tidy $3,520 just in time for Xmas :=) Congrats to a Great Person who is so well liked by all!!

It's December. Already! This is when we all ask ourselves and each other “How can that be? Where did the year go?” I know where most of mine went...bowling! I bowled 10 tournaments, approximately 450 games in league play and floored 3 youth sessions. League fees, side pots and brackets. I refuse to add up the cost. I keep waiting for the Bowlers Intervention Team to show up but so far I've been able to fly under the radar. I know I'm not alone. You're reading this article!

We BIMBOs (Believers in Must-Bowl-Often) have to stick together. So ‘fess up and testify. Proudly wear your ‘Split Happens’ shirts! Flash your bowling pin jewelry! Give the gift of bowling for Christmas, Hanukkah and Kwanzaa! Gift certificates are available at the desk and in the Pro shop. Advertisement over. Sigh. I am such an addict.

his many contributions to our sport. REMEMBER HIS CONTRIBUTIONS.

In addition to his contributions Goldie was a great bowler. He was Del Rosa Lanes Bowler of the Year several times and competed on the Pacific Coast Bowlers (PCB) Tour and in Professional Bowlers Association (PBA) tournaments in his younger days. He bowled in 42 California State Tournaments and had a high game of 299. REMEMBER HIS SUCCESSES.

As each of us age our friends and family sometimes forget what we once were. Let us not forget what Goldie once was. Remember him, remember a strong Goldie, a tough competitor, a winner and a guy who celebrated the successes of his friends as well as his own. REMEMBER HIS FRIENDSHIP.

Besides competing himself Goldie sponsored some of our best local bowlers in tournaments, including Ray Cobb, Corky DeMaio, Gary Madison, Tom Robison and Ron Sandusky to name a few. REMEMBER HIS SUPPORT.

In an effort to celebrate Goldie's life and bowling career, the staff and bowlers at Del Rosa Lanes are taking steps to REMEMBER HIM. His favorite drink (VO and soda) will be called "The Goldie" in the King Pin Lounge within Del Rosa Lanes. On periodic Fridays all league bowlers will wear something red to honor Goldie and REMEMBER HIM. You should have been at Del Rosa Lanes last Friday to see the SEA OF RED. Rest in peace dear friend, WE WILL REMEMBER.

EVERYONE IS INVITED

A SPECIAL MEMORIAL EVENT will be held at Del Rosa Lanes in the King Pin Lounge on Saturday, December 13 from 1 to 4 PM for Goldie Goldman. For more information contact RON SANDUSKY at 909-886-4675.

Believe it or Leave it

NORWALK — Sunday, I was watching the "NOMADS" bowl their monthly tournament (at Keystone Lanes). I overheard a member say, "I saw a guy leave the 5-7-10 split three times in a row."

Well, up went the antenna! I corraled the story teller and squeezed this tale from Carlos Hamilton (a director for the "NOMADS" singles tournament club).

Seems the event happened three weeks ago at Gable House Bowl. The "UN-NAMED BOWLER" was bowling league on the high end. He left the 5-7-10 on the left lane and picked up the 5-7. On the right lane it was a ditto! Back on the left lane - - - #3 SOUR APPLE.

Another first for me, how about you?

ABAKUMOFF HITS 234-781 IN SO-CAL DEAF TRAVEL AT CAL BOWL

LAKEWOOD — With absences of Southern California Deaf Traveling League's top two average bowlers in the travel League's stop at Cal Bowl, no one hit a 800 for 4 games there. The league's long time President Ed Abakumoff led the day's short honor roll of 5 bowlers with games of 159-186-234-202 for 781. Closely followed by Robert Audette with 208-210-187-167 for 772.

The three others hit a 200 game each, Emad Aranki improved with a 216, Paul Taffolla, Jr got his first 204 in this league and a lady Celia Salcedo got this season's first woman high game with her 203. Since Salcedo already has the woman's season high series 705 rolled earlier, the league's Vice-President Sharon Caldwell improved with her day's high 185 game for the women season high game.

League leading Team Eagle Rock led by Audette with his 772 sweeping 5 points and teammate Aranki's 216 beat Team Mid City 13-7 to stay in first. Second place Team Orange County with Taffolla, Jr's 204 gained a half point with a 13.5 to 6.5 win over Team S F Valley. Third place Team Hollywood remained in third although being throbbed by Abakumoff's Team Riverside 13-7. Abakumoff's 781 and teammate Randy Salazar both swept 5 points each while Hollywood's Jim Mohr alone swept 5 of Hollywood's 7 points.

The league thanks Cal Bowl's management and staff for hosting and will look forward to do better next year on its second trip in April. As in the league's rules for only on stop in month of December to allow bowlers to be with their families for the holidays. The first stop in the new year will be at Covina Bowl on January 4, 2015 at Noon.

This 53 years old deaf traveling league wishes all the bowlers and fans Happy holidays and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

SO. CALIF. DEAF SINGLES CLASSIC AT KEYSTONE LANES ON JAN. 10, 2015

NORWALK — Southern California Deaf Bowlers is hosting its 52nd annual handicap mixed singles Classic at Keystone Lanes on January 10, 2015 with 3 squads starting at Noon, 2 PM and 4 PM. The tournament is for deaf and hearing impaired bowlers with current USBC cards. These without USBC cards may purchase USBC cards before entering this event.

The handicaps are 80% of 220 for men with minimum of 140 average and 90% of 220 for women with minimum of 125. Use highest book average of 2013-14 season or highest average of January 1, 2015 for 21 games or more if 10 pins or more higher than 2013-14 book.

The entry fee is $40 for 4 games across 4 pair of lanes. First place prize is $1000 based on 100 entries. Bowlers are responsible for his or her correct average and report of any prize winning of $600 or more. Last year's winner was Daniel Vasquez of La Puente with 925 handicap score and his wife Jennifer placed second with 892. Lucky duo.

SYSCO Wins 4 Team Roll-Off to Capture 2nd Round

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY — After a crazy unprecedented last night of the 2nd Round, it was SYSCO coming from 3 games back to make, and then win the 3 game roll-off. Never in the history of the league had a Round come down to a 4 way tie, requiring all four teams to then bowl separately on their own pair, moving each game and high total pins for the 3 game set determining the winner. I had alluded to the fact last week that a roll-off was possible, but nobody truly expected it to unfold with 4 teams being tied. Even more incredulous was the fact that the Round Winner, SYSCO, actually started the round 0-5 and then 1-9 after two weeks! They went 22-3 down the stretch over the last 5 weeks, and then once they smelled victory, it was their very own CK1 that locked it down. Owner Charlie Kinstler came up clutch in the 3 game roll-off, leading all scorers by a bunch with 648, his teammate Gabriel Martinez was the only other bowler to crack SIX with a 604. Charlie started hot, striking 6 of his first 7 shots, but opened both 9th and 10th to end at 211. The next game he started with another open, but settled in and finished with a six bagger to end with 236. Then in Game 3, with most of the other teams having finished and knowing they needed a big finish, bowlers 1 & 2 had both opened in the 10th, Charlie tossed 3 clutch strikes to finish with a four bagger and 201 locking up the win for his SYSCO team. It was a very long, but exciting night, and nothing was decided until the last two bowlers in the tenth. SYSCO finished with 2235, Threadworks was next at 2213, followed by DV8 2172, and American Harvest Vodka 2080. Great job guys, it was a very fun and exciting round, and as one can see, a very competitive one as well.

This is how we managed to get to all that excitement at the end. Top Seed & Round 1 Winner Keystone Lanes bowled blind, matching their scores with Threadworks and increased their overall lead with a 5-0 sweep. Charles Zelaya 245/669 & Arnold Cheesman 256/621 led the way for Keystone. Threadworks, holding a 3 game lead starting the night, struggled out of the gate, losing Game 1 to DV8 by 66. They came back to win Game 2, but it was a huge 10th frame in Game 3 that propelled DV8 to a 4-1 win, and a tie for the round. Eric Snow 614 & Paul Varela 605 topped the pair and Threadworks. Next we had eventual winner SYSCO facing off with Forest Lanes, and it was SYSCO winning Game 1, and then Game 3 & Totals to lock up their spot in the roll-off. Same story here as Charlie and Gabriel led the way with 637 & 606. American Harvest entered the night down by 4 games, their only hope was to sweep and that is what they did. Miguel Garcia with 618 paced the winners, overcoming the 638 shot by Power House Video Games Lee Liu.

In other action, it was a battle of titans as Vernon Adams went strike for strike with Billy Myers Jr. as the two finished the night 1-2 in the league. Billy had the better set (696) but Vernon (683) had more help as his CASAMIGO'S Tequila crew took down The Professional Approach 5 zip. Next it was Erickson Foods pulling an Italian Job on Pino's Pizza in Game 3, coming from about 80 down to slice up their opponent and win 4-1. Raul Spanky Rosales 629 & Bobby Campagnale 614 carved out the wins for Erickson. Linder Insurance also added to their win total, as they swept past Blizz Yogurt 5 to nil as Anthony Santos 243/677 led the way. Mike Jennings 256/680, Kevin Gagnon 240/651, and Gary Duran with 619 powered their way over J.A.T.'s DeeRonn Booker who continued his hot bowling with 251/677, as Tifco Industries swept away their opponent, 5-0. BOWLIUM was too much for Los Altos Trophies as James Tipton 267/644 and Scott Poddig 236/639 helped lead their team to the 5-0 sweep. In yet another shutout, it was Doug Kempt 627 leading the way as Alhambra Coin Center took down Cook's Bowling Supply. GJC Services got a 608 series from their anchor, David Gullett and won 4-1 over Herzog Insurance.

Sidepot winners were Game 1 Arnold Cheesman 256 Game 2 Billy Myers Jr. 268 and 3rd Game Super Pot went to Lee Liu 244. The Financial Advisor's 2nd game pot went to Billy Myers Jr. as well, with his 268 ($240) nipping James Tipton who collected 2nd and $100 for his 267.

With two rounds in the books, we have two teams qualified for the end of the year Roll Offs, Keystone Lanes and SYSCO. Next week will bring new hope, new challenges, and a LOT of new balls as we transition from 26 Feet, to 46 Feet of lane oil. Most bowlers can go back to having a true spare ball, break out the sanding discs, and get ready for a solid seven weeks of not hooking the whole lane.

The longer high volume pattern offers its own unique challenges, so come down to Del Rio in Downey and check it out! See if the best bowlers in So Cal have what it takes to adjust, and take what the lane is giving them. Congrats again to SYSCO on their victory!
