Bill O'Neill Wins Fourth Title in PBA Alka Seltzer Plus Cold Cheetah Championship

Pennsylvania pro completes dramatic performance to end two-year title slump

LAS VEGAS - Bill O'Neill of Langhorne, Pa., completed a dramatic performance to win his fourth Professional Bowlers Association Tour title in the Alka Seltzer Plus Cold Cheetah Championship, the opening tournament in the 2012-13 PBA Tour season, at South Point Hotel and Casino.

O'Neill, who won his last title in the 2010 Pepsi Viper Championship, started the title match with seven strikes and cruised to a 243-192 victory over top qualifier Mike Wolfe of New Albany, Ind.

The title match concluded an uphill battle that began when O'Neill barely made it into the Round of 16 in 16th place by two pins. After sneaking into the Round of 16, he advanced 12 positions to qualify fourth for the four-man stepladder finals by 28 pins.

In the stepladder finals, O'Neill eliminated Chris Loschetter of Avon, Ohio, 248-223, and Jeff Roche of Dearborn, Mich., 246-177, to advance to the title match where he raced to an easy victory over Wolfe.

The Cheetah Championship finals, conducted as part of the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling IV, aired Sunday on ESPN.

"I was definitely confident today," O'Neill said. "I wanted to get off to a good start. I knew what I needed to do. I had to stay mentally right and keep focused on my game, and make sure I wasn't throwing errant shots."

In his opening match, Loschetter started with five strikes before leaving a 10 pin and missing the spare. O'Neill answered with a string of six strikes after converting a single-pin spare in his first frame, taking a 23-pin lead after seven frames which Loschetter couldn't overcome.

He had an easier time against Roche, who missed three spare attempts in the first five frames of his national television debut. O'Neill led by only 11 pins after four frames, but started a string of eight strikes in the fifth frame and ran away with the victory.

"When Jeff started off slow, I got a little complacent and I almost threw one shot in the gutter," O'Neill said, "but I made the spare, and took a deep breath, and tried not to look ahead to the championship match."

"Winning again was definitely important. After not making any TV shows last season, I just wanted to bowl well."

Alka Seltzer Plus Cold Cheetah Championship Bill O'Neill

I wanted to compete again, and be in the hunt to make shows," O'Neill added. "I made a lot of top 10s last season, but I never even threatened for a show. That's what I wanted to do coming into the World Series. I worked really hard on my game over the summer and it's paying off."

In the title match, O'Neill admitted thoughts of bowling a nationally-televised 300 games began dancing in his head after building a big lead with seven strikes to start the contest. Wolfe, who didn't throw consecutive strikes until the seventh and eighth frames, was all but eliminated after six frames.

"When I got the strike in the seventh frame, I knew I just needed one more mark to lock up the title," he said. "I got to thinking it would be really cool to shoot 300, because Tony Reyes bowled 300 for his first title on this lane condition, and that was kind of going through my mind. I got a little jittery in the eighth and threw it a little quick, and left the 2-8-10. That's what happened."

Reyes, a close friend, died in late September of injuries sustained in a traffic accident near his northern California home.

"Tony was on all of our minds," O'Neill said. "There was a masking unit with his picture on it in the bowling center and every time you saw it, it was sad, but you have to put it out of your mind. You just had to know he'd want you to do well. We all wish he was here."

The 2012-13 PBA Tour season on ESPN continues next Sunday at 1 p.m. ET with the finals of the Viper Championship. Stepladder finalists will include Mike Fagan of Dallas; Finnish native Mika Koivuniemi of Hartland, Mich.; reigning PBA Player of the Year

NATIONAL DEAF BOWLING NEWS

by Connie Marchione

50TH ANNUAL SO. CALIF. DEAF BOWLERS CLASSIC AT AMF CARTER BOWL JAN 12

FULLERTON — The 50th annual So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers Classic will be at AMF Carter Bowl on January 12, 2013. This classic for deaf and hearing impaired bowlers began originally in 1963 as first annual So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League Bowlers Classic at Brunswick Wonderbowl in Downey.

Historically it was thought that this writer who founded So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League also started this first Classic under the Traveling League banner. No, I did not and in fact, I opposed its start when it was brought up in the league meeting by George Forfar and Ernest Holmes (both deceased). My reasons were twofold. The league funds could not be used for the expenses and only bona fide clubs should host the tournament.

But the bowlers wanted it and Forfar and Holmes got their majority vote by offering to take care of printing expenses and get their money back from tournament expenses. My role as the league secretary treasurer was to get the ABC sanction for this first deaf Classic at Brunswick Wonderbowl Downey.

Forfar and Holmes as co chairmen ran the first tournament that was won by Albert Garbett. It was a success as Garbett got the advertised $400 first place prize. The following season Forfar and Holmes did not return to the traveling league, citing their dislike to bowl on Sundays. The league bowlers voted to keep the annual Classic going with a chairman willing to run the Classic and get his expenses back from the Classic tournament fund. So I as the league secretary treasurer continued to get the ABC sanctions for these Classics for 47 consecutive years.

In 1965 my dislike to have a league run a side tournament finally made me to found a bona fide club So. California Deaf Bowlers with membership dues to be a parent organization for So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League. As a bona fide club So. Calif. Deaf Bowlers could bid to host Deaf regional and national tournament, which it had done successfully in the past years.Next week more about this Classic.

Moreno Valley Seniors Strike

by Frank Weiler
MORENO VALLEY — Keith Flowers and Lovie Cloman lead the strike parade in the Young At Heart League. Keith is the top guy with a 222 average, while Lovie is the top gal at 179.

Some of the other granddad's who are doing well are: R.J. Jackson (219 average), Ike Horn (219), Dave Smith (215), Lee Skipo (215), Eugene Johnson (212), and Dino Dennis (210). My old friends Marv Egeland (207), Will June (203), Jim Koenings (203) and Jimm Crump (187) are also doing well.

The ladies next in line after Lovie are: Nedra Cooper (169) and Wendy Kading (169). High scores by the ladies include Kading's 629 series, Cloman's 596 and Mae Hampton's 568. The highest games were recorded by Cooper (224) and Hinid Sanders (210).

The best scores recorded by the guys include Robert Allen's 300, Eugene Johnson's 270 and Gary Wooley's 268. Allen's 728 and Keith Flowers 719 are the top series.

Great bowling silver strikers, the BOWLING NEWS salutes you.

Las Vegas Travel League

by Darlene Hom
WESTMINSTER — We thank Westminster Lanes for having the lineups in for week 17 and the potluck area ready for us.

Maxx Paul was on her game today with a 201/571. Dee Phipps shot a nice 212/569, Marilyn Robinson 544, Margo McClain 535, Joan Lumpford 530, and Doris Lewis 201/504.

High Handicap series was 1992 rolled by Valley View 2. High Handicap Game was 687 shot by Fountain Bowl 2. Westminster Lanes 2 is in the top spot with 41 wins.

Today it was not easy to find a winner for the Strike Pot. After 19 ladies trying their luck at getting a strike when their number was picked, Bert Martinez rolled that ball just right, ending with a strike. Congratulation, Bert.

We will be taking a bye for the next two weeks. I hope you all have a Happy and Healthy Holiday. See you next year, Jan. 7th @ Keystone @10:30 a.m.

Boone Wins $1000 In Ultimate Handicap Bowling Tour at Valley View Lanes in Garden Grove

GARDEN GROVE — This week was another fantastic tournament.

Veronica Boone won again this week with an impressive +92. This is Veronica's second time as a UHBT champion.

Veronica wishes to thank Carl, Rusty Bryant, Tess Avila, her husband Luis, and her son Josh for their ongoing support.

In second place was Mark Andrews with a nice +48.

The 3rd place finisher was a newcomer by the name of Tess Avila.

Veronica received the grand price of $1000. Mark Andrews got $210 for 2nd place, and Tess received $100 for 3rd place.

The UHBT continually strives to keep the handicaps of all participating bowlers correct, fair, and accurate.

UHBT is taking a bye on December 23 Sunday.

The next scheduled tournament for UHBT will be Sunday December 30 at Forest Lanes in Lake Forest.

The squad times will be 12:00 noon, 1:30 pm, and 3:00

UHBT has decided to reduce the 1st squad entry fee at 12:00 noon, from $50 to $45.

This incentive is to encourage more early participants. The re-entry fee is $40 for the noon bowlers.

The fee for those bowlers starting in the later squads remains $50 with a $45 re-entry fee.

Thanks to everyone who participated and Happy Holidays to everyone.

UHBT will see you all on December 30th.

New Sponsor 'FINANCIAL ADVISORS' is Adding Money to Super Pots and Sweepers

The Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot

$10 weekly entry fee per bowler, with half of the money being paid out each week, and the other half going towards the huge payouts on sweeper night at the end of the season.
With 47 entries on Monday, the Financial Advisors sidepot is looking at $235 in the weekly sidepot and $9000 estimated for sweeper night. The top three series will get paid, as well as the top 16 games bowled that night. Bowlers are eligible to cash in each game.
Financial Advisors Super Sweeper Sidepot, will be adding $1,000 to the total collected. If you win 2 Super Pots all season you'll be ahead before we even get to sweepers with the $9000 payout. 100% of all money collected will be paid out for the season.

New Round, New Pattern Same Old Results

DOWNEY — Four teams swept their way to the top of this weeks league sheet, PRO APPROACH, BOWLIUM, KEGEL and ABTA.
Kegel and The Professional Approach team both look great for the round. Kegel had three of its members make the top 5 this week, and three of Pro Approach's members made the top 10. Those teams could be tough to beat on this pattern if that trend continues.
Four guys climbed to the top of the scratch columns; not with the anticipated high scores; but enough to brag about. Bobby Campagnale, popped a 266/655, J.T. Jackson 259/663, Jon Diso 257/677 and Jared Lawrence 245. But they didn't scoop up all the side-pot cash. Jeff Seesholtz won #1 with his 235, Bobby Campagnale #2 for his 266, Jon Diso's 235 snuck in for #3 and David Yamauchi bagged the Strike Pot. More? Bobby C. got good "FINANCIAL ADVISE" on how to spend his money.
With two weeks off, the Pro Shops should be busy giving their own advice on what kind of ball to use on the "long oil" shot. The mumblings at nights end sounded like — "I'm just going to sand hell out of the beast and throw down the middle." Is that a technical approach? Or should they just contact a psychic....
Del Rio Lanes thanks all sponsors for their support, our bowlers for their believe in themselves and keeping the sport alive.

Target Bowling Centers A WBPI Exclusive

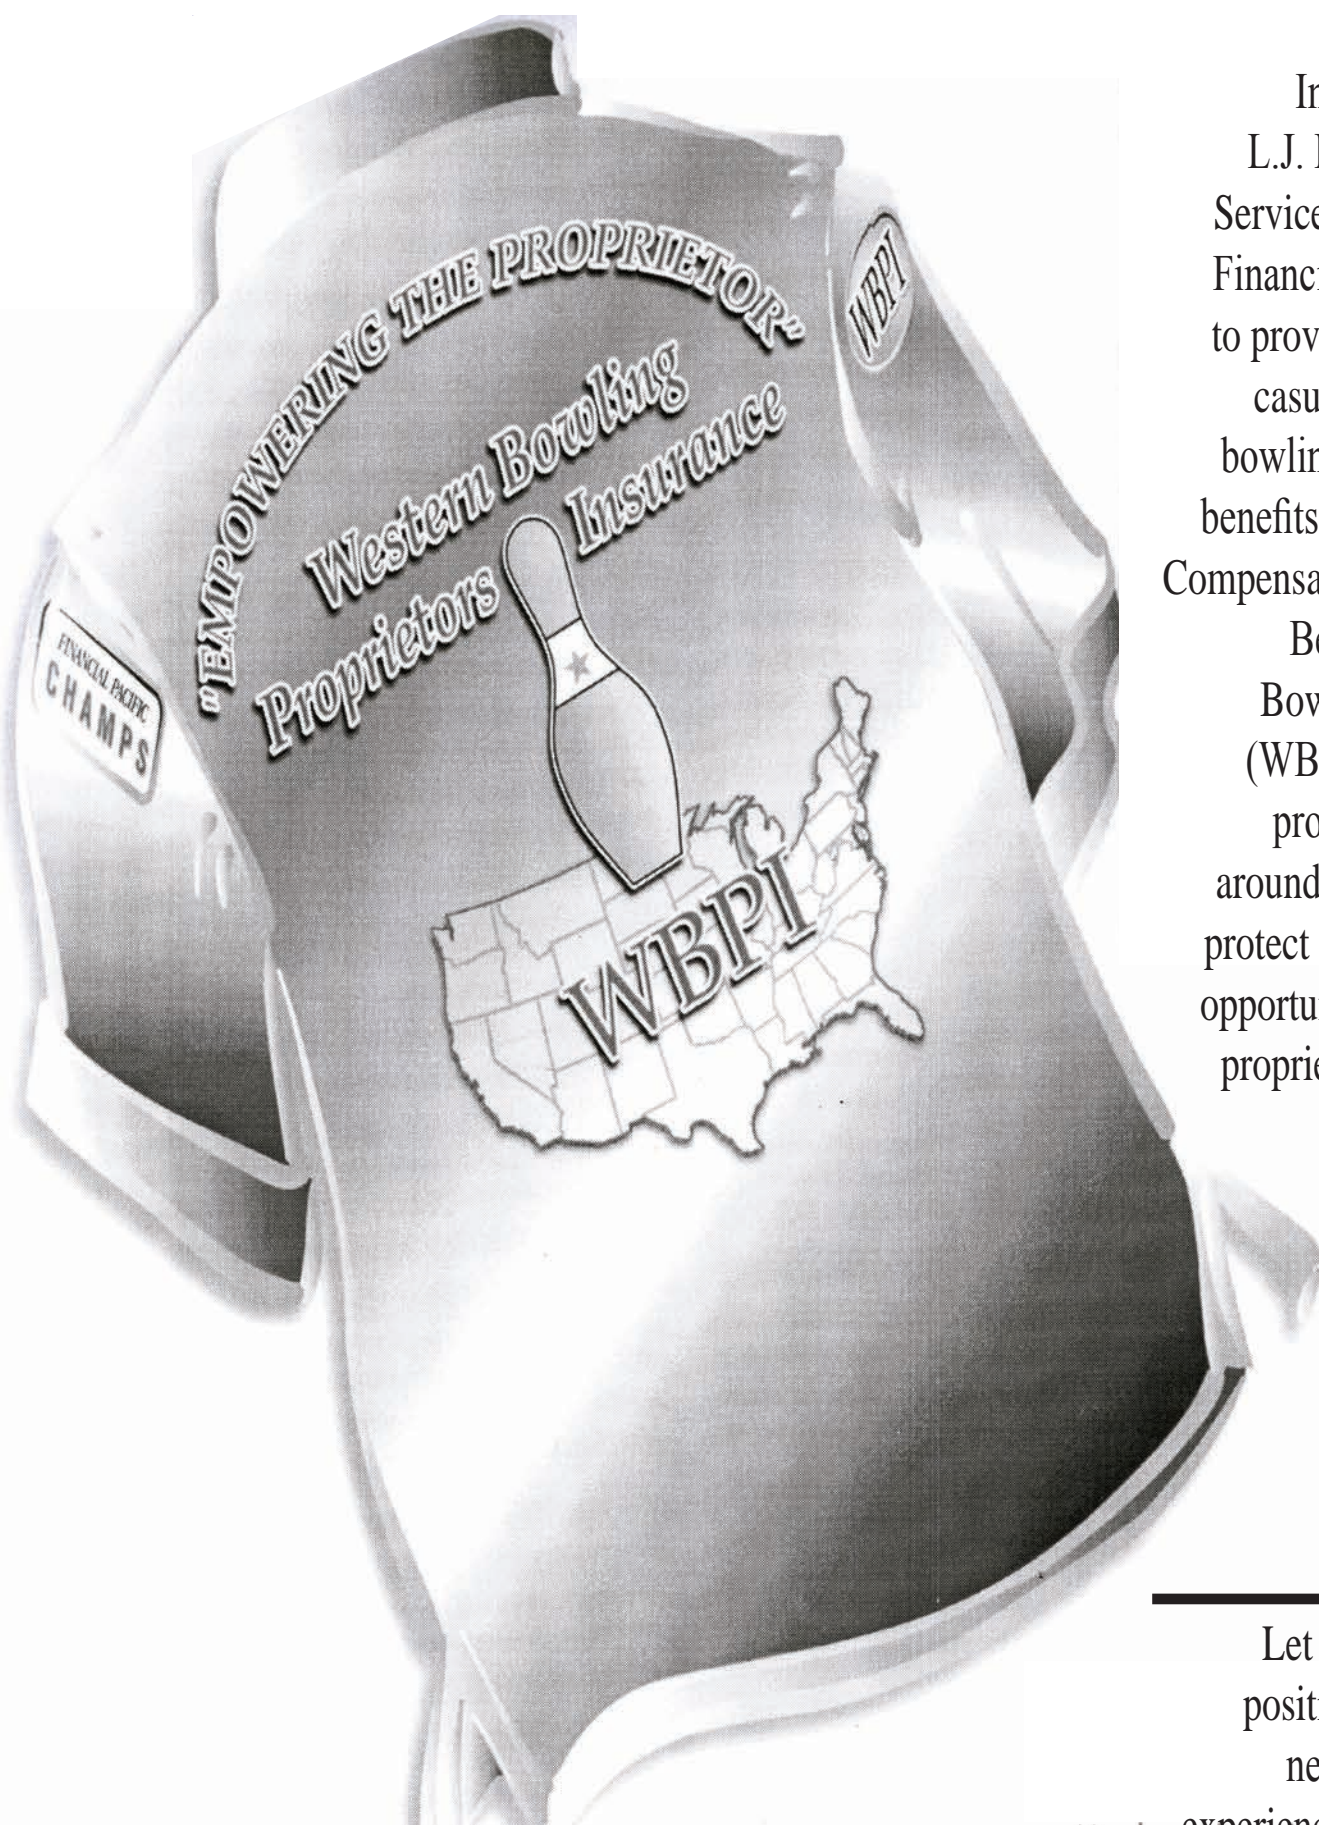

Western Bowling Proprietors Insurance (WBPI), a division of L.J. Linder & Associates Insurance Services Inc., works exclusively with Financial Pacific Insurance Company to provide a comprehensive property/casualty insurance program for the bowling industry. WBPI offers many benefits for bowl proprietors: Workers Compensation, Group Health, Employee Benefits coverages, and Western Bowling Proprietors Association's (WBPA) "Pre-Paid Legal Defense" program (PLDF), which provides around-the-clock, retained counsel to protect against frivolous law suits and opportunistic claimants that can ruin a proprietor's loss history and increase their premiums upon renewal.

Koivuniemi Wins
Qatar Open, Adds 19th
Nation to International Titles List

DOHA, Qatar — Two-time Professional Bowlers Association Player of the Year Mika Koivuniemi, a native of Finland now living in the United States, continued to expand his unprecedented international bowling portfolio when he won the 12th annual Qatar Open Saturday at Qatar Bowling Center, making Qatar the 19th different country in which he has won a bowling title.

Koivuniemi defeated fellow Finn Tony Ranta, 544-471, in the two-game total pinfall title match to win a first prize of US$39,480.

The tournament was part of the growing World Tenpin Bowling Association-PBA International Tour series, and it was the final event of the 2012 European Bowling Tour season.

Koivuniemi, who led the Qatar field of 142 players from 26 countries through the preliminary qualifying rounds, defeated Sweden's Martin Larsen, 442-385, to advance to the title match while Ranta eliminated 13-time PBA Tour titlist Tommy Jones of Simpsonville, S.C., 389-361.

"This is my first title in this part of the world and I'm glad I finally broke that jinx," the 45-year-old Koivuniemi said.

Koivuniemi, a long-time member of Finland's national bowling team before joining the PBA and moving to Hartland, Mich., had previously won titles in his home country, Sweden, Denmark, Japan, Singapore, Korea, Thailand, Malaysia, Canada, China, Colombia, Spain, France, The Netherlands, Slovenia, England and Germany as well as the United States. The 2003-04 and 2010-11 PBA Player of the Year and Venezuela's Amleto Monacelli (1989 and 1990) are the only international players to win Player of the Year honors twice.

The WTBA-PBA International Tour's next tournament will be the International Bowling Championships presented by DHC in Aichi-ken, Japan, Jan. 17-19.

Championship (two games total pinfall): Mika Koivuniemi, Finland ($39,480) def. Tony Ranta, Finland ($18,950), 544-471.

Semifinal Round (two games total pinfall, losers earned $6,580): Koivuniemi def. Martin Larsen, Sweden, 442-385. Ranta def. Tommy Jones, Simpsonville, S.C., 389-361.
