Villarreal Leads Donkee In Lefty 1-2 Finish at Keystone Lanes in Norwalk

NORWALK — Mr. Villarreal has had an amazing run that likely won't be repeated.

He has had a runner up and a win from both hands in the past 4 events entered.

Mikey has been bowling just over 4 years and enjoys it very much, he has already posted personal highs of a 300 game and 826 series.

When he's not bowling, Mikey works for Time Warner as a Communications installer for the past 2 years.

Mikey is engaged to the lovely Elizabeth Anderson. Mikey would like to thank Ramon Torrez (located inside Carter Lanes) for drilling his 13LB Rogue Cell he was throwing today. Lastly Mikey would like to thank the Donkee Staffers as well. Best Wishes for everyone.

The Donkee Tour would like to thank Mary Lou and the rest of the team at Keystone for their hospitality and hosting this weeks event.

A special thanks to Professional Approach for generously donating a Smash ball for our event.

Our Mystery game and series were paid out in their entirety.

Winners were Bert Strain, Barbara Burgess, Ralph Maez for Games of 150, 163, 224, each receiving $500. 605 series was pulled and this feat was accomplished twice.

Both incidentally by Sherman Joseph who amazingly shot the same score twice. So he picked up $250.

After 8 more games of round robin match play which saw Mason challenge for the top spot a couple different times, DeVaney was crowned the winner with a match play record of 4-4 and an average

Mike DeVaney

PCB is also pleased to announce the signing of our two new sponsors Dexter Shoes and Threadworks Inc. We had 4 more members join to bring the total membership through 3 events to 39.

Join us for our next event on January 17th at Valencia Lanes, with $500 added money from PDS Courier.

Smith, Dyer & Gannon Win Year End Final SST Kenny Morris Shoots 300

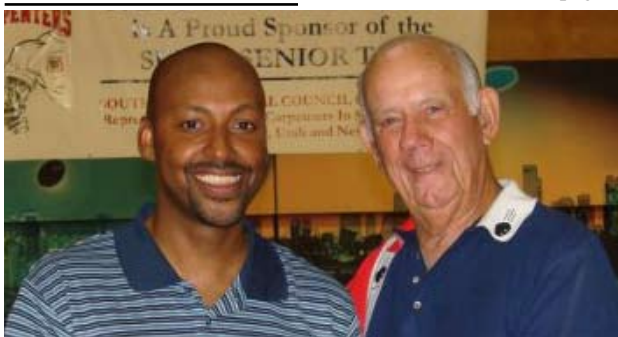

LAKE ELSINORE — We would like to thank Mr. Del Anderson Bowling Manager, and his staff for making a great tournament at Trevi Lanes. Regardless of what our problem was, or our need, Del or staff was right there to keep this tournament moving along smoothly. Our thanks to all of them and to Ellie for a great lunch.

In the Junior Division, Steve Smith averaged 234 and went wire to wire for the victory.

Mark Dyer led the Seniors, qualifying by only 11 pins. He averaged 233 in the finals but only won 2 games. John Sowell pushed him to the end, but Dyer's final game of 252 was enough to seal the victory.

The Super Senior roll-off was nothing short of war. Kevin Gannon led Kent Whitson ANAHEIM — Merry Christmas to all from the members of the Las Vegas league. Our Monday party at Linbrook Bowl enhanced bowling and five tables were loaded with great food for the annual event. Charlie Williams was super as Santa, handling the gift exchange for those who participated. Jarra Gallina was the last to score a strike and get a gift.

Keystone #2 swept three games from opponents to now enjoy 40 wins, followed by Fountain Bowl #2 and Cal Bowl #2, are tied at 36, Valley View #2, 31; Doris' Hair Designs, 30.2; Keystone #3, 30; Cal #1, 29, Cal #3, 28.2, and the rest of the league trails from 25 down to 14.2 wins.

Scoring was led by Kathy Parrish, 224-596, Karen Mauricio 562, Mary Dixon 546, Doris Lewis 204-542, Maxx Paul 530, Aresia McGee 519, Nancy Soto 518, Jamie Vallier 513, Vi Wilson 510, Cyndie Martin 509, Dynasty Williams 508 and Melba Knight 500.

Sue McGill ran a $3 optional Strike Pot Monday, with the first one being over $100 due to a carry and Dynasty Williams won it.

Special visitors Monday were Melody Petty and Erna Palmer. This was Erna's first visit to the league this year and we thank her son for bringing her to see us. Erna and her daughters will be going to Vegas in March and we are delighted. Although she can't bowl any more, she still treasures the many friends she has and the Vegas trip is a special reunion time for her with the gang. NEXT WEEK: Monday 10 a.m. December 28 at Cal.

by 19 pins after the 10 game qualifying. The battle of the lefties was on, one throwing the ball with one hand the other throwing the ball with two hands.

They met in the first match with Gannon winning 226 to 225. After game 2 Whitson was leading by 1 pin. Game 3 saw Gannon retake the lead by 49 pins. After game 4 it was Whitson by 9 pins. Game 5 had Gannon back on top by 1 pin. After game 6 it was Whitson again by 8 pins. Game 7 it was Gannon again by 1 pin, and position round. It was back to the same pair they started on where Gannon had won by 1 pin.

It was a pressure packed game with the lead going back and forth. Finally it was Whitson on the bench with a 235 game and Gannon up needing 28 pins to tie Gannon as always calm and cool threw three in the pocket for a 237 to 235 win and the title. While this great battle was going on the crowd was quietly rooting for Pat Kinard who had moved up to fifth place winning 3 straight matches before severely hurting his elbow. It was obvious he was in great pain. Anyone else would have quit, but not a competitor like Pat, he finished the tournament bowling right handed. Great effort Pat. Get better soon.

The SST had a great year thanks to our sponsors Brunswick Corp. the Southwest Carpenters Union and our great members. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Citrus Belt Juniors Jacob Camacho & Tanner Long Win JBT

by Frank Weiler
SAN DIEGO—JACOB CAMACHO and TANNER LONG, fourteen year old bowlers from Cal Oaks Bowl, won the December Junior Bowlers Tour (JBT) Doubles Tourney at Premier Lanes in San Diego.

After two rounds of qualifying, the Murietta juniors were a plus 105 pins, earning a second seed into the finals. Two match game wins led to the title.

The Tourney was bowled on the PBA Scorpion oil pattern and was the second JBT title for Jacob and Tanner. Jacob used Columbia Action Pack and Ebonite Clash bowling balls. Tanner used an Ebonite Pin Slasher.

The boys would like to thank NEIL WRIGHT, ED MANSFIELD, SCOTT KRAYE, and MR. and MRS. CAMACHO for contributing to their success. They also expressed gratitude to the BOWLING NEWS for supporting Citrus Belt junior bowlers.

Stogryn 278/961, Abakumoff 911 In Deaf Travel At Del Rio

DOWNEY — For the 2nd time in two sessions of the 50th Anniversary So. Calif. Deaf Traveling League, Darrell Stogryn had a misfortune in his 3rd game. In the last session at Linbrook, Stogryn was doing well with 224-223 and hit a big dip with 146 and recovered nicely with a 247. Sunday at this travel league stop at Del Rio Lanes, the two time Deaflympian was going super with 255-268 and hit a major dip with 4 splits, 160. Then he recovered with 7 strikes in a row but was tapped with a 10-pin, spared and struck in the 9th and two more in the 10th before leaving a 10-pin on his fill ball for a 278.

With his 961 series, Stogryn stole the limelight from league superstar Ken DeGroff for the 2nd time to lead the honor roll which included another a 900 by three time Deaflympian Ed Abakumoff and two 800s. Abakumoff was at his travel league best with 245-226-248 (719)-192 for 911.

Superstar DeGroff finds that bowling in a travel league's different centers is tough to maintain a consecutive 700 series. He was coming off this travel league record 1030 in the prior session and saw his consecutive 700 series in this travel league and his two other leagues ended for the 2nd time. At Del Rio, DeGroff struggled with 176-216-225-259 for 889, 11 pins short of 900. The day's other 800 was rolled by Pablo Yoma who closed with a 241 after steady games of 195-193-197 for 826.

Others on the honor roll were Francisco Navarro with 171-202-205-206 for 784, Robert Audette at his best 202/756, Bob Jones 201/736, Connie Marchione 722, Leroy MacMonagle 225/700, Andy Lorenzo 221 and Jeff Stansell 201.

The day was the league's first position round. The leader Beach Cities with Yoma Audette lead the way, won 15-10 from MacMonagle's Mid City, dropping Mid City to 3rd place. Abakumoff's Riverside moved up to 2nd place 25 points behind leader with a 17-8 win over Lorenzo's Quad Cities dropping Quad Cities to 6th place. It was an exciting match between Stogryn and DeGroff although DeGroff's Sunland lost 11-14 to Stogryn's El Camino Village. Sunland moved up to 4th and the Villagers also moved up to 5th. With a 15-10 win by Jones' S.F. Valley over Orange County both teams retained their positions.

This Traveling League thanks Del Rio Lanes G.M. Mike Cammarata for hosting us with excellent lane conditioning and wishes all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Bowling Year. It will resume bowling in the New Year at Keystone Lanes on Sunday, January 10, 2010.

Denver Deaf Bowling Great Fred Schmidt Passes At 88

DENVER — This writer was surprised when told at Del Rio Lanes that Denver deaf bowling great Fred Schmidt passed away last Wednesday, December 16. I was surprised that no one from Denver e-mailed, faxed or told me about Fred's death. I will contact my friends there to get more info about his death to write a story about Fred's bowling in the next issue.

Mini-Eliminator Marathon Entries

LAS VEGAS—The Mini-Eliminator tournaments, which now are two events; a scratch and handicap tournament, both offer "Marathon Entries." If you plan on coming to Las Vegas Super Bowl Weekend (February 3-7) to compete in either Mini the Marathon Entry offers you the best value. In fact, you can save over $1,000 by purchasing a Marathon Entry.

The MiniEliminator scratch event, which is now entering its 16th year, offers a $20,000 top prize and guarantees 1 in 6 bowlers will earn at least $1,000. The value of this package if purchased separately is $1,925 but you can have the Marathon Entry for only $895!

12 X's = 12th 300 For Mr. Rogers
by Roberta McNaught
DOWNEY—E.J. Rogers earned his own Christmas gift this year by shooting a 300 game in the 590 Classic at Linbrook. This will make his 5th 300 ring to add to his collection and makes the 12th perfect that he has rolled. Adding his 300 game to games of 236, 261, and 223 he took over season high series with a whopping 1020. Way to go E.J.
We had 6 bowlers registering in the 900 Club last week. They were: Don Gardner 259/968, Tim Blough 269/931, Dick McKenzie 247/931, Willy Bordenave 256/928, Stacy Rider 259/919, and Christy Asher 279/912.
More great scores were: Tony Chaco 268/890, Hong Kha 256/881, Luis Domian 241/872, Carl Adinolfi 237/856, Larry Green 242/836, Alan Bloom 234/836, Frank Bellinder 276/835, Tom Horton 227/834, Gino Vassallo 224/827, Karen Bagnall 255/824, Rod Cantrell 224/824, John Phillips 223/821, Juan Sandoval 255/818, Jerry Roddam 213/809, John Velasquez 221/ 803, Rose Williams 216/802, Rich Heid 277/801, Frank Trummell 248/801, Fred Voysey 251, Marie Barbush 244, Jim Moore 240, Jerry Knight 236, Kyle Osterman 235, Rob Roberts 228, Al Lara 224, Drew Parkin 223, Jack Wilson 223, Gloria Ferrulli 220, Cheryl Munson 214, A.J. Lombardo 211, Ron Mahler 209, Gavin Huff 207, Ron Douglass 204, Kantral Williams 203, Janet Anderson 201, and Don Gut-Omen 201.
Thanks to everyone who contributed to our Christmas pot-luck. Once again it was a huge success with tables filled with goodies. I don't think anyone went home hungry. I want to wish you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Don't forget the Reason for the Season.
