"The V.A.'s New Image"

By Phil Knoll

Although it has always been a pleasure to have an annual BVL Visitation assignment, this year's proved especially delightful. Join me at the VA Greater Los Angeles Healthcare System in West Los Angeles, December 9th, was Donna Thurman from the Ventura WBA Board of Directors, Donna's mother, Mrs. Jackson and Sue Mellott, CWBA Director. Chief of Voluntary Service, Marianne Davis was our hostess, who was anxious to personally extend her thanks to us thru the $19,130.00 donated to this facility to cover the purchase of 56 Bedside TV's; 2 Theatre Popcorn Carts and 2 DVD Players.

While gathered in the lobby, I immediately recognized a familiar face behind the Information Desk, a woman Volunteer. I was pleased that she recognized me as well. Marianne said that "Lee" and her husband's service as Volunteers at this facility, dated as far back as the 1980's. When her husband passed away, "Lee" continued her faithful service. And, what a joy she is to the veterans and visitors. She's pleasant; she's patient; and she's articulate with her information or directions. They get an A+ for her.

Directly off the Lobby is the newly refurbished Ambulatory Care Center. It is beautiful. The Waiting Room is large with plenty of seating and reading materials. The atrium ceiling is gorgeous, bringing into the room that natural feeling of the outdoor. This area is laid out in such a way that if the patient need to have blood drawn, it's right there. If that visit determines they need the advise of a Dietician, it's right there. If there's need for the patient to see a Dermatologist; Psychoanalyst; you name it, it's NOW all centralized in this area.

We all remarked on the decorations that adorn all the Lobby and Hallway Bulletin Boards. At this point Marianne noted that they have taken the entertainment to the patients to another level. Instead of having the various holiday entertainment in the Auditorium, they have taken it all to the bedsides. Thanksgiving, they had a "Great Turkey" person go room to room giving hugs and words of encouragement. They have professional actors and actresses, dressed in "Showtime" attire that hit the ward from the top down to the Waiting Rooms and even the Canteen. Even though we haven't yet finished out this year, her department is already making plans for the Valentine Day celebrations. Beauty Queens such as Miss USA; Miss Black USA; Miss Los Angeles; Miss Chinatown just to name a few, will come in, many in their native dress and move from room-to-room merely to chat with the patients. The Veterans Day Parade has been replaced with an Open House, with a Carnival atmosphere that is enjoyed by patient and/or their family members. These same activities are taken on separate days to the other facilities that fall under the umbrella of the GLAHS, which include Sepulveda, Downtown L.A., Bakersfield, and Santa Barbara.

Our next stop was to pay a visit to the new Women's Health Clinic. The Lobby is outfitted with beautiful soft furniture and live plants to reflect the "homey look".

Everything a woman patient would need is there. From medical advise to even a new frock. And... whatever help they might seek, they are greeted by calm and kind employees and volunteers.

It is important to note here, that of the 80,000 outpatients serviced throughout the VA facilities, 6% of these are women. And, included in these numbers are over 900 vets who were injured in the conflict in Iraq. Treating all these vets are VA systems from San Luis Obispo to Downtown Los Angeles, to the South Bay.

Marianne then took us to the 4th

Floor, Surgical Department where construction was under way and will eventually provide a "Patients Family Area". Here, the visiting family members will have the conveniences of a lounge furnished with lounge chairs and couches, refrigerator stocked with fresh fruit and beverages, and even beds for those who require badly needed sleep. Marianne pointed out that all the patient's progress and the performances of the doctors can now be tracked by computerization. Another breakthrough by the VA to provide our vets with top-notch care.

We, who make these visits, are well aware that none of this renovation would be possible without donations from the private and business sector. Of course, with $2.5M in material things and cash, the "powers that be" have been able to make it happen here at GLAHS. And, being close to "Hollywood" doesn't hurt. The movie studios pay a handsome $3,000-$5,000 per day to rent space in the various facilities. In fact, anyone of you who watch the TV show "Grey Anatomy", that is filmed at Sepulveda location.

For any of you who have been on the huge campus of the GLAHS, you will recall one of the many historical buildings, the Brentwood Theatre. I remember a few years back, during our BVL visit, we were taken to the theatre to see the Electronic Bingo Board and Popcorn Machine purchased from BVL

Funds we donated. They held those Bingo Parties seven days a week in the theatre. The vets loved it. Well, the Bingo Parties had to be moved to another location. Recently, a theatre company run by David Geffen, partner to David Spielberg contracted with GLAHS to lease the theatre for two years. In that interim, they completely renovated the building to suit their needs and when the contract was up, they moved out..... Leaving behind an unbelievably gorgeous building. Another ingenious way to earn income above and beyond what the government budgets to the V.A.'s to make our veterans more comfortable.

We ended our tour with the "Nursing Home". We were greeted with much enthusiasm by Chief of the Nursing Home, Marlene Brewster, R.N.; Michelle Mayne, R.N. and Carolyn Brown-Turner, Administrative Officer. Here is where the Restorative Care Program was started in June, a dream of Chief Brewster's. Michelle and Carolyn work with a staff of Restoration Nursing Assistants who involve the patients in one-hour sessions Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday here at GLAHS (Monday and Friday at Sepulveda) by getting them out of their wheelchairs and become involved in walking, exercise, and water. When the program started, they had about 6-8 patients. It now has become so-o-o popular; they now have 30 plus patients involved. They play music from every era; the music being individualized to suit the respective patient. They sing; they play ball; and they walk, walk, and walk. And... drink a lot of water! One patient has lost over 35 lbs. and another who was so debilitated he would never talk.. to anyone. He now not only talks, but also sings with the music while walking. Some of the patients even stay with the beat of the music using "bongo drums". The group sessions grew too large to continue to use the Dining Room, so they have been taken outdoors, weather permitting, so as to enjoy the fresh air, green grass, plants, and hundreds of trees that surround the building.

Now, the staff has designed another activity for this program, a "bicycle-Surrey" where 4-6 patients could peddle themselves around the block. They envision dressing the vehicle up with a fancy colorful awning and provide each patient with matching "caps". Also in their plan is to be able to provide the patients Pedometers so they might keep track of their progress, and for those who are observing between activities, some nice comfortable park benches with the high backs and armrests. These were some of the items that Marianne has included in her "wish list" already submitted to our BVL Committee for this next season. In fact, Marianne was well prepared by including the details on the company, located in Santa Barbara that sells these vehicles.

Although patients are discharged or go home on a "Pass", all the facilities have now implemented a "follow-up" program whereby they telephone the patient to see how they are managing. If after several attempts, they are unable to reach them, any known family members are notified and they intervene to see if everything is okay. We were told that this procedure has avoided some "close calls" such as a patient who had fallen in a diabetic coma, received the treatment needed and has recovered.

I think you must agree that for the past several years, we have heard poor reports from patients who have used the services at the V.A. As Marianne said to us at the end of our day... "Getting our reputation back is a hard and long term endeavor. Rest assured, we never could have come this far here at this facility or any of our other facilities without help from the public sector. And, trust me, our people truly know who The California BVL Fund is, for you are at the top of our list of organizations who donate to the betterment of our veteran's healthcare."

They indeed, have their hands full and their need for financial help will never go away. This clearly means, that we continue to make our plea for your support to our local associations who work so hard to raise money for the California BVL Fund.

And... spread the word! The V.A. Healthcare System has a "New Image".

P.S. From The Editor: B.V.L. is the major fund raiser for California Bowlers. Contributing $100,000 a year, the Womens State Assn. is able to furnish the "extras" for our Vets. Thank you Phil (and all B.V.L. Volunteers) for your continued support. All assn's will be asking for bowlers help. Double your contribution this year! Make 2006 into $200,000.

Ten Pin Slants

by Joe Lyou

Bud Fisher, an oldtime newspaperman, was one of a kind. I say was because Fisher died at his home in Indianapolis on Dec. 9 after a lengthy illness. He was 83.

Early in his career, Fisher left his job at the Akron Beacon Journal to try his hand at public relations. He turned out to be a natural.

Fisher became a pitchman for a variety of sports, including basketball, wrestling, auto racing and even rodeos. Bowling followed.

When Eddie Elias founded the Professional Bowlers Assn. in 1958, the first three men he hired were Joe Antenora, Harry Golden and Bud Fisher. I don't know how much Fisher knew about bowling at that time, but he soon became one of the very best at promoting the sport.

A month or so before each PBA tournament, Fisher would head for the host city. He would drum up publicity for the event by speaking to members of the media—radio, TV and newspapers. He probably knew more sports editors than anyone in the country.

I got to know Fisher fairly well in the late '70s and early '80s, when Gable House Bowl in Torrance sponsored a series of PBA tournaments. The proprietor of Gable House Bowl was Jack Cogan, who knew the value of publicity and promoting.

Each year in which Cogan hosted the PBA, he invited media representatives—mostly members of the Southern California Bowling Writers Assn.—to a dinner at an excellent Szechwan restaurant located in the Gable House business complex. After dinner, Bud Fisher would provide everyone with details of the upcoming tournament.

The “new” PBA could use a talented guy like Fisher. I liked what Dick Evans, the Hall of Fame syndicated columnist from Florida, wrote about Fisher: “Bud was a warrior—living life to its fullest and fighting cancer with courage and a little wit.”

IT TOOK SEVERAL weeks to land the right man, but the wait was worth it—like finding a diamond in the rough.

The Bowling Centers of Southern California Assn., long without an executive director, had conducted an extensive search to fill the vacant post. Recently, it was announced in the California Bowling News that the BCSCA had hired William Walbrecher.

If anything, Walbrecher is over-qualified for the job. His resume reads like a “Who’s Who of Banking.” One of the nation’s top executives, Walbrecher has been the CEO of three prestigious companies. Before signing on with the BCSCA, he was serving as “a professional consultant to Fortune 500 companies,” according to the story in the CBN.

So, why did Walbrecher want to become executive director of the BCSCA? Especially since the salary has to be considerably less than he usually commands.

My guess is because he loves the sport of bowling. Walbrecher, you see, has been a member of the PBA for 25 years.

I don't really know Walbrecher, although I've met him a few times through a mutual friend, John Jowdy, a PBA Hall of Famer and a world-class coach. Walbrecher took lessons from Jowdy, and they eventually became good friends.

In recent years, Walbrecher, a stylish right-hander, has been competing in PBA Senior Tour events and in numerous regional senior tournaments. He has had limited success on the lanes, but it hasn't been due to lack of trying.

Since Walbrecher is more than qualified to direct the BCSCA, it will be interesting to see how long he sticks around. It won't be very long if the proprietors don't give Walbrecher a free hand...and a lot of cooperation.

He could be the best man to come along since the halcyon days of Dick Steinbaugh, who headed the old Bowling Proprietors Assn. of SoCal, which evolved into the BCSCA.

Steinbaugh did a great job of directing the proprietors' group during the '80s and early '90s. And so will Walbrecher.

NOTES TO YOU: Happy birthday wishes to Frank Kietz, who turns 89 on Dec. 23. Kietz, a past president of the Bowling Writers Assn. of America, remains active as the historian and bowling columnist (“Kietz Komments”) for the California Bowling News. He still loves to bowl and often practices three games several times a week at Forest Lanes, which is just a stone's throw from his Lake Forest home in southern Orange County...

Recommended viewing or participation: The inaugural $100,000 MoRich Mixed Doubles National Championship, Feb. 3-5, at The Orleans in Las Vegas. Immediately following this event will be the 5th annual Super Bowl Mini Eliminations, Feb. 6-12, featuring a $50,000 guaranteed prize to the winner. Both tournaments are being presented by Steve Sanders' Pinnacle Events, so you know they'll be exciting. For more info, call 1-877-900-6464 or log on to www.minieliminator.com.

Fans of Danny Wiseman, the colorful 11-time PBA champ from Baltimore, can now log on to his “updated and improved” website at www.dannywisemanbowling.com. And it's free. The website includes his biography, PBA stats, “DW Gear” (where fans can order one of Wiseman's fancy bowling shirts), “Journal and Tips” and much, much more...Asked if he created the website, Wiseman replied, “Actually, I do most of the stuff you see, but the site was created by R.D. Miller, who used to bowl on the Tour. His company (Envisionwise) set up some of the links; however, I can add or delete whatever I want”...

PBA aficionados are aware that Texas lefty Mike Scroggins won the recent USBC Masters to collect his first major title, but they may not know that another Texan, Carolyn Dorin-Ballard, cashed for $1,300. After qualifying for match play, Dorin-Ballard lost to Scroggins in a close battle, 675-663. She was then ousted in the double-elimination format by losing to Las Vegas southpaw Eric Forkel, 694-609. Of the 466 entrants in the Masters, six were women, with Dorin-Ballard being the highest finisher.

Joe - I met Bud Fisher in 1980 first at AC Del-Co at Gable House. Great guy. 10 Years later I ran into him at a W.I.B.C. convention. He gave me a hug and said “Carol, How ya been?” I hadn't seen him in ten years!! What a memory. Thanks Joe, for you contributions this year. - Carol Mancini -

LAS VEGAS, NV — Super Bowl Sunday is not too far off. Which also means that Super Bowl WEEK for tenpins will be on hand: Big Buck Tournaments! One's that REALLY pay off, not some fly-by-night kazillion dollar thingy that has as much chance of getting off the ground as I have of running, walking or crawling a 20-mile marathon after 6 months in sick bay.

Super Bowl season brings the big three events, the TAT at the Texas Station, the High Roller at Sam's Town and the Mini Eliminator at the Orleans.

The Mini Eliminator spectacular intrigues me the most this year. It will feature a $50,000 grand prize, guaranteed, plus literally dozens of ways to cash. The Mini is a Steve Sanders event, and in my book, Sanders is the sport's top promoter. But, even more than the deep prize funds, in conjunction with the 2006 Mini will be the February 3 thru 5 MoRich Mixed Doubles tournament with a $16,000 top prize!

The MoRich Mixed Doubles will present our first chance to watch the best of the best women bowlers in a long time as ALL male and female bowlers are eligible except PBA exempt players and any bowler who has won more than one PBA national title in the past 10-years. No two national title holders may bowl on the same team.

The event hopefully will bring a host of former PWBA players to the scene, and, it should be the start of a long-run for a top notch feature. For more info about the MoRich Mixed Doubles or the Mini Eliminator, call 1-877-900-6464, or go to WWW.MINIELIMINATOR.

For years I maintained the PWBA was the best of the pro events to watch. The gals didn't rely on blazing speed for scores, utilizing far more finesse and accuracy to rack up totals. I think they call it “real bowling”. If that wasn't enough of a reason to watch the PWBA, go to the easy answer. The gals are a helluva lot prettier, and frankly, more skilled than some of the wahoo's I've watched on the Sunday morning PBA telecasts, this season.

Hopefully, the MoRich battle will bring the likes of Carolyn Dorin-Ballard, Wendy Macpherson, Leanne Barrette, Kim Terrell, Liz Johnson, Tish Johnson, Michelle Feldman, Kendra Gaines, Diandra Asbaty, Tennelle Grijalava and Missy Bellinder, to name a few of the gal stars we'd love to watch. Don't know how many will be on hand to show abilities...just in case a possible tour sponsor might be lurking on the sidelines. Ya never know.

Steve Sanders came oh so close to restoring the gals tour a few moons ago, only to have ESPN become the stumbling block. (ESPN has a piece of the PBA, by the way.) Fox Sports Network surely should be intrigued with a gals tour. (Thank goodness for the new “E-Ring” show at 8 p.m. on Wednesdays or I'd be in the sack by 8:05 seven nights a week instead of six. How many times can you watch “Law and Order” re-runs?)

by Randy Myers

DOWNEY—Jason Buenviaje fired a huge 247 in his third game to finish the night with a very fine 638 series and lead the league in the next to last night for the dreaded “Dry Round”. Unfortunately for Jason, his team was unable to win any points and his Roto Grip team dropped to 5th place. Gary Duran also bowled well for Roto Grip with 594, but Threadworks used a huge team effort in sweeping them. Anthony Carlton Jr. was low with 553, and was followed by Tony Rodriguez 572, Larry Hanken 576, and Alan Steinberg 600. Threadworks moved into 2nd place and will take on Linder Insurance to win the round next week. Linder Insurance remained in 1st place by taking 4 of 5 points from Tri Star Vending. Super Sub Jeff Hickenbottom led the way for Linder Insurance with 233/610. Freek Racing moved into 3rd place just two points behind by sweeping past Erickson’s Food 5-0. Charlie Kinstler 226/605 and Paul Barraco 561 were the pole sitters for Freek Racing while Jeff Carr 235/582 was high for Erickson’s. Paul Smith shot 259 in Game 3 to end the night on a high note as Team 6 defeated Team 19 4 points to 1. Paul finished with 597 while Jeff “Spins” Garrison 219/558 and Helena Conley 552 led Team 19. Forest Lanes used sub Levi Slocum’s 219/576 to take a 3-2 win over Western Pacific who were paced by Jack Price 236/587 and Roger Wrase 214/570. G.H.C. swept past Prudential Real Estate in a low scoring match, and in the final match up of the night, Team 23 defeated J.C. Spas behind Jason “Chosen One” Fowler who was KING of the pair with 554.

“B” division leader Tangeo.com continued their winning ways by taking a 4-1 win over Reback’s Plumbing. The “CHEESE” brothers, Alex 552 and Arnold 236/596 led the way for the leaders, and Reback’s were paced by Ramon “The Terror” Torres with 256/577 and Alex Castillo 257/610. Ramon nearly was a terror for Del Rio Lanes as he started the third game with the first 8 strikes before leaving the ninepin. Ramon was using a Brunswick ball, so four more strikes and he was looking at a fat $5000! Nice run Ramon. Pro Approach – Lakewood moved into 2nd place by taking Overboost.com 4 points to 1. Brian Main 222/610 and James Tipton 226/576 were the heroes for Pro Approach and Randy Myers 208/569 led Overboost to their lone win. MONEYNET Residential Loans moved into 3rd and only 2.5 points behind by taking 4.5 points from Family Amusement. David Fairrow 242/574 and Vernon Adams 574 were the leaders for Moneynet. Boulevard Brakes got big games from Missy Bellinder 226/550 and Greg Neuer 245/567 to take 4 of 5 points from Pro Approach – Downey who were led by Joe Aldrich with 557. Leonard Ruiz Jr. stayed clean for the first two games, picking up the 4-7-10 back to back in game 1, and rolled 188 & 236 before running into trouble in Game 3. He still managed to shoot 593 and lead his Bowlers Depot – West Covina team to a 3-2 victory over Clyde’s Video Games.

In side-pot action, Game 1 went to Jeff Carr with 235 while Arnold Cheesman took 2nd with 214. Not to be outdone again, Arnold came back to shoot 236 and shared Game 2 with Leonard Ruiz Jr., while Jeff Hickenbottom finished 2nd with 224. The last game was another shoot-out with many big games, but in the end, Jason Buenviaje took home the most cash with 247 with Greg Neuer getting 2nd with 245. Jeff Hickenbottom took the Series Pot with 610. Congratulations to all the Side Pot winners!

Both Side “A” & “B” are still up for grabs with this Monday being the final night of the round. Only four points separate the top 4 teams in both divisions, so anything can happen. And as I expected, last night’s MNF was boring, unless you’re a RAVENS fan, and next week’s game should be more entertaining as New England visits the Jets and attempt to lock up their division once again. It looks like the PATS have finally gotten healthy and are on a roll once again heading into the playoffs. If you want to see the game, come on down to Del Rio in Downey and watch it in the bar on their HUGE Giant Screen TV. Once the game is over, come out and watch the action on the lanes as someone will win the “CLEAN” pot and everyone will once again try and shoot 300. Thanks again.

West The Best He Passed The Test

NORWALK—It seems like the end of the year comes sooner and sooner each year. This is a great time to wish you all a healthy and prosperous 2006.

Senior gentleman Tom West happily notches Donkee win number four. Tom's first win was in November of 1991 at Keystone lanes, second Aug 1992 at Westminster Lanes, third Sept. 1995 at Keystone Lanes and this week Keystone Lanes. Looks like you really enjoy Keystone lanes... Congratulations go to Super Senior, a super gentleman, now- a- days a super actor as he belongs to the Actors guild and gets parts in movies and on television. Tom said he really enjoys and has a lot of fun acting. We will watch for you.

Being the avid bowler Tom rushed away to bowl in league at Del Rio with his son Tom Jr who rushed away earlier so didn't get to see Dad Win. Fran his lovely wife was not on hand either. She was out of town working so Tom could bowl????

Tom was rolling an Icon Columbia bowling ball drilled by Billy Myers. His highest game is a 300. He has several and his highest series is 803.

His big win this week at Keystone was $1,200 first place money with an added Jack Ace and shirt money to pocket $1,550. Holiday money.

We had lots of great games this week with Bret Haynes topping the field by rolling the magic 300 game.. The first strike in the tenth frame was very iffy with pins falling one by one and Bret almost jumped out of his skin. The last two strikes were solid and he jumped again. Good for $100.

Fourteen making the first round in the shoot-out finals were Art Ouzenian, Bret Haynes, Freddy Koehler, Kristy Yahiku, John Greico, Joe Baghdadian, William Ele, Jim Lozano, Manuel Garcia, Arnie Schroeder, Kyle VandenBerg, Dad Clark VandenBerg, Dale Strader and Tom West Sr. Top seed lovely lady Jennifer Katsura with a well shot plus 158 and Elvis Garcia with a plus 124 sat out the first round. Seven rolling lowest games were eliminated Second round seven rolling the highest games were Jim Lozano with a 231, John Greico a 266, William Ele a 236, Manuel Garcia a 256, Tom West Sr. 247, Joe Baghdadian 242 and Kristy Yahiku with a 237game. Elvis Garcia was seeded into this round making it eight players... Four again were eliminated.

Four the next round were Kristy Yahiku posting a big 275 game looking good, William Ele 231 game, Tom West Sr a 257 and Manuel Garcia with a 237. From this match of four one would challenge lovely Jennifer Katsura for the championship.. The challenge went to Tom West Sr as he happily headed the list with a big 251 game. Kristi Yahiku was third with a 229, William Ele fourth with a 195 and Manuel Garcia 5th with a 179 game. (Manuel earlier on a roll was looking like a champ but his fingers locked up on him and he couldn't roll the ball)

Top four in the Donkee Shoot-out finals at Keystone were Manuel Garcia 5th $200, William Ele 4th $250, Champion Tom West Sr $1,550, Jennifer Katsura High qualifier settled for 2nd place $600. (Kristi Yahiku not on hand was 3rd for $300).

Now for the big challenge. High qualifier from the Semi's Jennifer Katsura came out on a three bagger taking the lead and looking great but as fate would have it she opened the 5th and 8th frames. Champion Tom West Sr. came out on a spare then strung a three bagger spared in the 5th, got a strike in the sixth frame and spared the seventh eighth and ninth frames. But as fate would have it missed an easy seven pin for his first open to post a 204/229game. Jennifer was still in the game but had to have three strikes for the win. Didn't happen, posting a 191/220 for second place.. Next time Jennifer. Congratulations Tom and Jennifer. Have a Merry Xmas.

Saturday Side pots in the 12:30PM squad were $36. First game Sr Frank Meronk posted a nice 261. Second game went to Curtis Treece with a 227 Third game Keith Imada shot a 255. At 2:00PM side pots were $36. First game Donnie Johnson posted a well shot 276/301, Jennifer Katsura a 224, 3rd Game Dan York posted a 250. In the 3:30PM squad for $48 Tom West Sr on a roll posted a big 282 game, Dave Miller a big 275 and Clara Negrete shot a 239.. At 5:00PM for $36. Ron Farmer posted a 266, Kristi Yaiku a big 275 and a big, big 292 third game by Richard Warner.

Sunday in the 10AM squad side-pots were $48. Norm Smith posted a 265 the first game, Bret Haynes a super 300 scratch 320 with handicap second game and Jim Lozano a 283 the third game. In the 11:30AM Squad side-pots were $65 1st place, $25 2nd. First game Mike Pawlsey shot a 267, Nick Negrete a 265 game. Second game William Ele posted a 272 and David Godinez a 257. Third game Manuel Garcia shot a 278, Beth Borci a 261. Big games. In the Semi's two side-pots 1st place $65, 2nd $25. First game Manuel Garcia posted a 270, Jennifer Katsura a 260 game. Second game Art Ouzenian posted a 289 and John Greico a 266. Third game Joe Garcia a 260 and Tom West Sr a 247 game.

High Series Saturday for $75 went to Donnie Johnson rolling a 745 and High Game for $75 went to Richard Warner for a 292 game. Bret Haynes shot the magic 300 Scratch to pick up $100. High qualifier in the Semi's Jennifer Katsura pulled the Mystery game a big 116 making Keith Kenworthy the happy winner for $900. Mystery Series was a 442 No winner.

Door Prizes were given out at the end of the tournament. Ron Farmer not on hand won the Donkee Spinner and Tom West Jr the LaneMasters Bowling Ball. There were many Door prizes and tickets were pulled until all were gone. We made lots of Roast Beef sandwiches and we thank our Donkee members for their great desert dishes. Thanks and Merry Xmas.

Our first tournament is West Covina Lanes Beat the Board Sunday January 8th.

We wish you all a very Merry Xmas and a Happy New Year. See you in 2006.

JAT Farm Club

by David Gordon
NORWALK—The JAT Farm Club was out in full force last Sunday at Keystone Lanes. A large turnout with forty-two bowlers took on the challenge that Keystone presents and for the most part, came away pleased.

Some very big scoring was the norm for the day as Michael Gaylor put up the tournament high game with a near perfect 290 game. Michael also added a 227 and 243 into his five game qualifying mix. Impressive.

More high scores came in from Felicia Mara 266-227, Richard Brown 258-222, Chrisgen Whitfield 228-255, John Lawson 248-220, Albert Fernandez 248, Christ Porter 221-226-246, James Hawkins 246, Sadia Ward 235-234-244, Joey Marino 244, A.J. Garcia 244, Esteban Valdez 243, Aaron Steinberg 233, Marquis Brooks 231, Dean Nishijima 228, Susy Monteith 225, Brittany Bryant 224, Zale Alman 224, Arisha Piper 223 and Nick Mansfield 222.

Boy, what a list. The leader after five games was Gaylor at plus 173 and to advance into the top 16, it took a mere minus 60.

In match play, we had a 10 position jump as young (but experienced) Hawkins went from 11th place to leader, behind games of 236-244-236-220 and all wins for and additional 150 bonus pins. More high scores came in from Porter 267, Brown 234-223, Valdez 234, Ward 227, Lawson 226, Gaylor 225, Fernandez 225, and Marino 222.

The finals then started off with 5th seed Porter (+93) taking on 4th place Milne (+123). This is the step ladder finals and it played out to it's true form. Milne captured this match 203-197. Then against 3rd seed Valdez (+131), Milne fell to the ladder as Esteban won this match 203-178. Now Valdez tried to break the string, but against 2nd seed Gaylor (+183), it was not meant to be as Gaylor takes the win 221-200. Now it was Gaylor's turn to try, but again up against top seed Hawkins (+315) the ladder prevailed. Hawkins takes the win 215-167 for his second JAT Farm Club title. Congratulations James.

The Farm Club will be taking some time off for the holidays and other tournaments. We will return on January 15th at AMF Bowlmum in Montclair. Start time will be back to normal at an early 7:15 am check-in.

Members, please enjoy your time off and good luck to those bowling over the holidays. I'll see you in a few weeks.

SED Jr. Travel

by David Gordon
NORWALK - The SED Jr. Travel came into Keystone Lanes this past Saturday, with a positive attitude. The day would end with our Christmas party and talk of the days scoring. We thank the staff and management of Keystone Lanes for the entire weekends accommodations.

The big shooter for the day was J.R. Monteith putting up impressive numbers with 267-255-239-200/961. Way to go J.R. More high scores in the 800 series came in from Albert Fernandez 277-223/884, James Hawkins 246-254/854, Eddie Sayles 204-245-224/853, Bryan Osborne 242-211-204/834, and Reggie Brown 245-206/802. Congratulations gentlemen.

And breaking the 700 mark we have Marquis Brooks 236-201/792, Michael Gaylor 206-200/769, Delano Ross 212-202/759, Susy Monteith 220/750, Javier Hernandez 204-213/745, Brian Gonzales 218/743, Eric Milne 732, J.D. Pelow 203/729, Ryan Aguilar 200/715, and Kim Ferdnance 709.

And after the action on the lanes we took to the fun and frolic of the Christmas party. Some very nice gifts exchanged amongst the bowlers with one big highlight of 10 lbs of Gummy Bears. You seem to know each other very well.

The group will return on January 7th at AMF Midtown Lanes in Los Angeles. Take the Santa Monica fwy and exit Crenshaw Blvd. Head north to Venice, then west to the center at 4645 W. Venice Blvd.

Therefore, have fun over the holidays and good luck in any tournaments you're bowling. I'll be with you in spirit. See you next year.

Girls Jr. All-Stars

by David Gordon
NORWALK - The Girls Jr. All-Stars made their presence known at Keystone Lanes this past Sunday. A very festive mood as we prepare for our holiday break.

Melissa Pena led the girls posting a 223-225/795. Nice bowling Melissa. Other reportable scores came in from Mariel Benitez 215-201/749, Deanna Carrillo 204-200/724, Jilian Zlateff 736, and Jillian Gaddison 705.

We also had a craft raffle and sale of beautiful handmade gifts just right for Christmas. This scholarship fund raiser was quite enjoyable and successful and we thank all of those that purchased tickets or items. And congratulations to all the winners.

Again, we are taking a couple of weeks off to enjoy our families and for some to take part in the various tournaments in Las Vegas. Good luck to all and have a safe time.

We will return on January 8th, at AMF Midtown Lanes. This center has not seen us in a while and I hope we go in there in force. Therefore, until then have a great time and I'll see you in the new year.

Gary Duran Wins

Forest Lanes

by Frank Kietz
LAKE FOREST — Gary Duran peaking the second and fifth games with games of 273 and 260, finished with a 1370 series, won Forest Lanes' recent Saturday 6-Game $300 title plus two $10 high game awards.

Doug Leeds was second with a 1351 earning $90 while Vernon Adams was third with 1349 for $30.

Duran failed to win a block award and no 700 series but posted nice 600s; 677 and 693. Leeds hit a high 729 the second block, Adams 269/708 the first series.

All 11 players had trouble the first game. Jeff Garrison managed to win the first $10 pot with a 235.

Tournament director Mario Marquez said, "After the first 'test-the-lanes' game, scoring picked up. The next 6-Gamer will be January 21, 2006."

For more information regarding the tournament or league play call 949-770-0055. Entry fee is $50 plus sidepots.

Christmas “Eva” Came Early...

For Ronny Thompson Too

by Roberta McNaught

ANAHEIM—Since my article on the 590 Classic at Linbrook didn't get put in the paper last week, I sure didn't want Eva Munson to miss the Kudos she well deserves. Santa Clause came early for Eva bringing her lots of strikes and a fantastic 994 series on games of 249, 257, 252, and 236. Ronny Thompson must have been a good boy and he sure did something right. His games of 224, 279, 264 and 279 earned him the leagues season high series of 1046.

Others enjoying the Holiday Season with great scores were: Carl Adinolfi 258/953, Larry Green 258/893, John Conway 258/873, John Phillips 249/853, Orlando Vanegas 243/850, Tony Chaco 256/846, Pete Kizziah 254/842, Frank Bellinder 248/842, Karen Bagnall 244/832, Tom Stearn 245/831. Juan Sandoval 248/827, Rod Cantrell 256, Eva Munson 246, Roger Vasquez 246, Nicole Albrecht 242, Diane Salinas 238, Steve Murakami 235, Don Hart 228, E.J. Rogers 227, Rey Ortiz 226, Tony Angulo 225, Bob Gosnell 225, Al Lara 225, Ed Hermance 225, Stan Guzy 224, Nancy Smith 223, Bill Hitchcock 223, David Wright 222, Rose Williams 222, Lisa Somma 221, Janet Anderson 214, Helen Petrowski 212, Missy Bellinder 211, Dahana Klerer 208, Marie Brooks 204, and Sandy Lund 200.

Merry Christmas and Remember the Reason for the Season.

Editors Note: Naturally we don't want to disapoint bowlers or writers if a certain article doesn't make it, but the “paid ads” which bring 10,000 bowlers a Free Bowling News each week, get priority space. So don't holler at Roberta!
