Walter Ray Williams Jr. & Friends Win Trios Event for PBA 100th Title

HARRISONBURG, Va. — Professional Bowlers Association Hall of Famer Walter Ray Williams Jr., with the help of partners Dennis Lane and Dick Allen, became the first player in PBA history to win a combined total of 100 PBA titles Sunday when the trio won the PBA/PBA50/PBA60 Decker Appraisal Services Baker Trios title, presented by Hammer, at Valley Lanes.

Williams, as the PBA50 player in the group, won his 10th PBA50 Regional title to go along with his 47 PBA Tour titles, 32 PBA Regional titles and 11 PBA50 Tour titles. With his win, Williams broke a tie with fellow hall of famer Pete Weber in their race to become the first 100-title winner in PBA history.

"It was quite amazing watching Walter Ray strike in the 10th to win his 100th title," said Kyle Troup, the PBA player on the runner-up team.

Williams' team defeated top qualifiers Kenny Parks, Dale Csuhata and Troup, 213-201, in the title match to share a $5,100 first prize.

Four Years Later, It Still Remains a Remarkable Feat

WOODLAND HILLS — Greg Kolski hasn't quite reached elite bowler status, but he's knocking at the door.

When he does reach that exalted level, Kolski just might think back to one day four years ago — one very long day — that provided the springboard for his meteoric rise.

Greg Kolski has been averaging 200 in his three leagues. His average has been climbing since his ironman effort in which he bowled 100 games in one day.

At the time in December 2012, Kolski was just another good league bowler with a 163 average. But he wanted to be better.

Much better.

So bowling at his home center at AMF Woodlake Lanes in Woodland Hills, Kolski took advantage of a bargain price in which he was allowed to bowl as many practice games as he could in one day.

He bowled a whopping 100 games.

That's right: 100 games!

The cost was $12 and Kolski, then 28, took full advantage. "It came out to 12 cents a game. That's a real bargain," said Kolski in a sizable understatement.

Mike Wolfe Uses Timeworn Skills to Win PBA Cheetah Championship

Veteran topples youth movement in GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VIII's first animal pattern finale

RENO, Nev. — Using skills developed as a teenager nearly a quarter century ago, 40-year-old Mike Wolfe of New Albany, Ind., upstaged the Professional Bowlers Association's youth movement when he routed 23-year-old rookie Darren Tang of San Francisco, 279-143, to win the PBA Cheetah Championship presented by PBA Bowling Challenge Mobile Game.

The Cheetah Championship, the first of four PBA animal pattern championships conducted during the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VIII at Reno's National Bowling Stadium, aired Sunday on ESPN.

Wolfe, playing a treacherous outside angle to the pocket, delivered clutch strikes throughout the game, to win his fifth career PBA Tour title and first in four years. While the final score makes it look like Wolfe had an easy time, it was only because he was able to control a thin line between throwing a strike and throwing the ball into the gutter.

"I grew up playing that shot on short oil back in the urethane days," Wolfe said of his formative years. "People always told me Pete Weber was one of the best gutter players ever and I was a fan of his growing up, so I thought it was cool to play out there."

In the title match, Wolfe was seen smiling nervously after throwing a couple of early strikes.

"I thought I threw them in the gutter," he confessed. "The very first shot out of the (commercial) break, I threw it too hard, but it got back to the pocket. There were two shots, at least, that I thought I threw them into the gutter."

Living on the edge of the lane, however, almost resulted in a perfect game. Wolfe's only flaw was leaving a 10 pin in the seventh frame, which he converted for a spare.

California Bowling Writers Commemorate Chuck Pezzano

RENO — In memory of one of the PBA's most revered hall of famers, the California Bowling Writers presented a plaque in Chuck Pezzano's memory to the PBA during GEICO WSOB VIII. CBW life member Jackie Wyckoff presented PBA CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark with the Chuck Pezzano PBA Media Room plaque that will be displayed at all future PBA Tour events in his memory.

Pezzano, who died in 2015 at age 86, was one of the most prolific bowling writers in history, contributing to more than 100 publications around the world. He was a charter member of the PBA Hall of Fame.

A Message From Hero Noda ...

Dear My Friends,

I would like to mention that thank you for concerning about me these days.

Last April, I had found out my heart was abnormal during my regular health check up. I had to take Heart Aortic Valve Surgery.

I was hospitalized on November 7 and had operated on 9th. It took a long time from 8:30 am to 4:00 pm.

The Surgery was finished successfully, but after that there was an arrhythmia.

Therefore, my Hospitalization extended longer, and now there is no abnormality as a result of the examination.

From December 11,

I am now back to my normal life.

We are very appreciated for everyone there with the warm-hearted e-mails.

Thank you , Thank you
Thank you all!

Kulick Retains World Bowling Championship Title in Qatar

QATAR — Kelly Kulick of the United States successfully defended her World Bowling Women’s Singles Championship title after defeating Singapore’s Hui Fen New in the final on Friday.

The 39-year-old scored 214 in the match at the Qatar Bowling Centre in Doha, bettering New by 19 points.

In the men’s side of the competition, Danish bowler Jesper Agerbo beat Malaysia’s Rafiq Ismail 256-205 to claim the Championship title.

Kulick claimed victory four years ago in Limassol, Cyprus, and despite having what she admitted before the tournament as a “dry-spell” in terms of winning titles, the American set her sights on retaining the crown.

In the final, she opened up with three consecutive strikes to build a lead.

New stayed in contention throughout the battle, but failing to get a strike in the eighth end saw the crown handed to Kulick once again.

“I honestly feel relieved,” Kulick said after her victory.

“It has been a long time since I’ve been in the winner’s circle, but I wanted to defend my title here and I achieved that goal.

Both semi-finals in the women’s draw were United States versus Singapore showdowns, with New beating Shannon Pluhowsky in the first match.

However, Kulick made saw it was not an all-South East Asian final as she held off the challenge of Shayna Ng.

Agerbo put in a dominant performance in the men’s singles final as six strikes in a row saw him cruise to victory.

Earlier in the day, Agerbo overcame Finland’s Joonas Jahi by 66 points to make the final, while Ismail defeated Michael Mak of Hong Kong 235-224 in the other semi-final.

The next Championships are due to take place in Tokyo, Japan, in 2020.

World Bowling had applied to get the sport included at the Olympic Games in the same country and year, but their bid was rejected.

PBA, PWBA RENEW PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENT FOR 2017

CHICAGO — The Professional Bowlers Association will provide regional competitions and player services, plus live event coverage of the Professional Women’s Bowling Association through Xtra Frame, its online video streaming service, after renewing its strategic partnership agreement with the PWBA.

The PBA plans to conduct seven “women only” PWBA-PBA regional events in 2017 which will be operated by PBA’s regional managers, will complement the PWBA Tour schedule to provide more competitive opportunities for women bowlers.

“The PBA is committed to helping build a strong tour and providing regional events for women bowlers,” PBA Tour CEO and Commissioner Tom Clark said. “We’re excited to continue showcasing these talented bowlers on Xtra Frame, and we’re looking forward to another great season.”

The PWBA will utilize Xtra Frame to provide PWBA fans with exclusive live coverage of the tour starting with the 2017 PWBA Sonoma County Open, which kicks off the season April 27-29.

“The PBA-PWBA partnership is a great example of the bowling industry working together to build a future for the sport,” United States Bowling Congress Executive Director Chad Murphy said. “The partnership not only provides great opportunities for today’s women bowlers, it also gives youth and collegiate bowlers an aspirational goal.”

The PBA will continue to provide player services, equipment transportation and a mobile pro shop for PWBA Tour members during the season.

The agreement provides PWBA members the eligibility to bowl in all PBA events. In 2016, PWBA members earned points in regional competitions, culminating with the PBA-PWBA Women’s Regional Challenge event that kicked off the GEICO PBA World Series of Bowling VIII in late November. Missy Parkin of Laguna Hills, Calif., representing the PBA West Region, defeated Ashly Galante of Palm Harbor, Fla., representing the PBA South Region, 267-188, to capture the title.

Missy Parkin

“The services the PBA provides, such as transport and mobile pro shop, are important elements in operating a professional tour, and we appreciate the PBA’s collaboration,” Bowling Proprietors’ Association of America Executive Director Frank DeSocio said. “Along with the regional events that will allow more players to develop their skills, these are all essential parts of building a strong and successful PWBA Tour.”

Go to XtraFrame.tv to learn more about how to subscribe to Xtra Frame and PBA.com for information on the PBA Regional program.

● KING PIN LANES new manager BERNIE KNOTT was pictured on page 5. KING PIN was a hard house to sell to bowlers. It was not inviting and centered in a concrete location.

● CONNIE MARCHIONE was Secretary of the DEAF BOWLERS ASSOCIATION. He still runs a deaf league — PLUS writes for the Bowling News in 2016.

● 22 year old BOB KNIPPLE averaged 205 to win L.A. MATCH GAME crown.

● DONNA ZIMMERMAN and BOB RAMIREZ were named So. Calif. Bowlers of the Year by the writers.

● Imagine! Bowling centers actually ran ads to attract league bowlers, tournaments, pro shop merchandise and job available. Today the bowling world is a big secret. Is anybody doing anything???

● The Good Year blimp trolled over L.A. with a salute to our sport. “GO BOWLING” was the message to kick off the ’65-66 season.

● BOBBY KNIPPLE was on a rampage. 700’s in 3 different centers in one week. He made headlines for over 40 years and became a Hall of Famer.

● TIM ALBIN served as Daytime League Co-Ordinator at AIRPORT BOWL. Remember your early days, TIM??

● Here’s a team any sponsor would like to buy shirts for. EDDIE JOSEPH’S BOWLING SUPPLY had a championship foursome; EDDIE, MIKE DURBIN, BOB KNIPPLE and JAY ROBINSON!

● The A.B.C. sent out warnings: (a) Go to your league meetings; (b) Be careful about who you elect as officers; (c) Check on your league funds often; (d) Your vote counts, so vote. Make sure you are sanctioned. These are good rules to follow 60 years later. Especially (a)!

● The Western Columbia Pro Shop in San Gabriel was advertised as “Drillers for the Stars”. They soon became “ball headquarters” for California. Their balls were made in Texas but Western had thousands in their huge warehouse. Drilling?? The BEST DRILLERS WORKED THERE. If you gave them a bad check it was taped on the window for everyone to see! (I used that gimmick in five centers.)

● FOR SALE: SANTA FE BOWLING CENTER in LONG BEACH, immediately!

● ART GODDARD took over the reigns at ARCADIA BOWL and started his first weekend doubles which he became famous for.

● MIKE FESSLER allowed himself to be hypnotized into bowling a 300 game! Oh Sure! Anyway, he started on a ten game striking spree. He pounded the pocket time after time, always dead in the strike zone. He left ONLY single 10 pins and single 7 pins. What did the experiment prove?? What is your opinion???? I don’t think its ever been tried again.

● A special section each week was “Sweepstakes Results”, which reported the cashers in advertized tournaments. In the November 12 issue, 22 different centers had their pay-offs printed. Imagine 22 plus tournaments (sweeps) were held in So. California every weekend. That did not include tournaments that ran more than 4 weeks. Or State action, or national action, or clubs, or pot games, or T.V. clashes, or Blue Chip, or Green Stamps, or league sweeps.

● Who had the biggest “Bee Hive” hairdo? NANCY GILLUM, BOBBE NORTH or CONNIE PICK?

● TERI GUMINA was President of the San Gabriel Valley W.B.A. VIRGINIA PORTER was Secretary. Talk about a tight ship! But a well run fleet of women in their crew. 23,000 women bowlers in 24 centers. Another 19,000 men that was led by ED HARNETT.

● A gal named Jo Jay was pictured after she picked up the 7-10 split at CIVIC LANES. Why? Because she had only 2 lessons before the surprise spare. She actually didn’t know why it was a big deal. Oh Hum!

● HAPPY HOLIDAY — More Tidbits of 1966 Coming Soon. Were You There?

TO THE EDITOR

I think the Gregory Bowl refers to a place in Crestline. In the early '50's our family rented a cabin near Crestline and one day we went there. It was small, maybe 4 lanes. Bowled for the 1st time there, hit a 111 game. That was over 60 years ago, so give me some slack on the details. Hope this helps, please let me know. Hope you and your staff have a great Christmas & New Years.

I think Gregory Lanes was in Crestline Where Lake Gregory is.

player match to open the telecast, where he had a more difficult time. In the elimination match, the two players with the highest scores advanced to the championship match. Tang, in his ESPN-television debut, doubled in the 10th frame for a 237 to lead the four finalists.

Wolfe also doubled in the 10th frame, but fired a rocket shot down the middle of the lane for a seven-count fill ball to finish with 223. That almost opened the door for 19-year-old Anthony Simonsen of Austin, Texas, who then needed three strikes in his 10th frame to force a roll-off with Wolfe. Simonsen got the first strike, but missed on his second to finish with a 210. Also eliminated was 28-year-old B.J. Moore III of Greensburg, Pa., who posted a 192 in his ESPN debut in singles competition. “Over the past few years, Belmo (Australian two-handed star and three-time PBA Player of the Year Jason Belmonte) and some of the other young guys have made winning look easy,” Wolfe said. “Bowling a first-timer on TV helped, I think. They look at it differently, like I did when I was their age.

“Darren bowled amazingly for his first show, but you just have to use your experience to make good shots. When the little guys (like me) can sneak one out, it’s special.”

The PBA’s World Series animal pattern championships continue with a busy holiday weekend on ESPN including the finals of the Chameleon Championship presented by HotelPlanner.com on Saturday at 10 a.m. followed by a Christmas Day doubleheader – the Scorpion Championship presented by Reno Tahoe USA and the Shark Championship – at 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m., respectively. In all three events, a PBA veteran will take on a field of youthful challengers.

For fans who may have missed ESPN’s live coverage of the PBA World Championship on Dec. 11, ESPN will present an encore telecast of the PBA’s final major championship of 2016 on New Year’s Day at 10 a.m. bowled by himself on Lane 30, showcasing his wicked curve. He rolled ball after ball for 13 hours, 10 minutes, without taking a break to eat.

He played no-tap, a game in which a bowler is awarded a strike if at least nine pins are knocked down on the first shot.

Kolski blistered a 284 in his ninth game – bowling 10 strikes at the start. He scored at least 200 in six of his first 10 games.

He slowed a bit thereafter but still blasted a 261 in his 15th game, a 233 in his 30th game, a 242 in his 39th game, a 253 in his 67th game, a 250 in his 83rd game and a 252 in his 98th game. Kolski hung tough to the end, finishing with a 195 in Game 100.

How many bowlers would have even been standing at that point? Veteran bowler Tom Martino was one of many who paid tribute to Kolski’s feat. “He’s relentless in practice so he can perfect his game,” Martino said.

Bowling so many games wasn’t completely foreign to the likeable Kolski. He had previously bowled 85 games in a day.

This time, he wanted to last 100 games so he chose no-tap, where the games go more quickly. Kolski started at 9 a.m. and he threw his last ball after 10 p.m.

Afterwards, he was asked what he learned from the experience. “Mostly about how much endurance it takes to get through them all,” Kolski said. “Once you get to 80, you really feel it. I’m just glad I got through 100 games.”

A year later, his average was spiking and Kolski cited the benefits of that marathon day. “The 100 games gave me a better perspective on what I was doing wrong,” said Kolski, a West Hills resident.

Kolski has ridden the momentum of that 100-game day to the present where he is averaging about 200 in his three leagues – at Winnetka Bowl and Corbin Bowl in Tarzana.

He’s still looking for his first perfect game, but he’s rolled a few 279 games and has crushed 13 no-tap perfect games. He’s also had numerous 700 series.

When Kolski looks back at his 100-game effort, he remembers his marathon effort with fondness. “If not for that, I wouldn’t even be thinking about getting to that [next] level,” he said.

Would he ever consider bowling 100 games again? “Possibly, but I’d probably need a sponsor because I couldn’t afford to bowl 100 games,” he said with a laugh.

Phone Card Drive
www.calbowlingwriters.org

Is there someone in the service currently deployed to areas of conflict that you would like to receive one of the phone cards? Each year, family members tell us how much it means to all of them for their loved ones to be able to make that phone call and touch base—especially with their kids.

Send their address information to lynlymary@surewest.net and the card will be sent directly to them. Pass the word. Phone cards go to all branches of the service and are sent to arrive for Valentine's Day 2017. Our cumulative total is over $73,000 and we have sent approximately 3,750—125 to 300 minute cards to our military.

Use this flyer to promote – A 50/50 in your league or just solicit donations. Send the info to your email buddies. Send money to: CBW Treasurer Tina Martin, 57 Shields Lane, Novato, CA 94947-3877. Make checks payable to CBW. Deadline for donations is December 31, 2016. Join in helping us make a difference.

“To California Bowling Writers:
Thanks so much for providing the calling cards that make it possible to communicate with my husband while he is deployed in Kuwait. Our twins just celebrated their first birthday a week ago and although daddy was miles and miles away, his voice during the call created a very cherished and memorable moment! God Bless you on your continued efforts to keep our families connected.”

(Notes like this make our efforts all worthwhile.)

We will always need our military to keep us safe here and abroad and providing something like a phone card allowing them to keep in touch with their loved ones is a small gesture on our part and a huge thing in helping them connect with home.

DONATE in Honor, in Memory, in Support of our men and women in uniform.

We send cards through the YMCA at 29 Palms Marine and Naval base but if you will provide an address we will see that the card is sent directly to your designated military person serving overseas.

Happy Holidays

THIRD ROUND OF THE BRUNSWICK INVITATIONAL GETS UNDERWAY

J.A.T. IS THE ONLY TEAM TO GO 5-0 — KEVIN GAGNON LEADS THE FIELD WITH 252/705

by Mike Cammarata

DOWNEY — The third round of the Brunswick Invitational has begun. Two teams, Parkins Bowling Supply and Western Pacific Bowling Supply, have clinched their spot in the playoffs, and the other 18 teams started from square one again on Monday night.

The first pair of lanes for the night was a battle between Western Pacific Bowling Supply and Herzog Insurance. They are the top two teams for total wins through two rounds. Herzog had several people out of town, and bowled the match with three subs. It didn't slow them down though, as they took four out of five games. Kevin Gagnon led the league with his 231-252-222/705 series, and had plenty of help from Danny Ly, 214-247-215/676. Raul Rosales had a 240/655 for Western Pacific.

Parkin's Bowling Supply took four out of five from Linder's Insurance on the second pair. Scott Poddig led the way with 256/604 for the Parkin's group. Ray Minter pitched in a 217/588 as well.

In a battle between two bowling centers, Keystone Lanes took four out of five from Bowlum. Eddie Van Daniker led the pair for Keystone, shooting 238/563. Ramiro Garcia shot 560 for Keystone in defeat.

Forest Lanes took four out of five from Sysco on the next pair. Mike Nakunz came in to sub for Forest Lanes and led Forest with 228/604. Gabriel Martinez shot 215-254/661 for Sysco, but it only helped them win one game.

The fifth pair of the night, was another four to one match, with DV8 gaining the advantage. Smirnoff took the first game from DV8, but DV8 won the next two and total pins. Jeff Carr led the pair, with 228/637 for DV8. Harry Wong added a 234/586 for Smirnoff, helping them to their one win.

Cal Bowl squared up against Erickson's Food Supply and took 4 ½ games from them. The two teams tied in the final game, shooting matching 776's. Cal Bowl took the first two though, giving them the match. Carl Lebayan finished the set with a 277 for Cal Bowl, giving him a 622 series. Mikey Villarreal led the pair, shooting 236-223/652 for Erickson's, but it simply wasn't enough.

Century 21—My Real Estate dropped the first game to Los Altos Trophy, then roared back to take the next two games and totals, for a 4 to 1 victory. Joe Jimenez, of Century 21, led the pair with 222-235/651.

J.A.T. got off to a great start for the round, sweeping all five games from the Professional Approach. Anthony Santos shot 600 to lead the J.A.T. team. Katrina Fujikami and Larry Campbell were both right behind him with matching 593's. Juan Zavala had a 246/601 for the Pro Approach team.

Threadworks and G.J.C. Janitorial held consistent with most other matches, going four to one, with Threadworks getting the four wins. Eric Snow paced Threadworks with 233/608, and Butch Jackson was right behind with 212/598. Kevin Jones topped G.J.C. with 224/626 in defeat.

Crown Royal took continued the theme of the night, taking four games from Gym W.R.A.T.T. Fitness. Dave Schiada led the pair for Crown Royal, shooting 548.

Kevin Gagnon won the first two sidepots for the night, shooting 231 and 252. The 252 game took the super pot for $189. The 3rd sidepot was won by Eddie Van Daniker, with 238.

Carl Lebayan took home $200 for winning the Financial Advisors Pot with his 277 game. Gabriel Martinez got runner up money of $100 for his 254.

So in all, there were ten matches, and eight of them ended up at 4-1. The only clean sweep went to J.A.T., so they'll lead the pack when we return from a holiday break on January 2nd. The good news for J.A.T. is that they're in front. The bad news is that there are nine hungry teams within one game of them.

It's sure to be an exciting round, so enjoy your holidays, and then come down to catch the action at Del Rio Lanes on Monday nights at 8:30.

THE PHYSICS OF WINNING.

The new Quantum Forest Green Solid and Quantum Fire Pearl feature the return of single density cores along with thicker shells using 3.5 times more coverstock. This improves durability, increases performance longevity, and creates more hitting power! Through the use of controlled dynamic integrity, the core shapes for each weight have unique designs in order to control the core dynamics and the resulting hook potential in the 14, 15, and 16 pound balls.
