Past CWBA Board Meets

by Mary Lynly

The California Women's Bowling Association merged with the men's association in 2001 and a once vital nationally admired association disappeared. Organized in 1924, over the years California has contributed countless attributes to the national organization and the one time nearly 80 thriving local associations. Over the last 20 years most all of that has disappeared. We continue to contribute monumental amounts to the Bowlers BVL Fund – topping bowling organizations since its inception. Recently a list of those still around and those who are no longer was put continued on page 7

PBA Playoffs To Award Title In 2020 Prather Credited For 2019 Win

by Lucas Wiseman

ARLINGTON, TX – After the PBA Playoffs seemed to be one of the most popular events of the 2019 PBA season, the PBA announced Friday the event will award a PBA Tour title in 2020. Plus, defending champion Kris Prather has been retroactively awarded a title for his 2019 win. Prather, who now has two PBA titles, defeated Bill O'Neill in the championship match of the inaugural PBA Playoffs earlier this year at Bayside Bowl in Portland, Maine. The event awarded $100,000 to the winner and the semifinals and final were broadcast on national television.

Defending PBA Playoffs Champion Kris Prather

The event had the feel of a major with the top 24 players based on points through the toughest stretch of the PBA schedule earning spots in the event. FloBowling reported in May that PBA Commissioner Tom Clark allowed the PBA Players Committee to make the decision as continued on page 5

Who Is Your Pick For 2019 Player & Rookie of the Year?

The players and experts are currently voting on the 2019 PBA Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year awards but we wanted to give the fans a chance to express their opinion. Go to FloBowling.com and you will be able to vote for the two awards, but before you do that, make sure you check out each player's stats. This link takes you to the same stats voters are using to make their decisions. Tune into FloBowling on Dec. 11 at 4 p.m. Eastern when FloBowling Senior Editor Lucas Wiseman, PBA Commissioner Tom Clark and PBA CEO Colie Edison announce the winners live from the FloSports studios. If you aren't a subscriber to FloBowling already, be sure to subscribe to get live streaming coverage of the PBA, exclusive interviews, features, podcasts and behind-the-scenes access all season long. The 2019 PBA Tour season kicks off January 15 with the PBA Hall of Fame Classic live on FloBowling. Time to vote!

"World's Smallest Bowling Museum" Opens in Santa Cruz

by Brigid Fuller, Communications Mgr.

SANTA CRUZ, CA – The Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk announced the opening of a new exhibit in the Boardwalk Bowl, adjacent to the Boardwalk. The exhibit showcases the history of bowling by the beach with a display of bowling artifacts, photographs and memorabilia from the Boardwalk's Archives.

The exhibit was curated by Boardwalk archivist Jessie Durant and Boardwalk Bowl director Willie King. "We like finding fun ways to share our collection with the public," said Durant. "This is a little-known chapter of our history and we wanted to honor the legacy of bowling by the beach."

The Santa Cruz bowling community also shared their own stories and memorabilia. The unique items in the exhibit tell the story of bowling in the Santa Cruz beach area and the people who have played integral roles in creating that history.

"We're proud of our place in local bowling history and this new exhibit is a fun way for the public to appreciate the history of our beach-side location," said King. "It's a small 'museum' but there's plenty for visitors to digest." King has managed the Boardwalk Bowl since the Santa Cruz Seaside Company purchased Surf Bowl in the 1990s.

The Bowl has received interior and exterior upgrades over the past year. In addition to the museum, located inside the Pro Shop, a new display on roller coaster history was added to the lounge entrance, lane technology was upgraded, and the Bowl's decor was completely refurbished.

Bowling has a long history in the Santa Cruz beach area. Santa Cruz Seaside Company archives document a 4-lane "duckpin" alley along the Boardwalk in 1909 operated by Victor A. Marini. It's the earliest recorded activity of the local Marini family, known today for their saltwater taffy. 1930 marked the last year of bowling on the Boardwalk, however, duckpin alleys would make appearances in the Boardwalk Casino throughout the first half of the 1940s. You can see a set of antique duckpins in the new exhibit.

Modern bowling at the corner of Beach & Cliff Streets dates back to 1958 when a state-of-the-art 14-lane bowling alley, lounge and restaurant were built. The Santa Cruz Seaside Company purchased the Surf Bowl in 1994 and after major renovations it was renamed the Boardwalk Bowl in 2001.

For more information about the history of bowling in the Santa Cruz beach area visit the Boardwalk's history blog - Never a Dull Moment.

The Boardwalk Bowl is open daily; the Boardwalk Bowl Museum is located inside the Pro Shop. Admission is free, hours vary. Call 426-3324 for more information.

The Boardwalk Bowl is a state-of-the-art bowling center with 26 lanes, a restaurant, lounge, beach-view patio, birthday party room, video game arcade, and the world's smallest bowling museum. Coaster's Lounge features live music on weekends and has been voted Best Karaoke in Santa Cruz for the past decade. Located at 115 Cliff Street in Santa Cruz, the Bowl is owned and operated by the Santa Cruz Seaside Company. <https://boardwalkbowl.com>

Mike Bright Had A Brilliant Night of Bowling Rolling His 1st 800 Series

by Steve Anderson, who bowls in league with Mike

WESTMINSTER – On November 18, 2019, 51 yr. old Mike Bright, who had a 224 book average for the 2018-19 season, and now carries a 211 average, as of this writing, in the Monday night Kings & Queens league at Westminster Lanes, bowled games of 254, an oh so close 279, with 10 strikes, and a 267, for a total of 800! Which is every bowlers dream.

This is Mike’s first 800 series in the 35 years that he has been bowling and he has a total of three 300 games. Mike also had a nice 728 series on December 2, 2019, with games of 226, 268 & 234. Mike had a 199 average after 21 games on 11/11/19.

Then after his 800 on 11/18/19, and his 728 on 12/2/19, he raised his current average from 199 to 211. He’s been on fire lately and is the hottest bowler in our league these last two weeks.

He thanks Butch Maxwell (a former Marine, who’s retired now and fighting cancer), out of his former Westminster Bowling Supply Pro Shop next to Westminster Lanes, for the drilling of his 15 lb. Storm Code Red ball that he used.

Mike got started bowling back in high school at the age of 16, on encouragement from his P.E. coach, Merlin Driggs, back in 1984. Mike would like to dedicate his great scoring to his wife, Sondra and family.

He shares his happiness with his Monday night Kings & Queens league team #12, “Joni Ur Up”, which consist of teammates: son, Trevor Bright, Joni Wickman and Neil Bytel.

He also shares his accomplishment with bowlers in his other league; namely his Thursday 6:10 pm ‘Men’s Commercial’ league at Westminster Lanes. He looks forward to bowling some more 300 games and 800+ series in the future.

The California Bowling Writers has adopted Operation Freedom Paws!

Operation Freedom Paws, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, founded in 2010 by California Bowler and Veteran Mary Cortani, provides service dogs and training support to veterans and others who suffer from post-traumatic stress syndrome, complex PTSD, traumatic brain injury and other physical, neurological, psychological and mobility needs. According to experts, service dogs help empower people with disabilities to live quality lives.

Operation Freedom Paws carefully matches clients with their specially chosen four-legged companions, most of which come from rescue shelters. The partners then begin a 48-week program which trains the clients to train their own dogs. At the end of the program, they're certified together as service dog teams.

to whether or not the event should be a title. At the time, committee chairman Brad Miller declined to explain the decision.

“After we all had the opportunity to watch how the event played out in 2019, we are comfortable and confident this is the correct decision,” Clark told FloBowling on Friday.

With the PBA Playoffs being a new event in 2019 nobody knew what to expect from the event. It turned out to be a significant event followed by many fans and popular opinion was that it should count as a PBA Tour title.

When asked by FloBowling if he personally thought it should be a title on the eve of the semifinals and finals, Clark said he thought it should.

“I think it should be (a title),” Clark told FloBowling at the time. “I don’t have to do what the players committee says, but I respected their wishes. No one had seen this thing before. No one knew how it was going to play out.”

In 2020, the PBA Playoffs will follow the same format as it did in 2019 with the exception being that each round will be contested in a different city.

The PBA reported Friday that PBA members will earn competition points in 13 tournaments between January and late March. The match play elimination rounds for the top 24 qualifiers will be held in four different locations for the first time. Qualifiers nine through 24 will compete in the Round of 24 at Bowlero Norco in California. Those winners will be joined by the top eight qualifiers for Round of 16 competition at Bowlero Lone Tree in Colorado. The Round of 8 will then take place at Bowlero Euless in Texas, and the semifinal and final matches will be contested at Bowlero North Brunswick in New Jersey.

The 2020 PBA Tour season gets underway in mid-January with the PBA Hall of Fame Classic. All qualifying and match play rounds of every PBA Tour event are broadcast live exclusively on FloBowling.

The Perfect Game

by Steve Felege

Since May of this year, The Perfect Game has focused on the issue of Glenn Allison’s unsanctioned 900 series. Articles written have been published in this periodical and most were sent to the USBC officers, via email, for verification purposes. As we have reported, no officer has responded to even one of our solicitations.

Recently, I questioned if any USBC officials had read what was sent. A friend (who must remain anonymous) offered to help. “G” said to me, ‘Let me send your emails. I have a program that can tell if, and by whom, the messages are being opened.’ The following script was addressed to all those listed below at “bowl.com.” It was sent November 11-12.

November 10, 2019
To: USBC President, Karl Kielich and Vice President, Karen Jost, USBC Board members, Andrew Anderson, Josie Barnes, Mike Cannington, Anthony Colangelo, Jay Daryman, Cathy DeSocio, Jo Dimond, Bo Goergen, Dennis Hacker, Cornell Jackson, Kelly Kulick, Lowell Lovgren, Melissa McDaniel, Adam Mitchell, Rhino Page, and Randy Thompson. USBC Executive Director, Chad Murphy and Deputy Executive Director, Jason Overstreet

Re: What is and should not be.

Dear members of the USBC governing body,
On October 22, 1969, Led Zeppelin released a song titled, “What Is and What Should Never Be.” This could also be the title for the story of Glenn Allison’s legendary 900 series. “What is,” would refer to the fact that Mr. Allison rolled the first legitimate 900 series in sanctioned league play. “What Should Never Be,” is the continued denial of recognition of that series by all of you, as a governing body. To back that up, here are the facts about this controversy, gleaned from almost five years of research. For your amusement, it has been titled:

What We Now Know Is What Should Never Be

- We know Glenn Allison’s 900 series wasn’t sanctioned by the ABC even though he followed all the rules on July 1, 1982; so, did La Habra 300 Bowl, the center at which he delivered that series. The people in charge of the USBC should never pretend they don’t know this.
- We know Glenn Allison did not need to cheat. He had all the talent necessary to be the first bowler to deliver a perfect series. He was a successful, multi-championship professional bowler. He was a charter member of the PBA, an ABC Hall of Famer, and rolling perfect games was not unusual for him. The ABC should never have made public its belief that a 900 series was impossible to achieve without cheating.
- We know La Habra 300 Bowl did not cheat, either. No records exist of that center EVER being cited for non-compliance, before or after Glenn Allison’s 900 series. The truth is, Allison’s set wasn’t sanctioned despite approval of the lane conditions by four local, ABC-certified, lane inspectors. Within fifteen minutes of Allison delivering his last shot, Bob Ramirez, Edward Pinchot, Terry Johnson and Bob Strange had arrived to examine the lanes. After completing their inspections and paperwork, Allison was told by the lead inspector, Bob Ramirez, “Everything seems to be in order.” In other words, there was nothing wrong with the lane conditions at the time Allison did “the impossible.” On September 28, 2015, at 3:30 PM EST, I spoke, at length, to one of the aforementioned inspectors: Edward “Bud” Pinchot. His memories of that night were still vivid. He told me all four lane inspections were performed independently and simultaneously to determine the oil distribution that night. Bud reported to me that the results from all four inspectors, “were within a board or two of each other.” He then stated, for the record, “I have always felt Allison’s accomplishment should have been recognized.” He was still angry that Burt Kellerman, flown in from Milwaukee, Wisconsin by the ABC the following day, had overruled them.
Regarding honor scores at that time, ABC rules dictated immediate inspection of the lanes by local inspectors. For Allison’s 900 series, that rule was followed. The ABC was guilty of “Breach of Contract” when they sent Kellerman to the scene; he was neither local nor immediate. To make matters worse, this was not the first time the ABC had pulled this stunt. (Look up the story behind Ray Orf’s 890 series.) The ABC should never have broken their own rules.
- We know the USBC “closed the book” on this event in 2014, issuing a press release titled, “USBC CONCLUDES RE-EVALUATION OF GLENN ALLISON 900 SERIES.” Why would the USBC, which is charged with maintaining the integrity of this sport, use that document as a final word on anything? It contained two lies, a factoid, a platitude, and a piece of factual nonsense. * It’s a “Nothing Sandwich,” concocted by Terry Bigham and delivered by Andrew Cain.
The Central District Court of California did not “find in favor of the ABC on all counts,” as stated in that document. According to the LA Times, the case never even made it to court. The second falsehood is that the USBC considered “all the evidence.” Bud Pinchot told me the USBC never reached out to him about that night. If eyewitnesses and inspectors weren’t contacted, it’s safe to say the USBC did NOT consider “all the evidence.” What kind of investigation was actually done by the USBC? Was an actual “investigation” of any kind truly performed, or was that just another lie? The USBC should never rely on deception like this. It makes you look inept, weak and fraudulent.
- We know that the present members of the USBC Board of Directors should ask Neil Stremmel for his thoughts on this subject. He was the USBC Managing Director of the National Governing Body when I spoke to him on September 23, 2015. I cannot disclose what he told me in confidence, but shortly after we spoke about Glenn Allison, Chad Murphy forced him out of the USBC.  That should not be, either.
- We know for a fact that one USBC Board member met Glenn Allison at a luncheon after this year’s annual Hall of Fame convention, shook his hand, and addressed him as, “Mr. 900.” Though Glenn could not remember that person’s name, we have to wonder why he/she has done nothing to make that salutation a fact, after all, it is the right thing to do. Members of this esteemed Board should never exhibit such hypocrisy.
- We also know that most, if not all, professional bowlers are familiar with Allison’s story and believe the ABC made a mistake by failing to sanction his series. This information came directly from Tom Clark, President of the PBA. On May 9, 2019, he also shared this tidbit: “I personally consider Glenn Allison as the first person to bowl a 900 series.” He stated, for the record, the PBA would support a USBC decision to retroactively sanction Allison’s 900. The USBC should never be as closed-minded as this Board seems to be.
- We know some who sit on the USBC Board of Directors are/were professional bowlers. If Mr. Clark’s insights are accurate, why have you not expressed your real opinions on this matter? The bowling world wants to know what your thoughts are on this subject. The USBC policy of not responding serves no purpose but to cast doubt on the honor of the USBC. Glenn Allison is one of your own and you sit there and do nothing for him. Shame on you!
Perhaps you might see things differently if you thought about it this way: On January 24, 2010, Kelly Kulick also did “the impossible.” She destroyed Chris Barnes, 265-195, to become the first woman to win a PBA tournament, and it was a “MAJOR” - The Tournament of Champions. How would any of you feel if, the day after her victory, a “higher authority” was flown in from Arlington, Texas, and that person decided to disqualify her victory because the oil pattern used in that tournament favored her delivery. How would you react to that? Would you just shrug your shoulders and say, “Tough luck Kelly, but those are the breaks.” Close your eyes and think about it for a minute. It would be unimaginable, and yet, that’s the essence of what happened to Glenn Allison. USBC Board members should never be too timid to speak their minds.
- We know that Bowlers Journal International magazine recognizes Glenn Allison as the original Mr. 900 and puts his name atop their “List of 900 Bowlers.” Do you silently agree with that periodical? How many of you feel it’s time to officially recognize Glenn’s miracle, but say nothing? That silence should never be.
- We know the entire world of bowling recognizes Glenn Allison as the legitimate Mr. 900. The world is right to think Allison was cheated by the ABC and deserves the immortality he earned. The USBC Board of Directors has the authority to change that, along with the responsibility to do so. Keeping the USBC on the wrong side of history should never have been allowed to go on for as long as it has - more than 37 years.
- We know that the Congress of the United States of America has recognized Allison’s feat. On October 3, 2019, it issued a certificate which officially proclaimed him as the “Original Mr. 900.” The USBC sent no representative to congratulate him at the presentation ceremony. I personally made sure Chad Murphy knew when and where it would take place. Will you also hide from the truth if/when Glenn Allison receives the Presidential Medal of Freedom from President Trump? Chad Murphy should never have embarrassed the USBC in such a fashion. It will be interesting to see how Bowlers Journal International covered that story.

Conclusion

The world knows that Glenn Allison’s series should have been sanctioned by the ABC. Knowing that sanctioning for his series was wrongfully denied casts a stain on the history of this sport. It creates doubt about the integrity of the USBC and all those who preside over it. A bowler of his caliber and pedigree should never have been treated as he has been. But that’s what is; it’s also what should never be.
Perhaps, some day, the USBC will be led by men and women from the same mold as Tom Clark. Only then will this travesty finally be rectified. Until then, we’ll all take a lesson from the real Mr. 900, Glenn Richard Allison, and just be patient.

* For a complete dissection of, “USBC CONCLUDES RE-EVALUATION OF GLENN ALLISON 900 SERIES,” Read the California Bowling News, June 13, 2019 edition: DAVID VS GOLATH - page 5. (Hint: CBN is available on-line, free of charge.)
 As reported in the LA Times, July 2, 1989 issue: ROLLING ALONG: Glenn Allison’s Story Has a Perfect Ending - Chris Dufresne, Staff Writer. (Hint: To read this, Google what is underlined.)
 As reported by Jeff Richgels: “The 11th Frame: With a ‘bully’ at the helm and a system that helps him keep control, USBC has become an autocratic organization lacking transparency and accountability and prone to missteps.” - April 6, 2018. (Hint: To read this, Google what is underlined.)

One week after the above document was sent to all board members, via email to “bowl.com”, here is what we found. Of the twenty emails, only six were opened. All six had been opened by Jason Overstreet. Say, “WHAT!”
My friend could not explain this. Were those emails deleted by Overstreet, or were they forwarded? Did the Board members receive them and not open them? We will probably never know, but it doesn’t matter. What’s important is the discovery that emailing the officers of the USBC is an unreliable method of communicating with them.
As you know, we aren’t easily discouraged. Two things in my world define “reliability:” the way Earl Anthony delivered a shot, and the United States Postal Service. On Nov. 18, physical packets were sent to all Board members. By the 21st, those packages had ALL been delivered to every member of that governing body, except Randy Thompson. His was sent to USBC headquarters in Arlington, TX (he resides in Des Moines, IA). This was done to see if that facility would forward it to him. Each packet contained the following: A letter of introduction (see below), a printed copy of the above email, a copy of The California Bowling News (Nov. 7, 2019 issue), a brief survey (see below), and a SASE for the return of said survey.

Letter of Introduction

November 15, 2019
Dear Mr/Ms _____
My name is Steve Felege and, like you, I have a deep and long-lasting love affair with the sport you govern. I am writing this letter to you because I am concerned about the present state of affairs at USBC headquarters. Please allow me to explain.
Retired from XXXX, one of my hobbies is to write a column for the California Bowling News. My byline is, “The Perfect Game,” and Glenn Allison is a subject I cover extensively. I always try to be thoughtful and fair in my articles, but all the information I find supports Glenn Allison’s right to top the list of 900 series bowlers. There is another side to this story, but USBC has a “DO NOT RESPOND POLICY” which prevents your side from being told.
On November 11-12, my latest article was sent, via email, to all members of the USBC governing body. Hoping for some response, from anyone, it was discovered that those emails to you may have been intercepted by Jason Overstreet. While the messages went to all Board members at “bowl.com,” the indication was that six of them (as of this moment) had been opened by Mr. Overstreet. Since I don’t know if these emails were deleted by him, or forwarded to you, I have decided to send that article to you via USPS. Enclosed please find a copy of that article along with a questionnaire. For your convenience, I have included a SASE for the return of that survey.
If you like, please feel free to add any additional comments you care to regarding this debate/discussion. I, along with the readers of the Bowling News, look forward to anything you have to say about this subject, and I understand that you may not wish to respond to some of the questions.
Thank you for taking time from your busy schedule to consider this matter.
Sincerely,

Steven B. Felege

Glenn Allison Survey - KK

- 1) How familiar are you with the circumstances surrounding the Glenn Allison controversy?

☐ Very familiar
☐ Somewhat familiar
- 2) Do you believe the ABC made the correct decision when it refused to sanction Glenn Allison’s 900?

☐ Yes, I do
☐ No, I do not
☐ That decision is debatable
- 3) Given that ABC rules, at that time, called for ‘immediate inspection of the lanes by local ABC officials,’ do you believe the ABC was justified in sending Burt Kellerman, from Milwaukee, WI, to re-inspect the lanes after Glenn Allison rolled his 900?

☐ Yes, I do
☐ No, I do not
- 4) Do you believe the USBC made the right decision, in 2014, when it decided to terminate any future consideration of this issue?

☐ Yes, I do
☐ No, I do not
- 5) Do you believe the controversy surrounding this issue is healthy for this sport?

☐ Yes, I do
☐ No, I do not
☐ I have no opinion about that
- 6) Given the global interest and support Glenn Allison continues to receive, do you believe “closing this chapter” was in the best interest of the USBC?

☐ Yes, I do
☐ No, I do not
☐ I have no opinion about that
- 7) On Oct. 3, 2019, the U.S. Congress certified Glenn Allison as the “Original Mr. 900.” Given this fact, would you be willing to propose to your fellow USBC Board members, that a vote be taken on a resolution to grant a “special exemption” to Glenn Allison which would allow his name to top the list of 900 Series Bowlers?

☐ Yes, I would
☐ No, I would not
- 8) If such a proposal was made to place Glenn Allison atop the list of 900 Series Bowlers, would you vote for it?

☐ Yes, I would
☐ No, I would not

There you have it. Our latest effort to get Glenn Allison’s 900 series recognized by the USBC is “old-school,” but at least we will know for certain if the lack of action is coordinated and intentional. Will this latest effort produce a response from any one of the folks at USBC? We’ll let you know, one way or the other. Stay tuned.

Here’s Another Reminder About Bowling Etiquette

by Fred Eisenhammer

When will bowlers learn?

One can never remind players enough about bowling etiquette. This may be an appropriate time for that reminder because many new bowlers are midway through their lengthy nine-month fall season and might still need a brush-up on manners.

As for those veteran bowlers who should know better . . . well, it doesn’t hurt to hear this lecture again.

Remember, you’re not bowling in a vacuum. There are bowlers all around you. If you forget everything else, just remember this: Be considerate.

So do you have a pet peeve about etiquette and courtesy when you bowl?

I have one.

When I release the ball at the foul line, oftentimes a bowler on an adjoining lane will thunder to my side and rifle his or her ball while I’m still tracking my shot and anticipating my upcoming pin action (or lack thereof).

It’s easy to get startled by such an ill-mannered bowler . . . and annoyed. Why can’t that bowler just wait a few seconds and allow me to watch my electrifying shot (thinking positively) before I triumphantly return to my seat?

The fact is that rudeness often prevails in a bowling house. It’s rarely intentional, but it can produce a heart-stopping – and irritating – moment or two.

On the same topic, perfectbowling.com, a nifty website that provides bowling tips, advice and other interesting data, came up with its list of nine bowling rules for etiquette and courtesy.

So here goes – the etiquette rules from perfectbowling.com:

1 – The first rule in bowling is to never bother another bowler while they are in the process of bowling.

2 – Bowlers on the right-hand lane have the right-of-way to bowl first.

3 – Never pick up your ball from the return rack while another bowler is preparing to bowl and is in his/her starting position.

Fred Eisenhammer: Also, don’t start cleaning your ball while climbing onto a lane next to another bowler who is getting ready to bowl. It can be extremely distracting. In other words, don’t be so eager to take your shot. The pins will still be standing!

4 – Refrain from using obscenities or vulgar gestures.

5 – After your shot, let others bowl.

Fred Eisenhammer: In other words, don’t linger on the lane after your shot.

6 – Wear proper shoes.

7 – Keep food and other refreshments off the approach.

8 – Remember, there are others waiting to bowl.

Fred Eisenhammer: In other words, don’t wander off aimlessly. . . or socialize too long when your turn is about to arrive.

9 – Above all else, have fun.

I’ll add Rule No. 10 to the list:

10 – Let the bowler next to you complete his or her turn and walk back to his or her seat before you start your approach.

Of course, it’s inevitable that some bowlers will slip up from time to time, so it’s important not to get flustered if someone violates one of these rules.No slamming your bowling ball on the lane in disgust. Distractions happen – even when pros are bowling.

Remember, it’s just a game. So enjoy it. Be a good citizen and let others enjoy it as well!

together by one time president Mary Lynly. The list was mailed to all and an immediate desire to put together a reunion. With Marianne Evan’s help in contacting all we could find the reunion became a reality. We met at the Crowne Plaza in Sacramento on October 19, 2019. CWBA had many conventions and meetings at the hotel in the past and we were treated royally. Our room was complimentary and set up beautifully. We had the opportunity to share stories and thoughts and view pictures.

Each attendee received a welcome bag with an old picture of the entire board during one of the many events held and included was a page for each to see how many they could identify! It had an official CWBA pin on the bag and a wonderful cookie! The years do go by! There were just 20 still among us and we were pleased that nine were able to attend: Judy Hartman, Eureka; Nickie Pemberton and Elaine VanOtten, Pacifica; Chris Beard, Gardnerville, NV; Sherry Howe, Placerville; Marianne Evans, Simi Valley; Barbara Metzinger Hureaux, Carmichael; Linda Johnson Pilios; Covina; and Mary Lynly, Roseville. Unable to attend due to health problems getting in the way were Elaine Hagin and son Peter and Lucelle Fahrni and her daughter-in-law. We were pleased that Linda’s husband Chris and Marianne’s friend Lisa came.

Our lunches were delicious and we enjoyed a wonderful dessert. Coffee and Tea were on the table and the service was to die for – thanks Leo! Best was just hearing from each person about what they had done in the years gone by. Not all were still bowling but most all were still involved in bowling – Chris Beard is President of Nevada USBC; Nickie had her foot injured but is still secretary of several leagues and will be back bowing soon. We learned Lucelle is 92 and still bowling two times a week! Elaine VO bowls once a week and due to “Bowlero’s acquisition of Brentwood Bowl where her husband was Manager for years – he has retired!” Judy does not bowl but has a hand in here and there; Linda and Chris are still involved and also involved in their church. Sherry no longer bowls but still works full time. After 67 years, Mary no longer bowls but writes and is still interested in what goes on. Marianne is still secretary of a few leagues and works full time. Elaine H. was sidelined by a fall and broke her ankle.

We bathed in the light of the Good Old Days, the structure and hands on and respect of WIBC and the enjoyment of all of our wonderful association leaders and our accomplishments, conventions and how much we loved the fun of Hospitality and meetings and honoring our members. Info gleaned from the final CWBA board list.

There was talk of trying to do it again. Things like this are good for the soul.

PBA REGIONAL UPDATE: DEREK WILLIAMS WINS FIRST PBA50 REGIONAL TITLE

Former PBA member Derek Williams from Groves, Texas, shot 256 to begin the tournament and continued to out-score the field as he held the lead after each round of the PBA50 Beaumont Southwest Open at Crossroads Bowling Center in Beaumont, Texas, Sunday, coasting to his first PBA50 Regional victory.

Williams, who recorded his eighth overall PBA Regional victory and his fourth win in Beaumont, held a 120-pin lead going into the eight-game round robin finals where he won five of his eight matches to build his margin of victory to 220 pins over PBA Southwest Region Hall of Famer Rick Lawrence from Waxahachie, Texas. Williams collected $2,500 for the win.

The PBA Southwest Region’s final event in 2019 will be the PBA/PBA50 Houston Southwest Doubles presented by Mike Austin’s Bowling Dynamix at Emerald Bowl in Houston, December 20-22.

• The PBA Regional program concludes its 2019 season with PBA/PBA50 Houston Emerald Bowl Doubles Dec. 20-22 in Houston, Texas. The Southwest Region event is projected to pay a projected $7,000 first place.

• For complete PBA Regional schedules, rules and entry information, visit pba.com, open the “schedules” tab and click on PBA Regional Tours to find the event(s) in your area...and remember, you can follow “live scoring” for all PBA Regional events on pba.com (easily accessible for Apple and Android device users using the PBA app).

CAL BOWL BOWLING REPORT

by Heather Dawson

2500 E. Carson St., Lakewood, CA 90712 • (562) 421-8448

LAKEWOOD – It's been raining strikes and spares here. Some pile up and some disappear before the game is over. Who piled up the strikes this week? Check your league! Are YOU in the winners column? Read on!

Young at Heart: Victor Santos was hoarding the strikes on Monday: 265-245-237/747. Frances Walker did the ladies proud. Check her 226-190-181/597. Do your rain dance! More strikes! And not the lightning kind.Carl Steel 266/618, Rey Santos 256/625, Charles Gleason 236, Chris Abing 234/632, James Thompkins 629, Rick Seneris 622.

Pin Heads: Week after week...which team is topping the sheet? "Chuckle Berries" is their name. Winning is their game. Team 8 needs to add Norm Duke to their roster... then chase the "Berrys" to the finish line.Damon Flewellen 230-187/582, Bill Marseilles 215/548, Bruce Brown 184/511, Stacy Kelly 221-212/588, Ashley Brown 214-197/568, Diane Robles 180/480, Linda Maldonado 174-167/487.

Senior Mens Trio: Team name NEVER to use! "Senile Citizens". If you can walk in the door, you are a bowler!!! Senior strokers are special, each in his own way. (Maybe "strokers" is bad too.) Specials on a wet Wednesday!Sonny Dew 278/709, Chauncey Brown 276/720, Steve Vaughn 259/756, Kevin Gannon 258/754, Joe Ray Jr. 258, Arnold Cheesman 739.

Fil-Am: "Fil-Am" should be "Fil-Up" those squares with strikes and spares.James Bael 759, Ike Topacio 718, Matt Mosley 682, Marife Catalasan 620, Shirley Owens 592, Beth Austria 574, Tres Catalasan 269, Emmerson Wafer 248, James Borillo 247, Valerie Colian 235, Annie Yonemura 222, Christy Estimo 199.

Vegas in May: The road to Vegas in April and May is packed with league bowlers ready for sweepers, food, and gambling. Cal bowlers will be part of the highway 15 parade. The road to the pocket was rocky on Sunday.Kevin McCall 677, Kenneth Johnson 619, Anthony Hill 619, Milena Zelaya 609, Jennifer Morrow 591, Sierra Nelson 535, Brian Lawton 266, Darrell Baker 236, Kevin Adams 221, Stephen Hill 221, Krischna Howard 216, Leigh Hall 201, Lisa Ross 197.

Laughlin Bowler Bears: New names on the high stats columns are button busters. Some people never get their name in print, or "blasted" out weekly to over $60,000 bowlers in California, Nevada and over-seas.Brandon Mims 300/696, Jonathan Gale 247/660, Allen Swickard 242, Ernie Fishr 238/663, Jaime Grabinski 235/647, Marcel V 234/670, Robyn Ramelb 241/570, Julie Grabinski 202/500, Ashlee Ravaglia 199/510, Becky Carroll 189/499.

Sport Practice Club: Only two weeks left on the "Sport Shot" condition. Every 4 weeks a new shot to test. Currently the league is averaging 159 on the challenging lanes. Men 168/Women 138. A new league will start again soon. Bring a frustrated friend.David Ferguson 694, Kevin Gallagher 583, John Struckman 486, Janet Love 467, Lisa Swanson 360, Antonio Palongro 233, Lowell Huber 213, Theo Green 179, Nicshelle Farrow 161.

Sierra Bugs: Connie Wood rolled a ball down the lane, right into the pocket. Surprise! A "sour apple". The State Association has a great pin for that! Money can't buy everything! Especially a smile.Ann Weiss 212, Debbie Berardini 205/501, Becky Salcedo 198, Stephany Graves 192/479, Janet Simmons 191/461, Sandy Wright 187, Connie Wood 485, Mel Leach 485, Chris Ewaskey 485.

Gobs and Gals: These head pin hunters captured their share of the strikes.Mike Calvillo 721, Jon Reyes 673, Cameron Huntelman 652, Liza Agoncillo 596, Stephanie Zavala 583, April Griese 555, Julian Zavala 266, Daryl McCloud 256, Emmerson Wafer 238, Sue Cant 205, Michelle Criswell 204.

Mini Couples: Rain, rain, stick around! The lane conditions are steady and the bowlers ready (for a good time.) Drag out last years fruit cakes. Time for Xmas snacks.Rudy Tomaneng 639, Danny Peramaki 588, Rick Chambers 543, Orrelle Dennis 567, Emily Burchman 549, Mary Vieira 455, Bob Hutto 258, Kirk VanDoren 206, Barry Frembling 194, Girlie Huervas 216, Thelma Tito 182, Cherry Shackelford 157, Karen Walker 157. See ya'll next week!

Saddleback Lanes took the opener from Buddy's Bowling Supply, but Buddy's roared back to take the next two. None of the games were really close, but when totals were added up, Saddleback Lanes had a three-pin victory, for a 3-2 win in the match.

In other action, 3 Olives Vodka swept past Bowlum with a nice 236/668 from substitute Ray Minter. Eric Snow helped with a 225/633. Threadworks also got a sweep, as Rick Barbaria got locked in for 268/706 to pace them in their match against Keystone Lanes. Rednil Insurance Brokers got a 3-2 win over Professional Approach. And Century 21—PEAK closed out the round with a sweep, as Mike Cammarata topped the pair with 221/640.

The first sidepot in the upper division went to Jonathan Huff. 208 was enough to get him that win. Jaime Orozco was second with 201. Lee Liu won the lower division pot with 236. In the middle game, Mikey Villarreal took the upper division with 224, while Gabriel Martinez earned second place money with 214. Rick Barbaria shot 268 to win the lower division. In the final game, Anthony Santos shot 244 to win the upper division super pot payout of $100. Kevin Jones had to settle for second with 226. Lee Liu got another win, shooting 267 to take the final pot.

The Financial Advisors Pot paid $190 to Rick Barbaria for his 268 in the middle game. Bobby Hornacek earned $90 for second place, shooting a 236.

Five bowlers were still alive in the Eliminator Pot heading into the final night. Of those five, Anthony Santos had the top score, shooting a 627 series, earning him $190. Paul Barraco finished second with 606 for $80. The third-place money of $50 goes to Gabriel Martinez with 597. Stephanie Zavala and Buddy Lucas rounded out the cashers in the Eliminator Pot for the second round. The Eliminator Pot will start again next week as the third round begins.

Put the plastic away. The third round begins next week, with long oil and a lot more volume than we've been seeing the last seven weeks. The standings start over. Everyone is back in contention and enthusiastic again.

Come down to Del Rio Lanes next Monday to watch the action, as the best in Southern California compete for the $16,000 top prize throughout the season.

INVITATIONAL

CAL BOWL OUTLASTS U.S. FOODS TO WIN 2ND ROUND

FOREST LANES ALMOST SNEAKS IN FROM THE SECOND PAIR

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY – Monday night marked the final night of the second round in the Brunswick Invitational. For seven weeks, bowlers have taken to the lanes and battled the dry pattern. Some were happy to be seeing the round come to an end, but four teams had been waiting for their matches all week. Going into the night, those four teams were still alive with a chance to win the round. U.S. Foods and Cal Bowl were tied with 22 wins. Team Hu$tle was one win behind with 21, while Forest Lanes was still right there with 20. U.S. Foods and Cal Bowl would battle on the top pair, but if there were to split their match, a team from the second pair could easily go around them both.

All three of the games on the top pair were close throughout. Neither team ever had a big lead at any point in the match. Both teams had hot streaks and cold streaks, but they seemed to happen at the same time, always keeping the game close. In the opener, Ramon Torres led Cal Bowl with a 226 while Paul Barraco topped U.S. Foods with 221. Torres got just a little more help from his teammates though, as Cal Bowl came out on top by 18 pins, 734-716. In the second game, Cal Bowl had an opportunity to go up two games to none, but an inopportune seven count on the fill ball by Ramon Torres was enough to give U.S. Foods a narrow two pin victory. Torres and Ruiz both had 215's in the middle game. For U.S. Foods, Gabriel Martinez topped them with 214, while Charlie Kinstler was a pin back at 213. After two games, Cal Bowl held a 16-pin lead for totals. The third game was close into the late frames, but it all came apart for U.S. Foods at the end. A string of opens put Cal in command heading into the final frame, and they had no trouble filling enough frames to win the finale by 48 pins, giving them a 4-1 win for the match. Torres and Ruiz tied again for the Cal Bowl lead with matching 224's. For Torres, that gave him a pair leading 655 set. The four wins gave Cal Bowl a record of 26-9 to finish the round.

The four wins by Cal essentially eliminated Forest Lanes from contention. Team Hu$tle would still be able to tie for the round if they were to sweep all five games on the second pair. Instead, it was Forest Lanes getting the sweep. The five wins gave Forest Lanes 25 for the round, but it was one win short of the Cal Bowl total. Bobby Hornacek started slowly for Forest but finished with 236-265 for a 667 series to lead the pair. Tony Brunning added 224-220/635 and Jon Diso was not far behind with 235-234/622. Those scores were more than enough to put away Team Hu$tle who had been more than competitive the whole round but just didn't have it on this night.

Don Julio Tequila took four out of five games from the Bowling Guys. Lee Liu was the star of this match, shooting 236-203-267 for a league leading 706 set. Kevin Jones had a 226/618 for the Bowling Guys to lead them to their one win.

Tito's Vodka finished a 21-14 after taking four out of five from Captain Morgan. Gary Duran topped the pair, leading Tito's with 236/578.

J.A.T. got a couple of 600 sets from Anthony Santos and Kevin Valmonte to sweep past Kingpin Pro Shop. The first two games were close, but J.A.T. put the match out of reach with a big third game of 856. Santos led the way with 244/627, while Valmonte added a very consistent 212/617.
